ITEM 1. BUSINESS.

COMPANY OVERVIEW

General Mills, Inc. was incorporated in Delaware in 1928. The terms "General Mills," "Company" and "Registrant" mean General Mills, Inc. and its subsidiaries unless the context indicates otherwise.

The Company is a leading producer of packaged consumer foods and operates exclusively in the consumer foods industry. The Company's multiple operating segments are organized generally by product categories. Following the acquisition of The Pillsbury Company (described below), the Company restructured its management organization and aggregated its businesses into three reportable segments: 1) U.S. Retail; 2) Bakeries and Foodservice; and 3) International. U.S. Retail consists of cereals, meals, refrigerated and frozen dough products, baking products, snacks, yogurt and health venture activities. The Bakeries and Foodservice segment consists of products marketed to retail and wholesale bakeries and offered to the commercial and non-commercial foodservice sectors throughout the United States and Canada, such as restaurants and school cafeterias. The International segment is made up of retail business outside the United States and foodservice business outside of the United States and Canada. A more detailed description of the product categories for each reportable segment is set forth below.

On October 31, 2001, General Mills completed the acquisition of the worldwide businesses of The Pillsbury Company from Diageo plc ("Diageo") in a stock and cash transaction that included 134 million shares of General Mills common stock, together with cash paid to Diageo and assumed debt of Pillsbury totaling $3,830 million. On November 1, 2001, under the terms of a stockholders agreement, Diageo exercised a put option to sell to General Mills 55 million shares of General Mills common stock at a price of $42.14 per share. The 79 million shares of General Mills common stock retained by Diageo were valued at $3,576 million. Therefore, the total stock consideration was $5,894 million, and the total acquisition consideration was approximately $9,724 million. In addition to the payments described above, General Mills may be required to pay Diageo, on April 30, 2003, up to $395 million, depending on General Mills' stock price and the number of General Mills shares that Diageo continues to hold on that date. If the average of the daily high and low price per share of the Company's stock for the 20 full trading days preceding April 30, 2003 is less than $49 per share, Diageo will receive an amount per share equal to the difference between $49 and the General Mills stock price, up to a maximum of $5 per share. If the Company's stock price is $49 per share or more, Diageo will not receive any additional payment. For a more detailed description of the Pillsbury acquisition, please see Note Two to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing on pages 33 through 35 of the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Stockholders which is filed as Exhibit 13 to this Form 10-K/A and incorporated herein by reference.

Since the completion of the acquisition, activities related to the integration of Pillsbury and the Company have included combining selling organizations, merging benefit plans and payroll systems, combining all U.S. businesses under a single invoicing system and reconfiguring certain manufacturing facilities. The integration of the Pillsbury businesses and operations will continue throughout fiscal 2003.

The Company's combination with Pillsbury is expected to produce cost synergies of $350 million in fiscal 2003 and $475 million by the end of the second full year of integration.

In order to obtain regulatory clearance for the acquisition of Pillsbury, the Company arranged to divest certain businesses. On November 13, 2001, International Multifoods Corporation (IMC) purchased the Pillsbury dessert and specialty products businesses as well as certain General Mills' brands and the General Mills' Toledo, Ohio production facilities for $316 million. After-tax cash proceeds from this transaction were used to reduce the debt incurred in the Pillsbury acquisition. Pursuant to the agreement with IMC, General Mills also agreed to purchase and install certain equipment and to convert the Toledo production facility to produce the dessert and specialty products for the divested businesses at an estimated cost to General Mills of $70 million, of which $47 million has been expended through May 26, 2002.

In addition, Pillsbury had a 50 percent equity interest in Ice Cream Partners USA LLC (ICP), a joint venture Pillsbury formed with Nestle USA during fiscal 2000 for the manufacture, marketing and distribution of Haagen-Dazs and Nestle ice cream products in the United States. On December 26, 2001, Nestle USA exercised its right, triggered by the change of ownership of Pillsbury, to buy the 50 percent stake of ICP that it did not already own. Nestle USA paid General Mills approximately $641 million for its 50 percent of the joint venture and a long-term, paid-in-full license for the Haagen-Dazs brand in the United States.

BUSINESS SEGMENTS

U.S. RETAIL

In the United States, General Mills markets its retail products primarily through its own sales organization, supported by advertising and other promotional activities. These products primarily are distributed directly to retail food chains, cooperatives, membership stores and wholesalers. Certain food products, such as yogurt and some refrigerated products, are sold through distributors and brokers. The Company's principal product categories in the U.S. Retail segment are as follows:

Big G Cereals. General Mills produces and sells a number of ready-to-eat cereals, including such brands as: Cheerios, Honey Nut Cheerios, Frosted Cheerios, Apple Cinnamon Cheerios, Multi-Grain Cheerios, Team Cheerios, Wheaties, Wheaties Raisin Bran, Frosted Wheaties, Wheaties Energy Crunch, Lucky Charms, Total Corn Flakes, Whole Grain Total, Total Raisin Bran, Brown Sugar and Oat Total, Trix, Golden Grahams, Wheat Chex, Corn Chex, Rice Chex, Multi-Bran

Chex, Honey Nut Chex, Kix, Berry Berry Kix, Fiber One, Reese's Puffs, Cocoa Puffs, NesQuik, Cookie Crisp, Cinnamon Toast Crunch, French Toast Crunch, Clusters, Raisin Nut Bran, Oatmeal Crisp, Basic 4, and Harmony. The Company also offers Big G Milk 'n Cereal Bars in four flavors. In 2002, the Company introduced Frosted Mini Chex and Chex Morning Mix, a portable cereal in a single-serve pouch.

Meals. General Mills manufactures and sells several lines of convenient dinner products, including Betty Crocker dry packaged dinner mixes under the Hamburger Helper, Tuna Helper and Chicken Helper trademarks, and a line of refrigerated barbeque products under the Lloyd's Barbeque name. Also under the Betty Crocker trademark, the Company sells dry packaged specialty potatoes, Potato Buds instant mashed potatoes, Suddenly Salad and Bac*O's salad topping. The Company also manufactures and markets shelf stable microwavable meals under the Bowl Appetit! trademark. With the acquisition of Pillsbury, the Company has added Old El Paso Mexican foods and dinner kits, Progresso soups and ingredients and Green Giant canned and frozen vegetables and meal starters to its convenient meal products.

Pillsbury USA. General Mills manufactures and sells refrigerated and frozen dough products, frozen breakfast products and frozen pizza and snack products through the Pillsbury USA division. Refrigerated dough products marketed under the Pillsbury brand include Grands! biscuits and sweet rolls, Big Country and Golden Layers biscuits, Pillsbury Ready to Bake and Big Deluxe Classics cookies, and Pillsbury rolls, biscuits, cookies, breads and pie crust. Frozen dough product offerings include Home Baked Classics biscuits, rolls and other bakery goods. Breakfast products sold under the Pillsbury trademark include Toaster Strudel, Toaster Scrambles and Pillsbury frozen pancakes and waffles. All the breakfast and refrigerated and frozen dough products incorporate the well-known Doughboy logo. Frozen pizza and snack products are marketed under the Totino's and Jenos trademarks.

Baking Products. General Mills makes and sells a line of dessert mixes under the Betty Crocker trademark, including SuperMoist cake mixes, Rich & Creamy and Soft Whipped ready-to-spread frostings, Supreme brownie and dessert bar mixes, muffin mixes and other mixes used to prepare dessert and baking items. The Company markets a variety of baking mixes under the Bisquick trademark, sells pouch mixes under the Betty Crocker name, and produces family flour under the Gold Medal brand introduced in 1880.

Snacks. General Mills markets Pop*Secret microwave popcorn; a line of grain snacks including Nature Valley granola bars; a line of fruit snacks including Fruit Roll-Ups, Fruit By The Foot and Gushers; a line of snack mix products including Chex Mix and Gardetto's snack mix; and savory snacks marketed under the name Bugles.

Yoplait-Colombo/Health Ventures. General Mills manufactures and sells yogurt products, including Yoplait Original, Yoplait Light, Custard Style, Trix, Yumsters, Go-GURT, yogurt in a tube for children, and Expresse, an adult-oriented yogurt packaged in a portable tube. In fiscal 2002, the Company also introduced Yoplait Whips!, a mousse-like yogurt and Yoplait Nouriche, a meal replacement yogurt drink. The Company also manufactures and sells a variety of refrigerated cup yogurt products under the Colombo brand name. As part of its health ventures activities, General Mills markets organic frozen fruits and vegetables, meals and entrees, a wide variety of canned tomato products including tomatoes and spaghetti sauce, frozen juice concentrates, fruit spreads, and frozen desserts under its Cascadian Farm and Muir Glen trademarks.

BAKERIES AND FOODSERVICE

General Mills markets mixes and unbaked, par-baked and fully baked dough products to retail, supermarket and wholesale bakeries under the Pillsbury and Gold Medal trademarks. In addition, General Mills sells flour to bakery, foodservice and manufacturing customers. The Company also markets dough products, branded baking mixes, cereals, snacks, dinner and side dish products, refrigerated and soft-serve frozen yogurt, and custom products to outlets like restaurants, including quick serve restaurants, school cafeterias, convenience stores and vending companies.

INTERNATIONAL

The Company's international businesses consist of operations and sales in Canada, Latin America, Europe and Asia/Pacific. Outside the U.S., the Company's products are manufactured in 16 countries and distributed in over 100 countries. In Canada, the Company markets products in many categories, including cereals, meals, refrigerated dough products, baking products and snacks. Outside of North America, the Company offers numerous local brands in addition to such internationally recognized brands as Haagen-Dazs ice cream, Old El Paso Mexican foods, Green Giant vegetables, Pillsbury dough products and mixes, Betty Crocker mixes and Bugles snacks. The Company also sells mixes and dough products to bakery and foodservice customers outside of the United States and Canada. These international businesses are managed through wholly owned subsidiaries and joint ventures with sales and marketing organizations in 32 countries.

Additional geographic information is incorporated herein by reference from Note 18 to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing on pages 58 through 60 of the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Stockholders filed as Exhibit 13 to this Form 10-K/A.

JOINT VENTURES

In addition to its consolidated operations, the Company manufactures and sells products through several joint ventures.

Domestic Joint Ventures. The Company has a 50 percent equity interest in 8th Continent, LLC, a joint venture formed with DuPont to develop and market soy foods and beverages. This venture began marketing a line of 8th Continent soymilk in July 2001.

International Joint Ventures. The Company has a 50 percent equity interest in Cereal Partners Worldwide (CPW), a joint venture with Nestle, S.A., that competes in more than 80 countries and republics. The following cereal products were marketed by CPW under the umbrella Nestle trademark in fiscal 2002: Choco Clusters, Lion, Nesfit, Sporties, Trio, Clusters, NesQuik, Multi-Cheerios, Honey Nut Cheerios, Golden Grahams, Cini Minis, Chocapic, Trix, Estrelitas, Gold, Kix, Milo, Fibre 1, Kangus, Fitness, Shredded Wheat, Shreddies, Country Corn Flakes, Honey Stars, Koko Krunch, Snow Flakes, Zucosos, Frutina, Apple Minis, Crunch, Fitness & Fruit, La Lechera, and Moca. CPW also manufactures private label cereals for customers in the United Kingdom and cereal bars in several European countries.

Snack Ventures Europe (SVE), the Company's joint venture with PepsiCo, Inc., manufactures and sells snack foods in Holland, France, Belgium, Spain, Portugal, Greece, the Baltics, Hungary, and Russia. The Company has a 40.5 percent equity interest in SVE.

As a result of the Pillsbury acquisition, the Company has a 50 percent interest in each of five joint ventures for the manufacture, distribution and marketing of Haagen-Dazs frozen ice cream products and novelties in the following countries: Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Thailand and the Philippines. The Company also has a 50 percent interest in Seretram, a joint venture with Co-op de Pau for the production of Green Giant canned corn in France.

See Note Four to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing on pages 37 and 38 of the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Stockholders, filed as Exhibit 13 to this Form 10-K/A and incorporated into this description by reference.

COMPETITION

Edgar Filing: GENERAL MILLS INC - Form 10-K/A

The consumer foods market is highly competitive, with numerous competitors of varying sizes in the United States and throughout the world. The Company's principal strategies for competing in the marketplace include superior product quality, innovative advertising, product promotion, product innovations and price. In most product categories, the Company competes not only with other widely advertised branded products of major companies, but also with generic products and private label products, which are generally sold at lower prices. Internationally, the Company primarily competes with local manufacturers, and each country includes a unique group of competitors.

CUSTOMERS

During fiscal 2002, one customer, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., accounted for approximately 12 percent of the Company's net sales.

SEASONALITY

In general, demand for the Company's products is evenly balanced throughout the year. However, demand for the Company's refrigerated dough, frozen baked goods and baking products is stronger in the fourth calendar quarter. Demand for Progresso soup is higher during the fall and winter months. Internationally, demand for Haagen-Dazs ice cream is higher during the summer months and demand for the baking mix and dough products increases during winter months. Due to the offsetting impact of these demand trends, as well as the different seasons in the northern and southern hemispheres, the Company's international net sales are generally evenly balanced throughout the year.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Trademarks and Patents. The Company's products are marketed under trademarks and service marks owned by or licensed to the Company. Trademarks and service marks are vital to the Company's business. The most significant trademarks and service marks of the Company are set forth in italics in the business discussions above.

As part of the sale to IMC of certain Pillsbury dessert and specialty product businesses, IMC received an exclusive royalty-free license to use the Doughboy trademark and Pillsbury brand in the desserts and baking mix categories. The licenses are renewable without cost in 20-year increments at IMC's discretion.

The Company considers the collective rights under its various patents, which expire from time to time, a valuable asset, but the Company does not believe that its businesses are materially dependent upon any single patent or group of related patents. With the exception of its joint venture activities, the Company's activities under licenses or other franchises or concessions are not material.

Raw Materials and Supplies. The principal raw materials used by General Mills are cereal grains, sugar, dairy products, vegetables, fruits, meats, other agricultural products, vegetable oils, plastic and paper packaging materials, operating supplies and energy. General Mills has some long-term fixed price contracts, but the majority of such raw materials are purchased on the open market. General Mills believes that it will be able to obtain an adequate supply of needed ingredients and packaging materials. Occasionally and where possible, General Mills makes advance purchases of items significant to its business in order to ensure continuity of operations. The Company's objective is to procure materials meeting both the Company's quality standards and its production needs at the lowest total cost to the Company. The Company's strategy is to buy these materials at price levels that allow a targeted profit margin. Since commodities generally represent the largest variable cost in manufacturing the Company's products, to the extent possible, the Company hedges the risk associated with adverse price movements using exchange-traded futures and options, forward cash contracts and over-the-counter hedging mechanisms. These tools enable the Company to manage the related commodity price risk over periods of time that exceed the period of time in which the physical commodity is available. Accordingly, the Company uses these hedging tools to mitigate the risks associated with adverse price movements and not to speculate in the marketplace. See also Note Seven to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing on pages 41 through 44 of the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Stockholders, filed as Exhibit 13 to this Form 10-K/A and incorporated into this section by reference and the "Market Risk Management" section of the Report's "Management's Discussion and Analysis" appearing on page 20 of the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Stockholders, filed as Exhibit 13 to this Form 10-K/A and incorporated herein by reference.

Capital Expenditures. During the three fiscal years ended May 26, 2002, General Mills' aggregate capital expenditures amounted to $1,081 million, not including the cost of acquired companies. The Company expects to spend approximately $750 million for such purposes in fiscal 2003, including construction costs to expand the Company's headquarters and costs of integrating Pillsbury into the Company's information systems.

Research and Development. Major research and development facilities are located at the Pillsbury Technical Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota and the James Ford Bell Technical Center in Golden Valley (suburban Minneapolis), Minnesota. With a staff of approximately 1,100, these research facilities are responsible for most of the food research for the Company. Research and development expenditures amounted to $131 million in fiscal 2002, $83 million in fiscal 2001 and $77 million in fiscal 2000. General Mills' research and development resources are focused on new product development, product improvement, process design and improvement, packaging, and exploratory research in new business areas.

Employees. At May 26, 2002, General Mills had 29,859 employees.

Environmental Matters. As of June, 2002, the Company was involved with the following active cleanup sites associated with the alleged release or threatened release of hazardous substances or wastes:

Central Steel Drum, Newark, NJ	no single hazardous material specified
East Hennepin, Minneapolis, MN	trichloroethylene
GBF/Pittsburgh, Antioch, CA	no single hazardous material specified
Gloucester, MA	petroleum fuel products
King's Road Landfill, Toledo, OH	no single hazardous material specified
Kipp, KS	carbon tetrachloride
Lorentz Barrel, San Jose, CA	no single hazardous material specified
NL Industries, Granite City, IL	lead
Northside Sanitary Landfill, Zionsville, IN	no single hazardous material specified

Edgar Filing: GENERAL MILLS INC - Form 10-K/A

Operating Industries, Los Angeles, CA	no single hazardous material specified
PCB Treatment, Kansas City, MO	PCBs
Pennsauken Landfill, Pennsauken, NJ	no single hazardous material specified
PET, St. Louis, MO	tetrachloroethylene
Sauget Landfill, Sauget, IL	no single hazardous material specified
Shafer Metal Recycling, Minneapolis, MN	lead
Safer Textiles, Moonachie, NJ	tetrachloroethylene
Stuckey's, Doolittle, MO	petroleum fuel products
Try-Chem, Milwaukee, WI	no single hazardous material specified

These matters involve several different procedural contexts, including litigation initiated by governmental authorities and/or private parties, administrative proceedings commenced by regulatory agencies, and demand letters issued by regulatory agencies and/or private parties. Of the 18 matters in the table above, the Company is a party to current litigation related to two cleanup sites:

- Pennsauken Solid Waste Management Authority, et al. v. State of New Jersey, et al., Defendants -- Quick-Way, Inc., Defendant and Third-party Plaintiff, v. A-1 Acoustical Ceiling, Inc., et al. involves a State of New Jersey superfund site where a former subsidiary of the Company has been sued as a third-party defendant. The Company is defending this action under the terms of an indemnification agreement. The amount of the clean up liability has not been determined.
- West Coast Home Builders, Inc. v. Ashland Inc., et al. involves a claim for an unspecified amount of damages for the diminished value of property adjacent to a State of California superfund site. The cleanup of the site is covered by an existing settlement agreement between the State of California and a group of the potentially responsible parties. The Company has executed a Tolling Agreement with the Plaintiff and expects the existing litigation to be dismissed. In addition, the potentially responsible parties have an insurance policy that covers the costs of cleanup in excess of amounts already paid, including third party claims related to the site. We believe the claims are covered by the insurance policy and that the Company does not have any financial exposure as a result of this litigation.

The Company recognizes that its potential exposure with respect to any of these sites may be joint and several, but has concluded that its probable aggregate exposure is not material. This conclusion is based upon, among other things, the Company's payments and/or accruals with respect to each site; the number, ranking, and financial strength of other potentially responsible parties identified at each of the sites; the status of the proceedings, including various settlement agreements, consent decrees or court orders; allocations of volumetric waste contributions and allocations of relative responsibility among potentially responsible parties developed by regulatory agencies and by private parties; remediation cost estimates prepared by governmental authorities or private technical consultants; and the Company's historical experience in negotiating and settling disputes with respect to similar sites.

The Company's operations are subject to the Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, and the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, and all similar state environmental laws applicable to the jurisdictions in which we operate.

Edgar Filing: GENERAL MILLS INC - Form 10-K/A

Based on current facts and circumstances, General Mills believes that neither the results of its environmental proceedings nor its compliance in general with environmental laws or regulations will have a material adverse effect upon the capital expenditures, earnings or competitive position of the Company.

identify "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical earnings and those presently anticipated or projected. The Company wishes to caution readers not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made.

In connection with the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Company is identifying important factors that could affect the Company's financial performance and could cause the Company's actual results for future periods to differ materially from any opinions or statements expressed with respect to future periods in any current statements.

In particular, the Company's predictions about the future volume and earnings could be affected by difficulties resulting from the Pillsbury acquisition, such as integration problems, failure to achieve synergies, difficulty consolidating manufacturing capacity, unanticipated liabilities, inexperience in new business lines, and changes in the competitive environment. The Company's future results also could be affected by a variety of additional factors such as: competitive dynamics in the U.S. ready-to-eat cereal market, including pricing and promotional spending levels by competitors; the impact of competitive products and pricing; product development; actions of competitors other than as described above; acquisitions or dispositions of businesses or assets; changes in capital structure; changes in laws and regulations, including changes in accounting standards; customer demand; effectiveness of advertising and marketing spending or programs; consumer perception of health-related issues; economic conditions, including changes in inflation rates or interest rates; fluctuations in the cost and availability of supply-chain resources; and foreign economic conditions, including currency rate fluctuations.

The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise any forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances.

The Company's debt securities are rated by rating organizations. Investors should note that a security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities, that it is subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency, and that each rating should be evaluated independently of any other rating.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES.

The Company's principal executive offices and main research facilities are Company-owned, and are located in the Minneapolis, Minnesota metropolitan area. General Mills owns and operates numerous manufacturing facilities, and maintains many sales and administrative offices and warehouses, mainly in the United States. Other facilities are operated in Canada, and elsewhere around the world. In addition to owned facilities, the Company acquired 583,885 square feet of leased office space in Minneapolis with the acquisition of the Pillsbury business. A portion of this space has been sublet and the Company intends to sublet the remaining space upon completion of the headquarters office addition. Please see Note 17 to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing on pages 57 and 58 of the Company's 2002 Annual Report to Stockholders which is filed as Exhibit 13 to this Form 10-K/A and incorporated herein by reference.

As of May 2002, General Mills operated 91 food production facilities for a wide variety of food products. Of these plants, 54 are located in the United States, 11 in Europe, 11 in Asia, eight in Canada and Mexico, six in Latin America and one in Africa.

The Company owns wheat flour mills at seven locations: Avon, Iowa; Buffalo,

Edgar Filing: GENERAL MILLS INC - Form 10-K/A

New York; Great Falls, Montana; Johnson City, Tennessee; Kansas City, Missouri; Vallejo, California; and Vernon, California. The Company operates 11 terminal grain elevators and has country grain elevators in 34 locations, primarily in Idaho and Montana.

General Mills also owns or leases warehouse space aggregating approximately 16,500,000 square feet, of which approximately 11,400,000 square feet are leased. A number of sales and administrative offices are maintained in the United States, Canada, and elsewhere around the world, totaling 2,900,000 square feet.

stock units granted to key employees but deferred under the following plans: Executive Incentive Plan and Stock Option Long-Term Incentive Plan of 1993.

Column (c) excludes restricted stock units to be awarded under the Executive Incentive Plan that are tied to the amount of an executive's incentive award, which is based on Company and individual performance. The Plan imposes a limit on the amount of an executive's annual incentive award.

(2) Column (a) includes 88,219 stock units and 8,000 deferred stock units granted to employees under the 1998 Employee Stock Plan. Also, the column includes 499 stock units, representing dividend equivalents credited based on dividends paid on the Company's common stock that are reinvested and deferred in additional stock units, and 842 stock units, representing the Company's matching contributions in common stock allocable to incentive compensation and restricted stock granted under various stock plans and deferred under the Deferred Compensation Plan.

1998 Employee Stock Plan

In June 1998, the Board of Directors adopted the 1998 Employee Stock Plan, which became effective September 28, 1998. All employees of the Company are eligible to receive grants of stock options, restricted stock or restricted stock units under the Plan. Non-qualified stock options are available for grant under the Plan at an option price that is 100% of the fair market value on the date the option is granted. Stock options expire within 10 years and one month following the grant date and generally become exercisable in four years. Awards of restricted stock and restricted stock units under the Plan are limited to 15% of the authorized shares. The Plan contains provisions covering the treatment of stock options, restricted stock and stock units upon an employee's resignation, retirement or death. In the event of a change of control of the Company, stock options, restricted stock and stock units granted under the Plan will immediately vest, stock options will become exercisable, and restricted stock and common stock and dividend equivalents to be issued in respect of stock units will be immediately distributed to an employee. 28,000,000 shares are authorized for issuance under the Plan.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company's Deferred Compensation Plan was approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors and became effective on May 1, 1984. The Plan is a non-qualified compensation plan that provides for the deferral of cash incentives, common stock issued under the Company's stock option plans, restricted stock and restricted stock units issued under the Company's various stock plans. An employee can elect to defer up to 100% of annual incentive compensation, receipt of shares of common stock resulting from a stock-for-stock exercise of stock options under the Company's stock option plans, shares of common stock attributable to nonvested restricted stock or restricted stock units under the Company's restricted stock plans. Certain key and highly compensated management employees of the Company are eligible to participate and defer compensation under the Plan.

Deferred Cash or Stock Unit Account. A deferred cash incentive compensation account is established for each participant electing to defer such compensation. Each participant's deferred cash account is credited monthly with a rate of return based on the investment performance of participant-selected 401(k) Savings Plan funds for the prior month. A deferred stock unit account is established for an employee electing to defer receipt of common stock under a stock option grant or shares of restricted stock or restricted stock units under the Company's stock plans. Dividend equivalent amounts can be paid out to the employee or credited to an employee's account to reflect dividends paid on the Company's common stock, based on the number of stock units deferred and credited to an employee's deferred account.

Company Contributions in Cash and Stock. The Company credits the deferred cash account of each participant in the Plan with an additional amount that will equal the value of the employer matching contributions that the Company would have otherwise made to the participant's 401(k) Savings Plan account if the employee had not deferred compensation under the Plan. The Company credits the deferred stock unit account of each participant in the Plan with additional stock units in an amount equal to the value of the employer matching contributions that the Company would have otherwise made to the employee's 401(k) Savings Plan account if the employee had not deferred compensation under the Plan.

Provisions Covering Resignation, Retirement, Death and Change of Control. The Plan contains provisions covering the payout of deferred cash and stock unit accounts upon an employee's resignation, retirement or death. In the event of a change in control of the Company, shares of common stock and cash attributable to stock units and dividend equivalents credited to an employee's deferred stock unit account under the Plan will be immediately distributed. In addition, a trust has been established to hold Company assets as a reserve for the discharge of certain Company obligations under the Plan in the event of a change of control.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS.

The information contained on pages 10 through 12 of Registrant's definitive Proxy Statement for its 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 14. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

Within the 90 days prior to the filing date of this report, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms.

There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the disclosure controls, since the date of their evaluation.

The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 26, 2002, at the time of its filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, shall modify and supersede all prior documents filed pursuant to Sections 13, 14 and 15(d) of the 1934 Act for purposes of any offers or sales of any securities after the date of such filing pursuant to any Registration Statement or Prospectus filed pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 which incorporates by reference such Annual Report on Form 10-K.
