PROSPECTUS and PROXY STATEMENT
of
QUEPASA CORPORATION

Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on November 9, 2011

This Prospectus and Proxy Statement, which we refer to as the “proxy statement/prospectus,” of Quepasa Corporation, or Quepasa, is being used to solicit proxies on behalf of Quepasa from Quepasa shareholders in connection with a Special Meeting of Shareholders of Quepasa to be held on November 9, 2011, which we refer to as the “Special Meeting.” Quepasa and Insider Guides, Inc., which is doing business as “myYearbook.com” and which we refer to as “myYearbook,” have entered into a merger agreement, which we refer to as the “Merger Agreement”, providing for the acquisition of myYearbook by Quepasa, which we refer to as the “Merger.” Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, myYearbook will be merged with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Quepasa with the Quepasa subsidiary surviving. If the Merger is completed, holders of myYearbook’s common stock, preferred stock, options and warrants will receive an aggregate of $18 million in cash and 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock (subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional shares). Initially, the number of shares which were to be issued to myYearbook’s security holders was to be calculated based on the lesser of (A) $10 per share and (B) the average of (i) $7.5715 and (ii) the average closing price of Quepasa common stock on the 20 trading days ending with the trading day three days prior to the closing of the Merger. On September 15, 2011, Quepasa and myYearbook agreed to amend the Merger Agreement to provide for the payment of $18 million in cash and the issuance of 17 million shares to myYearbook’s security holders (not including cash paid for fractional shares).

At the Special Meeting, shareholders of Quepasa will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

1. To approve the issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger, which includes the issuance of shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger, the issuance of shares that Quepasa intends to issue in a related financing to help fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders and the potential issuance of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of preferred stock we sold in September 2011 (referred to as “Proposal 1” or the “share issuance proposal”);
2. To approve an increase in Quepasa’s authorized common stock from 50 million to 100 million shares (referred to as “Proposal 2” or the “authorized common shares increase proposal”);
3. To approve the reincorporation of Quepasa in the state of Delaware (referred to as “Proposal 3” or the “reincorporation proposal”);

4. To approve an amendment to Quepasa's 2006 Stock Incentive Plan authorizing an additional 2,000,000 shares to be available for grant (referred to as "Proposal 4" or the "Stock Incentive Plan proposal");
5. To approve our name change to Quepasa International Corporation or another similar name (referred to as "Proposal 5" or the "name change proposal"); and
6. To approve any adjournment of the Special Meeting, for any reason, including, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve one or more of the proposals (referred to as "Proposal 6" or the "adjournment proposal").

This proxy statement/prospectus also constitutes the prospectus of Quepasa under the Securities Act of 1933 for the offering of shares of Quepasa common stock to the holders of myYearbook's common stock, preferred stock, options and warrants in connection with the Merger. This prospectus does not cover resales of the Quepasa common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger, and no person is authorized to use this prospectus in connection with any resale.

Quepasa common stock is currently traded on the NYSE Amex under the symbol "QPSA." On October 3, 2011, the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on the NYSE Amex was $2.87 per share. There is no public market for myYearbook's securities.

The obligations of Quepasa and myYearbook to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of several conditions.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains detailed information about Quepasa, myYearbook, the Special Meeting, the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Both the shareholders of Quepasa and the holders of myYearbook's securities are strongly urged to read and consider carefully this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety.

See the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 17 for a discussion of the risks associated with the Merger and related transactions.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the securities to be issued under the proxy statement/prospectus or determined if the proxy statement/prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this proxy statement/prospectus is October[—], 2011

This proxy statement/prospectus and the accompanying form of proxy for Quepasa shareholders are first being mailed or delivered to Quepasa shareholders on or about October[—], 2011.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

October [—], 2011

To the Shareholders of Quepasa Corporation:

I am pleased to invite you to attend the Special Meeting of Shareholders of Quepasa Corporation, a Nevada corporation, or Quepasa, which will be held at Quepasa Corporation, 324 Datura Street, Suite 114, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401 on November 9, 2011 at 11:00 a.m., New York time, and which we refer to as the “Special Meeting.”

Quepasa and Insider Guides, Inc., which is doing business as “myYearbook.com” and which we refer to as “myYearbook,” have entered into a Merger Agreement providing for the acquisition of myYearbook by Quepasa, which we refer to as the “Merger.” Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, myYearbook will be merged with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Quepasa with the Quepasa subsidiary surviving. If the Merger is completed, holders of myYearbook’s common stock, preferred stock, options and warrants will receive an aggregate of $18 million in cash and 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock (not including cash paid for any fractional shares).

Quepasa will be holding the Special Meeting for several reasons. One of those reasons is to obtain the approval of Quepasa shareholders of the issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger, including the issuance of shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger and the issuance of shares that Quepasa intends to issue in a related financing to help fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders and the potential issuances of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of preferred stock we sold in September 2011. Shareholder approval of these share issuances is required by a Rule of the NYSE Amex requiring approval whenever more than 20% of outstanding shares of common stock are issued in a transaction of this type.

Quepasa currently plans to pay the $18 million cash portion of the Merger consideration using a combination of its available cash resources and funds obtained through the proposed sale of newly-issued shares of its common stock and/or preferred stock in a transaction that we refer to as the “related financing.”

Quepasa’s available cash resources that may be used in funding the cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders include $5 million received in a recent sale of $5 million of convertible preferred stock in September 2011, which we refer to as the “Series A Financing.” The shares of convertible preferred stock, which we refer to as the “Series A,” are convertible into shares of Quepasa common stock at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share, provided that, if the Merger closes, the conversion price for the Series A will automatically be adjusted to reflect the lower of: (i) 3.5785 or (ii) the lesser of: (A) 85% of the closing price of Quepasa’s common stock on the closing date of the Merger or (B) 85% of the volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days ending with the date of the closing of the Merger. The sale of the Series A did not, and the issuance of underlying shares at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share will not, require shareholder approval under NYSE Amex Rules because, among other factors, the Series A Financing was not contingent on closing the Merger and neither of the investors in such financing were myYearbook security holders. However, because the issuance of additional shares as a result of any reduction of the conversion price will require shareholder approval under NYSE Amex Rules, we are seeking shareholder approval of this potential issuance of additional shares as part of Proposal 1.

The $5 million raised in the Series A Financing is being applied to satisfy, in part, the $10 million financing condition included in the Merger Agreement. Quepasa has also received a $5 million financing commitment from Mexicans & Americans Trading Together, Inc., who we refer to as “MATT, Inc.,” a large existing Quepasa shareholder. If the Merger closes, MATT, Inc. has committed to purchase $5 million of common stock at a purchase price equal to the lesser of: (a) $4.82 per share of common stock and (b) 85% of the average closing price of a share of common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day immediately prior to the closing of the Merger. In connection with such purchase, MATT, Inc. is also entitled to certain registration rights as set forth in the financing commitment. Under the terms of the financing commitment, MATT, Inc. also has the right to elect to invest the amount of the financing commitment on the same terms as any alternate or additional financing, including the Series A Financing, instead of the terms set forth in the financing commitment. Assuming a sales price per share of $3.5785, Quepasa would (i) issue to MATT, Inc. approximately 1,397,233 shares in connection with the $5 million commitment, which, when combined with the proceeds from the Series A Financing, would mean that the $10 million financing condition to the Merger is met, and (ii) issue 3,632,807 shares in order to raise an additional $13 million (including the $5 million MATT, Inc. financing commitment), which, when combined with the proceeds from the Series A Financing, would cover the full cash portion of the Merger consideration. The $5 million and $13 million financing alternatives described in the preceding sentence are intended solely to illustrate the number of shares that would need to be issued at an assumed sales price; Quepasa may decide to raise any amount between $5 million and $13 million for the cash portion of the Merger consideration. Quepasa estimates that if the MATT, Inc. financing commitment closes, existing Quepasa shareholders (treating Series A on an as-converted basis) would own approximately 53.4% upon completion of the Merger, and if a further $8 million is raised in addition to the MATT, Inc. financing commitment, existing Quepasa shareholders (treating Series A on an as-converted basis) would own approximately 50.3% of the shares of Quepasa common stock outstanding upon completion of the Merger (assuming a related financing sales price of $3.5785). When we refer to the term “related financing” in this proxy statement/prospectus, it includes the financing commitment from MATT, Inc.

We are not asking our shareholders to approve the Merger. In order to have sufficient authorized common stock to complete the Merger and to be able to issue additional shares for a variety of purposes, including in connection with financing transactions, additional acquisitions and compensatory purposes, we are also asking our shareholders in the Special Meeting to approve an increase in our authorized common stock from 50 million shares to 100 million shares. We are again asking our shareholders to approve our reincorporation in Delaware from Nevada where we are now incorporated. We are also asking shareholders to approve an amendment to our 2006 Stock Incentive Plan to increase the shares available for grant under the plan by 2,000,000 shares. Additionally, we are asking shareholders to approve changing our name to Quepasa International Corporation. We are also seeking shareholder approval to adjourn the Special Meeting for any reason, including, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve one or more of the proposals.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of Quepasa shares you own. Whether or not you expect to attend the Special Meeting in person, please submit a proxy to vote your shares as promptly as possible so that your shares may be represented and voted at the Special Meeting.

Our Board of Directors recommended that Quepasa shareholders vote “FOR” the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger, “FOR” the proposal to approve an increase in our authorized common stock, “FOR” the proposal to reincorporate in Delaware, “FOR” the proposal to increase the shares available for grant under the 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, “FOR” the proposal to change our name and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary. All of these proposals are described in further detail in the proxy statement/prospectus.

The obligations of Quepasa and myYearbook to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of several conditions. The proxy statement/prospectus contains detailed information about Quepasa, myYearbook, the Special Meeting, the Merger Agreement and the Merger. You should read the proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety before voting, including the section entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 17.

I sincerely hope that you will be able to attend the Special Meeting. However, whether or not you plan to attend, please complete and return the enclosed proxy in the accompanying envelope or vote your shares by telephone or via the Internet. If you hold your Quepasa shares through your broker or other nominee, please provide voting instructions to your broker or nominee. If you attend the meeting, you may, if you wish, withdraw any proxy previously given and vote your shares in person.

Sincerely,

/s/ John Abbott

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE QUEPASA SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions that you, as a shareholder of Quepasa and/or a security holder of myYearbook, may have regarding the Merger and the Quepasa Special Meeting and brief answers to those questions. We urge you to carefully read the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all the information that might be important to you with respect to the Merger and the Special Meeting. Additional important information is also contained in the Annexes to and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: Quepasa and myYearbook have agreed to the acquisition of myYearbook by Quepasa under the terms of the Merger Agreement (as amended), which is described in further detail under the caption “The Merger Agreement” beginning on page 67 of this proxy statement/prospectus. In order to complete the Merger, Quepasa shareholders must approve the issuance of the shares in connection with the Merger. Quepasa will hold a Special Meeting of its shareholders to seek this approval and the approval of certain additional proposals. These materials describe the Merger, the proposed share issuance and the other proposals and are being sent to Quepasa shareholders as Quepasa’s proxy statement in connection with its Special Meeting.

These materials also constitute Quepasa’s prospectus in connection with its planned issuance of shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger, whereby myYearbook security holders will exchange their myYearbook securities for shares of Quepasa common stock. This document is not a proxy statement or information statement of myYearbook in connection with any matter upon which myYearbook may solicit proxies or consents from its security holders.

This document contains important information about the Merger, the Quepasa Special Meeting, the matters to be considered and voted upon by Quepasa shareholders at the Special Meeting and information about Quepasa and myYearbook. You should read it carefully.

Q: What is the Merger?

A: The Merger is the proposed transaction through which Quepasa and myYearbook will combine the two companies. The Merger will be accomplished under an Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among Quepasa Corporation, IG Acquisition Company, which we refer to as “Merger Sub,” and Insider Guides, Inc. (myYearbook’s formal corporate name) dated July 19, 2011, and Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated September 15, 2011, which we refer to as the “Amendment.” Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, myYearbook will merge with and into IG Acquisition Company, myYearbook’s separate corporate existence will cease, and IG Acquisition Company will survive as the wholly-owned subsidiary of Quepasa. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, and a copy of the Amendment is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A-1

Q: Why are Quepasa and myYearbook proposing the Merger?

A: Quepasa and myYearbook believe that the Merger will make the combined company a market leader in social discovery. myYearbook's and Quepasa's focus on social discovery, social gaming, virtual goods and brand advertising are very similar. Their boards of directors believe that myYearbook's platform for monetization and engagement and Quepasa's growing user base will permit each company to capitalize on the other's business strengths.

Q: What is the value of the Merger consideration?

A: Quepasa will pay $18 million in cash and issue 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock to myYearbook's security holders (not including cash paid for any fractional shares). myYearbook shares of common and preferred stock have no established trading market. The exact value of the Merger Consideration that myYearbook security holders will receive will depend upon the price per share of Quepasa common stock leading up to and just prior to the effective time of the Merger as explained in the next question and answer, which we refer to as the "Transaction Share Price." Quepasa recommends that myYearbook security holders obtain current market quotations for Quepasa common stock.

Table of Contents

Q: What will each myYearbook security holder receive in the Merger?

A. After holders of myYearbook's Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock (including the holders of myYearbook's warrants) receive their liquidation preferences as described below, the remaining Merger consideration, which, on a per share basis, we refer to as the Merger Consideration Share Price, will be paid to the holders of myYearbook's common stock, preferred stock, options and warrants. The Merger Consideration Share Price is calculated by subtracting the liquidation preferences, which total $18,128,910.15, from the Total Merger Consideration and dividing the resulting difference by the total number of myYearbook shares of common stock and preferred stock outstanding (including shares issuable upon exercise of vested options and warrants), treating all outstanding preferred stock on an as-converted-to-common-stock basis. The Total Merger Consideration is the sum of (A) the cash consideration of $18 million plus (B) the Transaction Share Price multiplied by 17 million. The phrase Transaction Share Price means the average closing price of Quepasa's common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day prior to the effective time of the Merger.

Initially, the Transaction Share Price was to be calculated based on the lesser of (A) $10 per share and (B) the average of (i) $7.5715 and (ii) the average closing price of Quepasa common stock on the 20 trading days ending with the trading day three days prior to the closing of the Merger. On September 15, 2011, Quepasa and myYearbook agreed to amend the Merger Agreement to provide for the payment of $18 million in cash and the issuance of 17 million shares to myYearbook's security holders (not including cash paid for fractional shares) at a Transaction Share Price that reflects the average closing price of Quepasa's common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day prior to the effective time of the Merger.

The Merger consideration will be paid partially in cash and partially in Quepasa common stock. Because the holders of vested myYearbook options will receive only shares of Quepasa common stock as Merger consideration, while all other myYearbook security holders will receive their Merger consideration partially in cash and partially in shares of Quepasa common stock, the exact amount of cash and number of shares of Quepasa common stock that each myYearbook security holder (other than holders of vested options) will receive depends on (a) whether any myYearbook options are granted or forfeited or otherwise canceled prior to the effective time of the Merger, (b) the number of options that vest prior to the effective time of the Merger and (c) the number of vested options that are exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger.

If the Merger had been completed on July 20, 2011 (the day after the execution of the Merger Agreement), myYearbook security holders (other than holders of vested options) would have received Total Merger Consideration consisting of $18 million in cash and approximately $120 million in Quepasa common stock. For this purpose, we assume that the Transaction Share Price is $7.0770, representing the average per share closing price of Quepasa common stock during the 20 trading days ending on July 19, 2011. If the Merger were to be completed on November 9, 2011 and assuming that (i) the Transaction Share Price is $4.4840, representing the average per share closing price during the 20 trading days ending on September 15, 2011 (the day the Amendment was executed), (ii) no additional options are granted or forfeited or otherwise canceled, (iii) outstanding options continue to vest in accordance with their respective schedules and (iv) no options are exercised between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and November 9, 2011, myYearbook security holders (other than holders of vested options) would receive Total Merger Consideration consisting of $18 million in cash and approximately $76 million in Quepasa common stock.

If the Merger were to be completed on November 9, 2011, then, making the assumptions listed above, myYearbook security holders would receive the following Merger consideration (paid in cash and shares of Quepasa common stock as described above):

Q: What are Quepasa shareholders being asked to vote upon in connection with the Special Meeting?

A: Quepasa shareholders will be asked to consider and to vote upon six proposals in connection with the Special Meeting:

- To approve the issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger, which includes the issuance of shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger and the issuance of shares that Quepasa intends to issue in the related financing to help fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders;
 - To approve an increase in Quepasa's authorized common stock from 50 million to 100 million shares;
 - To approve the reincorporation of Quepasa in Delaware;

- To approve an amendment to Quepasa's 2006 Stock Incentive Plan authorizing an additional 2,000,000 shares to be available for grant;
 - To approve our name change to Quepasa International Corporation or another similar name; and
- To approve any adjournment of the Special Meeting, including, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal if there are not sufficient votes to approve one or more of the proposals.

No separate approval of the Merger Agreement or Merger by Quepasa shareholders is necessary; Quepasa shareholders are not being asked to vote upon the Merger Agreement or the Merger.

Q: What vote of Quepasa shareholders is required to approve each of the proposals?

A: The table below describes the vote required to approve each of the proposals.

Q: How does the Quepasa board of directors recommend that Quepasa shareholders vote with respect to the Quepasa proposals?

A: The Quepasa board of directors recommends that Quepasa shareholders vote “FOR” each of the Quepasa proposals to be considered and voted upon at the Special Meeting.

Q: Are there any Quepasa shareholders already committed to voting in favor of the proposals?

A: Yes. Pursuant to voting agreements entered into with myYearbook, Quepasa directors, executive officers and certain shareholders have agreed to vote their shares of Quepasa common stock in favor of the share issuance proposal. The shares held by such directors, officers and shareholders collectively represented approximately 11.3% of the outstanding shares of Quepasa common stock as of September 20, 2011. For a more complete description of these voting agreements, see “Voting Agreements; Restrictions on Resales” beginning on page 79 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The forms of voting agreement are also attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B-1A, B-2A and B-3.

Q: What happens if the share issuance proposal is not approved?

A: If the share issuance proposal is not approved, the Merger cannot be completed because Quepasa will not be able to issue shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger, nor will it be able to issue additional shares for cash in the related financing to help fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration.

Table of Contents

Q: What happens if the Delaware reincorporation proposal is not approved?

A: Quepasa will remain a Nevada corporation and subject to Nevada law and its existing articles of incorporation and bylaws will continue to apply. The approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the Merger

Q: What happens if the proposal to amend Quepasa's 2006 Stock Incentive Plan to authorize an additional 2,000,000 shares to be available for grant is not approved?

A: Quepasa will be unable to make additional grants to employees, consultants and directors, which may affect Quepasa's ability to retain and recruit people. The approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the Merger.

Q: What happens if the name change proposal is not approved?

A: Our name will remain Quepasa Corporation.

Q: How will Quepasa pay the cash portion of the Merger consideration?

A: Quepasa currently plans to pay the $18 million cash portion of the Merger consideration using a combination of its available cash resources, including the proceeds obtained from the Series A Financing, and funds obtained through the proposed sale of newly-issued shares of its common stock and/or preferred stock in the related financing.

The Series A are convertible into shares of Quepasa common stock at $3.5785 per share, provided that, if the Merger closes, the conversion price for the Series A will automatically be adjusted to reflect the lower of: (i) $3.5785 or (ii) the lesser of: (A) 85% of the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on the closing date of the Merger or (B) 85% of the volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days ending with the date of the closing of the Merger. The $5 million raised in the Series A Financing is being applied to satisfy, in part, the $10 million financing condition included in the Merger Agreement. Quepasa has furthermore received a $5 million financing commitment from MATT, Inc., a large existing Quepasa shareholder. If the Merger closes, MATT, Inc. has committed to purchase $5 million of common stock at a purchase price equal to the lesser of: (a) $4.82 per share of common stock and (b) 85% of the average closing price of a share of common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day immediately prior to the closing of the Merger. In connection with such purchase, MATT, Inc. is also entitled to certain registration rights as set forth in the financing commitment. Under the terms of the financing commitment, MATT, Inc. also has the right to elect to invest the amount of the financing commitment on the same terms as any alternate or additional financing, including the Series A Financing, instead of the terms set forth in the financing commitment. The investors in the related financing will also receive registration rights, and certain participation rights and first right of refusal rights with respect to any remaining amounts Quepasa will seek to raise in the related financing.

Q: What is required to complete the Merger?

A: Important conditions to the completion of the Merger include:

- Quepasa shareholder approval of the share issuance proposal;
- myYearbook shareholder approval of the Merger; and

- Satisfaction or waiver of all of the other conditions to completion of the Merger. For a description of these conditions, see the section entitled “The Merger Agreement” beginning on page 67.

Q: Could the Quepasa stock price affect the closing of the Merger?

A: No.

Q: When do Quepasa and myYearbook expect to complete the Merger?

A: Quepasa and myYearbook currently expect to complete the Merger on or after November 9, 2011. Completion of the Merger will only be possible, however, after all conditions to the completion of the Merger contained in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived, including Quepasa shareholder approval of the share issuance proposal and myYearbook shareholder approval of the Merger. It is possible that factors outside of either company’s control could require them to complete the Merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

Q: What are the United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, which we refer to as the “Code.” See page 85 for a further description of the material U.S. Federal income tax consequences of the Merger.

Table of Contents

Q: What effect will the Merger have on Quepasa shareholders?

A: Quepasa shareholders will continue to hold the same number of shares of Quepasa common stock after the Merger. The issuance of 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock to myYearbook security holders in connection with the Merger and the issuance of additional shares in the related financing will dilute the ownership of existing Quepasa shareholders.

Under the Merger Agreement, Quepasa is required to raise $10 million to help fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders. Quepasa's available cash resources include $5 million received in the recent Series A Financing, which was completed in September 2011 and was not contingent on closing the Merger. Quepasa expects to satisfy the $10 million financing condition from the proceeds of the Series A Financing and the $5 million MATT, Inc. financing commitment. Assuming a sales price per share of $3.5785, Quepasa would (i) issue to MATT, Inc. approximately 1,397,233 shares in connection with the $5 million commitment, which, when combined with the proceeds from the Series A Financing, would mean that the $10 million financing condition to the Merger is met, and (ii) issue 3,632,807 shares in order to raise an additional $13 million (including the $5 million MATT commitment), which, when combined with the proceeds from the Series A Financing, would cover the full cash portion of the Merger consideration. The $5 million and $13 million financing alternatives described in the preceding sentence are intended solely to illustrate the number of shares that would need to be issued at an assumed sales price; Quepasa may decide to raise any amount between $5 million and $13 million for the cash portion of the Merger consideration. Quepasa estimates that if the MATT, Inc. financing commitment closes, existing Quepasa shareholders (treating Series A on an as-converted basis) would own approximately 53.4% upon completion of the Merger, and if a further $8 million is raised in addition to the MATT, Inc. financing commitment, existing Quepasa shareholders (treating Series A on an as-converted basis) would own approximately 50.3% of the shares of Quepasa common stock outstanding upon completion of the Merger (assuming a related financing sales price of $3.5785). For a discussion of the assumptions relating to these estimates, please see the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Ownership of Quepasa Pre- and Post-Merger" beginning on page 63.

Q: Are there risks that Quepasa shareholders and myYearbook security holders should consider?

A: Yes. You should carefully review the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 17 of this proxy statement/prospectus, which discusses risks and uncertainties related to the Merger, the combined companies and the business and operations of each of Quepasa and myYearbook. In addition, you are encouraged to read Quepasa's publicly filed documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: When and where will the Quepasa Special Meeting take place?

A: The Special Meeting will be held at Quepasa Corporation, 324 Datura Street, Suite 114, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401 on November 9, 2011 at 11:00 a.m., New York time.

Q: Who may attend and vote at the Quepasa Special Meeting?

A: All Quepasa shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 20, 2011 may vote at the Special Meeting. Each Quepasa shareholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Quepasa common stock owned as of that record date.

If your shares of Quepasa common stock are registered directly in your name with the transfer agent, you are the shareholder of record with respect to those shares, and the proxy statement/prospectus and Quepasa proxy card are being sent directly to you. If you are a Quepasa shareholder of record, you may attend the Special Meeting and vote your Quepasa shares in person. However, even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting in person, please sign and return the enclosed Quepasa proxy card or vote your shares by telephone or via the Internet to ensure that your shares will be represented at the Special Meeting if you are unable to attend.

If your shares of Quepasa common stock are held in a brokerage account or by another nominee, then you are considered the beneficial owner of shares that are held in “street name,” and the proxy statement/prospectus is being forwarded to you by your broker or other nominee together with a voting instruction card to for you to return to your broker or other nominee to direct them to vote on your behalf. As the beneficial owner, you are also invited to attend the Special Meeting. However, because a beneficial owner is not the shareholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the Special Meeting unless you obtain a proxy from the broker, trustee or nominee that holds your shares, giving you the right to vote the shares at the Special Meeting.

Q: What do I need to do now? How do I vote?

A: If you are a record holder of Quepasa common stock:

Quepasa shareholders who are record holders of their Quepasa common stock should read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully and then complete and sign the proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope or vote their shares by telephone or via the Internet. This will enable their shares to be represented at the Special Meeting.

A: If your shares of Quepasa common stock are held in “street name” by your broker or other nominee:

Table of Contents

If your shares are held in “street name” in an account at your broker or another nominee, you must instruct the broker or such other nominee as to how to vote your shares by following the instructions that the broker or other nominee provides to you. Brokers usually offer the ability for shareholders to submit voting instructions by mail by completing a voting instruction card, by telephone or over the Internet. If you do not provide instructions to your broker or other nominee, your shares will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker or other nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote. This is called a “broker non-vote.” Except for the name change proposal and the adjournment proposal, brokers will not have discretionary authority to vote on any of the proposals being submitted to a vote of Quepasa shareholders at the Special Meeting.

Q: What happens if I do not return my proxy card or if I abstain from voting?

A: If you fail to send in a proxy card or vote at the Special Meeting or if your shares are held in “street name” and you fail to instruct your broker how to vote your shares, your shares will not be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum, which is required to transact business at the Special Meeting. If you fail to send in your proxy card or fail to instruct your broker how to vote (resulting in a “broker non-vote”), this will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” the proposal to increase in Quepasa’s authorized common stock from 50 million to 100 million shares, the proposal to approve the reincorporation of Quepasa in Delaware and the name change proposal. If you fail to send in your proxy card or fail to instruct your broker how to vote (resulting in a “broker non-vote”), because no vote will have been cast, this will have no effect on the outcome of the share issuance proposal or the proposal to approve an amendment to Quepasa’s 2006 Stock Incentive Plan authorizing an additional 2,000,000 shares to be available for grant. If you fail to send in your proxy card, this will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting to solicit additional proxies, if necessary.

An abstention occurs when a shareholder attends a meeting, either in person or by proxy, but specifically indicates an abstention from voting on one or more of the proposals. If you submit a proxy card or provide proxy instructions to your broker or other nominee and affirmatively elect to abstain from voting, your proxy will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum for the Special Meeting, but will not be voted at the Special Meeting. As a result, your abstention will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” each of the proposals.

If you do not include any instructions on a properly executed proxy or voting instruction card, your shares will be voted “FOR” each of the proposals.

Q: May I revoke or change my vote after I have sent in my proxy card or provide proxy instructions to my broker?

A: Yes. If you are a holder of record of Quepasa shares, you may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Special Meeting by:

- delivering a signed written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of Quepasa at:

324 Datura Street, Suite 114, West Palm Beach, FL 33401, Attention: Corporate Secretary

- signing and delivering a new, valid proxy bearing a later date; or
- attending the Special Meeting and voting in person, although your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy.

If your shares are held in a “street name” you must contact your broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: Do I have dissenters' or appraisal rights in connection with any of the proposals?

A: No. There are no dissenters' rights, appraisal rights or similar rights available to Quepasa shareholders in connection with any of the proposals or the Merger.

Q: Who is paying for Quepasa's proxy solicitation?

A: Quepasa will bear the cost of soliciting proxies for the Special Meeting. Quepasa's directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone and facsimile, by mail, over the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. Quepasa has retained Morrow & Co., LLC to assist it in the solicitation of proxies. Quepasa expects to pay Morrow & Co., LLC a fee of $10,000 for its services plus $6.00 per shareholder contacted. Quepasa also will request that banks, brokerage firms, custodians, trustees, nominees, fiduciaries and other similar record holders forward the solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of common stock held of record by such person, and Quepasa will, upon request of such record holders, reimburse forwarding charges and out-of-pocket expenses.

Table of Contents

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials for the Special Meeting?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials for the Special Meeting, including multiple copies of this proxy statement/prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a holder of record of Quepasa common stock and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive.

Q: Whom should I contact if I have any questions?

A: Please contact: Mr. Michael Matte, Quepasa's Corporate Secretary at (561) 650-8075.

Merger Consideration (see page 68)

In the Merger, Quepasa will pay $18 million in cash and issue 17 million of shares of Quepasa common stock to myYearbook's security holders (not including cash paid for any fractional shares). The exact value of the Merger consideration that myYearbook security holders receive will depend upon the price per share of Quepasa common stock leading up to and just prior to the effective time of the Merger.

Financing of the Merger (see page 62)

The cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders is $18 million. The Merger Agreement requires Quepasa to complete a financing of at least $10 million in order to fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration as a condition to closing the Merger.

The Series A are convertible into shares of Quepasa common stock at $3.5785 per share, provided that, if the Merger closes, the conversion price for the Series A will automatically be adjusted to reflect the lower of: (i) $3.5785 or (ii) the lesser of: (A) 85% of the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on the closing date of the Merger or (B) 85% of the volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days ending with the date of the closing of the Merger. The $5 million raised in the Series A Financing is being applied to satisfy, in part, the $10 million financing condition included in the Merger Agreement. Quepasa has furthermore received a $5 million financing commitment from MATT, Inc., a large existing Quepasa shareholder. If the Merger closes, MATT, Inc. has committed to purchase $5 million of common stock at a purchase price equal to the lesser of: (a) $4.82 per share of common stock and (b) 85% of the average closing price of a share of common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day immediately prior to the closing of the Merger. In connection with such purchase, MATT, Inc. is also entitled to certain registration rights as set forth in the financing commitment. Under the terms of the financing commitment, MATT, Inc. also has the right to elect to invest the amount of the financing commitment on the same terms as any alternate or additional financing, including the Series A Financing, instead of the terms set forth in the financing commitment. The investors in the related financing will also receive registration rights, and certain participation rights and first right of refusal rights with respect to any remaining amounts Quepasa will seek to raise in the related financing.

Special Meeting of Quepasa Shareholders

The Special Meeting of Quepasa shareholders will be held on November 9, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. New York time at the corporate headquarters of Quepasa. All Quepasa shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 20, 2011 may vote at the Special Meeting. Each Quepasa shareholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Quepasa common stock owned as of that record date.

Table of Contents

At the Special Meeting, Quepasa shareholders will be asked to consider and to vote upon six proposals:

- to approve the issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger, which includes the issuance of shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger, the issuance of shares that Quepasa intends to issue in the related financing to help fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders and the potential issuance of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of preferred stock we sold in September 2011 (referred to as “Proposal 1” or the “share issuance proposal”);
- to approve an increase in Quepasa’s authorized common stock from 50 million to 100 million shares (referred to as “Proposal 2” or the “authorized common shares increase proposal”);
- to approve the reincorporation of Quepasa in Delaware (referred to as “Proposal 3” or the “reincorporation proposal”);
- to approve an amendment to Quepasa’s 2006 Stock Incentive Plan authorizing an additional 2,000,000 shares to be available for grant (referred to as “Proposal 4” or the “Stock Incentive Plan proposal”);
- To approve our name change to Quepasa International Corporation or another similar name (referred to as "Proposal 5" or the “name change proposal”); and
- to approve any adjournment of the Special Meeting, for any reason, including, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the share issuance proposal if there are not sufficient votes to approve one or more of the proposals (referred to as “Proposal 6” or the “Adjournment Proposal”).

No separate approval of the Merger Agreement or Merger by Quepasa shareholders is necessary; Quepasa shareholders are not being asked to vote upon the Merger Agreement or the Merger.

Reasons for entering into the Merger (see page 57)

In evaluating the Merger, including the issuance of the shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger and the related financing, the Quepasa Board of Directors, which we refer to as the “Board,” consulted with Quepasa management, and, in reaching its decision to recommend the issuance of shares of our common stock in connection with the Merger, the Quepasa Board considered a number of factors including myYearbook’s focus on social discovery, its growing numbers of United States members, its mobile phone applications and its retention and monetization expertise. The Board also relied on the updated opinion of Raymond James & Associates, Inc., dated September 15, 2011. See “Opinion of Quepasa Corporation’s Financial Advisor” beginning on page 80 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The myYearbook board of directors believes that the merger of Quepasa and myYearbook will provide the combined company with the opportunity to be a market leader in social discovery. The combination of the two companies is expected to provide myYearbook greater growth prospects and higher shareholder value than if myYearbook continued to operate alone. The myYearbook board of directors believes that by more than doubling the number of registered users, entering international markets, and increasing the size of the development team, the combined entity can build a global brand for social discovery.

As described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, the conditions to the closing of the Merger initially included a condition that the closing price of a share of Quepasa common stock on the day three days prior to the closing of the Merger not be less than $5.00 and a condition that the Transaction Share Price not be less than $5.00. Beginning in mid-August, the trading price of Quepasa's common stock regularly was less than $5.00. In view of the possibility that the two $5 price conditions might not be met if the stock continued to trade at that level and the uncertainty this could create among the parties' stakeholders, the parties began to discuss alternatives that would allow the Merger to proceed without regard to the trading price. As part of these discussions, myYearbook indicated a willingness to amend or eliminate the $5.00 price conditions, but expressed concern regarding the potential downside risk to its security holders if the $5.00 price conditions were eliminated. The parties agreed that amending the Agreement to provide for a fixed number of Quepasa shares to be issued to myYearbook security holders would address myYearbook's concern regarding the downside risk and provide myYearbook security holders with potential benefits if Quepasa's share price improved prior to closing, while fixing the number of shares would also address Quepasa's desire to have certainty as to the maximum number of shares it would be required to issue regardless of the stock price and thereby cap the dilution Quepasa's shareholders would experience as a result of the Merger.

Recommendation of the Quepasa Board of Directors (see page 88)

After careful consideration, Quepasa's Board determined that: (i) issuing shares of Quepasa's common stock in connection with the Merger, (ii) amending Quepasa's Articles of Incorporation to increase our authorized common stock to 100 million shares, (iii) reincorporating in Delaware, (iv) amending the 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, which we refer to as the "Plan," to increase the shares available for grant under the Plan by 2,000,000 shares, (v) changing our name to Quepasa International COrporation, and (vi) adjourning the Special Meeting, for any reason, including if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, are each in the best interest of Quepasa and its shareholders. Our Board recommends that you vote "FOR" each of the proposals.

Opinion of Quepasa Corporation's Financial Advisor (see page 80)

Quepasa retained Raymond James & Associates, Inc., referred to herein as Raymond James, to deliver its opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to myYearbook pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The aggregate fees paid to Raymond James by Quepasa for its services was $425,000. On September 15, 2011, Raymond James provided its opinion to the Quepasa Board in connection with its consideration of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, as amended, and its opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Quepasa common stock should vote with respect to approving the issuance of additional shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the proposed Merger or any other proposal to be considered and voted upon at the Special Meeting. The full text of the Raymond James opinion, which sets forth assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on and qualifications to the review undertaken by Raymond James in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Quepasa urges its shareholders to read the opinion carefully.

Interests and Voting Power of Directors, Executive Officers and their Affiliates (see page 62)

Neither Quepasa nor any of our executive officers or directors beneficially owns any of myYearbook's outstanding securities. Five current directors of Quepasa, John Abbott, Alonso Ancira, Lars Batista, Ernesto Cruz, and Malcolm Jozoff, and three current directors of myYearbook, Geoffrey Cook, Richard Lewis, and Terry Herndon (or replacement designees selected by myYearbook) are expected to serve as directors of Quepasa after the Merger. In addition, certain key employees of myYearbook have entered into multi-year employment agreements with Quepasa (subject to the consummation of the Merger) providing them with base salaries and potential bonus compensation, the right to receive stock options and severance. Mr. Cook will be appointed Chief Operating Officer of Quepasa and also will serve as President of the Consumer Internet Division.

Table of Contents

Approval of the issuance of Quepasa shares in connection with the Merger and the related financing by Quepasa shareholders requires the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting. As of the record date for the Special Meeting, the directors and executive officers of Quepasa, together with their affiliates, owned approximately 1.9 million shares of Quepasa common stock, entitling them to exercise approximately 11.3% of the voting power of the Quepasa common stock at the Special Meeting.

Ownership of Combined Entity (see page 63)

As of the effective time of the Merger, the ownership of Quepasa outstanding common stock will be approximately as follows:

	Assuming $5 Million Capital Raise (1)	Assuming $13 Million Capital Raise (1)
Existing Quepasa shareholders	53.4%	50.3%
Existing myYearbook security holders	46.6%	43.9%

(1) Assumes that the sales price in the related financing will be, and the conversion price of the Series A in the Series A Financing will remain, $3.5785 per share. Includes the Series A issued in September 2011, which votes on an as-converted basis (except that the Series A will not vote at the Special Meeting), among the existing Quepasa shareholders.

Expected Timing of the Merger

Quepasa and myYearbook currently expect to complete the Merger in the fourth quarter of 2011. Completion of the Merger is subject to all conditions to closing being satisfied or waived. It is possible that factors outside of either company's control could require Quepasa and myYearbook to complete the Merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

Representations , Warranties and Covenants in the Merger Agreement (see page 69)

Quepasa and myYearbook have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Subject to certain exceptions, each of Quepasa and myYearbook is required, among other things, to conduct its business in the ordinary course in all material respects during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger.

Restrictions on Soliciting Other Transactions (see page 72)

The Merger Agreement provides that neither Quepasa nor myYearbook may solicit alternative business combination transactions and, subject to certain exceptions, may not engage in discussions or negotiations regarding any alternative business combination transaction.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (see page 76)

The obligations of Quepasa and myYearbook to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, where permitted) of the following conditions:

- approval by Quepasa shareholders of the share issuance proposal;

- approval of the Merger and Merger Agreement by the holders of at least the majority of the outstanding shares of myYearbook common stock and 70% of the outstanding shares of myYearbook preferred stock;
- the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, shall have been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission;
- authorization of listing on the NYSE Amex of the shares of Quepasa common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger, subject to official notice of issuance;
- completion of an equity financing transaction by Quepasa of at least $10 million in order to partially fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration;

Table of Contents

- no material adverse effect (or any change, event or development that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect) shall have occurred with respect to Quepasa or myYearbook. In the Amendment, Quepasa and myYearbook agreed that the other party's financial performance and/or web traffic metrics shall not be considered in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred. They also agreed that no information or events known by the other party on the date of the Amendment or reflected for or reserved on their respective August 31, 2011 financial results shall be considered in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred;
- the representations and warranties of the other party in the Merger Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects (subject to certain limitations and exclusions);
 - all agreements and obligations of the other party shall have been complied with in all material respects;
- no statute, rule, regulation, writ, order, temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court or other tribunal or governmental body or authority, which remains in effect, and prohibits the consummation of the Merger or otherwise makes it illegal; and
- no person or governmental agency has instituted any action, suit or proceeding which remains pending and which seeks, and which is reasonably likely, to enjoin, restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger.

In addition, the obligation of Quepasa to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, where permitted) of the condition that the total number of dissenting shares not exceed five percent (5%) of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of myYearbook's capital stock.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 77)

Quepasa and myYearbook may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to effectiveness of the Merger. Either party may also terminate the Merger Agreement if:

- the Merger is not completed by January 19, 2012;
- a statute, rule, regulation or executive order is enacted or entered prohibiting the consummation of the Merger substantially on the terms contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- a court or other government entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger;
- the other party has breached any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform any of the obligations to be performed by and under the Merger Agreement and such breach or failure to perform (i) will result in the failure by such party to satisfy the closing conditions with respect to the accuracy of such parties representations and warranties or the performance by such party of its obligations and (ii) is incapable of being cured or has not been cured by the later of 20 business days of written notice of the breach;
 - a "Triggering Event" (described below) has occurred with respect to the other party; or
- after complying with the terms of the Merger Agreement relating to considering alternative business combination transactions, it determines to pursue an alternative business combination transaction instead of the Merger.

Triggering Events generally involve: (i) the failure of the Board of Directors of one of the parties to recommend the share issuance (in the case of Quepasa) or the Merger (in the case of myYearbook), (ii) the failure to recommend that their security holders reject a competing tender offer, (iii) the Board of Directors of either Quepasa or myYearbook has approved or recommended an alternative business combination, or (iv) either company has entered into a letter of intent or agreement with respect to an alternative business combination.

Termination Fees and Expense Reimbursement (see page 78)

Generally, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will be paid by the party incurring those expenses. However, under certain circumstances, including termination of the Merger Agreement by either Quepasa or myYearbook as a result of a Triggering Event, the other party will reimburse the party entitled to reimbursement up to $1 million of such party's expenses. If following a termination due to a Triggering Event, the party causing the Triggering Event enters into a letter of intent or definitive agreement within 12 months of the termination through which such party is to be acquired by a third party (or if certain similar events occur), the other party shall be entitled to a termination fee of $3 million (less any previously-reimbursed expenses).

Risk Factors (see page 17)

You should carefully review the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 17 of this proxy statement/prospectus, which discusses risks and uncertainties related to the Merger, the combined companies and the business and operations of each of Quepasa and myYearbook.

Accounting Treatment (see page 88)

Quepasa prepares its financial statements in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which are referred to as GAAP. The Merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting.

No Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal (see page 114)

Under Nevada law, the holders of shares of Quepasa common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal in connection with any of the proposals to be considered and acted upon at the Special Meeting. In addition, because the Merger is not subject to Quepasa shareholder approval under Nevada law, the holders of shares of Quepasa common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal in connection with the Merger.

myYearbook security holders will have certain dissenters' rights under Delaware law with respect to the Merger which rights will be described in separate materials to be provided by myYearbook to its security holders in connection with their consideration and vote to approve the Merger. This proxy statement/prospectus is only seeking Quepasa shareholder votes.

Voting Agreements (See page 79)

Certain Quepasa directors, executive officers and shareholders have agreed to vote their shares of Quepasa common stock in favor of the issuance of the Quepasa shares in connection with the Merger and the related financing. The shares held by these Quepasa directors, officers and shareholders collectively represented approximately 11.3% of the outstanding shares of Quepasa common stock as of September 20, 2011. In addition, each of the directors and executive officers of myYearbook and certain other shareholders of myYearbook agreed to vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger. The securities held by these myYearbook directors, officers and shareholders are sufficient to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger at myYearbook's special meeting of its shareholders. Each of these Quepasa and myYearbook security holders also has agreed to certain transfer restrictions on their securities until completion of the Merger.

Resale Restrictions (See page 79)

The resale restrictions on the shares of Quepasa common stock issued to myYearbook security holders in the Merger were extended in connection with the Amendment from a period of two months to five months following the closing of the Merger. Of the shares of Quepasa common stock issued to the myYearbook security holders, 16.67% will have no resale restrictions and may be immediately sold following the closing of the Merger. Each security holder may sell up to an additional 16.67% each month thereafter. After five months following the closing of the Merger, the resale restrictions lapse entirely and each security holder may sell all of the shares of Quepasa common stock held by such security holder. However, the security holders may transfer shares of common stock at any time during that five month period subject to certain restrictions. The public sale of common stock beneficially owned by three myYearbook directors who will become directors of Quepasa also will be subject to customary restrictions applicable to Quepasa affiliates.

Table of Contents

In each case, shares of Quepasa common stock owned or controlled by myYearbook security holders who become “affiliates” of Quepasa following the Merger may only be sold in compliance with the applicable provisions of Rule 144 of the Securities Act.

Sales Rights Agreement (see page 79)

Quepasa and certain myYearbook security holders entered into a Sales Rights Agreement which provides for the security holders to have certain registration rights with respect to the shares of Quepasa common stock they acquire in the Merger. If during the 24 month period following the closing of the Merger, Quepasa proposes to sell common stock in a public or private offering, these myYearbook security holders will have the opportunity to participate and sell their shares of common stock in the offering, subject to certain limitations and conditions.

Market Price and Dividend Information

On July 19, 2011, the date immediately preceding the announcement of the Merger, Quepasa common stock closed at $7.13. On September 15, 2011, the date immediately preceding the public announcement of the Amendment, Quepasa common stock closed at $4.69. On October 3, 2011, Quepasa’s common stock closed at $2.87. Following the consummation of the Merger, Quepasa’s common stock, including the shares issued in connection with the Merger and in the related financing, is expected to continue to trade on the NYSE Amex. Following the Merger, Quepasa currently intends to retain earnings, if any, to finance the growth and development of its business, and does not expect to pay any cash dividends to its shareholders in the foreseeable future.

Regulatory Approvals

Quepasa must comply with applicable securities laws in connection with the issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger and the related financing transaction.

Differences in Rights of Security Holders (see page 93)

Due to differences between the states of incorporation and the governing documents of Quepasa and myYearbook, myYearbook security holders receiving Quepasa common stock in connection with the Merger will have different rights once they become Quepasa shareholders. The material differences are described in detail under the section entitled “Comparison of Quepasa's and myYearbook's Security Holder's Rights Before and After the Reincorporation and/or Merger” on page 93. One of the proposals to be considered and voted upon by Quepasa shareholders at the Special Meeting is the reincorporation of Quepasa in Delaware. If the proposal is approved by Quepasa shareholders, Quepasa will re-incorporate in Delaware shortly following the Merger, and, if that were to occur, the differences in the rights of security holders would be limited to the differences between the governing documents of Quepasa and myYearbook as described on page 93.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. All statements other than statements of historical facts, including statements regarding our future financial position, liquidity, business strategy and plans and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. The words “believe,” “may,” “estimate,” “continue,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “should,” “plan,” “could,” “target,” “likely,” “will,” “expect” and similar expressions, as they relate to us, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. We have based these forward-looking statements largely on our current expectations and projections about future events and financial trends that we believe may affect our financial condition, results of operations, business strategy and financial needs. Specific forward looking statements include, without limitation, statements regarding the following:

- The effects of the Merger on our shareholders;
- The anticipated timing of the completion of the Merger;
- The anticipated benefits expected from the Merger; and
- The expected federal tax consequences from the Merger.

The results anticipated by any or all of these forward-looking statements might not occur. Important factors, uncertainties and risks that may cause actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements are contained in the risk factors that follow and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and the incorporated documents. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as the result of new information, future events or otherwise. For more information regarding some of the ongoing risks and uncertainties of our business, see the risk factors that follow and or that are disclosed in our incorporated documents.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risks before deciding whether to vote for the proposal to approve the share issuance and to purchase or sell Quepasa common stock. See the section entitled “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 115.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of Quepasa common stock will fluctuate, myYearbook security holders cannot be sure of the exact value of the Merger consideration they will receive.

Upon the closing of the Merger, each myYearbook security holder will receive Merger consideration consisting of cash and shares of Quepasa common stock. Not including the cash value of a fractional share of Quepasa common stock, the Merger consideration will consist of $18 million cash and 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock. Because Quepasa’s common stock price has been volatile, the market price of Quepasa common stock at the time of the Special Meeting or as of the closing of the Merger may be materially different than it is as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Initially, the Merger Agreement included a condition that the closing price of a share of Quepasa common stock on the day three days prior to the closing of the Merger not be less than $5.00 and a condition that the Transaction Share Price not be less than $5.00. These conditions were eliminated by the Amendment. There are no longer any minimum price requirements. Additionally, the price of Quepasa common stock can fluctuate between the time of the closing of the Merger and the time that myYearbook security holders receive their shares of Quepasa common stock as Merger consideration, so that myYearbook security holders will be subject to the risk of a decline in the price of Quepasa common stock during that period. Quepasa’s stock price may also fluctuate following the Merger due to a variety of factors, many of which are beyond our control.

Quepasa and myYearbook may not realize all of the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

The success of the Merger will depend, in large part, on the ability of the combined company to realize the anticipated benefits from combining the businesses of Quepasa and myYearbook. To realize the anticipated benefits of the Merger, the combined company must successfully integrate the businesses of Quepasa and myYearbook. This integration will be complex and time-consuming.

Potential difficulties Quepasa and myYearbook may encounter include, among others:

- unanticipated issues in integrating logistics, information, communications and other systems;
- integrating personnel from the two companies while maintaining focus on providing a consistent, high quality level of service;
- integrating complex systems, technology, networks and other assets of myYearbook in a seamless manner that minimizes any adverse impact on, suppliers, employees and other constituencies;
- performance shortfalls at one or both of the companies as a result of the diversion of management's attention from day-to-day operations caused by activities surrounding the completion of the Merger and integration of the companies’ operations;

potential unknown liabilities, liabilities that are significantly larger than anticipated, unforeseen expenses or delays associated with the Merger and the integration process;

- unanticipated changes in applicable laws and regulations;
- the impact on Quepasa's internal controls and compliance with the regulatory requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, including, but not limited to, complexities that arise as a result of integrating the accounting system and internal controls of a private with that of a public company; and
- complexities associated with managing the larger, combined business.

Some of these factors are outside the control of either company.

Table of Contents

Quepasa has not completed a merger or acquisition comparable in size or scope to the Merger. The failure of the combined company, after the Merger, to successfully integrate the operations of Quepasa and myYearbook or otherwise to realize any of the anticipated benefits of the Merger could cause an interruption of, or a loss of momentum in, the activities of the combined company and could adversely affect its results of operations. The integration process maybe more difficult, costly or time-consuming than anticipated, which could cause Quepasa's stock price to decline.

The pendency of the Merger could adversely affect Quepasa's stock price and could adversely affect Quepasa's and myYearbook's respective businesses, financial condition, results of operations or business prospects.

While neither Quepasa nor myYearbook is aware of any significant adverse effects to date, the pendency of the Merger could disrupt either or both of their businesses in a number of ways, including:

- the attention of Quepasa's and/or myYearbook's management may be directed toward the completion of the Merger and related matters and may be diverted from the day-to-day business operations of their respective companies, including from other opportunities that might otherwise be beneficial to them;
- certain customers, suppliers, business partners and other persons with whom Quepasa and/or myYearbook have a business relationship may delay or defer certain business decisions or seek to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationship with Quepasa or myYearbook as a result of the Merger, whether pursuant to the terms of their existing agreements or otherwise; and
- current and prospective employees may experience uncertainty regarding their future roles with the combined company, which might adversely affect Quepasa's and/or myYearbook's ability to retain, recruit and motivate key personnel.

Quepasa shareholders and myYearbook security holders should be aware of the fact that after an initial increase in Quepasa common stock following the announcement of the Merger, the closing price on September 20, 2011 was 41% lower than the closing price on the day immediately preceding the announcement of the Merger.

Provisions of the Merger Agreement limit Quepasa's and myYearbook's ability to pursue other business combinations and may deter third parties from proposing alternative transactions.

The Merger Agreement contains provisions that make it difficult for Quepasa or myYearbook to entertain a third-party proposal for an acquisition of Quepasa or myYearbook. These provisions include a general prohibition against solicitation or engaging in discussions or negotiations regarding any alternative acquisition proposal by each of Quepasa and myYearbook and a requirement that Quepasa and myYearbook pay a termination fee of $3 million to the other party and/or reimburse the other party's fees and expenses up to $1 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances. See the Sections entitled "Termination of the Merger Agreement" and "Fees and Expenses" beginning on pages 77 and 78, respectively.

These provisions might discourage a third party that might otherwise be interested in making a proposal from considering or proposing an acquisition of either Quepasa or myYearbook, including an acquisition or similar transaction that may be deemed of greater value than the Merger to Quepasa shareholders or myYearbook security holders. In addition, even if a third party elected to propose an acquisition, the existence of a termination fee and reimbursement provision may result in that third party offering of a lower value than the third party might otherwise have offered.

myYearbook is a private company, making it difficult to determine its value.

myYearbook is a private company and, as such, there is no public trading market for its securities and no market price that may be used in valuing its securities. As a result, myYearbook's value is difficult to determine. The number of shares of Quepasa common stock to be issued to myYearbook security holders was determined based on negotiations between the parties, and it may not be indicative of myYearbook's actual value.

Future financial results of the combined company may differ materially from the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements presented in this proxy statement/prospectus and the financial forecasts prepared in connection with discussions concerning the Merger.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus is derived from Quepasa's and myYearbook's separate historical consolidated financial statements. This pro forma financial information may not necessarily reflect what Quepasa's results of operations and financial position would have been had the Merger occurred during the periods presented in the pro forma combined financial information, or what Quepasa's results of operations and financial position will be in the future.

Failure to complete or delay of the Merger could negatively impact Quepasa's and myYearbook's respective businesses, financial condition or results of operations.

The completion of the Merger is subject to a number of conditions, as described under "Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 76, and there can be no assurance that the conditions to the completion of the Merger will be satisfied. If the conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Merger will not be completed or will be delayed. If the Merger is not completed or is delayed, Quepasa and myYearbook will be subject to several risks, including but not limited to:

- the current market price of Quepasa's common stock may reflect a market assumption that the Merger will occur or that it will occur by a certain date, and a failure to complete the Merger or a delay in the Merger could result in a negative perception by the market of Quepasa generally and a resulting decline in the market price of Quepasa's common stock;
- Quepasa or myYearbook may experience negative reactions from their respective employees, customers, suppliers and other business partners;
- there may be substantial disruption to Quepasa's and myYearbook's businesses and a distraction of their respective management teams and employees from day-to-day operations, because matters related to the Merger have required substantial commitments of time and financial and other resources, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that might have been beneficial;
- Quepasa or myYearbook, as the case may be, may be required to pay a substantial termination fee to the other party and/or reimburse its Merger-related expenses if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances; and
- if the Merger is not completed, each of Quepasa and myYearbook would continue to face the risks that it currently faces as an independent company.

In addition to these factors, failure to complete the Merger will mean that Quepasa and myYearbook will not obtain the anticipated benefits of combining the two companies. If the Merger is not completed, the risks described above may materialize and materially adversely affect Quepasa's and/or myYearbook's business, financial condition, results of operations and stock price.

The combined company's future operating results will be adversely affected if it does not effectively manage its expanded operations following the Merger.

Following the Merger, the size of the combined company's business will be significantly larger than the current businesses of Quepasa and myYearbook and its revenues will also increase substantially. The future success of the combined company will depend, in part, upon its ability to manage this expanded business, which will pose substantial challenges for the combined company's management. Quepasa cannot assure you that the combined company will be successful or that the combined company will realize the expected operating efficiencies, synergies, revenue enhancements and other benefits currently anticipated to result from the Merger.

The market price of Quepasa's common stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the market price of Quepasa's shares prior to the Merger.

The businesses of Quepasa and myYearbook differ in important respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Quepasa's common stock following the Merger may be affected by factors different from those existing prior to the Merger. For a discussion of the businesses of Quepasa and myYearbook and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus referred to under the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" and myYearbook's business description beginning on page 115.

Table of Contents

The issuance of shares of Quepasa common stock to myYearbook security holders in connection with the Merger and in the related financing will significantly reduce the percentage ownership of current Quepasa shareholders.

Current Quepasa shareholders will experience a significant reduction in the relative percentage ownership of the company's common stock upon completion of the Merger and the related financing. If the Merger is completed, 17,000,000 shares of Quepasa common stock will be issued to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration in the Merger.

The sale of additional shares of our common stock for cash to allow us to pay the cash portion of the Merger consideration will also result in further dilution of the percentage ownership of current Quepasa shareholders. As a result, assuming the price per share sold in the related financing is $3.5785, Quepasa would issue approximately: (i) 1.4 million additional shares to MATT, Inc., (ii) 3.6 million additional shares in order to raise the full $13 million needed to fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration, or (iii) any number of shares in between.

The market price of Quepasa's stock could decline as a result of the large number of shares that will be eligible for sale after completion of the Merger.

If the Merger is completed, a total of 2,833,900 shares issued to the myYearbook security holders in the Merger will be freely tradable immediately following the closing of the Merger, with an additional 2,833,900 of such shares becoming freely tradable each month following the closing of the Merger (subject, in each case, to restrictions on sales by persons deemed to be "affiliates" of Quepasa.) After five months from the closing, all 17,000,000 shares will be freely tradable (except for shares beneficially owned by affiliates of Quepasa). Further, current Quepasa shareholders and former myYearbook security holders may not wish to maintain their investment in the combined company following the Merger, or for other reasons, may wish to dispose of some or all of their shareholdings in Quepasa following the Merger. Shares of Quepasa common stock sold to help finance the cash portion of the Merger consideration also will be freely tradable. Sales of substantial numbers of shares of both the newly issued and the existing Quepasa common stock in the public market following the Merger could adversely affect the market price of Quepasa stock.

The Merger may be completed on different terms from those contained in the Merger Agreement.

Prior to the completion of the Merger, Quepasa and myYearbook may amend or alter the terms of the Merger Agreement or waive compliance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including closing conditions. Although certain types of amendments, alterations or waivers may not be made after the shareholder vote unless the votes of Quepasa shareholders and myYearbook security holders are re-solicited, most amendments, alterations and waivers will not require any re-solicitation. Any such amendments or alterations may have negative consequences to Quepasa shareholders and/or myYearbook security holders or adversely affect the operations of the combined company.

If the Merger does not qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, there could be materially adverse tax consequences for myYearbook security holders.

The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, with the result that myYearbook security holders generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to the shares of Quepasa common stock they receive upon the exchange of their shares of myYearbook capital stock in connection with the Merger. In the event that the Merger does not qualify as a reorganization, the Merger would result in taxable gain or loss for each myYearbook stockholder, with the amount of such gain or loss determined by the amount that each myYearbook stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the myYearbook capital stock surrendered is less or more than the fair market value of the Quepasa common stock received in exchange therefore.

Because Quepasa will assume myYearbook's indebtedness following the closing of the Merger, this indebtedness may limit Quepasa's ability to raise capital in the future.

As a result of the closing of the Merger, Quepasa will be indirectly responsible for myYearbook's indebtedness and become subject to any restrictions under the financing documents creating such indebtedness. The effects of this indebtedness include:

Table of Contents

- the effective annual interest rate is between 12% and 12.5% per year, which will be a charge against future earnings;
- any future cash flow will be required to service the indebtedness and make operating lease payments, thereby reducing the availability of Quepasa's cash flow to fund working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other general corporate purposes; and
- the terms of the indebtedness may limit Quepasa's ability to obtain additional financing for capital expenditures and working capital needs.

In addition, covenants in the debt instruments governing this indebtedness may limit how Quepasa conducts its business following the Merger.

As a result of the Merger, Quepasa will record a significant amount of goodwill on its balance sheet, which could result in significant future impairment charges and negatively affect Quepasa's future financial condition, results of operations and stock price.

As discussed further under "Accounting Treatment of the Merger," applicable acquisition accounting rules require that to the extent that the purchase price paid by Quepasa in the Merger exceeds the net fair value of the myYearbook tangible and intangible assets and liabilities, Quepasa will record such assets as goodwill on its consolidated balance sheet. Goodwill is not amortized, but is tested for impairment at least annually. In testing goodwill for impairment, Quepasa's management will be required to view its future operating results and cash flows. If the future operating results and cash flows of myYearbook do not continue to follow its performance in 2010 and 2011, Quepasa may incur significant impairment charges in the future. Any impairment charges will directly be treated as an expense and negatively affect Quepasa's future financial results. Announcement of such impairment charges may also significantly reduce the price of Quepasa's common stock.

Our ability to use our net operating loss carryforwards and myYearbook's net operating loss carryforwards to offset future taxable income for U.S. federal income tax purposes will be limited as a result of the Merger, or if taxable income does not reach sufficient levels.

As of December 31, 2010, Quepasa had federal net operating loss carryforwards, which we refer to as NOLs, of approximately $100 million available to offset future taxable income, which are not currently subject to an annual limitation under Section 382 of the Code.

As of December 31, 2010, myYearbook had NOLs of approximately $4.4 million available to offset future taxable income, which are not currently subject to an annual limitation under Section 382 of the Code. The NOLs expire between 2026 and 2029.

The ability of Quepasa to utilize its NOLs will be limited if it undergoes an "ownership change," as defined in Section 382 of the Code. An ownership change would be triggered by substantial changes in the ownership of the outstanding stock of Quepasa. An ownership change would occur if certain shareholders increase their aggregate percentage ownership of Quepasa stock by more than 50 percentage points over their lowest percentage ownership at any time during the testing period, which is generally the three-year period preceding any potential ownership change. The Merger is currently expected to result in an ownership change of Quepasa for purposes of Section 382 of the Code.

The ability of Quepasa to utilize the myYearbook NOLs will be limited if myYearbook undergoes an ownership change for purposes of Section 382 of the Code. An ownership change would be triggered by substantial changes in the ownership of the outstanding stock of myYearbook. An ownership change would occur if certain shareholders increase their aggregate percentage ownership of myYearbook stock by more than 50 percentage points over their lowest percentage ownership at any time during the testing period, which is generally the three-year period preceding any potential ownership change. The Merger is currently expected to result in an ownership change of myYearbook for purposes of Section 382 of the Code.

Section 382 of the Code imposes an annual limitation on the amount of post-ownership change taxable income that may be offset with pre-ownership change NOLs of the corporation that experiences an ownership change. The limitation imposed by Section 382 of the Code for any post-ownership change year generally would be determined by multiplying the value of such corporation's stock immediately before the ownership change by the applicable long-term tax-exempt rate. Any unused annual limitation may, subject to certain limits, be carried over to later years, and the limitation may under certain circumstances be increased by built-in gains or reduced by built-in losses in the assets held by such corporation at the time of the ownership change and recognized (or deemed recognized) during the five year period after the ownership change.

In addition, Quepasa's ability to use its NOLs and myYearbook NOLs will also depend on the amount of taxable income generated in future periods. The NOLs may expire before Quepasa can generate sufficient taxable income to utilize its NOLs and myYearbook NOLs.

Risks Relating to Quepasa

In addition to the risk factors which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, investors should consider the following risks relating to Quepasa.

If we are unable to expand and monetize our social gaming portfolio, our future results of operations may be adversely affected.

Quepasa believes that social games will be an extremely important part of its business model and its ability to generate significant revenue. In March 2011, we acquired XtFt Games, which we re-named Quepasa Games, and are now developing all of our games in-house. Our ability to develop successful new online games in-house will largely depend on our ability to (i) anticipate and effectively respond to changing of players' interests and preferences and to technological advances in a timely manner, (ii) attract, retain and motivate talented online game development personnel and (iii) execute effectively our online game development plans. In-house development requires a substantial initial investment prior to the launch of a game, as well as a significant commitment of future resources to update and expand the games. Quepasa Games recently launched its first social game for the Brazilian market and intends to localize it to two cities in Mexico and Columbia in the second half of 2011. While initial results are encouraging, we cannot assure you the initial trend will continue.

We cannot assure you that we will be successful in developing and monetizing successful new games. If we fail to expand our offering of social games, if our members do not play the games on a regular basis or if we do not receive sufficient revenue from gaming on our website or other websites, our future results of operations will be materially and adversely affected.

Because many individuals are using devices other than personal computers to access the Internet, if users of these devices do not widely adopt solutions we develop for these devices, our business could be adversely affected.

The number of people who access the Internet through devices other than personal computers, including smart phones, cell phones and handheld tablets or computers, has increased dramatically in the past few years and is projected to continue to increase. Especially outside of the United States, where most active Quepasa members are, mobile devices are more widely used. The generally lower processing speed, power, functionality and memory associated with these devices make playing our games through such devices more difficult; and the versions of our games developed for these devices may not be compelling to players. In addition, each device manufacturer or platform provider may establish unique or restrictive terms and conditions for developers on such devices or platforms, and our games may not work well or be viewable on these devices as a result. As new devices and new platforms are continually being released, it is difficult to predict the problems we may encounter in developing versions of our solutions for use on these alternative devices, and we may need to devote significant resources to the creation, support, and maintenance of such devices.

myYearbook has developed and provides its members with a mobile phone application for the use of myYearbook.com. After the Merger, we anticipate, with the help of myYearbook's experience, developing a mobile solution for Quepasa.com. It is difficult to predict the problems we may encounter in developing a mobile solution for Quepasa.com, and we cannot assure you that we will be able to develop a mobile application or that our members will use any such mobile application. If we are unable to develop mobile solutions to meet the needs of our members, our business could suffer.

Because the number of our registered members is higher than the number of actual members, and a substantial majority of our page views are generated by a minority of our members, our future operating results will be adversely affected if we do not increase the number of active members and the average usage per member.

A substantial majority of our members do not visit our website on a monthly basis, and a substantial majority of our page views are generated by a minority of our members. Also, the number of registered members in our network may be higher than the number of actual members because some members may have multiple registrations, other members may have died or may have become incapacitated, and others may have registered under fictitious names. Given the challenges inherent in identifying these accounts, we do not have a reliable system to accurately identify the number of actual persons who are members, and thus we rely on the number of registered members as our measure of the size of our network. If the number of our actual members does not meet our expectations or we are unable to increase the breadth and frequency of visits from members, then our business may not grow as fast as we expect, which will harm our operating and financial results and may cause our stock price to decline.

Because we operate in a new and rapidly changing industry, it is difficult to evaluate our business and prospects.

Social games constitute a new and rapidly evolving industry. The growth of the social game industry and the level of demand and market acceptance of our games are subject to a high degree of uncertainty. Our future operating results will depend on numerous factors affecting the social game industry, many of which are beyond our control, including:

- continued growth in the use of Quepasa.com, myYearbook.com and other social networks;
- changes in consumer demographics and public tastes and preferences;
- the availability and popularity of other forms of entertainment;
- the worldwide growth of personal computer, broadband Internet and mobile device users, and the rate of any such growth;
- general economic conditions, particularly economic conditions adversely affecting discretionary consumer spending; and
- lawsuits by social gaming and other companies claiming that we misappropriated their intellectual property.

Our ability to plan for game development, distribution and promotional activities will be significantly affected by our ability to anticipate and adapt to relatively rapid changes in the tastes and preferences of our current and potential players. New and different types of entertainment may increase in popularity at the expense of social games. A decline in the popularity of social games in general, or our games in particular, would harm our business and prospects.

Table of Contents

If any of our social games have programming errors or flaws, it could harm our reputation or decrease market acceptance of our games, which would harm our operating results.

Our current or social games may contain errors, bugs, flaws or corrupted data, and these defects may only become apparent after their launch, particularly as we launch new games and rapidly release new features to existing games under tight time constraints. We believe that if our players have a negative experience with our games, they may be less inclined to continue or resume playing our games or recommend our games to other potential players. Undetected programming errors, game defects and data corruption can disrupt our operations, adversely affect the game experience of our players by allowing players to gain unfair advantage, harm our reputation, cause our players to stop playing our games, divert our resources and delay market acceptance of our games, any of which could result in legal liability to us or harm our operating results.

Because there are low barriers to entry in the social game industry, our competition could continue to increase.

The social game industry is highly competitive, with low barriers to entry, and we expect more companies to enter the sector and a wider range of social games to be introduced. Our competitors that develop social games for social networks vary in size and include publicly-traded companies such as Electronic Arts Inc./Playfish Inc. and The Walt Disney Company/Playdom Inc., and privately-held companies such as Zynga Inc., Crowdstar, Inc., Popcap Games, Inc., Vostu, Ltd. and wooga GmbH. In addition, online game developers and distributors who are primarily focused on specific international markets, and high-profile companies with significant online presences that to date have not developed social games, such as Amazon.com, Facebook, Google Inc., Microsoft Corporation and Yahoo! Inc., may decide to develop social games. Some of these current and potential competitors have significant resources for developing or acquiring additional games, may be able to incorporate their own strong brands and assets into their games, have a more diversified set of revenue sources than we do and may be less severely affected by changes in consumer preferences, regulations or other developments that may impact the online social game industry. In addition, we have limited experience in developing games for mobile and other platforms and our ability to succeed on those platforms is uncertain. There can be no assurance that we will be able to compete successfully against current or future competitors or that increased competition will not have a material adverse effect on our business.

If we are unable to implement payment gateways to our users, our results of operations will be adversely affected.

We conduct our business in countries outside the United States and depend on payment gateways that are not as well developed as those in the United States where most people have Visa, MasterCard, PayPal, mobile payment or bank debit cards to use in paying for virtual goods and our services. User of our social network in the countries we operate, outside of the United States, do not always have access to credit cards and other “typical” payment methods our United States members have such as debit cards. If we are unable to implement payment gateways that provide end-users of our social network the ability to easily pay for services and related game transactions, our future results will be adversely affected. Additionally, our inability to collect and receive payments from these other sources will have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Failure to comply with existing or future laws, regulations or user concerns regarding privacy and protection of user data could adversely affect our business.

Federal and state, as well as foreign, laws and regulations govern the collection, use, retention, sharing, processing, disclosure and security of data that we receive from and about our users. We have posted on our website our own privacy policies and practices concerning the collection, use, and disclosure of user data. Any failure, or perceived failure, by us to comply with our posted privacy policies or with any data-related consent orders, Federal Trade Commission requirements or orders, or other federal, state or foreign privacy or consumer protection-related laws, regulations or industry self-regulatory principles, or any compromise of security that results in the unauthorized release or transfer of personally identifiable information or other user data, could result in proceedings or actions against us by governmental entities, consumer advocacy groups or others, which could potentially have an adverse effect on our business.

Further, failure or perceived failure by us to comply with our policies, applicable requirements, or industry self-regulatory principles related to the collection, use, sharing or security of personal information, or other privacy or data protection-related matters could result in a loss of user confidence in us, damage to the Quepasa brand, and ultimately in a loss of users, and advertising partners, which could adversely affect our business.

In addition, federal, state and foreign legislative or regulatory bodies may enact new or additional laws and regulations concerning data privacy and retention issues which could adversely impact our business. The interpretation and application of privacy, data protection and data retention laws and regulations are currently unsettled in the U.S. and internationally. These laws may be interpreted and applied inconsistently from country to country and inconsistently with our current data protection policies and practices. Complying with these varying international requirements could cause us to incur substantial costs or require us to change our business practices in a manner adverse to our business.

Table of Contents

If the New York State Attorney General or other regulator takes any action against us and if successful, it may result in us being required to change our e-mail marketing or other practices, or pay substantial fines, which could result in a future material adverse effect on our future operating results.

We operate our business online, which is subject to extensive regulation by federal and state governments. Recently, we received a subpoena from the New York Attorney General seeking records relating to our operations including specific information regarding our e-mail marketing practices. We intend to co-operate and supply those documents we believe are directly relevant to the inquiry, although our attorneys have advised us that their inquiry is pre-empted by federal law in the absence of any deceptive acts. Our attorneys have further advised us that they do not believe our e-mail marketing involves any deceptive practices. However, we cannot assure you that the New York Attorney General will agree or that other regulators may not challenge aspects of our business. In such event, defending this or any other action would cause us to incur substantial expenses and divert our management's attention. If we are unsuccessful, we may have to change our e-mail marketing practices which could impair our ability to obtain new users. Any change in our email marketing or defense of a regulatory investigation or action could reduce our future revenues and increase our costs and adversely affect our future operating results.

Because we have international operations, we are exposed to foreign currency risks.

Quepasa conducts business in countries outside of the United States and expects to generate most of its revenue outside of the United States including Brazil and Mexico, which exposes us to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. We may enter into short-term forward exchange or option contracts to hedge this risk; nevertheless, volatile foreign currency exchange rates increase our risk related to products purchased in a currency other than the currencies in which our revenue is generated. The realization of this risk could have a significant adverse effect on our financial results. There can be no assurance that these and other factors will not have an adverse effect on our business.

Because we are pursuing a strategy of seeking to commercialize our services internationally, we are subject to risks frequently associated with international operations, and we may sustain large losses if we cannot deal with these risks.

Our business model is aimed at Spanish and Portuguese speaking persons who live primarily outside the United States as well as Latinos living in the United States. We also maintain material operations in Mexico and Brazil. Because of the diverse number of countries including Mexico and those located in Central and South America, we will be required to focus our business on unique local cultural differences which vary from country to country. If we are able to successfully develop international markets, we would be subject to a number of risks besides currency fluctuations, including:

- Being able to attract users from countries with different local cultures;
- recruiting and retaining talented and capable management and employees in foreign countries;
- challenges caused by distance, language and cultural differences;
- developing and customizing games and other offerings that appeal to the tastes and preferences of players in international markets;
- competition from local game makers with significant market share in those markets and with a better understanding of player preferences;

- protecting and enforcing our intellectual property rights;
- negotiating agreements with local distribution platforms that are sufficiently economically beneficial to us and protective of our rights;

Table of Contents

- the inability to extend proprietary rights in our brand, content or technology into new jurisdictions;
- implementing alternative payment methods for virtual goods in a manner that complies with local laws and practices and protects us from fraud;
- compliance with applicable foreign laws and regulations, including privacy laws and laws relating to content;
- compliance with anti-bribery laws including without limitation, compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act;
- credit risk and higher levels of payment fraud;
- currency exchange rate fluctuations;
- protectionist laws and business practices that favor local businesses in some countries;
- foreign tax consequences;
- foreign exchange controls or U.S. tax restrictions that might restrict or prevent us from repatriating income earned in countries outside the United States;
- political, economic and social instability;
- higher costs associated with doing business internationally;
- restrictions on the export or import of technology; and
- trade and tariff restrictions.

If we cannot manage these risks, we may sustain large losses.

We may require additional capital to meet our financial obligations and support business growth, and this capital might not be available on acceptable terms or at all.

We intend to continue to make significant investments to support our business growth and may require additional funds to respond to business challenges, including the need to develop new games and features or enhance our existing games, improve our operating infrastructure or acquire complementary businesses, personnel and technologies. Accordingly, we may need to engage in equity or debt financings to secure additional funds. If we raise additional funds through future issuances of equity or convertible debt securities, our existing shareholders could suffer significant dilution, and any new equity securities we issue could have rights, preferences and privileges superior to those of holders of our common stock. Any debt financing we secure in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to our capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for us to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions. We may not be able to obtain additional financing on terms favorable to us, if at all. If we are unable to obtain adequate financing or financing on terms satisfactory to us when we require it, our ability to continue to support our business growth and to respond to business challenges could be significantly impaired, and our business may be harmed.

Risks Relating to myYearbook's Business

Some of the risks relating to Quepasa described above and incorporated by reference may also apply to myYearbook, including the risks discussed in the risk factors pertaining to operating in a new and rapidly changing industry, privacy and protection of user data, low barriers to entry in the industry, need for and availability of capital, and possibility of programming errors or flaws. In addition, myYearbook faces the following risks:

Table of Contents

If myYearbook's use of Facebook as a distribution, marketing and promotion platform is restricted, its business will suffer.

Facebook is an important distribution, marketing and promotion platform for myYearbook's content and applications. myYearbook generates a significant portion of its new users through the Facebook platform and expects to continue to do so for the foreseeable future. As such, it is subject to Facebook's standard terms and conditions for Facebook Connect and for application developers, which govern the promotion, distribution and operation of games and other applications on the Facebook platform.

If any of the following events occurs, it would harm myYearbook's ability to acquire new members and provide services to its existing members:

- Facebook discontinues or limits access to its platform by myYearbook and other application developers;
- Facebook modifies its terms of service or other policies, including changing how the personal information of its users is made available to application developers on the Facebook platform or shared by users; or
- Facebook develops its own competitive offerings.

myYearbook has benefited from Facebook's strong brand recognition and large user base. If Facebook loses its market position or otherwise falls out of favor with Internet users, myYearbook would need to identify alternative channels for marketing, promoting and distributing its content and applications, which would consume substantial resources and may not be effective. In addition, Facebook has broad discretion to change its terms of service and other policies with respect to myYearbook and other developers, and those changes may be unfavorable to myYearbook. Facebook may also change its fee structure, add fees associated with access to and use of the Facebook platform, change how the personal information of its users is made available to application developers on the Facebook platform or restrict how Facebook users can share information with friends on their platform.

If the Apple "App Store" and or the Android "Marketplace" change their search and rating algorithms we may not be able to acquire new mobile members.

myYearbook acquires new mobile members primarily through the Apple "App Store" and the Android "Marketplace." myYearbook's iPhone and Android applications rank near the top of the "Free Social" categories and near the top of many key search terms. However, Apple and Google have changed their rating and search algorithms in the past without notice. Future changes to the rating and search algorithms by Apple or Google may impact myYearbook's rating and search results, causing a drop in new mobile and application downloads and causing myYearbook's business and operating results to suffer.

myYearbook has a new business model and a short operating history, which makes it difficult to evaluate its prospects and future financial results and may increase the risk that myYearbook will not be successful.

myYearbook began operations in 2005, and has a short operating history and a new business model, which makes it difficult to effectively assess its future prospects. Its business model is based on offering applications and games that are free to use and play. It is critical that myYearbook continue to add new members to its user base and retain existing users by offering new and engaging features and products. Furthermore, only a small percentage of its users pay for virtual goods. You should consider myYearbook's business and prospects in light of the challenges it faces, which include its ability to, among other things:

- attract new users and retain existing users at consistent rate;
- increase engagement by existing users;
- anticipate changes in the social networking industry;
- cost-effectively develop and launch applications and games;
- launch new products and release enhancements that become popular;
- develop and maintain a scalable, high-performance technology infrastructure that can efficiently and reliably handle increased member usage, fast load times and the deployment of new features and applications;

Table of Contents

- process, store and use data in compliance with governmental regulation and other legal obligations related to privacy;
- successfully compete with other companies that are currently in, or may in the future enter, the social networking or entertainment industry;
- hire, integrate and retain world class talent;
- successfully expand its business, especially internationally and with respect to mobile devices; and
- monetize mobile devices.

Any failure or significant interruption in myYearbook's network could impact its operations and harm its business.

myYearbook's technology infrastructure is critical to the performance of its applications and games and to user satisfaction. myYearbook leases space for its data center and relies on its co-location partner for power, security, connectivity and other services. myYearbook also relies on third party providers for bandwidth and content delivery. myYearbook does not control these vendors and it would take significant time and effort to replace these vendors. myYearbook has experienced, and may in the future experience, website disruptions, outages and other performance problems due to a variety of factors, including infrastructure changes, human or software errors and capacity constraints. If the site or a particular application is unavailable when users attempt to access it or navigation through an application is slower than they expect, users may stop utilizing the site and may be less likely to return to the site as often, if at all. A failure or significant interruption in its service would harm myYearbook's reputation and operations. myYearbook expects to continue to make significant investments to its technology infrastructure to maintain and improve all aspects of user experience and site performance. To the extent that myYearbook's disaster recovery systems are not adequate, or it does not effectively address capacity constraints, upgrade its systems as needed and continually develop its technology and network architecture to accommodate increasing traffic, its business and operating results may suffer.

Security breaches, computer viruses and computer hacking attacks could harm myYearbook's business and results of operations.

Security breaches, computer malware and computer hacking attacks have become more prevalent in the social media industry, have occurred on myYearbook's systems in the past and may occur on its systems in the future. Any security breach caused by hacking, which involves efforts to gain unauthorized access to information or systems, or to cause intentional malfunctions or loss or corruption of data, software, hardware or other computer equipment, and the inadvertent transmission of computer viruses could harm myYearbook's business, financial condition and operating results. myYearbook has experienced and will continue to experience hacking attacks. Though it is difficult to determine what harm may directly result from any specific interruption or breach, any failure to maintain performance, reliability, security and availability of myYearbook's network infrastructure to the satisfaction of its users may harm its reputation and its ability to retain existing users and attract new users.

myYearbook's growth prospects will suffer if it is unable to continue to develop successful applications and games for mobile platforms.

Since May 2010, myYearbook has been offering applications and games for mobile platforms. It expects to continue to devote substantial resources to the development of its mobile applications and games, but there can be no assurances that it will continue to succeed in developing applications and games that appeal to existing non-paying and paying members or advertisers. For instance, myYearbook may encounter difficulty in attracting leading advertisers to its mobile applications. It may also encounter difficulty transitioning features that were successful on the web to applications and games developed for mobile platforms. It may also face challenges working with wireless carriers, mobile platform providers and other mobile communications partners. Finally, myYearbook may face challenges converting mobile users into users that pay for virtual currency or other virtual items.

These and other uncertainties make it difficult to know whether myYearbook will continue to succeed in developing commercially viable applications and games for mobile platforms. If it does not succeed in doing so, its growth prospects will suffer.

Although key employees of myYearbook are required to enter into employment agreements as a condition of closing the Merger, if myYearbook fails to retain key personnel, it may not be able to achieve its anticipated level of growth and its business could suffer.

The Merger Agreement requires key employees of myYearbook to enter into long-term employment agreements with Quepasa. However, employees are free to leave an employer at any time without penalties. If a number of key employees become unhappy with being subject to certain restrictions relating to Quepasa's status as a public company or are unhappy for other reasons, myYearbook's future results of operations may be materially and adversely affected due to delays in being able to replace these employees, the inability to replace these employees with persons who are as effective, and the associated disruptions occurring from changes in personnel.

If myYearbook is unable to attract and retain highly qualified employees, it may not be able to grow effectively.

myYearbook's ability to compete and grow depends in large part on the efforts and talents of its employees. Such employees, particularly product managers and engineers for both web and mobile applications, quality assurance personnel, graphic designers and salespeople, are in high demand, and myYearbook devotes significant resources to identifying, hiring, training, successfully integrating and retaining these employees. The loss of employees or the inability to hire additional skilled employees as necessary could result in significant disruptions to myYearbook's business, and the integration of replacement personnel could be time-consuming and expensive and cause additional disruptions to its business.

myYearbook believes that a critical component of its success and ability to retain its best people is its culture. If the Merger is consummated and myYearbook effectively becomes a subsidiary of a public company, it may find it difficult to maintain its culture, which may cause some of its employees to leave. In addition, many of myYearbook's employees may be able to receive significant proceeds from sales of the Quepasa shares they receive in the Merger, which may reduce their motivation to continue to work for myYearbook. Moreover, the Merger may create disparities in wealth among myYearbook's employees, which may harm its culture and relations among employees.

An increasing number of individuals are utilizing devices other than personal computers to access the Internet, and versions of myYearbook's applications and games developed for these devices might not gain widespread adoption, or may not function as intended.

The number of people who access the Internet through devices other than personal computers, including smart phones, cell phones and handheld tablets or computers, has increased dramatically in the past few years and is projected to continue to increase. myYearbook has developed and provides its members with access to a mobile phone application. However, smart phones, cell phones and handheld tablets or computers generally have lower processing speed, power, functionality and memory than computers. As a result, myYearbook's mobile phone application and games and similar applications it may develop in the future may not be compelling to users. In addition, each device manufacturer or platform provider may establish unique or restrictive terms and conditions for developers on such devices or platforms, and myYearbook's games may not work well or be viewable on these devices as a result. As new devices and new platforms are continually being released, it is difficult to predict the problems that myYearbook may encounter in developing versions of its solutions for use on these alternative devices, and it may need to devote significant resources to the creation, support, and maintenance of such devices. If myYearbook is unable to effectively monetize the continuing shift to devices other than personal computers to access the Internet, its growth may not be as anticipated.

myYearbook faces competition from traditional media companies, and it may not be included in the advertising budgets of large advertisers, which could harm its operating results.

The majority of myYearbook's revenue is driven by major brand and network advertising. myYearbook primarily relies on CPM advertising, where the price that myYearbook charges for advertising is based on the number of users who view that advertisement. In addition to Internet companies, myYearbook faces competition from companies that offer traditional media advertising opportunities. Most large advertisers have set advertising budgets, a portion of which is allocated to Internet advertising. myYearbook expects that large advertisers will continue to increase their advertising efforts on the Internet. If myYearbook fails to convince these companies to spend a portion of their advertising budgets on social media, its operating results would be harmed.

If myYearbook is unable to protect its intellectual property rights, it may be unable to compete with competitors developing similar technologies.

myYearbook regards the protection of its trade secrets, copyrights, trademarks, trade dress, domain names, patents and other intellectual property rights as critical to its success. myYearbook strives to protect its intellectual property rights by relying on federal, state and common law rights, as well as contractual restrictions. However, the steps it takes to protect its intellectual property may not prevent the misappropriation of our proprietary information or deter independent development of similar technologies by others.

myYearbook pursues the registration of its domain names and trademarks, in the United States and in certain locations outside the United States. It is seeking to protect its domain names and trade names in an increasing number of jurisdictions, a process that is expensive and time-consuming and may not be successful or which it may not pursue in every location. myYearbook may, over time, increase its investment in protecting its innovations through increased patent filings that are expensive and time-consuming and may not result in issued patents that can be effectively enforced.

Circumstances outside myYearbook's control could pose a threat to its intellectual property rights. For example, effective intellectual property protection may not be available in the United States or other countries in which its products and solutions are distributed. Also, the efforts it takes to protect its proprietary rights may not be sufficient or effective. Any significant impairment of its intellectual property rights could harm its business or its ability to compete. Also, protecting its intellectual property rights is costly and time-consuming. Any unauthorized disclosure or use of myYearbook's intellectual property could make it more expensive to do business and harm its operating results.

Litigation may be necessary to enforce or protect myYearbook's intellectual property rights or determine the validity and scope of proprietary rights claimed by others. Any litigation of this nature, regardless of outcome or merit, could result in substantial costs, adverse publicity or diversion of management and technical resources, any of which could adversely affect myYearbook's business and operating results. If myYearbook fails to maintain, protect and enhance its intellectual property rights, its business and operating results may be harmed.

myYearbook is subject to intellectual property infringement claims, which could cause it to incur significant expenses, pay substantial damages and prevent service delivery.

Companies in the Internet, social media technology and other industries may own large numbers of patents, copyrights, and trademarks and may frequently request license agreements, threaten litigation, or file suit against myYearbook based on allegations of infringement or other violations of intellectual property rights. From time to time, myYearbook faces, and expects to face in the future, allegations that it has infringed the trademarks, copyrights, patents and other intellectual property rights of third parties, including its competitors and non-practicing entities. As myYearbook faces increasing competition and as its business grows, it will likely face more claims of infringement.

For example, on September 15, 2011, FotoMedia Technologies, LLC filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware against myYearbook, as well as Facebook, Inc., MySpace, Inc., Tagged, Inc. and Memory Lane, Inc. With respect to myYearbook, the lawsuit seeks unspecified damages, injunctive relief, and attorney's fees based on the purported infringement of five patents, which pertain in general to systems and operations for the use and manipulation of digital photography on the Internet. myYearbook was served with the complaint on September 20, 2011, and a responsive pleading is currently due for filing on October 7, 2011. It is too early in the process to identify the exposure to myYearbook or likely outcome of the litigation.

Any claims of infringement could cause myYearbook to incur significant expenses and, if successfully asserted, could require that myYearbook pay substantial damages and prevent it from using licensed technology that may be fundamental to its business service delivery. Even if myYearbook were to prevail, any litigation regarding its intellectual property is generally very costly and time-consuming and diverts the attention of its management and key personnel from its business operations. myYearbook may also be obligated to indemnify its business partners in any such litigation, which could further exhaust its resources. Furthermore, as a result of an intellectual property challenge, myYearbook may be prevented from providing some of its services unless it enters into royalty, license or other agreements. myYearbook may not be able to obtain such agreements at all or on terms acceptable to it, and as a result, it may be precluded from offering some of its products and services.

Interruption or failure of its information technology and communications systems or its inability to scale its systems could hurt myYearbook's ability to effectively provide its products and services, which could damage its reputation and harm its operating results.

The availability of myYearbook's services depends on the continuing operation of its information technology and communications systems. Any damage to or failure of its systems or its inability to scale its systems could result in interruptions in its service, which could reduce its revenue, and damage its brand. myYearbook's systems are vulnerable to damage or interruption from terrorist attacks, floods, fires, power loss, telecommunications failures, hurricanes, computer viruses, computer denial of service attacks or other attempts to harm its systems. myYearbook's data centers are subject to break-ins, sabotage and intentional acts of vandalism, and to potential disruptions if the operators of these facilities restrict access or close for any reason. If additional data center space is needed rapidly to scale with site usage, the lack of the availability of that space may cause service disruption or delays to product rollouts. Some of myYearbook's systems are not fully redundant, and its disaster recovery planning cannot account for all eventualities. The occurrence of a natural disaster, a decision to close a facility it is using without adequate notice for any reason or other unanticipated problems at its data centers could result in lengthy interruptions in myYearbook's service.

Table of Contents

Any of these errors, flaws, service interruptions or failures would harm myYearbook's reputation, cause its users to stop using its applications and games, divert its resources and delay market acceptance of its applications and games, any of which could result in legal liability to myYearbook and/or harm its operating results.

Failure of members to comply with existing or future laws and regulations could adversely affect myYearbook's business.

myYearbook provides a platform for meeting new people. Although myYearbook devotes substantial resources to member services and safety, users of the myYearbook web site have in the past and will in the future commit crimes against other members that they meet on the network or violate other laws in interacting with such members, impairing the myYearbook brand and raising the prospect of litigation that may be costly to defend.

Executive officers and directors have interest in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interest of myYearbook's security holders generally.

myYearbook's executive officers and directors negotiated the terms of the Merger Agreement. Certain key employees of myYearbook have entered into multi-year employment agreements with Quepasa (subject to the consummation of the Merger) providing them with base salaries and potential bonus compensation, the right to receive stock options and severance. In addition, certain larger myYearbook security holders will have the right to participate on a pro-rata basis for two years in any public or private offering or registration of shares for public sale on behalf of any Quepasa shareholder. Finally, Quepasa has agreed to indemnify myYearbook's officers and directors in accordance with myYearbook's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and Indemnification Agreements. Additionally, these officers and directors will be entitled to directors and officers liability insurance protection for a period of time in the event that a claim is made against them by any myYearbook shareholder. These interests may cause myYearbook's executive officers and directors to view the Merger differently and more favorably than other myYearbook security holders may evaluate it. See "Interest of myYearbook Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 62.

Quepasa Corporation
Significant Notes and Assumptions to Pro-forma Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

On March 2, 2011, we completed a business acquisition of XtFt through a Stock Purchase Agreement. Prior to the acquisition date, XtFt was formed and it acquired substantially all of the assets and assumed certain liabilities of TechFront.

On July 19, 2011, Quepasa, Merger Sub, and myYearbook, entered into a Merger Agreement, providing for the acquisition of myYearbook by Quepasa. The Merger Agreement, as amended on September 15, 2011 provides that, upon the terms, as amended, and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, myYearbook will be merged with and into Merger Sub. Following the Merger, Merger Sub will change its name to Insider Guides, Inc. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, as amended, which has been approved by the Boards of Directors of the respective parties, if the Merger is completed, holders of myYearbook securities will receive $18 million in cash and 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock (not including cash for fractional shares). The parties agree that any difference between the cash consideration to be paid by Quepasa pursuant to the Merger Agreement and the amount raised in the related proposed financing transaction will be funded by Quepasa from cash on hand.

The accompanying unaudited pro-forma financial information reflects the financial statements of Quepasa, myYearbook and TechFront. The pro forma adjustments to the balance sheet give effect to the acquisition of myYearbook as if it occurred on June 30, 2011. The pro forma adjustments to the statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2011 give effect to the myYearbook acquisition as if it occurred on January 1, 2011. The pro forma adjustments to the statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2010 give effect to the myYearbook and XtFt acquisitions as if they occurred on January 1, 2010.

Significant Assumptions Include:

The myYearbook financial statements do not necessarily reflect assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the future date of the proposed Merger, will be subject to valuation and purchase price allocation, and may differ substantially from the estimates provided in preparing the pro-forma financial statements.

The TechFront financial information does not necessarily reflect assets acquired and liabilities assumed in Quepasa's acquisition.

Quepasa anticipates raising between $10 million and $18 million of capital for the Merger through issuance of common and convertible preferred stock. The number of common shares and share price were estimated at 1,397,233 and $3.5785, respectively and 1,000,000 shares of Series A Convertible Voting Preferred stock for $5,000,000, for a total of $10 million capital raised for purposes of the pro forma financial information. The Financing, through issuance of Series A Convertible Voting Preferred stock, is not contingent on the Merger closing. The Series A Convertible Voting Preferred stock is convertible into shares of Quepasa common stock at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share, provided that, if the Merger closes, the conversion price for the Series A will automatically be adjusted to reflect the lower of: (i) $3.5785 or (ii) the lesser of (A) 85% of the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on the closing date of the Merger or (B) 85% of the volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days ending with the date of the closing of the Merger.

For purposes of preparing the pro-forma financial statements, the value of the 17,000,000 shares issuable to myYearbook security holders was calculated by using the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on September 20, 2011, $4.21. The actual closing date fair value of the shares issued to myYearbook security holders may differ from the $4.21 share value assumed for this pro forma presentation.

Quepasa Corporation
 Significant Notes and Assumptions to Pro-forma Financial Statements
 (Unaudited)

XtFt's owners were issued 348,723 shares of common stock under the Stock Purchase Agreement.

We have estimated $1,500,000 acquisition costs associated with the Merger which is reflected as adjustments to accumulated deficit at June 30, 2011.

The myYearbook estimated purchase price was allocated, for the purposes of the pro forma presentation only, first to record identifiable assets and liabilities at fair value and the remainder to goodwill as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	$8,849,988
Accounts receivable	6,383,968
Property and equipment	3,699,084
Intangible assets	9,299,350
Other current and other assets	638,396
Total assets acquired	28,870,786
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	(2,480,143)
Notes Payable	(4,700,872)
Total liabilities assumed	(7,181,015)
Goodwill	67,880,229
Total purchase price	$89,570,000

No valuation of the myYearbook assets and liabilities has been made. The fair market value of the myYearbook assets and liabilities at the date of acquisition could differ substantially, impacting the purchase price allocation.

Intangible assets of myYearbook represent customer contracts, intellectual properties, and trademark license recorded at estimated fair value and are amortized using straight-line method over the estimated life of three years. The fair market value of myYearbook intangible assets could differ substantially after the completion of the valuation of assets and purchase price allocation at the date of acquisition. Amortization of myYearbook intangible assets was determined giving effect to the acquisition as if it occurred on January 1, 2010 and January 1, 2011, respectively, on the pro forma statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2010 and the six months ended June 30, 2011.

Other assets from the XtFt acquisition represent customer contracts recorded at fair value and are amortized using straight-line method over the life of the individual contract. Company Overview myYearbook.com makes meeting new people fun and easy online and on your mobile phone. myYearbook combines innovative social games, virtual goods, social and mobile games, a location-based news feed, video chat, and a robust virtual currency called "Lunch Money" to facilitate introductions and break the ice among its users.

myYearbook is the #1 site for "Teens" in terms of minutes, visits and pageviews in the comScore Teens category and is consistently ranked in the top 40 of all U.S. web domains in a number of leading statistics including minutes per user per month, page views and visits per visitor according to comScore. myYearbook drives revenue from a mix of advertising and virtual currency. In June 2011, myYearbook's mobile applications accounted for over 40% of its total active users, up from only 2% in January 2010.

Recent myYearbook highlights include:

- In January 2009, myYearbook launched the ability to purchase virtual currency directly with a credit card, PayPal or mobile phone. This was the first non-advertising revenue generated on the site.
- In May 2009, myYearbook launched the "VIP Club". The VIP Club provides members with a monthly Lunch Money increase, unlocks feature within most applications and awards increased Lunch Money for performing certain actions. VIP Club revenue quickly became a leading source of virtual currency revenue.
- In November 2009, myYearbook launched "Live Feed" which became its most popular application and increased member retention and page views. The Live Feed remains the core feature across the website and mobile applications today.
- In January 2010, myYearbook launched the Live gaming platform. Live is a real-time, synchronous gaming platform that pairs games with live video chat.
- In May 2010, myYearbook launched its first mobile application on the iPhone. Through June 2011, the iPhone application has been installed over 800,000 times.
- In July 2010, myYearbook launched its mobile application for Android. Through June 2011, the Android application has been installed over 1.2 million times. Mobile traffic now accounts for over 40% of total logins to the site.
- In March 2011, myYearbook announced that it acquired four mobile games and a mobile technology platform. As of June 2011, the mobile games account for over 11.5 million installs. The mobile technology platform will support a planned social layer across all of myYearbook's mobile applications and games.

In 2010, myYearbook's revenue and net income was $23.7 million and $3.1 million, respectively, which represented an increase from 2009 of $8.2 million and $4.6 million, respectively. myYearbook generates revenue through a mix of advertising and virtual currency sales. myYearbook serves three billion ad impressions each month on the web and one billion on mobile devices. Currency sales consist of direct Lunch Money purchases, "VIP" memberships and currency engagement actions including actions on myYearbook's cross-platform currency monetization product Social Theater.

Critical Accounting Policies, Judgments and Estimates

myYearbook's management's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations is based upon its financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. The preparation of these financial statements requires myYearbook to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and the related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities.

myYearbook bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that it believes are reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

An accounting policy is considered to be critical if it requires an accounting estimate to be made based on assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made, and if different estimates that reasonably could have been used, or changes in the accounting estimate that are reasonably likely to occur, could materially impact the consolidated financial statements.

myYearbook believes that the following critical accounting policies reflect the more significant estimates and assumptions used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

In addition, there are other items within myYearbook's financial statements that require estimation, but are not deemed critical as defined above. Changes in estimates used in these and other items could have a material impact on its financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

Advertising and custom sponsorship revenues consist primarily of advertising fees earned from the display of advertisements and click-throughs on text based links on myYearbook's website. Revenue from online advertising is recognized as impressions are delivered. An impression is delivered when an advertisement appears on pages viewed by members of the myYearbook website. Revenue from the display of click-throughs on text based links is recognized as click-throughs occur. Sponsorship revenue is recognized over the time period in which the sponsorship on the website occurs. Revenue from the sale of virtual currency is recognized when redeemed on the myYearbook website. myYearbook records deferred revenue on the accompanying balance sheets when payments for virtual currency are received in advance of usage.

Accounts Receivable Allowances

myYearbook maintains an allowance for potential credit losses based on historical experience and other information available to management. The fees associated with display advertising are often based on "impressions," which are created when the ad is viewed. The amount of impressions often differs between tracking systems, resulting in discounts on some payments. myYearbook maintains an allowance for potential discounts based on historical experience and other information available to management.

Income Taxes

myYearbook uses the asset and liability method to account for income taxes. Under this method, deferred income taxes are determined based on the differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the financial statements which will result in taxable or deductible amounts in future years and are measured using the currently enacted tax rates and laws. A valuation allowance is provided to reduce net deferred tax assets to the amount that, based on available evidence, is more likely than not to be realized.

Contingencies

myYearbook accrues for contingent obligations, including legal costs, when the obligation is probable and the amount can be reasonably estimated. As facts concerning contingencies become known, myYearbook reassess its position and makes appropriate adjustments to the financial statements. Estimates that are particularly sensitive to future changes include those related to tax, legal, and other regulatory matters that are subject to change as events evolve and additional information becomes available.

Share-Based Compensation

myYearbook records compensation expense for share-based awards based on the estimated fair value calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The option pricing model requires a number of assumptions, of which the most significant are expected stock price volatility and the expected option term. Since it was not practicable for myYearbook to estimate the expected volatility of its share price, myYearbook accounted for its options based on a value calculated using the historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index. Unvested option compensation expense will be recognized over the remaining option term.

myYearbook accounts for stock options granted to non-employees on a fair value basis over the vesting period using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The initial non-cash charge to operations for non-employee options with vesting is revalued at the end of each reporting period based upon the change in the fair value of myYearbook's common stock and amortized to consulting expense over the related vesting period.

myYearbook's revenues were $23,664,405 for the year ended December 31, 2010, an increase of $8,236,891 or 54% compared to $15,427,514 for the same period in 2009. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in advertising revenue of $7.4 million due to higher overall ad impressions and higher cost per million rates on impressions sold. We refer to cost per million as "CPM." Ad impressions in 2010 increased significantly due to the launch of ads on myYearbook's Live Feed application. Live Feed is myYearbook's most trafficked application. CPM increases during this period were a result of better internal optimization of ad impressions by myYearbook's advertising team along with a general improvement in the advertising market in 2010 compared to 2009. The remaining increase of $800,000 was the result of increased cost per action virtual currency sales.

Table of Contents

From fiscal year 2009 to 2010, myYearbook's revenue increased from $15.4 million to $23.7 million, its net income increased from a net loss of $(1.6) million to net income of $3.1 million and its EBITDA increased from $1.6 million to $4.9 million. EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure that myYearbook calculates as net income (loss) from operations plus non-cash operating expenses including stock based compensation expenses, depreciation, amortization and other non-cash charges. myYearbook believes that EBITDA provides useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating myYearbook's operating results in the same manner as its management and board of directors. For more information on the uses and limitations of EBITDA as well as a reconciliation of net income (loss) to EBITDA, see the section titled "Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization – Non-GAAP".

Expenses

Sales and Marketing: Sales and marketing expenses increased $1,371,553, or 104%, to $2,690,309 for the year ended December 31, 2010 from $1,318,756 in 2009. The increase is primarily attributable to an increase of $700,000 for commissions on advertising sales and increase of $600,000 on advertising, marketing and public relations expense. Sales commissions increased as a result of increased advertising revenue. The increase in advertising and marketing is due to increased trade magazine advertisements and ads directed at mobile user acquisition.

Information Technology: Information technology expenses increased $655,495, or 20%, to $3,948,385 for the year ended December 31, 2010 from $3,292,890 in 2009. $415,000 of the increase was attributable to occupancy and utilities charges in its datacenter. myYearbook leased additional space in 2010 to handle increased traffic and new application launches. The remaining increase of $240,000 was due to increases in miscellaneous data center equipment and supplies necessary to support the increased space in the data center.

General and Administrative: General and administrative expenses increased $2,912,052, or 31%, to $12,306,939 for the year ended December 31, 2010 from $9,394,887 in 2009. $2.0 million of the increase was due to increased headcount and salary increases, as myYearbook added 16 full time employees over the course of 2010, along with increases in existing salaries and benefits in the normal course of the business. Professional fees increased $400,000 due to increased intellectual property legal work and accounting and business diligence expenses. Travel and entertainment expenses increased $365,000 in 2010 due to increased management and sales travel for business development and promotion events. The remaining increase of $135,000 was due to general operating and overhead expense increases, including occupancy costs, insurance, supplies and utilities.

myYearbook records all employee compensation and benefit expenses within the General and Administrative expense category. The following table sets forth myYearbook's employee compensation and benefit expenses by department:

Other income (expense): Other income (expense) increased $1,887,162 to income of $1,408,787 for the year ended December 31, 2010 from a net expense of ($478,375) in 2009. $1.945 million of the increase was due to the sale of intellectual property by myYearbook in 2010 offset by the write off of $50,000 of other intellectual property. myYearbook sold a domain name that was not critical to the operations of its business. This increase was offset by increased interest expense of $27,000 caused by increased borrowing under its line of credit and a reduction in interesting income of $35,000 caused by lower money market rates on its cash and cash equivalent balances.

The remaining increase of $169,000 was due to increases in miscellaneous data center equipment and supplies necessary to support the increased space in the data center.

General and Administrative: General and administrative expenses increased $1,628,592, or 29%, to $7,258,450 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 from $5,629,858 for the same period in 2010. $1,182,000 of the increase was due to increased headcount and salary increases compared to the prior year period caused by additional full time employees and salary increases for existing employees. Travel and entertainment expenses increased $250,000 due to increased management and sales travel for business development and promotion events. Occupancy and utilities increased $90,000 due to increased leased space to accommodate increases in employee headcount. The remaining increase of $106,000 was due to other general operating and overhead expense increases, including insurance and supplies.

myYearbook records all employee compensation and benefit expenses within the General and administrative expense category. The following table sets forth myYearbook's employee compensation and benefit expenses by department:

	Six months ended June 30, (Unaudited)
	2011	2010
Sales and marketing	$ 1,328,635	$ 1,001,801
Product and content development	2,837,357	2,058,849
General and administrative	1,250,372	1,252,995
Total Employee Compensation	$ 5,416,364	$ 4,313,645

Depreciation: Depreciation expense increased $153,974, or 11%, to $1,600,161 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 from $1,446,187 for the same period in 2010. The increase is attributable to increased asset purchases to support myYearbook's technology infrastructure.

Other income (expense): Other income (expense) increased $41,991, or 18%, to ($279,756) for the six months ended June 30, 2011 from ($237,765) for the same period in 2010. This increase was due to increased interest expense of $40,000 caused by increased borrowing under myYearbook's line of credit and a reduction in interest income of $2,000 caused by lower money market rates on cash and cash equivalent balances.

Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization– Non-GAAP

EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure that may be considered in addition to results prepared in accordance with GAAP. Generally, a non-GAAP financial measure is a numerical measure of a company's performance, financial position or cash flows that either excludes or includes amounts that are not normally included or excluded in the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP. myYearbook defines "EBITDA" as income/(loss) from operations plus non-cash operating expenses including stock based compensation expenses, depreciation, amortization and other non-cash charges. This non-GAAP measure should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, GAAP results. myYearbook's management uses this non-GAAP financial measure in evaluating its financial and operational decision making and as a means to evaluate period-to-period comparison. myYearbook believes that both management and shareholders benefit from referring to non-GAAP financial measures such as EBITDA in planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods. Additionally, EBITDA provides meaningful information about myYearbook's ability to meet its working capital needs. EBITDA, as presented below, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies since not all companies necessarily EBITDA in an identical manner and, therefore, it is not necessarily an accurate measure of comparison between companies. The following table is a reconciliation of myYearbook's non-GAAP financial measure to loss from operations.

Other than the foregoing proposals, we do not expect any other matters to be presented for a vote at the Special Meeting. If any other matter is properly brought before the Special Meeting, your proxy gives authority to the proxies described therein to vote on such matters in their discretion.

No separate approval of the Merger Agreement or the Merger by Quepasa shareholders is necessary; Quepasa shareholders are not being asked to vote upon the Merger Agreement or the Merger. However, if Proposal 1 is not approved, the Merger cannot be completed.

What is the record date and who is entitled to vote?

Our Board has fixed the close of business on September 20, 2011 as the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. Only Quepasa shareholders of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to (a) receive notice of the Special Meeting, (b) attend the Special Meeting and (c) vote on all matters that properly come before the Special Meeting.

At the close of business on the record date, 16,668,281 shares of our common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted upon at the Special Meeting. The Quepasa common stock is the only class of securities entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

What are the voting procedures for record holders of Quepasa common stock and beneficial owners of Quepasa common stock holding their shares in “street name?”

Record Holders

If you hold your shares of Quepasa common stock directly in your name as a record holder, you may vote your shares using any of the following methods:

1. Vote by Internet. The website address for Internet voting is on your proxy card or the vote instruction form.
2. Vote by mail. Mark, date, sign and mail promptly the enclosed proxy card (a postage-paid envelope is provided for mailing in the United States).
3. Vote in person. Attend and vote at the Special Meeting.
4. Vote by phone. The phone number is on your proxy card or the vote instruction form.

Beneficial Owners (holding Quepasa shares in “street name”)

If you are the beneficial owner of shares of Quepasa common stock, but your shares are held in “street name” in an account at your broker or bank or with another nominee, you must instruct the broker or such other nominee as to how to vote your shares by following the instructions that the broker or other nominee provides to you. The voting instruction form that will be sent to you by your broker, bank or nominee will include details regarding how you may provide those voting instructions. Brokers usually offer the ability for shareholders to submit voting instructions by mail by completing a voting instruction form, by telephone or over the Internet. Please refer to the voting instruction form to see if you may submit voting instructions using the telephone or Internet.

If you are a beneficial owner holding your shares in “street name,” it is possible for you to attend the Quepasa Special Meeting and vote in person. In order to do so, you must obtain a valid “legal proxy” from the record holder of your shares.

What is an abstention and how is it treated?

An abstention represents a shareholder’s affirmative choice to decline to vote on a proposal. Abstained shares are considered to be “present” and “entitled to vote” at the Special Meeting and therefore are included in determining whether or not a quorum is present at the Special Meeting. Abstentions will have the effect of voting “AGAINST” each of the proposals.

What is a broker non-vote and how is it treated?

If your shares are held in “street name” in an account at your broker, bank or another nominee, you must instruct the broker, bank or such other nominee as to how to vote your shares by following the instructions they provide to you. If you do not provide these voting instructions, your Quepasa shares will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker or other nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote. This is called a “broker non-vote.” Except for Proposal 5 and Proposal 6, brokers will not have discretionary authority to vote on any of the proposals being submitted to a vote of Quepasa shareholders at the Special Meeting. Broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote “AGAINST” Proposal 2 (the authorized common shares increase proposal) and Proposal 3 (the reincorporation proposal).

What is considered a quorum at the Special Meeting?

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to validly hold the Special Meeting. A quorum will be present if a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock on the record date are represented at the Special Meeting, either in person or by proxy. Your shares will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum if you vote via the Internet, by telephone or by submitting a properly executed proxy card or voting instruction form by mail, or if you vote in person at the Special Meeting. Abstentions will be counted for determining whether a quorum is present for the Special Meeting. A quorum is not required to approve Proposal 6, the adjournment proposal.

How many votes are Quepasa executive officers and directors entitled to vote?

Pursuant to voting agreements entered into with my Yearbook, Quepasa directors, executive officers and certain shareholders have agreed to vote their shares of Quepasa common stock in favor of the share issuance proposal. The shares held by such directors, officers and shareholders collectively represented approximately 1.9 million shares of our common stock, or approximately 11.3% of the outstanding shares of Quepasa common stock as of the record date.

How will proxies be counted?

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the Special Meeting will be voted at the meeting in the manner specified by the shareholders giving those proxies. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted “FOR” each of the proposals.

Is my proxy or voting instruction form revocable?

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Special Meeting by giving written notice to the Corporate Secretary of Quepasa, by delivering a proxy card dated after the date of the proxy or by voting in person at the special meeting (although your attendance alone at the Special Meeting will not revoke your proxy). All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to revocations of proxies should be addressed to: Quepasa Corporation, 324 Datura Street, Suite 114, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or by facsimile (561) 651-9984.

If your shares are held in a “street name” you must contact your broker or other nominee to change your vote.

What happens if I sell my shares of Quepasa common stock before the Special Meeting?

The record date for the Special Meeting is earlier than the date of the Special Meeting. If you transfer your Quepasa shares after the record date but before the Special Meeting date, you will retain your right to vote those shares at the Special Meeting.

Who can I talk to if I have questions about the Special Meeting or the proposals to be voted on?

You can call Michael Matte, Corporate Secretary at (561) 650-8075 Monday through Friday between the hours of 9:30 and 4:00 New York time with any questions.

What is “householding” and how does it affect me?

Record holders who have the same address and last name will receive only one copy of their proxy materials, unless we are notified that one or more of these record holders wishes to continue receiving individual copies. This procedure will reduce our printing costs and postage fees. Shareholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards.

If you are eligible for householding, but you and other record holders with whom you share an address, receive multiple copies of these proxy materials, or if you hold Quepasa stock in more than one account, and in either case you wish to receive only a single copy of each of these documents for your household, please contact our transfer agent, Action Stock Transfer (in writing: Ms. Justeene Blankenship, Action Stock Transfer, Inc., 2469 E. Fort Union Blvd., Suite 214, Salt Lake City, UT 84121; or by telephone: (801) 274-1088 or (801) 274-1099 (facsimile)).

If you participate in householding and wish to receive a separate copy of these proxy materials, or if you do not wish to continue to participate in householding and prefer to receive separate copies of these documents in the future, please contact Action Stock Transfer as indicated above. Beneficial owners can request information about householding from the organization.

Will Quepasa be paying proxy solicitation fees in connection with the Special Meeting?

Quepasa will bear the cost of soliciting proxies for the Special Meeting. In addition to mailing these proxy materials, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone and facsimile, by mail, over the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. Quepasa has retained Morrow & Co., LLC to assist in the solicitation of proxies. We expect to pay Morrow & Co., LLC a fee of $10,000 for its services plus $6.00 per shareholder contacted by telephone. Quepasa also will request that banks, brokerage firms, custodians, trustees, nominees, fiduciaries and other similar record holders forward the solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of common stock held of record by such person, and Quepasa will, upon request of such record holders, reimburse forwarding charges and out-of-pocket expenses.

Will Quepasa's Auditors be attending the Special Meeting?

Representatives of Salberg & Company, P.A. are not expected to be present at the Special Meeting and accordingly will not make any statement or be available to respond to any questions.

PROPOSAL 1. ISSUANCE OF SHARES IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER.

If the Merger is completed, Quepasa will pay $18 million in cash and issue 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock to myYearbook's security holders (which does not give effect to cash paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares). In addition to the issuance of the shares of Quepasa common stock to myYearbook's security holders, Quepasa plans to issue additional shares of common stock and/or preferred stock in a related financing to obtain all or a portion of the cash payment to be made to myYearbook security holders. We are not asking for shareholder approval of the Merger or the Merger Agreement because neither Nevada law nor our Articles of Incorporation require shareholder approval of the Merger or the Merger Agreement under these circumstances. However, under applicable rules of the NYSE Amex, Quepasa shareholder approval is required for the issuance of the shares to myYearbook security holders and in the related financing. Those rules require shareholder approval whenever more than 20% of a listed company's outstanding shares are going to be issued in transactions such as these and we expect that the number of shares we will issue will exceed that 20% threshold. Furthermore, in September 2011, we sold $5 million of Series A to an existing shareholder, convertible into 1,397,233 shares of common stock at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share, provided that, if the Merger closes, the conversion price for the Series A will automatically be adjusted to reflect the lower of: (i) $3.5785 or (ii) the lesser of: (A) 85% of the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on the closing date of the Merger or (B) 85% of the volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days ending with the date of the closing of the Merger. The sale of the Series A did not, and the issuance of underlying shares at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share will not, require shareholder approval under NYSE Amex Rules because, among other factors, the Series A Financing was not contingent on closing the Merger and neither of the investors in such financing are myYearbook security holders. However, because the issuance of additional shares as a result of any reduction of the conversion price will require shareholder approval under NYSE Amex Rules, we are also seeking shareholder approval of this potential issuance of additional shares under this Proposal 1.

Based on an assumed sales price of $3.5785 in the related financing, we currently estimate that the number of shares of common stock that would be issued in the related financing is 1,397,233, assuming an additional $5 million is raised, or 3,632,807, assuming an additional $13 million is raised. The $5 million and $13 million financing alternatives described in the preceding sentence are intended solely to illustrate the number of shares that would need to be issued at an assumed sales price; we may decide to raise any amount between $5 million and $13 million for the cash portion of the Merger consideration. Additionally, these amounts do not include the additional shares that may be issuable upon the conversion of the Series A if the conversion price is reduced.

Our Board has adopted a resolution declaring it advisable and in the best interests of Quepasa and its shareholders to approve the issuances of shares in the Merger and related financing. The resolution also recommends that this share issuance proposal be approved and adopted by Quepasa's shareholders and directs that such proposal be submitted to Quepasa's shareholders at the Special Meeting.

If the share issuance proposal is not approved, the Merger cannot be completed because Quepasa will not be able to issue shares to myYearbook security holders as partial consideration for the Merger, nor will we be able to issue additional shares for cash to fund a portion of the cash payable as part of the Merger consideration (excluding the Series A).

Our Board recommends that Quepasa shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the share issuances.

Insider Guides, Inc.

myYearbook Overview

Insider Guides, Inc. owns and operates myYearbook.com, a social networking site. We refer to Insider Guides, Inc. as "myYearbook" in this proxy statement/prospectus.

myYearbook's mission is to provide its users a platform that makes meeting new people fun and easy - whether online or via mobile phone. myYearbook combines innovative social and mobile games, a location-based news feed, video chat, and a robust virtual currency called "Lunch Money" to facilitate introductions and break the ice among its users.

Table of Contents

myYearbook was formed as Insider Guides, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, in 2004. In 2006, it was reorganized as a Delaware corporation under the name Insider Guides, Inc. myYearbook started in a single high school in 2005 and has grown to over 32.7 million members worldwide. comScore, a global provider of digital marketing intelligence and measurement services, has ranked myYearbook the #1 site for "Teens" in terms of minutes, visits and page views in the comScore Teens category, which comprises websites that focus their content primarily on teen and younger audiences. Advertisers have found myYearbook to have an engaged teen and young adult demographic that can be served high-impact ad units like home page takeovers and that generate significant engagement (as further described under "myYearbook Business Overview - Sales and Advertising" below). myYearbook leverages its virtual currency to drive actions like video views on behalf of advertisers.

myYearbook is one of the most engaging sites on the Internet in the U.S. myYearbook consistently ranks in the top 40 of all U.S. web domains in a number of leading statistics, including minutes per user per month, page views and visits per visitor, according to comScore. myYearbook considers user engagement and retention as one of its core strengths, with 34% of its monthly active users logging in every day. myYearbook defines "monthly active users" as those users that log into its site at least once per month.

myYearbook is a geo-social network that heavily emphasizes its mobile experience. At the core of its mobile application is a location-based news feed that enables a user to discover new people in geographical proximity to the user. Over 40% of myYearbook's daily logins come from mobile devices, with more than 80% of all mobile logins from iPhone and Android phones.

myYearbook's mobile users are generating increasing activity with mobile page views, having grown from 140 million per month in November 2010 to over 1 billion per month in June 2011. myYearbook also owns four mobile games on the Android platform totaling 11.5 million total installations as of June 30, 2011.

myYearbook users use games as a means to meet new people. myYearbook emphasizes to users with whom they play as much as what they play, and matches users in real time with people they may be interested in: people of a similar age, of a desired gender, and near their geographic location. The myYearbook platform does not depend on any one game, but on building the social features and functionality around meeting new people and then filling the platform with games and applications that can leverage it.

myYearbook has achieved significant growth as it has scaled its network and expanded its product offerings.

myYearbook continues to develop and invest in products and technologies that focus on member base and monetization growth. myYearbook's 20 person mobile team expects to release a mobile social layer across all of myYearbook's mobile games and applications in the near future, with the goal of allowing users to access myYearbook.com from any device. myYearbook is also developing other technologies with web and mobile applications, including enhanced video products (in turn including further synchronous video gaming) and a paid virtual currency across both web and mobile applications.

myYearbook Business Overview

myYearbook's Mission

myYearbook's mission is to create the best place to meet new people on the web or mobile devices.

myYearbook's Products

myYearbook built a suite of in-house developed applications on the web that are aimed at keeping myYearbook's users engaged. Its leading applications include:

- "Live" — a real-time, synchronous gaming platform that pairs games with live video chat so users can see with whom they are playing;
 - "Live Feed" — a real-time, location-based activity stream with more than 2 million updates a day;
 - "Blind Date" — the largest compatibility game on the web with 500,000 questions answered every day;
- "Match" — a matchmaking game that helps users find their secret admirer with more than 4 million matches generated per day; and
- "Owned!" — an application where flirting meets virtual currency, which turns every photo into a virtual good that other users can bid on.

myYearbook's Platform

myYearbook initially built its games and applications solely for release on the web. In May 2010, myYearbook also started making its games and applications available on the iOS and Android platforms. myYearbook has seen substantial growth over the past year in traffic on its mobile applications. Since January 2010, mobile traffic has increased from 2% of its total daily logins to over 40% in June 2011. Through June 30, 2011, over 22 million installations of myYearbook's core mobile applications and approximately 11.5 million installations of its mobile games have been made on iPhone and Android.

myYearbook's core target demographic is teenagers and young adults, ages 13 to 24. Two-thirds of active users are under 24 years old, and the median age of an active user is 19. myYearbook's users are approximately 52% female and 48% male.

myYearbook's Virtual Goods

myYearbook's website and mobile applications are free to use. Its virtual currency called "Lunch Money" is an integral component of the myYearbook experience. Lunch Money enables myYearbook's members to play games, enhance their site experience, give gifts to other members and unlock features within most of myYearbook's applications. myYearbook believes that its players' acquisition and purchase of Lunch Money fosters social interaction that increases members' engagement. Nearly every application involves either spending or earning Lunch Money. A member may also choose to purchase Lunch Money directly or can join myYearbook's "VIP Club," which includes a monthly Lunch Money bonus.

myYearbook is able to drive actions and encourage frequent visits by rewarding members with Lunch Money for performing those actions. In furtherance of this goal, myYearbook awards a "Daily Login Bonus" to users to encourage them to login every day. The bonus multiplies for repeat visits. Lunch Money also facilitates actions that serve as components of the brand advertising campaigns that myYearbook sells. For example, the advertising packages that myYearbook sells to major brands can include standard ad impressions, homepage takeovers and video views, among other advertising components. In order to drive more video views, myYearbook awards Lunch Money to any user that watches the video to completion.

myYearbook's Sales and Revenue

myYearbook generates revenue through a mix of advertising and virtual currency sales.

Advertising — myYearbook serves three billion ad impressions each month on the web and one billion ad impressions each month on mobile devices. An "ad impression" refers to an image or video placed within the web page or mobile screen to promote a product or company. myYearbook's advertising team of 23 full-time employees covers major brand agencies, direct response and cost per action engagement advertisers, ad networks and mobile agencies directly from myYearbook's New York City office. Its brand and agency advertising is generally directed at companies looking for high-impact ad units and brand engagement from myYearbook's teen and young adult demographic. myYearbook optimizes remnant impressions across three advertising exchanges and over 100 advertising networks. "Remnant impressions" refers to ad impressions that myYearbook is not able to sell through its advertising team and that it therefore attempts to fill through a third party advertising exchange or network. myYearbook's advertisers have included leading companies and brands such as McDonalds, ABC Family, Universal Studios, Disney, Paramount Studios, Got Milk?, Sony Ericsson, Wrigley (Skittles and Juicy Fruit), and Men's Warehouse. myYearbook's advertising revenue is generated from many advertisers and is not dependent on one or only a few major customers.

We refer to the core success metric for our advertising campaigns as an "engagement". The engagements generated from an ad campaign are defined as a measurable online activity initiated by our members, including for instance, watching a branded video or clicking an advertising unit. As a measure of viral activity, total engagements are used to evaluate the overall success of an advertising campaign,

Table of Contents

Virtual Currency — myYearbook's virtual currency revenue consists of direct Lunch Money purchases, "VIP" memberships and currency engagement actions (i.e., sponsored engagement advertisements) including sales on myYearbook's proprietary cross-platform currency monetization product, "Social Theater." Social Theater is a video advertising platform in which users of social games watch videos to earn virtual currency. An advertiser uses Social Theater to distribute its video ad to millions of targeted individuals. In order to promote the ad and drive views, myYearbook awards the viewer virtual currency for viewing the ad to completion. Social Theater can also be used by advertisers to drive "Likes" and "shares" on Facebook and other social platforms. Social Theater is distributed across platforms outside of myYearbook, including Facebook, through partnerships with companies like Trialpay. Where Social Theater is distributed outside of myYearbook's owned-and-operated web sites and mobile apps, myYearbook pays a distribution fee. Virtual currency offers the possibility of substantial engagement to advertisers, with 20% of myYearbook's users completing an average of eight branded actions each month in exchange for virtual currency. Branded actions include incented video views through services such as Social Theater, registration for a service or product (such as Netflix) or collection of an email for product marketing. Clients of Social Theater measure the effectiveness of each campaign by measuring the number of people that view a specific video or register for a particular site.

New User Acquisition and Marketing of myYearbook myYearbook primarily relies on viral growth to acquire members. By encouraging existing members to share myYearbook.com with friends and providing them with an easy to use registration process, it has been able to grow the user base while minimizing marketing costs. myYearbook uses other platforms to create virality, including Facebook and other partner sites that share registration placements. On the web, myYearbook's registered user base has grown from 25.3 million as of January 2010 to 32.7 million as of June 2011.

Mobile devices account for a growing source of new members. myYearbook's ranking in the iPhone App Store and the Android Marketplace impacts the number of new members it acquires through mobile devices. Through June 30, 2011, myYearbook for iPhone and myYearbook for Android have together been installed over 2.2 million times.

myYearbook's Technology Stack

myYearbook's technology platform is designed to create an engaging social networking experience for its members and is built to enable future growth. myYearbook seeks to employ technological innovations whenever possible to increase efficiency and scale its business. For example, myYearbook was among the first to leverage FMS4 from Adobe in order to reduce the bandwidth demands of live video chat by enabling peer-to-peer video.

myYearbook's products rely upon and leverage the massive amounts of data in its network, such as "friend connections", Match connections and Blind Date questions answered. This rich dataset has grown exponentially, requiring scalable computing resources. myYearbook will continue to invest in building proprietary technologies while also exploiting open sourced technologies.

myYearbook's technology stack has the ability to handle sudden bursts of activity for millions of users over a short period of time with high levels of performance and reliability. As explained under "Risk Factors - Risks Related to myYearbook's Business - Any failure or significant interruption in myYearbook's network could impact its operations and harm its business", any damage to or failure of myYearbook's systems or its inability to scale its systems could result in interruptions in its service, which could reduce its revenue, and damage its brand.

myYearbook's Customer Support and Safety

myYearbook believes that customer support is critical to retaining and expanding its member base. myYearbook's safety and member services group responds to inquiries from its members relating to their accounts and how to use features and applications. Self-service support is available through the myYearbook website and members can also contact myYearbook via e-mail. myYearbook's safety and member services group also proactively reviews site content and images for materials that are not permitted under its terms of service. myYearbook's safety and member services group, comprised of 13 full-time and eight part-time employees, is active 24 hours per day and 365 days per year.

myYearbook's Competition

The social networking industry is fiercely competitive and constantly evolving. myYearbook faces significant competition in all aspects of its business. Specifically, it competes for new members, the leisure time and attention of its existing members, and the discretionary spending of its members. myYearbook also faces competition for advertising attention and budget allocations with other social networks and websites in general. myYearbook's most significant competition comes from sites and mobile apps, such as Facebook, Badoo, Myspace, Tagged, Hi5, and Foursquare.

myYearbook believes that it has competitive strengths that position it favorably within its target market. Whereas Facebook is used to connect with friends and family, myYearbook is used to meet new people. Context is important to social networking — Facebook users do not accept friend requests from users who are strangers in real life. Facebook's core asset is the social graph of a user's real-life friends and family, which it has not shown a willingness to compromise by encouraging friendships with people outside of real-world relationships. Moreover, the virality in the Facebook platform is today mostly limited to feed posting. Facebook apps that emphasize meeting new people have no natural advantage because publishing feed stories about meeting new people can be socially awkward on Facebook, where a person's mother or boss may be their "friend."

myYearbook's principal considerations related to attracting and retaining online users include functionality, performance, ease of use, usefulness, accessibility, integration, and personalization of the online services that it offers, as well as the overall user experience and quality of support on myYearbook. Its principal considerations related to attracting advertisers and publishers are the reach, effectiveness, and efficiency of its marketing and advertising services as well as the creativity of the marketing solutions that it offers. "Reach" refers to the audience and/or demographic that can be accessed through the myYearbook platform. "Effectiveness" for advertisers refers to myYearbook's ability to deliver against advertisers' targets and to measure and optimize its achievements against those targets. "Effectiveness" for publishers refers to myYearbook's advertising technology and the monetization opportunities it is able to offer through its technology and marketing services.

However, myYearbook's industry is evolving rapidly and the broader social networking category is dominated by Facebook. Whereas the myYearbook experience is differentiated from the Facebook experience (as described above), Facebook commands a large "share of voice" in the social networking market — according to comScore, one of three visits to U.S. web sites in June 2011 was to Facebook. There is risk that users will not have sufficient time on any given day to socialize on other services. Other companies that provide social networking services could develop more compelling offerings that compete with myYearbook's products and adversely impact its ability to attract and retain users.

Some of myYearbook's existing competitors have significantly greater financial, technical, and marketing resources and have greater market acceptance. There can be no assurance that myYearbook will be able to compete successfully against current or future competitors or that its competition will not have a material adverse effect on its business.

myYearbook's Intellectual Property

myYearbook protects its intellectual property rights by relying on federal, state and common law rights, as well as contractual restrictions. myYearbook controls access to its proprietary technology by entering into confidentiality and invention assignment agreements with its employees and contractors, and confidentiality agreements with third parties.

In addition to these contractual arrangements, myYearbook also relies on a combination of trade secrets, trademarks, trade dress and domain names to protect its intellectual property. myYearbook pursues the registration of its domain names, trademarks, and service marks in the United States and in certain locations outside the United States.

Circumstances outside myYearbook's control could pose a threat to its intellectual property rights. For example, effective intellectual property protection may not be available in the United States or other countries in which myYearbook's products and solutions are distributed. Also, the efforts that myYearbook has taken to protect its proprietary rights may not be sufficient or effective. Any significant impairment of its intellectual property rights could harm its business or its ability to compete. Also, protecting intellectual property rights is costly and time-consuming. Any unauthorized disclosure or use of myYearbook's intellectual property could make it more expensive to do business and harm its operating results.

Companies in the Internet, social media technology and other industries may own large numbers of patents, copyrights, and trademarks and from time to time may request license agreements, threaten litigation, or file suit against myYearbook based on allegations of infringement or other violations of intellectual property rights. From time to time, myYearbook faces, and expects to face in the future, allegations that it has infringed the trademarks, copyrights, patents and other intellectual property rights of third parties, including myYearbook's competitors and non-practicing entities. As myYearbook faces increasing competition and as its business grows, it will likely face more claims of infringement.

myYearbook's Employees

As of September 23, 2011, myYearbook employed approximately 106 full time employees, all in the United States, none of whom are represented by a labor union. myYearbook's future success is substantially dependant on the performance of its senior management and key technical personnel, and its continuing ability to attract and retain highly qualified technical and managerial personnel.

myYearbook is subject to a number of domestic and foreign laws and regulations that affect companies conducting business on the Internet, many of which are still evolving and could be interpreted in ways that could harm its business. In the United States and abroad, laws relating to the liability of providers of online services for activities of their users and other third parties are currently being tested by a number of claims, including actions based on invasion of privacy and other torts, unfair competition, copyright and trademark infringement, and other theories based on the nature and content of the materials searched, the ads posted, or the content provided by users. Any court ruling or other governmental action that imposes liability on providers of online services for the activities of their users and other third parties could harm myYearbook's business. In addition, rising concern about the use of social networking technologies for illegal conduct, such as the unauthorized dissemination of national security information, money laundering or supporting terrorist activities may in the future produce legislation or other governmental action that could require changes to myYearbook's products or services, restrict or impose additional costs upon the conduct of its business or cause users to abandon material aspects of its service.

In the area of information security and data protection, many states have passed laws requiring notification to users when there is a security breach for personal data, such as the 2002 amendment to California's Information Practices Act, or requiring the adoption of minimum information security standards that are often vaguely defined and difficult to practically implement. The costs of compliance with these laws may increase in the future as a result of changes in interpretation. Furthermore, any failure on myYearbook's part to comply with these laws may subject it to significant liabilities.

myYearbook is also subject to federal, state, and foreign laws regarding privacy and protection of member data. myYearbook posts on its website its privacy policy and user agreement, which describe its practices concerning the use, transmission and disclosure of member data. Any failure by myYearbook to comply with its posted privacy policy or privacy related laws and regulations could result in proceedings against it by governmental authorities or others, which could harm its business. In addition, the interpretation of data protection laws, and their application to the Internet is unclear and in a state of flux. There is a risk that these laws may be interpreted and applied in conflicting ways from state to state, country to country, or region to region, and in a manner that is not consistent with myYearbook's current data protection practices. Complying with these varying international requirements could cause myYearbook to incur additional costs and change its business practices. Further, any failure by myYearbook to adequately protect its members' privacy and data could result in a loss of member confidence in its services and ultimately in a loss of members and customers, which could adversely affect its business.

In addition, because myYearbook's services are accessible worldwide, foreign jurisdictions may claim that myYearbook is required to comply with their laws, including in jurisdictions where it has no local entity, employees, or infrastructure.

Other Information Concerning myYearbook

myYearbook is a private company and therefore has no established trading market for its common stock. IG Acquisition Company Merger Sub is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Quepasa and was incorporated in Delaware in July 2011, solely for the purpose of facilitating the Merger. Merger Sub has not carried on any activities to date, except for activities incidental to its formation and activities undertaken in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Effects of the Merger

At the effective time of the Merger, Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Quepasa that was formed for the sole purpose of effecting the Merger, will merge with myYearbook. Merger Sub will survive the Merger and become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Quepasa. Merger Sub's name will be changed to Insider Guides, Inc. after the closing of the Merger.

All of myYearbook's vested options and warrants will automatically be exercised at the closing of the Merger and the resulting shares of common stock together with existing shares of common and preferred stock will receive total Merger consideration equal to $18 million in cash and 17 million shares of Quepasa common stock (with cash being paid for any fractional shares). Prior to allocating any part of the Merger consideration, holders of Series A and Series B Preferred Stock shall first be paid their liquidation preferences. Series A shareholders have a preference of $1.0023 per share and Series B shareholders have a preference of $3.04 per share. Each myYearbook share will receive $3.43 which we refer to as the Merger Consideration Share Price. The Merger Consideration Share Price is computed by deducting the liquidation preferences from $100 million and dividing the balance by the number of myYearbook shares (including shares issuable upon exercise of vested options and warrants). Prior to the closing of the Merger, Quepasa is required to raise a minimum of $10 million from third parties. Quepasa expects that the proceeds of the Series A Financing and the $5 million MATT financing commitment will satisfy the $10 million financing condition, and may seek additional financing to help pay the cash portion of the Merger consideration.

Background of the Merger

As part of the ongoing oversight of its business, Quepasa's senior management team and our Board regularly review and discuss company performance, risks, opportunities and overall strategic direction. As part of these discussions, and in light of economic, competitive and other conditions, the management team and Board from time to time review and evaluate the possibility of pursuing various strategic alternatives as part of their ongoing efforts to strengthen their businesses and enhance shareholder value.

Reasons for entering into the Merger

In evaluating our proposed acquisition of myYearbook, including issuing shares of our common stock in connection with the Merger, our Board consulted with our management, and, in reaching its decision to recommend the issuance of shares of our common stock in connection with the Merger, our Board considered a number of factors. These factors including the following:

Table of Contents

- the Board believes it is in the best interests of Quepasa to change its business model by acquiring other social media companies. The myYearbook Merger meets this criteria; myYearbook's focus on social discovery, social gaming, virtual goods and brand advertising is similar to Quepasa.com, our Hispanic social media website;
 - myYearbook's retention and monetization expertise which could help improve revenue per user on our site;
 - myYearbook is one of the most trafficked sites in the U.S.;
- myYearbook's fast growing mobile application and its in-house developed applications focused on social discovery are aligned directly with our focus;
- the ability to expand the myYearbook Android and iPhone applications to Quepasa's user base in order to capitalize on rapidly growing smart phone penetration in the Latin American markets;
 - myYearbook's revenue growth and 2010 profitability;
- after the Merger, Quepasa and myYearbook would have a combined user base of over 70 million registered users, which would position Quepasa for significant growth;
 - myYearbook's large U.S. user base;
- the ability to provide us and myYearbook with the ability to cross-sell our DSM contests and myYearbook's offerings; and
 - the ability to publish our social games to myYearbook's online and mobile audience.

Our Board also considered the potential risks of the share issuance and the Merger, including those set forth in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Risk Factors." Finally, our Board obtained and relied upon an opinion from Raymond James as to the fairness of the Merger consideration from a financial point of view.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by our Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include the material factors considered by our Board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by our Board in connection with its evaluation of the share issuance and the Merger, our Board did not consider it practical to, and did not, quantify, rank or otherwise assign specific weights to the factors that it considered in reaching its determination and recommendation. In considering the factors described above and other factors, individual members of our Board may have given different weight to different factors. Our Board considered this information as a whole, and overall considered the information and factors to be favorable to, and in support of, its determinations and recommendation.

This explanation of our Board's reasoning and all other information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, you should read them in light of the factors discussed in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Forward-Looking Statements."

The myYearbook board of directors believes that the merger of Quepasa and myYearbook will provide the combined company with the opportunity to be a market leader in social discovery. The combination of the two companies is expected to provide myYearbook greater growth prospects and higher shareholder value than if myYearbook continued to operate alone. The myYearbook board of directors believes that by more than doubling the number of registered users, entering international markets, and increasing the size of the development team, the combined entity can build a global brand for social discovery.

Reasons for entering into the Amendment

As described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, the conditions to the closing of the Merger initially included a condition that the closing price of a share of Quepasa common stock on the day three days prior to the closing of the Merger not be less than $5.00 and a condition that the Transaction Share Price not be less than $5.00. Beginning in mid-August, the trading price of Quepasa's common stock regularly was less than $5.00. In view of the possibility that the two $5 price conditions might not be met if the stock continued to trade at that level and the uncertainty this could create among the parties' stakeholders, the parties began to discuss alternatives that would allow the Merger to proceed without regard to the trading price. As part of these discussions, myYearbook indicated a willingness to amend or eliminate the $5.00 price conditions, but expressed concern regarding the potential downside risk to its security holders if the $5.00 price conditions were eliminated. The parties agreed that amending the Agreement to provide for a fixed number of Quepasa shares to be issued to myYearbook security holders would address myYearbook's concern regarding the downside risk and provide myYearbook security holders with potential benefits if Quepasa's share price improved prior to closing, while fixing the number of shares would also address Quepasa's desire to have certainty as to the maximum number of shares it would be required to issue regardless of the stock price and thereby cap the dilution Quepasa's shareholders would experience as a result of the Merger.

Negotiations and Meetings

As part of this ongoing oversight, Quepasa management has embarked upon a plan to expand Quepasa from its historical role as a Hispanic social network. The first business opportunity identified was to develop social games, in-house. As a result, in March 2011, Quepasa acquired XtFt Games, which it renamed Quepasa Games. As part of its continuing evaluation of its business, Quepasa's management began discussing with the Quepasa Board of Directors the concept of rolling up other social networks and expanding Quepasa's mission beyond serving the Hispanic community. Following this, our senior management preliminarily identified myYearbook as constituting a good strategic fit with our business, brand and culture.

On March 29, 2011, Brian Garrett, our Senior Vice President Business Development and Strategy, emailed Geoffrey Cook, myYearbook's Chief Executive Officer, proposing to meet to discuss working together on future projects. Mr. Cook responded affirmatively.

On March 31, 2011, John Abbott, our Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Cook, met in New York and discussed Quepasa's and myYearbook's respective businesses and possible ways the companies might work together. Mr. Abbott and Mr. Cook agreed to continue their discussions and to enter into a mutual confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement. Following that meeting, Mr. Abbott sent an email to Mr. Cook with a proposed form of mutual confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement for use in connection with any future discussions between the parties.

On April 1, 2011, Scott Levine, myYearbook's Senior Vice President, Business Development, emailed a revised version of the proposed form of mutual confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement to Mr. Abbott. On April 4, 2011, in an email exchange between Messrs. Abbott and Levine, the parties exchanged executed copies of the mutual confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement.

In a series of emails on April 7 and 8, 2011, Mr. Levine and Michael Matte, our Chief Financial Officer, discussed plans for an in-person meeting between senior management of Quepasa and myYearbook to be held at myYearbook's offices in New Hope, Pennsylvania on April 20, 2011.

Table of Contents

On April 20, 2011, members of senior management of Quepasa and myYearbook held a meeting in New Hope, Pennsylvania to discuss the possibility of pursuing a strategic transaction, including the possible merits of a merger between Quepasa and myYearbook. A presentation of a possible deal structure and potential valuation was reviewed and discussed. Attendees at this meeting included Messrs. Abbott, Garrett, and Matte of Quepasa and Mr. Cook, Mr. Levine, and Jim Bugden, myYearbook's Chief Financial Officer.

On April 24, 2011, Mr. Cook emailed Mr. Matte regarding the financial information provided by Quepasa to myYearbook as part of myYearbook's due diligence review. Mr. Cook sought more insight into Quepasa's revenue structure and an understanding of our social games performance.

The Merger Agreement and the related agreements were executed and delivered by the parties on July 19, 2011. On July 19 and 20, 2011 members of senior management of Quepasa and myYearbook met in New York at the offices of myYearbook's counsel, SNR Denton, to discuss the joint press release announcing the proposed merger, investor communications and related matters. On July 20, 2011, Quepasa and myYearbook issued a joint press release announcing the signing of the Merger Agreement.

Beginning on approximately August 9, 2011, Mr. Cook began discussing recent changes in Quepasa's stock price with Messrs. Abbott and Matte and the possible implications for the closing of the Merger if the price declined below $5.00. In a series of emails and telephone conversations during the period of August 9 through September 2, 2011 the parties continued these discussions, including their mutual desire to complete the Merger and possible ways to do so if one or both of the $5.00 minimum price closing conditions were not met.

In addition, in a series of emails and telephone conversations during the period of September 2 through September 9, 2011, representatives of myYearbook's financial advisor and Mr. Matte discussed the continued trading in Quepasa common stock below $5.00, the potential uncertainty this might be creating in the market regarding the Merger, and possible approaches the parties might take to alleviate that uncertainty. As part of these discussions, myYearbook's financial advisors indicated myYearbook's willingness to amend the Agreement to revise or eliminate the $5.00 minimum price closing conditions, but expressed myYearbook's concern regarding the potential downside risk to its security holders if the closing price condition was eliminated and the trading price of Quepasa shares fell further. myYearbook proposed alternatives to ensure that the number of myYearbook security holders would receive in the Merger not fall below a certain level. Mr. Matte indicated Quepasa's desire to eliminate the $5.00 minimum price closing conditions and its willingness to consider providing myYearbook security holders some form of protection against the potential downside risk, but noted Quepasa's concerns regarding the amount of dilution Quepasa's existing shareholders could experience under myYearbook's proposed alternatives. To address those concerns, myYearbook proposed eliminating the formula-based approach to determining the number of shares myYearbook security holders would receive in favor of a fixed number of shares, which would provide certainty as to the maximum number of shares Quepasa would be required to issue regardless of the stock price and thereby cap the dilution Quepasa's shareholders would experience.

On September 9, 2011, myYearbook's board of directors met to discuss the status of the discussions with Quepasa and authorized myYearbook's management and counsel to proceed with the preparation and negotiation of the amendment to the Agreement.

On September 10, 2011, the Executive Committee of Quepasa's Board of Directors met to consider a proposal to amend the Merger Agreement by fixing the number of shares of Quepasa common stock at 17 million. The Executive Committee authorized Quepasa management to enter into an amendment to the Merger Agreement fixing the number of shares at 17 million, eliminating the $5 minimum price closing conditions and reducing the ability of both parties to refuse to close as a result of a Material Adverse Effect.

On September 10, 2011, myYearbook forwarded a draft of the proposed amendment to the Agreement to Quepasa. During the period of September 10 through September 14, 2011, the parties and their respective counsel negotiated the terms of the proposed amendment to the Agreement. In particular, the parties agreed that the $5.00 trading price closing condition and that the number of shares of Quepasa common stock issuable to myYearbook security holders upon closing of the Merger would be fixed at 17,000,000 and would not increase or decrease as a result of any changes in Quepasa's stock price prior to the closing. The definitive form of the Amendment was distributed to myYearbook's board of directors on September 14, 2011 and approved by the unanimous written consent.

The Amendment was executed and delivered by the parties on September 15, 2011. On September 16, 2011 Quepasa issued a press release announcing the signing of the Amendment.

Following execution of the Amendment, Quepasa obtained revised copies of a tax opinion and a fairness opinion, both of which are exhibits to the Registration Statement on Form S-4 which contains this proxy statement/prospectus.

Financing of the Merger

The cash portion of the Merger consideration payable to myYearbook security holders is $18 million. The Merger Agreement requires Quepasa to complete a financing of at least $10 million in order to fund the cash portion of the Merger consideration as a condition to closing the Merger.

Quepasa currently plans to pay the $18 million cash portion of the Merger consideration using a combination of its available cash resources, including the proceeds obtained from its recent sale of $5 million in Series A, and funds obtained through the sale of shares of its common stock and/or preferred stock in a related financing. The Series A are convertible into shares of Quepasa common stock at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share, provided that, if the Merger closes, the conversion price for the Series A will automatically be adjusted to reflect the lower of: (i) $3.5785 or (ii) the lesser of: (A) 85% of the closing price of Quepasa's common stock on the closing date of the Merger or (B) 85% of the volume weighted average price during the 20 trading days ending with the date of the closing of the Merger. The sale of the Series A did not, and the issuance of underlying shares at a conversion price of $3.5785 per share will not, require shareholder approval under NYSE Amex Rules because, among other factors, the Series A Financing was not contingent on closing the Merger and neither of the investors in such financing were myYearbook security holders. However, because the issuance of additional shares as a result of any reduction of the conversion price will require shareholder approval under NYSE Amex Rules, we are seeking shareholder approval of this potential issuance of additional shares, along with the issuance of shares payable to myYearbook security holders and of shares in the related financing, under Proposal 1. The $5 million raised in the Series A Financing is being applied to satisfy, in part, the $10 million financing condition included in the Merger Agreement. Quepasa has furthermore received a $5 million financing commitment from MATT, Inc., a large existing Quepasa shareholder. If the Merger closes, MATT, Inc. has committed to purchase $5 million of common stock at a purchase price equal to the lesser of: (a) $4.82 per share of common stock and (b) 85% of the average closing price of a share of common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day immediately prior to the closing of the Merger. In connection with such purchase, MATT, Inc. is also entitled to certain registration rights as set forth in the financing commitment. Under the terms of the financing commitment, MATT, Inc. also has the right to elect to invest the amount of the financing commitment on the same terms as any alternate or additional financing, including the Series A Financing, instead of the terms set forth in the financing commitment. The investors in the related financing will also receive registration rights, and certain participation rights and first right of refusal rights with respect to any remaining amounts Quepasa will seek to raise in the related financing.

Interests of Quepasa Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Neither Quepasa nor any of our executive officers or directors beneficially owns any of myYearbook's outstanding securities.

Interests of myYearbook Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Because officers and directors receive part of the Merger consideration, their interests are aligned with all other myYearbook security holders. However, certain key employees of myYearbook have entered into multi-year employment agreements with Quepasa (subject to the consummation of the Merger) providing them with base salaries and potential bonus compensation, the right to receive stock options and severance. In addition, certain larger myYearbook shareholders will have the right to participate on a pro-rata basis for two years in any public or private offering or registration of shares for public sale on behalf of any Quepasa shareholder. Finally, Quepasa has agreed to indemnify myYearbook's officers and directors in accordance with myYearbook's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and Indemnification Agreements. Additionally, these officers and directors will be entitled to directors and officers liability insurance protection for a period of time in the event that a claim is made against them by any myYearbook shareholder.

Five current directors of Quepasa, John Abbott, Alonso Ancira, Lars Batista, Ernesto Cruz, and Malcolm Jozoff, and three current directors of myYearbook, Geoffrey Cook, Richard Lewis, and Terry Herndon (or replacement designees selected by myYearbook) are expected to serve as directors of Quepasa after the Merger. In addition, Mr. Cook will be named Chief Operating Officer of Quepasa and also will serve as President of the Consumer Internet Division. Quepasa and Mr. Cook entered into an employment agreement which will be effective upon the closing of the Merger. Under the employment agreement, Mr. Cook will receive (i) a base salary of $250,000 per year, (ii) 450,000 stock options vesting based on certain performance milestones and (iii) a targeted annual bonus equivalent to no less than 85% of the average of the bonuses paid to Quepasa's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. In addition, Mr. Cook will become a director and an executive committee member of Quepasa, and we will be required to use our best efforts to appoint him to these positions for a period of three years. We will be required to use our best efforts to designate two additional designees of myYearbook as members of our Board for the same three-year period. These interests may cause myYearbook's executive officers and directors to view the Merger differently and more favorably than other myYearbook security holders may evaluate it.

Board of Directors Post-Merger

Upon closing of the Merger, the Quepasa Board will be comprised of eight members, of whom one member will be Geoffrey Cook, the current Chief Executive Officer of myYearbook and two additional members who will be designees of myYearbook. See the Section entitled "New Directors of Quepasa Post Merger" below. In connection with the Merger Agreement, Quepasa will include three myYearbook designees on the slate of directors recommended for election to shareholders for three years following the closing of the Merger.

Table of Contents

Because Quepasa currently has seven directors, Lionel Sosa and Dr. Jill Syverson-Stork have agreed to resign immediately prior to the Merger closing. Additionally, the Merger Agreement requires a three person Executive Committee including Mr. Cook. Presently, Quepasa’s Executive Committee consists of Messrs. John Abbott, Malcolm Jozoff and Lionel Sosa. Mr. Sosa has agreed to resign immediately prior to the Merger closing.

Mr. Lewis is 40 years old and serves, or has served, as a director of four private companies in addition to myYearbook. Mr. Lewis was designated by myYearbook to serve as a Quepasa director because of his experience on several venture-backed boards and his five years of experience as a director of myYearbook.

Mr. Terry Herndon is a director designee of myYearbook. Mr. Herndon was appointed as a director of myYearbook in 2005. Since 2003, Mr. Herndon has been a part-time scientific researcher with PATH Scientific LLC, of which he is the founder and owner. PATH is a medical device development and invention group. Mr. Herndon is 77 years old and serves as a director of two private companies in addition to myYearbook. Mr. Herndon was designated by myYearbook to serve as a Quepasa director because of his experience serving as a director of myYearbook for more than five years.

Quepasa expects its Board to determine that Messrs. Lewis and Herndon, once appointed, will be independent directors in accordance with the listing rules of the NYSE Amex.

Beneficial ownership is determined under the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. A person is deemed to be the beneficial owner of securities that can be acquired by such person within 60 days whether upon the exercise of options or otherwise. Shares subject to options, warrants and convertible notes currently exercisable or convertible, or exercisable or convertible within 60 days are deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of the person holding such securities but are not deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of any other person. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table, Quepasa believes that each of the shareholders named in the table has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares indicated as beneficially owned by them. This table includes options that are vesting and exercisable within 60 days of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The Merger will become effective as of the date and time specified in the certificate of merger filed by the parties with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or such other date and time the parties agree. Table of Contents

Merger Consideration

After holders of myYearbook's Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock including the holders of myYearbook's warrants receive their liquidation preferences as described below, the remaining Merger consideration, which, on a per share basis, we refer to as the Merger Consideration Share Price, will be paid to the holders of myYearbook's common stock, preferred stock, options and warrants. The Merger Consideration Share Price is calculated by subtracting the liquidation preferences, which total $18,128,910.15, from the Total Merger Consideration and dividing the resulting difference by the total number of myYearbook shares of common stock and preferred stock outstanding (including shares issuable upon exercise of vested options and warrants), treating all outstanding preferred stock on an as-converted-to-common-stock basis. The Total Merger Consideration is the sum of (A) the cash consideration of $18 million plus (B) the Transaction Share Price multiplied by 17 million. The phrase Transaction Share Price means the average closing price of Quepasa's common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day prior to the effective time of the Merger.

Initially, the Transaction Share Price was the lesser of (A) $10 per share and (B) the average of (i) $7.5715 and (ii) the average closing price of Quepasa common stock on the 20 trading days ending with the trading day three days prior to the closing of the Merger. On September 15, 2011, Quepasa and myYearbook agreed to amend the Merger Agreement to provide for the payment of $18 million in cash and the issuance of 17 million shares to myYearbook's security holders (not including cash paid for fractional shares) at a Transaction Share Price that reflects the average closing price of Quepasa's common stock during the 20 trading days ending with the trading day prior to the effective time of the Merger.

The Merger consideration will be paid partially in cash and partially in Quepasa common stock. Because the holders of vested myYearbook options will receive only shares of Quepasa common stock as Merger consideration, while all other myYearbook security holders will receive their Merger consideration partially in cash and partially in shares of Quepasa common stock, the exact amount of cash and number of shares of Quepasa common stock that each myYearbook security holder (other than holders of vested options) will receive depends on (a) whether any myYearbook options are granted or forfeited or otherwise canceled prior to the effective time of the Merger, (b) the number of options that vest prior to the effective time of the Merger and (c) the number of vested options that are exercised prior to the effective time of the Merger.

If the Merger had been completed on July 20, 2011 (the day after the execution of the Merger Agreement), myYearbook security holders (other than holders of vested options) would have received Total Merger Consideration consisting of $18 million in cash and approximately $120 million in Quepasa common stock. For this purpose, we assume that the Transaction Share Price is $7.0770, representing the average per share closing price of Quepasa common stock during the 20 trading days ending on July 19, 2011. If the Merger were to be completed on November 9, 2011 and assuming that (i) the Transaction Share Price is $4.4840, representing the average per share closing price during the 20 trading days ending on September 15, 2011 (the day the Amendment was executed), (ii) no additional options are granted or forfeited or otherwise canceled, (iii) outstanding options continue to vest in accordance with their respective schedules and (iv) no options are exercised between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and November 9, 2011, myYearbook security holders (other than holders of vested options) would receive Total Merger Consideration consisting of $18 million in cash and approximately $76 million in Quepasa common stock.

If the Merger were to be completed on November 9, 2011, then, making the assumptions listed above, myYearbook security holders would receive the following Merger consideration (paid in cash and shares of Quepasa common stock as described above):

- Holders of myYearbook Common Stock. For each share of myYearbook common stock that they own, myYearbook shareholders will receive the Merger Consideration Share Price of $3.4370.
- Holders of myYearbook Series A Preferred Stock. For each share of myYearbook Series A Preferred Stock that they own, myYearbook shareholders will receive a liquidation preference of $1.0023 and the Merger Consideration Share Price of $3.4370.
- Holders of myYearbook Series B Preferred Stock. For each share of myYearbook Series B Preferred Stock that they own, myYearbook shareholders will receive a liquidation preference of $3.04 and the Merger Consideration Share Price of $3.4370.
- Holders of vested myYearbook options. These option holders will receive $3.4370 less the amount of the exercise price and an amount sufficient to cover required tax withholdings listed below. Holders of vested myYearbook options will receive 100% of their Merger consideration in shares of Quepasa common stock.

Issue Dates	Exercise Price (to be deducted)	Estimated Taxes (to be deducted)
January 2007 through December 2007	$0.24	$0.116
January 2008 through July 2008	$0.34	$0.157
August 2008 through February 2009	$0.74	$0.280
March 2009 through February 2010	$0.42	$0.186

Fees and Expenses

Under the Merger Agreement, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will generally be paid by the party incurring those expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated. Such payment shall be made promptly in immediately available funds.

The key definitions used in the summary above are as follows:

A “Quepasa Triggering Event” has occurred if: (i) the Quepasa Board withdraws or amends or modifies in a manner adverse to myYearbook its recommendation that Quepasa’s shareholders vote in favor of the issuance of shares in connection with the Merger; (ii) Quepasa does not include such shareholder recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus; (iii) the Quepasa Board approves or recommends any Acquisition Proposal; (v) Quepasa enters into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Proposal; or (vi) a tender or exchange offer relating to securities of Quepasa has commenced by a person unaffiliated with myYearbook and Quepasa shall not have sent to its security holders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act, within 10 business days after such tender or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement disclosing that Quepasa recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer.

“Acquisition” means any of the following transactions (other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement): (i) a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction pursuant to which the company’s shareholders immediately preceding such transaction hold less than 80% of the aggregate equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction, (ii) a sale or other disposition of assets representing in excess of 20% of the aggregate fair market value of the business immediately prior to such sale, or (iii) the acquisition by any person (including by way of a tender offer or an exchange offer or issuance by such company), directly or indirectly, of beneficial ownership or a right to acquire beneficial ownership of shares representing in excess of 20% of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of the company. The term “Acquisition” does not include a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction solely among the company and one or more of its subsidiaries or among its subsidiaries.

Amendment and Waiver

Subject to applicable legal requirements, the Merger Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time prior to the effective time of the Merger by the written agreement of Quepasa, Merger Sub and myYearbook. In addition, at any time prior to the effective time of the Merger, to the extent legally permitted, Quepasa and myYearbook may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to the waiving party, or (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of that party. An agreement by a party to any extension or waiver must be in writing and signed on behalf of that party. Any waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with any obligation, covenant, agreement or condition will not operate as a waiver or estoppel with respect to any subsequent or other failure.

Voting Agreements; Restrictions on Resales

Voting

Certain Quepasa directors, executive officers and shareholders have executed voting agreements for the benefit of myYearbook pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares of Quepasa common stock in favor of the share issuance proposal at the Special Meeting. They have also agreed to vote their shares against approval of any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, the issuance of shares of common stock as consideration for the Merger and against any action which Quepasa is prohibited from taking under Section 5.2 of the Merger Agreement (with respect to the operation of the Quepasa business prior to the effective time of the Merger). The shares held by these Quepasa directors, officers and shareholders collectively represented approximately 11.3% of the outstanding shares of Quepasa common stock as of the record date for the Special Meeting.

Certain myYearbook directors, executive officers and shareholders have executed voting agreements for the benefit of Quepasa pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their myYearbook shares in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and approve of the Merger at the special meeting of myYearbook's shareholders. They have also agreed to vote their shares against any action which myYearbook is prohibited from taking under Section 5.1 (with respect to the operation of the myYearbook business prior to the effective time of the Merger) and Section 5.2 (with respect to alternative transactions) of the Merger Agreement.

Resale Restrictions

The resale restrictions on the shares of Quepasa common stock issued to myYearbook security holders in the Merger were extended from a period of two months to five months following the closing of the Merger. Of the shares of Quepasa common stock issued to the myYearbook security holders, 16.67% will have no resale restrictions and may be immediately sold following the closing of the Merger. Each security holder may sell up to an additional 16.67% each month thereafter. After five months following the closing of the Merger, the resale restrictions lapse entirely and each security holder may sell all of the shares of Quepasa common stock held by such security holder. However, the security holders may transfer shares of common stock at any time during that five month period subject to certain restrictions. The public sale of common stock beneficially owned by three myYearbook directors who will become directors of Quepasa also will be subject to customary restrictions applicable to Quepasa affiliates.

- After one month following the closing of the Merger, each shareholder may sell up to an additional 35% of the shares of Quepasa common stock held by such shareholder; and
- After two months following the closing of the Merger, the resale restrictions lapse entirely and each shareholder may sell all of the shares of Quepasa common stock held by such shareholder.

In each case, shares of Quepasa common stock owned or controlled by myYearbook security holders who become "affiliates" of Quepasa following the Merger may only be sold in compliance with the applicable provisions of Rule 144 of the Securities Act.

Sale Rights Agreement

Simultaneously with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, Quepasa and certain myYearbook security holders entered into the Sales Rights Agreement. The Sales Rights Agreement provides the myYearbook security holders who are parties to the agreement certain rights to require Quepasa to register the shares of Quepasa common stock they acquire in the Merger for resale. If during the 24 month period following the closing of the Merger, Quepasa proposes to sell shares of its common stock in a public or private offering, these myYearbook security holders will have the opportunity to participate and sell their shares of common stock in the offering, subject to certain limitations and conditions. Quepasa is obligated to pay all expenses relating to the registration of the shares covered by the agreement, including all registration and filing fees, printing expenses, fees and disbursements of counsel for Quepasa, reasonable fees and disbursements of a single special counsel for shareholder, blue sky fees and expenses and the expense of any special audits incident to or required by any such registration. The selling shareholders will be responsible for paying all underwriting discounts and selling commission relating to any sales of their shares. In addition, Quepasa has agreed to indemnify the shareholders, and the shareholders have agreed to indemnify Quepasa, for certain losses and liabilities they may incur in connection with the registration, offer and sale of the shares pursuant to the Sales Rights Agreement, including liabilities under the securities laws.

Amendment to the Merger Agreement

On September 15, 2011, Quepasa and myYearbook agreed to amend the Merger Agreement. In view of the possibility that the two $5 price conditions might not be met if the stock continued to trade at that level and the uncertainty this could create among the parties' stakeholders, the parties began to discuss alternatives that would allow the Merger to proceed without regard to the trading price. As part of these discussions, myYearbook indicated a willingness to amend or eliminate the $5.00 price conditions, but expressed concern regarding the potential downside risk to its security holders if the $5.00 price conditions were eliminated. The parties agreed that amending the Agreement to provide for a fixed number of Quepasa shares to be issued to myYearbook security holders would address myYearbook's concern regarding the downside risk and provide myYearbook security holders with potential benefits if Quepasa's share price improved prior to closing, while fixing the number of shares would also address Quepasa's desire to have certainty as to the maximum number of shares it would be required to issue regardless of the stock price and thereby cap the dilution Quepasa's shareholders would experience as a result of the Merger. The key provisions of the Amendment were:

- (1) Merger Consideration. The portion of the Merger consideration which was to be paid in Quepasa common stock was amended from $82 million in shares to 17 million shares of common stock.
- (2) $5.00 Minimum Price. The Merger Agreement contained a condition that the closing price of a share of Quepasa common stock on the day three days prior to the closing of the Merger not be less than $5.00 and a condition that the Transaction Share Price not be less than $5.00. Both conditions were eliminated by the Amendment. There are no longer any minimum price requirements.
- (3) Resale Restrictions. The resale restrictions on the shares of Quepasa common stock issued to myYearbook security holders in the Merger were extended from a period of two months to five months following the closing of the Merger. Of the shares of Quepasa common stock issued to the myYearbook security holders, 16.67% will have no resale restrictions and may be immediately sold following the closing of the Merger. Each security holder may sell up to an additional 16.67% each month thereafter. After five months following the closing of the Merger, the resale restrictions lapse entirely and each security holder may sell all of the shares of Quepasa common stock held by such security holder (subject to customary limitations on sales by three myYearbook directors who will become directors of Quepasa). However, the security holders may transfer shares of common stock at any time during that five month period subject to certain restrictions.
- (4) Closing Conditions. The Amendment provided that no information or events known by Quepasa or myYearbook as of September 15, 2011, including financial results through August 31, 2011, shall be considered when determining if a Material Adverse Effect has occurred. Furthermore, the definition of Material Adverse Effect, which permits either party to elect to not close if a material adverse effect occurs with respect to the other party, has been limited. Any change in the financial condition or results of operations of either party will no longer be considered a Material Adverse Effect.
- (5) Dissenter's Rights. The Merger Agreement provided that if the total number of dissenting shares exceeded five percent of the total number of the outstanding shares of the myYearbook's stock, the Merger would not close. This condition was eliminated by the Amendment and now is a condition which only permits Quepasa to decide not to close.

Opinion of Quepasa Corporation's Financial Advisor

Quepasa retained Raymond James as financial advisor on July 1, 2011 to provide an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Quepasa of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to myYearbook security holders in connection with the Merger. Raymond James issued an initial opinion on July 19, 2011 pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement prior to its proposed amendment. On September 13, 2011, Quepasa requested that Raymond James opine on the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Quepasa of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to myYearbook security holders in connection with the Merger as amended by the Amendment. When we refer to the Merger Agreement in this section, unless obvious from the context, we are referring to the Merger Agreement, as amended by the Amendment. Pursuant to the terms and subject to the additional conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the aggregate value of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa is $94,228,000, $18,000,000 of which shall be paid by Quepasa in cash and the remaining $76,228,000 shall be satisfied by Quepasa's issuance of 17,000,000 shares of its common stock. Solely for purposes of assessing the value of the 17,000,000 shares of Quepasa common stock to be issued in the Merger, which pursuant to the Merger Agreement will be calculated based on the average closing price of a share of Quepasa common stock during the 20 trading days ending on the Effective Date of the Merger, Raymond James assumed that the price per share of Quepasa's common stock would be equal to $4.484 per share, which represented the average closing price of a share of Quepasa common stock during the 20 trading days ended September 15, 2011.

After the close of business on September 15, 2011, Raymond James rendered its opinion to Quepasa's Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to various qualifications and assumptions described therein, the consideration to be paid by Quepasa pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to Quepasa. Whereas Raymond James previously was requested its opinion as to the fairness of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa in connection with the Merger pursuant to the Agreement on July 19, 2011, its opinion dated as of September 15, 2011, superceded the opinion dated July 19, 2011 and all prior communication on the subject matter thereof.

The full text of the aforementioned written opinion of Raymond James, dated September 15, 2011, which sets forth assumptions made, matters considered, and limits on the scope of the review undertaken by Raymond James, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of the opinion of Raymond James set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such written opinion, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Holders of Quepasa common stock are urged to read the written opinion in its entirety. Raymond James's written opinion, which is addressed to the Quepasa Board, is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to myYearbook security holders in connection with the Merger. Raymond James's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Quepasa common stock as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting of Quepasa shareholders and does not address any other aspect of the Merger or any related transaction. Raymond James does not express any opinion as to the likely trading range of Quepasa common stock following the Merger, which may vary depending on numerous factors that generally impact the price of securities, or on the financial condition of Quepasa or myYearbook at that time.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Raymond James, among other things:

- reviewed an execution copy of the Merger Agreement provided to Raymond James on July 19, 2011;
- reviewed a draft of the Amendment provided to Raymond James on September 15, 2011;
- reviewed the financial terms and conditions as stated in such execution copy of the Merger Agreement and a draft of the Amendment;
- reviewed the audited financial statements of myYearbook as of and for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, and the unaudited financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2011 and June 30, 2011, as well as summary financial information for the period ended August 31, 2011;
- reviewed the audited consolidated financial statements of Quepasa as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, and the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2011 and June 30, 2011;
- reviewed Quepasa's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, and Quepasa's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2011 and June 30, 2011;
- reviewed Quepasa's Registration Statement on Form S-4, as initially filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 11, 2011, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto dated August 26, 2011;
- reviewed other financial and operating information provided to Raymond James by myYearbook or Quepasa;
- met with and discussed with members of the senior management of Quepasa and myYearbook certain information relating to the aforementioned matters and any other matters which Raymond James deemed relevant to its inquiry;
- reviewed and discussed with senior management of Quepasa and myYearbook the historical and anticipated future financial performance of myYearbook, including the review of myYearbook financial forecasts prepared by senior management of Quepasa and myYearbook;
- compared financial information for myYearbook with similar information for companies which Raymond James deemed to be comparable, except that such other companies had publicly traded equity securities;
- reviewed the financial terms of recent business combinations involving companies in comparable businesses and industries; and
- performed such other analyses and studies, and considered such other factors, as Raymond James considered appropriate.

In connection with its review, Raymond James assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to Raymond James by Quepasa, myYearbook or any other party, and did not undertake any duty or responsibility to verify independently any of such information. Raymond James has not made or obtained an independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Quepasa, myYearbook, or any other party. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Raymond James, Raymond James assumed that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of Quepasa and myYearbook, and relied upon each party to advise Raymond James promptly if any information previously provided to Raymond James became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of its review. Additionally, the financial forecasts are subject to a number of assumptions made in good faith but which may in some or many respects not be met.

In rendering its opinion, Raymond James assumed that the Merger would be consummated on the terms described in the Merger Agreement. Furthermore, Raymond James assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Merger Agreement were true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the Merger Agreement will be satisfied without being waived. Raymond James also assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other filings, notices, consents and approvals will be obtained and that, in the course of obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals, or any amendments, modifications or waivers to any documents to which Quepasa is a party, as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, no restrictions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made to the terms of the Merger or the businesses of myYearbook or Quepasa that would have any adverse or material effect on Quepasa or myYearbook. In its financial analyses, Raymond James assumed, with Quepasa's permission, that the consideration to be paid to the security holders of myYearbook had a value of $94,228,000. Raymond James did not, and was not requested to, solicit third party indications of interest for Quepasa in connection with possible purchases of Quepasa's securities or the acquisition of all or any part of Quepasa and expressed no opinion as to the underlying business decision to enter into the Merger Agreement, effect the Merger, the structure or tax consequences of the Merger Agreement, the required governmental, regulatory or other filings, notices, consents or approvals, or the availability or advisability of any alternatives to the Merger. In the capacity of rendering its written opinion, Raymond James reviewed the terms of the Merger Agreement and offered no judgment as to the negotiations resulting in such terms. Raymond James also expressed no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid to any of Quepasa's directors, officers or employees, or any class of such persons relative to others.

In conducting its investigation and analyses and in arriving at its opinion, Raymond James took into account such accepted financial and investment banking procedures and considerations as it deemed relevant, including the review of: (i) historical and projected revenues, adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation or amortization, stock-based compensation, restructuring, and other one-time charges, or adjusted EBITDA, which we refer to as Adjusted EBITDA, capitalization, and certain operating metrics of myYearbook and certain publicly traded companies in businesses and industries Raymond James believed to be comparable to myYearbook; (ii) the current and projected financial position and results of operations of Quepasa and myYearbook as disclosed to Raymond James by Quepasa and myYearbook; (iii) financial and operating information concerning selected business combinations which Raymond James deemed comparable in whole or in part; (iv) a discounted cash flow analysis of myYearbook based on financial information of myYearbook provided to Raymond James by Quepasa and myYearbook; (v) a relative contribution analysis for certain financial and operating metrics of Quepasa and myYearbook enter into the Merger Agreement; (vi) the historical trading prices of Quepasa's common stock, and (vii) Raymond James's assessment of the general condition of the economy, the securities markets and the social networking industry.

The following summarizes the material financial analyses discussed by Raymond James in connection with the delivery of its opinion to the Quepasa Board at its meeting on September 15, 2011, which material financial analyses were considered by Raymond James in rendering its written opinion. No company or transaction used in the analyses described below is directly comparable to myYearbook, Quepasa or the Merger.

The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by Raymond James, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Raymond James.

Comparable Company Analysis. Raymond James analyzed the relative valuation multiples of 15 publicly-traded Internet and Social Networking companies, including:

- Ancestry.com Inc.
- Demand Media, Inc.
- DeNA Co., Ltd.
- Google Inc.
- Gree, Inc.
- IAC/InterActiveCorp
- Jiayuan.com International Ltd.
- LinkedIn Corporation
- Pandora Media, Inc.
- Renren Inc.
- SINA Corporation
- Sohu.com Inc.
- Tencent Holdings Ltd.
- XO Group Inc.
- Yahoo! Inc.

Raymond James calculated various financial multiples for each company identified above, including enterprise value (market capitalization plus bank debt, less cash and cash equivalents) compared to both revenue and Adjusted EBITDA, for (i) the most recent actual trailing twelve months period, referred to as TTM, as well as to (ii) projected revenue and Adjusted EBITDA for the calendar years ending December 31, 2011 and 2012, referred to herein as CY2011 and CY2012. The projected revenue and Adjusted EBITDA estimates published by Wall Street research analysts and referred to herein were not prepared in connection with the Merger or at Raymond James's request and may or may not prove to be accurate. Raymond James did not seek to verify, and takes no responsibility whatsoever for, such published Wall Street research analyst estimates. Raymond James reviewed the lowest, median, mean, and highest relative valuation multiples of the selected public companies and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for myYearbook implied by the Merger consideration of $94,228,000. The results of the selected public companies analysis are summarized below:

	Enterprise Value / Revenue			Enterprise Value / Adjusted EBITDA
	TTM	CY2011	CY2012	TTM	CY2011	CY2012
Low	1.6x	1.5x	1.3x	6.9x	7.1x	5.1x
Median	5.4x	4.2x	3.2x	12.6x	10.6x	9.0x
Mean	5.0x	4.1x	3.2x	27.5x	10.8x	8.5x

myYearbook	3.5x	2.8x	2.1x	17.5x	14.6x	9.7x

Furthermore, Raymond James applied the lowest, median, mean, and highest relative valuation multiples for each of the metrics to myYearbook's actual and projected financial results and determined the implied enterprise value of myYearbook and then compared those implied enterprise values of myYearbook to the Merger consideration of $94,228,000. The results (values in millions) of this analysis are summarized below:

	Enterprise Value / Revenue			Enterprise Value / Adjusted EBITDA
	TTM	CY2011	CY2012	TTM	CY2011	CY2012
Low	$42.4	$48.5	$59.9	$37.4	$46.0	$49.1
Median	$148.2	$139.9	$144.2	$67.7	$68.4	$86.7

Raymond James noted that the value of the total consideration to be paid by Quepasa to the myYearbook security holders pursuant to the Merger is $94,228,000.

No company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to myYearbook. In evaluating comparable companies and selecting representative ranges of financial multiples, Raymond James made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Raymond James' control and the control of myYearbook and Quepasa, such as the impact of competition on myYearbook's business and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in myYearbook's financial condition and prospects or in the industry, economy or financial markets in general.

Selected Transaction Analysis. Raymond James performed a precedent transactions analysis, which is designed to imply a value of a company based on publicly available financial terms of selected transactions that share some common characteristics with the Merger.

In connection with its analysis of precedent transactions, Raymond James compared publicly available statistics for selected technology sector transactions publicly announced between July 1, 2010 and September 15, 2011.

The following is a list of these software sector transactions:

Raymond James examined multiples of the enterprise value of the target company compared to the target company's revenue, in each case for the twelve months ended prior to the announcement of the selected transaction, where such information was publicly available. Raymond James reviewed the lowest, median, mean, and highest relative valuation multiples of the selected transactions and compared them to the corresponding valuation multiples for myYearbook implied by the Merger consideration. Furthermore, Raymond James applied the lowest, median, mean and highest relative valuation multiples to myYearbook's actual trailing twelve months revenue to determine the implied enterprise value of myYearbook and then compared those implied enterprise values to the value of the Merger consideration of $94,228,000. The results (values in millions) of the selected transactions analysis are summarized below:

	Total Enterprise Value/ Trailing Twelve Months Revenue	Implied Total Enterprise Value
Low	1.4x	$38.1
Median	4.8x	$131.9
Mean	4.6x	$124.7
High	9.3x	$254.1

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Raymond James analyzed the discounted present value of myYearbook's projected free cash flows on a standalone basis for the periods ending June 30, 2011 through December 31, 2015 as disclosed to Raymond James by Quepasa or myYearbook. Raymond James used unleveraged free cash flows, defined as earnings before interest, after taxes, plus depreciation, plus amortization, less capital expenditures, less investment in working capital.

The discounted cash flow analysis was based on projections of the financial performance of myYearbook that were represented to be the best available estimates and judgment of myYearbook and Quepasa management. Consistent with the periods included in the financial projections, Raymond James used calendar year 2015 as the final year for the analysis and perpetual growth rates of free cash flow after calendar year 2015 ranging from 3.5% to 5.5%.

The projected unleveraged free cash flows and terminal values were discounted using rates ranging from 15% to 17%, which reflected the weighted average after-tax cost of debt and equity capital associated with executing myYearbook's business plan. Raymond James reviewed the range of implied enterprise values of myYearbook derived in the discounted cash flow analysis and compared them to the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to the myYearbook security holders in connection with the Merger. The results (values in millions) of the discounted cash flow analysis are summarized below:

	Implied Total Enterprise Value

Contribution Analysis. Raymond James analyzed the pro rata contribution of myYearbook to the combined company's pro forma results for the period ended June 30, 2011 and projected results for the years ending December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2012, assuming the Merger had closed as of the beginning of these respective periods. Raymond James used actual results for the trailing 12 month period and Quepasa and myYearbook management estimates for 2011 and 2012. Raymond James computed myYearbook's and Quepasa's respective pro rata contributions to the combined company's pro forma results based on information provided by Quepasa and myYearbook. Raymond James did not seek to verify, and takes no responsibility whatsoever, for the users and projected users data or any of the financial information provided to it by Quepasa and myYearbook and used for purposes of the contribution analysis. The results of this contribution analysis are summarized below:

	myYearbook	Quepasa
Users as of 6/30/11	49	% 51	%
Projected users as of 12/31/11	45	% 55	%
Projected users as of 12/31/12	42	% 58	%
TTM revenue*	76	% 24	%
2011 revenue	77	% 23	%
2012 revenue	54	% 46	%
TTM adjusted EBITDA*	105	% (5)	%
2011 adjusted EBITDA	132	% (32)	%
2012 adjusted EBITDA	58	% 42	%

*TTM refers to trailing 12 months.

Additional Considerations. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Raymond James believes that its analyses discussed above must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering the analyses taken as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its written opinion. In addition, Raymond James considered the results of all such analyses and did not assign relative weights to any of the analyses, but rather made qualitative judgments as to significance and relevance of each analysis and factor, so the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Raymond James's view of the actual value of myYearbook or of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to the myYearbook security holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

In performing its analyses, Raymond James made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic and regulatory conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Raymond James's control and the control of Quepasa or myYearbook. The analyses performed by Raymond James are not necessarily indicative of actual values, trading values or actual future results of myYearbook, Quepasa, the combined company, or Quepasa's common stock which might be achieved, all of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were provided to the Quepasa Board and were prepared solely as part of Raymond James's analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Quepasa of the consideration to be paid by Quepasa to myYearbook's shareholders in connection with the Merger. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which companies may actually be sold, and such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty. The opinion of Raymond James was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Quepasa Board in making its determination to approve the Merger and authorize Quepasa to enter into the Merger Agreement. Consequently, the analyses described above should not be viewed as determinative of the Quepasa Board of Directors' or Quepasa management's opinion with respect to the value of myYearbook. Quepasa placed no limits on the scope of the analysis performed, or opinion expressed, by Raymond James.

Raymond James's opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic, financial and other circumstances and conditions existing and disclosed to it on September 15, 2011, and any material change in, or disclosure or discovery of, such circumstances and conditions may have affected Raymond James's opinion, but Raymond James does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

For services rendered in connection with the delivery of its opinion on July 19, 2011, Quepasa paid Raymond James a fee of $325,000, of which $25,000 was payable upon signing the engagement letter and the balance was payable upon Raymond James rendering its opinion. For services rendered in connection with the delivery of its opinion on September 15, 2011, Quepasa paid Raymond James a fee of $100,000, payable upon Raymond James rendering its opinion. Quepasa also agreed to reimburse Raymond James for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and expenses of its legal counsel, and will indemnify Raymond James against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement.

Quepasa selected Raymond James in connection with the preparation of the fairness opinion due to Raymond James's reputation as a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in similar transactions. Raymond James is actively involved in the investment banking business and regularly undertakes the valuation of securities in connection with public offerings, private placements, business combinations and similar transactions. In the ordinary course of business, Raymond James may trade in the securities of Quepasa and for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

There have been no material relationships or any compensation received as a result of such relationships between Raymond James, its affiliates and/or unaffiliated representatives, on the one hand, and Quepasa or its affiliates, on the other hand, during the past two years nor are any material relationships mutually understood to be contemplated between such parties or compensation to be paid.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

Our issuance of shares of our common stock in connection with the Merger will not result in any U.S. federal income tax consequences to Quepasa shareholders or us.

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of myYearbook capital stock. This summary does not address any tax consequences of the Merger arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction or U.S. federal laws other than U.S. federal income tax laws. This summary is based on the Code, U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, administrative rulings and court decisions in effect as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be applicable to myYearbook security holders in light of their particular circumstances or to myYearbook security holders subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax law, such as:

- entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes or myYearbook security holders that hold their shares through entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- persons who hold myYearbook capital stock as part of a straddle, hedging transaction, synthetic security, conversion transaction or other integrated investment or risk reduction transaction;
- U.S. holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;
- persons who acquired myYearbook capital stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation;
- persons subject to the U.S. alternative minimum tax;

Table of Contents

- banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions;
- regulated investment companies;
- real estate investment trusts;
- tax-exempt organizations;
- brokers or dealers in securities or foreign currencies; and
- traders in securities that mark-to-market.

Further, this summary only addresses the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to myYearbook security holders that hold their shares of myYearbook capital stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code.

For purposes of this summary, the term “U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of myYearbook capital stock that is:

- a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;
- a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or
- an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN INCOME AND OTHER TAX LAWS IN LIGHT OF YOUR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Qualification of the Merger as a Reorganization. The Merger will constitute a “reorganization” for U.S. federal income tax purposes if, among other requirements, the value when the Merger occurs of the Quepasa common stock that is delivered in the Merger in exchange for shares of myYearbook capital stock that are outstanding prior to the effective time of the Merger is 40% or more of the sum of the value of the Quepasa common stock and the cash that is delivered in the Merger in exchange for those shares of myYearbook capital stock; that is, there is at least 40% “continuity of stockholder interest” in the Merger. It is possible that the Merger could qualify as a reorganization with a continuity of stockholder interest less than 40%; however, no assurance can be provided that the Merger would qualify as a reorganization in such a case.

Whether the 40% continuity of stockholder interest requirement will be met will depend on certain conditions, including the value of the Quepasa common stock upon the closing of the Merger. Because these variables will not be determined until the date of the Merger, we may not know until the time of the Merger whether the Merger will qualify as a reorganization.

If the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, the Merger will proceed as a fully taxable transaction to all myYearbook security holders.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders if the Merger Qualifies as a “Reorganization”

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to myYearbook security holders, if you are a U.S. holder of myYearbook capital stock, assuming the Merger qualifies as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

You generally will recognize gain (but not loss) equal to the lesser of: (1) the amount of the cash you receive in the Merger and (2) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of the cash and the fair market value of the Quepasa common stock you receive in the Merger, determined when the Merger occurs, over (b) your tax basis in the myYearbook capital stock surrendered in the Merger. For this purpose, you must calculate gain separately for each identifiable block of myYearbook capital stock surrendered by you in the Merger. If you are a U.S. holder who acquired different blocks of myYearbook capital stock at different times or different prices, you should consult your tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be determined.

Any recognized gain generally will be long-term capital gain if, as of the effective date of the Merger, your holding period with respect to the myYearbook capital stock surrendered exceeds one year. In some cases, if you actually or constructively own Quepasa common stock other than the Quepasa common stock you receive in the Merger, the recognized gain could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend. See “Possible Treatment of Cash as Dividend” below.

The aggregate tax basis of the Quepasa common stock you receive (including any fractional share deemed received and exchanged for cash) will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of your shares of myYearbook capital stock surrendered, reduced by the amount of cash you receive (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Quepasa common stock) and increased by the amount of gain, if any, recognized by you (excluding any gain recognized with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Quepasa common stock) in the exchange. The holding period of the Quepasa common stock you receive (including any fractional share deemed received and exchanged for cash) will include the holding period of the myYearbook capital stock surrendered. You are urged to consult your tax advisor regarding the manner in which cash and Quepasa common stock should be allocated among your shares of myYearbook capital stock and the manner in which the above rules would apply in your particular circumstances.

Possible Treatment of Cash as Dividend. There are certain circumstances in which all or part of the cash received by a U.S. holder would be treated as a dividend rather than as capital gain. In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the Merger will be treated as capital gain or dividend income will depend upon whether and to what extent the exchange in the Merger reduces the U.S. holder’s deemed percentage share ownership interest in Quepasa. For purposes of this determination, a U.S. holder will be treated as if it first exchanged all of its myYearbook capital stock solely for Quepasa common stock and then Quepasa immediately redeemed a portion of those shares of Quepasa common stock in exchange for the cash that the U.S. holder actually received. In determining whether the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, the constructive ownership rules of Section 318(a) of the Code must be taken into account. The Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS, has indicated in a published ruling that any reduction in the interest of a minority shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely-held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. myYearbook security holders are urged to consult their tax advisors about the possibility that all or a portion of the cash received in exchange for myYearbook capital stock will be treated as a dividend, based on the holders’ specific circumstances (e.g., holders that are corporations should consult their tax advisors regarding the potential applicability of the “extraordinary dividend” provisions of the Code).

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. If you receive cash in lieu of a fractional share of Quepasa common stock, you generally will be treated as having received such fractional share in the Merger and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the tax basis allocated to such fractional share of Quepasa common stock. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the Merger, the holding period for such shares exceeds one year.

Treatment of Capital Gains and Losses and Qualified Dividends. Capital gain of a non-corporate U.S. holder generally will be subject to tax at a maximum long-term capital gain tax rate of 15% if the myYearbook shares were held for more than one year when the Merger occurs. Short-term capital gain on stock held for one year or less may be taxed at regular rates, up to a maximum rate of 35%. The deduction of any capital loss is subject to limitations of general application. Any portion of gain recognized in the Merger by a non-corporate shareholder that is treated as a dividend generally will be taxable at a maximum rate of 15%.

Reporting Requirements. U.S. holders receiving Quepasa common stock in the Merger must file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax returns setting forth their tax basis in the myYearbook capital stock exchanged in the Merger and the fair market value of the Quepasa common stock and the amount of cash received in the Merger. In addition, U.S. holders will be required to retain permanent records of these facts relating to the Merger.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders if the Merger Does Not Qualify as a “Reorganization”

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to you, if you are a U.S. holder, assuming the Merger does not qualify as a reorganization under U.S. federal income tax laws.

You will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between (a) the sum of (i) the amount of cash and (ii) the fair market value of the Quepasa common stock you receive in the Merger, determined when the Merger occurs, and (b) your tax basis in the myYearbook common stock surrendered. The deductibility of capital losses is limited. Any such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period for the myYearbook capital stock exchanged exceeds one year when the Merger occurs. The amount and character of gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares of myYearbook capital stock surrendered in the Merger. You are urged to consult your own tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be calculated among different blocks of myYearbook capital stock surrendered in the Merger.

The aggregate tax basis for U.S. federal income tax purposes of any Quepasa common stock that you receive in the Merger will be equal to the fair market value of the Quepasa common stock received, determined when the Merger occurs. Your holding period in the Quepasa common stock will begin on the day after the Merger occurs.

Backup Withholding

Certain holders of myYearbook capital stock may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% on amounts received pursuant to the Merger. Backup withholding will not apply to you, however, if you (1) provide your correct taxpayer identification number or (2) come within certain exempt categories and, in each case, comply with applicable certification requirements. In addition to being subject to backup withholding, if you do not provide Quepasa (or the exchange agent) with your correct taxpayer identification number, you may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that you furnish certain required information to the IRS.

The summary of material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger set forth above is intended to provide only a general summary and is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. In addition, the summary does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, the summary does not address any non-U.S. federal income tax or any foreign, state, local or other tax consequences of the Merger. Accordingly, myYearbook security holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income, reporting or other tax consequences of the Merger to that shareholder.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, we will account for the acquisition using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations.

Differences in Rights of Security Holders

The differences between the rights myYearbook security holders currently have as shareholders of a Delaware corporation and will have as shareholders of a Nevada corporation or as shareholders of Quepasa Delaware are described below under “Comparison of Quepasa’s and myYearbook’s Security Holders’ Rights Before and After the Reincorporation and/or Merger” on pages 93 - 106.

Pre-emptive Rights

None of the shares which are being issued in connection with Proposal 1 will have any pre-emptive rights.

PROPOSAL 2. AMENDMENT TO OUR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE OUR AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK FROM 50 MILLION TO 100 MILLION SHARES

Description of the Amendment

Our Board adopted a resolution to amend our Articles of Incorporation, or our Articles, to increase the number of shares of common stock that we are authorized to issue from 50,000,000 to 100,000,000 shares and has directed that the proposed amendment be submitted to our shareholders for their approval and adoption. The amendment will not change the number of shares of preferred stock that are authorized, and the total authorized shares will be increased from 55,000,000 to 105,000,000. The amendment will replace ARTICLE FOURTH of our Articles, with the following language:

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock which the corporation shall have authority to issue is 100,000,000 shares with par value of $.001 per share, which may be issued in one or more series at the discretion of the board of directors. In establishing a series, the board of directors shall give to it a distinctive designation so as to distinguish it from the shares of all other series and classes, shall fix the number of shares in such series, and the voting powers, designations, limitations, restrictions and relative rights of each such series thereof. All shares of any one series shall be alike in every particular except as otherwise provided by these Articles of Incorporation or the Nevada Revised Statutes. The shares of Common Stock shall constitute the sole voting group of the Corporation, except to the extent any additional voting group or groups may hereafter be established in accordance with the Nevada Revised Statutes. The shares of this class shall also be entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted in the election of directors or otherwise. Preemptive rights to purchase additional shares of stock are denied.

The corporation shall have the authority to issue 5,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock with par value of $.001 per share, which may be issued in one or more series at the discretion of the board of directors. In establishing a series, the board of directors shall give to it a distinctive designation so as to distinguish it from the shares of all other series and classes, shall fix the number of shares in such series, and the preferences, rights and restrictions thereof. All shares of any one series shall be alike in every particular except as otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or the Nevada Revised Statutes.

Purpose and Effect

We may issue shares of capital stock to the extent such shares have been authorized under our Articles. Our Articles currently authorize us to issue up to 50,000,000 shares of common stock and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock. If Proposal 3 (reincorporation in Delaware) is approved, Quepasa will have authorized common stock of 100,000,000 shares even if this Proposal 2 does not pass. However, both Proposals 2 and 3 have the same voting requirement - they require the affirmative vote of a majority of outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote.

The total number of shares of common stock that are currently authorized for issuance is 50,000,000. As of September 20, 2011, the record date, the total number of shares of common stock issued and outstanding was 16,668,781. No shares of our common stock are held in treasury. In the related financing, we expect to issue between 1,397,233 shares of common stock (assuming we raise the $5 million pursuant to the MATT, Inc. financing commitment) and 3,632,807 shares of common stock (assuming we raise $13 million, including the $5 million pursuant to the MATT, Inc. financing commitment). As of the record date, and as adjusted for expected issuances in connection with the related financing, we would therefore have had between 18,062,514 and 20,301,088 shares of common stock outstanding.

We have additional agreements that may obligate us to issue shares of our common stock prior to the completion of the Merger. As described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, on September 22, 2011, we issued the Series A, which convert into 1,397,233 shares of common stock, assuming that the conversion price is not reduced as a result of the Merger. We also have outstanding, as of the date hereof, warrants and options that, upon vesting (to the extent not yet vested) and exercise, would require us to issue an aggregate of up to 12,178,768 additional shares of common stock. In addition, in connection with the Merger, we have agreed to grant options to purchase 1,782,500 shares of common stock to myYearbook employees.

If neither Proposal 2 nor Proposal 3 passes, we will not have a sufficient number of shares of common stock authorized to permit us to issue the 17,000,000 shares to myYearbook security holders, raise $13 million in the related financing, issue the shares underlying the 1,782,500 options to be granted to myYearbook employees and issue the shares underlying outstanding warrants and/or options. The options to be granted to myYearbook employees will not vest, and consequently may not be exercised, until the first anniversary of the Merger. In order further to reduce the likelihood that we will not have a sufficient number of shares that may be issued for all of these purposes (including the exercise and/or conversion of outstanding options and warrants), certain of our officers and directors have agreed to defer exercising options with respect to 1,000,000 shares until the number of authorized shares of common stock has been increased.

We expect that we will need additional shares of common stock to grant options to existing and future Quepasa employees as well as for future acquisitions and other corporate purposes. Although we have no agreements relating to future acquisitions, we may seek to acquire other businesses or assets, including social media companies and other companies related to social games and may use shares of our common stock to pay part or all of the consideration in those transactions. Our Board believes that it is in the best interest of our shareholders to have a sufficient number of authorized but unissued shares of common stock available for issuance in the future for such purposes in addition to the Merger.

The additional shares of common stock to be authorized after the amendment to the Articles would have rights identical to the currently outstanding shares, except for effects incidental to increasing the number of outstanding shares, such as the dilution of current shareholders' ownership and voting interests when shares are issued. Under our Articles, our shareholders do not have preemptive rights with respect to our common stock. Thus, should our Board elect to issue additional shares, existing shareholders would not have any preferential rights to purchase any shares.

Possible Anti-Takeover Effects of the Amendment

The proposed amendment to our Articles is not being recommended in response to any specific effort of which our Board is aware to obtain control of the Company, and our Board does not intend or view the proposed increase in authorized common stock as an anti-takeover measure. However, the ability of our Board to authorize the issuance of the additional shares of common stock that would be available if the proposed amendment is approved and adopted could have the effect of discouraging or preventing a hostile takeover.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO INCREASE OUR AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK TO 100,000,000 SHARES.

PROPOSAL 3. REINCORPORATION OF QUEPASA FROM THE STATE OF NEVADA TO THE STATE OF DELAWARE

Our Board has approved and recommends to our shareholders this Proposal to change Quepasa's state of incorporation from the State of Nevada to the State of Delaware, which we refer to as the "Reincorporation." If our shareholders approve this Proposal, we will accomplish the Reincorporation by domesticating in Delaware as provided in the Delaware General Corporation Law, which we refer to as the "DGCL," and the Nevada Revised Statutes, which we refer to as the "NRS." In this section of the proxy statement/prospectus, we sometimes refer to Quepasa as a Nevada corporation before Reincorporation as "Quepasa Nevada" and Quepasa as a Delaware corporation after reincorporation as "Quepasa Delaware." At the 2011 Annual Shareholder's Meeting, we solicited proxies from our shareholders seeking approval to reincorporate in Delaware. We did not receive the votes from a majority of the outstanding shares and therefore the proposal did not pass.

Summary

Assuming that shareholder approval of this Proposal is obtained and the Reincorporation becomes effective:

- the affairs of Quepasa will cease to be governed by Nevada corporation laws, Quepasa's existing Articles of Incorporation, or the Articles, and Quepasa's existing Bylaws, and the affairs of Quepasa will become subject to Delaware corporation laws, a new Certificate of Incorporation and new Bylaws, as more fully described below;
- the resulting Delaware corporation, or Quepasa Delaware will (i) be deemed to be the same entity as Quepasa Nevada for all purposes under the laws of Delaware, (ii) continue to have all of the rights, privileges and powers of Quepasa Nevada, (iii) continue to possess all of the properties of Quepasa Nevada, and (iv) continue to have all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of Quepasa Nevada;
- each outstanding share of Quepasa Nevada common stock will continue to be an outstanding share of Quepasa Delaware common stock, and each outstanding option, warrant or other right to acquire shares of Quepasa Nevada common stock will continue to be an outstanding option, warrant or other right to acquire shares of Quepasa Delaware common stock;
- each employee benefit plan, incentive compensation plan or other similar plan of Quepasa Nevada will continue to be an employee benefit plan, incentive compensation plan or other similar plan of Quepasa Delaware; and
- each director and officer of Quepasa Nevada will continue to hold their respective offices with Quepasa Delaware.

General Information

Our Board has adopted a Plan of Merger substantially in the form attached as Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus, which we refer to as the "Plan of Merger," to accomplish the Reincorporation. Assuming the presence of a quorum at the Special Meeting, this Proposal must be approved by an affirmative vote of a majority of the shares outstanding on the record date. Assuming that shareholder approval of this Proposal is obtained, Quepasa will file with the Nevada Secretary of State Nevada Articles of Merger, and will file with the Delaware Secretary of State the Delaware Certificate of Merger. In addition, Quepasa Delaware was formed on April 12, 2011 and its Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, which will govern Quepasa as a Delaware corporation is substantially in the form attached as Annex E, which we refer to as the “Delaware Certificate of Incorporation.” The Amended and Restated Bylaws for Quepasa Delaware are in the form attached as Annex F, which we refer to as the “Delaware Bylaws.” Quepasa will enter into a new indemnification agreement with each director and officer of Quepasa Delaware based upon provisions of Delaware law. Approval of this Proposal by our shareholders will constitute approval of the Plan of Merger, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws.

The Reincorporation will not affect the trading of the shares of the Quepasa’s common stock on the NYSE Amex under the same symbol “QPSA.” Quepasa Delaware will continue to file periodic reports and other documents as and to the extent required by the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Shareholders who own shares of Quepasa Nevada common stock that are freely tradable prior to the Reincorporation will continue to have freely tradable shares in Quepasa Delaware after the Reincorporation, and shareholders holding restricted shares of Quepasa Nevada common stock prior to the Reincorporation will continue to hold their shares in Quepasa Delaware after the Reincorporation subject to the same restrictions on transfer to which their shares are presently subject. In summary, the Reincorporation will not change the respective positions under federal securities laws of Quepasa or its shareholders.

Reasons for the Reincorporation

Delaware is a nationally recognized leader in adopting and implementing comprehensive and flexible corporate laws. The DGCL is frequently revised and updated to accommodate changing legal and business needs and is more comprehensive, widely used and interpreted than other state corporate laws, including the NRS.

In addition, Delaware courts, including the Court of Chancery and the Delaware Supreme Court, are highly regarded for their considerable expertise in dealing with corporate legal issues and for producing a substantial body of case law construing the DGCL, with multiple cases concerning areas that Nevada courts have not considered. Because the judicial system is based largely on legal precedents, the abundance of Delaware case law should serve to enhance the relative clarity and predictability of many areas of corporate law, which should offer added advantages to Quepasa by allowing our Board and management to make corporate decisions and take corporate actions with greater assurance as to the validity and consequences of those decisions and actions.

The Reincorporation may also make it easier to attract future candidates willing to serve on our Board because many such candidates are already familiar with Delaware corporate law, including provisions relating to director indemnification, from their past business experience.

Changes as a Result of Reincorporation

If this Proposal is approved, the Reincorporation will effect a change in the legal domicile of Quepasa and other changes of a legal nature, the most significant of which are described below in the section entitled "Comparison of Quepasa's and myYearbook's Security Holders' Rights Before and After the Reincorporation and/or Merger." The Reincorporation is not expected to affect any of Quepasa's material contracts with any third parties, and Quepasa's rights and obligations under such material contractual arrangements will continue as rights and obligations of Quepasa Delaware. The Reincorporation itself will not result in any change in headquarters, business, jobs, management, location of any of Quepasa's offices or facilities, number of employees, assets, liabilities or net worth (other than as a result of the costs incident to the Reincorporation) of Quepasa. Further, each director and officer of Quepasa Nevada will continue to hold their respective offices with Quepasa Delaware and the subsidiaries of Quepasa Nevada immediately prior to the Reincorporation will be the subsidiaries of Quepasa Delaware immediately after the Reincorporation.

The Plan of Merger

The Reincorporation will be effected pursuant to the Plan of Merger to be adopted by Quepasa Nevada. The Plan of Merger provides that Quepasa will convert into a Delaware corporation and will be subject to all of the provisions of the DGCL. By virtue of the merger, all of the rights, privileges and powers of Quepasa Nevada, all property owned by Quepasa Nevada, all debts due to Quepasa Nevada and all other causes of action belonging to Quepasa Nevada immediately prior to the merger will remain vested in Quepasa Delaware following the merger. In addition, by virtue of the merger, all debts, liabilities and duties of Quepasa immediately prior to the merger will remain attached to Quepasa Delaware following the merger. Quepasa Delaware will remain as the same entity following the merger.

If this Proposal is approved, it is anticipated that our Board will cause the Reincorporation to be effected as soon as practicable thereafter and immediately prior to closing the myYearbook Merger. However, the Reincorporation may be delayed by our Board or the Plan of Merger may be terminated and abandoned by action of our Board at any time prior to the effective time of the Reincorporation, whether before or after the approval by Quepasa's shareholders, if our Board determines for any reason that such delay or termination would be in the best interests of Quepasa and its shareholders. If this Proposal is approved by our shareholders, the Reincorporation would become effective upon the filing (and acceptance thereof by the Nevada Secretary of State and the Delaware Secretary of State, as applicable) of the Nevada Articles of Merger and the Delaware Certificate of Merger.

Quepasa Nevada shareholders will not be required to exchange their Quepasa Nevada stock certificates for new Quepasa Delaware stock certificates. Following the effective time of the Reincorporation, any Quepasa Nevada stock certificates submitted to Quepasa for transfer, whether pursuant to a sale or otherwise, will automatically be exchanged for Quepasa Delaware stock certificates. Quepasa shareholders should not destroy any stock certificate(s) and should not submit any certificate(s) to Quepasa unless and until requested to do so.

Effect of Not Obtaining the Required Vote for Approval

If we fail to obtain the requisite vote of shareholders for approval of this Proposal, the Reincorporation will not be consummated and Quepasa will continue to be incorporated in Nevada and governed by Nevada corporation laws, Quepasa's existing Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Description of Quepasa's Capital Stock Upon the Effectiveness of the Reincorporation

Assuming that shareholder approval of this Proposal is obtained and the Reincorporation becomes effective, Quepasa will convert into Quepasa Delaware, which is a corporation that is incorporated in the State of Delaware. The rights of shareholders of Quepasa Delaware will generally be governed by Delaware law, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws. The following is a description of the capital stock of Quepasa Delaware as of and upon the effectiveness of the Reincorporation. This description is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Delaware law, including the DGCL, and the full texts of the Plan of Merger, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws, copies of which are attached hereto as Annex D, E, and F, respectively.

General

Upon the effectiveness of the Reincorporation, the authorized capital of Quepasa Delaware will be 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share, of which the same number of shares will continue to be issued and outstanding assuming no change after the record date of the Special Meeting. This means that even if Proposal 2 does not pass, our authorized common stock will increase to 100,000,000. Upon the effectiveness of the Reincorporation, the holders of outstanding shares of Quepasa Delaware common stock will continue to be entitled to receive dividends and other distributions out of assets legally available at times and in amounts as the Board may determine from time to time. All shares of Quepasa Delaware common stock will be entitled to participate ratably with respect to dividends or other distributions.

If Quepasa Delaware is liquidated, dissolved or wound up, voluntarily or involuntarily, holders of Quepasa Delaware common stock will be entitled to share ratably in all assets of Quepasa Delaware available for distribution to the Quepasa Delaware shareholders after the payment in full of any preferential amounts to which holders of any Quepasa Delaware preferred stock may be entitled.

Holders of Quepasa Delaware common stock will be entitled to one vote per share. No holder of common stock will be entitled to cumulative votes in voting for directors.

There will be no preemption, redemption, sinking fund or conversion rights applicable to Quepasa Delaware common stock under applicable law, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation or the Delaware Bylaws.

Anti-Takeover Implications

Delaware, like many other states, permits a corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws or to otherwise adopt measures designed to reduce a corporation's vulnerability to unsolicited takeover attempts. Quepasa's Board, however, is not proposing the Reincorporation to prevent a change in control and is not aware of any present attempt by any person to acquire control of Quepasa or to obtain representation on Quepasa's Board. Our Board has no independent plans to implement any defensive strategies to enhance the ability of the Board to negotiate with an unsolicited bidder.

With respect to implementing defensive measures, except as indicated below, Delaware law is preferable to Nevada law because of the substantial judicial precedent on the legal principles applicable to defensive measures. As either a Nevada corporation or a Delaware corporation, Quepasa could implement some of the same defensive measures. As a Delaware corporation, however, Quepasa would benefit from the predictability of Delaware law on these matters.

Comparison of Quepasa’s and myYearbook’s Security Holders’ Rights Before and After the Reincorporation and/or Merger

Because of differences between the NRS and the DGCL, as well as differences between Quepasa’s governing documents before and after the Reincorporation, the Reincorporation will effect certain changes in the rights of Quepasa’s shareholders. If the Reincorporation is approved, there are some differences in the Charter documents of Quepasa Delaware and myYearbook.

Summarized on below are the most significant provisions of the NRS and DGCL, along with the differences between the rights of the shareholders of Quepasa immediately before and immediately after the Reincorporation that will be the result of the differences between the NRS and the DGCL and the differences between Quepasa’s existing Articles and Bylaws, on the one hand, and the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws, on the other hand. In the third column, there is a summary of myYearbook’s Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, which we refer to as the myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation, and the myYearbook Bylaws. The summary is not an exhaustive list of all differences or a complete description of the differences described, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the NRS, the DGCL, Quepasa’s existing Articles and Bylaws, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws and the myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Copies of Quepasa’s existing Articles and Bylaws have been filed or incorporated by reference as exhibits to certain of our filings with the SEC. The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws are attached as annexes to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. myYearbook is supplying the myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws to its security holders.

Assuming that Quepasa does not receive shareholder approval to reincorporate in Delaware, Quepasa will remain a Nevada corporation. The following is a summary of material parts of the NRS and the DGCL.

Nevada law	Delaware law	myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws
Elections; Voting; Procedural Matters
Number of Directors
Nevada law provides that a corporation must have at least one director and may provide in its articles of incorporation or in its bylaws for a fixed number of directors or a variable number, and for the manner in which the number of directors may be increased or decreased.	Delaware law provides that a corporation must have at least one director and that the number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws unless the certificate of incorporation fixes the number of directors, in which case a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the certificate of incorporation.	myYearbook is a Delaware corporation.

Quepasa's existing Bylaws provide that the board of directors shall consist of not less than three nor more than nine directors. Subject to this limitation, the number of directors shall be set by a resolution of the shareholders or the board of directors upon the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the directors then in office.

The Delaware Bylaws provide that the number of directors comprising the Board shall be between three and nine directors. The number may be established from time to time fixed by resolution of the Board, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the terms of any incumbent director. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the number of directors of Quepasa Delaware will be as of the date of the Special Meeting fixed at seven in order to consummate the Merger.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Series A and B Preferred Stock holders shall each be entitled to elect one director, the holders of common stock shall be entitled to elect two directors and the holders of common stock and the holders of Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, shall be entitled to elect the balance of the number of directors. The myYearbook Bylaws require one director and empower the Board to increase the number of directors.

Quorum at Directors Meetings

The Nevada Bylaws require a quorum of a majority of the Board.

The Delaware Bylaws require a quorum of a majority of the Board.

The myYearbook Bylaws generally permit a quorum of the Board to be one-third of the total number of directors.

Removal of Directors

Under Nevada law, any one or all of the directors of a corporation may be removed by the holders of not less than two-thirds of the voting power of a corporation's issued and outstanding stock. Nevada law does not distinguish between removal of directors with or without cause.

Quepasa's Articles and Bylaws provide that any director may be removed from office at any time, but only by the affirmative vote, at a meeting called for that purpose, by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a separate class on such matter, but only if such proposal was contained in the notice of such meeting. At least 30 days prior to such meeting of shareholders, written notice shall be sent to the director whose removal will be considered at such meeting.

With limited exceptions applicable to classified boards and cumulative voting provisions, under Delaware law, directors of a corporation without a classified board may be removed with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of shares then entitled to vote in an election of directors.

The Delaware Bylaws provide that any director or the entire Board may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class or series of voting power then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation does not provide for a classified Board or cumulative voting. The myYearbook Bylaws are consistent with Delaware law

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation provides that a director elected in a certain manner such as a designee of the Series A Preferred Stock, for example, may only be removed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the class or series entitled to elect the director.

Board Action by Written Consent

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

Nevada law provides that, unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provides otherwise, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the holders of outstanding stock having at least the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting consent to the action in writing.

Unless the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation provides otherwise, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the holders of outstanding stock having at least the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting consent to the action in writing. In addition, Delaware law requires the corporation to give prompt notice of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent to those shareholders who did not consent in writing.

Quepasa's Bylaws do not permit shareholder action by written consent if Quepasa has a class of common stock registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. As of the record date, Quepasa common stock was registered under the Exchange Act.

The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation does not permit shareholder action by written consent.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation is consistent with the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation, except to the extent removal of a director by written consent is reserved to the class or series with the power to elect.

Quepasa's existing Articles and Bylaws are consistent with Nevada law and do not provide any protection for Preferred Stock holders for corporate opportunities.

The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws does not change this statutory rule and do not provide any protection for Preferred Stock holders for corporate opportunities.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws do not change the statutory rule, except that the myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation specifically provides that a corporate opportunity that is presented to, or acquired, created or developed, or which otherwise comes into the possession of, any non employee director of myYearbook or any holder of Preferred Stock or affiliates, employees or agents of such holder, does not give myYearbook any right to, interest in or expectancy to the corporate opportunity. This protection will be lost if the Merger is approved.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

Nevada law provides that unless otherwise provided in a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, the entire board of directors, any two directors, or the president of the corporation may call a special meeting of the shareholders.

Delaware law permits special meetings of shareholders to be called by the board of directors or by any other persons authorized in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws to call a special shareholder meeting.

Failure to Hold an Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Delaware law provides that if a corporation fails to hold an annual meeting for the election of directors or there is no written consent to elect directors in lieu of an annual meeting taken, in both cases for a period of 30 days after the date designated for the annual meeting, or if no date has been designated, for a period of 13 months after the latest to occur of the latest to occur of the organization of the corporation, its last annual meeting or last action by written consent to elect directors in lieu of an annual meeting, a director or shareholder of the corporation may apply to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware to order that an annual meeting be held.

Cumulative Voting

Nevada law permits cumulative voting in the election of directors as long as the articles of incorporation provide for cumulative voting and certain procedures for the exercise of cumulative voting are followed.

A Delaware corporation may provide for cumulative voting in the corporation's certificate of incorporation.

Quepasa's existing Articles does not permit cumulative voting.

The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation does not have a provision granting cumulative voting rights in the election of its directors.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation do not grant cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Vacancies

All vacancies on the board of directors of a Nevada corporation may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the board may fill the vacancies for the remainder of the term of office of the resigning director or directors.

All vacancies and newly created directorships on the board of directors of a Delaware corporation may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, unless the certificate of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise. If, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole board (as constituted immediately prior to any such increase), the Court of Chancery may, upon application of any shareholder or shareholders holding at least 10 percent of the voting stock at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, summarily order an election to be held to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office.

Quepasa's existing Articles and Bylaws are consistent with Nevada law.

The Delaware Bylaws will provide that vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors remaining in office, although less than a

Shareholder Voting Provisions

Under Nevada law, a majority of the voting power, which includes the voting power that is present in person or by proxy, regardless of whether the proxy has authority to vote on all matters, generally constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of shareholders. Quepasa's existing Bylaws are consistent with Nevada law.

Under Delaware law, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, generally constitutes a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. Quepasa Delaware's Bylaws are consistent with Delaware law.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws are consistent with Delaware law, but the Bylaws provide that where a separate vote by class or classes is required, one-third of the outstanding shares of such class shall constitute a quorum with respect to the vote on that matter.

Approval

Generally, action by the shareholders on a matter other than the election of directors is approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the action, unless otherwise provided in Nevada law or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, directors are generally elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on election of directors.

Unless otherwise provided for in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, generally, in all matters other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter constitutes the act of shareholders. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, directors are generally elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors.

Our Nevada Bylaws provide that action by the shareholders on a matter other than the election of directors is approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the action, which is consistent with Nevada.

The Delaware Bylaws provide that action by the shareholders on a matter other than the election of directors is approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the action exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the action, which is identical to Quepasa Nevada's Bylaws.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation generally provides for shareholder approval by a majority of outstanding votes entitled to vote and holders of common stock and Preferred Stock shall vote together as a single class, except to the extent otherwise provided. It further provides that the Preferred Stock shall vote on an as converted basis and requires approval of 70% of outstanding Preferred Stock voting together as a single series to (i) require mandatory conversion or (ii) to take certain actions including, issuing any new class or series of Preferred Stock which are senior to or equal to any series of Preferred Stock, to liquidate which includes the Merger, making acquisitions using equity securities of myYearbook which would constitute 10% of myYearbook prior to the acquisition, pay any common stock dividend other than stock dividends, amend the myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation (including increasing or decreasing the authorized number of shares of Preferred Stock) or the Bylaws, change the number of directors, amend the rights and preferences of any series of Preferred Stock.

Majority Voting Policy

Quepasa's Bylaws contain a form of majority voting policy. It provides that a nominee for director shall be elected if the votes cast for such nominee's election exceeded the votes cast against such nominee; provided, however, that a nominee shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at any meeting of shareholders for which the Secretary of Quepasa determines that the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected as of the record date for such meeting.

The Delaware Bylaws contain identical provisions as our Quepasa Nevada's current form of majority voting policy.

The myYearbook Bylaws provide directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present or in person, which differs from the Quepasa Articles and Delaware Certificate of Incorporation.

Shareholder Vote for Mergers and Other Corporate Reorganizations

In general, Nevada requires authorization by an absolute majority of outstanding shares entitled to vote, as well as approval by the board of directors, with respect to the terms of a merger or a sale of substantially all of the assets of the corporation. Indemnification

A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding, if (i) he is not liable under NRS 78.138, and (ii) acted in "good faith" and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in and not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal

Advancement of Expenses

Under Nevada law, the articles of incorporation, bylaws or an agreement made by the corporation may provide that the corporation must pay advancements of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

Delaware law provides that expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. A Delaware corporation has the discretion to decide whether or not to advance expenses, unless provided otherwise in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

Quepasa's existing Articles and Bylaws do not provide for the advancement of expenses. Quepasa entered into indemnification agreements with its executive officers and directors which provide for advancement of expenses.

Quepasa will continue to provide advancement of expenses to our executive officers and directors with indemnification agreements which are consistent with the DGCL. Quepasa has also agreed to indemnify the myYearbook director designees against any liability which may arise to Quepasa shareholders prior to the closing or termination of the Merger.

myYearbook's Bylaws provide for advancement of expenses in the same manner as it provides for indemnification as described above.

Limitation on Personal Liability of Directors

Neither a director nor an officer of a Nevada corporation can be held personally liable to the corporation, its shareholders or its creditors unless the director or officer committed both a breach of fiduciary duty and such breach was accompanied by intentional misconduct, fraud, or knowing violation of law. Unlike Delaware law, Nevada law does not exclude breaches of the duty of loyalty, or instances where the director has received an improper personal benefit.

A Delaware corporation is permitted to adopt provisions in its certificate of incorporation limiting or eliminating the liability of a director to a company and its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such liability does not arise from certain proscribed conduct, including breach of the duty of loyalty, acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law or liability to the corporation based on unlawful dividends or distributions or improper personal benefit.

Quepasa's existing Articles eliminates the liability of the director and officers to for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty to the fullest extent provide by Nevada Law.

The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, no director of Quepasa Delaware will be personally liable to Quepasa Delaware or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

The myYearbook Certificate of Incorporation eliminates the liability of directors to the same extent as the Quepasa Delaware Certificate of Incorporation.

Dividends

Declaration and Payment of Dividends

Under Nevada law, a corporation may make distributions to its shareholders, including by the payment of dividends, provided that, after giving effect to the distribution, the corporation would be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business and the corporation's total assets would not be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus any amount needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights of shareholders whose rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Quepasa's existing Bylaws provide that subject to such restrictions or requirements as may be imposed by applicable law or the Articles or as may otherwise be binding upon Quepasa, Under Delaware law, unless further restricted in the certificate of incorporation, a corporation may declare and pay dividends, out of surplus (as defined in the DGCL), or if no surplus exists, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year, only if the amount of capital of the corporation is greater than or equal to the aggregate amount of the capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. In addition, Delaware law sets forth certain restrictions on the purchase or redemption of its shares of capital stock, including that any such purchase or redemption may be made only if the capital of the corporation is not impaired and such redemption or repurchase would not impair the capital of the corporation.

The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws do not change these statutory rules.

myYearbook's Certificate of Incorporation provides a dividend preference to the holders of the Series A and Series B Preferred Stock of $0.0601 and $0.1824, respectively, per share, which dividends are not cumulative. It further the Board may from time to time declare, and may pay or make, dividends or other distributions to its shareholders.

provides that no dividends (other than stock dividends) shall be paid to holders of the common stock unless (i) dividends are paid on all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock and (ii) holders of the Preferred Stock receive a further dividend as if they converted their Preferred Stock to common stock.

Anti-Takeover Statutes

Business Combination Statute

Sections 78.411 through 78.444 of the NRS prohibits an interested shareholder from engaging in a business combination with a corporation like Quepasa, for three years after the person first became an interested shareholder unless the combination or the transaction by which the person first became an interested shareholder is approved by the board of directors before the person first became an interested shareholder. If this approval is not obtained, then after the expiration of the three-year period, the business combination may be consummated if the combination is then approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting power not beneficially owned by the interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate thereof. Alternatively, even without these approvals, a combination occurring more than three years after the person first became an interested shareholder may be permissible if specified

Under Delaware law, a corporation that is listed on a national securities exchange like Quepasa is not permitted to engage in a business combination with any interested shareholder for a three-year period following the time such shareholder became an interested shareholder, unless (i) the transaction resulting in a person becoming an interested shareholder, or the business combination, is approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the person becomes an interested shareholder; (ii) the interested shareholder acquires 85% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation in the same transaction that makes it an interested shareholder (excluding shares owned by persons who are both officers and directors of the corporation, and shares held by certain employee stock ownership plans); or (iii) on or after the date the person becomes an interested shareholder, the business combination is approved by the corporation's board of directors and by the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the corporation's outstanding voting stock at requirements relating to the consideration to be received by disinterested shareholders are met, and the interested shareholder has not, subject to limited exceptions, become the beneficial owner of additional voting shares of the corporation. An interested shareholder is (i) a person that beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, ten percent or more of the voting power of the outstanding voting shares of a corporation, or (ii) an "affiliate" or "associate" (as those terms are defined in the statute) of the corporation who, at any time within the past three years, was an interested shareholder of the corporation.

A Nevada corporation may adopt an amendment to its articles of incorporation expressly electing not to be governed by these provisions of the NRS, if such amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested shares entitled to vote; provided, however, such vote by disinterested shareholders is not required to the extent the Nevada corporation is not subject to such provisions. Such an amendment to the articles of incorporation an annual or special meeting (and not by written consent), excluding shares owned by the interested shareholder. Delaware law defines "interested shareholder" generally as a person who owns 15% or more of the outstanding shares of a corporation's voting stock.

These provisions do not apply, among other exceptions, if (i) the corporation's original certificate of incorporation contains a provision expressly electing not to be governed by these provisions, or (ii) the corporation, by action of its shareholders, adopts an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws expressly electing not to be governed by these provisions.

does not become effective until 18 months after the vote of the disinterested shareholders and does not apply to any combination with an interested shareholder who first became an interested shareholder on or before the effective date of the amendment.

Quepasa did not opt out of this Business Combination Statute under its Articles.

Control Share Acquisition Statute

The NRS also limits the rights of persons acquiring a controlling interest in a Nevada corporation with 200 or more shareholders of record, at least 100 of whom have Nevada addresses appearing on the stock ledger of the corporation, and that does business in Nevada directly or through an affiliated corporation. According to the NRS, an acquiring person who acquires a controlling interest in an issuing corporation may not exercise voting rights on any control shares unless such voting rights are conferred by a majority vote of the disinterested shareholders of the issuing corporation at a special or annual meeting of shareholders. In the event that the control shares are accorded full voting rights and the acquiring person acquires control shares with a majority or more of all the voting power, any shareholder, other than the acquiring person, who does not vote in favor of authorizing voting rights for the control shares is entitled to demand payment for the fair value of such person's

Under the NRS, a controlling interest means the ownership of outstanding voting shares of an issuing corporation sufficient to enable the acquiring person, individually or in association with others, directly or indirectly, to exercise (i) one-fifth or more but less than one-third, (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority, or (iii) a majority or more of the voting power of the issuing corporation in the election of directors. Outstanding voting shares of an issuing corporation that an acquiring person acquires or offers to acquire in an acquisition and acquires within 90 days immediately preceding the date when the acquiring person became an acquiring person are referred to as control shares.

The effect of the control share acquisition statute is, generally, to require a hostile bidder to put its offer to a shareholder vote or risk voting disenfranchisement.

The control share acquisition statute of the NRS does not apply if the corporation opts-out of such provision in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation in effect on the tenth day following the acquisition of a controlling interest by an acquiring person. Quepasa did not opt-out of the statute in its Articles or Bylaws.

Delaware as Sole and Exclusive Forum

The Nevada Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws are silent concerning where lawsuits may be filed against us including derivative suits alleging a breach of fiduciary duty owed by any of our directors or officers. Therefore, our shareholders may file derivative actions and similar suits against us in multiple states including Florida where we are headquartered and California where we have officers.

The Delaware Certificate of Incorporation, and Bylaws provide that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware shall be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of us, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of fiduciary duty owed by any of our directors or officers (or any of their affiliates) to us or our shareholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against us arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL or our Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, or (iv) any action asserting a claim against us governed by the internal affairs doctrine. As a result, any action brought by any of our shareholders with regard to any of these matters will need to be filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and cannot be filed in any other jurisdiction.

Accounting Treatment under Reincorporation

Assuming the Reincorporation Proposal is passed, Quepasa Nevada would merge into Quepasa Delaware, a non-operating entity with no assets, and all outstanding shares of Quepasa Nevada will be exchanged for the shares of Quepasa Delaware. Accordingly, Quepasa Nevada's historical financial statements would be treated as the financial statements of Quepasa Delaware.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences of Reincorporation

Quepasa intends the Reincorporation to be a tax-free reorganization under the Code. Assuming the reincorporation qualifies as a tax-free reorganization, the holders of Quepasa's common stock will not recognize any gain or loss under the Federal tax laws as a result of the occurrence of the Reincorporation, and neither will Quepasa. Each holder will have the same basis in Quepasa's common stock received as a result of the Reincorporation as that holder has in the corresponding common stock held at the time the Reincorporation occurs.

This proxy statement/prospectus only discusses U.S. federal income tax consequences and has done so only for general information. This proxy statement/prospectus does not address all of the federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular shareholders based upon individual circumstances or to shareholders who are subject to special rules, such as, financial institutions, tax-exempt organizations, insurance companies, dealers in securities, foreign holders or holders who acquired their shares as compensation, whether through employee stock options or otherwise. This proxy statement/prospectus does not address the tax consequences under state, local or foreign laws.

This discussion was based on the Code, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to differing interpretations and change, possibly with retroactive effect. Quepasa has neither requested nor received a tax opinion from legal counsel or rulings from the Internal Revenue Service regarding the consequences of Reincorporation. There can be no assurance that future legislation, regulations, administrative rulings or court decisions would not alter the consequences discussed above.

You should consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you of the Reincorporation, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

PROPOSAL 4. AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN TO AUTHORIZE THE ISSUANCE OF ADDITIONAL SHARES UNDER THE PLAN.

Our Board has adopted a resolution declaring it advisable and in the best interests of Quepasa and its shareholders that the Plan be amended to provide for an increase in the authorized number of shares under the Plan. The resolution also recommends that the amendment be approved and adopted by Quepasa's shareholders and directs that such proposal be submitted to Quepasa's shareholders at the Special Meeting.

This proposal seeks shareholder approval to issue an additional 2,000,000 shares under the Plan. This is in addition to the 2,000,000 shares our shareholders approved at our annual meeting in June 2011. We are asking for the additional increase because we expect to close the Merger and grant approximately 1,782,500 options to myYearbook employees. This will reduce the large part of the option pool we contemplated using for existing and new Quepasa employees.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, 2,155,909 shares remain available for grant. If the Board's proposal is approved by Quepasa's shareholders, the Board would have authority to issue up to 4,155,909 shares of common stock under the Plan. From this number of shares, Quepasa's Compensation Committee, or the Committee, has granted 1,782,500 options to myYearbook employees, subject to completion of the Merger.

We believe that having additional shares to issue shares under the Plan is in the best interests of Quepasa because these shares will help promote the success and enhance the value of Quepasa by linking the personal interest of participants to those of Quepasa's shareholders. The additional shares will help Quepasa's ability to motivate, attract and retain those individuals upon whom Quepasa's success is largely dependent.

In the following paragraphs we provide a summary of the terms of the Plan. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Plan which is available to any shareholder upon request of Quepasa.

Administration

The Board or the Committee, either, the Administrator, has the exclusive authority to administer the Plan. The Committee must consist of at least two directors, each of whom qualifies as a "non-employee director" as defined in Rule 16b-3(b)(3) of the Exchange Act, and an "outside director" under Section 162(m) of the Code. The Administrator will have the power to determine eligibility to receive an award, the amount and type of award, and the terms and conditions of any award. The Administrator may delegate some or all of its authority to issue options or other rights under the Plan to our Chief Executive Officer, subject to limitations as determined by the Administrator. The Administrator may revoke this delegation at any time.

Eligibility

Persons eligible to participate in the Plan include all members of our Board of Directors, employees, officers, executives, consultants and advisors of Quepasa or its subsidiaries as determined by the Committee.

Limitation on Awards

The exercise of a stock-settled stock appreciation right, or SAR or net-cashless exercise of an option (or a portion thereof) will reduce the number of shares of stock available for issuance under the Plan by the entire number of shares of stock subject to that SAR or option (or applicable portion thereof), even though a smaller number of shares of stock will be issued upon such an exercise. Also, shares of stock tendered to pay the exercise price of an option or tendered or withheld to satisfy a tax withholding obligation arising in connection with an award will not become available for grant or sale under the Plan. The Board or the Committee may adopt such other reasonable rules and procedures as it deems to be appropriate for purposes of determining the number of shares of stock that are available for awards under the Plan.

No more than 2,000,000 shares of common stock may be granted to any one participant during a calendar year. The maximum performance-based award payable to any one participant during a performance period is 2,000,000 shares of stock or the cash equivalent.

Awards

The following types of incentive awards may be granted under the Plan: incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options, SARs, restricted common stock, common stock, performance shares and performance-based shares.

Stock options. Incentive stock options may be granted only to participants who are employees. Incentive options, but not non-qualified options, are subject to limitations under the Code but provide tax advantages. The exercise price of all stock options must be at least 100% of the fair market value of the stock on the date that the option is granted. Stock options may be exercised as determined by the Committee provided that the term of any option granted under the Plan may not exceed 10 years. The Board or the Committee will determine the methods by which the exercise price of an option may be paid and the methods by which shares of stock may be delivered to participants.

Stock appreciation rights. A SAR entitles the participant to receive the appreciation on one share of common stock from the date of grant to the date of exercise of the SAR. Appreciation is calculated as the excess of (i) the fair market value on the date of exercise over (ii) the base value of the SAR, as determined by the Administrator, which may not be less than the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant. The terms and conditions of any SAR will be determined by the Administrator at the time of the grant.

Restricted stock. A restricted stock award gives the participant the right to receive a specified number of shares of stock at a price determined by the Committee (including zero). Restrictions may limit transferability and subject the stock to a substantial risk of forfeiture until specific conditions or goals are met. During the restriction period, if permitted by the Administrator, participants holding shares of restricted stock are entitled to full voting and dividend rights with respect to the restricted shares. The restrictions will lapse in accordance with a schedule or other conditions as determined by the Administrator. As a general rule, if a participant terminates employment when the stock is subject to restrictions, the participant forfeits the unvested restricted stock. The Board or the Committee may, in its discretion, waive the restrictions in whole or in part.

Common stock. The Administrator may grant unrestricted common stock (or sell such shares) which means the shares are not subject to future vesting and may be immediately sold assuming compliance with applicable securities laws.

Performance share awards. A performance share award gives the participant the right to receive stock if certain performance criteria or goals are satisfied. Performance may be measured on a specific date or dates or over any period or periods as determined by the Administrator.

Performance-based awards. Under the Plan, restricted stock and performance shares may be designated as performance-based awards. Performance-based pay awards are not subject to the $1,000,000 limitation on deductible compensation pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Code. Performance-based awards are subject to additional requirements, some of which are described below, which are required in order to be treated as “performance-based compensation” under Section 162(m) of the Code. The deductibility of these awards is preserved for federal income tax purposes. Because Section 162(m) of the Code only applies to “covered employees,” as defined in Section 162(m), only covered employees will receive awards that will be classified as performance-based awards.

Pre-established performance criteria must be met before a participant is eligible to receive payment for a performance-based award. Pre-established performance criteria must be based on one or more of the following: pre- or after-tax net earnings, earnings before interest expense (including interest amortized to cost of sales) and income taxes; earnings before interest expense (including interest amortized to cost of sales); income taxes; depreciation and amortization; revenue growth; operating income; operating cash flow; return on net assets; return on shareholders' equity; return on assets; return on capital; share price growth; shareholder returns; gross or net profit margin; earnings per share; price per share; and market share; any of which may be measured either in absolute terms or as compared to any incremental increase or as compared to results of a peer group. The Committee has discretion to select the length of the performance period, the type of performance-based awards, and the criteria or goals used to measure the performance.

Amendment and Termination

The Committee, with the Board's approval, may terminate, amend, or modify the Plan at any time, except where shareholder approval for an amendment is required by applicable law, regulation, or stock exchange rule. The Plan may not be materially amended without shareholder approval. As a general rule, the Committee cannot terminate, amend, or modify the Plan in a way that has a material adverse effect on any participant's outstanding award without the participant's consent.

The Plan will terminate on June 27, 2017. In no event may an award be granted under the Plan on or after June 27, 2017. Awards outstanding on the termination date will not be affected by the termination.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a brief summary of the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences with respect to awards granted under the Plan.

Restricted Stock Awards

The recipient of a restricted stock award does not have taxable income upon receipt of the award. When the restricted stock award is vested, the recipient will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the difference of the fair market value of the shares on the date of vesting and the amount paid for such restricted stock, if any.

Upon the vesting of a restricted stock award, Quepasa will be entitled to a corresponding income tax deduction in the tax year in which the restricted stock award vested.

Incentive Stock Options

The recipient does not recognize any taxable income as a result of the grant or exercise of an incentive stock option qualifying under Section 422 of the Code. However, the exercise of an incentive stock option may increase the recipient's alternative minimum tax liability.

If a recipient holds stock acquired through the exercise of an incentive stock option for more than two years from the date on which the stock option was granted and more than one year after the date the stock option was exercised, any gain or loss on a disposition of those shares, or a qualifying disposition, will be a long-term capital gain or loss. Upon such a qualifying disposition, Quepasa will not be entitled to any income tax deduction.

Generally, if the recipient disposes of the stock before the expiration of either of those holding periods, or a disqualifying disposition, then at the time of such disqualifying disposition the recipient will recognize ordinary income equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of the stock's fair market value on the date of exercise over the exercise price, or (ii) the recipient's actual gain, if any, on the purchase and sale. Any additional gain recognized by the recipient upon the disposition will be long-term or short-term capital gain or loss, depending on whether the stock was held for more than one year.

To the extent the recipient recognizes ordinary income by reason of a disqualifying disposition, generally we will be entitled to a corresponding income tax deduction in the tax year in which the disqualifying disposition occurs.

Non-Qualified Stock Options

The recipient does not recognize any taxable income as a result of a grant of a non-qualified stock option. Upon exercise of a non-qualified stock option, the recipient will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise and the exercise price. When the shares are sold, any difference between the sale price and the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise will generally be treated as long term or short term capital gain or loss, depending on whether the stock was held for more than one year.

Table of Contents

Upon the exercise of a non-qualified stock option, Quepasa will be entitled to a corresponding income tax deduction in the tax year in which the option was exercised.

Stock Appreciation Rights

A recipient does not recognize any taxable income upon the receipt of an SAR. Upon the exercise of an SAR, the recipient will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the underlying shares of common stock on the exercise date over the exercise price.

Upon the exercise of an SAR, Quepasa will be entitled to a corresponding income tax deduction in the tax year in which the SAR was exercised.

New Plan Benefits

Because future grants of awards under the Plan are subject to the discretion of the Quepasa Board and the Committee, the future awards that may be granted to participants cannot be determined at this time. As described elsewhere herein, 1,782,500 options have been granted to employees of myYearbook, subject to the Merger closing. Currently, Quepasa has sufficient shares available under the Plan to issue these options to the myYearbook employees.

PROPOSAL 5. AMENDMENT TO OUR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE OUR NAME TO QUEPASA INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION

Description of the Amendment

Our Executive Committee adopted a resolution to amend our Articles to change our name from Quepasa Corporation to Quepasa International Corporation, or a different but similar corporate name, and has directed that the proposed amendment be submitted to our shareholders for their approval and adoption. The amendment will replace ARTICLE FIRST of our Articles with the following language:

FIRST. The name of the corporation is: QUEPASA INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION.

Purpose and Effect

With the completion of the Merger, Quepasa will have a larger online presence in the United States where myYearbook generates most of its revenue. Changing the name by adding “International” reflects Quepasa's expanded role as an important social media and social games company in places other than Central and South America.

Effective Date

Regardless of whether proposals 1 through 4 are approved, upon approval of our shareholders for this Proposal 5, we intend to file an amendment to our Articles reflecting such action. A copy of the amendment to our Articles is attached as Annex G. Additionally, if this Proposal 5 and Proposal 3 (the reincorporation proposal) are both approved, Quepasa Delaware's name will also be Quepasa International Corporation or a similar name.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” THE PROPOSAL TO CHANGE OUR NAME TO QUEPASA INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION.

PROPOSAL 6. ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING.

If at the time of the Special Meeting the number of shares of Quepasa common stock voting in favor of one or more of the proposals is insufficient to approve one or more of those proposals, we may move to adjourn the Special Meeting in order to allow us to continue to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposals that require additional "FOR" votes for their approval. The Quepasa Board believes that it is in the best interests of Quepasa shareholders to have each of the proposals be approved and implemented, and, therefore, enabling us to adjourn the meeting to continue to solicit proxies for one or more of the proposals is advisable.

If this Proposal is not approved by our shareholders, Quepasa will not be able to adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date. In such event, the Merger will not be completed if Proposal 1 has not passed.

Notes To Unaudited Financial Statements

June 30, 2011

1. Nature Of Operations

Insider Guides, Inc. (the “Company”) operates a social networking website open to people of all ages, with a concentration of members between the ages of 13 and 24. The Company’s site, www.myyearbook.com, was launched in August 2005. The Company generates revenues primarily from advertising fees.

2. Summary Of Significant Accounting Policies

Use Of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Advertising and custom sponsorship revenues consist primarily of advertising fees earned from the display of advertisements and click-throughs on text based links on the Company’s website. Revenue from online advertising is recognized as impressions are delivered. An impression is delivered when an advertisement appears on pages viewed by members of the Company’s website. Revenue from the display of click-throughs on text based links is recognized as click-throughs occur. Sponsorship revenue is recognized over the time period in which the sponsorship on the website occurs. Revenue from the sale of virtual currency is recognized when redeemed on the Company’s website. The Company records deferred revenue on the accompanying balance sheets when payments for virtual currency are received in advance of usage.

Cash And Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all cash in operating bank accounts, cash on hand, and other investments with a maturity of three months or less as cash and cash equivalents.

Trade Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are reported at net realizable value. Accounts are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible based upon management’s assessment of individual accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based upon a periodic review of individual accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts was $256,000 and $175,000 at June 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively.

Notes To Unaudited Financial Statements

Property And Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives, ranging from 3 to 7 years.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of domain names and related registrations and mobile applications. The Company has determined that domain names and related registrations have an indefinite useful life and therefore are not amortized. Mobile applications are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of 7 years.

Long-Lived Assets

The Company assesses its long-lived assets, specifically amortizable intangibles and equipment, for impairment whenever changes in circumstances indicated that the carrying amount of an asset may not be fully recoverable. The Company assesses indefinite lived intangible assets annually for impairment. As a result of its assessment, the Company does not believe that any impairment in the recoverability of its long-lived assets occurred during 2011 or 2010.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the provision of FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740 "Accounting for Income Taxes". Under ASC 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which differences are expected to reverse. ASC 740 also prescribes a more-likely-than-not threshold for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken, or expected to be taken, in a tax return. There were no uncertain tax positions that met the recognition threshold as of June 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010.

ASC 740 also provides guidance related to, amount other things, classification, accounting for interest and penalties associated with tax positions, and disclosure requirements. Any interest and penalties accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits will be recorded in tax expense. The Company's practice is to recognize interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. As of June 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the Company had no accrued interest or penalties related to income taxes. The Company currently has no federal or state tax examinations in progress.

The Company is subject to federal income tax and various state income taxes. The Company is no longer subject to examination by federal or state authorities for years before 2006.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $355,757 and $3,900 for the three month periods ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, advertising costs were $557,365 and $4,677, respectively.

Share-Based Compensation

Compensation expense was $39,334 and $40,538 for the three month periods ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, and $81,691 and $80,299 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, related to stock options granted to employees. The Black-Scholes option pricing model was used to estimate the option calculated value. The option pricing model requires a number of assumptions, of which the most significant are expected stock price volatility and the expected option term. Since it was not practicable for the Company to estimate the expected volatility of its share price, the Company accounted for its options based on a value calculated using the historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index. Unvested option compensation expense will be recognized over the remaining option term.

The Company recorded consulting expense of $4,059 and $8,444 for the three month periods ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, and $23,089 and $22,345 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, related to stock options granted to non-employees. The Company accounts for stock options granted to non-employees on a fair value basis over the vesting period using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The initial non-cash charge to operations for non-employee options with vesting is revalued at the end of each reporting period based upon the change in the fair value of the Company's common stock and amortized to consulting expense over the related vesting period.

Notes To Unaudited Financial Statements

All of the loans are collateralized by substantially all the assets of the Company and contain certain covenants.

In connection with the LSA and ELSA, the Company granted the lender warrants entitling them to purchase 244,437 and 149,657 shares, respectively, of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock. The warrants entitle the lender to purchase the preferred shares beginning after October 1, 2007, until March 31, 2015 for the LSA, and beginning on February 21, 2008, until September 30, 2015 for the ELSA, at an exercise price of $1.0023 per share. The exercise price is subject to adjustment under certain circumstances specified in the warrant agreements. At the date of the grant for the LSA in 2007, the Company calculated the fair value of the warrants to be $58,665, which was recorded as a discount to debt and to additional paid-in capital. At the date of the grant for the ELSA, the Company calculated the fair value of the warrants to be $50,883, which was recorded as a discount to debt and to additional paid-in capital.

In connection with the SLSA, the Company granted the lender warrants to purchase up to 52,426 shares of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock. The warrants entitle the lender to purchase the preferred shares beginning after November 21, 2008, until June 30, 2016, at an exercise price of $3.04 per share. The exercise price is subject to adjustment under certain circumstances specified in the warrant agreement. The Company drew down the available proceeds of the SLSA in two separate draws in 2008 and 2009. In connection with the S2LSA, the Company granted the lender warrants to purchase up to 52,426 shares of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock. 8. Stock Options

On October 30, 2006 the Company adopted the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2006 Plan"). Under the 2006 Plan, the Company may grant incentive stock options ("ISO's"), non-qualified stock options ("NSO's"), restricted stock awards, stock bonus awards, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock units and performance shares to selected employees and non-employee directors. At June 30, 2011, 4,540,395 shares of the Company's common stock were authorized for issuance under the 2006 Plan for stock option awards. ISO's granted under the 2006 Plan become exercisable over a four-year period beginning one year from the grant date and expire ten years after the date of grant. NSO's granted under the 2006 Plan vest and shall become exercisable as determined by the Board of Directors. Options granted to date have been granted at exercise prices ranging from $0.24 to $1.83 per share.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to measure the grant date calculated value of stock options that uses the assumptions noted in the table below. The options generally vest over the requisite service period, which is equal to the option vesting period of 4 years for ISO's and 2 years for NSO's. Generally, the Company uses expected volatilities and risk free interest rates that correlate with the expected term of the option when estimating the option's fair value. The Company utilizes the simplified method to estimate the expected life of the option, which is equal to the average of the vesting term and contractual term. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of the stock prices of comparable companies and the risk free interest rate is based on bond yields with equivalent terms. The Company used assumptions as set forth in the following table:

	Six months ended June 30,
	ISO's				NSO's
	2011		2010		2011		2010
Expected volatility range	44.6-45.2	%	46.0-46.4	%	45.6-50.7	%	56.0-64.6	%

December 31, 2010 And 2009

1. Nature Of Operations

Insider Guides, Inc. (the "Company") operates a social networking website open to people of all ages, with a concentration of members between the ages of 13 and 24. The Company's site, www.myyearbook.com, was launched in August 2005. The Company generates revenues primarily from advertising fees.

2. Summary Of Significant Accounting Policies

Use Of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Advertising and custom sponsorship revenues consist primarily of advertising fees earned from the display of advertisements and click-throughs on text based links on the Company's website. Revenue from online advertising is recognized as impressions are delivered. An impression is delivered when an advertisement appears on pages viewed by members of the Company's website. Revenue from the display of click-throughs on text based links is recognized as click-throughs occur. Sponsorship revenue is recognized over the time period in which the sponsorship on the website occurs. Revenue from the sale of virtual currency is recognized when redeemed on the Company's website. The Company records deferred revenue on the accompanying balance sheets when payments for virtual currency are received in advance of usage.

Cash And Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all cash in operating bank accounts, cash on hand, and other investments with a maturity of three months or less as cash and cash equivalents.

Trade Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are reported at net realizable value. Accounts are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible based upon management's assessment of individual accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based upon a periodic review of individual accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts was $175,000 and $58,854 at December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

Notes To Financial Statements
December 31, 2010 And 2009

Property And Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives, ranging from 3 to 7 years.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of domain names and related registrations and mobile applications. The Company has determined that domain names and related registrations have an indefinite useful life and therefore are not amortized. Mobile applications are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of 7 years.

Long-Lived Assets

The Company assesses its long-lived assets, specifically intangibles and equipment, for impairment whenever changes in circumstances indicated that the carrying amount of an asset may not be fully recoverable. As a result of its assessment, the Company does not believe that any impairment in the recoverability of its long-lived assets occurred during 2010 or 2009.

Income Taxes

The Company provides for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements. Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of temporary differences by applying statutory tax rates to differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of existing assets and liabilities.

The Company is subject to federal income tax and various state income taxes. The Company is no longer subject to examination by federal or state authorities for years before 2006.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $233,109 and $46,401 for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

Share-Based Compensation

The Company records compensation expense for share-based awards based on the estimated fair value calculated using an option valuation model.

Table of Contents

Insider Guides, Inc.

Notes To Financial Statements

December 31, 2010 And 2009

Compensation expense was $152,563 and $138,630 for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively, related to stock options granted to employees. The Black Scholes option pricing model was used to estimate the option calculated value. The option pricing model requires a number of assumptions, of which the most significant are expected stock price volatility and the expected option term. Since it was not practicable for the Company to estimate the expected volatility of its share price, the Company accounted for its options based on a value calculated using the historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index. Unvested option compensation expense will be recognized over the remaining option term.

The Company recorded consulting expense of $41,538 and $875 for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively, related to stock options granted to non-employees. The Company accounts for stock options granted to non-employees on a fair value basis over the vesting period using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The initial non-cash charge to operations for non-employee options with vesting is revalued at the end of each reporting period based upon the change in the fair value of the Company's common stock and amortized to consulting expense over the related vesting period.

Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events for recognition or disclosure through March 30, 2011, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Property And Equipment

At December 31, 2010, 4,040,395 shares of the Company's common stock were authorized for issuance under the 2006 Plan for stock option awards. ISO's granted under the 2006 Plan become exercisable over a four-year period beginning one year from the grant date and expire ten years after the date of grant.

NSO's granted under the 2006 Plan vest and shall become exercisable as determined by the Board of Directors.

Options granted to date have been granted at exercise prices ranging from $0.24 to $0.91 per share.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to measure the grant date calculated value of stock options that uses the assumptions noted in the table below. The options generally vest over the requisite service period, which is equal to the option vesting period of 4 years for ISO's and 2 years for NSO's. Generally, the Company uses expected volatilities and risk free interest rates that correlate with the expected term of the option when estimating the option's fair value. The Company utilizes the simplified method to estimate the expected life of the option, which is equal to the average of the vesting term and contractual term. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of the stock prices of comparable companies and the risk free interest rate is based on bond yields with equivalent terms. The

	ISO's		NSO's
	2010	2009	2010	2009
Expected volatility range	45.3	47.9	50.6	56.0

In the event that any Company Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent shall issue and pay in respect of such lost, stolen or destroyed Company Certificates, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock as may be required pursuant to Section 2.2, cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, as may be required pursuant to Section 2.2(f), the Cash Consideration payable with respect to such Company Certificates and any dividends or distributions payable pursuant to Section 2.3(d); provided, however, that Parent may, in its reasonable discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Company Certificates to deliver a bond in such sum as it may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Parent or the Exchange Agent with respect to the Company Certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

If, after the Effective Time, any holder shall effectively withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal with respect to his, her or its Dissenting Shares or such holder shall (through failure to perfect or otherwise) lose his, her or its rights to demand appraisal as to such Dissenting Shares, then any such shares of Company stock shall immediately be converted into the right to receive payment, without interest, as provided in this Article II and in accordance with the DGCL. Company shall give Parent (i) prompt notice of its receipt of any written demands for appraisal of any shares of Company stock, withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments relating to the Merger served on Company pursuant to applicable law and (ii) the opportunity to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under the DGCL. Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, or as otherwise required under the DGCL, voluntarily make any payment or offer to make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any claim or demand in respect of any Dissenting Shares. From and after the Closing, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall conduct the defense of any claim of appraisal or dissenters' rights under the DGCL.

Each of Company and the Company Subsidiaries is duly qualified as a foreign Person to do business, and is in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions that recognize such concept), in each jurisdiction where the character of its owned or leased properties or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified or in good standing has not had, or could not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) If prior to the Company Special Meeting the board of directors of Company determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that any Acquisition Proposal received by it constitutes a Company Superior Offer (as hereinafter defined) and the board of directors of Company determines in its good faith judgment, after receiving advice of its outside legal counsel, that failing to take such action with respect to the Company Superior Offer would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the board of directors of Company from withholding, withdrawing, amending or modifying its recommendation in favor of the Merger; provided, that (i) a Company Superior Offer is made to Company and is not withdrawn, (ii) Company shall have provided written notice to Parent (a “Company Notice of Superior Offer”) advising Parent that Company has received a Company Superior Offer, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Company Superior Offer and identifying the Person or entity making such Superior Offer, and (iii) Parent shall not have, within three (3) business days of Parent’s receipt of the Company Notice of Superior Offer, made an offer that Company board of directors by a majority vote determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its financial advisor, to be at least as favorable to Company’s stockholders as such Company Superior Offer (it being agreed that the Company board of directors shall convene a meeting to consider any such offer by Parent promptly following the receipt thereof). In the event the board of directors of the Company determines in good faith to withhold, withdraw, amend or modify its recommendation of the Merger in accordance with this Section, the Company may cancel the Company Special Meeting, terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e) and, if applicable, pay the fees in accordance with Section 8.3(b). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Parent may adjourn or postpone the Parent Special Meeting to the extent necessary to ensure that any necessary supplement or amendment to the Parent Proxy Statement is provided to Parent's stockholders in advance of a vote on the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger and the Financing Transaction or, if as of the time for which the Parent Special Meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Parent Proxy Statement) there are insufficient shares of Parent Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Parent Special Meeting. Parent shall ensure that the Parent Special Meeting is called, noticed, convened, held and conducted, and that all proxies solicited by Parent in connection with the Parent Special Meeting are solicited in compliance with Nevada law and the Exchange Act, Parent's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and all other applicable legal requirements.

(b) If prior to the Parent Special Meeting the board of directors of Parent determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that any Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Parent Superior Offer (as hereinafter defined) and the board of directors of Parent determines in its good faith judgment, after receiving advice of its outside legal counsel, that failing to take such action with respect to the Parent Superior Offer would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the board of directors of Parent from withholding, withdrawing, amending or modifying its recommendation in favor of the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger and the Financing Transaction; provided, that (i) a Parent Superior Offer is made to Parent and is not withdrawn, and (ii) Parent shall have provided written notice to Company (a "Parent Notice of Superior Offer") advising Company that Parent has received a Parent Superior Offer, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Parent Superior Offer and identifying the Person or entity making such Parent Superior Offer. In the event the board of directors of the Parent determines in good faith to withhold, withdraw, amend or modify its recommendation in favor of the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger and Financing Transaction in accordance with this Section, the Parent may cancel the Parent Special Meeting, terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(j) and, if applicable, pay the fees in accordance with Section 8.3(b). Parent shall provide Company with at least three (3) business days prior notice of any meeting of Parent's board of directors at which Parent's board of directors is reasonably expected to consider any Acquisition Transaction.

For purposes of this Agreement “Parent Superior Offer” shall mean an unsolicited, bona fide written offer or proposal made by a third party to consummate any of the following transactions: (i) a merger or consolidation involving Parent pursuant to which the stockholders of Parent immediately preceding such transaction hold less than a majority of the equity interest in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction, (ii) the acquisition by any Person or group (including by way of a tender offer or an exchange offer or a two step transaction involving a tender offer followed with reasonable promptness by a merger involving Parent), directly or indirectly, of ownership of 51% or more of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of Parent, or (iii) any sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Parent, in each case on terms that the board of directors of Parent determines, in its reasonable judgment (after consultation with its financial advisor) to be more favorable to its stockholders than the terms of the Merger; provided, however, that any such offer shall not be deemed to be a “Parent Superior Offer” if any financing required to consummate the transaction contemplated by such offer is not committed and is not likely in the reasonable judgment of Parent’s board of directors (after consultation with its financial advisor) to be obtained by such third party on a timely basis.

(c) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit Parent or its board of directors from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Whenever any party learns of the occurrence of any event which is required to be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Parent Proxy Statement, the Registration Statement or any other filing made pursuant to this Section 5.7, Parent or Company, as the case may be, shall promptly inform the other of such occurrence and cooperate in filing with the SEC or its staff and/or mailing to stockholders of Company and Parent such amendment or supplement.

(b) The information supplied by Company for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Registration Statement as it relates to Company, at the time the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein not misleading. The information supplied by Company for inclusion in the proxy statement to be sent to the stockholders of Parent (the “Parent Proxy Statement”), at the date the Parent Proxy Statement is first mailed to stockholders of Parent, at the time of the Parent Special Meeting and at the Effective Time will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any event with respect to Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries shall occur which is required to be described in the Registration Statement or Parent Proxy Statement, such event shall be so described, and an amendment or supplement shall be promptly filed with the SEC and, as required by law, disseminated to the stockholders of Parent.

In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect, except (i) as set forth in Section 8.2, Section 8.3 and Article IX, each of which shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and (ii) nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for any fraud or any material breach of this Agreement. No termination of this Agreement shall affect the obligations of the parties contained in the Confidentiality Agreement, all of which obligations shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

RECITALS

A. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Parent, Parent’s subsidiary, IG Acquisition Company (“Merger Sub”), and the Company have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), which provides for the merger of the Company with and into Merger Sub (the “Merger”).

B. Pursuant to the Merger, all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement, all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

C. As of the date hereof, Shareholder is the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”)) of the number of shares of outstanding capital stock of Parent and other securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, shares of capital stock of Parent (the “Shares”) set forth on the signature page of this Agreement.

D. As a material inducement to the Company to enter into and to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Company has required that Shareholder agree, and Shareholder is willing to agree, to restrict the transfer or disposition of any of the Shares, or any other shares of capital stock of the Parent acquired by Shareholder hereafter and prior to the Expiration Time (as defined in Section 1(a) hereof), and to vote the Shares and any other such shares of capital stock of Parent as set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Retain Shares.

(a) Transfer. Shareholder agrees that, at all times during the period beginning on the date hereof and ending at the Expiration Time, Shareholder shall not Transfer (as defined below) any of the Shares or any New Shares (as defined in Section 1(b) hereof), or make any agreement regarding any Transfer, in each case without the prior written consent of Company. Shareholder agrees that any Transfer in violation of this Agreement shall be void and of no force or effect.

Table of Contents

As used herein, the term “Expiration Time” shall mean the earliest to occur of (i) the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement), (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof, or (iii) the occurrence of a Material Adverse Amendment. As used herein (A) the term “Material Adverse Amendment” shall mean an amendment, modification or waiver to the Merger Agreement that (i) (1) directly or indirectly increases the Merger Consideration (as defined in the Merger Agreement) payable in connection with the Merger, (2) waives, amends or modifies any condition to the obligation of Parent to consummate the Merger, (3) waives any breach of representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of Company contained in the Merger Agreement, (4) waives, amends or modifies any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of Company so as to reduce the scope thereof, or the obligation thereunder, or (5) materially and adversely affects the Shareholder and (ii) is approved by the Parent’s Board of Directors regardless of whether in such vote the Shareholder’s nominee (if any) on the Parent’s Board of Directors (or the Shareholder in his capacity as a director) voted against such amendment. As used herein, the term “Transfer” shall mean, with respect to any security, the direct or indirect assignment, sale, transfer, tender, pledge, hypothecation, or the gift, placement in trust, or the Constructive Sale (as defined below) or other disposition of such security (excluding transfers by testamentary or intestate succession or otherwise by operation of law) or any right, title or interest therein (including, but not limited to, any right or power to vote to which the holder thereof may be entitled, whether such right or power is granted by proxy or otherwise), or the record or beneficial ownership thereof, the offer to make such a sale, transfer, Constructive Sale or other disposition, and each agreement, arrangement or understanding, whether or not in writing, to effect any of the foregoing, excluding any of the foregoing effected (A) pursuant to a court order, (B) pursuant to the Merger, (C) pursuant to a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan, (D) to any transferee if such transferee, prior to the Transfer, executes a binding agreement with Parent and the Company substantially in the form of this Agreement. 2. Agreement to Vote Shares. Until the Expiration Time, at every meeting of shareholders of the Parent called with respect to any of the following, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of shareholders of the Parent with respect to any of the following, Shareholder shall vote, to the extent not voted by the person(s) appointed under the Proxy (as defined in Section 3), the outstanding Shares and any outstanding New Shares (to the extent any such New Shares may be voted):

ANNEX C

September 15, 2011

Board of Directors
Quepasa Corporation
324 Datura Street
Suite 114
West Palm Beach, FL 33401

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Quepasa Corporation (the “Parent”) of the consideration to be paid by the Parent in connection with the proposed merger (the “Transaction”) of IG Acquisition Company (the “Merger Sub”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Parent, with Insider Guides, Inc. (the “Company”) pursuant and subject to the execution copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among the Parent, Merger Sub and the Company dated July 19, 2011 (the “Agreement”), as proposed to be amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement (the “Amendment”), a draft of which was provided to us on September 15, 2011 (collectively, the “Agreement as Amended”). Pursuant to the terms and subject to the additional conditions set forth in the Agreement as Amended, the aggregate value of consideration to be paid by the Parent as of September 15, 2011 in the Transaction is $94,228,000, $18,000,000 of which shall be paid by the Parent in cash and the remaining $76,228,000 shall be satisfied by Parent’s issuance of 17,000,000 shares of its common stock. Solely for purposes of assessing the value of the 17,000,000 shares of Parent common stock to be issued in the Transaction, which pursuant to the Agreement as Amended will be calculated based on the average closing price of a share of Parent common stock during the 20 trading days ending on the Effective Date of the Transaction, we have assumed that the price per share of Parent’s common stock is equal to $4.484 per share, which represents the average closing price of a share of Parent common stock during the 20 trading days ending September 15, 2011. Whereas we were previously requested our opinion as to the fairness of the consideration to be paid by the Parent in connection with the Transaction pursuant to the Agreement on July 19, 2011, this letter supercedes our letter dated July 19, 2011 and all prior communication on the subject matter hereof.

In connection with our review of the proposed Transaction and the preparation of our opinion herein, we have, among other things:

1. reviewed an execution copy of the Agreement dated and provided to us on July 19, 2011;
2. reviewed a draft of the Amendment provided to us on September 15, 2011;
3. reviewed the financial terms and conditions as stated in both the Agreement and the Amendment;
4. reviewed the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, and the unaudited financial statements for the periods ended March 31, 2011 and June 30, 2011, as well as summary financial information for the period ended August 31, 2011;

Board of Directors
Quepasa Corporation

5. reviewed the audited consolidated financial statements of the Parent as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, and the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the periods ended March 31, 2011 and June 30, 2011;
6. reviewed the Parent's Annual Report filed on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, and the Parent's Quarterly Report filed on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2011, and June 30, 2011;
7. reviewed the Parent's Registration Statement on Form S-4, as initially filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 11, 2011, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto dated August 26, 2011;
8. reviewed other financial and operating information requested from and/or provided by the Company or the Parent;
9. met with and discussed with members of the senior management of the Parent and the Company certain information relating to the aforementioned matters and any other matters which we have deemed relevant to our inquiry;
10. reviewed and discussed with senior management of the Parent and the Company the historical and anticipated future financial performance of the Company, including the review of forecasts prepared by senior management of the Parent and the Company;
11. compared financial information for the Company with similar information for companies we deemed to be comparable, except that such other companies had publicly traded equity securities;
12. reviewed the financial terms of recent business combinations involving companies in comparable businesses and industries; and
13. performed such other analyses and studies, and considered such other factors, as we considered appropriate.

With your consent, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to us by the Parent, the Company or any other party, and we have undertaken no duty or responsibility to independently verify any of such information. We have not made, obtained, or sought an independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Parent or the Company. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us, we have, with your consent, assumed that such forecasts and other information and data have been reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the Company and the Parent, as applicable. We express no view as to any such forecasts, estimates or other information or data or the bases and assumptions on which they were prepared. We have relied upon the Parent to advise us promptly if any information previously provided became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of our review. We have assumed, with your permission, that the final form of the Amendment will be substantially similar to the execution copy provided to us, and that the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of both the Agreement and the Amendment without waiver of any conditions thereof.

Our opinion is based upon market, economic, financial and other circumstances and conditions existing and disclosed to us as of September 15, 2011 and any material change in such circumstances and conditions would require a reevaluation of our opinion, which we are under no obligation to undertake.

We did not, and were not requested to, solicit third party indications of interest for the Parent in connection with possible purchases of the Parent's securities or the acquisition of all or any part of the Parent and we express no opinion as to the underlying business decision of the Parent to effect the Transaction, the structure or tax consequences of the Agreement as Amended, or the availability or advisability of any alternatives to the Transaction. We did not structure the Transaction or negotiate any terms of the Transaction. This letter does not express any opinion as to the likely trading range of the Parent's common stock following the announcement of the Amendment to the terms of the Transaction or the consummation of the Transaction, which may vary depending on numerous factors that generally impact the price of securities or on the financial condition of the Parent at that time. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the aggregate value of consideration to be paid in the Transaction by the Parent. We express no opinion with respect to any other reasons, legal, business, or otherwise, that may support the decision of the Board of Directors of the Parent to approve or consummate the Transaction. We also express no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of Parent's directors, officers or employees, or any class of such persons relative to others. In formulating our opinion, we have considered only what we understand to be the consideration to be paid by the Parent as is described above, and we have not considered, and this opinion does not address, any other payments that may be made in connection to Parent or Company employees or other shareholders in connection with the Transaction.

In conducting our investigation and analyses and in arriving at our opinion expressed herein, we have taken into account such accepted financial and investment banking procedures and considerations as we have deemed relevant, including the review of (i) historical and projected revenues, Adjusted EBITDA, capitalization, and certain operating metrics of the Company and certain publicly traded companies in businesses and industries we believe to be comparable to the Company; (ii) the current and projected financial position and results of operations of the Parent as disclosed to us by the Parent; (iii) financial and operating information concerning selected business combinations which we deemed comparable in whole or in part; (iv) a discounted cash flow analysis of the Company based on financial information of the Company provided to us by the Parent and the Company; (v) a relative contribution analysis for certain financial and operating metrics of the Parent and Company; (vi) the historical trading prices of the Parent's common stock, and (vii) our assessment of the general condition of the securities markets and the social networking industry. The delivery of this opinion was approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee.

In arriving at this opinion, Raymond James & Associates, Inc. ("Raymond James") did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Raymond James believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying this opinion.

Raymond James is actively engaged in the investment banking business and regularly undertakes the valuation of investment securities in connection with public offerings, private placements, business combinations and similar transactions. Raymond James has been engaged by the Parent to deliver this opinion and will receive all of its outstanding fees upon the delivery of this opinion. In addition, the Parent has agreed to indemnify Raymond James against certain liabilities arising out of this engagement. Raymond James may also seek to provide such services to the Parent in the future and expects to receive fees for the rendering of such services.

In the ordinary course of our business, Raymond James, its affiliates, directors and officers may trade or otherwise structure and effect transactions in the securities of the Parent for its own account or for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position, finance positions or otherwise structure and effect transactions in the Parent's common stock.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Parent in evaluating the proposed Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Parent regarding how said shareholder should vote on the proposed Transaction, nor is this letter intended to confer rights or remedies upon the Parent, the Company or the shareholders of either the Parent or the Company. Furthermore, this letter should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on the part of Raymond James to any such party. This opinion is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, without our prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of September 15, 2011, the consideration to be paid by the Parent pursuant to the Agreement as Amended is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Parent.

Very truly yours,

RAYMOND JAMES & ASSOCIATES, INC.

7. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the bylaws of the Company shall so provide.

Meetings of shareholders may be held within or without the State of Delaware as the bylaws may provide. The books of the Company may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) outside the State of Delaware at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors or in the bylaws of the Company.

8. The Company reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this certificate of incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

9. No director of this Company shall be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Nothing in this paragraph shall serve to eliminate or limit the liability of a director (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to this Company or its shareholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the shareholders of the Company shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Company existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

10. (a) Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding (except as provided in Section 11 (f)) whether civil, criminal or administrative, (a "Proceeding"), or is contacted by any governmental or regulatory body in connection with any investigation or inquiry (an "Investigation"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or executive officer (as such term is utilized pursuant to interpretations under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such Proceeding or Investigation is alleged action in an official capacity or in any other capacity as set forth above shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Company to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such Indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the Indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses incurred in defending any such Proceeding in advance of its final disposition (an "Advancement of Expenses"); provided, however, that an Advancement of Expenses shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section or otherwise (an "Undertaking").

(b) If a claim under paragraph (a) of this Section is not paid in full by the Company within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the Company, except in the case of a claim for an Advancement of Expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the Indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit or in a suit brought by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an Undertaking, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In

- (i) any suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right to an Advancement of Expenses) it shall be a defense that, and the Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law. Neither the failure of the Company (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the Indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the Indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the Indemnitee to enforce a right hereunder, or by the Company to recover an Advancement of Expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified or to such Advancement of Expenses under this Section or otherwise shall be on the Company.

(c) The rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses conferred in this Section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this certificate of incorporation, bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

(d) The Company may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

(e) The Company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the board of directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the Advancement of Expenses, to any employee or agent of the Company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Section with respect to the indemnification and Advancement of Expenses of directors, and executive officers of the Company.

(f) Notwithstanding the indemnification provided for by this Section 11, the Company's bylaws, or any written agreement, such indemnity shall not include any expenses incurred by such Indemnitees relating to or arising from any Proceeding in which the Company asserts a direct claim against an Indemnitee, or an Indemnitee asserts a direct claim against the Company, whether such claim is termed a complaint, counterclaim, crossclaim, third-party complaint or otherwise.

11. All action by holders of the Company's outstanding voting securities shall be taken at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders following notice as provided by law or in the Bylaws and shareholders of the Company shall not have the power to act by means of written consent.

12. This Certificate of Incorporation and the internal affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the State of Delaware, excluding its conflict of laws principles. Unless the Corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware shall be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Corporation, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director or officer (or affiliate of any of the foregoing) of the Corporation to the Corporation or the Corporation's shareholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law or the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, or (iv) any other action asserting a claim arising under, in connection with, and governed by the internal affairs doctrine.

Article I. Meeting of Shareholders

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders of this Corporation shall be held at the time and place designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Business transacted at the annual meeting shall include the election of directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders shall be held (a) when directed by the Board of Directors, or (b) when requested in writing by the holders of not less than 20 percent of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 3. Place. Meetings of shareholders may be held within or without the State of Delaware.

Section 4. Notice. Written notice (including, where applicable, any notice required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission) stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the meeting, by first class mail or email to the extent permitted under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, by or at the direction of the chief executive officer, the president, the secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. Such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the Corporation, with postage prepaid thereon or when emailed (if authorized). The provisions of Section 229 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") as to waiver of notice are applicable.

Section 5. Notice of Adjourned Meetings. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and at the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. If, however, after the adjournment the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, a notice of adjourned meeting, shall be given as provided in this section to each shareholder of record on the new record date entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 6. Closing of Transfer Books and Fixing Record Date. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other purpose, the Board of Directors may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, 60 days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least 10 days immediately preceding such meeting.

In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for the determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than 60 days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than 10 days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of shareholders is to be taken.

If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the day preceding the day on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders.

When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof, unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 7. Shareholder Quorum and Voting. A majority of the outstanding shares of each class or series of voting stock then entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. When a specified item of business is required to be voted on by a class or series of stock, a majority of the outstanding shares of such class or series shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such item of business by that class or series.

For all matters other than election of directors, except as otherwise provided by law, by applicable stock exchange rules, by the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws, if a quorum is present, all actions taken by the holders of a majority of the votes cast on a proposal, excluding abstentions, shall be the act of the shareholders, and when approval of a class or series is required the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast on a proposal, excluding abstentions, by the holders of shares of such class or series shall be the act of such class or series.

A nominee for director shall be elected if the votes cast for such nominee's election exceeded the votes cast against such nominee; provided, however, that a nominee shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at any meeting of shareholders for which the Secretary of the Corporation determines that the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected as of the record date for such meeting. Following election or re-election, each director shall promptly tender resignation effective upon the directors failure to receive the required vote for re-election at the next meeting at which such directors is up re-election and upon acceptance of such resignation by the Board of Directors.

After a quorum has been established at a shareholders' meeting, the subsequent withdrawal of shareholders, so as to reduce the number of shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting below the number required for a quorum, shall not affect the validity of any action taken at the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Section 8. Voting of Shares. Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except as may be otherwise provided in a certificate of designation filed with the Delaware Secretary of State.

Treasury shares, shares of stock of this Corporation owned by another corporation, the majority of the voting stock of which is owned or controlled by this Corporation, and shares of stock of this Corporation, held by it in a fiduciary capacity shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting, and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact.

At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected at that time and for whose election he has a right to vote.

Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by the officer, agent, or proxy designated by the bylaws of the corporate shareholder; or, in the absence of any applicable bylaw, by such person as the Board of Directors of the corporate shareholder may designate. Proof of such designation may be made by presentation of a certified copy of the bylaws or other instrument of the corporate shareholder. In the absence of any such designation, or in case of conflicting designation by the corporate shareholder, the chairman of the board, president, any vice president, secretary and treasurer of the corporate shareholder shall be presumed to possess, in that order, authority to vote such shares.

Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority to do so is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee or his nominee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

On and after the date on which written notice of redemption of redeemable shares has been mailed to the holders thereof and a sum sufficient to redeem such shares has been deposited with a bank or trust company with irrevocable instruction and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders thereof upon surrender of certificates therefor, such shares shall not be entitled to vote on any matter and shall not be deemed to be outstanding shares.

Section 9. Proxies. Every shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders or to express consent or dissent without a meeting of a shareholders' duly authorized attorney-in-fact may authorize another person or persons to act for him by proxy.

Every proxy must be signed by the shareholder or his attorney –in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of three years from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the shareholder executing it, except as otherwise provided by law.

The authority of the holder of a proxy to act shall not be revoked by the incompetence or death of the shareholder who executed the proxy unless, before the authority is exercised, written notice of an adjudication of such incompetence or of such death is received by the corporate officer responsible for maintaining the list of shareholders.

If a proxy for the same shares confers authority upon two or more persons and does not otherwise provide, a majority of them present at the meeting, or if only one is present then that one, may exercise all the powers conferred by the proxy; but if the proxy holders present at the meeting are equally divided as to the right and manner of voting in any particular case, the voting of such shares shall be prorated.

If a proxy expressly provides, any proxy holder may appoint in writing a substitute to act in his place.

Section 10. Action by Shareholders without a Meeting. Any action required by law, these bylaws, or the certificate of incorporation of this Corporation to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. If any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, such written consent shall be required of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Promptly after obtaining such authorization by written consent, notice shall be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing. The notice shall fairly summarize the material features of the authorized action, and, if the action be a merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under the DGCL, be given in accordance with Section 262(d)(2) of the DGCL.

Section 11. Advance Notice at Annual Meeting.

(a) At an annual meeting of shareholders only such business shall be conducted as is a proper matter for shareholder action under the DGCL and as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. Matters may be properly brought before the annual meeting, only as follows: (i) brought before the meeting and specified pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting of the shareholders, (ii) otherwise brought specifically by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or (iii) by any shareholder of the Corporation who was a shareholder of record who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complied with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 11; provided, that if such matter is proposed on behalf of a beneficial owner it may only be properly brought before the meeting, if such beneficial owner was the beneficial owner of shares of the Corporation at the time of the giving of the shareholder's notice provided for in Section 11(b) below. Clause (iii) above shall be the exclusive means for a shareholder to make nominations and submit other business (other than matters properly included in the Corporation's notice of meeting of shareholders and proxy statement under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "Exchange Act")) before an annual meeting of shareholders.

(b) At an annual meeting of shareholders, the following procedures shall apply in order for a matter to be properly brought before the meeting by a shareholder.

(i) For nominations for election to the Board of Directors to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a shareholder pursuant to clause (iii) of Section 11(a), the shareholder must deliver written notice to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation on a timely basis as set forth in Section 11(b)(iii) and must update and supplement such written notice on a timely basis as set forth in Section 11(c). Such shareholder's notice shall set forth: (A) as to each nominee such shareholder proposes to nominate at the meeting: (1) the name, age, business address and residence address of such nominee, (2) the principal occupation or employment of such nominee, (3) the class and number of shares of each class of capital stock of the Corporation which are owned of record and beneficially by such nominee, (4) the date or dates on which such shares were acquired and the investment intent of such acquisition, (5) a statement whether such nominee, if elected, intends to tender promptly following such person's failure to receive the required vote for election or re-election at the next meeting at which such person would face election or re-election, an irrevocable resignation effective upon acceptance of such resignation by the Board of Directors (6) with respect to each nominee for election or re-election to the Board of Directors, include a completed and signed questionnaire, representation and agreement required by Section 11(e), and (7) such other information concerning such nominee as would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such nominee as a director in an election contest (even if an election contest is not involved), or that is otherwise required to be disclosed pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); and (B) the information required by Section 11(b)(iv). The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as an independent director of the Corporation or that could be material to a reasonable shareholder's understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such proposed nominee.

(iii) To be timely, the written notice required by Section 11(b)(i) or 11(b)(ii) must be received by the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 120th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 150th day prior to the first anniversary of the date on which the Corporation released its proxy materials to its shareholders for the prior year's annual meeting of shareholders or any longer period provided for by applicable law; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than 30 days prior to or delayed by more than 30 days after the anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, for notice by the shareholder to be timely, such shareholder's written notice must be delivered to the Secretary not later than the close of business on the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made, whichever is later. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a shareholder's notice as described above.

(iv) The written notice required by Section 11(b)(i) or 11(b)(ii) shall also set forth, as of the date of the notice and as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (each, a "Proponent" and collectively, the "Proponents"): (A) the name and address of each Proponent, as they appear on the Corporation's books; (B) the class, series and number of shares of the Corporation that are owned beneficially and of record by each Proponent; (C) a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether oral or in writing) with respect to such nomination or proposal between or among any Proponent and any of its affiliates or associates, and any others (including their names) acting in concert, or otherwise under the agreement, arrangement or understanding, with any of the foregoing; (D) a representation that the Proponents are holders of record or beneficial owners, as the case may be, of shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting and intend to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice (with respect to a notice under Section 11(b)(i)) or to propose the business that is specified in the notice (with respect to a notice under Section 11(b)(ii)); (E) a representation as to whether the Proponents intend to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to holders of a sufficient number of holders of the Corporation's voting shares to elect such nominee or nominees (with respect to a notice under Section 11(b)(i)) or to carry such proposal (with respect to a notice under Section 11(b)(ii)); (F) to the extent known by any Proponent, the name and address of any other shareholder supporting the proposal on the date of such shareholder's notice; and (G) a description of all Derivative Transactions (as defined below) by each Proponent during the previous 12 month period, including the date of the transactions and the class, series and number of securities involved in, and the material economic terms of, such Derivative Transactions.

(f) A person shall not be eligible for election or re-election as a director unless the person is nominated either in accordance with clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of Section 11(a). Except as otherwise required by law, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made, or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in these bylaws and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with these bylaws, to declare that such defective proposal or nomination shall not be presented for shareholder action at the meeting and shall be disregarded. Notwithstanding anything in these bylaws to the contrary, unless otherwise required by law, if a shareholder intending to make a nomination at a meeting pursuant to Section 11(b)(i) or to propose business at a meeting pursuant to Section 11(b)(ii) does not provide the information in the shareholder's notice required under Section 11(b)(i) or 11(b)(ii), as applicable, within the applicable time periods specified in this Section 11 (including any update and supplement required under Section 11(c)), or the shareholder (or a qualified representative of the shareholder) does not appear at the meeting to make such nomination or to propose such business, or the Proponents shall not have acted in accordance with the representations required under Section 11(b)(iv)(E), such nomination or proposal shall not be presented for shareholder action at the meeting and shall be disregarded, as determined by the chairman of the meeting as described above, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such nominations or such business may have been solicited or received.

(g) In order to include information with respect to a shareholder proposal in the proxy statement and form of proxy for a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder must also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Nothing in these bylaws shall be deemed to affect any rights of shareholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to the rules and regulations under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that any references in these bylaws to the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations thereunder are not intended to and shall not limit the requirements applicable to proposals and/or nominations to be considered pursuant to Section 11(a) (iii) of these bylaws.

(h) For purposes of Sections 11 and 12,

(i) "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press, Business Wire or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act; and

(a) Special meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation may be called pursuant to Section 2, provided that such written request is in compliance with the requirements of Section 12(b) (a "Shareholder-Requested Meeting"). A request to call a special meeting pursuant to Section 2(b) shall not be valid unless made in accordance with the requirements and procedures set forth in this Section 12. Except as may otherwise be required by law, the Board of Directors shall determine, in its sole judgment, the validity of any request under Section 2(b), including whether such request was properly made in compliance with these bylaws.

(b) For a special meeting called pursuant to Section 2, the Board of Directors shall determine the time and place of such special meeting, subject to the provisions below with respect to a Shareholder-Requested Meeting. Following determination of the time and place of the meeting, the Secretary shall cause a notice of meeting to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote, in accordance with these bylaws. For a Shareholder-Requested Meeting, the request shall (i) be in writing, signed and dated by the shareholders who have who delivered the written request for the special meeting, (ii) set forth the purpose of calling the special meeting and include the information required by the shareholder's notice as set forth in Section 11(b)(i), including the questionnaire, representation and agreement required by Section 11(e) (for nominations for the election to the Board of Directors) and in Section 11(b)(ii) (for the proposal of business other than nominations), (iii) be delivered personally or sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation. The shareholder shall also update and supplement such information as required under Section 11(c). If the Board of Directors determines that a request pursuant to Section 2(b) is valid, the Board shall determine the time and place, if any, of a Shareholder-Requested Meeting, which time shall be not less than 90 nor more than 120 days after the receipt of such request, and shall set a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting in the manner set forth in these bylaws. No business may be transacted at a special meeting, including a Shareholder-Requested Meeting, otherwise than as specified in the notice of meeting.

(c) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of shareholders at which directors are to be elected (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any shareholder of the Corporation who is a shareholder of record at the time of giving notice provided for in this Section 12(c), who shall be entitled to vote at the meeting and who delivers written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation setting forth the information required by Section 11(b)(i); provided, that if such nominee is proposed on behalf of a beneficial owner it may only be properly brought before the meeting, if such beneficial owner was the beneficial owner of shares of the Corporation at the time of giving notice provided for in this Section 12(c). In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of shareholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such shareholder of record may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be), for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if written notice setting forth the information required by Section 11(b)(i) shall be received by the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation no later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. The shareholder shall also update and supplement such information as required under Section 11(c). In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a shareholder's notice as described above.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12, a shareholder must also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to matters set forth in this Section 12. Nothing in these bylaws shall be deemed to affect any rights of shareholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that any references in these bylaws to the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations thereunder are not intended to and shall not limit the requirements applicable to nominations for the election to the Board of Directors and/or proposals of other business to be considered pursuant to Section 2 of these bylaws.

Article II. Directors

Section 1. Function. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Qualification. Directors need not be residents of this state or shareholders of this Corporation.

Section 3. Compensation. The Board of Directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors.

Section 4. Duties of Directors. A director shall perform his duties as a director, including his duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which he may serve, in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

In performing his duties, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

- (a) one or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented,
- (b) counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence, or
- (c) a committee of the board upon which he does not serve, duly designated in accordance with a provision of the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence.

A director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause such reliance described above to be unwarranted.

A person who performs his duties in compliance with this section shall have no liability by reason of being or having been a director of the Corporation.

Section 5. Presumption of Assent. A director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of its Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless he votes against such action or abstains from voting in respect thereto because of an asserted conflict of interest.

Section 6. Number. This Corporation shall have no less than three nor greater than nine directors. The number of directors may be established from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the terms of any incumbent director.

Section 7. Election and Term. Each person named in the certificate of incorporation as a member of the initial Board of Directors and all other directors appointed by the Board of Directors to fill vacancies thereof shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation, removal from office or death. At the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation, removal from office or death.

Section 8. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, including any vacancy created by reason of an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors despite having less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next election of directors by the shareholders.

Section 9. Removal of Directors. At a meeting of the shareholders called expressly for that purpose, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class or series of voting stock, present in person or by proxy, then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

Section 10. Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of directors then serving as directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 11. Director Conflicts of Interest. No contract or other transaction between this Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of the directors are directors or officers or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction or because his or their votes are counted for such purpose, if:

(a) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested directors; or

(b) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or

(c) The contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation at the time it is authorized by the board, a committee or the shareholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

Section 12. Place of Meeting. Regular and special meetings by the Board of Directors may be held within or without the State of Delaware.

Section 13. Time, Notice and Call of Meetings. Notice of the time and place of meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director by either personal delivery, any form of electronic notice including email or facsimile transmission, as long as the director is able to retain a copy of the notice, at least one day before the meeting.

Notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice either before or after the meeting. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting and waiver of any and all obligations to the place of the meeting, the time of the meeting, or the manner in which it has been called or convened, except when a director states, at the beginning of the meeting, any objection to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum exists, may adjourn any meeting of the Board of Directors to another time and place. Notice of any such adjourned meeting shall be given to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment and, unless the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the time of the adjournment, to the other directors.

Meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the chief executive officer or president of the Corporation or by any director.

Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of such Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 14. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the directors of the Corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, signed by all of the directors, is filed in the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

Any officer or agent elected by the shareholders may be removed only by vote of the shareholders, unless the shareholders shall have authorized the directors to remove such officer or agent.

Any vacancy, however, occurring, in any office may be filled by the Board of Directors.

Removal of any officer shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed; however, election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

Article IV. Stock Certificates

Section 1. Issuance. Every holder of shares in this Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, representing all shares to which he is entitled. No certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid.

Section 2. Form. Every certificate representing shares issued by this Corporation shall set forth or fairly summarize upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the Corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge a full statement of, the designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights of the shares of each class or series authorized to be issued, and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of each series so far as the same have been fixed and determined, and the authority of the Board of Directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of subsequent series.

Every certificate representing shares which are restricted as to the sale, disposition, or other transfer of such shares shall state that such shares are restricted as to transfer and shall set forth or fairly summarize upon the certificate, or shall state that the Corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge a full statement of, such restrictions.

Section 3. Transfer of Stock. Except as provided in Section 4 of this Article, the Corporation shall register a stock certificate presented to it for transfer if the certificate is properly endorsed by the holder of record or by his duly authorized attorney, and the signature of such person has been guaranteed by a commercial bank or trust company or by a member of the New York Stock Exchange or any successor thereto.

This Corporation shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its shareholders, giving the names and addresses of all shareholders, and the number, class and series, if any, of the shares held by each.

Any books, records and minutes may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Any person who shall have been a holder of record of shares or of voting trust certificates therefor at least six months immediately preceding his demand or shall be the holder of record of, or the holder of record of voting trust certificates for, at least five percent of the outstanding shares of any class or series of the Corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose its relevant books and records of accounts, minutes and records of shareholders and to make extracts therefrom.

Section 2. Financial Information. Not later than three months after the close of each fiscal year, this Corporation shall prepare a balance sheet showing in reasonable detail the financial condition of the Corporation as of the close of its fiscal year, and a profit and loss statement showing the results of the operations of the Corporation during its fiscal year.

Upon the written request of any shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates for shares of the Corporation, the Corporation shall mail to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates a copy of the most recent such balance sheet and profit and loss statement.

The balance sheets and profit and loss statements shall be filed in the registered office of the Corporation in this state, shall be kept for at least five years, and shall be subject to inspection during business hours by any shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates, in person or by agent.

Article VI. Dividends

The Board of Directors of this Corporation may, from time to time, declare and the Corporation may pay dividends on its shares in cash, property or its own shares, except when the Corporation is insolvent or when the payment thereof would render the Corporation insolvent or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the certificate of incorporation, subject to the following provisions:

- (a) Dividends in cash or property may be declared and paid, except as otherwise provided in this section, only out of the unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus of the Corporation or out of capital surplus, howsoever arising but each dividend paid out of capital surplus shall be identified as a distribution of capital surplus, and the amount per share paid from such surplus shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution.
- (b) Dividends may be declared and paid in the Corporation's own treasury shares.
- (c) Dividends may be declared and paid in the Corporation's own authorized but unissued shares out of any unreserved and unrestricted surplus of the Corporation upon the following conditions:
 - (1) If a dividend is payable in shares having a par value, such shares shall be issued at not less than the par value thereof and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate par value of the shares to be issued as a dividend.
 - (2) If a dividend is payable in shares without a par value, such shares shall be issued at such stated value as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors by resolution adopted at the time such dividend is declared, and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate stated value so fixed in respect of such shares; and the amount per share so transferred to stated capital shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving such dividend concurrently with the payment thereof.

(d) No dividend payable in shares of any class shall be paid to the holders of shares of any other class unless the certificate of incorporation so provide or such payment is authorized by the affirmative vote or the written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the class in which the payment is to be made.

(e) A split-up or division of the issued shares of any class into a greater number of shares of the same class without increasing the stated capital of the Corporation shall not be construed to be a share dividend within the meaning of this section.

Article VII. Corporate Seal

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Nevada Statutes provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he is not liable pursuant to NRS Section 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. NRS Chapter 78 further provides that a corporation similarly may indemnify any such person serving in any such capacity who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he is not liable pursuant to NRS Section 78.138 or acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court or other court of competent jurisdiction in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court or other court of competent jurisdiction shall deem proper.

Our Articles provide for the elimination of liability of our directors and officers for monetary damages for their breach of fiduciary duty to the fullest extent provided by Nevada law. Also, our Articles provide that our directors and officers shall be indemnified by Quepasa against any liability to the fullest extent provided by law.

At present, there is no pending litigation or proceeding involving a director, officer or employee regarding which indemnification is sought, nor are we aware of any threatened litigation that may result in claims for indemnification.

The indemnification provisions in our Articles and the Indemnification Agreements entered into between us and each of our directors and officers may be sufficiently broad to permit indemnification of our directors and officers for liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Quepasa pursuant to the foregoing provisions, we have been informed that in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reoffering by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(6) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to this registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(8) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(9) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.
