American Apparel, Inc. (the "Company") needs additional time to finalize its consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2008 and will not meet the prescribed filing date of May 12, 2008.

The Company has devoted significant accounting, financial and operating resources to its transition from a private to public company following the Merger (as defined below) on December 12, 2007. The Company currently operates in 14 foreign countries and is in the process of further developing the appropriate financial disclosure controls necessary to report on a timely manner. As a consequence, the Company, despite its best efforts, was unable to complete its preparation and review of the quarterly report for the period ended March 31, 2008.

Accordingly, the Company was unable, without unreasonable effort and expense to timely file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008. The Company is working diligently to finalize its Form 10-Q and expects to file it no later than the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

The Company was incorporated in Delaware on July 22, 2005 as Endeavor Acquisition Corp., a blank check company formed to effect a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination with an operating business. On December 21, 2005, the Company consummated its initial public offering, and on December 18, 2006, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization with American Apparel, Inc., a California corporation ("Old American Apparel"), and its affiliated companies. On November 6, 2007, the Company entered into an amended Acquisition Agreement (the "Amended Agreement") with Old American Apparel whereby Old American Apparel and its affiliated companies became wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company. The Company consummated the acquisition of Old American Apparel and its affiliated companies on December 12, 2007 (the "Merger") and changed its name to American Apparel, Inc. Pursuant to the Merger, Old American Apparel merged with and into AAI Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. AAI Acquisition LLC survived the acquisition as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and changed its name to American Apparel (USA), LLC.

The Merger was accounted for under the purchase method of accounting as a reverse acquisition. Accordingly, for accounting and financial reporting purposes, the Company was treated as the acquired company, and Old American Apparel was treated as the acquiring company, and, consequently, the Merger is treated as a recapitalization of Old American Apparel. As a consequence, the assets and liabilities and the historical operations that will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2008 are those of Old American Apparel and are recorded at the historical cost basis of American Apparel. The Company's assets and liabilities are consolidated as of December 12, 2007 and are recorded at their net tangible book value; the Company's results of operations are consolidated with Old American Apparel commencing December 12, 2007.

The Company's activities with respect to the transition from a private to public company as a result of the merger in December 2007 has increased the Company's expenses. Additionally, while revenues increased during the first quarter compared to the same period in the prior year, the Company will record a reduction in gross margins for its wholesale segment for the quarter ended March 31, 2008. The overall net effect will result in a reduction in the Company's operating results for the quarter ended March 31, 2008 compared to the same period in 2007.
