Item 1. Description of Registrant's securities to be Registered Pursuant to Item 202 of Regulation S-B §228.202.

(a) Common or Preferred Stock.

1. Common Stock Dividend, Voting and Preemption Rights:

Federal Trust Corporation's (FTC) Articles of Incorporation do not provide for preemptive rights with respect to the issuance of shares. The holders of FTC common stock have sole voting rights on all matters required to be voted and acted upon by the shareholders. Holders of FTC common stock are entitled to receive dividends, if any, when and as declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available to pay dividends. Holders of FTC common stock do not have preemptive or other subscription rights, are not subject to further calls or assessments of FTC and upon liquidation are entitled to share ratably in the assets available for distribution to holders of FTC capital stock.

2. Preferred Stock, Dividend, Voting, Conversion and Liquidation Rights:

FTC's Articles of Incorporation do not authorize the issuance of preferred stock.

3. Other Material Rights of Common or Preferred Stockholders:

None.

4. Provisions that would delay, defer or prevent a change in control:

FTC's Articles of Incorporation provide for three one-year staggered terms for its directors, therefore, only one class of directors is subject to reelection in any one given year. Furthermore, the granting of voting rights to an individual who effects a Control Share Acquisition (as defined in Section 607.0902, Florida Statutes) or the approval of a business combination (such as a merger, share exchange, or bulk asset sale) requires a two-thirds vote of shareholders.

(b) Debt Securities:

FTC is not offering or registering debt securities.

(c) Other Securities to be Registered:

None.
