Item 2.06 Material Impairments

The execution of the agreement related to First Horizon Insurance, Inc. announced today in Exhibit 99.1 to this report has caused First Horizon National Corporation (FHN) to recognize a charge for impairment of goodwill which presently is estimated to be approximately $10 million. This impairment charge will be recognized in the first quarter of 2011. The transaction is expected to close in the second quarter of 2011, with a post-closing adjustment occurring thereafter. The impairment is not expected to result in future cash expenditures.

The estimated impact to FHN's net income available to common shareholders from the First Horizon Insurance transaction, inclusive of the impairment mentioned above along with other elements of the transaction, is expected to be approximately positive $3 million, to be recognized in the first quarter.

This report, including its exhibit, contains forward-looking statements involving significant risks and uncertainties. In this report those statements are denoted by the use of estimate, expect, approximately, and words of similar import. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking information. Those factors include general economic and financial market conditions, including expectations of and actual timing and amount of interest rate movements including the slope of the yield curve, competition, customer and investor responses to these conditions, ability to execute business plans, geopolitical developments, recent and future legislative and regulatory developments, natural disasters, and items already mentioned in this report and its exhibit, as well as critical accounting estimates and other factors described in FHN's recent filings with the SEC. Except as required by SEC rules pertaining to FHN's duty to file or furnish information in reports on Forms 8-K, 10-Q, or 10-K, FHN disclaims any obligation to update any such factors or to publicly announce the result of any revisions to any of the forward-looking statements included herein to reflect future events or developments.

Item 8.01 Other Events

Filed as Exhibit 99.1 is a copy of FHN's press release which was issued March 31, 2011.
