BUCKEYE ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBER

MEMPHIS, TN August 2, 2005 - Buckeye Technologies Inc. (NYSE:BKI) today announced that Mr. Lewis Holland has been elected to serve as a member of the Company's Board of Directors effective September 6, 2005. Mr. Holland will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of long-time Buckeye board member Samuel M. Menco.

Mr. Holland is president of Henry Turley Company, a real estate company specializing in development of urban communities. Prior to joining Henry Turley Company, Mr. Holland was with National Commerce Bankcorpation (NCBC), one of the country's fifty largest bank holding companies prior to its merger ultimately with SunTrust. At NCBC he served as vice chairman and chief financial officer and also head of its ancillary businesses including fuel card processing, retirement plan processing, trust and brokerage, until his retirement in 2001. Mr. Holland is a former partner with the accounting firm of Ernst & Young and was in charge of E&Y's Memphis audit staff. He also served as president of UMIC, an institutional brokerage firm. A graduate of Mississippi State University and the Securities Industry Institute at the Wharton School, Mr. Holland is actively involved in the Memphis Community. He is a past president of the Tennessee Society of CPA's and has served as Chairman of the Board of the Memphis Symphony Orchestra. He is currently on the board of the Memphis Arts Council.

Mr. Mencoff, Co-President of Madison Dearborn Partners, L.L.C., a private equity investment firm, has been a member of the Buckeye board since the Company's inception in 1993. He is resigning to devote more time to his other business commitments.

Buckeye's Chief Executive Officer David B. Ferraro stated, "Sam Mencoff was a key participant in founding Buckeye as an independent company. He has been an active and valuable contributor to the Company over the past twelve years, and we will miss his wise counsel. However, we are fortunate to have a person of Mr. Holland's caliber joining our board."

Buckeye, a leading manufacturer and marketer of specialty fibers and nonwoven materials, is headquartered in Memphis, Tennessee, USA. The Company currently operates facilities in the United States, Germany, Canada, and Brazil. Its products are sold worldwide to makers of consumer and industrial goods.
