Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

In connection with the Merger Agreement, as defined below, on March 26, 2019, Carbonite, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a credit agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) with Barclays Bank PLC, as administrative agent and certain other lenders, which provides a term loan facility of $550.0 million and a revolving credit facility of $130.0 million, including a $15.0 million sub-limit for letters of credit. The Credit Agreement permits the Company to obtain incremental term loans and incremental revolving commitments of up to $150.0 million plus an additional unlimited amount so long as the Company does not exceed a specified pro forma secured net leverage ratio, in either case provided the existing or additional lenders are willing to provide such additional term loans or increased revolving commitments and subject to other terms and conditions. The revolving facility under the Credit Agreement matures 91 days prior to the maturity of the Company’s outstanding convertible notes, unless such convertible notes have been redeemed or discharged prior to such date on the terms set forth in the Credit Agreement, in which case the revolving facility matures on March 26, 2024. The term loans under the Credit Agreement mature 91 days prior to the maturity of the Company’s outstanding convertible notes, unless such convertible notes have been redeemed or discharged prior to such date on the terms set forth in the Credit Agreement, in which case the term loans mature on March 26, 2026. The facilities under the Credit Agreement are secured by substantially all of the Company’s assets and contain customary affirmative and negative covenants, including, among others, certain limitations on the incurrence of indebtedness, guarantees and liens, the making of investments, acquisitions and dispositions, the payment of dividends and the repurchase of capital stock and the repayment, redemption or amendment of subordinated debt. The above description of the Credit Agreement is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

Immediately prior to the Closing, the parties amended the Merger Agreement to make a technical correction to certain calculations. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, on the Closing Date, Merger Sub merged with and into Webroot, with Webroot surviving as a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the “Merger”).

At the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Series A Shares”), and each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (together with the Series A Shares, the “Shares”) of Webroot (other than the Shares (i) held in treasury by Webroot or owned by any direct or indirect subsidiary of Webroot or (ii) held by stockholders who did not vote in favor of the Merger, consented thereto in writing or otherwise contractually waived or agreed to refrain from exercising their rights to appraisal and who have demanded properly in writing appraisal for such shares in accordance with Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware) was converted into the right to receive a portion of the aggregate cash consideration payable in respect of the Merger, consisting of $618.5 million, to be adjusted with respect to cash, debt, unpaid transaction fees and expenses and working capital.

The above description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
