Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Mylan Inc. (the Company) entered into an indenture, dated as of November 24, 2010 (the Indenture), among the Company, the guarantors named therein and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee, which governs the terms of the Company's $800 million 6.0% Senior Notes due 2018 (the Notes).

The Notes were issued in a private offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A and to persons outside of the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes are the Company's senior unsecured obligations and are guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries.

The Notes bear interest at a rate of 6.0% per year, accruing from November 24, 2010. Interest on the Notes is payable semiannually in arrears on May 15 and November 15 of each year, beginning on May 15, 2011. The Notes will mature on November 15, 2018, subject to earlier repurchase or redemption in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

The Company may redeem some or all of the Notes at any time prior to November 15, 2014, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date and an applicable make-whole premium set forth in the Indenture. On or after November 15, 2014, the Company may redeem some or all of the Notes of such series at redemption prices set forth in the Indenture, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date. In addition, at any time prior to November 15, 2013, the Company may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a specified redemption price set forth in the Indenture with the net cash proceeds of certain equity offerings. If the Company experiences certain change of control events, it must offer to repurchase the Notes at 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the repurchase date.

The Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, restrict the Company's ability and the ability of certain of its subsidiaries to incur indebtedness or issue certain preferred equity; enter into sale-leaseback transactions; pay dividends, redeem stock or make other distributions or restricted payments; make certain investments; agree to payment restrictions on the Company's subsidiaries; sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of assets, including equity interests of the Company's subsidiaries; enter into transactions with affiliates; create liens; designate subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries; and consolidate, merge or sell substantially all of the Company's assets. These covenants are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications, including the fall away or revision of certain of these covenants as they relate to the Notes upon receiving investment grade credit ratings.

The Company intends to use the gross proceeds of the Notes offering to repay a portion of the U.S. dollar-denominated Tranche B Term Loans under its senior secured credit facility, thereby reducing senior secured leverage and extending the maturity profile of its outstanding indebtedness. The weighted average interest rate applicable to the borrowings being repaid, after giving effect to any interest rate hedging, was 4.70% as of September 30, 2010.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete terms of the Indenture, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 hereto, and the Notes, the form of which are contained in Exhibit 4.1, all of which are incorporated herein by reference.
