Top of the Form Item 8.01 Other Events.

The previously disclosed internal investigation of the use of Panalpina, Inc. and other customs brokers by Transocean Inc. (the "Company") in Nigeria has now been expanded to include one of the Company's agents for Nigeria. The investigation will be conducted by outside counsel who will report directly to the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. The investigation will focus on whether the customs brokers and agent have fully complied with the terms of their respective agreements, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and local laws. The Company is preparing an investigative plan to present to the U.S. Department of Justice and has informed the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission of the ongoing investigation. The Company cannot predict at this time the ultimate outcome of the investigation or the effect of implementing any further measures that may be necessary to ensure full compliance with applicable laws.

The statements made herein that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such statements are subject to numerous risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including but not limited to, the outcome of the investigation and other factors discussed in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and in the Company's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), which are available free of charge on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement, and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.
