- (d) During the last five years, none of the Reporting Persons or, to the best of their knowledge, any of their directors or executive officers, have been convicted of any criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors).
- (e) During the last five years, none of the Reporting Persons or, to the best of their knowledge, any of their directors or executive officers, have been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws except as noted below:

On February 20, 2003, Merrill Lynch agreed with the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission to a settlement-in-principle resolving the Commission's investigation regarding two transactions between Merrill Lynch and Enron in 1999. On March 17, 2003, Merrill Lynch announced that it had finalized the settlement-in-principle with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Without admitting or denying any wrongdoing, MLC consented to an injunction enjoining it from violations of the anti-fraud provisions of the federal securities laws. This settlement concluded the SEC's investigation into Enron-related matters with respect to Merrill Lynch. Under the settlement, Merrill Lynch paid a total of $80 million in disgorgement, penalties and interest.

In December 2002, MLPFS joined with nine other major financial Services institutions in a settlement-in-principle with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers and the New York Stock Exchange to resolve matters arising from their research-related inquiries, including inquiries into potential conflicts that may arise from the relationship between research and investment banking within securities firms. On April 28, 2003, the Securities and Exchange Commission, New York Stock Exchange, National Association of Securities Dealers, and state securities regulators announced that the settlements-in-principle had been reduced to final settlements. The settlements called for MLPFS, among other things, to contribute $100 million for the funding of independent research and investor education over the next five years but did not require MLPFS to pay any fines or make any additional civil payments. Earlier in 2002, MLPFS had agreed to pay $100 million to settle allegations by the Attorney General of the State of New York challenging the independence of its research. Additionally, the terms of the settlements provided that an injunction would be entered against MLPFS enjoining it from violating the statutes and rules that it is alleged to have violated. On October 31, 2003, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered final judgments in connection with the April 28, 2003, research settlements between the SEC and ten investment banking firms, including Merrill Lynch. The final settlements pertaining to MLPFS, which involve both monetary and non-monetary relief set forth in the regulators' announcements, bring to a conclusion the regulatory actions against MLPFS related to alleged conflicts of interest affecting research analysts. MLPFS entered into these settlements without admitting or denying the allegations and findings by the regulators, and the settlements do not establish wrongdoing or liability for purposes of any other proceedings.

States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court"). On September 15, 2003, (the "Consummation Date"), the Issuer and those subsidiaries ("collectively referred to as the "New Issuer") emerged from Chapter 11 proceedings pursuant to the Amended Joint Prepackaged Reorganization Plan of the Issuer and certain subsidiaries, dated September 3, 2003 (the "Plan"), which the Bankruptcy Court confirmed by an order entered on September 4, 2003.

On the Consummation Date, Old Issuer's senior debt of approximately $256 million was converted into a $120 million secured term loan and an initial 95% equity ownership position in New Issuer, and Old Issuer's $40 million secured debtor-in-possession financing facility was converted into an amended and restated $40 million secured revolving credit facility. On the Consummation Date, all of Old Issuer's common stock and warrants, options and other rights to acquire Old Issuer's common stock were cancelled, and Old Issuer's stockholders received 5% of the initial equity of New Issuer and the opportunity to acquire up to an additional 5% of equity through the exercise of new warrants. Additionally, under the terms of the Plan, all general unsecured creditors will be paid in full on their prepetition claims or otherwise have their prepetition claims reinstated.

As of the Consummation Date, 5,325,331 shares of New Issuer's common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "New Common Stock"), are deemed to be issued and outstanding in aggregate. Of this number, 4,271,419 shares initially were issued to Old Issuer's senior lenders party to the Investor Rights Agreement, including 225,588 shares that were issued to the Reporting Persons.

Item 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

Edgar Filing: CHART INDUSTRIES INC - Form SC 13D

As of the Consummation Date, New Issuer and certain significant holders of New Common Stock, including the Reporting Persons, (the "Stockholder Parties") entered into the Investor Rights Agreement pursuant to the Plan. The Investor Rights Agreement provides the Stockholder Parties the right to designate most of the members of New Issuer's Board of Directors, prohibits New Issuer from engaging in a variety of actions without the consent of certain controlling Stockholder Parties, and includes provisions obligating the Stockholder Parties to support a sale of New Issuer to a third party if the sale is approved by such controlling Stockholder Parties. The Investor Rights Agreement also provides the Stockholder Parties registration rights at New Issuer's expense, grants the Stockholder Parties limited preemptive rights and provides for certain tag-along rights with respect to, and certain restrictions on the transfer of, New Common Stock held by the Stockholder Parties.

The Reporting Persons will review from time to time various factors relevant to their beneficial ownership of the New Common Stock, including trading prices for the New Common Stock and conditions in capital markets generally, developments in New Issuer's business and financial condition, results of operations and prospects, and other factors and, based thereon, may pursue the possible sale of some or all of the Common Stock in privately negotiated transactions, market sales or otherwise, subject to its obligations under the Investor Rights Agreement.
