Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On 24 November 2004, our 75% owned-Paris subsidiary, Inter Parfums, S.A., is scheduled to issue a press release relating to the information set forth below.

For 2004:

- Net sales for 2004 are expected to reach 150 million Euros, an increase of more than 20% (25% at constant exchange rates) over 2003.

This achievement reflects solid performances by Burberry London, Burberry Weekend, and Burberry Touch, and the successful launches of the Burberry Brit lines. In addition, this increase in the company's guidance also reflects the rollout of the Paul Smith London line and the first contributions to group sales from Lanvin fragrances and the Nickel brand.

- Operating profit is estimated to be 22 million Euros, (up 15%) and net income is estimated to be more than 14 million Euros, (up 10%) despite the increase in royalty rates in the second half of 2004.

For 2005:

- Burberry :

To provide optimal support to the Burberry brand in light of its size and importance and to comply with the terms of the new license agreement, Inter Parfums has implemented organizational changes to take effect on January 1, 2005. These include:

A dedicated Burberry product development, marketing and distribution division;
A media-based marketing strategy;
A new commercial policy for distributors.

- 2005 Focus :

We are to continue the rollout of products launched in 2004, and have scheduled the launch of new lines for our Celine (Spring), Christian Lacroix (Summer) and Lanvin (Fall) license brands. In the coming year, we plan to explore acquisition opportunities and take the initial steps to expand our cosmetics business utilizing our portfolio of brands

- 2005 Estimates

Net sales for 2005 are expected to reach 192 million Euros, an increase of 28% over 2004. Operating profit is estimated to be 23 million Euros, and net income is estimated to be more than 14.7 million Euros, both up 5% over 2004.

- Extended Outlook

The potential of the brands in our portfolio, together with the organizational changes to be implemented, are expected to provide a basis for sustained growth in sales and earnings in the years ahead.

In addition, Inter Parfums, Inc., the parent company of Inter Parfums, S.A., is scheduled to issue its sales and earnings guidance for 2005 on Monday, 29 November 2004.

In accordance with General Instruction B.2. of Form 8-K, the information furnished pursuant to this Item 7.01 and Regulation FD in this report shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Forward Looking Information
