Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 1, 2017, The Cooper Companies, Inc. (the Company) entered into a five-year, $1.425 billion, senior unsecured term loan agreement by and among the Company, the lenders from time to time party thereto, each of Bank of America, N.A., JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and KeyBank National Association, as a syndication agent, each of Bank of the West, MUFG Union Bank, N.A., PNC Bank, National Association, TD Bank, N.A., U.S. Bank National Association, and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as a documentation agent, each of Citibank, N.A., Citizens Bank, N.A. and Mizuho Bank, Ltd., as a senior managing agent, each of DNB Markets, Inc., KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., MUFG Union Bank, N.A., PNC Capital Markets LLC, U.S. Bank National Association, Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, Bank of the West, Citigroup Global Markets Inc., and TD Bank, N.A., as a joint lead arranger and a joint bookrunner, and DNB Bank ASA, New York Branch (DNB Bank), as administrative agent (the Administrative Agent). The Company used part of the facility to fund all or a portion of the acquisition of the global rights and business of the Paragard Intrauterine Device (IUD) business of Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Limited, and intends to use the remainder of the funds the Company has drawn under the facility to provide working capital and for general corporate purposes.

Amounts outstanding under this term loan agreement will bear interest, at the Company's option, at either the base rate, which is a rate per annum equal to the greatest of (a) DNB Bank's prime rate, (b) one-half of one percent in excess of the federal funds effective rate and (c) one percent in excess of the adjusted LIBO rate for a one-month interest period on such day, or the adjusted LIBO rate, plus, in each case, an applicable rate of, initially, 50 basis points, in respect of base rate loans and 150 basis points, in respect of adjusted LIBO rate loans. Following a specified period after the closing date, the applicable rates will be determined quarterly by reference to a grid based upon the Company's ratio of consolidated net indebtedness to consolidated pro forma EBITDA, as defined in the term loan agreement.

The term loan balance is payable at maturity on November 1, 2022. The new term loan is not subject to amortization and is not subject to mandatory prepayments prior to maturity. The Company may prepay loan balances from time to time, in whole or in part, without premium or penalty (other than any related breakage costs).

The Company's new term loan is not secured by any of its or any of its subsidiaries' assets. All obligations under the new term loan will be guaranteed by each of the Company's existing and future direct and indirect domestic material subsidiaries, as defined in the term loan agreement.

This term loan agreement contains customary restrictive covenants, as well as financial covenants that require the Company to maintain a certain total leverage ratio and interest coverage ratio, each as defined in the agreement. This term loan agreement also contains customary events of default, the occurrence of which would permit the Administrative Agent to declare the principal, accrued interest and other obligations of the Company under the agreement to be immediately due and payable.

The foregoing description of the term loan agreement dated November 1, 2017, set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
