(b)

On October 5, 2016, Richard Rowley notified Adobe Systems Incorporated (“Adobe”) of his decision to retire as Corporate Controller and Chief Accounting Officer of Adobe following 10 years of service. Mr. Rowley currently expects to remain in his role until January 31, 2017 following the filing of our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Under Mr. Rowley’s leadership, Adobe’s global controllership organization has been instrumental in implementing a number of business transformations, acquisitions, partnerships and systems integrations. During his tenure the organization has grown significantly, scaling key functions across Adobe’s global footprint while developing best-in-class systems and processes.

This announcement allows lead time for Adobe to conduct an internal and external search for Mr. Rowley’s replacement and for Mr. Rowley to assist with the orderly transition of duties to his successor.
