Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On September 26, 2012, ESSA Bancorp, Inc., (the “Company”) reported the prepayment by ESSA Bank & Trust of $37.0 million of longer term borrowings that had a weighted average cost of 4.22% and a weighted average remaining maturity of 45 months. The borrowings were repaid with a combination of cash on hand and additional short term borrowings. The balance sheet restructuring was executed in response to what the Company views as an extended period of low and/or declining interest rates as a result of the Federal Reserve Bank’s recently announced QE3 strategy. The restructuring is anticipated to save the Company approximately $5.8 million in interest expense, at current rates, over the next six fiscal years. The Company will realize a prepayment cost, before tax, of $4.6 million, or approximately $3.1 million after tax during the fourth quarter of its fiscal year ending September 30, 2012.
