Coca-Cola FEMSA reaches an agreement to acquire Companhia Fluminense de Refrigerantes in Brazil

Mexico City, Mexico – June 28, 2013 – Coca-Cola FEMSA, S.A.B. de C.V. (BMV: KOFL; NYSE: KOF) (“Coca-Cola FEMSA” or the “Company”), the largest public bottler of Coca-Cola products in the world, announces that it has reached an agreement to acquire 100% of Companhia Fluminense de Refrigerantes (“Companhia Fluminense”) in an all-cash transaction. During the last twelve months ended March 31, 2013, Companhia Fluminense sold 56.6 million unit cases of beverages, including beer, generating approximately US$ 232 million in net revenues.

The agreement has been approved by Coca-Cola FEMSA’s Board of Directors and is subject to the approval of the Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica, the Brazilian antitrust authority. Coca-Cola FEMSA will also seek the approval of The Coca-Cola Company on this transaction.

The aggregate Enterprise Value of this transaction is USD$448 million and Companhia Fluminense’s estimated pro forma consolidated EBITDA of the last twelve months ended March 31, 2013 was USD$ 40 million.

“This transaction underscores our commitment to continue focusing on the opportunities that the Latin American Coca-Cola bottling system presents. This acquisition highlights the long-term strategic importance of the Brazilian market for Coca-Cola FEMSA as we believe in the attractive domestic consumption prospects and socio-economic dynamics. This franchise represents an important link between our São Paulo and Minas Gerais footprint, setting the stage for important synergies to be captured from the geographic contiguity of our territories and the reconfiguration of the supply chain of our combined operations. Our growing family of employees will continue to work to capitalize on the opportunities that the beverage industry presents to us in our markets,” said Carlos Salazar Lomelín, Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

“As we maintain our focus on driving the growth of our businesses through our passionate team of employees and managers, we also remain keen and alert to capture strategic opportunities where we can leverage the platform and the capabilities we have developed over time. We congratulate our team on this important transaction and reiterate our belief that the very reason for our existence is to create economic, social, and environmental value for all our stakeholders and for the communities where we operate,” said José Antonio Fernández Carbajal, President of the Board of Directors of Coca-Cola FEMSA.

Companhia Fluminense was founded 64 years ago in the state of Rio de Janeiro, when The Coca-Cola Company granted the first franchise agreement to these territories in 1949. Companhia Fluminense has presence in parts of the states of Minas Gerais, Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo, where it serves 141 cities, including the city of São José dos Campos, one of the most important industrial and research centers in Latin America. This franchise operates 1 bottling facility and 4 distribution centers, with 2,000 employees serving 15,000 clients and 4.5 million consumers.
