Dear [CUSTOMER / PARTNER NAME],

I am excited to share that we have entered into an agreement to acquire Finisar, a global technology leader in optical communications. This combination would unite two industry leaders with complementary capabilities and compatible cultures as well as long histories of focusing on innovation, breakthrough solutions and competitive follow-through by manufacturing high quality products for our customers. For more information, please read the joint press release we issued [\[INSERT LINK\]](#).

The acquisition of Finisar would be nothing short of transformative for both our companies. Finisar is the world's leading supplier of optical communication products. For three decades, Finisar has led the industry in creating and delivering break-through optics technology and world-class products that improve the way we communicate. After the closing of the transaction, we will leverage a broad, combined base of technology and intellectual property spanning engineered materials, compound semiconductors and silicon photonics, serving customers with one of the most complete portfolios of optical solutions for networks available in the industry.

While we are excited about the transaction and opportunities it will create, today's announcement is just the first step. We expect the transaction to close in the middle of calendar year 2019, subject to approval by each company's shareholders and other customary closing conditions. Until then, II-VI and Finisar will continue to be separate organizations and our conduct will remain business as usual. In the interim, your point of contact will remain the same, all contracts will continue in the normal course and there will be no changes in how we work with you. You can expect to continue to experience the same quality products, services and support that you have come to rely on from II-VI.

The relationships we build with [customers / partners] like you have been and remain at the center of everything we do. Thank you for your continued business and trust – we look forward to accelerating our mutual success!

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your II-VI Account Manager.

Sincerely,
