PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Lam Research Corporation (the Company) plans to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 23, 2007 (Form 10-Q) as soon as practicable, but does not expect that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As disclosed in the Company's current reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on July 18, 2007 and December 24, 2007, an independent committee of the Company's Board of Directors, composed of two independent board members appointed by the Board of Directors, is conducting a review of the Company's historical stock option practices and related accounting. The voluntary review arose after the Company's independent auditors performed auditing processes, pursuant to recent guidance from the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB), relating to the Company's historical stock option grant programs and procedures as part of its fiscal year-end 2007 audit. The independent committee, with the assistance of independent outside legal counsel, has reached a preliminary conclusion that the actual measurement dates for financial accounting purposes of certain stock option grants issued in the past differ from the recorded grant dates of such awards. The independent committee's assessment of conduct relating to the Company's historical stock option practices is ongoing. The committee's preliminary view is that there was no intentional misconduct by management. On December 18, 2007, upon the recommendation of management and the independent committee, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors concluded that the Company's financial statements for fiscal years 1997 through 2005, and the interim periods contained therein should no longer be relied upon. The Company expects to restate certain of its previously-issued financial statements to record non-cash charges for compensation expenses relating to past stock option grants. The significant majority of the measurement date changes result from stock options granted prior to fiscal year 2003. The Company has not determined the final amount of such charges, the resulting tax and accounting impact, or which specific periods require restatement. The Company's management and the independent committee have discussed this matter with Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Company is working with Ernst & Young LLP to complete its restatement and become current with its public filings as soon as possible. At this time the review is ongoing and the Company will not be in a position to file the Form 10-Q until after the completion of the review. The Company does not presently expect that such review will be completed within the prescribed time period for the filing of such Form 10-Q (including the 5-day extension under Rule 12b-25).

PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

- (1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Martin B. Anstice

(Telephone Number)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

Form 10-K for the year ended June 24, 2007, Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 23, 2007

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

* Because of the review regarding the Company's historical stock option practices and related accounting discussed in Part III above, the Company has not checked either box in Part IV subsection 3, as it is not possible at this time for the Company to determine whether any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year arising from the review will be reflected in the earnings statements to be included in the Form 10-Q. The Company previously announced selected financial data in its Form 8-K filed with the SEC on January 24, 2008. The amounts reported in the January 24, 2008 Form 8-K for cost of goods sold, gross margin, operating expenses, operating income and income before income taxes are preliminary due to the ongoing option review and could be subject to adjustment.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements regarding the Company's ability to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 23, 2007 and the financial results it will report for the period covered by such Form 10-Q. Because the Independent Committee has not completed its review of the Company's historical stock option granting practices and the related accounting, the Company cannot provide any assurance when its Form 10-Q will be filed or whether there will be any significant change to its results of operations from the corresponding prior periods.
