PART I

ITEM 1: BUSINESS - GENERAL

MC Shipping Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated on March 17, 1989, in the Republic of Liberia.

Since its founding, the Company has been engaged in the business of investing in, owning and operating second hand vessels. As of December 31, 2002, the Company's fleet included seven liquid petroleum gas ("LPG") carriers, eight containerships and two multipurpose seariver vessels. Each of the Company's vessels is owned by a separate wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

An LPG carrier is designed to carry petroleum gases used primarily as low pollution fuels and as feedstock in the petrochemical and fertiliser industries. A containership is a vessel designed exclusively to carry containers. A multipurpose seariver vessel is a small vessel capable of carrying general cargo and/or bulk cargo both on rivers and at sea.

The Company generally employs its vessels on time charter, bareboat charter or spot charter. With time charters, the Company receives a fixed charterhire per on hire day and is responsible for meeting all the operating expenses of the vessels, such as crew costs, voyage expenses, insurance, repairs and maintenance. In the case of bareboat charters, the Company receives a fixed charterhire per day for the vessel and the charterer is responsible for all the costs associated with the vessel's operation during the bareboat charter period. In the case of voyage charters, the vessel is contracted only for a voyage between two ports: the Company is paid for the tonnage transported and pays all voyage costs.

The level of the Company's revenues and expenses will vary from year to year depending on, amongst other things, the number of vessels controlled by the Company during each year.

SHIPPING INDUSTRY BACKGROUND

The shipping industry is subject to cyclical fluctuations in charter rates and vessel values based on changes in supply and demand. The industry has been experiencing volatility in profitability, vessel values and charter rates resulting from changes in the supply of, and demand for, shipping capacity. The demand for ships is influenced by, among other factors, global and regional economic conditions, developments in international trade, changes in seaborne and other transportation patterns, weather patterns, crop yields, armed conflicts, port congestion, canal closures, political developments, conflicts, embargoes and strikes. The demand for ships is also influenced by, among other things, the demand for consumer goods and perishable foodstuffs, dry bulk commodities, crude oil and oil products. Demand for such products is affected by, among other things, general economic conditions, commodity prices, environmental concerns, weather and competition from alternative fuels. The supply of shipping capacity is a function of the delivery of new vessels and the number of older vessels scrapped, converted to other uses, reactivated or lost. Such supply may be affected by regulation of maritime transportation practices by governmental and international authorities. All of these factors which affect the supply of and demand for vessel capacity are beyond the control of the Company. In addition, the nature, timing and degree of changes in the shipping markets in which the Company operates, as well as future charter rates and values of its vessels, are not readily predictable.

In 2002, general shipping market conditions were affected by the slowdown in the world economy and by the political and economic uncertainties created by the dramatic events of September 11, 2001.

In the second half of 2002, the containership charter market recovered somewhat from the very depressed level of the preceding winter. In 2003, management believes that the combination of large numbers of newly built vessels being delivered and a continuing sluggish world economy will continue to negatively affect charter rates. The Company is, to a certain extent, sheltered from market fluctuations as its container vessels are chartered at a fixed rate until September 2003 and October 2004.

In 2002, the LPG market remained depressed in the small-pressurised ship sector, which comprises all of the Company's vessels, except for the LPG carrier Laforge. The fall season of 2002 failed to show renewed strength in charter rates, as had been expected in this traditionally high demand seasonal period. Management expects that continued deliveries of newly built vessels will continue to negatively affect charter rates throughout 2003. The Laforge is chartered at a fixed rate until November 2005.

Certain of the information contained in this Form 10-K may constitute "forward-looking statements" as that term is defined under United States federal securities laws. "Forward-looking statements" are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors which could cause actual events to differ materially from those stated in such statements, including the identification of suitable vessels for purchase, the availability of additional financing for the Company, if needed, the cyclical nature of the shipping industry, competition, general economic conditions and other risk factors detailed elsewhere herein and in the Company's other filings with the SEC.

OPERATIONS

Shipowning activities entail three separate functions: (i) the overall strategic management function, which is that of an investment manager and includes the selection, purchase, financing and sale of vessels and overall supervision of both chartering and vessel technical management; (ii) the technical management function, which encompasses the day to day operation, physical maintenance and crewing of the vessels; and (iii) the commercial management function, which involves obtaining employment for the vessels and managing relations with the charterer.

Management exercises direct control over the Company's overall strategic management function. The technical management function is sub-contracted to V.Ships Inc. or its affiliates ("V.Ships") or to independent technical managers. Independent managers have been engaged to handle the Company's two multipurpose seariver vessels because of the specialised nature of the trade. Management exercises regular controls over the technical managers of the vessels to ensure that they are properly maintained. Management exercises direct control of the commercial management function but may, on a case-by-case basis, engage the services of V.Ships or independent brokers in order to obtain employment for the Company's vessels and to manage its relations with its charterers.

The Company, via its wholly owned subsidiaries, enters into Management Agreements with V.Ships and/or independent technical managers for the technical operation of the Company's fleet. The Agreements are "cost-plus" contracts under which the Company reimburses all costs incurred by V.Ships and/or independent technical managers for the operation of the Company's vessels and V.Ships and/or independent technical managers are paid a fixed management fee. For the rates of fees to V.Ships, see "COMPENSATION TO AFFILIATES". In addition, if the Company deems it necessary to employ the services of V.Ships and/or independent technical managers in the chartering or commercial operation of any of the Company's vessels, V.Ships or independent technical managers are entitled to a commercial chartering commission determined in the light of current industry practice. For the rates of fees payable to V.Ships, see "COMPENSATION TO AFFILIATES".

The Company had 23 charters covering the year 2002, 11 of which were commenced in 2002 and three charterers provided revenues exceeding 10% of the Company's total revenues. The Company's multipurpose seariver vessels and some of the Company's LPG carriers were engaged on voyage charters in 2002 and are excluded from these statistics.

COMPENSATION TO AFFILIATES

The Company, via its wholly owned subsidiaries, has entered into Management Agreements (the "Agreements") with V.Ships, an affiliated company, for the technical operation of all the Company's fleet, excluding the seariver vessels which are managed by an independent vessel manager because of the specialised nature of the trade and excluding the vessels which are on bareboat charter which are managed by the charterer. The Agreements are "cost-plus" contracts under which the Company reimburses all costs incurred by V. Ships for the operation of the Company's vessels and V.Ships is paid a fixed management fee. For 2002, the management fees were fixed at the rate of $8,350 per vessel/per month for the container ships and the LPG carrier Laforge and at the rate of $8,250 per vessel/per month for the LPG carriers managed by V.Ships (in 2001, management fees were respectively $8,100 and $8,000). In 2002, $1,233,510 was paid by the Company to V.Ships for services provided to the Company pursuant to the Management Agreements (2001 - $1,516,059 ; 2000 - $1,879,978).

If the Company deems it necessary to employ the services of V.Ships in the chartering or commercial operation of any of the Company's vessels, V.Ships is entitled to a commercial chartering commission determined in the light of current industry practice. This commission can vary between 0.5% and 1.25% of such vessels' gross charter revenue and demurrage. In 2002, commercial chartering commissions totalling approximately $81,714 have been paid by the Company to V.Ships (2001 - $300,573 ; 2000 - $459,959).

If the Company deems it necessary to employ the services of V.Ships in the acquisition or disposition of vessels, the Company will pay commissions and legal fees determined in light of current industry practice. In 2002, the Company paid a total of approximately $35,493 in commissions and legal fees to affiliates of V.Ships in connection with the acquisition and disposals of vessels (2001 - $84,716 ; 2000 - $41,828).

The Company leases office space from and reimburses telecommunication expenses to various affiliates of V.Ships. In 2002, the rental cost and telecommunication expenses paid to affiliates of V. Ships were approximately $88,365 (2001 - $154,328 ; 2000 - $184,978).

In 2001, the Company decided to outsource its bookkeeping functions to V.Ships (Cyprus) Limited. In 2002, the Company paid a total of approximately $32,375 for such accounting services (2001 - $34,626).

In addition, on a case by case basis, as technical manager of the Company's fleet, V.Ships uses on behalf of the Company the services of other V.Ships affiliates for insurance, crew and staff travelling, port agency services, manning, safety and training services, and miscellaneous services described below.

The Company places part of its vessels hull and machinery insurance, increased value insurance and war risk insurance through a captive insurance company, affiliated with V. Ships. In 2002, the Company was charged with insurance premiums of approximately $993,595 which were included in vessel operating expenses (2001 - $1,050,288 ; 2000 - $1,060,912).

The Company uses, for crew and staff travelling, the services of a company affiliated with V.Ships. In 2002, such travelling expenses amounted to approximately $144,577 and were included in vessel operating expenses or in general and administrative expenses (2001 - $166,310 ; 2000 - $294,007).

The Company uses from time to time the port agency services of various companies affiliated with V.Ships. In 2002, the Company paid approximately $344,018 for these services, which were included in the vessels operating expenses (2001 - $503,420 ; 2000 - $463,350).

The Company uses for manning, safety and training, various companies affiliated with V.Ships. In 2002, such expenses amounted to approximately $563,954 and were included in vessel operating expenses (2001 - $917,880 ; 2000 - $1,361,969).

At December 31, 2002, the Company had intercompany balances of trade accounts receivables of $80,518 due from affiliates ($159,286 in 2001).

INSURANCE AND CLASSIFICATION

The business of the Company is affected by the risks of mechanical failure of the Company's vessels, collisions, property losses to the vessels, cargo loss or damage, and business interruption due to political action in foreign countries and labour strikes. In addition, the operation of any ocean-going vessel entails an inherent risk of catastrophic marine disaster. The Company maintains Hull and Machinery Insurance, War Risk Insurance, Protection and Indemnity Insurance, Freight Demurrage and Defence Insurance and Loss of Earnings Insurance on its vessels consistent with industry practice. The Company maintains total or constructive total loss coverage for each of its vessels. The insurance underwriters may require that additional premiums be paid for Hull and Machinery and War Risk Insurance prior to any vessels entering certain geographical areas subject to unstable political or military conditions. Although the Company has had no difficulty in obtaining such insurance for its vessels, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to continue to procure sufficient amounts of insurance to cover the repair and replacement cost of any vessel which is damaged or destroyed, loss of earnings on a vessel or the Company's liability in the event of a catastrophic marine or ecological disaster.

The Company's insurers require that the Company's vessels meet certain requirements set by maritime classification societies as a condition to obtaining insurance. The classification societies determine that the vessels are safe and seaworthy in accordance with the International Maritime Organisation and the Safety of Life at Sea Convention. All LPG carriers, containerships and multipurpose carriers are inspected by a surveyor of the classification society every year ("Annual Survey"), every two and one half years ("Intermediate Survey"), and every five years ("Special Survey"). The Company has purchased and intends to purchase only vessels, which are able to comply with such classification society requirements. It is expected that, under classification society rules, the Company's vessels will be required to undergo dry-docking at least once every three years. Normal dry-docking takes one to two weeks. The Company estimates that current dry-docking costs in the geographical areas where the Company anticipates having such work performed will vary between approximately $250,000 and $850,000 per vessel, depending upon the size and complexity of the vessel concerned. This estimate is based on a dry-docking cycle of two and one half to three years between each visit to a dry-dock facility and assumes regular but no extraordinary expenses for maintenance and repairs. In addition to dry-docking, the Company is required to purchase spare parts and perform repairs on its vessels from time to time. In the case of bareboat charter arrangements, the bareboat charterer undertakes, at its expense, to ensure that the vessel is regularly dry-docked and is properly maintained.

REGULATION

The Company's business is materially affected by government regulation in the form of international conventions, national, state or local laws and regulations, and laws and regulations of the flag nations of its vessels, including laws relating to the discharge of materials into the environment. Because such conventions, laws and regulations are often revised, the Company is unable to predict the ultimate costs of complying with such conventions, laws and regulations. Under certain regulations, a vessel owner may be liable for property and environmental damages and all of its assets could be subject to claim for such damages. Moreover, in certain jurisdictions, under the "sister ship" doctrine, all of the affiliates in a fleet of ships may be liable for damages caused by, or debts incurred with respect to, a ship owned by one affiliate, and the ships and other assets of all the affiliates may be subject to attachments.

In addition, the Company is required by various governmental and quasi-governmental agencies to obtain certain permits, licenses and certificates with respect to its operations. The Company believes that it will readily be able to obtain all such permits, licenses and certificates as may be required.

Some countries have laws or practices which restrict the carriage of cargoes depending upon the nationality of a vessel or its crew or the origin or destination of the vessel, as well as other considerations relating to particular national interests. The Company cannot predict the effect that such laws or practices may have on its ability to obtain cargoes. It is expected that the Company's vessels, all of which are non-United States flag vessels, will be permitted to enter the territorial waters of the United States, but will not be permitted, under the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (the Jones Act), to transport cargoes between United States ports. Such restriction is not expected to have a material adverse impact on the Company's operations. None of the Company's vessels made calls to United States ports in 2002.

COMPETITION

Competition in the operation of containerships and LPG carriers is intense. Typically, each of the numerous owners of such vessels owns a relatively small number of vessels. However, a few large and experienced operators, with greater financial resources than those of the Company, dominate the LPG and containership sectors, particularly in the larger ship segments, and there is no assurance that the Company will be able to compete successfully with other shipping firms.

As shipping rates are not materially different among competitors, competition is based primarily upon the reputation of the vessel and its operators and the operator's relationship with charterers.

It is the opinion of Management that the most effective technique in dealing with competitive pressures is to maintain its vessels to a very high standard and to develop strong long-term relationships with charterers of high standing. Management believes that its reputation and extensive experience contributes to the Company's ability to compete effectively.

EMPLOYEES

In 2002, the Company employed five persons on a full-time basis, three of whom are officers of the Company.

The Company, through its vessel-owning subsidiaries, hires officers and crews for each of the Company's vessels. Seamen from India, Latvia, Russia, the Ukraine and the United Kingdom currently man the Company's vessels and a total of approximately two hundred and fifty seamen currently serve on the Company's vessels. These seamen are generally unionised and the Company believes its relationships with the seamen who serve on board its vessels are good.

ITEM 7: MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the selected consolidated financial data set forth above and the Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Report.

OVERVIEW

Revenues and Expenses

Since its founding, the Company has been engaged in the business of investing in, owning and operating second hand vessels. As of December 31, 2002, the Company's fleet included seven liquid petroleum gas ("LPG") carriers, eight containerships and two multipurpose seariver vessels. Each of the Company's vessels is owned by a separate wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Company generally employs its vessels on time charter, bareboat charter or spot charter. With time charters, the Company receives a fixed charterhire per on hire day and is responsible for meeting all the operating expenses of the vessels, such as crew costs, voyage expenses, insurance, repairs and maintenance. In the case of bareboat charters, the Company receives a fixed charterhire per day for the vessel and the charterer is responsible for all the costs associated with the vessel's operation during the bareboat charter period. In the case of voyage charters, the vessel is contracted only for a voyage between two ports: the Company is paid for the cargo transported and pays all voyage costs.

In all chartering arrangements, both shipowner and charterer will generally employ the services of one or more brokers, who are paid a commission on the total value of the daily charterhire or a lump sum payable under the charterparty or contract.

The level of the Company's revenues and expenses will vary from year to year depending on, inter alia, the number of vessels controlled by the Company during each year.

Cyclicality of Shipping Industry; Fluctuating Charter Rates and Vessel Values.

The shipping industry has been highly cyclical, experiencing volatility in profitability, vessel values and charter rates resulting from changes in the supply of, and demand for, shipping capacity. The demand for ships is influenced by, among other factors, global and regional economic conditions, developments in international trade, changes in seaborne and other transportation patterns, weather patterns, crop yields, armed conflicts, port congestion, canal closures, political developments, conflicts, embargoes and strikes. The demand for ships is also influenced by, among other things, the demand for consumer goods and perishable foodstuffs, dry bulk commodities, crude oil and oil products. Demand for such products is affected by, among other things, general economic conditions, commodity prices, environmental concerns, weather and competition from alternatives to coal and oil. The supply of shipping capacity is a function of the delivery of new vessels and the number of older vessels scrapped, converted to other uses, reactivated or lost. Such supply may be affected by regulation of maritime transportation practices by governmental and international authorities. All of these factors which affect the supply of and demand for vessel capacity are beyond the control of the Company. In addition, the nature, timing and degree of change in the shipping markets in which the Company operates, as well as future charter rates and values of its vessels, are not readily predictable.

Accumulated Deficit.

As of December 31, 2002, the Company's accumulated deficit was $24,996,251. This amount consisted of total accumulated losses (net of accumulated profits) of $16,300,407 since the Company's inception and dividends declared of $8,695,844 over the same period. An additional $5,477,561 of dividends were paid and accounted for as a reduction of paid in capital over the same period. The majority of such dividends were paid prior to 1994 when the Company was a self liquidating fund with a dividend policy based on cash flow generation.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002 AND DECEMBER 31, 2001

Significant Events During 2002

In April 2002, the Company purchased four second-hand container vessels from a non-affiliated third party, each with a two-and-a-half year bareboat charter back. The total purchase price was $25,000,000.

In August and September 2002, the Company sold two LPG carriers to a non-affiliated party for cash. The total sale price was $6,800,000.

Revenue

The Company had gross revenue from charterhire and other sources of $41,858,999 for the year ended December 31, 2002, a 6.6% decrease from gross revenue of $44,823,301 in 2001. The revenue decrease resulted from the following factors: (1) the reduced size of the Company's fleet, (2) a general reduction in time charter rates and (3) the fact that the vessels acquired in 2002 were placed on bareboat charter.

Vessels on time charter

The average rate per day on hire (computed as total revenues divided by total number of days on hire for the vessels on time charter) was $7,633 in 2002 ($9,089 in 2001). The reduction reflects a general decrease in time charter rates arising from poor market conditions in the LPG sector.

In 2002, the Company's on hire performance of the vessels on time charter was 97.6% on a potential 4,517 days (91.8% on a potential 5,180 days in 2001). The increase in on-hire performance was mainly due to the sale in 2001 of less efficient vessels.

In 2002, the vessels on time charter experienced off hire time for the following reasons: (i) 1.11% of the total available days were lost due to technical reasons ("operating off hire"); (ii) 0.43% of the total available days were lost due to dry-docking and planned repair time; (iii) 0.19% of the total available days were lost waiting for employment; and (iv) 0.67% of the total available days represented time spent in positioning for subsequent employment.

Vessels on bareboat charter

The average rate per day on hire for the vessels on bareboat charter was $6,000 per day in 2002 (2001: Nil). Bareboat charter rates are generally lower than time charter rates since the vessel operating expenses are paid by the charterer (See Item 1 Business General). The on-hire performance was 100%.

Costs and Expenses

Commission on charterhire was $1,100,422 in 2002, a 10% decrease from the $1,223,268 incurred during 2001. This decrease is a direct result of decreased revenues.

Vessel operating expenses plus amortisation of dry-docking costs totalled $20,122,621 for the year ended December 31, 2002, representing a decrease of 13% from 2001 vessel operating expenses plus amortisation of dry-docking which amounted to $23,217,653. Vessel operating expenses comprise vessel running costs, direct costs (such as fuel costs, port charges and canal dues incurred directly while vessels are unemployed or are employed on voyage charters) and management fees. As a percentage of revenue, vessel operating expenses plus amortisation of dry-docking costs were equal to 48.1% in 2002 compared to 52.0% in 2001. The decrease in vessel operating expenses as a percentage of revenues in 2002 is due to the fact that the vessels operated on a bareboat basis do not have any operating expenses (see Item 7. Overview). Daily operating expenses per vessel averaged $4,017 in 2002 compared to $4,012 in 2001.

Depreciation was $9,127,713 for the year ended December 31, 2002, compared to $10,761,040 in 2001. The decrease resulted from the reduced fleet size.

General and administrative expenses were $1,382,587 for the year ended December 31, 2002, compared to $1,652,622 in 2001. This represented 3.3% of revenue in 2002 as compared to 3.7% of revenue in 2001. The decrease is due to a reduced bonus distributed to management in 2002 (see Item 11. Executive compensation).

Other Income and Expenses

Interest expense amounted to $6,418,537 for the year ended December 31, 2002 as compared to $7,953,745 in 2001, and represented 15.3% of revenue as compared with 17.7% in 2001. The decrease in interest expense resulted from several factors: (1) a large reduction in interest expense on the Notes due to the repurchases, (2) in 2001, the cancellation of a swap agreement at a cost of $417,000 and (3) a lower level of interest rates in 2002 which was beneficial with respect to the Company's existing credit facility with Fortis Bank and Banque Nationale de Paris "BNP" which loan rate is based on Libor.

Interest income totalled $127,559 in 2002, a decrease from interest income of $373,589 in 2001. The decrease in interest earnings was due to the reduction in the general level of interest rates and lower cash balances.

In 2002, the Company repurchased Notes having a total face value of $180,000 and recorded a gain of $94,598 on the transaction. In 2001, the Company repurchased Notes having a total face value of $33,840,000 and recorded a gain of $11,388,757 on the transactions. The repurchased Notes have been retired.

Impairment Loss

In December 2001, the Board approved the sale of four vessels. The vessels were written down to the lower of book value or fair market value less costs to sell. The provision for estimated impairment loss recorded in 2001 was $10,137,008.

Two vessels were sold in 2002, the other two vessels were reclassified from "held for sale" to "held and used" at the end of 2002. They are carried at the carrying amount, before they were classified as held for sale, adjusted for any depreciation expense that would have been recognised had the vessels been continuously classified as held and used, which amount was lower than fair value at year end.

In January 2003, the Company received appraisals for its fleet (including vessels earmarked for sale) from leading independent shipbrokers. The appraised value of the Company's fleet was approximately $80.5 million. This indicated that the aggregate market value of the vessels was below the carrying values by approximately $10.8 million. The aggregate market value of the gas carriers were $15.9 million below the carrying values, while the aggregate market value of the container carriers were approximately $4.9 million above the carrying values. The Company's estimates of undiscounted cash flows indicated at that time that such carrying values were expected to be recovered. Evaluating recoverability requires Management to make estimates and assumptions regarding future cash flows. Actual results could differ from those estimates, which could have a material effect on the recoverability of vessels.

Management regularly obtains valuations of its vessels and will continue to monitor such valuations in order to determine if any permanent impairment in asset values occurs, and whether any write downs in asset values are necessary.

Net Income

The net income for the year ended December 31, 2002 was $2,241,906, as compared to a net income of $2,853,217 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Impact of Inflation

Management believes that inflation did not have a material impact upon the Company's business during the year ended December 31, 2002.

Subsequent events

In early 2003, the Company repurchased in the open market Notes having a face value of $7,000,000, for a cash outlay of approximately $4,561,000 including accrued interest on the Notes. The Company recorded a gain of $2,620,477 the repurchased Notes have been retired.

On March 6, 2003, AP Moeller extended by two additional years the time charter of the four B Type container carriers, which were scheduled to end in September 2003. The renewal rate is substantially lower than the current rate and three of the vessels will have to pass special survey dry-dock during the summer at a substantial cost.

In March 2003, the Board approved the sale of 2 vessels. The vessels will be written down to fair market value less cost to sell. The provision for impairment loss to be recorded will be approximately $ 2.35 million.

Significant Events During 2001

The Company repurchased in the open market Notes having a face value of $33,840,000 and recorded a gain of $11,388,757 on the transactions. The repurchased Notes have been retired.

In February, the Company sold the 1980-built container vessel Columbus Olivos to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

In March, the Company entered into a swap agreement with BNP, as a result of which the variable rate on a loan granted to the Company by BNP in November 1999, had been effectively fixed at 4.985% (exclusive of margin). The swap's notional amount and duration followed the scheduled repayments of the underlying loan. Following the prepayment of the loan, the swap was subsequently terminated by the Company at a cost of $417,000, which has been included in interest expense (see Note 8).

In April, the Company sold the 1983-built container vessel Range to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

In May, the Company sold the 1981-built LPG carrier Everdina to a non-affiliated company and recorded a loss.

In June, the Company sold the 1984-built container vessel Maersk Tampa to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

In September, the Company sold the 1987-built container vessel MC Sapphire to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

In September, the Company purchased the 1981-built 72,000cbm LPG carrier La Forge from a non-affiliated company with a five-year charterback.

Revenue

The Company had gross revenue from charterhire and other sources of $44,823,301 for the year ended December 31, 2001, a 24% decrease from gross revenue of $59,482,840 in 2000. The revenue decrease was the result of several factors: (1) the Company sold five vessels in the course of 2000 and five additional vessels in 2001 and (2) the four container vessels on long term charter to Maersk were renewed in September 2001 at substantially lower rates.

The average rate per day on hire (computed as total revenues divided by total number of days on hire for the wholly owned fleet on time charter) was $9,089 in 2001 ($9,178 in 2000). The Company's on hire performance in 2001 on a potential 5,180 days was 91.8% (92.9% on a potential 6,976 days in 2000). The deterioration in on-hire performance was mainly due to an increase in time lost waiting and positioning for employment, a direct consequence of the deteriorating markets.

In 2001, the wholly owned fleet experienced off hire time for the following reasons: (i) 0.21% of the total available days were lost due to technical reasons ("operating off hire"); (ii) 0.48% of the total available days were lost due to dry-docking and repair time; (iii) 4.92% of the total available days were lost waiting for employment; and (iv) 2.62% of the total available days represented time spent positioning for subsequent employment.

Costs and Expenses

Commission on charterhire was $1,223,268 in 2001, a 26% decrease from the $1,667,349 incurred during 2000. This decrease was a direct result of the decreased revenues.

Vessel operating expenses plus amortisation of dry-docking costs totalled $23,217,653 for the year ended December 31, 2001, representing a decrease of 27% over 2000 vessel operating expenses plus amortisation of dry-docking which amounted to $32,012,946. Vessel operating expenses comprise vessel running costs, direct costs (such as fuel costs, port charges and canal dues incurred directly while vessels are unemployed or are employed on voyage charters) and management fees. As a percentage of revenue, vessel operating expenses plus amortisation of dry-docking costs were 52.0% in 2001 compared to 53.8% in 2000. Daily operating expenses per vessel averaged $4,012 compared to $3,843 in 2000. The decrease in the amount of vessel operating expenses in 2001 compared to 2000 is due to the reduced number of vessels owned in 2001. The decrease as a percentage of revenues and the increase in daily operating expenses is due to the fact that the Company had sold its smallest vessels.

Management fees and brokerage commissions paid to V. Ships totalled $1,516,059 and $300,573, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2001, representing in total 4.0% of revenues. In 2000, management fees and brokerage commissions paid to V. Ships totalled $1,879,978 and $459,959, respectively, representing in total 3.9% of revenues.

Depreciation was $10,761,040 for the year ended December 31, 2001, compared to $16,194,411 in 2000. The decrease is mainly accounted for by the sale of the Maersk Tampa and from the fact that the vessels earmarked for sale in June 2000 have not been depreciated since that date in accordance with FAS 121/144.

General and administrative expenses were $1,652,622 for the year ended December 31, 2001, compared to $1,558,510 in 2000. This represented 3.7% of revenue in 2001 as compared to 2.6% of revenue in 2000. The percentage increase is due to the marked reduction in the Company revenues and to the distribution of a bonus to the staff in 2001 (see Item 11: Executive compensation).

Other Income and Expenses

Interest expense amounted to $7,953,745 for the year ended December 31, 2001, 17.7% of revenue as compared with 21.0% in 2000. The decrease in interest expense resulted primarily from the reduced interest charges on the Notes following the repurchases effected in early 2001. Also included in interest expense in 2001 is $417,000 related to the early termination of a swap agreement.

Interest income totalled $373,589 in 2001, a decrease from interest income of $664,718 in 2000. The decrease in interest earnings was due to a reduction in the general level of interest rates.

The Company's equity losses from associated companies amounted to $296,378 in 2001 as a result of the write off of the investment in the Company's only joint venture. The Medwave, a multipurpose seariver vessel owned by the joint venture, was sold in July 2001 and the joint venture liquidated. The Company does not expect to incur any additional expenditure related to this joint venture.

In 2001, an amount of $1,542,371, representing a proportion of the debt issuance costs incurred in 1998 in connection with the issuance of the Notes, was written off following the repurchase and retirement by the Company of Notes having a face value of $33,840,000. The Company realised a net gain of $11,388,757 on the repurchase and retirement of these Notes.

Impairment Loss

In June 2000, the Board of Directors reviewed the performance of the Company's vessels. Due to the age and declining revenues related to certain vessels, the Board approved the sale of five vessels (in addition to the three seariver vessels which had been approved for sale in 1999). The vessels were written down to the lower of book value or fair market value less costs to sell and a provision for estimated impairment loss of $17,876,067 was recorded in 2000.

Six of the eight earmarked vessels were sold by the end of 2001. In the year ended December 31, 2001, revenues from the earmarked vessels totalled approximately $5,100,000, representing 11.4% of total revenues. The two vessels which had not yet been sold accounted for revenues of approximately $1,600,000 in 2001.

In December 2001, the Board approved the sale of four additional vessels. The vessels were written down to the lower of book value or fair market value less costs to sell. A provision for estimated impairment loss of $10,137,008 was recorded in 2001.

In January 2002, the Company received appraisals for its fleet (including vessels earmarked for sale) from leading independent shipbrokers. The appraised value of the Company's fleet was approximately $71 million, which indicated that the market value of the vessels was below the carrying values by $12.5 million. However, the Company's estimates of undiscounted cash flows indicated at that time that such carrying values were expected to be recovered. Evaluating recoverability requires Management to make estimates and assumptions regarding future cash flows. Actual results could differ from those estimates, which could have a material effect on the recoverability of vessels.

Management regularly obtains valuations of its vessels and will continue to monitor such valuations in order to determine if any permanent impairment in asset values occurs, and whether any write downs in asset values are necessary.

Net Income/Loss

The net income for the year ended December 31, 2001 was $2,853,217, as compared to a net loss of $25,667,616 for the year ended December 31, 2000.

Impact of Inflation

Management believes that inflation did not have a material impact upon the Company's business during the year ended December 31, 2001.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of the Company's financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires that management make estimates and assumptions affecting the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The following is a discussion of the accounting policies applied by the Company that are considered to involve a higher degree of judgment in their application. See Note 1. to the Company's audited Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto included herein for details of all of the Company's material accounting policies.

The Company's application of FAS 144 rules are based on judgements regarding the existence of impairment indicators, which in turn are based on management estimates and assumptions regarding future market performance and future vessel operating and financial performance. Actual results could differ from these estimates and the company may have to record additional impairment charges not previously recognised.

At December 31, 2002, the book value of the company's vessels exceeds the market value by approximately $10,800,000. If future events cause the company to conclude that vessels are further impaired, the resulting impairment loss could have a material adverse impact on the company's financial condition and results of operations.

LIQUIDITY AND SOURCES OF CAPITAL

The Company generated cash flows from operations of $11,675,654 in 2002 compared to $11,869,126 in 2001., on reduced revenues.

The Company had $14,061,451 in cash available at December 31, 2002 as compared to $14,252,732 at December 31, 2001. A portion of the cash is restricted: at December 31, 2002, deposits totalling $2,001,759 (December 31, 2001 - $768,411) are pledged to guarantee the Company's performance under various loan agreements. In addition, it should be noted that $3,617,858 was deposited in vessels operating accounts which are directly operated by the vessel technical managers ($3,427,232 in 2001).

In 2002, the Company repaid net borrowings of $10,078,303 with cash provided by operating activities. Included in this repayment was the retirement of $180,000 of Notes in exchange for consideration of $82,800.

The Company's long term debt (including the current portion) increased from $70,508,162 as of December 31, 2001 to $78,429,859 as of December 31, 2002. The increase is due to the $18,000,000 loan incurred to buy four container vessels in April 2002 (see Note 6. Long Term Debt).

Aggregate maturities of long-term debt subsequent to December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$12,968,616
2004	$11,379,553
2005	$ 4,179,553
2006	$15,262,137
2007
And thereafter	$34,640,000
Total	$78,429,859

In June 2001, the Company sold the 1984-built container vessel Maersk Tampa to a non-affiliated company with the Maersk charter attached. In the event Maersk does not extend the present charter at its expiry in November 2004, the Company is committed to charter the vessel back from the buyer for a period of eighteen months. The charter rate will be $17,900 per day for twelve months and $17,500 per day for the remaining six months. The aggregate amount of the commitment under this agreement is approximately $9,700,000 as follows:

2004	$ 560,000
2005	$6,500,000
2006	$2,640,000
Total	$9,700,000

These amounts do not take into consideration any revenues the Company will earn from chartering the vessel to another party.

The ratio of current assets to current liabilities decreased from 1.08 at December 31, 2001 to 0.88 at December 31, 2002. Consequent upon the acquisition of four containerships in April 2002, the Company's cash balances decreased by approximately $7,000,000 and the current portion of long term debt increased by $7,200,000 following the drawdown of the loan granted to the Company by Nedship Bank to finance the acquisition of the vessels (the cash flows from the purchased vessels are expected to be sufficient to cover the expected interest and principal repayments).

Management believes that the net cash provided by operating activities and sale of some vessels will provide sufficient funds to enable the Company to meet its liquidity requirements throughout 2003, based on current levels of charter rates.

The Company does not currently have any significant commitments for capital expenditures.

ITEM 7A: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Interest Rate Swaps

The Company has entered into two interest rate swap agreements, which are used to hedge the Company's interest rate exposure associated with its long-term debt. At December 31, 2002, one swap agreement had a notional amount of $1,589,062, a fair market value of $19,247 in favour of the Bank and an interest rate of 3.78%. It will expire in September 2003. The second swap agreement had a notional amount of $10,096,875, a fair market value of $490,920 in favour of the Bank and an interest rate of 4.595%. It will expire in September 2006.

Long term Debt

The Company is subject to interest rate risk associated with certain variable rate long-term debt as described below.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had approximately $17,703,922 in variable long term debt outstanding which was not hedged by interest rate swaps, corresponding to the outstanding amount of the credit facility of $40,000,000 granted in June 1998 to the Company by Fortis bank and BNP. The facility bears interest at LIBOR plus 1.25% and matures in June 2006. For every one-percent variation in interest rate, the interest expense would vary by $168,081.

Impact of Currency Fluctuations

The Company's functional currency is the US dollar; however, a number of transactions are performed in other currencies. In 2002, approximately 4% of total revenues and approximately 15% of total costs and expenses were denominated in currencies other than US dollars.

MC SHIPPING INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1: ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION: MC Shipping Inc. is incorporated in the Republic of Liberia and, through its subsidiaries, currently owns and operates seventeen second-hand vessels comprising seven LPG carriers, eight containerships and two multipurpose seariver vessels. The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of MC Shipping Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries (the "Company") and have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The preparation of financial statements requires Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Although the Company's fleet operates under the Bahamas and the St. Vincent & the Grenadines flags, its books and records are maintained in US Dollars, which is the Company's functional currency.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION: The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of MC Shipping Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

An investment of 50% ownership in an associated company was accounted for under the equity method. The investment became impaired in 2001 and, as a result, the Company recorded a charge to write off the remaining balance of the investment.

REVENUE RECOGNITION: Charter revenues are principally derived from time and bareboat charters and voyage charters entered into with customers operating throughout the world. Time and bareboat charter revenue is recognised on an accrual basis. Voyage charter revenue and related expenses are accounted for on the percentage of completion method.

VESSEL REPAIR AND OVERHAUL: Normal vessel repair and maintenance costs are charged to expense when incurred. Costs incurred during periodic inspections for regulatory and insurance purposes are deferred and charged to income rateably over the period of five years to the next intermediate or special survey dry-docking. For the vessels that are earmarked for sale, dry-docking expenses are charged to expenses when incurred.

VESSELS AND DEPRECIATION: Vessels are stated at cost, which includes contract price and other direct costs relating to acquiring and placing the vessels in service. Depreciation is calculated, based on cost, less estimated salvage value, using the straight-line method, over the remaining economic life of each vessel. The economic life of LPG carriers is assumed to extend from the date of their construction to the date of the final special survey which is closest to 30 years from the date of their construction. The economic life of other vessels is assumed to extend from the date of their construction to the date of the fifth special survey, which is closest to 25 years from the date of their construction. If a ship is used beyond its fifth special survey, its economic life is assumed to extend to the end of its current charter.

Long-lived assets used in operations are written down to fair value when information indicates that the carrying amount is not recoverable and assets to be disposed of are valued at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. Depreciation is not recorded on the vessels that are earmarked for sale as such vessels are included in the financial statements at their market value, and such value is reviewed at the end of each quarter (see Note 4).

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS: The U.S. Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets", which addresses financial accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long lived assets and supercedes SFAS 121 "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed of" and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations for a Disposal of a Segment of a Business". The Company adopted SFAS 144 as of January 1, 2002, without any effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations. The standard requires that long-lived assets and certain identifiable intangibles held and used or disposed of by an entity be reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable. An impairment loss for an asset held for use should be recognized, when the estimate of undiscounted cash flows, excluding interest charges, expected to be generated by the use of the asset is less than its carrying amount. Measurement of the impairment loss is based on the fair value of the asset.

SEGMENT REPORTING: The Company operates as a single segment, as Management internally evaluates the performance of the enterprise as a whole and not on the basis of separate business units.

DEBT ISSUANCE COSTS: Debt issuance costs are being amortised, using the interest method, over the terms of the long-term credit facilities. In 2001 and 2002, amounts of $1,542,371 and $5,925 respectively, representing portions of the debt issuance costs incurred in 1998 in connection with the Company's issuance of Notes, were written off, following the Company's repurchase and retirement of Notes having a face value of $33,840,000 and $180,000 respectively. These were recorded as a reduction of gains on debt extinguishment. There were no Note repurchases in 2000. An amount of $166,248, representing the unamortized balance of the debt issuance costs incurred in 1999 in connection with the Company's financing of the Maersk Tampa, was written off in 2001, following the sale of the vessel. This was recorded as a reduction of the gain on the disposal. Normal amortisation expense, included in Interest Expense, amounted to $287,161 in 2002, $197,912 in 2001 and $467,138 in 2000.

INTEREST RATE SWAPS: Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" (SFAS 133), requires the Company to recognise its derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position at fair value. The accounting for changes in the fair value (i.e., gains or losses) of a derivative instrument depends on whether it has been designated and qualifies as part of a hedging relationship and further, on the type of hedging relationship. For those derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as hedging instruments, the Company must designate the hedging instrument, based upon the exposure being hedged, as a fair value hedge, cash flow hedge or a hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation.

For derivative instruments designated and qualifying as a cash flow hedge (i.e. hedging the exposure to variability in expected future cash flows that are attributable to a particular risk), the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative instrument is reported as a component of other comprehensive income and reclassified into earnings in the same line item associated with the forecasted transaction in the same period during which the hedged transaction affects earnings.

For derivative instruments not designated as hedging instruments, the gain or loss is recognised in current earnings during the period of change. The Company does not hold derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a fair value hedge or hedge of a net investment in a foreign currency.

The Company has entered into interest-rate swap agreements to modify the interest characteristics of its outstanding debt (See Note 6). Each interest-rate swap agreement is designated with all of the principal balance and term of a specific debt obligation. These agreements involve the exchange of amounts based on a fixed interest rate for amounts based on variable interest rates over the life of the agreement.

INVENTORIES: Inventory primarily consists of finished goods and is stated at the lower of cost or market, on a first-in, first-out basis.

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION: In December 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Statement No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure ("SFAS 148"). This statement amends FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation ("SFAS 123"), to provide alternative methods of transition to SFAS 123's fair value method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. It also amends the disclosure provisions of SFAS 123 to require prominent disclosure in the summary of significant accounting policies of the effect of an entity's accounting policy with respect to stock-based employee compensation on reported net income and earnings per share in annual financial statements. SFAS 148's amendment of the transition and annual disclosure requirements are effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. At December 31, 2002, the company has one stock-based employee compensation plan, which is described more fully in Note 9. The company accounts for this plan under the recognition and measurement principles of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. No stock-based employee compensation cost is reflected in operating results, as all options granted under this plan had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if the company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to stock-based employee compensation.

RECENT STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING STANDARDS: Recent Statements of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") are summarized as follows:

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145, "Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections", which is effective for fiscal years beginning after May 15, 2002. This Statement requires most gains and losses from extinguishment of debt to be presented as a gain or loss from continuing operations rather than as an extraordinary item. Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations, Reporting Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions" will now be used to classify those gains and losses. This Statement also amends FASB No. 13, which requires that certain capital lease modifications be treated as a sale-leaseback transaction. The Company adopted Statement 145 in 2002 and reclassified the gains recognized on extinguishments of debt as gains from continuing operations. The adoption of this Statement did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

SFAS 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations", relates to financial accounting and reporting requirements associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. The statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002. The management of the Company does not believe that the adoption of this statement will have a significant effect on the Company's results of operations and financial position.

FIN 45, In November 2002, the FASB issued FASB interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 requires that upon issuance of a guarantee, the guarantor must recognize a liability for the fair value of the obligation it assumes under the guarantee. The disclosure provisions of FIN 45 are effective for financial statements of annual periods that end after December 15, 2002. The provisions for initial recognition and measurement are effective on a prospective basis for guarantees that are issued or modified after December 31, 2002. Adoption of FIN 45 is not expected to have a significant effect on the financial statements.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS: Cash and cash equivalents consist primarily of deposits with banks.

RESTRICTED CASH: Deposits totalling $2,001,760 (December 31, 2001 - $768,411) are restricted to guarantee the Company's performance under various loan agreements.

EARNINGS PER SHARE: Basic and diluted earnings per share is calculated in accordance with FASB Statement No. 128, Earnings per Share. Basic earnings per share exclude dilution and are computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if outstanding options were exercised or converted into common stock.

TAXATION: The Company is not subject to corporate income taxes in Liberia because its income is derived from non-Liberian sources. Additionally, the Company believes that it is not subject to corporate income taxes in other jurisdictions, including the United States.

CHANGE IN PRESENTATION: Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

NOTE 2: RELATED COMPANY TRANSACTIONS

The Company, via its wholly owned subsidiaries, has entered into Management Agreements (the "Agreements") with V.Ships, an affiliated company, for the technical operation of all the Company's fleet, excluding the seariver vessels which are managed by an independent vessel manager because of the specialised nature of the trade and excluding the vessels which are on bareboat charter which are managed by the charterer. The Agreements are "cost-plus" contracts under which the Company reimburses all costs incurred by V. Ships for the operation of the Company's vessels and V.Ships is paid a fixed management fee. For 2002, the management fees were fixed at the rate of $8,350 per vessel/per month for the container ships and the LPG carrier Laforge and at the rate of $8,250 per vessel/per month for the LPG carriers managed by V.Ships (in 2001, management fees were respectively $8,100 and $8,000). In 2002, $1,233,510 was paid by the Company to V.Ships for services provided to the Company pursuant to the Management Agreements (2001 - $1,516,059 ; 2000 - $1,879,978).

If the Company deems it necessary to employ the services of V.Ships in the chartering or commercial operation of any of the Company's vessels, V.Ships is entitled to a commercial chartering commission determined in the light of current industry practice. This commission can vary between 0.5% and 1.25% of such vessels' gross charter revenue and demurrage. In 2002, commercial chartering commissions totalling approximately $81,714 have been paid by the Company to V.Ships (2001 - $300,573 ; 2000 - $459,959).

If the Company deems it necessary to employ the services of V.Ships in the acquisition or disposition of vessels, the Company will pay commissions and legal fees determined in light of current industry practice.

In 2002, the Company paid a total of approximately $35,493 in commissions and legal fees to affiliates of V.Ships in connection with the acquisition and disposals of vessels (2001 - $84,716 ; 2000 - $41,828).

The Company leases office space from and reimburses telecommunication expenses to various affiliates of V.Ships. In 2002, the rental cost and telecommunication expenses paid to affiliates of V. Ships were approximately $88,365 (2001 - $154,328 ; 2000 - $184,978).

In 2001, the Company decided to outsource its bookkeeping functions to V.Ships (Cyprus) Limited. In 2002, the Company paid a total of approximately $32,375 for such accounting services (2001 - $34,626).

In addition, on a case by case basis, as technical manager of the Company's fleet, V.Ships uses on behalf of the Company the services of other V.Ships affiliates for insurance, crew and staff travelling, port agency services, manning, safety and training services, and miscellaneous services described below.

The Company places part of its vessels hull and machinery insurance, increased value insurance and war risk insurance through a captive insurance company, affiliated with V. Ships. In 2002, the Company was charged with insurance premiums of approximately $993,595 which were included in vessel operating expenses (2001 - $1,050,288 ; 2000 - $1,060,912).

The Company uses, for crew and staff travelling, the services of a company affiliated with V.Ships. In 2002, such travelling expenses amounted to approximately $144,577 and were included in vessel operating expenses or in general and administrative expenses (2001 - $166,310 ; 2000 - $294,007).

The Company uses from time to time the port agency services of various companies affiliated with V.Ships. In 2002, the Company paid approximately $344,018 for these services, which were included in the vessels operating expenses (2001 - $503,420 ; 2000 - $463,350).

The Company uses for manning, safety and training, various companies affiliated with V.Ships. In 2002, such expenses amounted to approximately $563,594 and were included in vessel operating expenses (2001 - $917,880 ; 2000 - $1,361,969).

At December 31, 2002, the Company had intercompany balances of trade account receivable of $80,518 due from affiliates ($159,286 in 2001).

NOTE 3: ACQUISITIONS AND SALES OF VESSELS

In February 2001, the Company sold the 1980-built container vessel Columbus Olivos to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

In April 2001, the Company sold the 1983-built container vessel Range to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

In May 2001, the Company sold the 1981-built LPG carrier Everdina to a non-affiliated company and recorded a loss.

In June 2001, the Company sold the 1984-built container vessel Maersk Tampa to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain. The vessel was sold with the Maersk charter attached. In the event Maersk does not extend the present charter at its expiry in November 2004, the Company is committed to charter the vessel back from the buyer for a period of eighteen months. The charter rate will be $17,900 per day for twelve months and $17,500 per day for the remaining six months.

In July 2001, the vessel Medwave was sold (see Note 5. Investment in Associated company).

In September 2001, the Company sold the 1987-built container vessel MC Sapphire to a non-affiliated company and recorded a gain.

The Company recorded net gains totalling $2,084,283 on the sale of vessels in 2001.

In September 2001, the Company purchased for $18,165,000 the 1981-built 72,000cbm LPG carrier La Forge from a non-affiliated company with a five-year charterback.

In April 2002, the Company purchased four second-hand container vessels from a non-affiliated third party with a two-and-a-half year bareboat charter back. The total purchase price was $25,000,000.

In August and September 2002, the Company sold two LPG carriers to a non-affiliated party for cash. The total sale price was $6,800,000. The Company recorded no gain or loss on the sale of vessels in 2002.

NOTE 4: LOSS ON IMPAIRMENT OF VALUE OF ASSETS

In June 2000, the Board of Directors reviewed the performance of the Company's vessels. Due to the age and declining revenues related to certain vessels, the Board approved the sale of five vessels (in addition to the three seariver vessels that were approved for sale in 1999). The vessels were written down to the lower of book value or fair market value less costs to sell and a provision for estimated impairment loss of $17,876,067 was recorded in 2000.

Six of the eight vessels were sold in the second half of 2000 and in 2001. In the year ended December 31, 2001, revenues from the earmarked and sold vessels totalled approximately $5,100,000, representing 11.4% of total revenues.

In December 2001, the Board approved the sale of four additional vessels. The vessels were written down to the lower of book value or fair market value less costs to sell. The provision for estimated impairment loss recorded in 2001 was $10,137,008.

Two of the four vessels were sold in August and September 2002 at no gain or loss. In the year ended December 31, 2002, revenues from these vessels totalled approximately $2,180,000, representing 5.2% of total revenues.

Two vessels earmarked for sale in December 2001 were reclassified from "held for sale" to "held and used" at the end of 2002. They are carried at the lower of (1) carrying amount before it was classified as held for sale, adjusted for any depreciation expense that would have been recognised had the vessels been continuously classified as held and used or (2) fair value at year end.

In January 2003, the Company received appraisals for its fleet from leading independent shipbrokers. The appraised value of the Company's fleet was approximately $80.5 million. This indicated that the aggregate market value of the vessels was below the carrying values by approximately $10.8 million. The aggregate market value of the gas carriers were $15.9 million below the carrying values, while the aggregate market value of the container carriers was approximately $4.9 million above the carrying values. However, the Company's estimates of undiscounted cash flows indicated at that time that such carrying values were expected to be recovered.

Evaluating recoverability in accordance with FAS 144 requires Management to make estimates and assumptions regarding future cash flows. Actual results could differ from those estimates, which could have a material effect on the recoverability of vessels.

Management regularly obtains valuations of its vessels and will continue to monitor such valuations in order to determine if any permanent impairment in asset values occurs, and whether any write downs in asset values are necessary.

NOTE 5: INVESTMENT IN ASSOCIATED COMPANY

In September 1997, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement with an independent Italian group pursuant to which the Company acquired fifty percent of the issued share capital of Medwave Shipping Limited ("Medwave"), the owner of a 1986-built multipurpose seariver vessel. After reviewing the market value of the vessel at June 30, 2001, it was estimated that the investment was not recoverable and a $296,378 write off was recorded. In July 2001, the vessel was sold and the joint venture was liquidated. The Company does not expect that any further costs will be incurred by the Company in relation to this joint venture.

NOTE 6: LONG-TERM DEBT

In March 1998, the Company issued $100,000,000 of 10-year Senior Notes (the "Notes"). The Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture (the "Indenture") between the Company and Bankers Trust Company as trustee. Interest on the Notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on March 1 and September 1 in each year at a rate of 11.25% per annum. The Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and rank senior in right of payment to all subordinated indebtedness of the Company and pari passu in right of payment with all other senior unsecured indebtedness of the Company. The Notes effectively rank junior to all secured indebtedness and to any indebtedness of the Company's subsidiaries. The Company's obligations under the Indenture were guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis as of the date of the Indenture by substantially all of the Company's then existing vessel-owning subsidiaries and in the future may be jointly and severally guaranteed by certain other subsidiaries of the Company. Separate financial statements of the guarantor subsidiaries are not presented because, in the opinion of management, such financial statements are not material to investors. The Company is a holding company with no material operations, cash flows or assets, other than the cash proceeds of the issuance of the Notes which have been invested in its subsidiaries, and investments in and advances to subsidiaries. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, certain subsidiaries are not guarantors of the Notes. The following is summarised combining financial information of the Company and its guarantor subsidiaries and of the non-guarantor subsidiaries of the Company as of 31 December 2002 and 2001 (there were no non-guarantors in 2000):

The Indenture contains various business and financial covenants, including among other things, (i) limitation on restricted payments, which include dividends, repurchases of capital stock, repayment of subordinated debt and restricted investments, (ii) limitations on additional indebtedness, (iii) limitations on liens, (iv) restrictions on sale and lease-back transactions, (v) limitations on transactions with affiliates, (vi) limitations on asset sales, (vii) limitations on unrestricted subsidiary designations, and (viii) limitations on mergers and consolidations.

The Board of Directors has authorised Management to repurchase Notes in the open market at times, prices and volumes, which Management deems appropriate. In 1998, the Company repurchased Notes having a face value of $8,000,000 and recorded net extraordinary gains of $2,354,465 on the transactions. In 1999, the Company repurchased Notes having a face value of $23,340,000 and recorded net extraordinary gains of $6,079,702 on the transactions. In 2001, the Company repurchased Notes having a total face value of $33,840,000 and recorded a net extraordinary gain of $11,388,757 on the transactions. In 2002, the Company repurchased Notes having a face value of $180,000 and recorded net extraordinary gains of $94,598 on the transactions. The repurchased Notes have been retired. The Company wrote off the portion of debt issuance costs relating to the Notes repurchased (see Note 1 to the Financial Statements - Debt Issuance Costs).

The Company has a long-term debt agreement with Fortis Bank (previously named MeesPierson N.V.) and Banque Nationale de Paris ("BNP") obtained in June 1998. The facility bears interest at LIBOR plus 1.25% and the final repayment date under the facility is fixed at June 30, 2006. The vessel-owning subsidiaries have granted ship mortgages over their vessels as security for the advances and the Company has issued a guarantee in relation to the facility. Repayment schedules (consisting of semi-annual instalments plus a balloon) are determined in relation to each drawing at the time the advances are made by reference to the ages and to the types of vessels acquired. The Company made drawings totalling $23,133,333 to finance or refinance the acquisition of vessels. At December 31, 2002, the total amount outstanding under this facility was $17,703,922 and drawings are no longer permitted.

The Company had a long-term debt agreement with BNP obtained in November 1999 to finance the acquisition of a second-hand containership by one of the Company's subsidiaries. The loan was repayable over five years in quarterly instalments commencing in March 2001 at $700,000 per quarter, increasing to $725,000 per quarter in 2001, with a balloon of $8,000,000 due in December 2004. The facility bore interest at LIBOR plus 1.5%. A swap agreement was entered into with BNP in March 2001, as a result of which the variable rate on the loan, exclusive of margin, had been effectively fixed at 4.985%. The loan was fully prepaid in June 2001 when the vessel was sold. The swap was subsequently terminated at a cost of $417,000, which has been recorded as interest expense.

In September 2001, the Company was granted a $17,700,000 credit facility by Scotiabank in order to finance the acquisition of a second-hand LPG vessel by one of the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries. The facility bears interest at LIBOR plus 2% and is non-recourse to the Company. The acquiring subsidiary made a drawing of $13,462,500, which is repayable over five years in equal quarterly instalments. A swap agreement was concurrently entered into with Scotiabank, as a result of which the variable rate on the loan, exclusive of margin, has been effectively fixed at 4.595%. The swap's notional amount and duration follow the scheduled repayments of the underlying loan. In addition, two of the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries, each of which had acquired a second-hand containership in 1998, made drawings totalling $4,237,500 under this facility to refinance their vessels. This second advance is repayable over two years in equal quarterly instalments. A swap agreement was also entered into with Scotiabank, as a result of which the variable rate on the loans, exclusive of margin, has been effectively fixed at 3.78%. The swap's notional amount and duration follow the scheduled repayments of the underlying loans. The fair value of the swap agreements and changes in the fair value as a result of changes in market interest rates are recognised as comprehensive income or loss.

During the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company recognised losses of $417,000 in relation to one swap agreement as this agreement had been terminated following the sale of the financed vessel. This loss was recorded as interest expense.

The Company's long-term bank debt is secured by certain of its vessels. Certain loan agreements contain debt covenants related to minimum liquidity reserves of 10% of the total amount of bank debt outstanding, minimum value clauses for the vessels and minimum tangible net worth. At December 31, 2002, tangible net worth exceeded the minimum requirement by $4,361,730.

Aggregate maturities of long-term debt in each of the five years subsequent to December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$12,968,616
2004	$11,379,553
2005	$ 4,179,553
2006	$15,262,137
2007
And thereafter	$34,640,000
Total	$78,429,859

The interest rates applicable to the Company's long-term debt at December 31, 2002 ranged from 3.0625% to 11.25%. During the year ended December 31, 2002, interest paid in relation to the Notes and other long-term debt totalled $6,113,656 (2001 - $8,453,619 ; 2000 - $12,305,262).

NOTE 7: FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

At December 31, 2002 and 2001, financial instruments had the following values:

		2002		2001
		Fair Value	Book Value	Fair Value	Book Value
Cash & Cash Equivalents	(a)	$14,061,451	$14,061,451	$14,252,732	$14,252,732

(a) Carrying value approximates market value due to short-term maturities.

(b) Carrying value approximates market value as variable interest rates approximate market rates.

(c) Since there is no active market for the Notes, the market value of the Notes at the balance sheet date is assumed to be equal to the price paid in early 2003.

(d) Fair value estimated as the amount the Company would have had to pay, had the interest rate swaps been terminated on the balance sheet date.

NOTE 8: CHANGES IN SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

With effect from April 1, 1998, directors who are not officers of the Company or of an affiliated company, each receive $5,000 out of their total annual compensation of $25,000 by the allotment of shares of the Company's common stock of equivalent value. Pursuant to this arrangement, 25,320, 35,605 and 21,804 shares of Treasury Stock were transferred to the non-executive directors in respect of the twelve month periods ended March 31, 2000, 2001 and 2002, respectively. Further shares will be similarly transferred in future years.

NOTE 9: STOCK OPTION PLAN

On June 20, 2001, the shareholders authorized the creation of a Stock Option Plan for the Company's employees. A maximum of 407,871 shares or 5% of the Company's outstanding shares were authorized for issuance under this stock option plan. Under the terms of the plan, the options give the right to purchase one share per option and vest 25% per annum, commencing one year after the grant date of the respective option. Options expire ten years after the grant date.

On June 20, 2001, the Company's Board of Directors approved the issuance of 163,148 options to employees at an exercise price of $0.622 per share. In connection with the issuance of these options, the Company has recognized no compensation expense in the consolidated income statements as all options granted under this plan had an exercise price equal to the market value of the stock price at the date of grant.

The following table summarizes the activity under the stock plan:

	Number of shares	Weighted average exercise price	Number of shares	Weighted average exercise price
Options outstanding at the beginning of the year	163,148	.622	-	-
Options granted	-	-	163,148	.622
Options exercised	-	-	-	-
Options forfeited	-	-	-	-
Options outstanding at the end of the year	163,148	.622	163,148	-
Options exercisable at the end of the year	40,787	.622	-	-

FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation (SFAS 123) requires the disclosure of pro forma net income and earnings per share information computed as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options under the fair value method set forth in SFAS 123. The fair value for these options was estimated at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions.

Risk-free interest rate	-	5%
Volatility	-	1.803
Option term (in years)	-	7
Dividend yield	-	0.00%

The weighted average fair value of stock options granted during the year ended December 31, 2001 was $0.74 per share.

For purposes of pro forma disclosures, the estimated fair value of the options is amortized to expense over the options' vesting period. Because options vest over several years and additional grants are expected, the effects of these hypothetical calculations are not likely to be representative of similar future calculations.

NOTE 10: CHARTERS

Eleven of the Company's seventeen vessels are currently fixed on time charters. Future minimum revenues from these non-cancellable charters are as follows:

2003	$35,476,250
2004	$26,739,250
2005	$15,417,760
2006	$ 5,535,000

The Company performs ongoing evaluations of the credit risk of its charterers.

In 2002, the Company had four charterers from which revenues exceeded 10% of total revenues from charterhires. Revenues from these charterers amounted to $14,445,621, $8,389,006, $7,290,522 and $6,245,554 respectively representing 34.5%, 20.0%, 17.4% and 14.9% of total revenues. In 2001, the Company had two charterers from which revenues exceeded 10% of total revenues from charterhires. Revenues from these charterers amounted to $19,852,444, and $5,513,959 respectively representing 44.3% and 12.3% of total revenues. The Company had one charterer in 2000 from which revenues exceeded 10% of total revenues from charterhires. Revenues from this charterer amounted to $31,526,048, representing 53% of total revenues.

NOTE 12: CONTINGENCIES

Various claims, suits, and complaints, including those involving government regulations and product liability, arise in the ordinary course of the shipping business. In addition, losses may arise from disputes with charterers, agents, insurance and other claims with suppliers relating to the operations of the Company's vessels. Management believes that all such matters are either adequately covered by insurance or are not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

NOTE 13: SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In early 2003, the Company repurchased in the open market Notes having a face value of $7,000,000, for a cash outlay of approximately $4,561,000 including accrued interest on the Notes. The Company recorded a one-time gain of $2,620,477. The repurchased Notes have been retired.

On March 6, 2003, AP Moeller extended by two additional years the time charter of the four B Types container carriers, which were scheduled to end in September 2003.

In March 2003, the Board approved the sale of 2 vessels. The vessels will be written down to fair market value less cost to sell. The provision for impairment loss to be recorded will be approximately $2.35 million.

ITEM 13: CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Vlasov Group is owned by a trust, the sole trustee of which is Securitas Holding Corporation ("Securitas"). As of March 11, 2003, Vlasov Investment Corporation ("VIC"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Securitas, owned 3,969,524 shares of Common Stock of the Company (approximately 48.17%), V Ships Inc. ("V.Ships") owned 349,100 shares (approximately 4.24%) and Greysea owned 51,500 (approximately 0.62%) shares. Vlasov Group Inc. ("VGI" - formerly Veegroup Holdings Inc.), another wholly owned subsidiary of Securitas, indirectly owns 39% of Vlasov Services Corp. ("VSC" - the parent company of V.Ships Inc.). Greysea Limited, a Guernsey corporation ("Greysea") controlled by certain senior officers and former officers of V.Ships, indirectly also owns 31% of VSC. The remaining 30% of VSC is owned by General Electric Capital Corporation for 19% and directly by some officers of VSC for 11%. VGI and Greysea were involved in the Certain of the directors and executive officers of the Company are involved in outside business activities similar to those conducted by the Company, including the business of purchasing, owning and selling cargo vessels through the Vlasov Group of shipping companies. Messrs. Mauro Terrevazzi (Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of the Company) and Ettore Bonaventura (Director) are affiliated with the Vlasov Group in various capacities and Guy Morel (Chief Operating Officer and President) has an ownership interest in an affiliate of the Vlasov Group. Mr. Peter Shaerf (Director) has from time to time arranged charters for the Company's vessels and is the Managing Director of an independent consulting and investment company, which specialises in the shipping industry. As a result of these affiliations, such persons may experience conflicts of interest in connection with the selection, purchase, operation and sale of the Company's vessels and those of other entities affiliated with such persons.

The By-Laws of the Company provide that many of the transactions giving rise to potential conflicts of interest are subject to review by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors which is also charged with the responsibility of monitoring and reviewing transactions to be entered into with affiliates. Management believes that the terms of all the transactions described herein with V.Ships were fair to the Company.

If the Company deems it necessary to employ the services of V.Ships and/or independent technical managers in the chartering or commercial operation of any of the Company's vessels, V.Ships or independent technical managers are entitled to a commercial chartering commission determined in the light of current industry practice. For the rates of fees payable to V.Ships, see "COMPENSATION TO AFFILIATES" and Note 2. "RELATED COMPANY TRANSACTIONS".

Based on such review, they have concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that material information relating to the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries would be made known to them by others within those entities.

(b) Changes in internal controls.

There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or, to the knowledge of the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer, in other factors that could significantly affect the Company's disclosure controls and procedures subsequent to the Evaluation Date.
