Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 22, 2015, United Community Banks, Inc. (the “Company”), the holding company for United Community Bank, Blairsville, Georgia, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Palmetto Bancshares, Inc. (“Palmetto”), the holding company for The Palmetto Bank, Greenville, South Carolina. Under the Merger Agreement, Palmetto will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”) and The Palmetto Bank will merge with and into United Community Bank.

Subject to certain conditions and potential adjustments, Palmetto’s shareholders will have the right to receive 0.97 shares of the Company’s common stock or $19.25 in cash, or a combination thereof, for each share of Palmetto common stock. The total merger consideration shall be prorated as necessary to ensure that 30% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% of the total outstanding shares of Palmetto common stock will be exchanged for shares of United common stock in the merger. The aggregate merger consideration equals $74,004,165 and 8,970,202 shares of the Company’s common stock. The parties anticipate closing the Merger during the fourth quarter of 2015.

The Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of each of the Company and Palmetto. The closing of the Merger is subject to the required approval of Palmetto’s shareholders, requisite regulatory approvals, the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by the Company with respect to the stock to be issued in the Merger, and other customary closing conditions.

The Merger Agreement contains usual and customary representations and warranties that the Company and Palmetto made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company and Palmetto, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between the Company and Palmetto rather than establishing matters as facts.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances, including: (i) by mutual written agreement of the parties; (ii) by either party in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained in the Merger Agreement which has not been cured within thirty days and where such breach is reasonably likely to permit such party to refuse to consummate the Merger; (iii) by either party in the event that any required regulatory authority is denied by final action or any law or order prohibiting the Merger shall become final and nonappealable; (iv) by either party if the requisite Palmetto shareholder approval is not obtained; (v) by either party in the event that, under certain circumstances, the Merger shall not have been consummated by December 31, 2015 or certain conditions in the Merger Agreement have not been satisfied by February 29, 2016; (vi) by the Company in the event that, upon the effectiveness of the Company’s Registration Statement on Form S-4 with respect to the issuance of common stock to Palmetto shareholders, the Palmetto board of directors has not recommended for approval the Merger Agreement to its shareholders; (vii) by Palmetto, prior to Palmetto shareholder approval, to enter into a superior proposal; or (viii) by Palmetto in the event that the Company’s common stock price decreases in comparison to the specified ratio provided in the Merger Agreement, and the Company elects not to increase the merger consideration to be received by Palmetto shareholders. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement by Palmetto to enter into a superior proposal, Palmetto may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $7.5 million.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference. The related press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company and Palmetto, and certain of their respective directors, executive officers and other members of management and employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of Palmetto in respect of the Merger. Information regarding the directors and executive officers of the Company and Palmetto and other persons who may be deemed participants in the solicitation of the shareholders of Palmetto in connection with the Merger will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus for Palmetto's special meeting of shareholders, which will be filed by the Company with the SEC. Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information.

This Current Report contains “forward-looking statements” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as “may,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “v,” “should,” “plan,” “estimate,” “predict,” “continue” and “potential” or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the Merger, the expected returns and other benefits of the Merger, to shareholders, expected improvement in operating efficiency resulting from the Merger, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transactions and the timing of achievement of such reductions, the impact on and timing of the recovery of the impact on tangible book value, and the effect of the Merger on the Company’s capital ratios. Forward-looking statements represent management’s beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the possibility that expected benefits may not materialize in the time frames expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the Merger may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to completion of the Merger or thereafter, the parties’ respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainties or other factors; that the parties are unable to implement successful integration strategies; that the required regulatory, shareholder, or other closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner, or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the parties’ customers to the Merger; diversion of management time to Merger-related issues; and other factors and risk influences contained in the cautionary language included under the headings “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and other documents subsequently filed by the Company with the SEC. Consequently, no forward-looking statement can be guaranteed. Neither the Company nor Palmetto undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. For any forward-looking statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the exhibits hereto or any related documents, the Company and Palmetto claim protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Additional Information and Where to Find It.
