Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Purchase Agreement

General. On October 11, 2008, Castle Brands Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a Series A Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Frost Gamma Investments Trust, Vector Group Ltd., I.L.A.R. S.p.A., Halpryn Group IV, LLC, Lafferty Limited, Jacqueline Simkin Trust As Amended and Restated 12/16/2003, Hsu Gamma Investment, L.P., MZ Trading LLC and Richard J. Lampen (collectively, the Purchasers), providing for the issuance and sale of $15,000,000 (the Purchase Price) of the Company 's Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A Preferred Stock), an aggregate of 1,200,000 shares, at a purchase price of $12.50 per share (which is, in effect upon conversion, $0.35 per share of the Company 's common stock (Common Stock)). Each share of Series A Preferred Stock will, as described below, be automatically converted into shares of Common Stock at a rate of 35.7143 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series A Preferred Stock, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Certificate of Designation of the Series A Preferred Stock (the Certificate of Designation).

$2 Million Promissory Note. On or about October 15, 2008, Frost Gamma Investments Trust will advance $2,000,000 to the Company under a Promissory Note issued by the Company to Frost Gamma Investments Trust (the Note). The entire amount of this advance and all accrued interest thereon will be offset against the portion of the Purchase Price payable by Frost Gamma Investments Trust at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement (the Closing), which will occur on Monday, October 20, 2008. The Note bears interest at a rate equal to 10% per annum, calculated on the basis of a 360-day year based on the number of days elapsed including the first day. The Note is due and payable at Closing, but would become immediately due and payable in full upon the Company 's (i) failure to pay in full the outstanding balance plus accrued interest by maturity, (ii) breach of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in the Purchase Agreement or any other agreements executed by the Company in connection therewith or (iii) bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, dissolution or winding up, readjustment of its debts or other similar proceedings.

Release from Escrow. All transaction deliverables are being held in escrow until Closing. At Closing, all transaction deliverables will be released from escrow and delivered to the appropriate parties, and the Purchasers will deliver the Purchase Price to the Company and receive the shares of Series A Preferred Stock purchased. The issuance of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock will be made pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Board Composition. As described in more detail in Items 5.01 and 5.02 hereof, in connection with and as required by the Purchase Agreement, upon execution of the Purchase Agreement, four of the Company 's nine directors resigned and were replaced with four directors designated by the Purchasers.

Stockholder Meeting. As provided by the Purchase Agreement, the Company 's stockholders will be asked to vote on the following at a special meeting that will be held on a date to be announced (the Stockholder Proposals):

- amendments to the Company 's charter to increase the authorized shares of the Company to 250,000,000 shares, 225,000,000 shares of which will be designated as Common Stock and 25,000,000 shares of which will be designated as preferred stock, and to permit stockholders to act by written consent and the election of a to be determined number of directors designated by the Purchasers as the sole directors comprising the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board).

Conversion of Series A Preferred Stock. The Purchasers will vote in favor of the foregoing proposals. After the amendment to the Company s charter to increase its authorized shares is approved by stockholders, each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock will be automatically converted into 35.7143 shares of Common Stock.

Conversion and/or Amendment of Notes. In addition, concurrently with the Closing, (a) all of the Company s 6% convertible notes, in the principal amount of $9 million, due March 1, 2010, plus accrued interest, will be converted into shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a per share price of $23.21 (which is, in effect upon conversion, $0.65 per share of Common Stock) and (b) substantially all of the outstanding principal of the Company s 9% senior secured notes, in the principal amount of $10 million, due May 31, 2009, plus accrued interest, will be converted into shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a per share price of $12.50 (which is, in effect upon conversion, $0.35 per share of Common Stock), and the remaining unconverted notes (in the principal amount of $300,000) will be amended so that, among other things, (i) the maturity date will be extended to May 31, 2014, (ii) the interest rate will be reduced to 3%, payable at maturity, and (iii) the security interest in the collateral of the Company will be terminated. Following the Closing, holders of Series A Preferred Stock (comprised of the investors and the converting note holders, many of which are current stockholders of the Company) will own, excluding present ownership, approximately 85% of the Common Stock on an as-converted basis.

Board and Special Committee Approval. The Purchase Agreement was unanimously approved by the members of the Board, upon the recommendation of a Special Committee thereof comprised of independent directors. The Company engaged Miller Buckfire & Co., LLC to conduct a broad and comprehensive search for financing and strategic transactions. Over the course of that search, more than 140 contacts were made with strategic investors, industry participants and alternate financing sources, and the company reviewed and analyzed a number of potential transactions.

Representations and Warranties; Covenants. The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties by the Company and the Purchasers. The Purchase Agreement also contains customary covenants and agreements, including with respect to the operation of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries between signing and the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, governmental filings and approvals, public disclosures and similar matters. Until the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock into Common Stock, the Company must conduct its business in the ordinary course and use its best efforts to preserve its business organization and significant business relationships. In addition, the Company cannot (except in certain cases in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice) take a number of specified actions that are customarily prohibited pending a closing.

Table of Contents

The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties that the parties have made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the parties, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to stockholders, and the representations and warranties may have been intended not as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk among the parties. Accordingly, they should not be relied on as statements of factual information. Stockholders are not third-party beneficiaries under the Purchase Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or its subsidiaries.

Indemnification. The Company must indemnify each Purchaser against losses relating to (i) any breach of the Company's representations or covenants or (ii) any claim brought against the Purchasers by a third party, arising out of or resulting from the execution, delivery, performance or enforcement of the transaction documents or the status of the Purchasers as holders of the Company's shares. No Purchaser will be entitled to indemnification unless the amount of loss exceeds $50,000, and the Company's maximum liability will not exceed the Purchase Price.

Fees and Expenses. The Company must pay the Purchasers' expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, including $250,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses payable to Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. (Ladenburg), the financial adviser to the Purchasers. In addition, the Company must pay the fees of Miller Buckfire & Co., LLC, which acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the transaction, which fees consist of $500,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses.

Certificate of Designation of Series A Preferred Stock

The Certificate of Designation, which was filed with and accepted by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on October 9, 2008, establishes the rights, designations, preferences, qualifications, privileges, limitations and restrictions of the Series A Preferred Stock.

Dividends. Dividends may be paid on the Common Stock only if dividends are paid on the Series A Preferred Stock in an amount for each such share of Series A Preferred Stock equal to or greater than the aggregate amount of such dividends for all shares of the Common Stock into which each such share of Series A Preferred Stock could then be converted.

Preference on Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, the assets of the Company available for distribution to stockholders will be distributed as follows:

First, the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive, before any payment is made to holders of the Common Stock or any other junior securities, $0.01 per share of Series A Preferred Stock.

If the foregoing is insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full preferential amounts described above, then all of the Company's assets will be distributed ratably among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock in proportion to the amount of such Series A Preferred Stock owned by each such holder.

Table of Contents

After paying in full the preferential amounts due the holders of Series A Preferred Stock, the remaining assets of the Company, if any, will be distributed among the holders of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each such holder, on an as-converted basis.

Voting. Holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the Company's stockholders on an as-converted basis. Except as otherwise required by law, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Common Stock will vote together as a single class, and not as separate classes.

Automatic Conversion. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock will automatically be converted into shares of Common Stock, at the then effective conversion rate, upon the filing of an amendment to the Company's charter, which, once effective, makes available a sufficient number of authorized but unissued and unreserved shares of the Common Stock to permit all then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted. The conversion rate is 35.7143 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series A Preferred Stock, and is subject to customary adjustment for dilutive issuances.

Indemnification Agreements

Also on October 11, 2008, the Company entered into an identical indemnification agreement with each member of the Board (the Indemnification Agreements). The Indemnification Agreements provide that the Company will indemnify each such director to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law if he becomes a party to or is threatened with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of his service as a director of the Company. The Indemnification Agreements also provide that the Company will advance, if requested by an indemnified person, any and all expenses incurred in connection with any such proceeding, subject to reimbursement by the indemnified person should a final judicial determination be made that indemnification is not available under applicable law. The Indemnification Agreements further provide that if the Company maintains directors' and officers' liability coverage, each indemnified person shall be included in such coverage to the maximum extent of the coverage available for the Company's directors.

Other Matters

According to the Company Guide of the NYSE Alternext US LLC (formerly known as the American Stock Exchange), consummating the proposed transaction would ordinarily require the approval of the Company's stockholders. Pursuant to Section 710(b) of the NYSE Alternext US LLC's Company Guide, the Company has sought and received from NYSE Alternext US LLC a financial viability exception from obtaining such stockholder approval. The Audit Committee of the Board, which is comprised solely of independent directors, has expressly approved the Company's reliance on this exception, and the proposed transaction has been unanimously approved by the Board.

The foregoing description of each of the Purchase Agreement, the Note, the Certificate of Designation and the Indemnification Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, the Note, the Certificate of Designation and the Indemnification Agreements, as applicable, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 3.1 and 10.3 hereto, respectively, and are incorporated in this report by reference. The Company's press release announcing the above transactions, issued on October 13, 2008, is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The terms of the Frost Credit Agreement enabled the Company to borrow up to $5.0 million. As of the execution of the Purchase Agreement, no amounts were outstanding under the Frost Credit Agreement. Dr. Phillip Frost controls Frost Gamma Investments Trust, a Purchaser, and Frost Nevada Investments Trust. Prior to the execution of the Purchase Agreement, affiliates of Dr. Frost beneficially owned in excess of 5% of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock, and, effective upon the execution of the Purchase Agreement, Dr. Frost was appointed as a member of the Board (see Item 5.02 below).
