DIRECTV Group and News Corporation Announce Reorganization and Consolidation of Satellite TV Platforms in Latin America

EL SEGUNDO, CA, and NEW YORK, NY, October 11, 2004: The DIRECTV Group, Inc. and News Corporation today announced a series of transactions with Grupo Televisa, Globopar and Liberty Media that will result in the reorganization of the companies' direct-to-home (DTH) satellite TV platforms in Latin America. Highlights of the transactions include:

* Sky Brasil and DIRECTV Brasil will merge, and DIRECTV Brasil customers will migrate to Sky Brasil. The DIRECTV Group will acquire the interests of News Corp. and Liberty Media in Sky Brasil.

Edgar Filing: NEWS CORP LTD - Form 6-K

* DIRECTV affiliate Galaxy Mexico will close its operations and sell its subscriber list to Sky Mexico. DIRECTV customers in Mexico will be offered the opportunity to migrate to Sky Mexico. The DIRECTV Group will acquire the interest of News Corp and jointly with Televisa, the interest of Liberty Media in Sky Mexico.

* The DIRECTV Group will acquire the interests of Globo, Televisa, News Corp. and Liberty Media in Sky Multi-Country Partners, which has DTH platforms in Colombia and Chile. Sky customers in Colombia and Chile will migrate to DIRECTV.

The transactions are designed to ensure the long-term success of DIRECTV Latin America, which is 86 percent owned by The DIRECTV Group, and Sky Latin America by consolidating the two DTH platforms into a single platform in each of the major territories served in the region. In aggregate, The DIRECTV Group is paying $579 million in cash for the equity stakes in the Sky platforms.

Brazil

DIRECTV, News Corp. and Globo have entered into an agreement to merge DIRECTV Brasil and Sky Brasil, the Brazilian DTH provider that is owned by Globo, News Corp. and Liberty Media. The merger is subject to regulatory approval from the Brazilian government. Upon receipt of the necessary government approval and close of the transaction, DIRECTV customers will migrate to the Sky Brasil platform. In addition, DIRECTV will be issued shares representing 30 percent of the equity in the new merged entity. DIRECTV will acquire News Corp.'s and Liberty Media's equity stake in Sky Brasil and will own approximately 72 percent of the Company, while Globo will own the remaining 28 percent of Sky Brasil upon approval of the merger. DIRECTV will also have principal management of Sky Brasil. Globo will continue in its role as the lead supplier of Brazilian programming to the platform. As of June 30, 2004, there were approximately 423,000 DIRECTV customers in Brazil. Sky Brasil had approximately 806,000 customers.

Mexico

DIRECTV will close the operations of Galaxy Mexico, its Mexican affiliate, and Galaxy Mexico has sold its subscriber list to Sky Mexico in exchange for a note, which is subject to adjustment and is payable in approximately 18 months. This acquisition has been filed with the Mexican government. Sky Mexico will offer to DIRECTV subscribers the opportunity to move to the Sky Mexico platform. In order to ensure that DIRECTV customers in Mexico continue to receive uninterrupted service while they evaluate the Sky offer, Galaxy Mexico will maintain its service for a minimum of nine months. Shortly after the end of the nine months, Galaxy Mexico will surrender its DTH license and cease operations. Approximately six months after the completion of the migration period, DIRECTV will surrender the note for 15 percent of the equity in Sky Mexico and acquire the balance of News Corp.'s equity stake in Sky Mexico for cash. At that time, DIRECTV and Televisa will also acquire Liberty Media's interest in Sky Mexico, also for cash. Upon completion of these transactions, Televisa and DIRECTV will own approximately 57 percent and 43 percent of Sky Mexico respectively. As of June 30, 2004, there were approximately 266,000 DIRECTV subscribers in Mexico and approximately 940,000 Sky Mexico subscribers.

Other Latin America Territories

Following the acquisition by DIRECTV of News Corp.'s, Globo's, Televisa's and Liberty Media's interests in Sky Multi-Country Partners, Sky Multi-Country's businesses will merge with DIRECTV in Chile and Colombia. Upon completion of the acquisition, DIRECTV will own 100 percent of Sky Multi-Country and Sky customers in Colombia and Chile will migrate to DIRECTV, and DIRECTV will service both countries from a single DTH platform. This transaction is subject to regulatory approval in Colombia. There are approximately 89,000 Sky subscribers in Chile and Colombia. The DIRECTV Group will operate its DTH platforms in Colombia and Chile, as well as in Argentina, Venezuela, Puerto Rico, the Caribbean and the rest of Latin America, under the newly-created "PanAmericana" platform. Following the acquisition of the Sky Multi-Country business, the PanAmericana platform will have approximately 938,000 subscribers.
