ITEM 3.03 MATERIAL MODIFICATION TO RIGHTS OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

On April 1, 2011, NexCore Healthcare Capital Corp f/k/a CapTerra Financial Group, Inc. (the Company) changed its state of incorporation from Colorado to Delaware (the Reincorporation) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 31, 2011 (the Plan of Merger). The Reincorporation was accomplished by the filing of (i) a statement of merger (the Colorado Statement of Merger) with the Colorado Secretary of State, and (ii) a certificate of merger (the Delaware Certificate of Merger) and a certificate of incorporation (the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation) with the Delaware Secretary of State. Pursuant to the Plan of Merger, the Company's board of directors also adopted new bylaws in the form attached as Exhibit 3.2 hereto (the Delaware Bylaws).

The Reincorporation was previously submitted to a vote of, and approved by, the Company's stockholders by written consent in lieu of a meeting. Upon the effectiveness of the Reincorporation:

- the name of the corporation changed from CapTerra Financial Group, Inc. to NexCore Healthcare Capital Corp;
- the affairs of the Company ceased to be governed by Colorado law, the Company's previous Articles of Incorporation and the Company's previous Bylaws, and the affairs of the Company became subject to Delaware law, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws;
- the resulting Delaware corporation (i) is deemed to be the same entity as the Colorado corporation for all purposes

under the laws of Delaware, (ii) continues to have all of the rights, privileges and powers of the Colorado corporation, (iii) continues to possess all properties of the Colorado corporation, and (iv) continues to have all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Colorado corporation;

- each outstanding share of the Colorado corporation's common stock was automatically converted into one outstanding share of the Delaware corporation's common stock, and each outstanding option, warrant or other right to acquire shares of the Colorado corporation's common stock was automatically converted into one outstanding option, warrant or other right to acquire shares of the Delaware corporation's common stock;
 - each employee benefit plan, incentive compensation plan or other similar plan of the Colorado corporation continues to be an employee benefit plan, incentive compensation plan or other similar plan of the Delaware corporation; and
 - each director and officer of the Colorado corporation continues to hold his respective offices with the Delaware corporation.

The Reincorporation effected a change in the legal domicile of the Company and other changes of a legal nature, the most significant of which are described in our Information Statement filed with the SEC on Schedule 14C on March 7, 2011 (the "Information Statement"), under the section entitled "Comparison of Shareholder Rights Before and After the Reincorporation." Please see the Information Statement for further information.

The Reincorporation is not expected to affect any of the Company's contracts with any third parties, and the Company's rights and obligations under such contractual arrangements will continue as rights and obligations of the Company after the Reincorporation. The Reincorporation itself will not result in any change in headquarters, business, jobs, management, location of any of the Company's offices or facilities, number of employees, assets, liabilities or net worth (other than as a result of the costs incident to the Reincorporation) of the Company.

The foregoing description of the Plan of Merger, the Colorado Statement of Merger, the Delaware Certificate of Merger, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Plan of Merger, the Colorado Statement of Merger, the Delaware Certificate of Merger, the Delaware Certificate of Incorporation and the Delaware Bylaws.
