ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

On March 1, 2010, the Company's financing agreement with JMJ Financial ("JMJ"), was temporarily suspended due to a chill that had been placed on the Company's $0.0001 par value common stock by The Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation ("DTCC") on or about the week of October 10, 2009. While the chill is in place, The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), a subsidiary of DTCC, is not accepting additional stock deposits into their depository ("CEDE"). The chill does not affect shares deposited into CEDE prior to the week of October 10, 2009. As a result of this temporary suspension by JMJ, the Company is not receiving its regular funding tranche from JMJ until the chill is lifted. Under the terms and conditions of the financing agreement between the Company and JMJ, the Company, whose common stock has been DTC and DWAC eligible since June, 2007, is required to maintain that eligibility during the financing term. The Company has been working with DTCC to resolve this issue since October, 2009 and both DTCC and the Company are diligently working on finding a resolution as soon as possible. If the Company is unable to resolve this issue with the DTCC, this event could have a material adverse effect on the Company.
