SUBJECT: Important VISX News

We are excited to announce that earlier today the Boards of Directors of VISX and Advanced Medical Optics (AMO) agreed to combine forces. This is great news for employees of both companies, as together we will be a global leader in the ophthalmic marketplace. Details of the acquisition are contained in the attached press release.

Please join Doug for an all-employee meeting that will take place today at 2:45 in Eucalyptus A & B. At 2:50 you will link into a joint conference call of VISX and AMO with the investment community. We invite you to stay and listen to the call. I will be there with Jim Mazzo, the CEO of AMO, to help describe the exciting opportunity that this creates for our companies. You can also listen to the conference call at your own computer by accessing the VISX or AMO web site (www.VISX.com or www.amo-inc.com) and following the link to Investor Relations. The call will be archived and can be accessed at any time during the next week.

Your Vice President will follow up with your individual departments this afternoon to respond to any additional questions you may have. We will continue to provide information as it becomes available.

Liz
