The RBS US Large Cap Trendpilot(TM) ETN provides exposure to the SandP 500(R) Total Return Index or the yield on 3-month US Treasury bills using a systematic strategy. By moving in and out of tracking the SandP 500(R) Total Return Index according to an objective and transparent methodology, the RBS US Large Cap Trendpilot(TM) ETN provides exposure to equities in positive trending markets, and exposure to 3-month US Treasury bills in negative trending markets. Now, that's a trend worth following.
