Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 12, 2006, Gilead Sciences, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), announced that it had invested $25 million in Corus Pharma, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Corus). On the same date, Gilead also entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Corus, Gryphon Acquisition Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub), and Rodney A. Ferguson, Ph.D., as Chairman of and on behalf of the Stockholder Representative Committee. Under the Merger Agreement, the Company received an exclusive option to purchase the remaining shares of Corus based on a formula set forth in the Merger Agreement (the Purchase Option).

On July 19, 2006, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics, formerly known as Chiron Corporation (Novartis VAD). The settlement was entered into with respect to a lawsuit that was initiated by the filing of a complaint by Chiron Corporation against Corus and two officers of Corus in the King County Superior Court in Washington. The complaint alleged trade secret misappropriation and other related claims in connection with Corus' product candidate Cayston (aztreonam lysine for inhalation). The settlement agreement contains customary mutual releases, and the terms of the settlement also require, among other things, that the Company pay Novartis VAD a lump-sum payment and exercise the Purchase Option at the earliest time permitted under the Merger Agreement (which will be not later than August 2, 2006).

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into Corus (the Merger), with Corus surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Under the Merger Agreement, the Company would acquire at the completion of the Merger all of the outstanding equity securities of Corus in exchange for total merger consideration valued at $365 million, subject to certain adjustments, including holdbacks to cover indemnification claims set forth in the Merger Agreement. The portion of the merger consideration payable to Corus stockholders will be paid in cash; the Company will pay the remainder of the merger consideration through the conversion of outstanding Corus options into options to acquire common stock of the Company.

The transaction has been approved by the boards of directors of the Company and Corus as well as by the stockholders of Corus, and is subject to regulatory approvals and other closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act waiting period.

A copy of the press release relating to the transaction is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report. The press release shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933.
