OIL-DRI ANNOUNCES PATENT LICENSING AGREEMENT FOR SCOOPABLE CAT LITTER
IN SETTLEMENT OF PATENT INFRINGEMENT LITIGATION

Edgar Filing: OIL DRI CORPORATION OF AMERICA - Form 8-K

CHICAGO -August 12, 2004 - Oil-Dri Corporation of America (NYSE: ODC) today announced the settlement and dismissal of previously disclosed patent infringement litigation brought by PSN Illinois LLC against Oil-Dri. Under the terms of the settlement, the plaintiff has granted Oil-Dri paid-up licenses of the two patents involved in the litigation as well as a third patent owned by the plaintiff.

Daniel Jaffee, President and CEO stated, "The claims covered by these patents, when combined with the claims covered by our previously owned/licensed patents, give Oil-Dri the right to manufacture and market a full array of scoopable cat litters. The products covered under these patents include Cat's Pride(R) scoopable litter, which is the #1 selling non-sodium bentonite scoopable litter in the United States. This brand is well positioned to target that segment of the category, which values hard clumps and easy removal (including flushability). We are pleased with the terms of the settlement."

The Company expects the one-time earnings effect of the settlement to be approximately $0.16 per share, which reflects pre-tax settlement costs of $1,250,000. All of the settlement and defense costs of the litigation will be reflected in the fourth quarter ended July 31, 2004 and will have no negative impact on future earnings.

Earnings for fiscal year 2004 and earnings estimates for fiscal year 2005 will be released on September 22, 2004.
