PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE 2002 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 11, 2002

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Zoom Technologies, Inc. ("Zoom"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Tuesday, June 11, 2002, at 10:30 a.m., local time (the "Annual Meeting"), or at any continuation or adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Annual Meeting will be held at the principal executive offices of Zoom located at 207 South Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02111. This proxy statement, the accompanying Notice of the Annual Meeting, proxy card and the annual report to stockholders are first being mailed to stockholders on or about May 3, 2002.

Record Date, Stock Ownership and Voting

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 19, 2002, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on April 19, 2002 there were outstanding and entitled to vote 7,860,866 shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"). Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock. One-third of the shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote is required to be present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting in order to constitute the quorum necessary to take action at the Annual Meeting.

The five (5) nominees for the Board of Directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon will be elected directors of Zoom.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of elections appointed for the Annual Meeting. The inspector of elections will count shares represented in person or by proxy that withhold authority to vote for a nominee for election as a director or that reflect abstentions and "broker non-votes" (i.e., shares represented at the Annual Meeting held by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote, and (ii) the broker or nominee does not have the discretionary voting power on a particular matter) as shares that are present and entitled to vote on the matters for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum; but neither proxies that withhold authority to vote for any nominee (without naming an alternative nominee), abstentions nor broker non-votes will be counted as votes cast at the Annual Meeting. As a result, such proxies will not be a factor for the election of directors at the Annual Meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

Any person giving a proxy in the form accompanying this proxy statement has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. It may be revoked by filing with the Secretary of Zoom at Zoom's principal executive office, 207 South Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02111, written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or it may be revoked by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Solicitation

All costs of this solicitation of proxies will be borne by Zoom. Zoom may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their reasonable expenses incurred in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram, or personal solicitations by directors, officers, or employees of Zoom. No additional compensation will be paid for any such services.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

A board of five directors is to be elected at the Annual Meeting. The persons named in the following table are nominated by management for election as directors of Zoom. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them for the nominees named below. All nominees are currently directors of Zoom. In the event that any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Meeting, the proxies will be voted for the nominee, if any, who shall be designated by the present Board of Directors to fill the vacancy. It is not expected that any nominee will be unable or will decline to serve as a director. The proposed nominees are not being nominated pursuant to any arrangement or understanding with any person. Each director elected will hold office until the next Annual Meeting or until his successor is duly elected or appointed and qualified, unless his office is earlier vacated in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation of Zoom or he becomes disqualified to act as a director. The five (5) nominees who receive the greatest number of votes cast by stockholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the Meeting, will be elected directors of Zoom.

Committees and Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee and a Stock Option Committee. The Board of Directors does not have a nominating or compensation committee.

The Stock Option Committee consists of Messrs. Furman and Woods. The primary functions of the Stock Option Committee are to administer and award options under Zoom's stock option plans.

The members of and a description of the functions of the Audit Committee are described in the "Audit Committee Report" set forth below.

During the year ending December 31, 2001, the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee each held six (6) meetings and the Stock Option Committee acted by unanimous written consent two (2) times. In addition, management consulted with members of the Board of Directors throughout the year on an informal basis. Each Director attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board and the committees on which he served.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

During fiscal 2001, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors consisted of three of Zoom's directors: Messrs. Furman, Gordon and Woods. All members of Zoom's Audit Committee are "independent" as such term is defined under the listing standards of the Nasdaq National Market. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter (the "Audit Committee Charter") which was approved and adopted by the Board of Directors on May 23, 2000. Under the provisions of the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee's primary functions are to, among other things: recommend the engagement and oversee the performance of Zoom's independent auditors; review Zoom's financial disclosure documents; monitor Zoom's financial reporting process and internal control systems; monitor potential conflicts of interest among Zoom and its executive officers and directors; and provide a liaison between the independent auditors and the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management Zoom's audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001. The Audit Committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP, Zoom's independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by the Auditing Standards Board Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended. As required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as amended, "Independence Discussion with Audit Committees," the Audit Committee has received and reviewed the required written disclosures and a confirming letter from KPMG LLP regarding their independence, and has discussed the matter with the auditors.

Based on its review and discussions of the foregoing, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that Zoom's audited consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2001 be included in Zoom's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001.

----- Directors' Compensation

Each non-employee director of Zoom receives a fee of $500 per quarter plus a fee of $500 for each meeting at which the director is personally present. Travel and lodging expenses are also reimbursed.

Each non-employee director of Zoom is also granted stock options under Zoom's 1991 Directors Stock Option Plan, as amended (the "Directors Plan"). Currently, the non-employee directors of Zoom are Bernard Furman, L. Lamont Gordon and J. Ronald Woods.

The Directors Plan provides in the aggregate that 198,000 shares of Common Stock (subject to adjustment for capital changes) may be issued upon the exercise of options granted under the Directors' Plan. Under the Directors Plan, each non-employee director automatically receives an option to purchase 6,000 shares of Common Stock on January 10 and July 10 of each year. The exercise price for the options granted under the Directors Plan is the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date the option is granted.

During fiscal 2001, Messrs. Furman, Woods and Gordon each received options to purchase 12,000 shares of Common Stock under the Directors Plan at an average exercise price of $3.26 per share.

In addition, from time to time, the Board of Directors has authorized Mr. Manning to award a limited number of options under the 1998 Plan throughout the fiscal year.

Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

Decisions regarding executive compensation, exclusive of the administration of the 1990 Plan, are made by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has no Compensation Committee. The Stock Option Committee, consisting of Messrs. Furman and Woods, is responsible for administering the 1990 Plan, including determining the individuals to whom stock options are awarded, certain of the terms upon which option grants are made, and the number of shares subject to each option granted under the 1990 Plan. No member of the Stock Option Committee is a former or current officer or employee of Zoom. Mr. Manning and Mr. Kramer, who are executive officers and directors of Zoom, made recommendations to the Stock Option Committee regarding the granting of stock options and participated in deliberations of the Board of Directors concerning executive officer compensation. Neither Mr. Manning nor Mr. Kramer participated in any vote establishing their compensation.

Board of Directors Report on Executive Compensation

The primary objectives of the Board of Directors in developing executive compensation policies are to enhance the profitability of Zoom by closely aligning the financial interests of Zoom's executive officers with those of its stockholders and to attract and retain key executives important to the long-term success of Zoom. To effect these objectives, the Board of Directors pays Zoom's executive officers what the Board believes to be relatively low cash compensation while providing those officers with significant performance-based long-term incentive compensation and the opportunity to build a substantial ownership interest in Zoom through the granting of stock options.

Frank B. Manning, Zoom's Chief Executive Officer, received cash compensation for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001, in the amount of $137,685. The Board of Directors has not conducted any surveys of salaries of executive officers, but based upon its experience believes that the cash compensation of its executive officers, including the compensation received by Mr. Manning, is low compared to the cash compensation of comparable executive officers in similarly situated companies. The low level of compensation of Mr. Manning reflects Mr. Manning's request to limit his cash compensation in favor of stock options. If not for this request, the Board of Directors would have set Mr. Manning's cash compensation at a higher level to better reflect his importance and contributions to Zoom.

Edgar Filing: ZOOM TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

During fiscal 2001 Mr. Manning was granted 200,000 options to purchase shares of Common Stock at a weighted average exercise price of $2.77 per share. Other executive officers as a group were granted an aggregate of 431,000 options to purchase shares of Common Stock at a weighted average exercise price of $2.765 per share. In determining the number of options to be granted to the executive officers, the Stock Option Committee reviews recommendations provided by Mr. Manning, the Chief Executive Officer, and makes a subjective determination regarding that recommendation based upon the following criteria: (i) the level of cash compensation; (ii) the compensation paid by companies that might compete with Zoom for the employee's services; (iii) the individual performance of the executive officer; and (iv) the number of shares subject to options already held by each executive officer. No particular weight is given to any of these factors, rather each executive officer's total compensation package is reviewed as a whole, and recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer are given deference absent countervailing concerns.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

During 2001, Zoom entered into an agreement to purchase the ground lease for a manufacturing facility located on Dry Dock Avenue in Boston, Massachusetts (the "Dry Dock Building"). In connection with the proposed purchase of the Dry Dock Building, Zoom paid $500,000 to be held in escrow as a deposit pending the closing of the transaction. Of this deposit, $25,000 was nonrefundable. Subsequently, negotiations stalled and the property-owner of the Dry Dock Building retained the deposit pending resolution of some disputed facts concerning the purchase. While Zoom believed that it was entitled to a return of the $488,500 refundable portion of the deposit plus interest, the property-owner objected, and the funds were retained in escrow pending resolution of the dispute.

As an alternative to pursuing legal remedies to obtain a return of the deposit, Zoom pursued an arrangement to acquire the Dry Dock Building with the following individuals: Frank B. Manning, President and a director of Zoom; Peter R. Kramer, Executive Vice President and a director of Zoom; Bruce M. Kramer, Peter Kramer's brother; and a third party. Under this arrangement, these individuals, either directly or through entities controlled by them, joined together with Zoom as of March 29, 2002 to form the Zoom Group LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Zoom Group") to purchase the Dry Dock Building. Zoom and each of the investors owns a 20% interest in the Zoom Group. The managers of the Zoom Group are Peter Kramer and the third party. There are no special allocations among the members of the Zoom Group, and each member is required to contribute his or its proportionate amount of capital in return for its 20% interest.

Effective as of March 29, 2002, Zoom also entered into a Reinstatement Agreement, Assignment Agreement and Second Amendment to Agreement of Purchase and Sale with the Zoom Group and the owner of the Dry Dock ground lease. Under this Reinstatement Agreement, the original purchase agreement for the Dry Dock Building was amended and reinstated, and Zoom assigned its rights under the purchase agreement to the Zoom Group, together with rights to the $488,500 refundable portion of the deposit plus interest. In connection with this transaction, under a separate letter agreement, the other members of the Zoom Group paid Zoom $390,800 ($97,700 each), representing their proportionate share of the deposit assigned to the Zoom Group. As a result, Zoom's remaining interest in the deposit is $97,700. As part of the reinstatement of the purchase agreement, the members of the Zoom Group agreed that an additional $25,000 of the $488,500 deposit would be nonrefundable, of which $5,000 has been allocated to each investor.

Under the Reinstatement Agreement, the Zoom Group agreed to purchase the Dry Dock Building, subject to financing and other contingencies, for a purchase price of $6.1 million, subject to adjustment. Under this arrangement, the Zoom Group is required to seek nonrecourse financing that meets specified criteria in the amount of between $3.8 and $4.0 million, depending upon whether there are purchase price adjustments. If the closing takes place, each member of the Zoom Group has initially agreed to contribute up to $540,000 to fund the cash portion of the purchase price plus initial working capital. These initial capital contributions include each member's share of the deposit. If the purchase does not close and the nonrefundable portion of the deposit is returned, each member will receive $92,700 plus interest. If the purchase does not close and the seller is permitted to retain the deposit, each member will lose the entire amount of its $97,700 deposit and Zoom will have no obligation to reimburse the other members for any of the $390,800 paid to Zoom to cover their share of the total deposit.

Under the Zoom Group Operating Agreement, following the closing of the purchase of the Dry Dock Building, Zoom will have both the right to sell its interest in the Zoom Group to the other members of the Zoom Group, and the right to purchase the other members' entire interests in the Zoom Group. Zoom's right of sale expires on January 5, 2003. Should Zoom exercise its sale right, Zoom would be entitled to recover the full amount of the $97,700 remaining deposit with the property-owner and any additional investment it makes in the Zoom Group. For example, if the Zoom Group contributed $540,000, including its deposit, toward the purchase of the Dry Dock Building and initial working capital, Zoom would have the right to sell its interest to the other Zoom members for that amount. If Zoom exercises this right, the other members will be jointly and severally liable to pay this amount within ninety (90) days. Zoom's right to purchase the interests of the other members of the Zoom Group expires on December 31, 2005. Under Zoom's right to purchase, Zoom has the option to purchase all the interests of the other members of the Zoom Group for a purchase price determined in accordance with a prearranged formula based upon the initial purchase price of the Dry Dock Building plus 20% a year. There is no obligation of Zoom to exercise either its purchase or sale right, including any right of any member of the Zoom Group to require Zoom to do so. Any decision by Zoom of whether or not to exercise any of these rights will be made by the independent directors of Zoom.

The transactions described above between Zoom, the Zoom Group and members of the Zoom Group were reviewed and approved by a special committee of independent members of the Board of Directors of Zoom, who determined the transactions to be advisable and in the best interest of the Zoom.

OTHER MATTERS

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act

Pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Zoom directors and executive officers, as well as any person holding more than ten percent (10%) of Zoom's Common Stock, are required to report initial statements of ownership of Zoom's securities and any subsequent changes in such ownership to the Securities and Exchange Commission. To Zoom's knowledge, all of the required reports were filed by such persons during fiscal 2001.

Independent Public Accountants

Based upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors appointed KPMG LLP, independent public accountants, to audit the consolidated financial statements of Zoom for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. A representative of KPMG LLP will be present at the meeting to make a statement if such representative desires to do so and to respond to appropriate questions.

Independent Auditor Fees

Audit Fees. KPMG LLP billed Zoom an aggregate of $105,000 for professional services rendered by KPMG in connection with its audit of Zoom's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001 and its review of Zoom's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q during fiscal 2001.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation. KPMG did not render any services to Zoom for financial information systems design and implementation during fiscal 2001.

All Other Fees. KPMG billed Zoom an additional $76,800 for professional services rendered during fiscal 2001 for services not otherwise described above. These fees include fees for tax-related services, including tax advice and research and the assistance with the preparation and filing of tax returns and the domestication of Zoom from Canada to the State of Delaware, and advice relating to Zoom's investment in the Dry Dock property.

The Audit Committee has considered whether KPMG's provision of services other than services rendered in connection with the audit of Zoom's annual financial statements is compatible with maintaining KPMG's independence.

Deadline for Receipt of Stockholder Proposals; Discretionary Authority of Proxies

Stockholder proposals for inclusion in Zoom's proxy materials for Zoom's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by Zoom no later than January 3, 2003. If a stockholder who wishes to present such a proposal fails to notify Zoom by this date, the proxies that management solicits for the meeting will have discretionary authority to vote on the stockholder's proposal if it is properly brought before the meeting. If a stockholder makes a timely notification, the proxies may still exercise discretionary voting authority under circumstances consistent with the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.
