ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

Pitney Bowes Inc. (“PBI”) entered into a Stock and Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”), dated as of July 29, 2013, with Pitney Bowes Limited (“PB UK”), Pitney Bowes of Canada Ltd. (“PB Canada” and, together with PBI and PB UK, the “Sellers”), Pitney Bowes Management Services, Inc. (“PBMS”), Pitney Bowes Government Solutions, Inc. (“PBGS” and, together with PBMS, the “Companies”) and an affiliate (the “Buyer”) of Apollo Global Management, LLC (“Apollo”), pursuant to which the Sellers have agreed, among other things, to sell to the Buyer its management services business for $400 million in cash consideration, subject to certain adjustments.

The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement is subject to customary conditions, including the expiration or termination of any waiting period (and any extension thereof) under any applicable antitrust law and the absence of any government order or other legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement. In addition, the obligation of the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement is subject to the absence of any event, change or occurrence having occurred from the date of the Purchase Agreement that has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Purchase Agreement).

The Purchase Agreement contains provisions giving each of PBI and the Buyer rights to terminate the Purchase Agreement under specified circumstances, including if the closing has not occurred on or before December 31, 2013.

The Purchase Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Sellers, the Companies and the Buyer. The Purchase Agreement also contains indemnification provisions pursuant to which the Sellers have agreed to indemnify the Buyer against losses resulting from certain events, including breaches of representations and warranties and certain other pre-closing matters.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

PBI does not currently expect that the exit costs associated with the sale of the Companies to result in material charges.

The Purchase Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Sellers, the Companies or the Buyer or any of their respective businesses, subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement (a) were made by the parties thereto only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; (b) were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement; (c) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Purchase Agreement (such disclosures include information that has been included in public disclosures, as well as additional non-public information); (d) may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and (e) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Sellers, the Companies or the Buyer or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Additionally, the representations, warranties, covenants, conditions and other terms of the Purchase Agreement may be subject to subsequent waiver or modification. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in PBI's or Apollo's public disclosures. The Purchase Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company and Apollo that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other documents that are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This Item 1.01 contains statements that are forward-looking within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements, including statements concerning the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and the costs associated with the sale of the Companies, are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties and actual results could differ materially. Words such as “estimate”, “believe”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “intend”, and similar expressions may identify such forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On July 30, 2013, PBI issued a press release announcing the entry into the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Current Report.
