PepsiCo, Inc. to Refile Hart-Scott-Rodino Premerger Notification

PURCHASE, N.Y., November 10, 2009 - PepsiCo (NYSE: PEP) announced today that it has withdrawn its notification and report forms filed with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) in order to provide the FTC with more time to review PepsiCo's proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock it does not already own in its two largest anchor bottlers, The Pepsi Bottling Group, Inc. (NYSE: PBG) and PepsiAmericas, Inc. (NYSE: PAS), under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (HSR Act). PepsiCo plans to refile at the appropriate time.

PepsiCo originally filed its notification and report forms on September 11, 2009 and refiled them on October 15, 2009. The current withdrawal and future refile of both its PBG and PAS notification and report forms will provide the FTC with more time to review the information submitted by PepsiCo without requiring a Request for Additional Information. PepsiCo will continue to respond to any informal requests by the staff of the FTC (Staff) to provide additional information about the businesses of PepsiCo, PBG and PAS and will continue to discuss the proposed transactions and answer any additional questions raised by the Staff. PepsiCo remains committed to working cooperatively with the FTC as it conducts its review of the proposed transactions and continues to expect to close both transactions by late 2009 or early 2010.
