PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To Be Held On May 5, 2003

GENERAL

Time, Place and Purposes of Meeting

The 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Brookfield Homes Corporation will be held on May 5, 2003 at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Time, at the Doubletree Hotel, 11915 El Camino Real, Del Mar, California (in this Proxy Statement, unless the context requires otherwise, references to we, our, us, and Company refer to Brookfield Homes Corporation). The purposes of the Annual Meeting are set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders to which this Proxy Statement is attached.

Solicitation of Proxies

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors. We expect that this Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy will first be mailed on or about April 7, 2003 to each stockholder of record on March 24, 2003. We will bear the entire cost of this solicitation. The solicitation of proxies will be made primarily by use of the mail. In addition, our directors, officers and regular employees may make solicitations by telephone, telegraph, e-mail or personal interview, and may request banks, brokers, fiduciaries and other persons holding stock in their names, or in the names of their nominees, to forward proxies and proxy materials to their principals and obtain authorization for the execution and return of such proxies. We will reimburse such banks, brokers and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

Revocation and Voting of Proxies

A proxy for use at the Annual Meeting is enclosed. Any proxy given may be revoked by you at any time before it is exercised by filing with us a notice in writing revoking it or by duly executing a proxy bearing a later date. Proxies also may be revoked in person at the Annual Meeting if you desire to vote your shares in person. Subject to such revocation and except as otherwise stated herein or in the form of proxy, all proxies duly executed and received prior to, or at the time of, the Annual Meeting will be voted in accordance with the specifications of the proxies. If no specification is made, proxies will be voted for the nominees for election of directors set forth elsewhere herein (see PROPOSAL ONE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS) and for the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for 2003 (see PROPOSAL TWO RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS) and, at the discretion of the proxy holders, on all other matters properly brought before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Outstanding Shares And Voting Rights

March 24, 2003 has been set as the record date for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. There were 32,073,781 shares of our common stock, $0.01 par value per share, issued and outstanding on March 10, 2003. On any matter submitted to a stockholder vote, each holder of our common stock will be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of common stock registered in his, her or its name on the books of our Company as of the record date. A list of such stockholders will be available for examination by any stockholder at our Del Mar office set forth above for at least ten days before the Annual Meeting.

Quorum Requirement

Edgar Filing: BROOKFIELD HOMES CORP - Form DEF 14A

Our By-laws provide that at any meeting of stockholders, there must be present, either in person or by proxy, in order to constitute a quorum, stockholders owning a majority of our issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote at said meeting.

Table of ContentsVote Required

If a broker holds your shares, this proxy statement and a proxy card have been sent to the broker. You may have received this proxy statement directly from your broker, together with instructions as to how to direct the broker how to vote your shares. If you do not give your broker instructions or discretionary authority to vote your shares on the Proposals and your broker returns the proxy card indicating such lack of authority, your shares will be broker non-votes with respect to the Proposals for which the broker does not have authority to vote. Broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining a quorum, but will not be counted as shares entitled to vote. If you abstain from voting on the Proposals, your shares will be counted as present at the meeting, for purposes of determining a quorum, and entitled to vote. As a result, abstentions will have no effect on the election of directors.

In the election for directors, the nine persons receiving the highest number of for votes will be elected.

The ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for 2003 requires approval by a majority of shares of common stock entitled to vote on the Proposal and present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting.

If any other proposals are properly presented to the stockholders at the meeting, the number of votes required for approval will depend upon the nature of the proposal. Generally, under Delaware law the number of votes required to approve a proposal is a majority of the shares of common stock entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy represented at the Annual Meeting. The enclosed proxy card gives discretionary authority to the proxy holders to vote on any matter not included in this proxy statement that is properly presented to the stockholders at the meeting.

Stockholders Sharing Same Address

In some cases, only one copy of this Proxy Statement and our 2002 Annual Report is being delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address, unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the stockholders. Upon written or oral request, we will promptly deliver a separate copy of this Proxy Statement and our 2002 Annual Report to a stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy was delivered. You can notify us that you wish to receive a separate copy of our proxy statements and annual reports in the future, or alternatively, that you wish to receive a single copy of the materials instead of multiple copies. Contact information for these purposes is: Brookfield Homes Corporation, Attention: Investor Relations, 12865 Pointe Del Mar, Suite 200, Del Mar, CA, 92014, telephone number: 858-481-2567, or email: northwood@brookfieldhomes.com.

All directors are elected to serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders and their successors have been elected and qualified. If any nominee is unable to serve, the proxies will be voted by the proxy holders in their discretion for another person. Table of Contents

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are not officers of the Company are entitled to receive an annual directors fee of $20,000 and an attendance fee of $1,500 for each meeting of the board of directors they attend ($500 if by telephone) (other than any meeting held immediately following an annual meeting of stockholders). In addition, directors who are chairmen of board committees receive an annual fee of $2,000, and directors who are members of board committees receive an attendance fee of $750 for each committee meeting they attend ($250 if the meeting occurs on the same day as a board meeting). Directors may choose to receive their annual fee entitlement in the form of deferred share units of the Company, in lieu of cash. No directors fees were paid in 2002. Directors are also reimbursed for travel and other out-of-pocket expenses they incur in attending board or committee meetings.

Senior Operating Management Participation Plan

Certain senior operating employees, none of whom are named executive officers of the Company, are entitled to participate in the Senior Operating Management Participation Plan. In 1996, when operations in California were set-up, this plan was established to attract and retain entrepreneurial management teams to profitably manage and grow our business operations through a decentralized local management structure. The plan provides for participation in the net income of the local business unit by each local management team. For 2002, twenty-three participants in the plan earned a total of $15.8 million.

Employment Contracts, Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control

We do not have any employment contracts, change of control arrangements or other compensatory plans or arrangements with any of our executive officers.

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

We were a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brookfield Properties Corporation (Brookfield Properties) until January 6, 2003, when we were spun-off as a separate publicly traded company pursuant to a reorganization of Brookfield Properties homebuilding business (which we refer to as the Spin-off). Brookfield Properties no longer holds any of our shares, nor is Brookfield Properties able to exercise control over us. However, we and Brookfield Properties are affiliates, as Brascan Corporation directly or indirectly owns approximately 50% of each corporation.

A subsidiary of Brascan has provided us with a $50 million revolving credit facility. The facility bears interest at LIBOR plus 2.5% and is payable upon demand, subject to a six month term-out. The facility is unsecured and ranks senior to the subordinated debt that we owe to a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brookfield Properties. The facility contains a covenant requiring us to maintain minimum stockholders equity of $250 million.

In connection with the Spin-off, we and our wholly-owned subsidiary, Brookfield Homes Holdings Inc., have entered into a license agreement with Brookfield Properties (US) Inc., a subsidiary of Brookfield Properties, under which we, Brookfield Homes Holdings Inc. and our subsidiaries pay to Brookfield Properties (US) Inc. an annual fee in the amount of $50,000 for the right to use the names Brookfield and Brookfield Homes. INFORMATION REGARDING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Mandate of the Board

Our board of directors oversees the management of our affairs directly and through its committees. In doing so, the board acts at all times with a view to our best interests and those of our shareholders. In fulfilling its mandate, the board, among other matters, is responsible for reviewing our overall business strategies and annual business plans; reviewing the principal risks of our business to ensure that appropriate systems are in place to manage these risks; reviewing our major strategic initiatives to ensure that proposed actions accord with shareholder objectives; appointing senior management and reviewing succession planning; assessing management's performance against approved business plans and industry standards; reviewing and approving the reports issued to shareholders, including annual and interim financial statements; ensuring the effective operation of the board; and safeguarding shareholders' equity interests through the optimum utilization of our capital resources, including setting an appropriate dividend policy.

Meetings of the Board

The board of directors meets at least once in each quarter, with additional meetings held when appropriate. The board also meets annually to review and approve our business plan and long-term strategy. The board met once in the 2002 fiscal year. Four regular meetings and one strategy meeting are scheduled for 2003. Meeting frequency and agenda items may change depending on the opportunities or risks that we are facing.

Size and Composition of the Board and Representation of Stockholder Interests

The board of directors currently consists of nine directors. We consider this to be an appropriate number given the diversity of our operations and the need for a variety of experiences and backgrounds to ensure an effective and efficient board.

The board is comprised of independent directors, individuals nominated by our principal shareholder and our President and Chief Executive Officer. The board believes that this combination leads to a constructive exchange of views in its deliberations resulting in objective, well-balanced and informed discussion and decision making.

Five directors are considered to be independent directors within the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. These directors are Robert A. Ferchat, Bruce T. Lehman, David M. Sherman, Robert L. Stelzl and Michael D. Young. The remaining four directors have interests in or are related to us, Brascan or EdperPartners and include our Chairman and our President and Chief Executive Officer.

Committees of the Board

The board of directors believes that committees assist in the effective functioning of the board and that the composition of board committees should ensure that the views of independent directors are effectively represented. The board has three committees: the Audit Committee, the Governance and Nominating Committee and the Management Resources and Compensation Committee. Special committees may be formed from time to time as required to review particular matters or transactions. While the board retains overall responsibility for corporate governance matters, the Audit Committee, the Management Resources and Compensation Committee and the Governance and Nominating Committee each have specific responsibilities for certain aspects of corporate governance as described below.

Governance and Nominating Committee

The Governance and Nominating Committee is appointed by the board of directors to assist the board in carrying out its responsibilities by reviewing corporate governance and board nominee issues and making recommendations to the board as appropriate. In particular, the Committee is responsible for identifying individuals qualified to become board members, recommending proposed nominees for election to the board at the next annual meeting of stockholders, and developing and recommending corporate governance principles. The Governance and Nominating Committee considers nominees proposed by the stockholders. To recommend a prospective nominee for the Governance and Nominating Committee's consideration, you may submit the candidate's name and qualifications to Shane D. Pearson, Secretary, Brookfield Homes Corporation, 12865 Pointe Del Mar, Suite 200, Del Mar, CA 92014. The Governance and Nominating Committee is currently comprised of three directors, a majority of whom are independent directors: Gordon E. Arnell (Chairman), Bruce T. Lehman and Robert L. Stelzl. The Governance and Nominating Committee was formed on December 17, 2002 and held its first meeting on February 13, 2003.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is appointed by the board of directors to assist it in monitoring: (1) the integrity of our financial statements, including audits thereof; (2) our accounting and financial reporting processes and system of internal controls and procedures for financial reporting and accounting compliance; (3) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence; (4) the performance of our internal audit function and independent auditors; (5) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; and (6) our principal financial risks and the processes employed to manage such risks. The Audit Committee of the board is currently comprised of three directors: Robert A. Ferchat (Chairman), Bruce T. Lehman and Robert L. Stelzl. Each member of the Audit Committee has been determined by the board to be independent within the meaning of the New York Stock Exchange's rules. The Audit Committee was formed on December 17, 2002 and held its first meeting on February 13, 2003.

Management Resources and Compensation Committee

The Management Resources and Compensation Committee is appointed by the board of directors to assist the board in carrying out its responsibilities by reviewing management resources and compensation issues and making recommendations to the board as appropriate. In particular, the Committee is responsible for discharging the board's responsibilities relating to the compensation of our executives. The Management Resources and Compensation Committee is currently comprised of the following three directors, a majority of whom are independent directors: J. Bruce Flatt (Chairman), Robert A. Ferchat and Robert L. Stelzl. The Management Resources and Compensation Committee was formed on December 17, 2002 and held its first meeting on February 13, 2003.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Management Resources and Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a written Management Resources and Compensation Committee Charter, which was approved and adopted by the board of directors. Pursuant to the Charter, the Committee presents the following report with respect to executive compensation.

Executive compensation is determined based on the relative roles and responsibilities of the executive as compared to other executives in the Company and in the homebuilding industry, as well as on the performance of the executive management team collectively in meeting the Company's goal of enhancing shareholder value. A specific objective of the Company is to attract and retain highly qualified and motivated individuals and to encourage a strong team approach. Accordingly, compensation levels are monitored to ensure they are competitive within the homebuilding industry and meet the Company's objectives.

The compensation arrangements of the Company for its senior executives are focused on rewarding performance and are comprised of three key components: base salary, short-term incentives and long-term share ownership. The Company emphasizes improving long-term shareholder value, represented by the growth in the value of the Company's common stock, as the principal measure of success of the Company.

Accordingly, the Company's compensation policies are designed to provide an overall competitive compensation package with a high proportion weighted to long-term share ownership in order to provide senior executives with opportunities to increase their ownership of the Company's common stock. This is achieved by maintaining base salaries and cash bonus awards for the most senior executives below the median level of total cash compensation in return for enhanced opportunities to participate in the growth in value of the Company's common stock. This results in stock options and deferred share units being allocated at a level higher than the median level for similar companies. These plans are more fully described below under Long-Term Share Ownership.

Base Salaries

Base salaries for the Company's executives are reviewed annually to ensure that they reflect the relative contribution of each executive within the team. The Company believes that base salaries for the most senior executives should be set below the median level for comparable companies within the homebuilding industry, in return for the opportunity for the executive to participate at a higher level in the long-term share ownership plans such as stock options and deferred share unit allocations. In order to foster a team-based approach, which the Company believes is fundamental to meeting its long-term objectives, the difference between the base salaries of the CEO and the other senior executives is significantly less than in other companies.

Short-Term Incentives

The Company's short-term incentive plan is comprised of a cash bonus award. Cash bonus awards are determined based primarily on the senior executive team's collective performance in meeting the Company's overall business plan objectives. Similar to the Company's philosophy towards Base Salaries, the difference between the cash bonus awards for the CEO and other senior executives is relatively small. The performance of the Company is measured by the achievement of financial and other objectives. The performance of the individual executive is also taken into account on a subjective basis. In order to further align management objectives with those of the shareholder, certain executives may elect to receive all or a portion of their annual bonus awards in deferred share units of the Company, as described below under Long-Term Share Ownership.

Table of Contents

Long-Term Share Ownership

Long-term share ownership plans are intended to reward management based on increases in the value of the Company's common stock. The purpose of these arrangements is to achieve a commonality of interest between shareholders and management and to motivate executives to improve the Company's long-term financial success, measured in terms of enhanced shareholder wealth over the long term.

The Company's long-term share ownership plans consist of two components:

- a) A stock option plan under which the Company may grant options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock at the market price on the day the options are granted. A maximum of two million shares are authorized for issuance under the plan. The timing of vesting of options granted under the plan is at the discretion of the Company's board of directors or the committee administering the plan. Upon exercise of a vested option and upon payment to the Company of the exercise price, participants will receive one share of the Company's common stock. The committee may permit participants to, rather than exercising an in-the-money option (in-the-money means the market value of shares under the option exceeds the exercise price of the options prior to related income taxes), receive an amount equal to the difference between the market price of the shares underlying the options and the exercise price of the option. The excess amount will be payable either in cash or by the Company issuing to the participant a number of shares calculated by dividing the excess by the market price of the underlying shares. The number of options granted to executives is determined based on a multiple of the executive's base salary ranging from 1.0 to 3.0 times, divided by the market price, plus a discretionary amount for performance.
- b) A deferred share unit plan under which certain of the Company's senior executives may, at their option, receive all or a portion of their annual bonus awards in the form of deferred share units. The annual bonus awards are converted to units based on the closing price of the Company's shares on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of the award. The portion of the annual bonus award elected to be received in units by the executive may, at the discretion of the board, be increased by a factor of up to two times for purposes of calculating the number of units to be allocated under the plan. An executive who holds units will receive additional units as dividends are paid on shares of the Company's common stock, on the same basis as if the dividends were reinvested. The units vest over a five year period and participants are only allowed to redeem the units upon cessation of employment through retirement, termination or death, after which time the units terminate unless redeemed no later than 12 months following such retirement, termination or death. The cash value of the units when redeemed will be equivalent to the closing price on the New York Stock Exchange of an equivalent number of shares of the Company's common stock at the time written notice of redemption is received.

There will be no shares of the Company's common stock issued, authorized, reserved, purchased or sold at any time in connection with units allocated. Under no circumstances will units be considered shares of common stock, or entitle any participant to the exercise of voting rights or to the exercise of any other rights arising from the ownership of shares of common stock.

2002 Compensation for Chief Executive Officer

Ian G. Cockwell's compensation for the Company's 2002 fiscal year consisted of an annual base salary, bonus and participation in the stock option plan and the deferred share unit plan. This compensation was set on the basis of the Company's executive compensation policy and the factors described above.
