Item 2.04 Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

On July 11, 2008 a repurchase agreement lender that is an affiliate of Arco Capital Corporation Ltd., declared an event of default to have occurred in respect of alleged failures by the Company and its affiliates to deliver additional purchased securities or cash necessary to fulfill its obligations under a master repurchase agreement substantially in the form of the September 1996 version of that agreement published by The Bond Market Association. As a result, the repurchase date for reverse repurchase transactions by the Company and its affiliates having an aggregate repurchase price of approximately $182.6 million, calculated as of July 11, 2008, were deemed by that repurchase agreement lender to have occurred, and that repurchase agreement lender demanded immediate payment by the Company of that aggregate repurchase price.

On July 11, 2008, an event of default was declared under the Amended and Restated Credit agreement dated September 26, 2007 as amended. As a result of the declaration of the event of default, the lender declared the commitment under the credit agreement to be terminated and reduced to zero and declared the amount outstanding of $29.9 million under the agreement to be immediately due and payable including accrued interest thereon.

In addition, this event of default declared under the master repurchase agreement described above caused a default to occur under the indenture relating to $90 million of the Company's 8.125% Convertible Senior Notes due 2027, in respect of which those notes may be declared to be immediately due and payable.

Due to defaults on senior securities the company is contractually prohibited from making interest payments on $92.8 million of junior subordinated notes.

On July 11, 2008, an event of default was declared under a Promissory Note agreement dated May 15, 2008. As a result of the declaration of the event of default, the lender declared the amount outstanding of $13.0 million under the agreement to be immediately due and payable including accrued interest thereon.

Item 8.01 Other Events.
