Item 5. Other Events

On September 19, 2002 the Company issued a press release clarifying information contained in the Company's September 18, 2002 Form 8-K Current Report regarding an adverse Washington State appellate court decision. A copy of the press release is included as Exhibit 99.

In addition, the Company is providing the following information regarding this case in response to investor inquiries:

This judgment covers purchasers of several Behr coating products in nineteen counties with high humidity in the State of Washington. Behr was not able, due to the adverse trial court decision, to defend itself either with respect to liability or damages. This resulted from the trial court's sanction for Behr's failure to produce documents in discovery. The attorneys representing Behr at that time, who had been retained by Behr prior to its acquisition by Masco, have long since been replaced and Behr is vigorously defending itself against any liability and all damages in all other jurisdictions. All of the liability claims relate solely to alleged property damage and not to any health issues.
