Dear Sirs

We have acted as solicitors in Scotland for Lloyds Banking Group plc (the Guarantor) in connection with the issue and sale by Lloyds TSB Bank plc (the Issuer) of U.S.$24,500,000 Senior Callable Step-Up Fixed-Rate Notes due 17 February 2027 (the Notes).

The Notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the Guarantor (the Guarantee and together with the Notes, the Securities) and are issued under the shelf registration statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including the base prospectus filed on 22 December 2010 and the prospectus supplement filed on 6 June 2011.

The Securities are to be offered pursuant to (i) the U.S. distribution agreement dated as of 6 June 2011 (the Base Distribution Agreement) among the Issuer, the Guarantor and the selling agents named therein and (ii) the terms agreement dated as of February 10, 2012 (the Terms Agreement and, together with the Base Distribution Agreement, the Applicable Agreement) among the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant selling agent. The Securities have been issued, or are to be issued, pursuant to a Senior Debt Securities Indenture dated as of 21 January 2011 between the Issuer, the Guarantor and The Bank of New York Mellon, acting through its London branch, as trustee (the Trustee), as supplemented by the first supplemental indenture dated as of 6 June 2011 among the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Trustee (the Indenture).

We, as your solicitors, have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records, certificates of public officials and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purposes of rendering this opinion.

On the basis of the foregoing, we advise you that, in our opinion, the Guarantee has been duly authorized in accordance with the Indenture, and, when the Notes have been (a) executed and authenticated, and the Guarantee executed and endorsed thereon, in accordance with the Indenture, and (b) delivered to and duly paid for by the purchasers thereof in accordance with the terms of the Applicable Agreement, the Guarantee will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Guarantor, enforceable against the Guarantor in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally (including the Banking Act 2009 and any secondary legislation, instruments or orders made, or which may be made, under it) and equitable principles of general applicability.

The foregoing opinion is limited to the laws of Scotland. We have made no investigation of the laws of any jurisdiction other than Scotland and neither express nor imply any opinion as to any other laws and in particular the laws of the laws of the State of New York and the laws of the United States of America and our opinion is subject to such laws including the matters stated in the opinion of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP. The laws of the State of New York are the chosen governing law of the Guarantee, and we have assumed that the Guarantee constitutes valid, binding and enforceable obligations of the Guarantor, enforceable against the Guarantor in accordance with its terms, under such laws.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to a report on Form 6-K to be filed by the Guarantor on the date hereof. In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

This opinion is rendered solely to you in connection with the above matter. This opinion may not be relied upon by you for any other purpose or relied upon by or furnished to any other person without our prior written consent.

Yours faithfully

Dear Sirs

LLOYDS TSB BANK PLC (the “Issuer”) US$24,500,000 Senior Callable Step-Up Fixed-Rate Notes due February 17, 2027 (the “Notes”) issued pursuant to the shelf registration statement, including post-effective amendment no.1 thereto, filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), on 22 December 2010 (the “Programme”).

- 1 We have acted as English legal advisers to the Issuer in connection with the issue of the Notes and have taken instructions solely from the Issuer.
- 2 This opinion is limited to English law as applied by the English courts and is given on the basis that it will be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. In particular, we express no opinion herein with regard to any system of law (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Scots law, the federal laws of the United States of America and the laws of the State of New York) other than the laws of England as currently applied by the English courts.
- 3 For the purpose of this opinion we have examined the documents listed and, where appropriate, defined in the Schedule to this opinion.

4 We have assumed that:

- 4.1 (except in the case of the Issuer) all relevant documents are within the capacity and powers of, and have been validly authorised by, each party;
- 4.2 (in the case of each party) all relevant documents have been or (in the case of the Notes) will be validly executed and delivered by the relevant party;
- 4.3 the Notes and the Senior Indenture are valid and binding under New York law and that words and phrases used in the Notes and the Senior Indenture have the same meaning and effect as they would if the Notes and the Senior Indenture were governed by English law; and Linklaters LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England and Wales with registered number OC326345. It is a law firm authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority. The term partner in relation to Linklaters LLP is used to refer to a member of Linklaters LLP or an employee or consultant of Linklaters LLP or any of its affiliated firms or entities with equivalent standing and qualifications. A list of the names of the members of Linklaters LLP together with a list of those non-members who are designated as partners and their professional qualifications is open to inspection at its registered office, One Silk Street, London EC2Y 8HQ or on www.linklaters.com and such persons are either solicitors, registered foreign lawyers or European lawyers.

was present and acting throughout and the resolutions referred to in the minutes were duly and validly passed and have not been amended, modified or rescinded.

- 5 References in this opinion to the “Notes” include the global certificates representing the Notes upon issue unless the context indicates otherwise.
- 6 Based on the documents referred to, and assumptions made, in paragraphs 3 and 4 above and subject to the qualifications in paragraph 8 below and to any matters not disclosed to us, we are of the following opinion:
  - 6.1 The Issuer has taken all necessary corporate action to authorise its execution, delivery and performance of the Notes and provided that each Note is executed and delivered as provided in the minutes and sealing memo referred to in the Schedule hereto and the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Issuer, the Issuer will have duly authorised, executed and delivered the Notes.
  - 6.2 In so far as English law is concerned, the obligations assumed by the Issuer under the Notes are valid and binding obligations of the Issuer.
  - 7 The term “binding” as used above means that the obligations assumed by the Issuer under the Notes are of a type which the English courts enforce. It does not mean that those obligations will necessarily be enforced in all circumstances in accordance with their terms. In particular:
    - 7.1 Enforcement may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency and liquidation, (b) reorganisation and (c) laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights of creditors.
    - 7.2 Enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity - for example, equitable remedies may not be available where damages are considered to be an adequate remedy.
    - 7.3 Claims may become barred under the Limitation Act 1980 or may be or become subject to set-off or counterclaim.
- 8 This opinion is subject to the following:
  - 8.1 An English court may, or may be required to, stay proceedings or decline jurisdiction in certain circumstances - for example, if proceedings are brought elsewhere.
  - 8.2 Effect may be given to the overriding mandatory provisions of the law of the country where the obligations arising out of a contract have to be performed, in so far as those provisions render the performance of the contract unlawful. In such circumstances, the relevant obligations may not be enforceable.
  - 8.3 This opinion is subject to the provisions of the Banking Act 2009 and any secondary legislation, instruments and orders made, or which may be made, under it.
- 9 This opinion is given on the basis that there will be no amendment to or termination or replacement of the documents, authorisations, consents and opinions referred to in the Schedule to this opinion and on the basis of English law in force as at the date of this opinion. This opinion is also given on the basis that we undertake no responsibility to notify any addressee of this opinion of any change in English law after the date of this opinion.
- 10 This opinion is addressed to you solely for your benefit in connection with the issue of the Notes, save as provided below. It is not to be transmitted to anyone else nor is it to be relied upon by anyone else or for any other purpose or quoted or referred to in any public document or filed with anyone without our express consent.

11 We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to a report on Form 6-K to be submitted by Lloyds Banking Group plc (the "Guarantor") on the date hereof. In giving this consent we do not admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required within section 7 of the United States Securities Act of 1933 or the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder.

Yours faithfully

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special United States counsel for Lloyds TSB Bank plc, a public limited company organized under the laws of England and Wales (the “Issuer”), and Lloyds Banking Group plc, a public limited company organized under the laws of Scotland (the “Guarantor”), in connection with the Issuer’s offering of U.S.$24,500,000 aggregate principal amount of its Senior Callable Step-Up Fixed-Rate Notes due February 17, 2027 (the “Notes”), which are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the Guarantor (the “Guarantee,” and together with the Notes, the “Securities”). The Securities are to be offered pursuant to (i) the U.S. distribution agreement dated as of June 6, 2011 (the “Base Distribution Agreement”) among the Issuer, the Guarantor and the selling agents named therein and (ii) the terms agreement dated as of February 10, 2012 (the “Terms Agreement” and, together with the Base Distribution Agreement, the “Applicable Agreement”) among the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant selling agent. The Securities have been issued, or are to be issued, pursuant to the provisions of the senior debt securities indenture dated as of January 21, 2011 (the “Senior Indenture”) among the Issuer, the Guarantor and The Bank of New York Mellon, acting through its London Branch, as trustee (the “Trustee”), as supplemented by the first supplemental indenture dated as of June 6, 2011 among the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Trustee (the “First Supplemental Indenture”, and together with the Senior Indenture, the “Indenture”).

We, as your special United States counsel, have examined the originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction of such corporate records of the Issuer and the Guarantor and such other documents and certificates as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinion hereinafter expressed.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, assuming that the Securities have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer insofar as English law is concerned and by the Guarantor insofar as Scots law is concerned, the Securities, when executed and authenticated in accordance with the Indenture and delivered to and paid for in accordance with the terms of the Applicable Agreement, will be valid and binding obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantor entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, enforceable against the Issuer and the Guarantor in accordance with their terms. Our opinion is subject to the effects of applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally, concepts of reasonableness and equitable principles of general applicability (including without limitation, concepts of good faith, fair dealing and the lack of bad faith).

We are members of the Bar of the State of New York, and we express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States. Insofar as the foregoing opinion involves matters governed by Scots law, we have relied, without independent investigation, on the opinion of Dundas & Wilson CS LLP, special legal counsel in Scotland for the Issuer and the Guarantor, dated as of February 17, 2012, to be filed on Form 6-K concurrently with this opinion, and our opinion is subject to the qualifications, assumptions and limitations set forth therein. Insofar as the foregoing opinion involves matters governed by English law, we have relied, without independent investigation, on the opinion of Linklaters LLP, special legal counsel in England for the Issuer and the Guarantor, dated as of February 17, 2012, to be filed on Form 6-K concurrently with this opinion, and our opinion is subject to the qualifications, assumptions and limitations set forth therein.

In rendering the opinion above, we have assumed that the Trustee is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization. In addition, we have assumed that the execution, delivery and performance of the Indenture (1) are within the corporate powers of the Trustee, (2) do not contravene, or constitute a default under, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other constitutive documents of the Trustee, (3) require no action by or in respect of, or filing with, any governmental body, agency or official and (4) do not contravene, or constitute a default under, any provision of applicable law or regulation or any judgment, injunction, order or decree or any agreement or other instrument binding upon the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Trustee, and that the Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Trustee and that the Indenture is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement of the Trustee.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to a report on Form 6-K to be filed by the Guarantor on the date hereof. In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

This opinion is rendered solely to you in connection with the above matter. This opinion may not be relied upon by you for any other purpose or relied upon by or furnished to any other person without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP
