THE SHARES OFFERED IN THIS PROSPECTUS INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of common stock offered by this prospectus. We will pay, however, substantially of expenses related to the registration of the common stock with the SEC.

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

Pursuant to an agreement dated May 17, 2002, we issued a warrant to Patrick W. Grady, who subsequently assigned the warrant to the Grady Family Trust 1997, the selling shareholder, in exchange for Mr. Grady's agreement to provide advice and assistance, as requested, on investment banking, management, equity formation and public markets. The warrant is exercisable for 150,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $3.50 per share and expires on May 17, 2004. The warrant may also be exercised by means of a cashless exercise feature in which case we would not receive any proceeds upon exercise of the warrant. The exercise price and number of shares will be proportionately adjusted for any split in the outstanding shares of our common stock or a dividend on our common stock that is paid in common stock.

As of January 17, 2003, the selling shareholder held no shares of our common stock. The shares covered by this prospectus include only the shares of common stock issuable to the selling shareholder upon the exercise of the warrant described above. All of the shares covered by this prospectus are being sold for the account of the selling shareholder. As of January 1, 2003, we had 56,039,216 shares of common stock outstanding.

The selling shareholder has not had any material relationship with us or any of our affiliates within the past three years.

Because the selling shareholder may wish to be legally permitted to sell its shares at any time it considers appropriate, we have agreed to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, under the Securities Act of 1933, a registration statement on Form S-3, of which this prospectus forms a part, for the resale of the shares issuable upon exercise of the warrant, and have agreed to prepare and file amendments and supplements to the registration statement as may be necessary to keep the registration statement effective until the shares issuable upon exercise of the warrant are no longer required to be registered for sale by the selling shareholder.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the shares covered by this prospectus for the selling shareholder. The selling shareholder or its respective pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest may sell the shares in the over-the-counter market or in other transactions, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices, or at negotiated prices. The shares may also be sold by one or more of the following methods:

a block trade in which a broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block, as principal, in order to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker or dealer, as principal, in a market maker capacity or by other means and resale by the broker or dealer for its account under the terms of the prospectus;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchases;

privately negotiated transactions;

any combination of these methods of sale; or any other legal method.

We will pay the costs and fees of registering the shares, but the selling shareholder will pay any brokerage commissions, discounts or other expenses relating to the sale of the shares. We and the selling shareholder each have agreed to indemnify the other against specified liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, that relate to statements or omissions in the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 provides that during the period that any person is engaged in the distribution of our common stock, the person engaged in the distribution generally may not purchase shares of our common stock. The selling shareholder is subject to applicable rules, regulations and provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of our common stock by the selling shareholder and may affect the marketability of our common stock.

The selling shareholder may negotiate and pay brokers or dealers commissions, discounts or concessions for their services. In making sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling shareholders may allow other broker or dealers to participate. However, the selling shareholder and any brokers or dealers involved in the sale or resale of the shares may qualify as underwriters within the meaning of section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act of 1933. In addition, the brokers or dealers commissions, discounts or concessions may qualify as underwriters compensation under the Securities Act of 1933. If the selling shareholder qualifies as an underwriter, he will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of section 5(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933.

The selling shareholder may also:

agree to indemnify any broker or dealer or agent against liabilities related to the selling of the shares, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933;

transfer its shares in other ways not involving market makers or established trading markets, including directly by gift, distribution, or other transfer; or sell its shares under Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933 rather than under this prospectus, if the transaction meets the requirements of Rule 144.

Upon notification by the selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker or dealer for the sale of the shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, we will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required by Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act of 1933, disclosing the material terms of the transaction.
