Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 16, 2013, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the CIT Group Inc. Employee Severance Plan (the “Plan”), which replaces the previous employee severance plan that was amended and restated effective September 9, 2009. The Plan provides severance benefits to all of the Company’s U.S. employees, including its named executive officers (other than Mr. Knittel, whose severance benefits are governed by his employment agreement).

The named executive officers are eligible for severance benefits under the Plan for certain involuntary terminations without Cause and for voluntary terminations with limited Good Reason. Cause includes employee misconduct or performance related reasons, with or without prior notice. Good Reason includes a change in work location greater than 50 miles or a material diminution of base salary.

Under the Plan, the named executive officers receive either 12 weeks prior notice of termination, during which they would continue to provide services to and receive compensation from the Company, or payment in lieu of the notice of termination. In addition, the named executive officers will receive a severance payment equal to 52 weeks of base salary, plus a pro rata severance bonus equal to the number of months worked in the calendar year of termination, rounded up to the nearest whole month, divided by 12, times his or her actual short term incentive award for the prior year, including both cash and equity components. The Company will also pay the named executive officers who participated in the Company’s medical plan at the time of termination a lump sum payment equal to 102% of the cost of continued health benefits pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA) for the severance period of 52 weeks, which amount will be increased to cover applicable taxes.

Named executive officers who are involuntarily terminated without cause or are voluntarily terminated for Good Reason within 2 years following a change of control will be paid severance benefits equal to 2 times the sum of (i) his or her base salary and (ii) the average of the two highest of the past three years of short term incentive awards, plus a pro rata severance bonus equal to the number of months worked in the calendar year of termination, rounded up to the nearest whole month, divided by 12, times the average of the two highest of the past three years of short term incentive award. Good Reason upon a change of control includes a material diminution of base salary, a material diminution of duties, or a change in work location greater than 50 miles. Any payment for continued health benefits pursuant to COBRA will be calculated as set forth above. The Plan does not provide for any excise tax gross-up for the named executive officers.

The foregoing description of the Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the Plan, which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013.
