FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Caterpillar Inc. Maintains Dividend Rate

PEORIA, Ill. - Underlining the company's strong financial performance, the Board of Directors of Caterpillar Inc. (NYSE: CAT) today declared a quarterly cash dividend of 30 cents ($0.30) per share on its common stock, payable February 20, 2007, to stockholders of record at the close of business January 22, 2007.

Caterpillar stockholders have benefited from the company's strong financial performance, with the quarterly dividend increasing 71 percent over the past five years and tripling over the past 10 years. The 30 cent dividend maintains the rate for the previous quarter and is 20 percent higher than a year ago.

"The Caterpillar story is a positive one and has enabled the company to pay attractive dividends which reflect our commitment to rewarding stockholders," said Caterpillar Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Jim Owens. "This will be the fourth consecutive year of double digit profit growth and the third consecutive year of record sales and profit. Caterpillar stockholders expect a good return on their investment, and we're proud that the company's continued profitable growth and earnings stability have delivered on that expectation."

For more than 80 years, Caterpillar Inc. has been making progress possible and driving positive and sustainable change on every continent. With 2005 sales and revenues of $36.339 billion, Caterpillar is the world's leading manufacturer of construction and mining equipment, diesel and natural gas engines, industrial gas turbines and a wide and growing offering of related services.
