Voting Restrictions under our Telecommunications Licenses

We provide our cellular services under a non-exclusive general license granted to us by the Ministry of Communications of the State of Israel. We also hold several other licenses for the provision of certain telecommunications services. According to our licenses, investors are prohibited from acquiring or transferring (alone or together with relatives or with other parties who collaborate on a regular basis) our Ordinary Shares, directly or indirectly (including by way of creating a pledge which if foreclosed, would result in the transfer of shares), in one transaction or a series of transactions, if such acquisition or transfer will result in a holding or transfer of 10% or more of any of our means of control, or from transferring any of our means of control if as a result of such transfer, control over our Company will be transferred from one party to another, without the prior approval of the Ministry of Communications. Our specific licenses also require approval of the Minister of Communications before acquiring the ability to exercise significant influence over us. In this context, holding 25% or more of our means of control is presumed to confer significant influence. In addition, according to our licenses, if you hold more than 5% of our means of control, you may not (i) hold, directly or indirectly, more than 5% of the means of control in Bezeq – The Israeli Telecommunications Corporation Ltd., or Bezeq, which is the incumbent landline operator in Israel, or in another cellular operator in Israel (subject to certain exceptions), (ii) serve as an office holder of one of our competitors, other than in specific circumstances and subject to the approval of the Ministry of Communications, or (iii) be party to any arrangement whatsoever with Bezeq or another cellular operator that is intended or is likely to restrict or harm competition in Israel in the field of cellular services, cellular handsets or other cellular services. For more details relating to these restrictions, please see “Item 4.B – Business Overview – Government Regulations—Our Principal License” and “Other Licenses” of our Annual Report for 2009 on Form 20-F, which we intend to file with the SEC on or about March 2, 2010, and our principal license, a convenience English translation of which is an exhibit to our Annual Reports. The holding and transfer restrictions under our licenses are posted on our website at www.cellcom.co.il under “Investor Relations – Corporate Governance – Company Profile - Legal & Corporate.”

As required under our license, our Articles of Association provide that any holdings of our Ordinary Shares that contravene the holding or transfer restrictions contained in our licenses will not be entitled to voting rights. In addition, our licenses and our Articles of Association require that as a condition to voting by any shareholders, in person or by proxy, at any meeting of shareholders, such shareholder must certify that his, her or its holdings of our Ordinary Shares do not contravene any of the restrictions contained in our licenses.

Since it is highly unlikely that any of the Company’s shareholders has lost the right to vote his, her or its Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Company’s licenses and to avoid confusion, the enclosed form of proxy includes a certification that your holdings of our Ordinary Shares do not contravene any of the holding or transfer restrictions set forth in our licenses. If your holdings of Ordinary Shares do so contravene, then you are not entitled to vote such shares and you should not sign or send the form of proxy. If only a portion of your holdings of Ordinary Shares so contravenes, you may be entitled to vote the portion that does not contravene. In that case, please contact the Company's General Counsel at +972-52-998-9595 for instructions on how to vote your non-contravening Ordinary Shares or, if you hold your shares in "street name", you may also contact the representative managing your account, who could then contact the Company on your behalf.

Share Ownership

The following table sets forth information regarding beneficial ownership of our shares as of December 31, 2009, by each person, or group of affiliated persons, known to us to be the beneficial owner of 5% or more of our outstanding shares.

In accordance with the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), beneficial ownership includes voting or investment power with respect to securities and includes any shares issuable pursuant to options that are exercisable within 60 days of December 31, 2009. Any shares issuable pursuant to options are deemed outstanding for computing the percentage of the person holding such options but are not outstanding for computing the percentage of any other person. Item 2 – Re-election of External Directors

Companies incorporated under the laws of the State of Israel whose shares have been offered to the public, such as the Company, are required by the Israeli Companies Law to appoint at least two external directors. To qualify as an external director, an individual or the individual's relative, partner, employer or any entity under the individual's control may not have, and may not have had at any time during the previous two years, any affiliations with the Company or any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Company. In addition, no individual may serve as an external director if the individual's position or other activities create or may create a conflict of interest with his or her role as an external director. For a period of two years from termination of an external director's service, the Company may not appoint such former external director as a director or employee of the Company or receive professional services from such former external director for pay.

Pursuant to the Companies Law, the external directors are required to be elected by the shareholders for a term of three years which may be renewed for another three-year term. Further extensions are possible under certain conditions. All of the external directors of a company must be members of its Audit Committee and each other committee of a company's board of directors which is authorized to exercise powers of the board of directors must include at least one external director. Our external directors are also considered independent directors under the rules of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act applicable to audit committee members.

Our external directors, Ronit Baytel and Joseph Barnea, were elected to our board of directors in the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders for an initial term of three years, which shall end on May 8, 2010. On February 23, 2010, our Board of Directors nominated Ronit Baytel and Joseph Barnea for re-election as external directors for an additional term of three years. Our Board of Directors confirmed that each of these nominees possesses the professional qualifications required under the Companies Law and designated Ms. Baytel as our “audit committee financial expert” under the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act and SEC rules.

The remuneration for external directors is established by regulations promulgated under the Companies Law. Our Board of Directors designated each of our external Directors as an "Expert External Director", as defined in the such regulations, and resolved that we shall pay our external directors an annual fee of NIS 126,900 (approximately $33,616) and a meeting attendance fee of NIS 4,880 (approximately $1,293), payable in accordance with the aforesaid regulations to "Expert External Director", as adjusted for changes in the Israeli CPI since December 2007 (which
