MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. and Caesars Entertainment, Inc. have each unanimously approved the merger of Caesars with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's. We are proposing the merger because we believe it will benefit the stockholders of each of our respective companies by creating more stockholder value than either company could create individually and allowing stockholders to participate in a larger, more diversified company.

If the proposed merger is completed, Caesars stockholders may elect to receive either 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock or $17.75 in cash for each share of Caesars common stock they own, subject to proration due to the aggregate amount of cash to be paid and the number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued by Harrah's in the merger and other adjustments described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. As a result, Harrah's will issue approximately million shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger and $ billion in cash in the merger based on the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding on , . We estimate that immediately after the merger, Caesars stockholders will hold approximately % of the then-outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock, based on the number of shares of Harrah's and Caesars common stock outstanding on , . Harrah's stockholders will continue to own their existing shares, which will not be affected by the merger.

Harrah's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the trading symbol HET. On , , Harrah's common stock closed at $ per share as reported on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Transaction Tape. Caesars stockholders are urged to check the trading price of Harrah's common stock prior to electing whether to receive cash or stock in the merger.

The merger cannot be completed unless Harrah's stockholders approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger and Caesars stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. The obligations of Harrah's and Caesars to complete the merger are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver of several other conditions to the merger, including receiving approval and/or clearance from regulatory agencies. More information about Harrah's, Caesars and the proposed merger is contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read carefully this joint proxy statement/prospectus before voting, including the section entitled Risks Relating to the Merger on page 29.

Based on its review, the board of directors of Harrah's has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger. Based on its review, the Caesars board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Caesars and its stockholders and has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

The Harrah's board of directors unanimously recommends that Harrah's stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. The Caesars board of directors unanimously recommends that Caesars stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following are some questions that you, as a stockholder of Harrah's or Caesars, may have regarding the merger and the other matters being considered at the respective special meetings of stockholders of Harrah's and Caesars and brief answers to those questions. Harrah's and Caesars urge you to read carefully the remainder of this joint proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the other matters being considered at their respective special meetings of stockholders. Additional important information is also contained in the annexes to and the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why are Harrah's and Caesars stockholders receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus?

A: Harrah's and Caesars have agreed to the acquisition of Caesars by Harrah's under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

In order to complete the merger, Harrah's stockholders must vote to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger and Caesars stockholders must approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Harrah's and Caesars will hold separate special meetings of their respective stockholders to obtain these approvals.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement and the special meetings of the respective stockholders of Harrah's and Caesars, which you should read carefully. The enclosed voting materials allow you to vote your shares without attending your respective company's special meeting.

Your vote is very important. We encourage you to vote as soon as possible.

Q: Why are Harrah's and Caesars proposing the merger?

A: Harrah's and Caesars both believe that the merger will provide substantial strategic and financial benefits to the stockholders of both companies because the merger will allow stockholders of both companies the opportunity to participate in a larger, more diversified company that will be a preeminent distributor of casino entertainment. We both also believe that the combination will create a stronger and more competitive provider of casino entertainment that is capable of creating more stockholder value than either Harrah's or Caesars could on its own. In addition, Caesars is also proposing the merger to provide its stockholders with the opportunity to receive a premium for their shares and to offer Caesars stockholders the opportunity to participate in the growth and opportunities of the combined company by electing to receive Harrah's stock in the merger or to realize cash for the value of their shares by electing to receive cash in the merger. To review the reasons for the merger in greater detail, see The Merger Recommendation of the Harrah's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger on page 49 and The Merger Recommendation of the Caesars Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger on page 51.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Caesars will merge with Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's, with Harrah's Operating Company surviving and continuing as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's.

Q: What consideration will Caesars stockholders receive in the merger?

A: Caesars stockholders may elect to receive either $17.75 in cash or 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock for each share of Caesars common stock they own, subject to proration to reflect the aggregate amount of cash to be paid and number of shares to be issued by Harrah's in the merger and other adjustments as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For more information on the proration and adjustment features, see Summary The Merger Merger Consideration on page 8.

Table of Contents

Caesars stockholders will receive cash for any fractional share of Harrah's common stock that they would be entitled to receive in the merger after aggregating all fractional shares to be received by them.

Because of the proration and adjustments features, the exact amount of cash and shares of Harrah's common stock to be received by each Caesars stockholder in the merger in exchange for his or her shares of Caesars common stock cannot be determined until the completion of the merger. Caesars stockholders may not receive the specific amount of cash or Harrah's common stock that they elect to receive.

Q: How do Caesars stockholders specify if they want cash or shares of Harrah's common stock?

A: An election form has been sent to Caesars stockholders together with this joint proxy statement/ prospectus for making an election to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in exchange for his or her shares of Caesars common stock. To be effective, the election form must be properly completed, signed and received by the exchange agent, together with the stock certificates representing those shares of Caesars common stock with respect to which the election is being made, no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. Harrah's and Caesars will announce the anticipated closing date at least three but not more than ten business days prior to the closing date.

If the exchange agent does not receive from a Caesars stockholder a properly completed and signed election form with respect to shares of Caesars common stock, together with the appropriate stock certificates, by 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger, the holder of those shares of Caesars common stock will be deemed to have made an election for cash consideration with respect to those shares of Caesars common stock. Following the completion of the merger, Caesars stockholders who have not made an election to receive Harrah's common stock in the merger will receive a letter of transmittal and instructions as to how to surrender their Caesars stock certificates.

A: Caesars stockholders who would like to make an election to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger should send their properly completed and signed election form to the exchange agent, together with the stock certificates representing those shares of Caesars common stock with respect to which the election is being made, no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. Harrah's and Caesars will announce the anticipated closing date at least three but not more than ten business days prior to the closing date of the merger. Caesars stockholders who do not elect to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger will be deemed to have made an election for cash consideration with respect to their shares of Caesars common stock, and following the completion of the merger will receive a letter of transmittal and instructions as to how to surrender their Caesars stock certificates.

Q: Can Caesars stockholders change or revoke their election?

A: Yes. Caesars stockholders can change or revoke their election by giving written notice to the exchange agent at The Bank of New York, Caesars Exchange, P.O. Box 859208, Braintree, MA 02185-9208, provided the written notice is received by the exchange agent no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. After this time, you may not change or revoke your election to receive Harrah's common stock in the merger, unless the exchange agent is legally required to permit revocations.

Q: How will Harrah's stockholders be affected by the merger and issuance of Harrah's common stock in the merger?

A: After the merger, Harrah's stockholders will continue to own their existing shares of Harrah's common stock. Accordingly, Harrah's stockholders will hold the same number of shares of Harrah's common stock that they held immediately prior to the merger. However, because Harrah's will be issuing new shares of Harrah's common stock to certain Caesars stockholders in the merger, each outstanding share of Harrah's common stock immediately prior to the merger will represent a smaller percentage of the total number of shares of Harrah's common stock outstanding after the merger.

Q: When does Harrah's and Caesars expect the merger to be completed?

A: Harrah's and Caesars are working to complete the merger as quickly as practicable. However, we cannot predict the exact timing of the completion of the merger because it is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions. See Summary Conditions to Completion of the Merger on page 16. There may be a substantial period of time between the approval of the proposals by stockholders at the special meetings of Harrah's and Caesars stockholders and the effectiveness of the merger.

Q: What are the federal income tax consequences of the merger?

A: We expect the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the merger qualifies as a reorganization, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Caesars stockholders generally will be as follows:

Caesars stockholders that receive solely Harrah's common stock in the merger will not recognize any gain or loss, except for gain or loss resulting from the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Harrah's common stock;

Caesars stockholders that receive a combination of cash and Harrah's common stock will recognize capital gain, but not loss, to the extent of the amount of cash received; and

Caesars stockholders that receive solely cash will recognize capital gain or loss.

No gain or loss will be recognized by Harrah's, Caesars or Harrah's stockholders as a result of the merger.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to each Caesars stockholder will depend on the facts of each stockholder's situation. Caesars stockholders are urged to read carefully the discussion in the section entitled The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 76 and to consult their own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences of their participation in the merger.

Q: Are Harrah's and Caesars stockholders entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Under Delaware law, holders of Caesars common stock have the right to dissent from the merger and obtain payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of common stock, as determined by the Delaware Chancery Court, rather than the merger consideration. To exercise appraisal rights, Caesars stockholders must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by Delaware law. These procedures are summarized under the section entitled The Merger Dissenters Rights of Appraisal on page 80. In addition, the text of the applicable provisions of Delaware law is included as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Holders of Harrah's common stock are not entitled to dissenters' appraisal rights in connection with the issuance of Harrah's common stock in the merger.

Q: What are Harrah's stockholders voting on?

A: Harrah's stockholders are voting on a proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. The approval of this proposal by Harrah's stockholders is a condition to the effectiveness of the merger.

Harrah's stockholders are also voting on a proposal to approve an amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock, which is not a condition to the effectiveness of the merger.

Harrah's stockholders are voting on each proposal separately. Your vote on one proposal has no bearing on the other proposal, or any other matter that may come before the Harrah's special meeting.

Q: What vote of Harrah's stockholders is required to approve the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock?

The Harrah's board of directors unanimously approved a resolution, subject to stockholder approval, to amend Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock and unanimously recommends that Harrah's stockholders vote FOR the proposal to amend Harrah's certificate of incorporation. Q: What should Harrah's and Caesars stockholders do now in order to vote on the proposals being considered at their company's special meeting?

If you hold Harrah's shares or Caesars shares in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or nominee, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please refer to the voting instruction card used by your broker, bank or nominee to see if you may submit voting instructions using the Internet or telephone.

Q: Can Harrah's or Caesars stockholders vote at their company's special meeting?

A: Yes. You may also vote in person by attending your respective company's special meeting of stockholders. If you plan to attend your respective company's special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the special meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in street name, and you wish to vote at your respective company's special meeting, you must bring a proxy from the record holder of the shares authorizing you to vote at the special meeting. Whether or not Harrah's stockholders or Caesars stockholders plan to attend their special meeting of their respective company, they should grant their proxy as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will happen if I abstain from voting or fail to vote?

A: If you are a Harrah's stockholder, an abstention by you, which occurs when a stockholder attends a meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting, will have the same effect as voting against both the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock under the merger agreement and the approval of the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock. If you are a Harrah's stockholder, your failure to vote or to instruct your broker to vote if your shares are held in street name may have a negative effect on Harrah's ability to obtain the number of votes cast necessary for approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock under the merger agreement in accordance with the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, and will have the same effect as voting against the approval of the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock.

If you are a Caesars stockholder, an abstention by you or your failure to vote or to instruct your broker to vote if your shares are held in street name will have the same effect as voting against the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., a Delaware corporation, is one of the leading casino entertainment companies in the United States, operating in more markets than any other casino company and offering a Harrah's casino experience within a three-hour drive of over half of the United States adult population. Harrah's business is conducted through a wholly-owned subsidiary, Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., which owns or manages through various subsidiaries 28 casinos in the United States with about 1.7 million square feet of gaming space and approximately 16,180 hotel rooms. Harrah's casino entertainment facilities, operating primarily under the Harrah's, Rio, Showboat, Horseshoe and Harveys brand names, include eleven land-based casinos, eleven riverboat or dockside casinos, a greyhound racing facility, a thoroughbred racetrack and four casinos on Indian reservations.

On July 1, 2004, Harrah's consummated its acquisition of Horseshoe Gaming Holding Corp., or Horseshoe, for approximately $1.5 billion, including the assumption of approximately $535 million of debt and other obligations.

Harrah's was incorporated on November 2, 1989, and prior to such date operated under predecessor companies. Harrah's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange, which is referred to as the NYSE, under the symbol HET.

Caesars Entertainment, Inc.

At the same time, Caesars acquired the Mississippi gaming operations of Grand Casinos, Inc. through a merger. In December 1999, Caesars acquired all of the outstanding stock of Caesars World, Inc. and interests in several other gaming entities from Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc. Recent Developments

On September 27, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars, by and through certain subsidiaries of each, entered into a definitive agreement whereby an affiliate of Colony Capital, LLC will acquire Harrah's East Chicago and Harrah's Tunica from Harrah's and the Atlantic City Hilton and Bally's Tunica from Caesars. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the purchaser will acquire substantially all of the operating assets and assume certain liabilities of Harrah's properties for approximately $627 million and of Caesars' properties for approximately $612 million. The transaction is subject to regulatory approval and other customary conditions.

Harrah's and Caesars agreed to sell the four properties in connection with the merger described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, although the sale is not conditioned on the closing of the merger.

The Merger (see page 43)

Harrah's and Caesars have agreed to the acquisition of Caesars by Harrah's under the terms of the merger agreement that is described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Caesars will merge with Harrah's Operating Company, with Harrah's Operating Company surviving the merger. We have attached the merger agreement as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to carefully read the merger agreement in its entirety because it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Merger Consideration

Caesars stockholders may elect to receive 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock for each share of Caesars common stock they own or if Caesars stockholders do not make such an election to receive shares of Harrah's common stock, they will be deemed to have elected to receive $17.75 in cash for each share of Caesars common stock that they own, subject to proration due to the aggregate amount of cash to be paid and number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued by Harrah's in the merger and other adjustments as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. As a result, Harrah's will issue approximately _____ million shares of Harrah's common stock and $ _____ billion in cash in the merger based upon the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding on the record date of the Caesars special meeting. We refer to the stock and cash consideration to be paid to Caesars stockholders by Harrah's as the merger consideration.

Table of Contents

The value of the merger consideration that a Caesars stockholder receives in the merger may vary depending on whether a Caesars stockholder receives shares of Harrah's common stock or cash. The value of the cash portion of the merger consideration is fixed at $17.75 for each share of Caesars common stock. The value of the stock portion of the merger consideration is not fixed and will depend upon the value of 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock upon completion of the merger. This value may be ascertained by multiplying the trading price of Harrah's common stock by 0.3247.

As illustrated in the table below, the value of 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock may be less than or greater than $17.75. In particular, if the closing price of Harrah's common stock upon completion of the merger is greater than $54.67, then the value of 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock would be greater than the $17.75 in cash. If the closing price of Harrah's common stock upon completion of the merger is less than $54.67, then the $17.75 in cash would be greater than the value of 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock.

Hypothetical Trading Price of Harrah's Common Stock	Corresponding Value of 0.3247 of a Share of Harrah's Common Stock
$62.00	$20.13
$61.00	$19.81

$59.00	$19.16
$58.00	$18.83
$57.00	$18.51
$56.00	$18.18
$55.00	$17.86
$54.67	$17.75
$54.00	$17.53
$53.00	$17.21
$52.00	$16.88

$48.00	$15.59
$47.00	$15.26
$46.00	$14.94
$45.00	$14.61

$42.00	$13.64

Because the merger consideration is subject to proration, the table above does not set forth the actual consideration that will be received by Caesars stockholders and is only for illustration purposes. The effect of proration on the merger consideration to be received by Caesars stockholders is set forth in the table entitled "Consideration to Be Received by Caesars Stockholders for Each Share of Caesars Common Stock After Proration" on page 11.

Caesars stockholders are urged to check the trading price of Harrah's common stock prior to electing whether to receive cash or stock in the merger. The merger agreement does not provide Caesars with a price-based termination right or other protection for Caesars or its stockholders against a decline in the market price of Harrah's common stock. See "Risks Relating to the Merger" on page 29.

The merger has been structured, and adjustments to the elections of Caesars stockholders will be made by the exchange agent, so that the aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock to be converted into shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger will equal 66.42% of the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger, which amount is referred to as the stock cap. Therefore, assuming there are no adjustments, the aggregate number of shares of Harrah's common stock which will be issued to Caesars stockholders is fixed at approximately _____ million shares and the aggregate amount of cash which will be paid to Caesars stockholders is fixed at approximately $ _____ billion in cash based on the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding as of the record date for the Caesars special meeting, which is referred to as the cash cap. The stock elections in the merger are subject to proration to preserve this fixed number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued and cash to be paid in the merger. As a result, even if a Caesars stockholder elects to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger, he or she will likely receive a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash. Similarly, if he or she is deemed to have elected to receive cash in the merger, he or she will likely receive a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash.

If the aggregate number of shares held by Caesars stockholders electing to receive Harrah's common stock exceeds the stock cap, then the exchange agent will allocate, pro rata to those Caesars stockholders electing to receive the stock consideration, a sufficient amount of cash consideration instead of stock consideration so that the aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock to be converted into shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger equals the stock cap, subject to rounding and the adjustment provisions of the merger agreement.

If the aggregate number of shares held by Caesars stockholders who are deemed to have elected to receive cash exceeds the aggregate amount of cash that will be paid to Caesars stockholders in the merger, then the exchange agent will allocate, pro rata to those Caesars stockholders who are deemed to have elected to receive cash, a sufficient amount of stock consideration instead of cash consideration so that the aggregate number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued by Harrah's in the merger equals the stock cap, subject to rounding and the adjustment provisions of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The table below illustrates some, but not all, potential outcomes and sets forth the amount of stock consideration and/or cash consideration that a Caesars stockholder could receive, depending on the number of Caesars stockholders that elect to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger. The calculations in the table below are based on the assumption that there will be 309.5 million shares of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger. These calculations will vary if there is a different number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger.

Consideration to Be Received by Caesars Stockholders for Each Share of Caesars Common Stock After Proration

As a result of this proration feature, in most cases, the form of merger consideration actually received by a Caesars stockholder will differ from the form of consideration that the Caesars stockholder elects or is deemed to have elected to receive. Because the aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock to be converted into shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger will equal 66.42% of the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger, unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, it is possible that a substantial portion of the merger consideration received by each Caesars stockholder will be in the form of stock consideration, regardless of the election made by the Caesars stockholder.

For a full description of the proration terms and procedures, see The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Stock Cap and Proration on page 91.

Table of Contents

Fractional Shares

Harrah's will not issue fractional shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger. As a result, a Caesars stockholder will receive cash for any fractional share of Harrah's common stock that they would otherwise be entitled to receive in the merger.

For a full description of the treatment of fractional shares, see The Merger Agreement - Fractional Shares on page 93.

Election by Caesars stockholders

An election form has been sent to Caesars stockholders together with this joint proxy statement/ prospectus for making elections to receive stock consideration in the merger. To be effective, the election form must be properly completed, signed and received by the exchange agent, together with the stock certificates representing the shares of Caesars common stock with respect to which the election is being made, no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. Harrah's and Caesars will announce the anticipated closing date at least three but not more than ten business days prior to the closing date of the merger. If a properly completed and signed election form with respect to shares of Caesars common stock is not received by the exchange agent, together with the appropriate stock certificates, by 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger, the holder of those shares of Caesars common stock will be deemed to have made an election for cash consideration with respect to those shares of Caesars common stock. For a full description of the election procedures for Caesars stockholders, see The Merger Agreement - Exchange of Caesars Stock Certificates for Harrah's Stock Certificate - Caesars Common Stock Election on page 92.

Caesars Equity Awards

In general, upon completion of the merger, options to purchase shares of Caesars common stock will be converted into options to purchase shares of Harrah's common stock and assumed by Harrah's. The number of options to purchase Harrah's common stock and the exercise prices of the new options will be determined pursuant to the merger agreement. Harrah's has agreed to assume Caesars' stock option plans at the effective time of the merger. Each unvested Caesars stock option outstanding under any Caesars stock option plan will be fully vested and exercisable.

Each outstanding purchase right under the Caesars employee stock purchase plan will be assumed by Harrah's and converted into a right to purchase Harrah's common stock in accordance with the merger agreement and the employee stock purchase plan. Harrah's has agreed to assume Caesars' employee stock purchase plan at the effective time of the merger.

Each outstanding restricted stock unit under Caesars' 2004 long term incentive plan and each performance award will be converted into the right to receive Harrah's common stock in accordance with the merger agreement. In addition, Caesars will take all actions necessary to terminate its supplemental retention plan as of the effective time of the merger and Harrah's will issue Harrah's common stock to each participant in the supplemental retention plan.

On that date, there were _____ shares of Harrah's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Harrah's special meeting. You can cast one vote for each share of Harrah's common stock that you owned on the Harrah's record date. In accordance with the listing requirements of the NYSE, stockholder approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Harrah's common stock cast on such proposal, in person or by proxy, provided that the total votes cast on the proposal represents over 50% of the outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. In accordance with the requirements of Delaware General Corporation Law, which is referred to as the DGCL, the approval of the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of outstanding Harrah's common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Abstentions and broker non-votes, _____ will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at the Harrah's special meeting for purposes of the vote of Harrah's stockholders on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger. For both proposals, an abstention, which occurs when a stockholder attends a meeting either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting, will have the same effect as a vote against the proposals. A broker non-vote occurs when shares are held in street name by a broker or other nominee on behalf of a beneficial owner and the beneficial owner does not instruct the broker or nominee how to vote the shares at the special meeting for a proposal that is non-routine under the listing requirements of the NYSE. Broker non-votes could have a negative effect on Harrah's ability to obtain the necessary number of votes cast in accordance with the NYSE's listing requirements for the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement because it is a non-routine proposal. Broker non-votes will not result from the proposal to amend Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock because under the NYSE listing requirements it is a routine proposal and therefore a broker or nominee will have the discretionary authority under the NYSE's listing requirements to vote the shares for which the broker or nominee does not receive voting instructions for the proposal.

Caesars Stockholders

You can vote at the Caesars special meeting if you owned Caesars common stock at the close of business on _____, _____, which is referred to as the Caesars record date. On that date, there were _____ shares of Caesars common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Caesars special meeting. You can cast one vote for each share of Caesars common stock that you owned on the Caesars record date. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Caesars common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, is required to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Table of Contents

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at the Caesars special meeting for purposes of the vote of Caesars stockholders on the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

An abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. A broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Opinions of Financial Advisors (see pages 54 and 60)

Harrah s

On July 14, 2004, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., or Deutsche Bank, financial advisor to Harrah s, delivered to the Harrah s board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated July 14, 2004, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion and based upon such other matters as Deutsche Bank considered relevant, the merger consideration to be paid by Harrah s for each outstanding share of Caesars common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to Harrah s from a financial point of view. The full text of Deutsche Bank s written opinion is attached to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex B. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. Deutsche Bank s opinion is directed to the Harrah s board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to any matters relating to the merger.

Caesars

On July 14, 2004, UBS Securities LLC, or UBS, financial advisor to Caesars, delivered to the Caesars board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated July 14, 2004, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the aggregate merger consideration to be received by the holders of the shares of Caesars common stock pursuant to the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The full text of UBS written opinion is attached to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex C. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. UBS opinion is directed to the Caesars board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to any matters relating to the merger.

Ownership of Harrah s After the Merger

Based on the number of shares of Harrah s and Caesars common stock outstanding on their respective record dates, after completion of the merger, Harrah s expects to issue approximately million shares of Harrah s common stock and former Caesars stockholders will own approximately % of the then-outstanding shares of Harrah s common stock.

Share Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the Harrah s record date, directors and executive officers of Harrah s and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately shares of Harrah s common stock, collectively representing approximately % of the shares of Harrah s common stock outstanding on that date.

At the close of business on the Caesars record date, directors and executive officers of Caesars and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately shares of Caesars common stock, collectively representing % of the shares of Caesars common stock outstanding on that date.

Interests of Caesars Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see page 84)

In considering the recommendation of the Caesars board of directors with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, you should be aware that certain members of the Caesars board of directors and certain Caesars executive officers have interests in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that may be different than, or in addition to, the interests of Caesars stockholders, generally. These interests include:

severance payments under employment agreements and change of control agreements which may be triggered if the officer leaves or is terminated, in either case, under certain circumstances following the merger; accelerated vesting of Caesars stock options, restricted stock units, performance awards and supplemental retention units issued under Caesars equity compensation plans;

continued benefits for one year following the effective date of the merger that are in the aggregate no less favorable than those provided by Caesars as of the date of the merger agreement; and eligibility to receive retention bonuses in connection with the transaction.

Upon completion of the merger, Harrah's board of directors will be increased by at least two members. The directors of Harrah's prior to the completion of the merger will continue to serve as the directors of Harrah's after the merger and the vacancies created by the increase in the size of Harrah's board of directors will be filled by the appointment of two individuals who are currently directors of Caesars. In addition, the Harrah's board of directors will also consider recommending for appointment up to two additional current Caesars directors. For a full description of the appointment of Caesars directors to the Harrah's Board of Directors, see "The Merger Agreement - Harrah's Board of Directors" on page 110.

The Caesars board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Listing of Harrah's Common Stock and Delisting of Caesars Common Stock (see pages 79 and 83)

Application will be made to have the shares of Harrah's common stock issued in the merger approved for listing on the NYSE, where Harrah's common stock currently is traded under the symbol HET. If the merger is completed, Caesars common stock will no longer be listed on the NYSE and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which is referred to as the Exchange Act, and Caesars will no longer file periodic reports with the SEC.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal (see page 80)

Harrah's

Under Delaware law, holders of Harrah's common stock are not entitled to dissenters' appraisal rights in connection with the issuance of Harrah's common stock in the merger.

Caesars

Holders of Caesars common stock who do not wish to accept the consideration payable pursuant to the merger may seek, under Section 262 of the DGCL, judicial appraisal of the fair value of their shares by the Delaware Court of Chancery. This value could be more than, less than or the same as the merger consideration for the Caesars common stock. Failure to strictly comply with all the procedures required by Section 262 of the DGCL will result in a loss of the right to appraisal.

Merely voting against the merger will not preserve the right of Caesars stockholders to appraisal under Delaware law. Also, because a submitted proxy not marked "against" or "abstain" will be voted "for" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, the submission of a proxy not marked `against` or `abstain` will result in the waiver of appraisal rights. Caesars stockholders who hold shares in the name of a broker or other nominee must instruct their nominee to take the steps necessary to enable them to demand appraisal for their shares.

Annex E to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus contains the full text of Section 262 of the DGCL, which relates to the rights of appraisal. We encourage you to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (see page 94)

A number of conditions must be satisfied before the merger will be completed. These include among others:

the receipt of the approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger by Harrah's stockholders and the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, by Caesars stockholders;

the receipt of all material governmental and regulatory consents, approvals, orders and authorizations required to complete the merger, including all approvals under gaming laws;

the expiration or termination of the waiting period, or any extension to the waiting period, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which is referred to as the HSR Act;

the absence of any legal restraints or prohibitions preventing the completion of the merger;

the absence of any litigation by any governmental entity seeking to prohibit or restrain the merger or that would otherwise have a material adverse effect on Harrah's after the completion of the merger;

the representations and warranties of each party contained in the merger agreement being true and correct, except to the extent that breaches of such representations and warranties would not result in a material adverse effect on the representing party;

the absence of events or developments since the date of the merger agreement that would reasonably be expected to have material adverse changes with respect to either party; and the delivery of tax opinions of legal counsel to each of Harrah's and Caesars to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Each of Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company and Caesars may waive the conditions to the performance of its respective obligations under the merger agreement and complete the merger even though one or more of these conditions has not been met. Neither Harrah's nor Caesars can give any assurance that all of the conditions to the merger will be either satisfied or waived or that the merger will occur.

The completion of the merger is subject to compliance with the HSR Act. The notifications required under the HSR Act to the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, or the FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, or the Antitrust Division, were filed on July 28, 2004. On August 27, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars received from the FTC requests for additional information with respect to the proposed merger. As a result of the requests for additional information, the waiting period under United States Federal antitrust law will be extended until 11:59 P.M. Eastern Standard Time on the 30th day after both Harrah's and Caesars have substantially complied with the requests for additional information or such later time as is agreed among the parties and the FTC. Harrah's and Caesars may also be required to obtain additional regulatory approvals from various state and foreign authorities.

Table of Contents

In addition, in order to complete the merger, Harrah's and Caesars must receive approvals from and make filings with various foreign, state and local gaming and regulatory agencies.

While Harrah's and Caesars expect to obtain all required regulatory approvals, we cannot assure you that these regulatory approvals will be obtained or that the granting of these regulatory approvals will not involve the imposition of conditions on the completion of the merger, including the requirement to divest properties, or require changes to the terms of the merger agreement. These conditions or changes could result in the conditions to the merger not being satisfied.

Agreement to Obtain Clearance from Regulatory Authorities (see page 101)

Harrah's and Caesars have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law and regulations, including the HSR Act and applicable gaming laws, to complete the merger as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than July 14, 2005, which date may be extended to October 14, 2005 in circumstances described in the merger agreement. We refer to this July 14, 2005 date, as it may be extended, as the outside date.

Among other things, Harrah's and its subsidiaries have agreed to take any and all actions necessary to ensure that:

no requirement for non-action, a waiver, consent or approval of the FTC, the Antitrust Division, any authority enforcing applicable gaming laws, any State Attorney General or other governmental entity;

no decree, judgment, injunction, temporary restraining order or any other order in any suit or proceeding; and no other matter relating to any antitrust or competition law or regulation or relating to any gaming law, would preclude completion of the merger by the outside date under the merger agreement, unless any of these actions would, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the combined company.

Neither Harrah's nor Caesars will knowingly take or cause to be taken any action which would reasonably be expected to materially delay or prevent the obtaining of required approvals from any government entity by the outside date under the merger agreement.

No Solicitation by Caesars (see page 96)

The merger agreement contains restrictions on the ability of Caesars to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party with respect to a proposal to acquire a significant interest of Caesars' equity or assets. Notwithstanding these restrictions, the merger agreement provides that, under specified circumstances and prior to the approval by Caesars stockholders of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, if Caesars receives an unsolicited proposal from a third party to acquire a significant interest in Caesars that the Caesars board of directors determines in good faith would reasonably be expected to lead to a proposal that is superior to the merger, Caesars may furnish nonpublic information to that third party and engage in negotiations regarding a takeover proposal with that third party.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 106)

Harrah's and Caesars may mutually agree in writing, at any time before the completion of the merger, to terminate the merger agreement. Also, either Harrah's or Caesars may terminate the merger agreement in a number of circumstances, including if:

the merger is not completed by the outside date;

Table of Contents

Caesars stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, at the Caesars special meeting; or Harrah's stockholders fail to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger at the Harrah's special meeting.

Harrah's may terminate the merger agreement if:

Caesars breaches its representations or warranties or fails to perform its covenants in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform results in a failure of certain of the conditions to the completion of the merger being satisfied;

the Caesars board of directors withdraws or adversely modifies its recommendation of the merger agreement; or the Caesars board of directors approves or recommends to Caesars stockholders a takeover proposal other than the merger agreement.

Caesars may terminate the merger agreement if:

Harrah's or Harrah's Operating Company breaches its representations or warranties or fails to perform its covenants in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform results in a failure of certain of the conditions to the completion of the merger being satisfied; or prior to the approval of Caesars stockholders of the merger agreement and transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, Caesars accepts, in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, a superior proposal and pays Harrah's the break-up fee described below under Break-up Fee.

If the merger agreement is terminated, Caesars, in certain specified circumstances, will be required to pay a break-up fee of $180.0 million to Harrah's.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (see page 76)

Harrah's and Caesars intend for the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the merger qualifies as a reorganization, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Caesars stockholders generally will be as follows:

Caesars stockholders that receive solely Harrah's common stock in the merger will not recognize any gain or loss, except for gain or loss resulting from the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Harrah's common stock;

Caesars stockholders that receive a combination of cash and Harrah's common stock will recognize capital gain, but not loss, to the extent of the amount of cash received; and

Caesars stockholders that receive solely cash will recognize capital gain or loss.

No gain or loss will be recognized by Harrah's, Caesars or Harrah's stockholders as a result of the merger.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to each Caesars stockholder will depend on the facts of each stockholder's situation. Caesars stockholders are urged to read carefully the discussion in the section entitled The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 76 and to consult their own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences of their participation in the merger.

Accounting Treatment (see page 79)

Harrah's will account for the merger as a business combination under United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks (see page 29)

In evaluating the merger, the merger agreement or the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger, you should carefully read this joint proxy statement/ prospectus and especially consider the factors discussed in the section entitled "Risks Relating to the Merger" on page 29.

Litigation Related to the Merger (see page 89)

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus, Caesars and Harrah's are aware of one purported class action lawsuit that has been filed against Caesars and its board of directors in connection with the merger. Among other things, the lawsuit seeks to prevent the closing of the merger. Both Harrah's and Caesars believe that the lawsuit is without merit. A motion to dismiss the complaint has been filed on behalf of all defendants. The plaintiff has not filed a response and has decided to dismiss the lawsuit without prejudice.

Dividend Policies

Harrah's

The holders of Harrah's common stock receive dividends if and when declared by the Harrah's board of directors. In February 2004 and April 2004, the Harrah's board of directors declared dividends of $0.30 per share of Harrah's common stock, which were paid on February 25, 2004, based on Harrah's stockholders of record on February 11, 2004, and May 26, 2004, based on Harrah's stockholders of record on May 12, 2004. In July 2004, the Harrah's board of directors declared dividends of $0.33 per share of Harrah's common stock, which were paid on August 25, 2004 based on Harrah's stockholders of record on August 11, 2004. In addition, quarterly cash dividends of $0.30 per share of Harrah's common stock were also declared and paid in the third and fourth quarters of 2003.

The declaration and payment of dividends, however, is subject to the provisions of the DGCL and will depend upon business conditions, operating results, capital and reserve requirements, covenants in Harrah's debt agreements and the Harrah's board of directors' consideration of other relevant factors. Harrah's can give no assurances that it will continue to pay dividends on the Harrah's common stock in the future.

Caesars

The holders of Caesars common stock receive dividends if and when declared by the Caesars board of directors. Caesars has not paid cash dividends for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 and does not currently anticipate paying cash dividends during the fiscal year that will end on December 31, 2004.

Material Differences in Rights of Harrah's Stockholders and Caesars Stockholders (see page 121)

Caesars stockholders receiving merger consideration in the form of shares of Harrah's common stock will have different rights once they become Harrah's stockholders due to differences between the governing documents of Harrah's and Caesars. These differences are described in detail under "Comparison of Stockholders Rights and Corporate Governance Matters" on page 121.

(3) Excludes charges for the cumulative effect of accounting changes of $979 million related to goodwill in 2002 and $2 million related to pre-opening expense in 1999. In accordance with the adoption of SFAS No. 142, on January 1, 2002, Caesars no longer amortizes goodwill.

(4) Includes the following:

For 2003, a $38 million goodwill impairment charge at the Caesars Tahoe property, and an $89 million asset impairment charge at the Flamingo Laughlin property.

For 2002, a $7.5 million charge related to the cancellation of an energy contract, $2.5 million in damage costs caused by tropical storms to Caesars Gulf Coast properties, a $9 million charge related to settling employment agreements with a former officer, a $43 million charge for the buy-out, settlement of a litigation, and revaluation of the Bally's Casino New Orleans, and a $4 million charge related to the settlement of litigation involving the failed agreement (signed in 2000) to sell the Las Vegas Hilton. Offsetting these charges in 2002 was a $44 million gain related to the sale of Caesars' interest in Jupiters Limited.

For 2001, a $19 million impairment charge related to the sale of the Flamingo Reno property and $32 million investment loss primarily related to Caesars' investment in Aladdin Gaming Holdings, LLC senior discount notes. In addition, earnings declined significantly, especially in the Las Vegas market due to the impact of travel and leisure spending resulting from the September 11, 2001 attacks.

(5) For the six months ended June 30, 2004, net income includes a gain on sale of $87 million, net of taxes, related to the sale of the Las Vegas Hilton.

We computed the Pro Forma Combined book value per share amounts by dividing pro forma stockholders' equity by the pro forma number of shares of Harrah's common stock outstanding as of June 30, 2004 (without including outstanding options). See Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Balance Sheet on page 115. The pro forma number of shares of Harrah's common stock was calculated as the sum of total shares of Harrah's common stock outstanding plus the shares expected to be issued in the merger.

Date	Harrah's Common Stock	Caesars Common Stock
July 14, 2004	$50.98	$16.00

The market value of the shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued in exchange for shares of Caesars common stock upon the completion of the merger will not be known at the time Caesars stockholders vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, or at the time Harrah's stockholders vote on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger, because the merger will not be completed by at the time of respective stockholder votes.

The above tables show only historical comparisons. Because the market prices of Harrah's common stock and Caesars common stock will likely fluctuate prior to the merger, these comparisons may not provide meaningful information to Harrah's stockholders in determining whether to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger or to Caesars stockholders in determining whether to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Harrah's and Caesars stockholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for Harrah's and Caesars common stock and to review carefully the other information contained in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/ prospectus in considering whether to approve the respective proposals before them. RISKS RELATING TO THE MERGER

In addition to the other information included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully consider the following risks before deciding whether to vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, in the case of Caesars stockholders, or for approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, in the case of Harrah's stockholders. In addition, you should read and consider the risks associated with each of the businesses of Harrah's and Caesars because these risks will also affect the combined company. These risks can be found respectively in the Harrah's and Caesars Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Harrah's and Caesars may be required to comply with material restrictions or conditions in order to obtain the regulatory approvals to complete the merger and any delays in obtaining regulatory approvals will delay and may possibly prevent the merger.

The merger is subject to review by the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, or the HSR Act. Under this statute, Harrah's and Caesars are required to make pre-merger notification filings and to await the expiration or early termination of the statutory waiting period prior to completing the merger. The governmental entities from whom approvals are required may attempt to condition their approval of the merger, or of the transfer to Harrah's of licenses and other entitlements, on the satisfaction of certain regulatory conditions that may have the effect of imposing additional costs on Harrah's or otherwise substantially reducing the benefits to Harrah's if the merger is completed. These conditions could include a complete or partial license, divestiture, spin-off or the sale of certain assets or businesses, which may be on terms that are not as favorable to Harrah's and/or Caesars as may have been attainable absent the merger. Each of Harrah's and Caesars are obligated under the merger agreement to take specified actions, subject to certain limitations, including selling or otherwise divesting certain of their gaming properties or operations, in order to obtain the required consents or approvals under the HSR Act and other antitrust regulations.

The completion of the merger is also conditioned upon receiving approval from various foreign, state and local gaming and regulatory authorities. Harrah's and Caesars have not yet obtained all of the regulatory approvals required to complete the merger.

While Harrah's and Caesars expect to obtain the required regulatory approvals, Harrah's and Caesars cannot be certain that all of the required gaming and antitrust approvals will be obtained, nor can they be certain that the approvals will be obtained within the time contemplated by the merger agreement. A delay in obtaining the required approvals will delay and may possibly prevent the completion of the merger. For a full description of the regulatory approvals required for the merger see "The Merger - Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger" on page 66.

The price of Harrah's common stock at the time of completion of the merger might be lower than the price when the merger was publicly announced, which would decrease the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration to be received by certain Caesars stockholders in the merger. Further, at the Caesars special meeting, Caesars stockholders will not know the exact value of Harrah's common stock that will be issued in the merger.

The price of Harrah's common stock might decrease from its market price on July 14, 2004, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, and on the date of the Caesars special meeting. Accordingly, if the price of Harrah's common stock declines prior to the completion of the merger, the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration to be received by Caesars stockholders in the merger will decrease. See "Summary - The Merger - Merger Consideration" on page 8. The merger agreement does not provide Caesars with a price-based termination right or other protection for Caesars or its stockholders against declines in the market price of Harrah's common stock. Therefore, Caesars cannot terminate the merger agreement solely because of a decrease in the trading price of Harrah's common stock.

In addition, because the date when the merger is completed will be later than the date of the special meetings, Harrah's and Caesars stockholders will not know the exact value of the Harrah's common stock that will be issued in the merger at the time they vote on the merger proposals. As a result, if the market price of Harrah's common stock at the completion of the merger is lower than the market price on the date of the Caesars special meeting, the value of the Harrah's common stock received by Caesars stockholders that receive the stock portion of the merger consideration in the merger will be less than the value of such Harrah's common stock on the date of the Caesars special meeting. Moreover, during such period, events, conditions or circumstances could arise that could have a material impact or effect on Harrah's, Caesars or the gaming industry.

During the twelve-month period ending on _____, _____, the most recent practicable date prior to the printing of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus, the closing price of Harrah's common stock varied from a low of $ _____ to a high of $ _____, and ended that period at $ _____. We encourage you to obtain current market quotations for Harrah's common stock before you vote your shares.

Stock consideration or cash consideration paid in the merger may be different than what Caesars stockholders elect.

Caesars stockholders may elect to receive either 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock or be deemed to have elected $17.75 in cash for each share of Caesars common stock that they own, subject to proration to reflect the aggregate amount of cash to be paid and the number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued by Harrah's in the merger and other adjustments as described in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. As a result of proration, even if a Caesars stockholder elects to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger, such Caesars stockholder may nonetheless receive a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash. Similarly, if a Caesars stockholder chooses not to elect stock or fail to make an election for stock, such Caesars stockholder may nonetheless receive a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash. For a full description of the proration terms and procedures, see "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Stock Cap and Proration" on page 91 and "Summary The Merger Merger Consideration" on page 8.

Harrah's will have more indebtedness after the merger, which could adversely affect its cash flows and business.

In order to complete the merger, Harrah's anticipates arranging for and funding at least $1.9 billion of new financing. Proceeds from the financing will be used to fund the cash portion of the consideration paid to Caesars stockholders. Harrah's debt outstanding as of June 30, 2004 was approximately $3.6 billion. On July 1, 2004, Harrah's borrowed an additional $1.0 billion under its existing credit facility to finance the acquisition of Horseshoe Gaming Holding Corp. and assumed $535 million, face amount, of Horseshoe's outstanding debt. Giving effect to the merger, Harrah's pro forma total debt outstanding as of June 30, 2004 would have been approximately $11.7 billion. As a result of this increase in debt, demands on Harrah's cash resources will increase after the completion of the merger. The increased levels of debt could, among other things:

require Harrah's to dedicate a substantial portion of its cash flow from operations to payments on its debt, thereby reducing funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, dividends, acquisitions and other purposes; increase Harrah's vulnerability to, and limit flexibility in planning for, adverse economic and industry conditions;

affect Harrah's credit rating;

Table of Contents

limit Harrah's ability to obtain additional financing to fund future working capital, capital expenditures, additional acquisitions and other general corporate requirements; create competitive disadvantages compared to other companies with less indebtedness; and limit Harrah's ability to apply proceeds from an offering or asset sale to purposes other than the repayment of debt.

If Harrah's is unable to finance the merger through cash flow, borrowings under its bank credit facility and additional financings, the completion of the merger will be jeopardized.

Harrah's intends to finance the merger primarily with cash flow from operations, borrowings under its bank credit facility, and equity or debt financings. If Harrah's is unable to finance the merger, Harrah's will have to adopt one or more alternatives, such as reducing or delaying planned expansion, development and renovation projects, selling assets, restructuring debt, or obtaining joint venture partners, all of which may adversely affect Harrah's business, financial condition and results of operations. Additionally, these sources of funds may not be sufficient to finance the merger, and other financing may not be available on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all. If Harrah's is unable to secure such additional financing, the completion of the merger will be jeopardized and Harrah's will be in breach of the merger agreement.

Harrah's may not realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Harrah's ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger will depend, in part, on the ability of Harrah's to integrate the businesses of Caesars with the businesses of Harrah's. The combination of two independent companies is a complex, costly and time-consuming process. This process may disrupt the business of either or both of the companies, and may not result in the full benefits expected by Harrah's and Caesars. The difficulties of combining the operations of the companies include, among others:

coordinating marketing functions;

unanticipated issues in integrating information, communications and other systems;

unanticipated incompatibility of purchasing, logistics, marketing and administration methods;

retaining key employees;

consolidating corporate and administrative infrastructures;

the diversion of management's attention from ongoing business concerns; and coordinating geographically separate organizations.

We cannot assure you that the combination of Caesars with Harrah's will result in the realization of the full benefits anticipated from the merger.

If the proposed merger is not completed, Harrah's and Caesars will have incurred substantial costs that may adversely affect Harrah's and Caesars' financial results and operations and the market price of Harrah's and Caesars common stock.

Harrah's and Caesars have incurred and will continue to incur substantial costs in connection with the proposed merger. These costs are primarily associated with the fees of attorneys, accountants and Harrah's and Caesars' financial advisors. In addition, Harrah's and Caesars have each diverted significant management resources in an effort to complete the merger and are each subject to restrictions contained in the merger agreement on the conduct of its business. If the merger is not completed, Harrah's and Caesars will have incurred significant costs, including the diversion of management resources, for which it will have received little or no benefit. Also, if the merger is not completed under certain circumstances specified in the merger agreement, Caesars is required to pay Harrah's a break-up fee of $180.0 million. See "The Merger Agreement - Break-up Fee" on page 107.

In addition, if the merger is not completed, Harrah's and Caesars may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and Harrah's and Caesars' collaborative partners, customers and employees. Each of these factors may adversely affect the trading price of Harrah's and/or Caesars common stock and Harrah's and/or Caesars' financial results and operations.

Failure to achieve the anticipated benefits of Harrah's acquisition of Horseshoe Gaming Holding Corp. could adversely impact Harrah's business.

On July 1, 2004, Harrah's completed its acquisition of Horseshoe Gaming Holding Corp. The complex process of integrating Horseshoe into Harrah's requires and will continue to require significant resources. Failure to achieve the anticipated benefits from the acquisition, or to successfully integrate the operations, of Horseshoe could have a material adverse effect on Harrah's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Harrah's will incur significant costs and commit significant management time integrating Horseshoe's operations, information, communication and other systems and personnel, among other items. This integration will cause Harrah's to incur cash outflows in completing the integration process, such as fees and expenses of professionals and consultants involved in completing the integration process and integrating technology and personnel.

Directors of Caesars have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Caesars stockholders.

When considering the Caesars board of directors' recommendation that Caesars stockholders vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, Caesars stockholders should be aware that some directors and executive officers of Caesars have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Caesars stockholders. These interests include the potential for positions as directors of Harrah's, severance payments under employment agreements and change of control agreements, acceleration of vesting of options, restricted stock units, performance awards and supplemental retention units as a result of the merger and the right to continued indemnification and insurance coverage by Harrah's for acts or omissions occurring prior to the merger. As a result of these interests, these directors and officers could be more likely to vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, than if they did not hold these interests, and may have reasons for doing so that are not the same as the interests of other Caesars stockholders. For a full description of the interests of directors and executive officers of Caesars in the merger, see "The Merger - Interests of Caesars' Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" on page 84.

Harrah s intends to file the amendment to Harrah s certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah s common stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger. The form of the certificate of amendment to Harrah s certificate of incorporation is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. Harrah s reserves the right to abandon or modify, upon approval of the Harrah s board of directors, the proposed amendment to Harrah s certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah s common stock at any time prior to the filing of the amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, including after approval of the stockholders has been obtained.

The Harrah s board of directors believes it is desirable to authorize additional shares of common stock so that there will be sufficient shares available for issuance for purposes that the Harrah s board of directors may later determine to be in the best interests of Harrah s and its stockholders. Such purposes could include the offer of shares for cash, acquisitions, financings, mergers, stock splits, stock dividends, employee benefit programs and other general corporate purposes. No further action or authorization by Harrah's stockholders would be necessary prior to the issuance of additional shares of common stock, unless required by applicable law or regulation.

Harrah's stockholders are voting on each proposal separately. The vote of Harrah's stockholder on one proposal has no bearing on the other proposal, or on any other matter that may come before the Harrah's special meeting.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Harrah's common stock at the close of business on the record date, _____, _____, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Harrah's special meeting. As of the Harrah's record date, there were _____ shares of Harrah's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, held by approximately _____ holders of record. Each holder of Harrah's common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Harrah's common stock owned as of the Harrah's record date.

A list of Harrah's stockholders will be available for review at the special meeting and at the executive offices of Harrah's during regular business hours for a period of ten days before the special meeting.

Quorum and Vote Required

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting. The required quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting is a majority of the outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock entitled to vote and present, whether in person or by proxy, at the Harrah's special meeting. All shares of Harrah's common stock represented at the Harrah's special meeting, including abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes are shares held by a broker or other nominee that are represented at the meeting, but with respect to which such broker or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the broker does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal.

Proposal 1

In accordance with NYSE listing requirements, the approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Harrah's common stock cast on such proposal, in person or by proxy, provided that the total vote cast on the proposal represents over 50% of the outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Votes for, votes against and abstentions count as votes cast, while broker non-votes do not count as votes cast. All outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock, including broker non-votes, count as shares entitled to vote. Thus the total sum of votes for, plus votes against, plus abstentions, which is referred to as the NYSE Votes Cast, must be greater than 50% of the total outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock. Once satisfied, the number of votes for the proposal must be greater than 50% of NYSE Votes Cast. It is expected that brokers and other nominees will not have discretionary voting authority on this proposal and thus broker non-votes will result from this proposal. Broker non-votes could have a negative effect on Harrah's ability to obtain the necessary number of NYSE Votes Cast. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal.

In accordance with the requirements of DGCL, the approval of the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of its common stock requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of outstanding Harrah's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. For this proposal, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. It is expected that brokers and other nominees will have discretionary voting authority on this proposal and thus broker non-votes will not result from this proposal.

As of the Harrah's record date for the special meeting, the directors and executive officers of Harrah's as a group beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately _____ shares of Harrah's common stock, or approximately _____ % of the outstanding shares of Harrah's common stock on that date.

Voting; Proxies; Revocation

You may vote by proxy or in person at the Harrah's special meeting. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Harrah's special meeting will be tabulated and certified by Harrah's transfer agent, The Bank of New York.

Voting in Person

If you plan to attend the Harrah's special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the special meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee, and you wish to vote at the Harrah's special meeting, you must bring to the special meeting a proxy from the record holder of the shares authorizing you to vote at the Harrah's special meeting.

Voting by Proxy

Your vote is very important. Accordingly, please complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the Harrah's special meeting in person. You should vote your proxy even if you plan to attend the Harrah's special meeting. You can always change your vote at the special meeting. Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. If you properly give your proxy and submit it to Harrah's in time to vote, one of the individuals named as your proxy will vote your shares as you have directed. A proxy card is enclosed for your use.

The method of voting by proxy differs for shares held as a record holder and shares held in street name. If you hold your shares of Harrah's common stock as a record holder or as a participant in Harrah's Company Stock Fund of the Harrah's Savings and Retirement Plan, you may vote by completing, dating and signing the enclosed proxy card and promptly returning it in the enclosed, pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope or otherwise mailing it to Harrah's, or by submitting a proxy over the Internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If you hold your shares of Harrah's common stock in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or nominee, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow in order to vote your shares. Your broker, bank or nominee may allow you to deliver your voting instructions over the Internet or by telephone. Please see the voting instructions from your broker, bank or nominee that accompany this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

All properly signed proxies that are received prior to the special meeting and that are not revoked will be voted at the special meeting according to the instructions indicated on the proxies or, if no direction is indicated, they will be voted FOR approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement and FOR approval of the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Harrah's common stock.

As of _____, there were approximately _____ shares of Harrah's common stock held by employees of Harrah's through the Harrah's Savings and Retirement Plan. Each share of Harrah's common stock held by this plan will be voted by the trustee of the plan in accordance with the instructions it receives from the respective plan participant. Shares of Harrah's common stock for which the trustee has not received instructions from the respective plan participant, or for which the plan participant has revoked its proxy before the special meeting, will be considered unvoted. All unvoted shares of common stock in the plan will be voted at the special meeting by the trustee as instructed by the investment committee under the plan or by a delegated member of such committee.

Revocation of Proxy

You may revoke your proxy at any time before your proxy is voted at the Harrah's special meeting by taking any of the following actions:

delivering to the Corporate Secretary of Harrah's a signed written notice of revocation, bearing a date later than the date of the proxy, stating that the proxy is revoked;

signing and delivering a new proxy, relating to the same shares and bearing a later date;

submitting another proxy by telephone or on the Internet (your latest telephone or Internet voting instructions are followed); or attending the Harrah's special meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

If your shares are held in street name, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee. You must contact your broker, bank or other nominee to find out how to do so.

Written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of Harrah's proxies should be addressed to:

Harrah's Entertainment, Inc.
Las Vegas, Nevada 89119
Attn: Corporate Secretary

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

For Proposal 1, abstentions will have the same effect as voting against approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement and broker non-votes could have a negative effect on Harrah's ability to obtain the necessary number of NYSE Votes Cast.

For Proposal 2, abstentions will have the same effect as voting against approval of the amendment to Harrah's certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized number of shares of Harrah's common stock.

Under the listing requirements of the NYSE, brokers who hold shares of Harrah's common stock in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters which the NYSE determines to be non-routine, such as approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. These non-voted shares are referred to as broker non-votes. If your broker holds your Harrah's common stock in street name, your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker with this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Proxy Solicitation

Harrah's is soliciting proxies for the Harrah's special meeting from Harrah's stockholders. Harrah's will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from Harrah's stockholders, except that Harrah's and Caesars have each agreed to share equally all expenses incurred in connection with the filing with the SEC of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, and the printing and mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and related proxy materials. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, Harrah's will request that brokers, banks and other nominees send proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Harrah's common stock held by them and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. Harrah's will reimburse those record holders for their reasonable expenses. Harrah's has also made arrangements with D.F. King & Co., Inc. to assist it in soliciting proxies, and has agreed to pay a fee of approximately $15,000 plus expenses for those services. Harrah's also may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from Harrah's stockholders, either personally or by telephone, Internet, telegram, facsimile or special delivery letter.

Other Business; Adjournments

Harrah's does not expect that any matter other than the proposals presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus will be brought before the Harrah's special meeting. However, if other matters incident to the conduct of the special meeting are properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment with respect to those matters.

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. An adjournment may be made from time to time by approval of the holders of shares representing a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, whether or not a quorum exists, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the special meeting. Harrah's does not currently intend to seek an adjournment of the Harrah's special meeting.

This joint proxy statement/ prospectus provides Caesars stockholders with the information they need to know to be able to vote or instruct their vote to be cast at the special meeting of Caesars stockholders.

Date, Time, Place and Purpose of the Caesars Special Meeting

The special meeting of Caesars stockholders will be held on _____, _____ at _____ a.m., local time, at Caesars Atlantic City, 2100 Pacific Avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The Caesars special meeting is being held for the following purposes:

to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 14, 2004, by and among Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's and Caesars Entertainment, Inc., and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. If the merger agreement is approved and the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are completed, then each outstanding share of Caesars common stock would be converted, at the stockholder's election, into $17.75 in cash or 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock, subject to proration and adjustment; and to transact any other business within the preceding purpose as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Recommendation of the Caesars Board of Directors

As discussed elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus, Caesars stockholders are considering and voting to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. For the reasons described in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus, the Caesars board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and has determined that the merger is advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Caesars and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Caesars board of directors unanimously recommends that Caesars stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. See The Merger Recommendation of the Caesars Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger on page 51. Approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the merger agreement.

Caesars Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Caesars common stock at the close of business on the Caesars record date, _____, _____, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Caesars special meeting. As of the Caesars record date, there were _____ shares of Caesars common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, held by approximately _____ holders of record. Each holder of Caesars common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Caesars common stock owned as of the Caesars record date.

A complete list of Caesars stockholders entitled to vote at the Caesars special meeting will be available for inspection both at Caesars Atlantic City and at the executive offices of Caesars during regular business hours for a period of no less than ten days before the special meeting.

Quorum

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting of Caesars. The required quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting is a majority of the outstanding shares of Caesars common stock entitled to vote and present at the special meeting, whether in person or by proxy. All shares of Caesars common stock represented at the Caesars special meeting, including abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes are shares held by a broker or other nominee that are represented at the meeting, but with respect to which such broker or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the broker does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal.

Vote Required

The approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes that holders of the outstanding shares of Caesars common stock are entitled to cast at the Caesars special meeting.

It is expected that brokers and other nominees in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owners of the shares will not have discretionary voting authority to vote those shares on the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Because approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, requires the affirmative vote of a specified percentage of outstanding shares of Caesars common stock, abstaining, not voting on the proposal, or failing to instruct your broker on how to vote shares of Caesars common stock held for you by the broker, will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Voting by Caesars Directors and Executive Officers

As of the Caesars record date for the Caesars special meeting, the directors and executive officers of Caesars as a group beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately _____ shares of Caesars common stock, or approximately _____ % of the outstanding shares of Caesars common stock on that date.

Stockholders of record may vote by either completing and returning the enclosed proxy card prior to the Caesars special meeting, voting through the Internet or by telephone, voting in person at the Caesars special meeting or submitting a signed proxy card at the Caesars special meeting. If you properly give your proxy and submit it to Caesars in time to vote, one of the individuals named as your proxy will vote your shares as you have directed.

Voting in Person

If you plan to attend the Caesars special meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the Caesars special meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee, and you wish to vote at the Caesars special meeting, you must bring to the Caesars special meeting a proxy from the record holder of the shares authorizing you to vote at the Caesars special meeting.

You should vote your proxy even if you plan to attend the Caesars special meeting. You can always change your vote at the Caesars special meeting.

Your vote is important. Accordingly, please sign and return the enclosed proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the Caesars special meeting in person.

delivering to the Secretary of Caesars a signed written notice of revocation bearing a date later than the date of the proxy, stating that the proxy is revoked;

signing and delivering a new proxy, relating to the same shares and bearing a later date;

submitting another proxy by telephone or on the Internet (your latest telephone or Internet voting instructions are followed); or if you are a holder of record, attending the Caesars special meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

If your shares are held in street name, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee. You must contact your broker, bank or other nominee to find out how to do so.

Written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of Caesars proxies should be addressed to: Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109, Attn: Secretary.

Proxy Solicitation

Caesars is soliciting proxies for the Caesars special meeting from Caesars stockholders. THE MERGER

The following is a description of the material aspects of the merger. While we believe that the following description covers the material terms of the merger, the description may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We encourage you to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

General

Each of the Harrah's and Caesars board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Upon the completion of the merger, Caesars will be merged with Harrah's Operating Company, the separate corporate existence of Caesars will cease, and Harrah's Operating Company will survive as the surviving entity. Caesars stockholders will receive, at each of their election but subject to certain pro rata adjustments, the right to receive either 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock or $17.75 in cash for each share of Caesars common stock that they own, upon the terms and subject to adjustment as provided in the merger agreement and further described below under "The Merger Agreement - Merger Consideration" on page 90.

Background of the Merger

The management and boards of directors of each of Harrah's and Caesars continually review their company's respective position in light of the changing competitive environment of the gaming industry with the objective of determining what strategic alternatives are available to enhance stockholder value. While each of the companies believes that it has positive future prospects on a stand-alone basis, from time to time, the management of each of Harrah's and Caesars has had conversations with other companies to explore opportunities to improve the competitive position of Harrah's or Caesars, respectively, including potential acquisitions or dispositions of assets, joint ventures or other strategic transactions. As part of this review process, Harrah's management and board of directors have periodically considered a number of potential acquisition and development opportunities, including a merger with Caesars.

As a part of Harrah's growth strategy and to further enhance its geographic distribution, strengthen its access to valued customers and build upon its technological and centralized services infrastructure, in the past seven years, Harrah's has acquired six casino companies, including Showboat, Inc., Rio Hotel & Casino, Inc., Players International, Inc., Harveys Casinos Resorts, JCC Holding Company and Horseshoe Gaming Holding Corp. This strategy enabled Harrah's to expand its gaming operations in the United States, principally in the Midwest, South and Atlantic City, to become one of the most diversified gaming companies in the casino entertainment industry. In recent years, Harrah's determined that it should increase focus on the Las Vegas gaming market and other stable regulatory jurisdictions. The Las Vegas Strip, where Harrah's operates its Harrah's Las Vegas and The Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino, became a primary focus for Harrah's Las Vegas growth and diversification strategy.

In December 1998, Caesars became a separate and independent public company when Hilton Hotels Corporation divested its gaming operations through a tax-free distribution of the Caesars common shares to Hilton stockholders. At the same time, Caesars acquired the Mississippi gaming operations of Grand Casinos, Inc. through a merger. In December 1999, Caesars acquired all of the outstanding stock of Caesars World, Inc. and interests in several other gaming entities from Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc. As part of its strategy, over the last several years Caesars has undertaken to (i) promote growth through the development of new projects in new markets and new attractions at existing properties, with particular focus on enhancing the strength of the Caesars brand name, (ii) increase operational effectiveness through cost control and productivity enhancements and (iii) drive profitable revenue growth through new product offerings and technological innovation.

Prior to June 2004, Mr. Stephen Bollenbach, Chairman of the board of directors of Caesars and Mr. Gary Loveman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Harrah's, had, from time to time, engaged in preliminary discussions exploring a possible transaction involving their respective businesses. In particular, in December 2003, Mr. Loveman telephonically contacted Mr. Bollenbach to arrange a meeting to discuss the possibility of a strategic transaction between Harrah's and Caesars. On January 6, 2004, Mr. Loveman met with Mr. Bollenbach in Los Angeles, California, at which meeting Messrs. Bollenbach and Loveman engaged in preliminary discussions regarding a potential combination of Harrah's and Caesars. No substantive discussions regarding a combination of the two companies took place following these initial contacts between Messrs. Loveman and Bollenbach. At that time, Harrah's was in the process of analyzing and considering a number of potential acquisition and development opportunities.

On June 4, 2004, MGM MIRAGE, the third-largest U.S. gaming company, announced that it had offered to purchase Mandalay Resort Group, the fourth-largest U.S. gaming company, in a cash transaction. MGM MIRAGE and Mandalay subsequently announced that they had entered into a definitive merger agreement pursuant to which MGM MIRAGE would acquire Mandalay in a transaction valued at approximately $7.9 billion.

On or about June 7, 2004, Mr. Bollenbach contacted representatives of UBS to discuss developments in the gaming industry, including the potential impact on Caesars of the acquisition of Mandalay by MGM MIRAGE. Mr. Bollenbach requested that UBS review the strategic alternatives available to Caesars, including the possibility of Caesars exploring a business combination transaction with third parties and the benefits that might be realized by Caesars and its stockholders from any such transaction. During the subsequent weeks of June 2004, Mr. Bollenbach and representatives of UBS had discussions and met regarding Caesars' strategic alternatives, including with respect to the merits of a possible business combination transaction with Harrah's. Consultations with UBS continued throughout the acquisition discussions.

Also on or about June 7, 2004, Messrs. Bollenbach and Loveman had a telephonic conversation in which they discussed whether Harrah's and Caesars should renew discussions regarding a potential combination of Harrah's and Caesars, including a discussion of a merger of equals transaction. At this time, Harrah's management and board of directors were still in the process of considering other potential acquisition and development opportunities.

On June 10, 2004, Mr. Loveman met with representatives of Deutsche Bank to discuss potential acquisition prospects, including an acquisition of Caesars. Between June 10 and June 30, 2004, Harrah's management and representatives of Deutsche Bank met several times to review issues regarding a potential acquisition of Caesars, including the potential advantages and disadvantages of a transaction, pro forma financial information, valuation, potential acquisition structures and a comparison of a potential acquisition of Caesars with other acquisition opportunities. Consultations with Deutsche Bank continued throughout the acquisition discussions.

On June 29, 2004, Mr. Bollenbach contacted Mr. Loveman to inquire as to Harrah's interest in exploring a possible business combination transaction pursuant to which Harrah's and Caesars would combine in a transaction that would provide Caesars stockholders with a premium of approximately 25%. In that conversation, Mr. Loveman indicated to Mr. Bollenbach that Harrah's would be interested in exploring a potential business combination transaction with Caesars in which the consideration to Caesars stockholders would consist of a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash. Mr. Loveman explained that it was extremely important to Harrah's that the consideration paid to Caesars stockholders by Harrah's be a mix of cash and stock, because the cash would help Harrah's mitigate the pro forma earnings dilution of a potential transaction. However, Mr. Loveman also explained that Harrah's was prepared only to include such amount of cash in the merger consideration as would permit Harrah's to maintain an investment-grade credit rating. Mr. Bollenbach agreed that it was important to the combined company to keep the cash portion of the merger consideration at a level that would permit Harrah's to maintain an investment-grade credit rating. Mr. Loveman and Mr. Bollenbach agreed to have representatives of Deutsche Bank and UBS discuss further specifics of the potential business combination transaction.

Subsequently, representatives of Deutsche Bank and UBS had several discussions relating to possible transaction terms. At Mr. Bollenbach's direction, representatives of UBS urged representatives of Deutsche Bank to request that Harrah's submit a specific transaction proposal for Caesars to consider.

Table of Contents

On July 2, 2004, representatives of Deutsche Bank conveyed to representatives of UBS that Harrah's was prepared to consider a transaction that would provide Caesars stockholders with a total consideration of $17.25 per share based on the closing price of $54.65 of Harrah's shares on July 1, 2004. Such merger consideration included $8.63 in cash and a fixed number of 0.1578 shares of Harrah's common stock and represented a 16.8% premium over the $14.77 closing price of Caesars common stock on July 1, 2004.

Representatives of UBS discussed the Harrah's proposal with Mr. Bollenbach. On July 3, 2004, Mr. Bollenbach conveyed to Mr. Loveman that the total merger consideration should represent a premium of at least 25% and that Harrah's would need to assure Caesars that the regulatory risks of the transaction were manageable. In addition, representatives of UBS conveyed Mr. Bollenbach's position that the value of the stock portion, and not the number of shares, should be fixed.

On or about July 5, 2004, representatives of Deutsche Bank conveyed to representatives of UBS that Harrah's was willing to consider a transaction that would provide Caesars stockholders with a total consideration of $17.50 per share based on the closing price of Harrah's shares on July 1, 2004. Such merger consideration included $5.96 in cash and a fixed number of 0.2112 shares of Harrah's common stock and represented a 18.5% premium over the closing price of Caesars common stock on July 1, 2004.

Representatives of Deutsche Bank indicated that Harrah's was not willing to fix the value of the stock consideration because that would effectively cause Harrah's to solely bear the risk of movements in the stock price. Representatives of Deutsche Bank further noted that Harrah's was prepared to provide 34% of the merger consideration in cash and that the Caesars stockholders would be provided downside protection through the amount of cash being provided. Representatives of Deutsche Bank also explained that the cash consideration for each outstanding share of Caesars had been reduced from $8.63 to $5.96 because of concerns regarding Harrah's ability to retain investment-grade credit ratings at the higher cash level.

Following discussions with Mr. Bollenbach, representatives of UBS responded to representatives of Deutsche Bank that the value of the consideration should be higher and that the value of the stock portion of the consideration should be fixed within a collar before Mr. Bollenbach would present Harrah's proposal to the Caesars board of directors.

On July 6, 2004, representatives of Deutsche Bank conveyed to representatives of UBS that Harrah's was willing to consider a transaction that would provide Caesars stockholders with a total consideration of $17.75 per share based on the closing stock price of Harrah's stock on July 1, 2004, comprised of the right of Caesars' stockholders to elect either $17.75 in cash or 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock for each share of Caesars common stock beneficially held, subject to proration to reflect the aggregate amount of cash to be paid and stock to be issued in the transaction. The proposed consideration represented a 20.1% premium over the $14.77 closing price of Caesars common stock on July 1, 2004. Representatives of Deutsche Bank reaffirmed that Harrah's was not willing to consider fixing the value of the stock portion of the consideration, even within a collar. Following this discussion, Mr. Bollenbach called Mr. Loveman and discussed certain other aspects of a potential transaction, including representation for the Caesars stockholders on Harrah's board of directors by appointing certain members of the Caesars board of directors to the Harrah's board of directors upon the completion of the merger. In this discussion, Mr. Bollenbach stated that he intended to present the terms of the potential combination to Caesars board of directors in a telephonic board meeting to be scheduled for July 8, 2004.

It was agreed and understood by Messrs. Bollenbach and Loveman and representatives of Deutsche Bank and UBS that the discussions regarding a potential transaction were at all times subject to, among other things, satisfactory completion of due diligence, review and approval by the respective board of directors of Harrah's and Caesars and satisfactory negotiation of other terms of the proposed transaction and definitive transaction agreements. In connection with these discussions, including the discussions Mr. Bollenbach had with representatives of UBS since early June 2004, Mr. Bollenbach consulted with several members of Caesars' board of directors, and kept them updated on the status of the preliminary discussions with Harrah's.

On July 7, 2004, Mr. Bollenbach separately informed the members of Caesars' board of directors by telephone of the recent developments with Harrah's and the status of the preliminary discussions regarding a possible business combination transaction with Harrah's, and requested that a special board meeting of Caesars' board of directors be held the following day.

On July 8, 2004, Caesars' board of directors held a special telephonic meeting, at which representatives of Caesars' legal and financial advisors were present, to discuss the possible business combination transaction. At the meeting,

Mr. Bollenbach outlined the proposed preliminary terms of the possible business combination transaction, including the proposed price, the premium it represented over recent trading prices and the ability of stockholders to elect to receive cash or stock in the possible business combination transaction, subject to proration;

representatives of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Caesars' legal advisors, and Caesars' management reviewed a number of considerations with respect to the transaction, including regulatory and antitrust considerations; and the board, along with Caesars' management and legal and financial advisors, discussed the possible business combination transaction.

At the conclusion of the July 8, 2004 meeting, Caesars' board of directors authorized Mr. Bollenbach and Caesars' management to continue to explore the possible business combination transaction and to enter into more advanced negotiations with Harrah's, to enter into a confidentiality agreement with Harrah's and to exchange confidential information with Harrah's and its advisors.

Harrah's and Caesars executed a mutual confidentiality agreement on July 9, 2004. Upon entering into such agreement, each company began conducting detailed financial, business, operational and legal due diligence on the other company. As part of the due diligence investigation, representatives of Harrah's and Caesars management and representatives of Harrah's and Caesars' financial advisors and Latham & Watkins LLP, Harrah's legal counsel, met at the Costa Mesa, California office of Latham & Watkins LLP on July 9, 2004, to discuss due diligence of the companies. Harrah's had begun preliminary financial, business, operational and legal due diligence on Caesars based on publicly available information in early June 2004.

Harrah's and Caesars each made available to the other party legal and business due diligence materials beginning on July 9, 2004. From July 9 through July 14, 2004, the parties, with assistance from their financial and legal advisors, reviewed these materials and publicly available information, conducted on-site due diligence and engaged in diligence discussions regarding their respective businesses with Harrah's and Caesars' senior management.

Between July 3 and July 9, 2004, Mr. Loveman separately informed the members of Harrah's board of directors by telephone of the recent developments with Caesars and the status of the preliminary discussions regarding a possible business combination transaction, and requested that a special board meeting of Harrah's board of directors be held on July 10, 2004.

Harrah's board of directors held a special telephonic meeting on July 10, 2004 during which it was briefed by management on the status of discussions between Harrah's and Caesars and reviewed the possible transaction. Prior to the meeting, the board was provided with materials regarding the possible transaction, including information relating to Caesars' operations and certain financial analyses relating to the potential transaction. At the meeting:

representatives of Latham & Watkins LLP reviewed legal matters, including the proposed initial terms and structure of the merger, preliminary results of the due diligence review of Caesars, the timing and related procedural steps of the proposed merger and certain regulatory and antitrust matters, and advised the board regarding its fiduciary duties when considering an acquisition of Caesars;

At the conclusion of the July 10, 2004 meeting, the Harrah's board of directors authorized Harrah's management to continue due diligence review of Caesars and discussions with Caesars regarding a possible transaction.

Despite the lack of agreement regarding significant terms of a possible transaction, Latham & Watkins LLP delivered to Caesars and Skadden Arps a proposed form of merger agreement between Harrah's and Caesars on July 10, 2004, in order to begin negotiating ancillary terms of a possible transaction. Latham & Watkins LLP also delivered to Caesars and Skadden Arps a proposed form of voting agreement between Harrah's and certain officers and directors of Caesars, which provided for an agreement by these stockholders to vote in favor of the proposed transaction and against alternative transactions. The parties later decided voting agreements would not be executed in connection with the proposed transaction.

From July 10 through July 14, 2004, representatives and legal advisors of Harrah's and Caesars engaged in extensive negotiations regarding the terms of the merger agreement. The negotiations focused on, among other things, the possible efforts that Harrah's would need to undertake in order to obtain antitrust and regulatory approvals, the operations of the companies during the period from the signing of the merger agreement to the completion of the merger and the ability of the Caesars board to exercise its fiduciary out to accept a competing proposal that might arise after the announcement of the transaction with Harrah's. In addition, during this period, Harrah's and Caesars and their respective legal and financial advisors continued due diligence.

Harrah's board of directors held a meeting in Memphis, Tennessee on July 12, 2004, at which they extensively reviewed the proposed transaction. Prior to the meeting, the board was provided a summary of the proposed merger agreement, a draft of the merger agreement, the preliminary financial analyses of Deutsche Bank and a management presentation regarding the proposed acquisition of Caesars. At the meeting:

representatives of Latham & Watkins LLP reviewed the fiduciary duties of the board when considering the proposed acquisition;

Harrah's management reviewed the strategic rationale for, and potential benefits and risks of, the proposed transaction, as well as possible strategic alternatives to the acquisition of Caesars; representatives of Deutsche Bank made a presentation of Deutsche Bank's preliminary financial analyses relating to the proposed transaction.

Such opinion is attached to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex B. Following a careful consideration of the proposed merger agreement, and following discussions with its financial and legal advisors, the Harrah's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement, the proposed merger, and the issuance of shares in the merger and unanimously resolved to recommend that the Harrah's stockholders vote to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger.

On July 14, 2004, Caesars' board of directors held a special meeting at the offices of Skadden Arps in New York, New York to receive an update and to consider and, if appropriate, act on the proposed merger agreement with Harrah's. Such opinion is attached to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex C. Following a careful consideration of the proposed merger agreement, and after extensive discussion, including discussions with its financial and legal advisors, the Caesars board of directors unanimously determined that the terms and provisions of the merger agreement negotiated with Harrah's were advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Caesars stockholders, unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and unanimously resolved to recommend that Caesars stockholders vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

The merger agreement was executed by the parties on the evening of July 14, 2004.

Prior to the opening of trading on the New York Stock Exchange on July 15, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Harrah's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger

The Harrah's board of directors believes there are substantial benefits to Harrah's stockholders that can be obtained as a result of the merger. If this transaction is completed, the Harrah's board of directors believes that the acquisition of Caesars will enhance Harrah's position as one of the largest casino operators in the world with a diversified portfolio of gaming facilities. At a meeting held on July 14, 2004, the Harrah's board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the merger are fair to, and in the best interest of, Harrah's and its stockholders and declared the merger to be advisable to its stockholders, and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Therefore, the Harrah's board of directors resolved to recommend that Harrah's stockholders approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock to Caesars stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement.

The Harrah's board of directors consulted with Harrah's senior management as well as its legal counsel, Latham & Watkins LLP, and its financial advisor, Deutsche Bank, in reaching its decisions to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and recommend that Harrah's stockholders also vote to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock to Caesars stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement. Among the matters considered by the Harrah's board of directors in its deliberations were the following material factors:

the strategic benefits of the merger, including:

the ability to expand Harrah's product and service offerings and to diversify Harrah's portfolio of gaming facilities, including expanding Harrah's operations in Las Vegas, Nevada;

the ability of the combined company to better compete with other participants in the casino industry;

the ability to expand Harrah's customer base and better serve its existing customers;

the ability to establish Harrah's in most U.S. commercial gaming markets;

the ability to control premier gaming brands;

access to assets in core markets, such as Las Vegas, and new markets; increased exposure to stable regulatory environments; and the operating efficiencies, synergies and the earning power of the combined company;

the attractive financial terms of the merger in light of:

information concerning the financial performance, financial condition, business and prospects of Harrah's and Caesars, as well as conditions in the gaming industry generally;

information concerning the recent and past stock price performance of Harrah's and Caesars common stock, as well as the views of Wall Street equity analysts regarding the two companies; and the prices paid in comparable transactions involving other gaming companies, as well as the trading performance of the stock of comparable companies in the industry;

the following terms in the merger agreement:

the stock cap and cash cap, which provide certainty as to the aggregate number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued to Caesars stockholders and the percentage of the total shares of Harrah's common stock that current Caesars stockholders will own after the merger;

the provisions that prohibit Caesars from soliciting other acquisition offers; and the provisions that require Caesars to pay a $180 million break-up fee if the merger agreement is terminated for specified reasons; an assessment of alternatives to the merger, including development opportunities and other possible acquisition candidates, and the determination that the acquisition of Caesars was a strategic fit and presented a unique opportunity to enhance and expand Harrah's operations, product and service offerings and position for future growth; and the written opinion of Deutsche Bank dated July 14, 2004, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion and based upon such other matters as

Deutsche Bank considered relevant, the merger consideration to be paid by Harrah's for each outstanding share of Caesars common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to Harrah's from a financial point of view.

The Harrah's board of directors also considered the following factors, uncertainties and risks in its deliberations concerning the merger. However, the Harrah's board of directors concluded that these risks were outweighed by the potential benefits of the merger:

the incremental debt associated with the merger could cause Harrah's to have reduced financial flexibility;

the risk that the potential benefits sought in the merger might not be fully realized; the possibility that the merger might not be completed, or that completion might be unduly delayed, for reasons beyond Harrah's control;

the effect of the public announcement of the merger on Harrah's and Caesars' stock price;

the projected dilution of Harrah's earnings per share as a result of the issuance of the shares in the merger, and the estimated time period for the merger to be accretive to Harrah's earnings per share;

the risk that Harrah's management's efforts to integrate Caesars will disrupt Harrah's operations;

the substantial charges to be incurred in connection with the merger, including the costs of integrating the businesses of Harrah's and Caesars and the transaction expenses arising from the merger;

the risk that, despite Harrah's efforts and the efforts of Caesars after the merger, the combined company may lose key personnel;

the risk that governmental entities may require that Harrah's and/or Caesars divest certain properties in order to gain approval for the merger;

the restrictions on the conduct of Harrah's business during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger; and the other risks described above under "Risks Relating to the Merger" on page 29.

It was not practical to, and thus the Harrah's board of directors did not, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the wide variety of factors it considered in evaluating the merger and the merger agreement, nor did the board determine that any one factor was of particular importance in deciding that the merger agreement and associated transactions were in the best interests of Harrah's and its stockholders. This discussion of information and material factors considered by the Harrah's board of directors is intended to be a summary rather than an exhaustive list. In considering these factors, individual members of the board may have given different weight to different factors. The board conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, and overall considered the factors to support its decision in favor of the merger and the merger agreement. The decision of each member of the Harrah's board of directors was based upon his or her own judgment, in light of all of the information presented, regarding the overall effect of the merger agreement and associated transactions on Harrah's stockholders as compared to any potential alternative transactions or courses of action. After considering this information, all members of the Harrah's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and recommended that Harrah's stockholders approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock to Caesars stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Caesars Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger

The Caesars board of directors believes that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Caesars and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Caesars board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and unanimously recommends that Caesars stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

The Caesars board of directors, in reaching its decision to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, consulted with Caesars executive officers and Caesars' financial and legal advisors and considered a variety of factors weighing positively in favor of the merger, including, without limitation, the following:

the strategic nature of the transaction, which will combine Caesars' and Harrah's respective businesses to create one of the leading gaming companies in the world, which will be well positioned to compete in the gaming industry and to achieve significant synergies;

the value to be received by holders of Caesars common stock in the merger, including the fact that based on the closing price of Harrah's common stock on July 13, 2004 (the last full trading day before rumors of a possible business combination transaction between Caesars and Harrah's were reported by several national news organizations, including the Wall Street Journal), the value of the merger consideration represented:

a premium of approximately 23.4% over the closing price of Caesars common stock on the NYSE on July 13, 2004; and a premium of approximately 20.6%, 30.7% and 51.2% over the average closing price of Caesars common stock on the NYSE for the thirty-day, six-month and twelve-month trading periods respectively including July 13, 2004;

the fact that the cash/stock election feature of the merger consideration offers Caesars stockholders both the opportunity, subject to proration, to participate in the growth and opportunities of the combined company through the stock component of the merger consideration and/or to realize cash for the value of their shares through the cash component of the merger consideration;

the fact that Caesars stockholders will own, on a fully-diluted basis, approximately 37% of the outstanding Harrah's common stock immediately following the merger;

because the stock portion of the merger consideration is a fixed number of shares of Harrah's common stock, the opportunity for Caesars stockholders to benefit from any increase in the trading price of Harrah's common shares between the announcement of the merger and the completion of the merger;

the conditions in the gaming industry generally and the business, operations, financial performance, financial condition, earnings and prospects of Caesars on a stand-alone basis as compared with the combined company after giving effect to the transaction, in light of the risks and potential rewards associated with alternatives reasonably available to Caesars;

the recent and historical stock price performance of Caesars common stock and Harrah's common stock;

the potential impact on Caesars and the gaming industry of the proposed business combination transaction between MGM MIRAGE and Mandalay and the belief that a combined company with greater size and scale would be better positioned to compete with the combined company resulting from the MGM MIRAGE/ Mandalay transaction;

the financial presentation of UBS described in the section entitled "Opinion of Caesars' Financial Advisor" on page 60, including UBS opinion to the effect that, as of the date of its opinion and based on and subject to various assumptions made, matters considered and limitations described in the opinion, the aggregate merger consideration to be received by holders of Caesars common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders;

the expected qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, or as an exchange under Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code, resulting in the common stock portion of the merger consideration to be received by Caesars stockholders not being subject to federal income tax, as described in the section entitled Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 76;

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including:

the fact that the terms of the merger agreement provide that, under certain circumstances, and subject to certain conditions more fully described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement - Caesars Prohibited from Soliciting Other Offers on page 96, Caesars can furnish information to and conduct negotiations with a third party in connection with an unsolicited proposal for a business combination or acquisition of Caesars that is likely to lead to a superior proposal and the Caesars board of directors can terminate the merger agreement for a superior proposal or change its recommendation prior to stockholder approval of the merger agreement;

the fact that Harrah's agreed to assume substantially all the regulatory risk relating to the merger, which provides a very high degree of assurance that the completion of the merger will occur;

the fact that the completion of the merger is not conditioned on Harrah's obtaining financing; and the limited conditions required to be satisfied prior to completion of the merger; and the fact that Harrah's agreed to appoint at least two, and possibly up to four, members of the Caesars board of directors to the Harrah's board of directors, which is expected to provide a degree of continuity and involvement by Caesars directors in the combined company following the merger.

In addition to these factors, the Caesars board of directors also considered the potential adverse impact of other factors weighing negatively against the proposed transaction, including, without limitation, the following:

the risk that, notwithstanding the likelihood of the merger being completed, the merger might not be completed including the effect of the pendency of the merger and such failure to be completed may have on:

the trading price of Caesars common stock;

Caesars' operating results, including the costs incurred in connection with the transaction; and the possibility of significant costs and delays resulting from seeking regulatory approvals necessary for completion of the proposed merger;

Caesars' ability to attract and retain customers and key personnel;

because the stock portion of the merger consideration is a fixed number of shares of Harrah's common stock Caesars stockholders could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Harrah's common stock between the date of execution of the merger agreement, and the merger agreement does not provide Caesars with a price-based termination right or other protection for Caesars or its stockholders;

the requirement that Caesars must pay to Harrah's a break-up fee of $180.0 million if the merger agreement is terminated under circumstances specified in the merger agreement, which may discourage other parties that may otherwise have an interest in a business combination with, or an acquisition of, Caesars, as described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement - Break-up Fee on page 107;

the terms of the merger agreement restricting the conduct of Caesars' business during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the completion of the merger;

the limitations imposed in the merger agreement on the solicitation by Caesars of alternative business combinations prior to the completion of the merger;

the challenges of combining the businesses, operations and workforces of Harrah's and Caesars and of realizing the anticipated synergies;

the amount of time it could take to complete the merger, including the fact that completion of the transaction depends on factors outside of Caesars' control;

the proration limitations on the amount of cash and stock available to Caesars stockholders which will result in Caesars stockholders not being assured that they will fully receive the form of merger consideration they prefer;

the fact that gains arising from the cash portion of the consideration would be taxable to Caesars stockholders for United States federal income tax purposes; and the risks described in the section entitled "Risks Relating to the Merger" on page 29.

The Caesars board of directors also considered the interests that certain executive officers and directors of Caesars may have with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as stockholders of Caesars generally, as described in the Section entitled "Interests of Caesars' Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" on page 84, which the Caesars board of directors considered as being neutral in its evaluation of the proposed transaction.

The Caesars board of directors concluded that the positive factors significantly outweighed the negative and neutral factors described above. This discussion of the information and factors considered by the Caesars board of directors includes all the material positive, negative and neutral factors considered by the Caesars board of directors, but it is not intended to be exhaustive and may not include all of the factors considered by the Caesars board of directors. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, the Caesars board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors that it considered in reaching its determination that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Caesars and its stockholders. Rather, the Caesars board of directors viewed its position and recommendation as being based on an overall analysis and on the totality of the information presented to and factors considered by it. In addition, in considering the factors described above, individual members of the Caesars board of directors may have given differing weights to different factors. After considering this information, all members of the Caesars board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and recommended that Caesars stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Opinion of Harrah's Financial Advisor

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., which is referred to as Deutsche Bank, has acted as financial advisor to Harrah's in connection with the merger. On July 14, 2004, Deutsche Bank delivered its oral opinion to the Harrah's board of directors, subsequently confirmed in its written opinion as of the same date, to the effect that, as of such date, based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by Deutsche Bank, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to Harrah's.

The full text of Deutsche Bank's written opinion, dated July 14, 2004, which discusses, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by Deutsche Bank in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Harrah's stockholders are urged to read this opinion in its entirety. The following summary of the Deutsche Bank opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In connection with Deutsche Bank's role as financial advisor to Harrah's, and in arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank has reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information concerning Caesars and Harrah's and certain internal analyses and other information furnished to it by Caesars and Harrah's. Deutsche Bank has also held discussions with members of the senior managements of Caesars and Harrah's regarding the businesses and prospects of their respective companies and the joint prospects of a combined company. In addition, Deutsche Bank has:

reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for Caesars common stock and Harrah's common stock;

reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which it deemed comparable to the merger in whole or in part;

reviewed the terms of the merger agreement and certain related documents; and performed such other studies and analyses and considered such other factors as it deemed appropriate.

In preparing its opinion, Deutsche Bank did not assume responsibility for the independent verification of, and did not independently verify, any information, whether publicly available or furnished to it, concerning Caesars or Harrah's, including, without limitation, any financial information, forecasts or projections, considered in connection with the rendering of its opinion. Accordingly, for purposes of its opinion, Deutsche Bank assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information. Deutsche Bank did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or assets and did not prepare or obtain any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of Caesars or Harrah's. With respect to the financial forecasts and projections, including the analyses and forecasts of certain cost savings, operating efficiencies, revenue effects and other synergies expected by management of Harrah's to be achieved as a result of the merger, which we collectively refer to as the synergies, made available to Deutsche Bank and used in its analysis, Deutsche Bank has assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Caesars or Harrah's as to the matters covered thereby. In rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank expressed no view as to the reasonableness of those forecasts and projections, including the synergies, or the assumptions on which they are based. Deutsche Bank's opinion was necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Deutsche Bank as of, the date of its opinion.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank has assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis:

the representations and warranties of Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company and Caesars contained in the merger agreement are true and correct;

Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company and Caesars would each perform all of the covenants and agreements to be performed by it under the merger agreement; or conditions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers will be made that would have a material adverse effect on Caesars or Harrah's or materially reduce the contemplated benefits of the merger to Harrah's.

In addition, Deutsche Bank has been advised by Harrah's, and accordingly has assumed for purposes of its opinion, that the merger will be tax-free to Harrah's.

Deutsche Bank's Financial Analysis

Set forth below is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Deutsche Bank in connection with its opinion and reviewed with the Harrah's board of directors at its meeting on July 14, 2004.

Analysis of Selected Publicly Traded Companies. Deutsche Bank reviewed certain financial information and calculated commonly used valuation measurements for Caesars and Harrah's, as applicable, to corresponding information and measurements for groups of publicly traded companies in the gaming industry.

The publicly traded companies selected in the gaming industry to which Caesars was compared consisted of:

Harrah's;

Mandalay Resort Group (as of June 6, 2004, the last trading day prior to the announcement by MGM MIRAGE of its intent to acquire Mandalay Resort Group);

MGM MIRAGE; and

Station Casinos, Inc.

The publicly traded companies selected in the gaming industry to which Harrah's was compared consisted of:

Caesars;

Mandalay Resort Group (as of June 6, 2004, the last trading day prior to the announcement by MGM MIRAGE of its intent to acquire Mandalay Resort Group);

MGM MIRAGE; and

Station Casinos, Inc.

The financial information and valuation measurements reviewed by Deutsche Bank included, among other things, ratios of total enterprise value (the sum of equity market valuation and net debt) to estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, for 2004 and 2005.

To calculate the trading multiples with respect to the comparable companies, Deutsche Bank used publicly available information concerning historical and projected financial performance, including analyst reports and published historical financial information and earnings estimates reported by Deutsche Bank research analysts.

Deutsche Bank observed that the implied value of Caesars common stock based on the selected publicly traded companies analysis ranged from $14.98 to $18.51 per share using the multiple of total enterprise value to estimated 2004 EBITDA, and from $14.56 to $18.26 per share using the multiple of total enterprise value to estimated 2005 EBITDA. Deutsche Bank compared those ranges of values to (i) $17.06, which represents the implied value of the merger consideration per share of Caesars common stock based on Harrah's closing share price of $51.44 on July 9, 2004, and (ii) $17.39, which represents the implied value per share of Caesars common stock based on the Harrah's average share price over the 30-day period ending on July 9, 2004. Deutsche Bank also observed that the implied value of Harrah's common stock based on the selected publicly traded companies analysis ranged from $50.75 to $62.11 per share using the multiple of total enterprise value to estimated 2004 EBITDA, and from $56.33 to $69.20 per share using the multiple of total enterprise value to estimated 2005 EBITDA. Deutsche Bank compared those ranges of values to (i) $51.44, the Harrah's closing share price on July 9, 2004, and (ii) $53.01, which represents the Harrah's average share price over the 30-day period ending on July 9, 2004.

Other than Caesars and Harrah's themselves, which were each included in the group of companies compared to the other, none of the companies utilized in either publicly traded company analysis is identical to Caesars or Harrah's. Accordingly, Deutsche Bank believes the analysis is not simply mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in Deutsche Bank's opinion, concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the selected companies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Deutsche Bank performed a discounted cash flows analysis for (i) Caesars as a stand-alone entity, (ii) Caesars as a part of Harrah's (i.e. including or excluding the following in the determination of free cash flow: synergies, certain divested assets, amortization of financing fees, transaction costs and tax benefit of transaction costs), and (iii) Harrah's as a stand-alone entity. Deutsche Bank calculated the discounted cash flow values for each of Caesars and Harrah's as the sum of the net present values of:

the estimated future free cash flows that Caesars or Harrah's, as the case may be, would generate for the final six months of 2004 through 2008; and the terminal value of Caesars or Harrah's at the end of such period.

The estimated future free cash flows were based on the financial projections for Caesars for the final six months of 2004 through 2008 and on the financial projections for Harrah's for the final six months of 2004 through 2008, each as provided by Harrah's management. The terminal values for each of Caesars and Harrah's were calculated based on projected EBITDA for such company for 2008 (based on projections by Harrah's management) and a range of multiples of EBITDA ranging from 8.0x to 9.0x. Deutsche Bank used discount rates ranging from 6.5% to 8.5% for both Caesars and Harrah's. The discount rates for Caesars and Harrah's were based on Deutsche Bank's judgment of the estimated weighted average cost of Caesars or Harrah's capital, as applicable, and the EBITDA multiples were based on its review of the trading characteristics of each of Caesars and Harrah's common stock.

Deutsche Bank observed that (i) the implied value of Caesars common stock, treating Caesars as a stand-alone entity, based on the discounted cash flow analysis ranged from $20.00 to $23.00 per share, and (ii) the implied value of Caesars common stock, treating Caesars as a part of Harrah's, based on the discounted cash flow analysis ranged from $23.00 to $26.50 per share. Deutsche Bank compared each of these ranges of values to (i) $17.06, which represents the implied value of the merger consideration per share of Caesars common stock based on Harrah's closing share price of $51.44 on July 9, 2004, and (ii) $17.39, which represents the implied value per share of Caesars common stock based on the Harrah's average share price over the 30-day period ending on July 9, 2004. Deutsche Bank also observed that the implied value of Harrah's common stock based on the discounted cash flow analysis ranged from $69.50 to $80.50 per share and compared that range of values to (i) $51.44, the Harrah's share price as of July 9, 2004, and (ii) $53.01, which represents the Harrah's average share price over the 30-day period ending on July 9, 2004.

Analysis of Selected Precedent Transactions. Deutsche Bank reviewed five mergers and acquisitions transactions announced since June 6, 1996, in the gaming industry. The transactions reviewed, which are referred to as the selected transactions, are:

Date announced	Target	Acquirer
06/16/04	Mandalay Resort Group	MGM MIRAGE
03/06/00	Mirage Resorts	MGM Grand, Inc.
04/27/99	Caesars World, Inc.	Park Place Entertainment
12/11/97	ITT Corporation	Starwood Lodging Trust
06/06/96	Bally Entertainment	Hilton Hotels

Deutsche Bank observed that the relevant ratios of total enterprise value to forward EBITDA for the selected transactions ranged from 9.0x to 10.0x, which, when applied to the estimated 2004 EBITDA for Caesars, implied a range of values of $18.51 to $22.04. Deutsche Bank compared that range of values to (i) $17.06, which represents the implied value of the merger consideration per share of Caesars common stock based on Harrah's closing share price of $51.44 on July 9, 2004, and (ii) $17.39, which represents the implied value per share of Caesars common stock based on the Harrah's average share price over the 30-day period ending on July 9, 2004.

The analysis for the selected transactions was based on public information available at the time of announcement of such transactions, without taking into account differing market and other conditions during the period between June 6, 1996 and June 16, 2004, during which the selected transactions were announced.

Premiums Paid Analysis. Deutsche Bank reviewed premiums to stock price paid in 74 non-financial company mergers and acquisitions transactions in the $5 billion to $15 billion total enterprise value range since January 1, 1998. Deutsche Bank reviewed the premiums paid in these transactions over the price of the target stock one day, one week, and four weeks prior to the announcement of such transactions. Based on this analysis, Deutsche Bank observed a range of premiums of 25% to 30% over the market price of the target stock price one day prior to the announcement of such transactions, a range of premiums of 28% to 33% over the market price of the target stock price one week prior to the announcement of such transactions, and a range of premiums of 33% to 38% over the market price of the target stock price one month prior to the announcement of such transactions. Deutsche Bank applied these ranges of premiums to share price of Caesars as if the merger was announced on July 12, 2004, and calculated implied ranges of stock prices of $16.69 to $17.36 per share based on the one day premium range, $18.52 to $19.25 per share based on the one week premium range, and $19.19 to $19.91 based on the one month premium range. Deutsche Bank compared these ranges of implied share prices to (i) $17.06, which represents the implied value of the merger consideration per share of Caesars common stock based on Harrah's closing share price of $51.44 on July 9, 2004, and (ii) $17.39, which represents the implied value per share of Caesars common stock based on the Harrah's average share price over the 30-day period ending on July 9, 2004.

Pro Forma Combined Earnings Growth Analysis. Deutsche Bank analyzed certain pro forma effects of the merger. Based on this analysis, Deutsche Bank computed the resulting compound annual growth rate, or CAGR, of each of Harrah's EBITDA, cash earnings per share (sum of net income plus depreciation and amortization divided by the number of outstanding shares), and earnings per share, or EPS, estimates for the periods 2004-2008 and 2005-2008, both as a stand-alone entity and pro forma for a combination with Caesars.

The following chart sets forth the results of this analysis:

		2004-2008 CAGR	2005-2008 CAGR
Harrah's stand-alone	EBITDA % Growth	8.2%	6.6%
	Cash EPS % Growth	9.3%	7.8%
	EPS % Growth	9.0%	9.0%
Harrah's pro forma for combination with Caesars	EBITDA % Growth	NM	7.8%
	Cash EPS % Growth	12.1%	9.2%
	EPS % Growth	10.3%	16.5%

Deutsche Bank used forward estimates of projected financial performance for Harrah's that were provided by Harrah's management.

Accretion/(Dilution) Analysis. Deutsche Bank analyzed certain pro forma effects expected to result from the merger, including, among other things, the expected effect of the merger on the estimated earnings per share, and cash earnings per share (the sum of net income plus depreciation and amortization divided by the number of outstanding shares) for Harrah's for calendar years 2005 through 2008. The pro forma results were based on financial data provided by Harrah's management. Deutsche Bank calculated CAGR of Harrah's earnings per share of 10.3% over the period 2004 through 2008, assuming realization of 100% of the synergies, and of 8.6% over the same period, assuming 66.7% of the synergies. Deutsche Bank compared these CAGRs to the status quo earnings per share CAGR projection of 9.0%. Deutsche Bank also calculated a CAGR of Harrah's cash earnings per share of 12.1% over the period 2004 through 2008, assuming realization of 100% of the synergies, and of 11.3% over the same period, assuming 66.7% of the synergies. Deutsche Bank compared these CAGRs to the status quo cash earnings per share CAGR projection of 9.3%.

General. The foregoing summary describes all analyses and factors that Deutsche Bank deemed material in its presentation to the Harrah's board of directors, but is not a comprehensive description of all analyses performed and factors considered by Deutsche Bank in connection with preparing its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving the application of subjective business judgment in determining the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description. Deutsche Bank believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering any portion of such analyses and of the factors considered without considering all analyses and factors could create a misleading view of the process underlying the opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Deutsche Bank did not assign specific weights to any particular analyses.

In conducting its analyses and arriving at its opinions, Deutsche Bank utilized a variety of generally accepted valuation methods. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of enabling Deutsche Bank to provide its opinion to the Harrah's board of directors as to the fairness to Harrah's of the merger consideration and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which are inherently subject to uncertainty. In connection with its analyses, Deutsche Bank made, and was provided by Harrah's management and Caesars' management with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Deutsche Bank, Caesars or Harrah's. Analyses based on estimates or forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual past or future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Because such analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of Harrah's, Caesars or their respective advisors, neither Harrah's nor Deutsche Bank nor any other person assumes responsibility if future results or actual values are materially different from these forecasts or assumptions.

The terms of the merger were determined through negotiations between Caesars and Harrah's and were approved by the Harrah's board of directors. Although Deutsche Bank provided advice to Harrah's during the course of these negotiations, the decision to enter into the merger was solely that of the Harrah's board of directors. As described above, the opinion and presentation of Deutsche Bank to the Harrah's board of directors were only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the Harrah's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Deutsche Bank's opinion was provided to the Harrah's board of directors to assist it in connection with its consideration of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote or take any other action with respect to the merger. Deutsche Bank's opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which shares of Harrah's common stock traded after the announcement of or will trade after the completion of the merger.

Harrah's selected Deutsche Bank as financial advisor in connection with the merger based on Deutsche Bank's qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience in mergers and acquisitions. Harrah's has retained Deutsche Bank pursuant to a letter agreement dated July 9, 2004, which is referred to as the engagement letter. Deutsche Bank will be paid a reasonable and customary fee for its services as financial advisor to Harrah's in connection with the merger, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon completion of the merger. Regardless of whether the merger is completed, Harrah's has agreed to reimburse Deutsche Bank for reasonable fees and disbursements of Deutsche Bank's counsel and all of Deutsche Bank's reasonable travel and other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the merger or otherwise arising out of the retention of Deutsche Bank under the engagement letter. Harrah's has also agreed to indemnify Deutsche Bank and certain related persons to the full extent lawful against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the U.S. federal securities laws arising out of its engagement or the merger.

Deutsche Bank is an internationally recognized investment banking firm experienced in providing advice in connection with mergers and acquisitions and related transactions. Deutsche Bank is an affiliate of Deutsche Bank AG, which, together with its affiliates, is referred to as the DB Group. One or more members of the DB Group have, from time to time, provided investment banking, commercial banking (including extension of credit) and other financial services to Caesars and Harrah's or their affiliates for which it has received compensation, including (1) the Harrah's June 2004 $750 million 5.50% senior notes offering for which a member of the DB Group acted as co-manager, (2) the Harrah's June 2004 $2.5 billion revolving credit agreement, for which a member of the DB Group acted as managing agent, (3) Caesars' March 2004 $2.0 billion credit agreement, for which a member of the DB Group acted as joint lead arranger and joint book-running manager, (4) Caesars' March 2004 $375 million floating rate contingent convertible senior notes offering for which a member of the DB Group acted as joint book-running manager, and (5) other securities offerings by Harrah's and Caesars with respect to which a member of the DB Group participated in a managing role. One or more members of the DB Group have agreed to provide financing to Harrah's in connection with the merger, some of which funds are expected to be used to pay off existing loans made by members of the DB Group to Caesars and Harrah's. In the foregoing capacities, Deutsche Bank has received an aggregate of $9,155,140 in compensation from Caesars and $3,968,798 in compensation from Harrah's.

In the ordinary course of business, members of the DB Group may actively trade in the securities and other instruments and obligations of Caesars and Harrah's for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers. Accordingly, the DB Group may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities, instruments and obligations.

Opinion of Caesars' Financial Advisor

UBS Securities LLC, which is referred to as UBS, acted as financial advisor to Caesars in connection with the merger and evaluated the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the aggregate merger consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of Caesars common stock. On July 14, 2004, at a meeting of the board of directors of Caesars held to evaluate the merger, UBS delivered to the board an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated July 14, 2004, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions made, matters considered and limitations described in the opinion, the aggregate merger consideration to be received by the holders of Caesars common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of UBS' opinion describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by UBS. UBS' opinion is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. UBS' opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the aggregate merger consideration to be received in the merger by holders of Caesars common stock and does not address any other aspect of the merger. UBS' opinion also does not address the merits of the merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available to Caesars or any underlying business decision of Caesars in connection with the merger or any other matter, nor does the opinion constitute a recommendation to any holder of Caesars common stock as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the merger agreement or any other matter or as to such stockholder's election regarding the form of the merger consideration to be paid to such stockholder. Caesars common stockholders are encouraged to read UBS' opinion carefully in its entirety. The summary of UBS' opinion described below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, UBS, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available business and historical financial information relating to Caesars and Harrah's;

reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the businesses and financial prospects of Caesars and Harrah's, including estimates and financial forecasts prepared and provided to UBS by the respective managements of Caesars and Harrah's and not publicly available;

conducted discussions with members of the senior management of Caesars and Harrah's concerning the businesses and financial prospects of Caesars and Harrah's;

reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data with respect to other companies in lines of business UBS believed to be generally comparable to those of Caesars and Harrah's;

compared the financial terms of the merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions which UBS believed to be generally relevant;

considered certain pro forma effects of the merger on Harrah's financial statements and reviewed certain estimates of potential synergies prepared and provided to UBS by the managements of Caesars and Harrah's;

reviewed drafts of the merger agreement; and conducted other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered other information, as UBS deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with its review, with Caesars' consent, UBS did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information that UBS reviewed for the purpose of its opinion and, with Caesars' consent, UBS relied on that information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, at Caesars' direction, UBS did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Caesars or Harrah's, and was not furnished with any evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the estimates, financial forecasts, pro forma effects and calculations of synergies utilized by UBS in its analyses, UBS assumed, at Caesars' direction, that they were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Caesars and the management of Harrah's as to the future performance of their respective companies and that the estimates, financial forecasts, pro forma effects and calculations of synergies would be achieved at the times and in the amounts projected. In addition, UBS assumed, with the consent of Caesars, that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. UBS' opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions existing on, and information available to UBS as of the date of its opinion. Subsequent developments in those conditions could require a reevaluation of such opinion. UBS does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

UBS was not asked to, except as expressly set forth in its opinion, and it did not, offer any opinion as to the material terms of the merger agreement or the form of the transaction. UBS expressed no opinion as to the value of Harrah's common stock when issued pursuant to the merger or the price at which Harrah's common stock may trade in the future. In addition, UBS did not specifically analyze the impact on any individual stockholder of Caesars as to such stockholder's election regarding the form of consideration to be received pursuant to the merger agreement. In rendering its opinion, UBS assumed, with Caesars' consent, that the final executed form of the merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft that UBS examined and that the parties to the merger agreement would comply with all of the material terms of the merger agreement. UBS also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the completion of the merger would be obtained without any material adverse effect on Caesars and/or Harrah's and the merger. In connection with its engagement by Caesars, UBS was not authorized to and did not solicit indications of interest from any party with respect to a business combination with Caesars. Except as described above, Caesars imposed no other instructions or limitations on UBS with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by UBS in rendering its opinion. The merger consideration was determined through negotiation between Caesars and Harrah's and not as a result of a recommendation by UBS, and the decision to enter into the merger was solely that of the Caesars board of directors.

In furnishing its opinion, UBS did not purport that it is an expert within the meaning of the term "expert" as used in the Securities Act, nor did it purport that its opinion constitutes a report or valuation within the meaning of the Securities Act.

In connection with rendering its opinion, UBS performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and involves various judgments and determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant assumptions and financial analyses and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances involved. Fairness opinions are therefore not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description.

Accordingly, UBS believes that its analyses and the summary set forth below must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors, or focusing on information in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses performed by UBS in connection with its opinion. In arriving at its opinion, UBS did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, UBS arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole, and believes that the totality of the factors considered and analyses it performed in connection with its opinion operated collectively to support its determination as to the fairness of the aggregate merger consideration from a financial point of view to Caesars common stockholders.

The analyses performed by UBS are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by the analyses. The analyses were prepared solely as part of UBS' analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Caesars common stockholders of the aggregate merger consideration.

UBS' opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by Caesars' board of directors in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Caesars' board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by UBS in connection with providing its opinion to the board of directors of Caesars on July 14, 2004. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. To fully understand the financial analyses, the tables should be read together with the text of each summary. Considering the data in the tables without considering the narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses.

Historical Stock Price Performance

UBS reviewed historical trading prices for Caesars common stock. UBS reviewed the closing price of Caesars common stock on July 13, 2004, and average closing prices over specified periods preceding July 13, 2004, and calculated the implied premium of the offered merger consideration over these historical prices. For this analysis, UBS used an implied value of the offered merger consideration of $17.17 per share based on the July 13, 2004 closing price of Harrah's common stock. A summary of these historical stock price statistics is set forth in the following table:

Historical Implied Exchange Ratio Analysis

UBS reviewed the historical common stock prices of Caesars and Harrah's as of July 13, 2002, and for specified periods preceding July 13, 2004. UBS calculated the exchange ratios implied by the common stock prices for specified periods and compared them to a theoretical exchange ratio of 0.3304, which it based on a $17.17 implied offer price and the assumption that the merger consideration consisted solely of Harrah's common stock. This analysis indicated the following implied exchange ratios:

Selected Gaming Companies Trading Statistics

UBS compared selected financial information, ratios, and public market multiples for Caesars and Harrah's to the corresponding data for the following nine publicly traded companies:

Ameristar Casinos, Inc.;

Table of Contents

Aztar Corp.;

Boyd Gaming Corp.;

MGM MIRAGE;

Penn National Gaming, Inc.;

Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc.; and

Station Casinos, Inc.

UBS chose the foregoing selected companies because they are publicly traded companies in the gaming industry with operations that were believed to be reasonably similar to Caesars and Harrah's for the purposes of this analysis. UBS reviewed, among other information, the ratio of the selected companies' total enterprise value, referred to as TEV, calculated as equity value (based on July 13, 2004 closing stock prices) plus total debt and other long-term liabilities, less cash and cash equivalents, to:

last twelve months, referred to as LTM, earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, referred to as EBITDA; and estimated EBITDA for 2004 and 2005;

UBS also reviewed, among other information, the ratio of the selected companies' share price as of closing on July 13, 2004 to projected earnings per share, referred to as EPS, for 2004 and 2005.

Estimated financial data for the selected companies were based on publicly available information, various research reports, and consensus estimates.

	TEV/EBITDA			P/E Multiples
	LTM	2004E	2005E	2004E	2005E
Selected Companies
Mean	9.3	8.7	8.1	17.6	19.4
Median	8.9	8.7	8.0	16.8	15.2
High	14.2	12.8	11.4	24.5	53.9
Low	6.2	6.0	6.0	12.4	9.7
Harrah's	8.6	7.9	8.0	16.1	14.8
Caesars at Market Price	7.8	7.4	7.0	20.2	18.3
Caesars at Offer Price	8.8	8.4	8.0	24.9	22.6

UBS noted that none of the selected companies is either identical or directly comparable to Caesars or Harrah's and that any analysis of selected companies necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading of the selected companies.

Selected Precedent U.S. Gaming Transactions

UBS reviewed the purchase prices paid in 18 selected transactions involving target companies in the gaming industry. Financial data for the selected transactions were based on publicly available information, including publicly available research estimates and company filings. UBS then calculated, where available, (1) the ratio of TEV to estimated EBITDA and (2) the premium paid over the stock price one day and 30 days prior to the transaction announcement, for each selected transaction and compared the results of these calculations with corresponding calculations for the merger of Harrah's and Caesars.

Table of Contents

This analysis indicated the following implied ratios and premiums for the selected transactions as compared to the implied ratio and premium for the merger of Harrah's and Caesars:

Comparable Transactions
Median	6.9	30%	28%

UBS noted that none of the selected precedent transactions is either identical or directly comparable to the merger and that any analysis of selected precedent transactions necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition values of the companies concerned.

Caesars Standalone Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis using financial forecasts for 2005 to 2008 internally prepared by Caesars' management in order to derive an implied per share equity value reference range for Caesars shares. UBS assumed discount rates of 9.0% to 12.0% reflecting Caesars' estimated weighted average cost of capital. The discounted cash flow analysis determined the discounted present value of the unleveraged after-tax cash flows generated over the period covered by the financial forecasts and then added a terminal value based on a range of multiples of estimated 2009 EBITDA of 6.5x to 7.5x. This analysis indicated an implied equity value reference range per Caesars share of $13.94 to $20.33.

Harrah's Standalone Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

UBS also performed a discounted cash flow analysis using financial forecasts for 2005 to 2008 internally prepared by Harrah's management in order to derive an implied per share equity value reference range for Harrah's shares. UBS assumed discount rates of 9.0% to 12% reflecting Harrah's estimated weighted average cost of capital. The discounted cash flow analysis determined the discounted present value of the unleveraged after-tax cash flows generated by the period covered by the financial forecasts and then added a terminal value based on a range of multiples of estimated 2009 EBITDA of 7.5x to 8.5x. This analysis indicated an implied equity value reference range per Harrah's share of $50.27 to $68.18.

Pro Forma Combination Analysis

UBS analyzed the potential pro forma financial effects of the business combination of Caesars and Harrah's on Harrah's estimated EPS. UBS performed the analysis using financial projections internally prepared by the managements of Caesars and Harrah's, and also using IBES consensus estimates which are publicly available, for 2005, 2006 and 2007. The analysis was performed assuming that no divestitures would be required in order to obtain regulatory approvals required to complete the merger, and the analysis was also done assuming that Harrah's would have to divest properties to obtain such regulatory approvals.

For purposes of its pro forma analysis, at the direction of Caesars, UBS made various assumptions, including (1) annual pre-tax synergies of $50 million, $100 million and $150 million, (2) in the scenario assuming no divestitures, the cash portion of the aggregate merger consideration will be debt-financed and (3) in the scenario assuming divestitures, the cash portion of the aggregate merger consideration will be financed using net proceeds from the divestitures.

Using IBES consensus estimates for Caesars and Harrah's, the analysis indicated that the merger would be dilutive to Harrah's estimated pro forma EPS for 2005, 2006 and 2007, except that the merger would be accretive for 2006 and 2007 only in the scenario assuming no divestitures and $150 million of annual pre-tax synergies. Using internally prepared management forecasts for Caesars and Harrah's, in the scenario assuming no divestitures, the analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to Harrah's estimated pro forma EPS for 2005, 2006 and 2007, except that the merger would be dilutive for 2005 and 2006 assuming only $50 million of annual pre-tax synergies. Using the same management forecasts, in the scenario assuming divestitures, the merger would be dilutive to Harrah's estimated pro forma EPS for 2005, 2006 and 2007, except that the merger would be accretive for 2007 assuming $150 million of annual pre-tax synergies.

Other Factors

In the course of preparing its opinion, UBS also reviewed and considered other information and data, including:

historical trading multiples for Caesars and Harrah's common stock; historical EBITDA margin, return on book equity, consensus projected EPS forecasts and consensus long-term growth rate forecasts for Caesars, Harrah's and selected other gaming industry companies; and publicly available research analysts' reports for Caesars and Harrah's.

Miscellaneous

Caesars selected UBS as its financial advisor in connection with the merger because UBS is an internationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in similar transactions. Under the terms of its engagement, UBS will receive a customary fee for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger. In addition, Caesars has agreed to reimburse UBS for its reasonable expenses, including fees and disbursements of its counsel, and to indemnify UBS against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, relating to or arising out of its engagement as financial advisor to Caesars.

UBS, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, strategic transactions, corporate restructurings, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

In the ordinary course of business, UBS acts as a market maker and broker in the publicly traded securities of Caesars and Harrah's and UBS and its affiliates may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities for its own account or for the accounts of its customers.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

United States Antitrust

The merger is subject to review by the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, or the Antitrust Division, and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, or the FTC, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which is referred to as the HSR Act. Under the HSR Act, Harrah's and Caesars are required to make pre-merger notification filings and to await the expiration or early termination of the statutory waiting period prior to completing the merger. On July 28, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars each filed a Premerger Notification and Report Form with the Antitrust Division and the FTC.

On August 27, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars received from the FTC requests for additional information with respect to the merger. As a result of the requests for additional information, the waiting period under the HSR Act will be extended until 11:59 P.M. Eastern Standard Time on the 30th day after both Harrah's and Caesars have substantially complied with the requests for additional information or such later time as is agreed among the parties and the FTC.

There can be no assurance that the governmental reviewing authorities will terminate the applicable statutory waiting periods or clear the merger at all or without restrictions or conditions that would have a material adverse effect on the combined company if the merger is completed. These restrictions and conditions could include the grant of a complete or partial license, or the divestiture, spin-off or the holding separate of assets or businesses. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Harrah's and Caesars, if requested by Harrah's, are required to commit to any divestitures, licenses or hold separate or similar arrangements with respect to its assets or conduct of business arrangements if such divestiture, license, holding separate or arrangement is a condition to obtain any approval from any governmental entity in order to complete the merger and would not have a material adverse effect on the combined company. Caesars may condition any divestiture, license or hold separate or similar arrangement upon the completion of the merger. No additional stockholder approval is expected to be required or sought for any decision by Harrah's or Caesars, after the special meetings, to agree to any terms and conditions necessary to resolve any regulatory objections to the merger.

In addition, during or after the statutory waiting period and clearance of the merger, and even after completion of the merger, either the Antitrust Division, the FTC or any state attorney general could challenge, seek to block or block the merger under the antitrust laws, as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. Other competition agencies with jurisdiction over the merger could also initiate action to challenge or block the merger. In addition, in some jurisdictions, a competitor, customer or other third party could initiate a private action under the antitrust laws challenging or seeking to enjoin the merger, before or after it is completed. On August 9, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars received from the Office of Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a request for information with respect to the merger. In addition, on September 13, 2004, Harrah's received from the Department of Justice of the State of Louisiana a request for information with respect to the merger. Harrah's and Caesars cannot be sure that a challenge to the merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, Harrah's and Caesars will prevail. Harrah's and Caesars do not believe that the merger will violate U.S. federal or state laws.

Gaming Regulation

The gaming operations of each of Harrah's and Caesars are subject to extensive regulation, and each of Harrah's, Caesars and their respective subsidiaries hold registrations, approvals, gaming licenses or permits in each jurisdiction in which it operates gaming activities. In each of these jurisdictions, certain regulatory requirements must be complied with and/or certain approvals must be obtained in connection with the merger. Harrah's and Caesars' respective obligations to complete the merger are conditioned upon all material gaming regulatory approvals and authorizations having been obtained. See The Merger Agreement - Regulatory and Antitrust Approval on page 101.

The following is only a summary of the various applicable gaming regulatory requirements with respect to the merger. For a complete description of the regulatory requirements applicable to Harrah's and Caesars, see Description of Governmental Regulation filed at Exhibit 99.1 to Harrah's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and Business - Regulation and Licensing in Caesars Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

The failure:

to obtain the required approval of the merger and the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock; to comply with the procedural requirements prescribed by any applicable gaming regulatory authority; or of Harrah's or Caesars to qualify or make disclosures or applications as required under the laws and regulations of any applicable gaming regulatory authority, in each case as described below or in the information incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/ prospectus, may result in the loss of license or denial of application for licensure in any such jurisdiction.

Nevada Gaming Regulation. As a result of Harrah's ownership and/or operation of Bill's Casino (Lake Tahoe), Binion's Horseshoe (Las Vegas), Harrah's Lake Tahoe, Harveys Lake Tahoe, Harrah's Las Vegas, Harrah's Laughlin, Harrah's Reno and Rio (Las Vegas), and Caesars ownership and operation of Bally's Las Vegas, Caesars Tahoe, Caesars Palace (Las Vegas), Flamingo Las Vegas, Flamingo Laughlin, Paris Las Vegas and Reno Hilton, both Harrah's and Caesars are subject to the jurisdiction of the Nevada gaming authorities. The ownership and operation of casino gaming facilities in Nevada are subject to the Nevada Gaming Control Act and its regulations, which are collectively referred to as the Nevada Act, and various local ordinances and regulations. Harrah's and Caesars' respective gaming operations are subject to the licensing and regulatory control of the Nevada Gaming Commission, the Nevada State Gaming Control Board and applicable local liquor and gaming authorities, which are collectively referred to as the Nevada Gaming Authorities.

The Nevada Act provides that the acquisition of control of a registered publicly traded corporation such as Caesars must be approved by the Nevada Gaming Commission. The Nevada State Gaming Control Board reviews and investigates applications and makes recommendations on those applications to the Nevada Gaming Commission for final action. Harrah's will file applications with the Nevada State Gaming Control Board for approval of the acquisition of control of Caesars and related amendments to its existing Order of Registration and its existing approval of a continuous or delayed public offering. Harrah's will also file related applications with all appropriate local jurisdictions. Harrah's and Caesars are each currently registered by the Nevada Gaming Commission as publicly traded corporations and have been found suitable to own the stock of their gaming subsidiaries that have licensed gaming facilities in Nevada. Caesars will file an application for termination of its registration with the Nevada Gaming Commission.

In seeking approval of the merger, Harrah's must satisfy the Nevada State Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission in a variety of stringent standards prior to the completion of the merger. The Nevada State Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission will consider all relevant material facts in determining whether to grant this approval, and may consider not only the effects of the merger but also any other facts that are deemed relevant. Such facts may include, among others:

the business history of Harrah's, including its record of financial stability, integrity and success of its operations, as well as its current business activities;

the adequacy of the proposed financing; and whether the merger will create a significant risk that Harrah's, Caesars or their subsidiaries will not satisfy their financial obligations as they become due or satisfy all financial and regulatory requirements imposed by the Nevada Act.

The Nevada State Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission will also consider whether the merger is in the best interests of the State of Nevada under the multiple licensing criteria in the Nevada Act. Among other factors set forth in such multiple licensing criteria, they may consider whether the merger would create a monopoly, and what the result of the merger will be in respect of the market share of Harrah's compared to similarly situated competitors on a statewide, countywide and other geographical basis in the following categories:

total number of slot machines;

total number of games;

total number of tables;

gross revenue;

percentage tax;

live entertainment tax;

number of rooms available for the public;

number of employees hired; and total payroll.

Table of Contents

The Nevada Gaming Commission may also require controlling stockholders of Harrah's and certain of the individuals who will be appointed as officers, directors, and key employees of Harrah's or its licensed subsidiaries in connection with the merger to be investigated and licensed or found suitable as part of the approval process relating to the transaction. The Nevada Gaming Authorities may investigate any individual who has a material relationship to, or material involvement with, Harrah's, Caesars or their Nevada gaming subsidiaries in order to determine whether the individual is suitable or should be licensed as a business associate of a gaming licensee. The Nevada Gaming Authorities may deny an application for licensing for any cause that it deems reasonable. A finding of suitability is comparable to licensing, and both require submission of detailed personal and financial information followed by a thorough investigation.

If the Nevada Gaming Authorities were to find an officer, director or key employee unsuitable for licensing or unsuitable to continue having a relationship with Harrah's, Caesars or their Nevada gaming subsidiaries, that entity would have to sever all relationships with the person. In addition, the Nevada Gaming Commission may require Harrah's, Caesars or their Nevada gaming subsidiaries to terminate the employment of any person who refuses to file appropriate applications. All individuals required to file applications for findings of suitability and/or licensing in connection with the merger as officers, directors and key employees of Harrah's or its licensed subsidiaries will file applications with the Nevada Gaming Authorities.

Harrah's may not make a public offering of its securities without the prior approval of the Nevada Gaming Commission if the securities or the proceeds from the public offering of its securities are intended to be used to construct, acquire, or finance gaming facilities in Nevada, or retire or extend obligations incurred for those purposes. On November 21, 2002, the Nevada Gaming Commission granted Harrah's prior approval to make public offerings for a period of two years, subject to specified conditions, which is referred to as the shelf approval. Although this approval will expire in November 2004, Harrah's has applied for its renewal. Harrah's anticipates that the issuance of securities by Harrah's in connection with the merger will be covered by the shelf approval. The shelf approval, however, may be rescinded for good cause without prior notice upon the issuance of an interlocutory stop order by the Chairman of the Nevada Gaming Control Board. The shelf approval does not constitute a finding, recommendation or approval of the Nevada Gaming Authorities as to the accuracy or adequacy of the offering memorandum or the investment merits of the securities offered by the offering memorandum. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful.

Mississippi Gaming Regulation. As a result of Harrah's ownership and operation of Harrah's Tunica and Horseshoe Tunica, and Caesars ownership and operation of Bally's Tunica, Grand Casino Biloxi, Grand Casino Gulfport, Grand Casino Tunica and Sheraton Casino & Hotel (Tunica), both Harrah's and Caesars are subject to the jurisdiction of the Mississippi gaming authorities. The ownership and operation of casino gaming facilities in Mississippi are subject to the Mississippi Gaming Control Act and its regulations, which are collectively referred to as the Mississippi Act, and various local regulations. The gaming operations of Harrah's and Caesars in Mississippi are subject to the licenses and regulatory control of the Mississippi Gaming Commission. The Mississippi Act provides that the acquisition of control of a registered publicly traded corporation or a corporate licensee must be approved by the Mississippi Gaming Commission.

In seeking approval to merge with Caesars, Harrah's must satisfy the Mississippi Gaming Commission as to a variety of stringent standards. The Mississippi Gaming Commission will consider all relevant material facts in determining whether to grant the approval, and may consider not only the effects of the merger but also any other facts that it deems relevant. Such facts may include, among others:

the business history of the applicant, including its record of financial stability, integrity and success of its operations, as well as its current business activities; and whether the merger will create a significant risk that Harrah's, Caesars or their subsidiaries will not satisfy their financial obligations as they become due or satisfy all financial and regulatory requirements imposed by the Mississippi Act.

Table of Contents

Certain officers, directors and key employees of Caesars prior to the merger, or of Harrah's after the merger, who will be actively and directly involved in Caesars' gaming activities may also be required to be found suitable or licensed by the Mississippi Gaming Commission. Harrah's will make any new applications for findings of suitability as may be required, and will also request the transfer or extension of any existing findings of suitability. The Mississippi Gaming Commission may deny an application for licensing or registration for any cause that it deems reasonable. A finding of suitability is comparable to licensing, and both require the submission of detailed personal and financial information followed by a thorough investigation.

Because Harrah's will assume Caesars' existing debt in the merger, any pledges, negative pledges or other restrictions on the transfer of the equity securities of Harrah's licensed or registered subsidiaries associated with all Caesars debt assumed by Harrah's, and any pledges of the assets of or guarantees by Harrah's licensed subsidiaries associated with Caesars' publicly traded debt assumed by Harrah's, shall be ineffective unless approved in advance by the Mississippi Gaming Commission. Likewise, any pledges, negative pledges or other restrictions on the transfer of the equity securities of Caesars' Mississippi subsidiaries associated with existing Harrah's bank debt shall be ineffective unless approved in advance by the Mississippi Gaming Commission.

On September 27, 2004, Harrah's and Caesars agreed to sell Harrah's Tunica and Bally's Tunica, respectively, to an affiliate of Colony Capital, LLC.

Indiana Gaming Regulation. As a result of Harrah's ownership and operation of Harrah's East Chicago and Horseshoe Hammond, and Caesars' ownership and operation of Caesars Indiana, both Harrah's and Caesars are subject to the jurisdiction of the Indiana gaming authorities. The ownership and operation of riverboat casino gaming facilities in Indiana are subject to the Riverboat Gambling Act and its regulations, which are collectively referred to as the Indiana Act. Harrah's and Caesars each have riverboat casino gaming facilities in Indiana, which are subject to the licensing and regulatory control of the Indiana Gaming Commission, state and local liquor authorities, United States Coast Guard regulations, Army Corps of Engineer permits and other local authorities. The Indiana Act requires the approval of the Indiana Gaming Commission before an entity may acquire an interest of five percent or more in a riverboat owner's license, including through a merger, stock acquisition, transfer, sale or purchase transaction. Therefore, the merger, as a transfer of ownership in the riverboat license, requires the approval of the Indiana Gaming Commission.

To obtain approval from the Indiana Gaming Commission to transfer a riverboat owner's license, Harrah's must submit a completed application to transfer a riverboat owner's license and a requisite fee. Upon receipt of the application and fee, the Indiana State Police, Gaming Division, will investigate Harrah's, its key persons and substantial owners, or persons owning five percent or more of Harrah's, and will provide related information to the Indiana Gaming Commission. In connection with the merger, the Indiana Gaming Commission may require both Harrah's and Caesars to provide confidential financial information to the Indiana Gaming Commission for a confidential evaluation of the financial stability of both companies prior to the merger and the financial stability of the combined company. This evaluation may include an analysis of Harrah's and Caesars management and their ability to effectively operate the combined companies.

The Indiana Act requires the Indiana Gaming Commission to consider when determining whether to grant approval of a transfer of a riverboat owner's license, among other things:

the character, reputation, experience and financial integrity of the applicant;

the adequacy of the capitalization to maintain a riverboat for the duration of the license;

the actions, if any, taken or recommended by any federal agency, including but not limited to, the Army Corps of Engineers, the United States Coast Guard and the FTC;

the existence of skill, knowledge and experience in conducting a gambling operation;

the economic impact on Indiana;

Table of Contents

the willingness of the applicant to accept the local economic development obligations undertaken by the predecessor licensee; and such other standards, terms and conditions as may be adopted by the Indiana Gaming Commission.

The Indiana Gaming Commission will also consider whether the merger, as a transfer of ownership in the riverboat license, is in the best interest of the people and the State of Indiana by promoting tourism, assisting economic development and maintaining the public confidence and trust in the gaming operations.

In addition to requiring approval of the Indiana Gaming Commission for the transfer of a riverboat owner's license, the Indiana Act also limits the number of riverboat owner's licenses that may be issued by the Indiana Gaming Commission to a total of ten. The Indiana Act further limits the number of riverboat owner's licenses that can be owned by any entity to two. Presently, Harrah's owns and operates two riverboat gaming facilities in Indiana, Harrah's in East Chicago, Indiana and Horseshoe Casino in Hammond, Indiana. Caesars is the majority owner and operator of Caesars Indiana in Harrison County, Indiana. Pursuant to the license limitations under the Indiana Act, it will be necessary for one of the three Harrah's and Caesars riverboat gaming facilities in Indiana to be transferred to a non-related third party before the Indiana Gaming Commission may approve the transfer of Caesars' riverboat licenses in the merger, and therefore, on September 27, 2004, Harrah's agreed to sell Harrah's East Chicago to an affiliate of Colony Capital, LLC. The approval by the Indiana Gaming Commission of the transfer of any of Harrah's or Caesars' Indiana riverboat gaming facilities to a non-related third party prior to the merger is independent of the considerations necessary for the approval of the merger. There can be no assurance that the approval of any transfer to a third party will be granted or will be granted on a timely basis or without the imposition of burdensome conditions. Furthermore, any approval, if granted, does not constitute a finding, recommendation or approval by the Indiana Gaming Commission as to the merits of the merger. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful.

The Indiana Act requires the pre-approval of debt transactions, whether new or assumed debt, of $1,000,000 or more. If the Indiana Gaming Commission approves the transfer of ownership interest in Caesars pursuant to the merger, it will also consider financial information regarding any debt transactions related to the merger, including the assumption of Caesars' outstanding debt by Harrah's in the merger. The approval of any debt transactions related to the merger will generally be part of the approval of the transfer of ownership interest pursuant to the merger.

The Indiana Act does not require the pre-approval of the Indiana Gaming Commission for a public offering of securities. However, any person acquiring an ownership interest of five percent or more of a riverboat gaming license owner, regardless of whether the interest is direct or indirect, as a result of any public offering of securities is required to file an application with the Indiana Gaming Commission and submit to a background investigation for the purpose of determining the person's suitability to be a substantial owner of the license owner. Qualifying institutional investors must file with the Indiana Gaming Commission upon obtaining an ownership interest of five percent and become subject to a background investigation upon acquiring a 15 percent ownership interest. In addition, any information disseminated by a licensee or licensee applicant which is later found to be inappropriate by another agency or the Indiana Gaming Commission may give rise to a disciplinary action.

The Indiana Act requires the payment of a transfer fee in the amount of $2,000,000 by a licensed owner who purchases or otherwise acquires a controlling interest in a second owner's license.

Louisiana Gaming Regulation. As a result of Harrah's ownership and operation of Horseshoe Bossier City, Harrah's Lake Charles, Harrah's Louisiana Downs (Bossier City) and Harrah's New Orleans, and Caesars' ownership and operation of Bally's New Orleans, both Harrah's and Caesars are subject to the jurisdiction of the Louisiana gaming authorities. The ownership and operation of each of Harrah's and Caesars' gaming operations in Louisiana are subject to the Louisiana Gaming Control Act and its regulations. The ownership and operation of Harrah's Louisiana Downs race-track is subject to Louisiana Revised Statute Title 4, Chapter 4 (Horse Racing) and its regulations, which, collectively with the Louisiana Gaming Control Act and its regulations, are referred to as the Louisiana Act. The Louisiana

Act imposes extensive restrictions and requirements upon gaming operators in the State of Louisiana and makes gaming operations subject to the licensing and regulatory control of the Louisiana Gaming Control Board and the Louisiana Racing Commission.

The Louisiana Gaming Control Board is responsible for issuing gaming licenses and enforcing the laws, rules and regulations relative to riverboat gaming operations, slots machines at eligible racetrack facilities, and Harrah's land-based operations in New Orleans. Harrah's land-based operations in New Orleans are also governed by a Casino Operating Contract with the State of Louisiana. The Louisiana Racing Commission is responsible for issuing licenses and regulating horse racing at Harrah's Louisiana Downs facility. Harrah's may be required to seek the prior approval from the Louisiana Gaming Control Board of transactions related to the merger, including the financing of the merger. The Louisiana Gaming Control Board may require action on the part of the Louisiana Racing Commission prior to issuance of such approval.

If an approval related to the merger is required, the Louisiana Gaming Control Board and its investigative agency, the Office of the State Police, may consider all relevant facts in determining whether to grant approval to certain transactions related to the merger. These facts include, without limitation:

the suitability of any person who has or controls, directly or indirectly, five percent or more ownership, income, profit or economic interest in Harrah's or its Louisiana subsidiaries after the completion of the merger;

the suitability of any person who receives five percent or more revenue interest in the form of a commission, finder's fee or loan repayment as a result of the transaction or otherwise;

the suitability of any person who has the ability, in the opinion of the Louisiana Gaming Control Board, to exercise a significant influence over any Harrah's Louisiana licensee;

the business history of Harrah's, including its record of financial stability, its integrity and the success of its operations in Louisiana and elsewhere; and the adequacy of the proposed financing, and whether the merger will create any risk that the various entities will be unable to satisfy their financial and regulatory obligations to the state and otherwise, including without limitation, Harrah's guaranty of minimum daily contributions required by the Louisiana Act and the Casino Operating Contract, and the debt being assumed under the merger agreement.

A gaming license is deemed to be a privilege under Louisiana law and as such a license may be revoked, suspended, conditioned or limited at any time by the Louisiana Gaming Control Board. The Louisiana Gaming Control Board has similar discretion as to the approval of transactions related to the merger.

New Jersey Gaming Regulation. As a result of Harrah's ownership and operation of Harrah's Atlantic City and Showboat Atlantic City, and Caesars' ownership and operation of Atlantic City Hilton, Bally's Atlantic City and Caesars Atlantic City, both Harrah's and Caesars are subject to the jurisdiction of the New Jersey gaming authorities. The ownership and operation of hotel-casino facilities and gaming activities in Atlantic City, New Jersey are subject to extensive state regulation under the New Jersey Casino Control Act, or the New Jersey Act, and related regulations of the New Jersey Casino Control Commission, or the New Jersey Commission. Harrah's and Caesars' current gaming operations in New Jersey are subject to the authority of the New Jersey Commission and the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement, which is referred to as the New Jersey Division. The merger requires prior regulatory approval by the New Jersey Commission.

For an applicant to be granted a casino license under the New Jersey Act, officers, directors and certain key employees must be licensed or qualified by the New Jersey Commission. Similar approvals must be granted for the applicant's intermediary and holding companies, and certain owners and financial sources. The New Jersey Division investigates the applicant for a casino license and makes recommendations to the New Jersey Commission concerning the qualification for licensure and whether transfer of the securities or ownership interest in the casino licensee should be approved. The laws and regulations governing licensure and qualification concern primarily:

the financial stability and responsibility, good character, honesty, integrity and business ability of the applicant, its officers, directors, key employees, financial backers, investors and others financially interested in the casino;

the nature of casino hotel facilities; and the operating methods and financial and accounting practices used in connection with casino operations.

In addition, the New Jersey Commission must be satisfied that the merger will not result in undue economic concentration in the Atlantic City casino industry.

The New Jersey Act imposes certain restrictions on the ownership and transfer of any security or ownership interest in a casino licensee or any non-publicly traded subsidiary or holding company and requires prior approval of transferred control of a casino licensee. The New Jersey Act requires that the sale, assignment, transfer, pledge or other disposition of any security issued by a corporation that holds a casino license is conditional and shall be ineffective if disapproved by the New Jersey Commission. If at any time the New Jersey Commission finds that an owner or holder of any security of a casino licensee or holding company is not qualified under the New Jersey Act, the New Jersey Commission may propose remedial action, including divestiture of the securities held. If disqualified persons fail to divest themselves of the securities, the New Jersey Commission may revoke or suspend the license.

Harrah s will notify the New Jersey Commission and New Jersey Division of any new debt or equity issued in order to finance the merger and provide each with required documentation, including lists of the holders or lenders, and may have to petition the New Jersey Commission for waiver of the security holder requirement subsequent to the incurrence of the debt or issuance of the equity securities. If any necessary waivers are not granted, the holder will either have to be found qualified by the New Jersey Commission or divest itself of its interest.

In seeking approval of the New Jersey Commission, Harrah s must satisfy the New Jersey Commission and the New Jersey Division that the merger meets all requirements of the New Jersey Act. In determining whether to grant the approvals, the New Jersey Commission will consider all relevant facts, including whether:

each officer, director, certain owners and others having the ability to control the casino licensees, holding companies and intermediary companies, key employees and certain financial sources and investors meet the standards for qualification;

the agreement to transfer a security holding in a casino licensee or holding or intermediary company contains certain required provisions, including an approved provision for divestiture in the event the applicant is found unqualified for licensure;

the proposed financing of the merger is adequate and whether, after the merger, Harrah s will possess the requisite financial stability; and the merger will result in undue economic concentration in Atlantic City casino operations.

The regulations of the New Jersey Commission define undue economic concentration to mean that a person would have such actual or potential domination of the casino gaming market in Atlantic City as to substantially impede or suppress competition among casino licensees or adversely impact the economic stability of the casino industry in Atlantic City. In determining whether the merger will result in undue economic concentration, the New Jersey Commission will consider the following:

the total casino and casino simulcasting facility square footage;

Table of Contents

the number of guest rooms;

the number of slot machines;

the number of table games;

net revenue;

table game win;

slot machine win;

slot machine drop;

the number of casino hotel employees;

the estimated increase in the market shares in the categories above if the person is issued or permitted to hold the casino license;

whether the licensed casinos held or to be held by the person have separate organizational structures or other independent obligations;

the relative market shares in the categories above of other persons holding casino licenses;

the current and projected financial condition of the casino industry;

the potential impact of licensure on the projected future growth and development of the casino industry and Atlantic City;

current market conditions including competition levels, consumer demand, market concentration and consolidation trends in the casino industry and any other relevant characteristics of the market; barriers to entry into the casino industry, including the licensure requirements of the Act, and whether the issuance or holding of a casino license by the person will operate as a barrier to new companies and individuals desiring to enter the market;

whether the issuance or holding of the license by the person will adversely impact on consumer interests, or whether such issuance or holding is likely to result in enhancing the quality and customer appeal of products and services offered by casino licensees in order to maintain or increase their respective market shares;

whether a restriction on the issuance or holding of an additional license by the person is necessary in order to encourage and preserve competition and to prevent undue economic concentration in casino operations; and any other evidence deemed relevant by the New Jersey Commission.

If the New Jersey Commission finds that Harrah's will not continue to possess financial stability, integrity and responsibility as a result of the financing of the merger, or that the merger will result in undue economic concentration in the Atlantic City casino industry, the Commission could deny approval of the merger or condition approval upon the satisfaction of certain conditions including, but not limited to, the divestiture of the applicant's interest in one or more casino in Atlantic City.

On September 27, 2004, Caesars agreed to sell the Atlantic City Hilton to an affiliate of Colony Capital, LLC.

Ontario Gaming Regulation. As a result of Caesars' fifty percent indirect ownership in Windsor Casino Limited, the operator of Casino Windsor, Caesars is subject to the jurisdiction of the Ontario gaming authorities. The gaming operations in Ontario are subject to the regulatory control of the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario, which is referred to as the AGCO, pursuant to the Ontario Gaming Control Act and its regulations, which is referred to as the Ontario Act, and certain contractual obligations to the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation, a provincial crown corporation owned by the Province of Ontario. Windsor Casino Limited is required under the Ontario Act to be registered as a casino operator with the AGCO and must operate in accordance with the terms and conditions of its registration.

The Ontario Act provides that the AGCO may require submission of disclosures and informational material from any person who has an interest in a gaming facility in Ontario. This includes parent companies and their directors and officers.

Although neither the merger, a public offering of securities by Harrah's or Caesars, nor the proxy statement requires the approval of the AGCO, the Registrar of the AGCO may, at any time, revoke, suspend or refuse to renew a registration for any reason that would have disintitled it to registration. The criteria to be considered in connection with the registration under the Ontario Act include:

the financial responsibility;

the integrity and honesty; and the public interest;

as each relates to the applicant and persons interested in the applicant, such as parent companies and their directors and officers.

The Registrar of the AGCO is entitled to make inquiries and conduct investigations as it deems necessary to determine that applicants for registration meet the requirements of the Ontario Act.

Pursuant to the Ontario Act and the terms and conditions of Windsor Casino Limited's registration, the Registrar of the AGCO must approve any change in the directors and officers of Windsor Casino Limited and any change in the directors and officers of Windsor Casino Limited's parent companies who exercise any advisory or decision-making functions in relation to Windsor Casino Limited.

Nova Scotia Gaming Regulation. As a result of Caesars' ninety-five percent indirect partnership interest in Metropolitan Entertainment Group, or Metropolitan, the operator of Casino Nova Scotia (Halifax) and Casino Nova Scotia (Sydney), Caesars is subject to the jurisdiction of the Nova Scotia gaming authorities. The gaming operations in Nova Scotia are subject to the regulatory control of the Nova Scotia Alcohol and Gaming Authority, which is referred to as the NSAGA, pursuant to the Nova Scotia Gaming Control Act and its regulations, which is referred to as the Nova Scotia Act, and certain contractual obligations to the Nova Scotia Gaming Corporation, a provincial crown corporation owned by the Province of Nova Scotia. Metropolitan is required under the Nova Scotia Act to maintain registration as a casino operator with the NSAGA and must operate in accordance with the terms and conditions of its registration.

Under the Nova Scotia Act, the NSAGA must be notified within 15 days of any change in the information contained in the application for the license and must provide a disclosure form in the case of any change in the officers or directors of a partner of a casino operator or any change in the beneficial ownership of the casino operator.

Although neither the merger, a public offering of securities by Harrah's or Caesars, nor the proxy statement requires the approval of the NSAGA, the NSAGA has the power to suspend or to revoke a registration at any time for any reason that would have disintitled a party to obtain registration or renewal of registration. Grounds for suspension or revocation include:

the lack of financial responsibility;

the lack of integrity and honesty;

failure to act in the public interest; and failure to disclose information required by the Director of Registration;

as each relates to the applicant and persons interested in the applicant, such as parent companies and their directors and officers.

The Nova Scotia Act also provides that the Director of Registration may require information or material and may conduct investigations concerning any person who has an interest in the casino including parent companies and their directors and officers.

Additional Gaming Regulation. Harrah's and Caesars are also subject to a variety of gaming regulations in the other jurisdictions in which they operate, which include Arizona, Australia, California, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, North Carolina, South Africa and Uruguay. Certain of the gaming regulatory authorities in these jurisdictions may require approval of certain aspects of the merger, the issuance of Harrah's common stock in the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, either prior to or after the completion of the merger.

Harrah's will make all filings with the appropriate regulatory authorities and take all other actions necessary, in each case in a timely manner, to obtain the approvals necessary under all applicable gaming regulations in each of these jurisdictions in order to complete the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. There can be no assurance that the approvals will be granted or will be granted on a timely basis. Any approval, if granted, does not constitute a finding, recommendation or approval by the applicable regulatory authority as to the merits of the merger. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful. For further information regarding the obligations of Harrah's and Caesars with regards to governmental and regulatory matters, see "The Merger Agreement - Regulatory and Antitrust Approval" on page 101.

Harrah's and Caesars have not yet obtained any of the governmental or regulatory approvals required to complete the merger.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to Harrah's, Caesars, Harrah's stockholders and U.S. holders (as defined below) of Caesars common stock. This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial opinions, and administrative pronouncements and published rulings of the Internal Revenue Service, all as in effect on the date of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. These authorities may change, possibly retroactively, resulting in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those set forth below. We have not sought, and will not seek, any ruling from the IRS with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not take a contrary position regarding the tax consequences of the merger described in this discussion or that any such contrary position would not be sustained.

This discussion is limited to U.S. holders who hold their shares of Caesars common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to stockholders in light of their particular circumstances, and does not address the tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction. In addition, this discussion does not consider any specific facts or circumstances that may be relevant to a stockholder subject to special rules under U.S. federal income tax laws, including without limitation:

banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions; partnerships or other entities treated as partnerships or flow-through entities;

tax-exempt organizations;

tax-qualified retirement plans;

dealers in securities or currencies; traders in securities that elect to use the mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings; persons that hold Caesars common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, or other risk reduction strategy or as part of a constructive sale or conversion transaction;

Table of Contents

persons who acquired their shares of Caesars common stock upon the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; and stockholders who are not U.S. holders.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Caesars common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

Caesars stockholders are strongly urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the specific U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them in light of their particular situation, as well any tax consequences arising under any state, local or foreign tax laws or any other federal tax laws.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. holder" to mean a beneficial owner of Caesars common stock that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation or partnership, or other entity treated as a corporation or partnership for federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any State or the District of Columbia;

an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source; or a trust, the substantial decisions of which are controlled by one or more U.S. persons and which is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court, or a trust that validly has elected under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Structure of the Merger

As a condition to completing the merger, Harrah's must receive from Latham & Watkins LLP, and Caesars must receive from Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, an opinion dated as of closing that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Each opinion will be based on customary factual assumptions and representations, as set forth in representation letters to be delivered by each of Harrah's and Caesars at the time of closing, substantially in the form of Exhibits B and C to the merger agreement, which assumptions and representations must continue to be true and accurate in all respects as of the closing. The opinions also will assume that the merger will be completed according to the terms of the merger agreement. An opinion of counsel represents such counsel's best legal judgment and is not binding on the IRS or any court.

However, if either counsel is unable to render an opinion that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then at the option of either Harrah's or Caesars, acting reasonably, the merger will be restructured in a manner intended to qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code. This restructuring could occur if, for example, the aggregate value of the stock consideration in the merger, as a result of a decline in the sale price of a share of Harrah's common stock between the date of the merger agreement and the anticipated closing date of the merger, would be less than 45% of the aggregate value of all merger consideration, with the shares of Harrah's common stock being valued as of the anticipated closing date. The material tax consequences of a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code generally would be the same as those described below.

Tax Consequences of the Merger

If the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, subject to the qualifications and assumptions set forth in this discussion, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger are as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by Harrah's, Caesars or Harrah's stockholders;

Caesars stockholders that receive solely Harrah's common stock in the merger will not recognize gain or loss;

Caesars stockholders that receive a combination of cash and Harrah's common stock generally will recognize capital gain in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of the amount of cash plus the fair market value of any Harrah's common stock received in the merger over such stockholder's tax basis in the Caesars common stock exchanged in the merger or (ii) the amount of cash received in the merger. No loss may be recognized, except for loss resulting from the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Harrah's common stock. Gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of Caesars common stock exchanged in the merger and a loss realized on one block of Caesars common stock cannot be used to offset a gain realized on another block of Caesars common stock;

Caesars stockholders that receive solely cash generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between such stockholder's tax basis in the Caesars common stock exchanged in the merger and the amount of cash received in the merger. Gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of Caesars common stock exchanged in the merger;

a Caesars stockholder's aggregate tax basis in (i) the shares of Harrah's common stock received in the merger plus (ii) any fractional share of Harrah's common stock for which such stockholder receives cash, will be the same as such stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the Caesars common stock exchanged in the merger, decreased by the amount of any cash received by such stockholder in the merger, and increased by the amount of any gain recognized by such stockholder in the merger, including any portion of gain that is treated as a dividend. For these purposes, any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Harrah's common stock and any gain recognized on the receipt of such cash will not be taken into account;

a Caesars stockholder's holding period with respect to the shares of Harrah's common stock received in the merger will include the holding period of the Caesars common stock exchanged therefor;

Caesars stockholders who receive cash in lieu of a fractional share of Harrah's common stock generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such stockholder's tax basis in the fractional share.

Tax Character of Gain

In the case of Caesars stockholders having no direct or indirect control over Harrah's corporate affairs, any gain should be treated as capital gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes. However, there are circumstances under which all or a part of any gain that a Caesars stockholder recognizes in the merger could be treated as a distribution of a dividend instead of capital gain to the extent of the stockholder's ratable share of undistributed accumulated earnings and profits of the corporation. Due to the inherently factual nature of this determination, Caesars stockholders are encouraged to consult their own tax advisors to determine whether any gain recognized in the merger could be treated as a distribution of a dividend.

Caesars Stockholders Exercising Dissenters' Appraisal Rights

A Caesars stockholder who dissents to the merger generally will recognize capital gain or loss in a net aggregate amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the stockholder's tax basis in the dissenting shares. Although there is no authority directly on point, it is possible that a stockholder will be required to recognize gain or loss upon completion of the merger, and in advance of the receipt of any cash payment, in an amount generally equal to the trading price of Caesars common stock upon completion of the merger less such stockholder's tax basis in the dissenting shares. In this event, capital gain or loss also would be recognized by the stockholder at the time the stockholder receives cash payment of the appraised fair market value of the dissenting shares, to the extent that such payment differs from the trading price of Caesars common stock upon completion of the merger. A portion of such payment may be characterized as interest income.

Backup Withholding

Non-corporate holders of Caesars common stock may be subject to backup withholding on any cash payments received in the merger. However, backup withholding may be avoided if a stockholder:

furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that it is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute IRS Form W-9 or any successor form included in the letter of transmittal to be delivered to Caesars stockholders following the completion of the merger; provides a certification of foreign status on IRS Form W-8BEN or any successor form; or is otherwise exempt from backup withholding and properly establishes such exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax, and any amounts withheld may be allowed as a refund or credit against a stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the stockholder furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to each Caesars stockholder will depend on the facts of each stockholder's situation. Caesars stockholders are strongly urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the specific U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them in light of their particular situation, as well any tax consequences arising under any state, local or foreign tax laws or any other federal tax laws.

Accounting Treatment

In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, Harrah's will account for the merger as a business combination. Upon the completion of the merger, Harrah's will record the cash consideration, the market value of its common stock issued (based on an average of the closing prices of Harrah's common stock for a range of trading days from two days before and after July 14, 2004, the announcement date) in the merger, the fair value of Caesars' outstanding debt at the time of the merger, the fair value of Harrah's options issued in exchange for options to purchase shares of Caesars common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger and the amount of direct transaction costs associated with the merger, as the estimated purchase price of acquiring Caesars. Harrah's will allocate the estimated purchase price to the tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair values at the effective time of the merger. Any excess of the estimated purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired will be accounted for as goodwill.

In accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, goodwill resulting from the business combination will not be amortized but instead will be tested for impairment at least annually (more frequently if certain indicators are present). In the event that Harrah's management determines that the value of goodwill has become impaired, the combined company will incur an accounting charge for the amount of impairment during the fiscal quarter in which the determination is made.

Listing of Harrah's Common Stock

Harrah's will use all reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued in connection with the merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE upon the completion of the merger.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

Under Delaware law, holders of Harrah's common stock are not entitled to dissenters' appraisal rights in connection with the issuance of Harrah's common stock in the merger.

Holders of shares of Caesars common stock who do not vote in favor of approving and adopting the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and properly demand appraisal of their shares will be entitled to appraisal rights pursuant to the merger agreement under Section 262 of the DGCL, which is referred to as Section 262.

The following discussion is not a complete discussion of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under Section 262 and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Section 262 which is attached to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex E. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice, nor does it constitute a recommendation that Caesars stockholders exercise their right to seek appraisal under Section 262. All references in Section 262 and in this summary to a stockholder are to the record holder of the shares of Caesars common stock as to which appraisal rights are asserted. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Caesars common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, fiduciary, depositary or other nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights.

Under Section 262, persons who hold shares of Caesars common stock who do not vote in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and who otherwise follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 will be entitled to have their shares appraised by the Delaware Court of Chancery and to receive payment of the fair value of the shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, as determined by the court.

Under Section 262, where a merger is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, as in the case of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, by Caesars stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders entitled to appraisal rights that appraisal rights are available and include in the notice a copy of Section 262. This joint proxy statement/ prospectus shall constitute the notice, and the full text of Section 262 is attached to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus as Annex E. Any holder of Caesars common stock who wishes to exercise appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve such holder's right to do so, should review the following discussion and Annex E carefully because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Moreover, due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising the right to seek appraisal, Caesars stockholders who are considering exercising such rights are urged to seek the advice of legal counsel.

Any Caesars stockholder wishing to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 must:

deliver to Caesars, before the vote on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, at the Caesars special meeting, a written demand for the appraisal of the stockholder's shares; not vote its shares of common stock in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger; and hold of record the shares of Caesars common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and continue to hold the shares of record through the effective time of the merger.

A proxy that is signed and does not contain voting instructions will, unless revoked, be voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and it will constitute a waiver of the stockholder's right of appraisal and will nullify any previously delivered written demand for appraisal. Therefore, a stockholder who votes by proxy and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must vote against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, or abstain from voting on the merger agreement.

Neither voting against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the transaction (in person or by proxy), nor abstaining from voting or failing to vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, will in and of itself constitute a written demand for appraisal satisfying the requirements of Section 262. The written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote. The demand must reasonably inform Caesars of the identity of the holder as well as the intention of the holder to demand an appraisal of the fair value of the shares held by the holder. A stockholder's failure to make the written demand prior to the taking of the vote on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, at the Caesars special meeting will constitute a waiver of appraisal rights.

Only a holder of record of shares of Caesars common stock on the record date for the Caesars special meeting is entitled to assert appraisal rights for the shares registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal in respect of shares of Caesars common stock should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, fully and correctly, as the holder's name appears on the holder's stock certificates, should specify the holder's mailing address and the number of shares registered in the holder's name, and must state that the person intends to demand appraisal of the holder's shares pursuant to the merger agreement. If the shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand should be made in that capacity. If the shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy and tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute a demand for appraisal on behalf of a holder of record. However, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is acting as agent for the record owner or owners. A record holder such as a broker who holds shares as nominee for several beneficial owners may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners while not exercising the rights with respect to the shares held for other beneficial owners. In such case, however, the written demand should set forth the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought. If no number of shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of Caesars common stock held in the name of the record owner. Stockholders who hold their shares in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms and who wish to exercise appraisal rights are urged to consult with their brokers to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by such a nominee.

All written demands for appraisal pursuant to Section 262 should be sent or delivered to Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109, Attention: Secretary.

Within ten days after the effective time of the merger, Harrah's Operating Company, or its successor in interest, which we refer to generally as the surviving corporation, must notify each holder of Caesars common stock who has complied with Section 262 and who has not voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, that the merger has become effective. Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, but not thereafter, the surviving corporation or any holder of Caesars common stock who has complied with Section 262 and is entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the holder's shares. The surviving corporation is under no obligation to and has no present intention to file a petition. Accordingly, it is the obligation of the holders of Caesars common stock to initiate all necessary action to perfect their appraisal rights in respect of shares of Caesars common stock within the time prescribed in Section 262.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, any holder of Caesars common stock who has complied with the requirements for exercise of appraisal rights will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock not voted in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and the aggregate number of shares which have made demands for appraisal. The statement must be mailed within ten days after a written request has been received by the surviving corporation or within ten days after the expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed by a holder of shares of Caesars common stock and a copy is served upon the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated within 20 days to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached. After notice to the stockholders as required by the Court, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing on the petition to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to appraisal rights thereunder. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the stockholders who demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation on the certificates of the pending appraisal proceeding. If any stockholder fails to comply with the direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After determining the holders of Caesars common stock entitled to appraisal, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the fair value of their shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. Stockholders considering seeking appraisal should be aware that the fair value of their shares as so determined could be more than, the same as or less than the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger if they did not seek appraisal of their shares and that an investment banking opinion as to fairness from a financial point of view is not necessarily an opinion as to fair value under Section 262. You should not expect the surviving corporation to offer more than the applicable merger consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and Harrah's reserves the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that for purposes of Section 262, the fair value of a share of Caesars common stock is less than the applicable merger consideration.

Although Caesars believes that the merger consideration is fair, no representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, depending on factual circumstances, may or may not be a dissenter's exclusive remedy. The Delaware Court of Chancery will determine the amount of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amounts to be received by persons whose shares of common stock of Caesars have been appraised. If a petition for appraisal is not timely filed, then the right to an appraisal will cease.

In determining fair value and, if applicable, a fair rate of interest, the Delaware Court of Chancery is to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered, and that fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of the company. The Delaware Supreme Court stated that, in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise, and any other facts that could be ascertained as of the date of the merger that throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc. the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered.

The costs of the action may be determined by the Court and levied upon the parties as the Court deems equitable. The Court may also order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with an appraisal, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts utilized in the appraisal proceeding, be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to be appraised.

Any holder of shares of Caesars common stock who has demanded an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote the shares subject to the demand for any purpose or be entitled to the payment of dividends or other distributions on those shares, except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of Caesars common stock as of a record date prior to the effective time of the merger.

Any Caesars stockholder may withdraw his or her demand for appraisal and accept the consideration offered pursuant to the merger agreement by delivering to the surviving corporation a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal. However, any such attempt to withdraw the demand made more than 60 days after the effective date of the merger will require written approval of the surviving corporation. No appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just. If the surviving corporation does not approve a request to withdraw a demand for appraisal when that approval is required, or if the Delaware Court of Chancery does not approve the dismissal of an appraisal proceeding, the stockholder will be entitled to receive only the appraised value determined in any such appraisal proceeding, which value could be less than, equal to or more than the consideration being offered pursuant to the merger agreement.

If any stockholder who demands appraisal of shares of Caesars common stock under Section 262 fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses, such holder's right to appraisal, the stockholder's shares of Caesars common stock will be deemed to have been converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive the merger consideration, subject to certain pro rata adjustments described under the section entitled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Stock Cap and Proration on page 91. A stockholder will fail to perfect, or effectively lose or withdraw, the stockholder's right to appraisal if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers to the surviving corporation a written withdrawal of the holder's demand for appraisal and an acceptance of the merger consideration, except that any attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the effective time of the merger will require the written approval of the surviving corporation and, once a petition for appraisal is filed, the appraisal proceeding may not be dismissed as to any holder absent court approval.

Failure to follow the steps required by Section 262 for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of these rights. Consequently, any stockholder willing to exercise appraisal rights is urged to consult with legal counsel prior to attempting to exercise such rights.

Delisting and Deregistration of Caesars Common Stock

If the merger is completed, Caesars common stock will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act, and Caesars will no longer file periodic reports with the SEC.

Restrictions on Sales of Shares of Harrah's Common Stock Received in the Merger

The shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and will be freely transferable, except for shares of Harrah's common stock issued to any person who is deemed to be an affiliate of Caesars under the Securities Act of 1933 prior to the completion of the merger. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Caesars prior to the completion of the merger include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, Caesars prior to the merger, and may include officers and directors, as well as significant stockholders of Caesars prior to the merger. Affiliates of Caesars prior to the merger may not sell any of the shares of Harrah's common stock received by them in connection with the merger except pursuant to:

an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 covering the resale of those shares;

an exemption under paragraph (d) of Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933; or any other applicable exemption under the Securities Act of 1933.

Harrah's registration statement on Form S-4, of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, does not cover the resale of shares of Harrah's common stock to be received by affiliates of Caesars in the merger.

Interests of Caesars' Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Caesars board of directors with respect to the merger, Caesars stockholders should be aware that certain executive officers and directors of Caesars have interests in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Caesars stockholders generally. The Caesars board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Harrah's will, and will cause Harrah's Operating Company to indemnify Caesars' directors and executive officers as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Indemnification" on page 105.

Caesars' Employment and Change of Control Agreements

The following directors and executive officers of Caesars are parties to an employment agreement and/or change of control agreement with Caesars: Messrs. Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Wesley D. Allison and Clive S. Cummis.

Stephen Bollenbach

Mr. Bollenbach's employment agreement provides that, upon termination of his employment following a change of control by Caesars without cause or by Mr. Bollenbach for good reason, he is entitled to receive: (i) a lump-sum payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of base salary and the higher of the annual bonus paid for the year in which the change of control occurs or for the immediately preceding year (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants in Mr. Bollenbach's employment agreement, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions) and (ii) compensation previously deferred but not yet paid. Mr. Bollenbach's outstanding options will vest upon termination of his employment by Caesars without cause or by Mr. Bollenbach for good reason and will remain exercisable until December 31, 2008. Mr. Bollenbach will be entitled to a "gross-up" payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments. Stockholder approval of the merger will constitute a change of control under Mr. Bollenbach's employment agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Bollenbach's employment agreement, good reason generally includes: (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or material diminution in position, authority or reporting requirements; (ii) failure of Caesars to pay his compensation; (iii) any purported termination of his employment other than as permitted in the agreement; and (iv) failure to require a successor to assume the agreement. Following a change of control, Mr. Bollenbach may terminate his employment for no reason or any reason during the 30-day period immediately following the first anniversary of the change of control and receive the same severance he would receive if he terminated his employment for good reason.

Employment Agreement. Mr. Barr's employment agreement provides that, following a change of control, upon termination of his employment by Caesars other than for cause, death or disability, or by Mr. Barr for good reason, he is entitled to receive: (i) a lump-sum severance payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of base salary and the higher of the annual bonus paid for the year in which the change of control occurs or for the immediately preceding year (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants in Mr. Barr's employment agreement, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions); (ii) a lump-sum payment in respect of various accrued cash obligations (including unpaid salary, a pro rata bonus for the year of termination, compensation previously deferred but unpaid and accrued but unpaid vacation); and (iii) continued health and life insurance benefits through March 31, 2006. If Mr. Barr's employment is terminated following a change of control, he and his family will be entitled to lifetime health, medical, prescription and dental benefits. Caesars will also pay Mr. Barr's brokerage commissions, transfer taxes and closing costs incurred in selling his Las Vegas residence or will purchase the residence under certain conditions. Mr. Barr's employment agreement provides that upon a change of control, all options and stock retention units vest and Caesars will continue to insure and indemnify him for not less than three years after the termination date. Mr. Barr's supplemental retirement benefit will become fully vested upon a change of control as further consideration for Mr. Barr's restrictive covenants. Mr. Barr will be entitled to a gross-up payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments. Stockholder approval of the merger will constitute a change of control under Mr. Barr's employment agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Barr's employment agreement, good reason includes, generally: (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or material diminution in position, authority or reporting requirements; (ii) failure of Caesars to pay his compensation; (iii) relocation from Las Vegas, Nevada or relocation further than 50 miles from Atlantic City, New Jersey or the Borough of Manhattan; (iv) any purported termination of his employment other than as permitted in the agreement; (v) failure to re-elect him to the board; and (vi) failure to require a successor to assume the agreement. Additionally, Mr. Barr may terminate his employment for no reason or any reason during the 30-day period immediately following the first anniversary of the change of control and receive the same severance he would receive if he terminated his employment for good reason.

Change of Control Agreement. Mr. Barr's change of control agreement entitles him to receive, upon termination of his employment following a change of control by Caesars other than for cause, death or disability: (i) a lump-sum severance payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of base salary and the higher of the annual bonus paid for the last full fiscal year ending during the employment period or for the last full fiscal year prior to the change of control (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants in Mr. Barr's employment agreement, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions); (ii) a pro rata bonus for the year of termination (based on the annual bonus as determined according to clause (i)); (iii) a lump-sum payment equal to unpaid compensation previously deferred and accrued vacation; (iv) continued health and life insurance benefits through March 31, 2006; and (v) a lump-sum payment equal to the amount which Caesars would have credited to his account under the deferred compensation plan from the date of termination through March 31, 2006 if he had deferred the average amount deferred in the prior 12 months. Mr. Barr will be entitled to a gross-up payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments. Completion of the merger will constitute a change of control under Mr. Barr's change of control agreement.

For purposes of Mr. Barr's change of control agreement, good reason includes, generally: (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or material diminution in position, authority or reporting requirements; (ii) failure of Caesars to pay his compensation; (iii) relocation further than 35 miles from Las Vegas, Nevada; (iv) any purported termination of his employment other than as permitted in the agreement; and (v) failure to require a successor to assume the agreement. Additionally, Mr. Barr may terminate his employment for no reason or any reason during the 30-day period immediately following the first anniversary of the change of control and receive the same severance he would receive if he terminated his employment for good reason.

Bernard DeLury, Jr.

Employment Agreement. Under Mr. DeLury's employment agreement, upon termination of his employment by Caesars without cause, he is entitled to receive: (i) base salary through the longer of the balance of term (May 25, 2007) or 12 months; (ii) a lump-sum severance payment equal to the greater of (x) the average of the annual bonus for the three years prior to such termination or (y) the annual bonus paid for the prior year; and (iii) continued health and dental benefits through May 25, 2007. All options and stock retention units will vest and become exercisable upon termination of Mr. DeLury's employment by Caesars without cause.

Change of Control Agreement. Under Mr. DeLury's change of control agreement, upon termination of his employment following a change of control by Mr. DeLury for good reason or by Caesars other than for cause, disability or death, he is entitled to receive: (i) a lump-sum severance payment equal to two times the sum of base salary plus the higher of the annual bonus paid for the last full fiscal year ending during the employment period or for the last full fiscal year prior to the change of control (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants in Mr. DeLury's employment agreement, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions); (ii) a pro rata bonus for the year of termination (based on the annual bonus as determined according to clause (i)); (iii) a lump-sum payment equal to unpaid compensation previously deferred and accrued vacation; (iv) a lump-sum payment equal to the amount which Caesars would have credited to his account under the deferred compensation plan from the date of termination through the date that is three years following the change of control if he had deferred the average amount deferred in the prior 12 months; and (v) continued health and life insurance benefits through the date that is three years following the change of control date or such longer period provided in the employment agreement or any plan, program, practice or policy. Mr. DeLury will be entitled to a gross-up payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments. Completion of the merger will constitute a change of control under Mr. DeLury's change of control agreement.

For purposes of Mr. DeLury's change of control agreement, good reason includes, generally: (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or material diminution in position, authority or reporting requirements; (ii) failure of the Company to pay his compensation; (iii) relocation further than 35 miles from Las Vegas, Nevada, or Atlantic City, New Jersey; (iv) any purported termination of his employment other than as permitted in the agreement; and (v) failure to require a successor to assume the agreement.

Wesley D. Allison

Under Mr. Allison's employment agreement, as amended, upon termination of his employment by Caesars without cause, he is entitled to receive: (i) base salary through the longer of the balance of the term (December 31, 2007) or 12 months and (ii) a pro rata bonus based on the target bonus for the year of termination, paid when other employees are paid bonuses. Mr. Allison's employment agreement does not contain change of control provisions.

Clive S. Cummis

Mr. Cummis is party to an agreement with Caesars under which he began transitioning out of his employment duties beginning on January 1, 2002 and ending with his retirement on December 31, 2004. The agreement provides for compensation of $1,000 per month through December 31, 2004 and $1,464,000 paid in equal bi-weekly installments from January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2004. The agreement also provides for continued vesting of options through December 31, 2004, at which time his options will expire and no longer be exercisable. In connection with this transaction, and with Harrah's consent, Caesars and Mr. Cummis have agreed to amend Mr. Cummis' transition agreement with Caesars to extend the term (and his continued ability to exercise vested stock options) until the earlier of (i) December 31, 2005 and (ii) 180 days after completion of the merger.

Table of Contents

In connection with this transaction, Mr. Barr has reached an understanding with Caesars and Harrah's that should his employment be terminated by Caesars (or its successor) without cause or by Mr. Barr for good reason after completion of the merger, he will be entitled to receive the compensation and benefits pursuant to his employment agreement rather than pursuant to his change of control agreement. Mr. DeLury has also reached an understanding with Caesars and Harrah's that should his employment be terminated by Caesars (or its successor) without cause or by Mr. DeLury for good reason after the completion of the merger, he will be entitled to receive compensation and benefits pursuant to his change of control agreement rather than pursuant to his employment agreement. Caesars and Harrah's have reached an understanding with Mr. DeLury that the amount of severance payable to him under these circumstances will be equal to the sum of three times his base salary plus two times his annual bonus for fiscal 2004.

In addition, Messrs. Barr and DeLury each has reached an understanding with Caesars and Harrah's that in lieu of the non-competition restrictive covenants in their respective employment agreements, for a period of one year following the termination of their employment, each will not be associated with certain gaming companies, any affiliate of the restricted companies or any company that operates any of the assets of the restricted companies. Pursuant to the understanding, neither Mr. Barr nor Mr. DeLury will be restricted from associating with any entity that is not specifically listed as one of the restricted companies.

Taking into account the understandings reached by Caesars and Harrah's with Messrs. Barr and DeLury, if the employment of Messrs. Bollenbach, Barr, DeLury and Allison is terminated following a change of control under circumstances entitling them to the compensation and benefits described above, the approximate cash amount of the severance payments due to each executive (excluding accrued obligations, pro rata bonuses, additional deferred compensation credits and gross-up payments), would be as follows: Mr. Bollenbach $299,000; Mr. Barr, $6,742,450; Mr. DeLury, $2,709,000; and Mr. Allison, $1,250,000. The computations of the estimated cash severance for Messrs. Barr and DeLury were based in part on their annual bonuses for 2003, which were paid in 2004. The actual bonus component of severance may be based upon their 2004 bonuses, which will not be determined until after the stockholder meeting. The computation of the estimated cash severance for Mr. Allison was based on an assumed termination date of June 30, 2005.

Equity Based Awards

Under Caesars' equity plans, all options held by directors and executive officers of Caesars will vest and become exercisable either at stockholder approval or the effective time of the merger. Based on options outstanding as of October 1, 2004, the number of unvested options to acquire shares of Caesars common stock that will become fully vested and exercisable at stockholder approval and the effective time of the merger is 5,491,294 and 1,441,800, respectively. All restricted stock units held by executive officers of Caesars under the equity compensation plans maintained by Caesars will vest and become nonforfeitable as of the effective time of the merger. No directors other than Mr. Barr hold restricted stock units. Based on restricted stock units outstanding as of October 1, 2004, the number of restricted stock units held by executive officers that will become fully vested and nonforfeitable as a result of the merger is: Mr. Wallace Barr, 80,000; Mr. Bernard DeLury, 116,700 and Mr. Wesley Allison, 4,000.

At the effective time of the merger, the forfeiture conditions on each outstanding performance award will lapse and Harrah's will issue the holder shares of Harrah's common stock as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Caesars Equity Awards and Benefits Plans" on page 103. No directors hold performance awards. Based on the number of Caesars performance awards outstanding as of October 1, 2004, the number of Caesars performance awards held by Caesars's executive officers that will be so converted at the effective time of the merger is: Mr. Bernard DeLury, 20,900 and Mr. Wesley Allison, 5,000.

Under Mr. Barr's employment agreement, all 580,000 of his unvested supplemental retention units will become vested upon stockholder approval of the merger. All supplemental retention units outstanding under Caesars' Supplemental Retention Plan, whether or not vested, will be canceled at the effective time of the merger in exchange for shares of Harrah's common stock as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Caesars Equity Awards and Benefits Plans" on page 103. Based on the number of Caesars supplemental retention units outstanding as of October 1, 2004, the number of Caesars supplemental retention units held by Caesars executive officers that will be so converted at the effective time of the merger is: Mr. Wallace Barr, 755,000; Mr. Bernard DeLury, 40,000; and Mr. Wesley Allison, 20,000.

In connection with the merger, individuals employed by Caesars immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be provided benefits (other than equity or equity-based compensation plans) for a period of one year following the effective time of the merger or for the remainder of the employment period that are, in the aggregate, no less favorable than the benefits provided under Caesars' benefit plans in effect as of the signing of the merger agreement. All the executive officers currently participate in Caesars' benefit plans, which include medical, dental and vision coverage, life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, short term and long term disability insurance, employee assistance plan, flexible spending accounts, 401(k) plan, executive deferred compensation plan, executive death benefit plan and executive incentive plan. Harrah's will also, and will cause Harrah's Operating Company to, honor the terms of employment, severance and termination agreements, provide service credit and waive pre-existing condition limitations as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Caesars Equity Awards and Benefits Plans" on page 103.

Fiscal 2005 Bonus and Stay Bonus

Caesars and Harrah's have reached an understanding regarding bonuses for employees of Caesars and its subsidiaries in respect of fiscal 2005. In general, if the completion of the merger occurs on or prior to June 30, 2005, bonuses will be paid out at 50% of target levels and if the completion of the merger occurs on or after July 1, 2005, bonuses will be paid out at 100% of target levels. For individuals who are principally employed at a property which Caesars sells during fiscal 2005 prior to the completion of the merger, bonuses will be paid out at 50% of target levels if the sale of the property occurs on or prior to June 30, 2005 and at 100% of target levels if the sale occurs on or after July 1, 2005. In the event the merger is terminated, bonuses will be paid at 100% of target levels and the timing of the payments will be according to past practice. Should the employment of Mr. Barr, Mr. DeLury or Mr. Allison terminate in 2005 under circumstances (described above) qualifying him for pro rata bonus payments, he will be entitled to the greater of (i) the pro rata bonus payments pursuant to the applicable employment or change of control agreement or (ii) the bonus payable pursuant to the fiscal 2005 bonus program described in this paragraph.

Caesars and Harrah's have also reached an understanding whereby stay bonuses of approximately $19 million in total will be paid to select employees who are critical to the continued operation of Caesars through the completion of the merger. The bonuses will become payable either at completion of the merger or on the date the merger has been terminated, provided in either case that the employee has remained in employment with Caesars to the applicable date. No non-employee directors are eligible to receive a stay bonus. Caesars's executive officers are eligible to receive the following payments: Mr. Wallace Barr, $1,000,000; Mr. Bernard DeLury, $600,000; and Mr. Wesley Allison, $500,000.

Appointment to Harrah's Board of Directors

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Harrah's board of directors will take all necessary action so that, effective immediately following the completion of the merger, William Barron Hilton and Stephen F. Bollenbach, who are both currently directors of Caesars, will be appointed to Harrah's board of directors. In addition, as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the completion of the merger, the Nominating/ Corporate Governance Committee of Harrah's board of directors will consider recommending for appointment an additional current Caesars director to the Harrah's board of directors. Harrah's board of directors will also consider the nomination of one further additional current Caesars director to Harrah's board of directors. See The Merger Agreement - Harrah's Board of Directors on page 110.

Litigation Related to the Merger

On July 15, 2004, a lawsuit was filed by William Derasmo against Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and all of the members of the Caesars board of directors (Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Barbara Coleman, A. Steven Crown, Clive S. Cummis, Peter G. Ernaut, Eric M. Hilton, William Barron Hilton and Gilbert Shelton) in the Clark County District Court of Nevada, Case No. A488826. The suit is denominated as a class action purportedly on behalf of a class of Caesars stockholders. The complaint alleges that the Caesars board of directors breached fiduciary duties owed to Caesars stockholders in approving and pursuing a plan to sell Caesars. In particular, the complaint alleges that the members of the Caesars board of directors are favoring their own interests in the proposed transaction and that by doing so, they are breaching their duties of loyalty, good faith, candor and independence. The plaintiff seeks the following relief, an order declaring that the action is properly maintainable as a class action;

an order declaring that the proposed transaction was entered into in breach of the fiduciary duties of defendants; and order enjoining defendants from proceeding with the proposed transaction as planned; an order directing that the defendants exercise their fiduciary duties to obtain a transaction which is in the best interests of Caesars stockholders;

an order rescinding the proposed transaction to the extent already implemented; an order imposing a constructive trust in favor of plaintiff on any benefits received by defendants as a result of their allegedly wrongful conduct; an award of costs and disbursements; and such other and further equitable relief as the court may deem just and proper.

On September 9, 2004, a motion was filed on behalf of all defendants to dismiss the complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted in accordance with Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(5). The motion was set by the court to be heard on October 4, 2004. At the request of the plaintiff, the hearing date on the motion was continued to October 25, 2004. The plaintiff has not filed a response to the motion and has decided to dismiss the complaint without prejudice. A stipulation and order to dismiss the complaint without prejudice has been signed by counsel and has been forwarded to the court for entry.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain material provisions of the merger agreement, which is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement carefully in its entirety.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Caesars with Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's. As a result of the merger, Caesars will cease to exist and Harrah's Operating Company will continue as the surviving corporation.

Completion and Effectiveness of the Merger

The closing of the merger will occur on the second business day after the conditions to completion of the merger contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. See the section entitled "Conditions to Completion of the Merger" below. The merger will become effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

Harrah's and Caesars are working to complete the merger as soon as practicable. However, because completion of the merger is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions, Harrah's and Caesars cannot predict the actual timing.

General

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and retired and converted into, at the election of the holder of the Caesars common stock and subject to the limitations described below under "Stock Cap and Proration," the right to receive either 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock or $17.75 in cash upon surrender of the certificate representing the share of Caesars common stock in the manner provided in the merger agreement. In addition, shares held by Caesars stockholders who validly exercise dissenters' rights will be subject to appraisal in accordance with Delaware law as described further below under "Dissenters' Shares."

The value of the merger consideration that a Caesars stockholder receives in the merger may vary depending on whether a Caesars stockholder elects to receive shares of Harrah's common stock or cash. The value of the cash portion of the merger consideration is fixed at $17.75 for each share of Caesars common stock. The value of the stock portion of the merger consideration is not fixed and will depend upon the value of 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock upon completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger and as described further below under "Caesars Equity Awards and Benefit Plans," Caesars Equity Awards :

each outstanding option to purchase Caesars common stock, whether or not then exercisable, will be converted into an option to purchase Harrah's common stock;

each outstanding purchase right under Caesars employee stock purchase plan will be converted into an option to purchase Harrah's common stock;

each outstanding restricted stock unit granted under Caesars' 2004 long term incentive plan will vest according to its terms and will be converted into the right to receive Harrah's common stock;

the forfeiture conditions on each performance award will lapse according to its terms and Harrah's will issue shares of common stock to each holder of a performance award; and

Caesars will take all actions necessary to terminate its supplemental retention plan as of the effective time of the merger and Harrah's will issue Harrah's common stock to each participant in the supplemental retention plan according to its terms.

The exchange ratio in the merger and the cash consideration will be adjusted to reflect the effect of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange or shares or readjustment, or stock dividend, or other like change with respect to Harrah's common stock or Caesars common stock having a record date on or after the date of the merger agreement and prior to completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Caesars common stock held by Harrah's or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of Harrah's immediately prior to the merger will be automatically cancelled and extinguished, and none of Harrah's or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries will receive any securities of Harrah's or other consideration in exchange for those shares.

Stock Cap and Proration

Caesars stockholders may elect to receive 0.3247 of a share of Harrah's common stock for each share of Caesars common stock that they own, or if Caesars stockholders do not make such an election to receive shares of Harrah's common stock, they will be deemed to have elected to receive $17.75 in cash for each share of Caesars common stock that they own, subject to proration due to the aggregate amount of cash and the number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued by Harrah's in the merger and other adjustments as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The merger has been structured, and adjustments to the elections of Caesars stockholders will be made by the exchange agent, so that the maximum aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock to be converted into shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger will equal 66.42% of the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger, which amount is referred to as the stock cap. Therefore, assuming there are no adjustments, the aggregate number of shares of Harrah's common stock which will be issued to Caesars stockholders as consideration in the merger is fixed at approximately _____ million shares and the aggregate amount of cash which will be paid to Caesars stockholders is fixed at $ _____ billion in cash based on the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding as of the record date for the Caesars special meeting, which is referred to as the cash cap. The stock elections in the merger are subject to proration to preserve this fixed aggregate number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued and cash to be paid in the merger. As a result, even if a Caesars stockholder elects to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger, he or she will likely receive a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash. Similarly, if he or she is deemed to have elected to receive cash in the merger, he or she will likely receive a mix of Harrah's common stock and cash.

If the aggregate number of shares held by Caesars stockholders electing to receive Harrah's common stock exceeds the stock cap, then the exchange agent will allocate, pro rata to those Caesars stockholders electing to receive the stock consideration, a sufficient amount of cash consideration instead of stock consideration so that the aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock to be converted into shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger equals the stock cap, subject to rounding and the adjustment provisions of the merger agreement.

If the aggregate number of shares held by Caesars stockholders who are deemed to have elected to receive cash exceeds the aggregate amount of cash that will be paid to Caesars stockholders in the merger, then the exchange agent will allocate, pro rata to those Caesars stockholders who are deemed to have elected to receive cash, a sufficient amount of stock consideration instead of cash consideration so that the aggregate number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued by Harrah's in the merger equals the stock cap, subject to rounding and the adjustment provisions of the merger agreement.

As a result of this proration feature, in most cases, the form of merger consideration actually received by a Caesars stockholder may differ in part from the form of consideration that a Caesars stockholder elects to receive. Because the aggregate number of shares of Caesars common stock to be converted into shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger will equal 66.42% of the number of shares of Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger, unless adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, it is possible that a substantial portion of the merger consideration received by each Caesars stockholder will be in the form of stock consideration, regardless of the election made by the Caesars stockholder.

Dissenters' Shares

Shares of Caesars common stock held by any Caesars stockholder that properly demands payment for its shares in compliance with the dissenters' appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration. Caesars stockholders properly exercising dissenters' rights will be entitled to payment as further described above under "The Merger - Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal." However, if any Caesars stockholder fails to perfect or otherwise waives, withdraws or loses the right to receive payment under Section 262 of the DGCL, then that Caesars stockholder will not be paid in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL and the shares of Caesars common stock held by that Caesars stockholder will be exchangeable solely for the right to receive the merger consideration.

Exchange of Caesars Stock Certificates for Harrah's Stock Certificates

Harrah's has retained The Bank of New York as the exchange agent for the merger to handle the exchange of shares of Caesars common stock for the merger consideration, including the payment of cash for fractional shares.

Only those holders of Caesars common stock who properly surrender their Caesars stock certificates in accordance with the exchange agent's instructions will receive:

a statement indicating book-entry ownership of Harrah's common stock or, if requested, a certificate representing Harrah's common stock or the cash consideration;

cash in lieu of any fractional share of Harrah's common stock; and dividends or other distributions, if any, on Harrah's common stock to which they are entitled under the terms of the merger agreement.

After the effective time of the merger, each certificate representing shares of Caesars common stock that has not been surrendered will represent only the right to receive upon surrender of that certificate each of the items listed in the preceding sentence. Following completion of the merger, Caesars will not register any transfers of Caesars common stock outstanding on its stock transfer books prior to the merger.

To effect the exchange of shares of Caesars common stock, the exchange agent will take the actions described below.

Caesars Common Stock - General

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each record holder of shares of Caesars common stock, other than holders who make an election as described below under "Caesars Common Stock - Election," a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering the certificates representing shares of Caesars common stock for merger consideration. Upon surrender of certificates representing shares of Caesars common stock for cancellation, together with an executed letter of transmittal, to the exchange agent, the holder of those certificates will be entitled to receive the appropriate merger consideration. The surrendered certificates representing Caesars common stock will be cancelled.

Caesars Common Stock - Election

Enclosed with this joint proxy statement/prospectus is an election form for each record holder of shares of Caesars common stock pursuant to which such holder may elect to receive shares of Harrah's common stock in exchange for his or her shares of Caesars common stock in the merger. To be effective, the election form must be properly completed, signed and received by the exchange agent together with the stock certificates representing the shares of Caesars common stock with respect to which the election is being made must be submitted to, no later than 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. Harrah's and Caesars will announce the anticipated closing date at least three but not more than ten business days prior to the closing date of the merger. At the effective time of the merger, Caesars stockholders who surrender their stock certificates with the election form will be entitled to receive the consideration described above under Merger Consideration General into which the shares of Caesars common stock represented by those stock certificates will be converted, subject to proration and adjustment, as described above under Merger Consideration Stock Cap and Proration. If no form of election is received with respect to shares of Caesars common stock, or if the exchange agent determines that any election to receive stock consideration was not properly made, including the failure to submit the stock certificates evidencing the shares of Caesars common stock subject to the election, those shares of Caesars common stock will be treated by the exchange agent as the stockholder not having made an election at the effective time of the merger, and those shares of Caesars common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash consideration, subject to proration and adjustment as described above under Merger Consideration Stock Cap and Proration.

Unless required by law, forms of election may be revoked only by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the business day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. If a form of election is revoked, all certificates surrendered to the exchange agent with the revoked form of election will be returned to the Caesars stockholder who submitted the revoked form of election.

Fractional Shares

Harrah's will not issue fractional shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger. As a result, each holder of shares of Caesars common stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive fractional shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger will be entitled to an amount of cash, without interest, rounded to the nearest cent, equal to the product of the amount of the fractional share interest in a share of Harrah's common stock to which that stockholder is entitled by an amount equal to the average of the closing sale prices of a share of Harrah's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange, as reported in The Wall Street Journal, Northeastern edition, for each of the ten consecutive trading days ending with the second complete trading day prior to the effective time of the merger.

Termination of Exchange Fund

Six months after the effective time of the merger, Harrah's may require the exchange agent to deliver to Harrah's all cash and shares of Harrah's common stock remaining in the exchange fund. Thereafter, Caesars stockholders must look only to Harrah's for payment of the merger consideration on their shares of Caesars common stock.

No Liability

None of Harrah's, Caesars, Harrah's Operating Company or the exchange agent will be liable to any holder of a certificate representing shares of Caesars common stock or any cash payable in respect of any distributions or dividends or in lieu of any fractional shares of Harrah's common stock, delivered to a public official under any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. If any stock certificates representing shares of Caesars common stock have not been surrendered prior to five years after the effective time of the merger, any cash, shares, dividends or distributions with respect to these stock certificates will become property of Harrah's, to the extent permitted by law.

Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares

Holders of Caesars common stock are not entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions on Harrah's common stock until the merger is completed. After the merger is completed, holders of Caesars common stock certificates will be entitled to dividends and other distributions declared or made after completion of the merger with respect to the number of whole shares of Harrah's common stock which they are entitled upon exchange of their Caesars stock certificates, but they will not be paid any dividends or other distributions on Harrah's common stock until they surrender their Caesars stock certificates to the exchange agent in accordance with the exchange agent instructions.

Transfers of Ownership and Lost Stock Certificates

Harrah's only will issue merger consideration, cash in lieu of a fractional share and any dividends or distributions on Harrah's common stock that may be applicable in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Caesars stock certificate is registered if the certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form and any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The obligations of Harrah's and Caesars to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver, if legally permissible, of the following conditions:

the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by Caesars stockholders and the approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger by Harrah's stockholders;

the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus is a part must be declared effective under the Securities Act and the registration statement shall not be subject to any stop order or proceeds seeking a stop order and all state securities authorizations necessary to issue Harrah's common stock in the merger have been received;

the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period and any extension of the waiting period under the HSR Act;

the absence of any legal prohibition having the effect of preventing or prohibiting completion of the merger except that this condition cannot be asserted by either party unless they have used reasonable efforts to prevent the legal prohibition and appealed the legal prohibition;

the absence of any litigation by any governmental entity seeking to prohibit or restrain the merger or that otherwise would have a material adverse effect on the combined company;

the representations and warranties of the other party, disregarding all qualifications and exceptions relating to materiality or material adverse effect, being true and correct at and as of the effective time of the merger as if they were made on that date (except to the extent that the representations and warranties speak as of another date), except where the failure of the representations and warranties to be true and correct would not have a material adverse effect on the other party, and the receipt of a certificate of an executive officer of the other party to that effect;

the other party having performed or complied with its agreements and covenants in the merger agreement in all material respects, and the receipt of a certificate of an executive officer of the other party to that effect; absence of any facts, events, changes, effects, developments, conditions or occurrences, except as disclosed by Caesars, since the date of the merger agreement, that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the other party; and the receipt of an opinion from the party's counsel that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or, alternatively, if applicable, that the alternative transaction described below under "Tax Treatment" will qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Material adverse effect, when used in reference to Harrah's or Caesars, means a material adverse effect on:

the business, assets, financial condition or results of operations of the referenced company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; the ability of the referenced person to perform its obligations under the merger agreement; or the ability of the referenced person to complete the merger and related transactions.

However, any facts, events, changes, effects, developments or occurrences, will not be deemed to have a material adverse effect if they relate to:

the economy in general in the U.S. or in any state in which Harrah's or Caesars, as the case may be, or any of their subsidiaries operates, which events, changes, effects, developments, conditions or occurrences do not disproportionately affect Harrah's or Caesars relative to the other participants in the travel, hospitality or gaming industries;

the travel, hospitality or gaming industries in general in the U.S. or in any state in which Harrah's or Caesars or any of their subsidiaries operates, which events, changes, effects, developments, conditions or occurrences do not disproportionately affect Harrah's or Caesars relative to the other participants in the travel, hospitality or gaming industries;

the execution of the merger agreement; or any change in Harrah's or Caesars' stock price or trading volume, in and of itself.

In addition, compliance with the terms of the merger agreement, including the provisions with respect to the actions to be taken to obtain regulatory and antitrust approvals, and the consequences of compliance with the terms of the merger agreement will not be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect will have occurred or will be expected to occur.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties of Harrah's and Caesars, which are subject to materiality and knowledge qualifications in many respects, and expire at the effective time of the merger. Caesars Prohibited from Soliciting Other Offers

Caesars has agreed not to, will not authorize or permit its subsidiaries to, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause any of its and their officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys or other advisors or representatives not to directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of any takeover proposal;

enter into any agreement with respect to any takeover proposal; or other than informing persons of the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement, participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to Caesars in connection with, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, a takeover proposal.

Caesars may, however, before Caesars stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, in response to an unsolicited bona fide takeover proposal that the Caesars board of directors determines, in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel and financial advisors, would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal, furnish information with respect to Caesars to the person making the takeover proposal and its representatives pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement, which agreement is not less restrictive of the person making the takeover proposal than the confidentiality agreement entered into by Caesars with Harrah's, and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person and its representatives regarding any takeover proposal.

A takeover proposal means:

any proposal or offer for a merger, consolidation, dissolution, recapitalization or other business combination involving Caesars or any significant subsidiary;

any proposal for the issuance by Caesars of over 20% of its equity securities;

any proposal or offer to acquire in any manner, directly or indirectly, over 20% of the equity securities or consolidated total assets of Caesars; or

A superior proposal means any proposal by a third party to acquire substantially all the equity securities or assets of Caesars, pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, a merger, a consolidation, a liquidation or dissolution, a recapitalization, a sale of all or substantially all its assets or otherwise, on terms which the Caesars board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors:

to be more favorable from a financial point of view to the holders of shares of Caesars common stock than the merger with Harrah's, taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and the merger agreement, including any proposal by Harrah's to amend the terms of the merger; and is reasonably likely to be completed.

Caesars will promptly advise Harrah's orally and in writing of any takeover proposal or inquiry with respect to or that could reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal, the identity of the person making any takeover proposal or inquiry and the material terms of any takeover proposal or inquiry. Caesars will keep Harrah's informed of the status of any takeover proposal or inquiry and provide to Harrah's copies of the takeover proposal and all other material information provided in writing to Harrah's by the party making the takeover proposal as soon as practicable after receipt or delivery by Caesars.

Harrah's and Caesars have agreed to call, hold and convene a meeting of their respective stockholders as soon as practicable after the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/ prospectus forms a part is declared effective by the SEC. The Harrah's board of directors also agreed to recommend to Harrah's stockholders the approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger. The Caesars board of directors agreed to recommend the approval of the merger agreement to its stockholders. Neither the Caesars board of directors nor any committee thereof may:

withdraw or modify, or publicly propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Harrah's or Harrah's Operating Company, the approval or recommendation of the Caesars board of directors of the merger agreement or the merger; approve any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or similar agreement relating to any takeover proposal; or approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any takeover proposal.

However, the Caesars board of directors may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger if, prior to receipt of the approval of the merger and the merger agreement by Caesars stockholders:

the Caesars board of directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that the withdrawal or modification of its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger is required for the purpose of fulfilling its fiduciary duties, and Caesars has notified Harrah's in writing of this determination;

at least three business days following receipt by Harrah's of this notice, and taking into account any revised proposal made by Harrah's since receipt of this notice, the Caesars board of directors maintains its determination made above; and Caesars is in compliance with all of its obligations under the no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The merger agreement does not prohibit Caesars from taking and disclosing to its stockholders, in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Exchange Act, a position regarding any unsolicited tender offer for Caesars common stock or from making any other disclosure to Caesars stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Caesars board of directors, after consultation with outside counsel, failure to disclose would be inconsistent with the fulfillment of the fiduciary duties or any other obligations of the Caesars board of directors under applicable law.

Conduct of Business Before Completion of the Merger

General Restrictions on Operations

Harrah's and Caesars have agreed to restrictions on their activities until either the completion of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement, except as specifically permitted by the merger agreement. In general, each of Harrah's and Caesars is required to:

pay its liabilities and taxes when due; and use all commercially reasonable efforts to preserve its current relationships with its customers, suppliers, licensors, licensees, distributors and other persons with which it has business dealings in order that its goodwill and ongoing business will not be impaired at the time of the completion of the merger.

Additional Restrictions on Harrah's Interim Operations

In addition, Harrah's has agreed that, prior to the completion of the merger, unless otherwise approved in writing by Caesars, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, or as required by the merger agreement, it will not:

amend or otherwise change its certificate of incorporation or by-laws, except to increase the authorized number of shares of Harrah's capital stock;

declare, set aside, make or pay any dividend on, or make any other distributions in respect of any of Harrah's capital stock, other than dividends on Harrah's common stock in the ordinary course of business; or authorize, commit or agree to take any of the actions listed above.

In addition, Harrah s and Caesars will not, and will not permit any of their subsidiaries to, take any action that would, or would reasonably be expected to, result in any of the representations and warranties, disregarding all qualifications and exceptions relating to materiality or material adverse effect, made by it in the merger agreement becoming untrue, except where the failure of the representations and warranties to be true and correct would not have a material adverse effect on the other party, or result in any condition to the effectiveness of the merger not being satisfied.

Harrah s and Caesars will promptly advise each other of any state of facts, event, change, effect, development, condition or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party.

Access to Information; Confidentiality

During the period prior to the effective time of the merger, Harrah s and Caesars will, and will cause each of their subsidiaries to, afford to the other party and its representatives reasonable access during normal business hours to all of their respective properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records, except that Caesars is not required to provide Harrah s with any information that it reasonably believes it can not deliver to Harrah s due to contractual restrictions or legal restrictions, or which it believes is competitively sensitive information. During that period, each party will promptly provide to the other party all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as the other party reasonably requests. The information will be held in confidence to the extent required by the provisions of the confidentiality agreement between Harrah s and Caesars.

Regulatory and Antitrust Approval

Harrah s and Caesars will use all reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to complete and make effective the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as promptly as practicable, but in no event later July 14, 2005, unless the date is extended up to and including October 15, 2005, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Harrah's and its subsidiaries will take any and all actions necessary to ensure that:

no decree, judgment, injunction, temporary restraining order or any other order in any suit or proceeding; and

no other matter relating to any antitrust or competition law or regulation or relating to any gaming law; would preclude completion of the merger by the latest applicable date to which Harrah's and Caesars agreed, unless any such action would, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the combined company.

Caesars will be required, only if requested by Harrah's, to divest, hold separate or otherwise take or commit to take any action with respect to the businesses, services, or assets of Caesars or any of its subsidiaries. Caesars may condition any such action upon the completion of the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Neither Harrah's nor Caesars will knowingly take or cause to be taken any action which would reasonably be expected to materially delay or prevent the obtaining of required approvals from any government entity by July 14, 2005, unless the date is extended up to and including October 15, 2005 pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

In addition, Harrah's and Caesars have agreed that each of Harrah's and Caesars will:

subject to applicable laws and except as may be prohibited by any representative of any governmental entity, not agree to participate in any substantive meeting or discussion with any governmental entity regarding any filings, investigation or inquiry concerning the merger agreement or the merger unless it consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by the governmental entity, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in the meeting; and subject to applicable laws and except as may be prohibited by any representative of any governmental entity, furnish the other party with copies of all correspondence, filings, and written communications, including summary memoranda, between them and its affiliates and their respective representatives on the one hand, and any governmental entity, including regulatory or gaming authority, or members or their respective staffs on the other hand, with respect to the merger agreement and the merger.

In connection with and without limiting these obligations, Caesars and its board of directors will take all reasonable action necessary to ensure that no state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation is or becomes applicable to the merger agreement or any transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. If any state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation becomes applicable to the merger agreement or any transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, Caesars and its board of directors will take all reasonable action necessary to ensure that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, may be completed as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by the merger agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of the statute or regulation on the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

Notification

Caesars and Harrah s will promptly advise the other party, orally and in writing, of any state of facts, event, change, effect, development, condition or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on it. Caesars will give prompt notice to Harrah s, and Harrah s or Harrah s Operating Company will give prompt notice to Caesars, of any representation or warranty made by such party or contained in the merger agreement that is qualified as to materiality becoming untrue or inaccurate in any respect, or any representation or warranty made by it or contained in the merger agreement that is not qualified as to materiality becoming untrue or inaccurate in any material respect. Additionally, Caesars will give prompt notice to Harrah s, and Harrah s or Harrah s Operating Company will give prompt notice to Caesars, of the failure by it to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under the merger agreement. No notification, however, will affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under the merger agreement.

Caesars Equity Awards and Benefit Plans

Harrah s will take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Harrah s common stock for delivery upon exercise or settlement of the Caesars equity awards described below that it will assume or settle pursuant to the merger agreement. As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, Harrah's will file a registration statement on Form S-8, or any successor or other appropriate form, with respect to the shares of Harrah's common stock subject to the Caesars equity awards and will use all reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements, and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained in such registration statement or registration statement, for so long as the Caesars stock options assumed by Harrah's remain outstanding.

Stock Options. Harrah's has agreed to assume the Caesars stock option plans at the effective time of the merger. Under the merger agreement, each outstanding option to purchase shares of Caesars common stock will be converted into an option to purchase Harrah's common stock. Each of these options will be subject to the same terms and conditions stated in the applicable Caesars stock plan and any agreements under the applicable Caesars stock plan immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The terms and conditions of the Caesars stock option plans, other than Caesars' 1998 independent director stock option plan, provide for accelerated vesting of outstanding options in connection with the merger. As of the effective time of the merger:

each invested Caesars stock option outstanding under any Caesars stock option plan will be fully vested and exercisable, including options under the 1998 independent director stock option plan;

each Caesars stock option will be exercisable for the number of whole shares of Harrah's common stock, determined by multiplying the number of shares of Caesars common stock subject to the option immediately prior to the effective time of the merger by 0.3247 rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Harrah's common stock; and the per share exercise price for the shares of Harrah's common stock issuable upon exercise of any Caesars stock option will be equal to the quotient determined by dividing the exercise price per share of Caesars common stock under the Caesars stock option immediately prior to the effective time of the merger by 0.3247, rounded up to the nearest whole cent.

The conversion of any Caesars stock options which are incentive stock options, within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, into options to purchase Harrah's common stock will be made so as not to constitute a modification of those Caesars stock options within the meaning of Section 424 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Harrah's has agreed to assume the Caesars employee stock purchase plan at the effective time of the merger. Each outstanding purchase right under the Caesars employee stock purchase plan will be assumed by Harrah's and converted into a right to purchase Harrah's common stock. Each purchase right assumed and converted by Harrah's will continue to have the same terms and conditions set forth in the employee stock purchase plan of Caesars and the other documents governing the outstanding purchase rights under the employee stock purchase plan, immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, except that the purchase price of shares of Harrah's common stock and the number of shares of Harrah's common stock to be issued upon the exercise of the purchase rights will be adjusted in accordance with the stock exchange ratio.

Restricted Stock Units. At the effective time of the merger, each restricted stock unit granted under Caesars' 2004 Long Term Incentive Plan and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will vest according to its terms and as promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, Harrah's will cause to be issued to each holder of restricted stock units, in complete settlement of those restricted stock units, a number of shares of Harrah's common stock, rounded to the nearest whole number, net of any applicable withholding, equal to the product of the number of shares of Caesars common stock subject to restricted stock units credited to the holder's account immediately prior to the effective time of the merger multiplied by 0.3247.

Performance Awards. At the effective time of the merger, the forfeiture conditions on each performance award will lapse according to its terms and, as promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, Harrah's will cause to be issued to each holder of a performance award, in complete settlement of the performance award, a number of shares of Harrah's common stock, rounded to the nearest whole number, net of any applicable withholding, equal to the product of the number of shares of Caesars common stock issuable upon achievement of all performance goals set forth in the holder's performance award multiplied by 0.3247.

Supplemental Retention Plan. Caesars will take all actions necessary to terminate its supplemental retention plan as of the effective time of the merger. In connection with the termination of the supplemental retention plan, as promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, Harrah's will cause to be issued to each participant in the supplemental retention plan, in complete settlement of the participant's rights with respect to supplemental retention units, a number of shares of Harrah's common stock, rounded to the nearest whole number, net of any applicable withholding, equal to the product of the number of shares of Caesars common stock subject to supplemental retention units credited to the participant's account immediately prior to the effective time of the merger multiplied by 0.3247.

Caesars Benefit Plans

Subject to the terms of any collective bargaining agreement in effect on the date of the merger agreement or which may be in effect in the future, Harrah's will cause Harrah's Operating Company to maintain, for a period of one year after the effective time of the merger, the Caesars benefit plans as in effect on the date of the merger agreement or to provide benefits, excluding benefits attributable to equity-based plans or grants, to each current employee of Caesars and its subsidiaries that are at least as favorable in the aggregate to those employees as the benefits in effect on the date of the merger agreement. With respect to benefits attributable to equity-based plans or grants, Harrah's will, or will cause Harrah's Operating Company to provide that each Caesars employee will be eligible to receive grants in the same manner as similarly situated employees of Harrah's or any of its subsidiaries.

From and after the effective time of the merger, Harrah's will, and will cause Harrah's Operating Company to honor in accordance with their respective terms all of Caesars' employment, severance and termination agreements, plans and policies.

With respect to any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement maintained by Harrah's or any of its subsidiaries, including any severance plan, for all purposes of determining eligibility to participate and vesting but not for purposes of benefit accrual, service with Caesars or any of its subsidiaries will be treated as service with Harrah's or its subsidiaries, but not including any service that would result in any duplication of benefits.

Harrah's will waive, or cause to be waived, any pre-existing condition limitation under any welfare benefit plan maintained by Harrah's or any of its affiliates, other than Caesars, in which employees of Caesars and its subsidiaries, as well as their eligible dependents, will be eligible to participate after the effective time of the merger, except to the extent that such pre-existing condition limitation would have been applicable under the comparable Caesars welfare benefit plan immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Harrah's will recognize, or cause to be recognized, the dollar amount of all expenses incurred by each Caesars employee, and his or her eligible dependents, during the calendar year in which the effective time of the merger occurs for purposes of satisfying that year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which they will be eligible to participate from and after the effective time of the merger.

Indemnification

Harrah's will, to the fullest extent permitted by law, cause Harrah's Operating Company to honor all of Caesars' obligations to indemnify, including any obligations to advance funds for expenses to, the current or former directors or officers of Caesars for acts or omissions by such directors and officers occurring prior to the effective time of the merger to the extent that those obligations of Caesars exist on the date of the merger agreement, whether pursuant to Caesars' certificate of incorporation and bylaws, each as amended to the date of the merger agreement, individual indemnity or other agreements, and such obligations will survive the merger. The certificate of incorporation of Harrah's Operating Company will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification and exculpation of present and former directors and officers of Caesars than are presently set forth in Caesars' charter and by-laws.

For six years from the effective time of the merger, Harrah's will cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by Caesars with respect to claims arising from or related to facts or events which occurred at or before the effective time of the merger, although Harrah's may substitute policies with reputable and financially sound carriers of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous. However, Harrah's will not be obligated to make annual premium payments for this insurance if the premiums exceed 300% of the annual premiums paid as of the date of the merger agreement by Caesars for the insurance. Further, if the insurance coverage cannot be obtained at all, or can only be obtained at an annual premium in excess of 300% of the annual premium paid by Caesars as of the date of the merger agreement, Harrah's will maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' insurance obtainable for an annual premium equal to that amount.

If Caesars in its sole discretion elects, by giving written notice to Harrah's at least 60 days prior to the effective time of the merger, then, instead of the insurance described above, effective as of the effective time of the merger, Caesars will purchase a directors' and officers' liability insurance tail or runoff insurance program for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger with respect to wrongful acts and/or omissions committed or allegedly committed at or prior to the effective time of the merger, provided that the premium for such tail or runoff coverage does not exceed 300% of the annual premiums paid as of the date of the merger agreement by Caesars for its current directors' and officers' liability insurance. This coverage will have an aggregate coverage limit over the term of the insurance in an amount not to exceed the annual aggregate coverage limit under Caesars' existing directors' and officers' liability policy, and in all other respects will be comparable to the existing directors' and officers' liability policy coverage.

Termination by Harrah's or Caesars

Either Harrah's or Caesars may terminate the merger agreement at any time before the effective time of the merger if Harrah's and Caesars mutually agree in writing to the termination or by written notice of either Harrah's or Caesars if:

the merger is not completed by or on July 14, 2005, which date may be extended by either party up to and including October 14, 2005 in the event all conditions to effect the merger, other than one or more of the regulatory conditions have been or are capable of being satisfied at the time of the extension, except that this right to terminate the merger agreement is not available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement has been the cause of, or results in, the failure of the merger to occur on or before such date;

any governmental entity issues an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger, and the order, decree, ruling or other action has become final and nonappealable;

Caesars stockholders do not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, at a duly convened stockholders meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of such stockholders meeting, at which the vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, was taken; or

Harrah's stockholders do not approve the issuance of Harrah's common stock to Caesars stockholders in the merger at a duly convened stockholders meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of such stockholders meeting, at which the vote to approve the share issuance was taken.

Termination by Harrah's

Harrah's may terminate the merger agreement by written notice at any time prior to completion of the merger if:

Caesars breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which would result in a failure of a closing condition relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Caesars or the performance by Caesars of its obligations under the merger agreement and the breach or failure to perform cannot be or has not been cured within 60 days after giving written notice to Caesars of the breach;

the Caesars board of directors withdraws or adversely modifies its recommendation, or resolves to do so, of the merger agreement; or the Caesars board of directors approves or recommends to Caesars stockholders, or resolves to do so, a takeover proposal other than the merger agreement.

Termination by Caesars

Caesars may terminate the merger agreement by written notice at any time prior to completion of the merger if:

Harrah's or Harrah's Operating Company breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which would result in a failure of a closing condition relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Harrah's or Harrah's Operating Company or the performance by them of their obligations under the merger agreement and the breach or failure to perform cannot be or has not been cured within 60 days after giving written notice to Harrah's of the breach; or prior to the receipt of the approval of the merger agreement by Caesars stockholders, Caesars (a) receives a superior proposal as described above under Caesars Prohibited From Soliciting Other Offers, (b) resolves to accept such superior proposal, (c) gives Harrah's three business days prior written notice of its intention to terminate the merger agreement, (d) the proposal continues to constitute a superior proposal taking into account any revised proposal made by Harrah's during such three business day period and (e) Caesars pays the break-up fee described below under Break-up Fee.

Caesars may not terminate the merger agreement pursuant to the superior proposal termination provision described above if it is in breach of its obligations under the no solicitation provisions of the merger agreement.

Break-up Fee

Caesars has agreed to pay Harrah's a break-up fee of $180.0 million within two business days of written notice of termination if the merger agreement is terminated by Harrah's because the Caesars board of directors withdraws or adversely modifies its recommendation, or resolves to do so, of the merger agreement or approves or recommends, or resolves to do so, to Caesars stockholders a takeover proposal other than the merger agreement.

Caesars has agreed to pay Harrah's the break-up fee concurrently with termination of the merger agreement if the merger agreement is terminated by Caesars because, prior to receipt of the approval of the merger agreement by Caesars stockholders, Caesars:

receives a superior proposal as described above under Caesars Prohibited From Soliciting Other Offers;

Table of Contents

gives Harrah's three business days prior written notice of its intention to terminate the merger agreement; and the proposal continues to constitute a superior proposal after taking into account any revised proposal made by Harrah's during such three business day period.

Caesars will pay Harrah's the break-up fee on the date of the completion of a takeover proposal as described below if:

after July 14, 2004, any person publicly announces a takeover proposal which has not been expressly and bona fide publicly withdrawn;

the merger agreement is terminated by either Caesars or Harrah's because Caesars stockholders did not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, at a duly convened stockholders meeting at which the vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, was taken and at that time Harrah's is not in breach in any material respect of any of its representations, warranties and covenants contained in the merger agreement;

within 12 months after the date of the merger agreement Caesars enters into a definitive agreement to complete, or completes, a takeover proposal; and the takeover proposal is completed.

For purposes of determining whether a break-up fee is payable in the situation described in the previous paragraph, the term "takeover proposal" will mean:

any proposal or offer for a merger, consolidation, dissolution, recapitalization or other business combination involving Caesars or any significant subsidiary;

any proposal for the issuance by Caesars of over 50% of its equity securities;

any proposal or offer to acquire in any manner, directly or indirectly, over 50% of the equity securities or consolidated total assets of Caesars; or

in each case, other than the merger.

If Caesars fails promptly to pay the break-up fee when required, and, in order to obtain the payment, Harrah's commences a suit that results in a judgment against Caesars for the break-up fee, Caesars will pay to Harrah's interest on the break-up fee from and including the date payment of the break-up fee was due to, but excluding, the date of actual payment at the prime rate of Bank of America, National Association in effect on the date the payment was required to be made.

Effect of Termination

In the event of termination of the merger agreement by either Harrah's or Caesars in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the merger agreement will immediately become void and have no effect. Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company or Caesars will not have any liability or obligation to the other parties, except to the extent that the termination results from the willful and material breach by a party of any representation, warranty or covenant set forth in the merger agreement, and other than the payment of fees and expenses described above under Fees and Expenses and Break-up Fee, certain provisions relating to confidentiality, and certain other general provisions which will survive the termination.

Fees and Expenses

Except as provided under Break-up Fee, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger will be paid by the party incurring the fees or expenses, whether or not the merger is completed, other than expenses incurred in connection with filing, printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/ prospectus which will be shared equally by Harrah's and Caesars.

Public Announcements

Harrah's and Harrah's Operating Company, on the one hand, and Caesars, on the other hand, will consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and will not issue any such press release or make any public statement prior to consultation with the other, except as may be required by applicable law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange.

Transfer Taxes

All stock transfer, real estate transfer, documentary, stamp, recording and other similar taxes, including interest, penalties and additions to those taxes, incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by Harrah's Operating Company, and Caesars will cooperate with Harrah's Operating Company, and Harrah's in preparing, executing and filing any tax returns with respect to those taxes.

Stock Exchange Listing

Harrah's will use all reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Caesars common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the closing date of the merger.

Tax Treatment

Harrah's and Caesars intend the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Each party and its respective subsidiaries will use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Except with respect to any divestitures that may be undertaken pursuant to the merger agreement, Harrah's, Caesars and their respective subsidiaries will not take any action that would disqualify the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. For a description of certain tax consequences of the merger, see The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequence on page 76.

Harrah's and Caesars will cooperate and use their commercially reasonable efforts in order for Harrah's to obtain from Latham & Watkins LLP, and Caesars to obtain from Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, an opinion that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, in the event that either counsel is unable to render such an opinion, at either party's option, acting reasonably, the merger will be restructured in a manner intended to qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code. In such event, the merger would be restructured to provide for the formation by Harrah's and Caesars of a new corporation, the formation by the new corporation of two wholly-owned corporations and the merger of one of the newly formed subsidiaries with and into Harrah's, with Harrah's being the surviving entity, and the merger of the other newly formed subsidiary with and into Caesars, with Caesars being the surviving entity. In such case, each party and its respective subsidiaries will use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause the alternative transaction to qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code and will not take any action that would cause the alternative transaction not to qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code. The material tax consequences of the alternative transaction generally would be the same as those described in the section entitled "The Merger - Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" on page 76.

Each of Harrah's and Caesars also have the option, acting reasonably, to restructure the merger in the event the total fair market value of Harrah's common stock received by Caesars stockholders in the merger is greater than or equal to 80% of the aggregate fair market value of the Caesars common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger, with the shares of Harrah's common stock being valued as of the anticipated closing date. In such event, Harrah's would form a new wholly-owned subsidiary that would merge with and into Caesars, with Caesars being the surviving entity, in a transaction that would qualify as reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The material tax consequences of this alternative merger would be the same as those described in the section entitled "The Merger - Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" on page 76.

If the merger is restructured in either manner, the merger agreement and certain exhibits to the merger agreement will be amended by the parties as appropriate. However, no restructuring of the merger may (i) result in any change in the merger consideration, (ii) be materially adverse to the interests of Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company, Caesars, the holders of Harrah's common stock or holders of Caesars common stock or (iii) unreasonably impede or delay completion of the merger.

Stockholder Litigation

Caesars will give Harrah's the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Caesars and its directors relating to the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. Harrah's will give Caesars the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Harrah's and its directors relating to the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. No settlement agreement with respect to any stockholder litigation against Harrah's or Caesars and their respective directors relating to the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement may be agreed to without the consent of the other party.

Harrah's Board of Directors

At or prior to the effective date of the merger, Harrah's board of directors will take all necessary action so that, effective immediately following the effective date of the merger, William Barron Hilton and Stephen F. Bollenbach will be appointed to Harrah's board of directors. Mr. Hilton will be a Class I director, with a term expiring in 2006, and Mr. Bollenbach will be a Class II director, with a term expiring in 2007. In addition, as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the completion of the merger, the Nominating/ Corporate Governance Committee of Harrah's board of directors will consider recommending for appointment an additional Caesars director to the Harrah's board of directors. Harrah's board of directors will also consider the nomination of one further additional Caesars director to Harrah's board of directors.

Caesars Rights Agreement

take any action which would allow any person other than Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company or any subsidiary of Harrah's to become a beneficial owner of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of Caesars common stock without causing a shares acquisition date, or a distribution date as such terms are defined in Caesars' rights agreement, to occur; or adopt a stockholder rights plan or poison pill.

Table of Contents

In addition, the board of directors shall not make a determination that Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company or any of their respective affiliates or associates is an acquiring person for purposes of Caesars' rights agreement.

Amendments, Extensions and Waivers

Amendments

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties. However, after the approval of the merger agreement at the special meeting of Caesars stockholders or the approval of the issuance of shares of Harrah's common stock in the merger at the special meeting of Harrah's stockholders, there will be no amendment to the merger agreement made that by law, or, in the case of the approval at the special meeting of Harrah's stockholders, by the regulations established by the NYSE, requires further approval by the stockholders of Caesars or Harrah's without the further approval of the stockholders of Caesars or Harrah's. No amendment will be made to the merger agreement after the effective time of the merger and, except as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, no amendment will be made to the merger agreement if it will require the approval of the stockholders of Caesars.

Extensions and Waivers

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, any party to the merger agreement may:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement; or waive compliance by the other parties with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement except as limited by the provisions of the merger agreement described above in the section Amendments.

Except as described above in the section Amendments, no extension or waiver by Caesars shall require the approval of the stockholders of Caesars. Any agreement on the part of either party to any extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by that party. The failure of any party to the merger agreement to assert any of its rights under the merger agreement or otherwise will not constitute a waiver of those rights.

Historical financial information for Harrah's as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and the year ended December 31, 2003, has been derived from Harrah's historical financial statements.

Note 2 Pro Forma Sale of Harrah's Shreveport

The operating results of Harrah's Shreveport, which was sold May 19, 2004, are being eliminated, and interest expense is being reduced on the assumption that net proceeds from the sale were used to reduce outstanding debt. The sale of Harrah's Shreveport avoided over-exposure in that market and facilitated gaining regulatory approval for the acquisition of Horseshoe.

Note 3 Horseshoe Basis of Presentation

Historical financial information for Horseshoe as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and the year ended December 31, 2003, has been derived from Horseshoe's historical financial statements. Certain reclassifications have been made to the historical Horseshoe financial statements to conform to the presentation used in Harrah's historical financial statements. Such reclassifications had no effect on Horseshoe's previously reported income from continuing operations.

Note 4 Acquisition of Horseshoe

Harrah's, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Harrah's Operating Company, acquired Horseshoe on July 1, 2004. The following tables set forth the determination of the consideration paid for Horseshoe and the preliminary allocation of the purchase price. The purchase price allocation began in the third quarter of 2004 and will be completed within one year of the date of acquisition. Amounts allocated to tangible and intangible assets are based on our preliminary purchase price allocation and may change as the purchase price allocation is finalized.

The final purchase price and its allocation will be based on independent appraisals, discounted cash flows, quoted market prices and estimates by management and is expected to be completed by June 30, 2005.

Note 5 Horseshoe Pro Forma Statements of Income Adjustments

Following are brief descriptions of the pro forma adjustments to the statements of income to reflect the acquisition of Horseshoe. For purposes of this pro forma financial information, depreciation expense related to property and equipment is based on Harrah's estimated useful lives of 10 to 40 years for buildings, improvements, riverboats and barges; and 2 to 15 years for furniture, fixtures and equipment. Most of the intangible assets included in the Horseshoe acquisition are anticipated to have indefinite lives and, therefore, to be non-amortizing. See (a) below for a description of intangible assets to be amortized.

(a) Adjusts depreciation expense based on the fair value and estimated lives assigned to buildings, riverboats, furniture, fixtures and equipment in our preliminary purchase price allocation. Also records amortization of estimated intangible assets for the recognition of customer lists with estimated lives of 15 years and for an agreement to be amortized over four years.

(b) Eliminates acquisition-related costs triggered by change of control provisions in certain of Horseshoe's benefit plans, including a retention bonus plan, employment agreements and executive severance agreements of $21.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and Horseshoe's Equity Incentive Plan of $43.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2004. Also records the impact on expenses of certain operational efficiencies for functions that will be eliminated or reduced as a result of the acquisition of Horseshoe. The elimination of duplicative corporate office and operational support functions reduces expenses by $11.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and reduces expenses by $22.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.

(c) Reflects increase in interest expense comprised of incremental borrowings incurred by Harrah's to fund the acquisition, including transaction costs, and the retirement of Horseshoe's 8 5/8% Senior Subordinated Notes (see (e) below). The pro forma interest expense arising from the additional borrowings has been computed using the stated rate on $500 million of Harrah's 5.375% Senior Notes and on $750 million of Harrah's 5.5% Senior Notes and the current rate on approximately $230 million of Harrah's revolving credit agreement. The current interest rate on Harrah's revolving credit agreement is 2.2%. Each 1/8% change in the floating rate on the approximate $230 million borrowed under the revolving credit agreement would result in a change in interest expense of $143,750 for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and $287,500 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

(d) Reflects additional interest expense for the amortization of deferred finance charges and the discount arising from the incremental borrowings incurred by Harrah's (see (c) above) to fund the acquisition of Horseshoe and the retirement of Horseshoe's 8 5/8% Senior Subordinated Notes (see (e) below).

(e) Reflects reduction in interest expense, including amortization of deferred finance charges and of the discount related to the debt, to reflect the retirement of all $535 million of Horseshoe's 8 5/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2009, using funds described in (c) above.

(f) Records the estimated tax effect of the pro forma adjustments and on the historical taxable income of Horseshoe. Horseshoe had elected to be taxed as an S Corporation for federal income tax purposes and, accordingly, made no provision in the accounts of Horseshoe for federal income taxes. The estimated tax rate was calculated using the federal statutory rate of 35% plus a state income tax rate of 2.1%.

Note 6 Horseshoe Pro Forma Balance Sheet Adjustments

Following are brief descriptions of the pro forma adjustments to the balance sheet to reflect the acquisition of Horseshoe.

(g) Records additional borrowings incurred to fund the acquisition of Horseshoe and to retire Horseshoe's 8 5/8% Senior Subordinated Notes.

(h) Records the retirement of Horseshoe's 8 5/8% Senior Subordinated Notes, including the related premium.

(i) Records the write-off of the unamortized deferred finance charges related to the early retirement of Horseshoe's 8 5/8% Senior Subordinated Notes.

(j) Reflects the reversal of funds deposited in escrow for the acquisition of Horseshoe.

(k) Records the acquisition of 100% of the equity of Horseshoe and reflects as goodwill and other intangible assets the excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair value of net tangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

(l) Reflects the elimination of Horseshoe's receivable from Harrah's for reimbursable costs related to the acquisition.

(m) Records an increase in buildings, riverboats and equipment to their estimated fair value based on our preliminary purchase price allocation.

Note 7 Caesars Basis of Presentation

Historical financial information for Caesars as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and the year ended December 31, 2003, has been derived from Caesars' historical financial statements. Certain reclassifications have been made to the historical Caesars financial statements to conform to the presentation used in Harrah's historical financial statements. Such reclassifications had no effect on Caesars' previously reported income from continuing operations.

Note 8 Pro Forma Sale of Properties

Harrah's and Caesars have agreed to sell the assets and certain related current liabilities of Harrah's East Chicago and Tunica properties and of Caesars' Atlantic City Hilton and Bally's Tunica properties to an affiliate of Colony Capital, LLC. The sale is not conditioned on closing of the merger and is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions. The operating results of these four properties are eliminated and interest expense is reduced on the assumption that net proceeds from the sale would be used to reduce outstanding debt. Pro forma adjustments have been made to remove the assets and liabilities being sold. Certain assets and liabilities are not included in the sale and, therefore, pro forma adjustments have not been made for those items.

Note 9 Caesars Merger

On July 14, 2004, Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company and Caesars entered into an agreement providing for the merger of Caesars with Harrah's Operating Company.

The following tables set forth the determination of the consideration to be paid for Caesars and the preliminary allocation of the purchase price. The purchase price is based on a market value of $48.74 per share of Harrah's common stock, which is the average of the quoted market price of Harrah's common stock for the period beginning two trading days before and ending two trading days after the merger was announced.

Estimated cash consideration	$ 1,838.8
Estimated value of stock consideration	3,242.8
Fair market value of Caesars debt assumed by Harrahs	4,274.5
Estimated transaction costs and expenses	50.0
Pro forma purchase price	$ 9,406.1

The preliminary determination of the consideration to be paid is based on the number of outstanding shares of Caesars common stock at June 30, 2004. The final determination of the consideration to be paid will be dependent on the number of shares of Caesars common stock at the closing of the transaction. An increase or decrease in shares outstanding of one million shares would result in an increase or decrease of approximately $6.0 million of estimated cash consideration and approximately $10.6 million increase or decrease in the value of the stock consideration.

The preliminary allocation of the pro forma purchase price is as follows:

	(In millions)
Land, buildings, riverboats, furniture, fixtures and equipment	$ 6,968.0
Goodwill and other intangible assets	2,721.1
Other, net	(283.0)
	$ 9,406.1

The final purchase price allocation will be completed after the transaction closes. The preliminary purchase price allocation used for the purpose of this pro forma financial information is based on Caesars' book value of assets and liabilities at June 30, 2004. The final purchase price and its allocation will be based on independent appraisals, discounted cash flows, quoted market prices and estimates by management and will be completed within one year from closing of the transaction.

Note 10 Caesars Pro Forma Statements of Income Adjustments

Following are brief descriptions of the pro forma adjustments to the statements of income to reflect the merger of Caesars with Harrahs Operating Company. For purposes of this pro forma financial information, depreciation expense related to property and equipment is based on Caesars' estimated useful lives of 30 to 40 years for buildings and riverboats and 3 to 10 years for furniture and equipment. Since most of the intangible assets included in the Caesars merger are anticipated to have indefinite lives and, therefore, to be non-amortizing, no amortization of intangible assets has been included in the pro forma financial information. Estimated useful lives and amortization periods of property, equipment and intangible assets will be determined during the purchase price allocation and adjusted accordingly.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not reflect any synergistic benefits that may be realized through the combination of the two companies or costs that may be incurred in integrating their operations. We estimate that we will realize approximately

(n) Reflects increase in interest expense comprised of incremental borrowings incurred by Harrah s to fund the cash portion of the merger, including transaction costs. The pro forma interest expense arising from the additional borrowings has been computed using Harrah s current average interest rate of 5.3%. Each 1/8% change in the estimated interest rate on the approximate $1.9 billion borrowed to finance the cash portion of the merger would result in a change in interest expense of $1.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2004, and $2.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.

(o) Reflects additional interest expense for the amortization of deferred finance charges arising from the incremental borrowings incurred by Harrah s (see (n) above) to fund the acquisition of Caesars.

(p) Records the estimated tax effect of the pro forma adjustments and on the historical taxable income of Caesars. The estimated tax rate was calculated using the federal statutory rate of 35% plus a state income tax rate of 2.1%.

Note 11 Caesars Pro Forma Balance Sheet Adjustments

Following are brief descriptions of the pro forma adjustments to the balance sheet to reflect the merger of Caesars with Harrah s Operating Company.

(q) Records additional borrowings incurred to fund the merger.

(r) Records deferred financing costs incurred to borrow funds to fund the merger.

(s) Records the acquisition of 100% of the equity of Caesars and reflects as goodwill and other intangible assets the excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair value of net tangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

(t) Reflects the adjustment of Caesars outstanding debt to fair value.

EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

SECTION 2.01 Effect on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any shares of Company Common Stock or any shares of capital stock of Merger Sub:

(a) Capital Stock of Merger Sub. Each issued and outstanding share of capital stock of Merger Sub shall continue to be issued and outstanding and shall constitute the only issued and outstanding shares of the Surviving Entity.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock and Parent-Owned Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock that is owned by the Company, Parent or Merger Sub (or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent or Merger Sub) shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no cash, Parent Common Stock or other consideration shall be delivered or deliverable in exchange therefor.

(c) Conversion of Company Common Stock.

(1) Subject to Sections 2.01(b), 2.01(d) and 2.02(e), each issued and outstanding share of Company Common Stock outstanding prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof, one of the following:

(i) for each such share of Company Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive stock consideration (a Stock Election) has been effectively made, and not revoked or lost, pursuant to Section 2.03 (each, an Electing Share), the right to receive (subject to adjustment as provided in Section 2.01(e)) 0.3247 (the Exchange Ratio) shares of Parent Common Stock (the Stock Consideration), including the associated special stock purchase rights issued (Parent Rights) pursuant to the Rights Agreement dated as of October 6, 1996 between Parent and the Bank of New York, as Rights Agent (the Parent Rights Agreement); and

(ii) for each such share of Company Common Stock other than Electing Shares (each, a Non-Electing Share) the right to receive (subject to adjustment as provided in Section 2.01(e)) $17.75 in cash, without interest (the Cash Consideration), and each stockholder of the Company that holds Non-Electing Shares shall be deemed to have made a cash election (a Cash Election) with respect to such Non-Electing Shares.

(2) The cash payable, and the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued, upon the conversion of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to this Section 2.01(c), and any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock as contemplated by Section 2.02(e), are referred to collectively as Merger Consideration. As of the Effective Time, all such shares of Company Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares of Company Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive Merger Consideration upon surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 2.02, without interest.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or a stock dividend thereon shall be declared with a record date within said period, the Exchange Ratio shall be correspondingly adjusted.

(d) Dissenter Rights. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares (Dissenter Shares) of Company Common Stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by any person who is entitled to demand and properly demands payment for such Dissenter Shares pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, Sections 262 of the DGCL (the Dissenter Rights) shall not be converted into Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.01(c)(1), but rather the holders of Dissenter Shares shall be entitled to payment for such Dissenter Shares in accordance with the Dissenter Rights; provided, however, that if any such holder shall fail to perfect or otherwise shall waive, withdraw or lose the right to receive payment under the Dissenter Rights, then the right of such holder to be paid in accordance with the Dissenter Rights shall cease and such Dissenter Shares shall be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into, and to have become exchangeable solely for the right to receive, Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.01(c)(1). The Company shall serve prompt notice to Parent of any written notice of intent to demand payment, or any written demand for payment, received by the Company in respect of any shares of Company Common Stock, and Parent shall have the right to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

(e) Proration. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary:

(1) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock to be converted into the Stock Consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(c)(1) shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time by (y) 0.6642 (the Stock Cap), and all other shares of Company Common Stock shall be converted into the Cash Consideration.

(2) if the aggregate number of Electing Shares exceeds the Stock Cap, then (x) all Non-Electing Shares of each holder thereof shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and (y) the Electing Shares of each holder thereof will be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Electing Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the number of Electing Shares held by such holder by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Stock Cap and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Electing Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Electing Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration; and

(3) if the aggregate number of Electing Shares is less than the Stock Cap (the amount by which the aggregate number of Electing Shares is less than the Stock Cap being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then (x) all Electing Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and (y) the Non-Electing Shares of each holder thereof will be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Electing Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the number of Non-Electing Shares held by such holder by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Non-Electing Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Electing Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

(a) Exchange Agent. As soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement and in any event not less than three days prior to dissemination of the Joint Proxy Statement to the stockholders of the Company and the stockholders of Parent, Parent shall select a bank or trust company reasonably satisfactory to the Company to act as exchange agent (the Exchange Agent) for payment of Merger Consideration upon surrender of certificates representing Company Common Stock. The Exchange Agent shall also act as the agent for the Company's stockholders for the purpose of receiving and holding their Forms of Election and Certificates and shall obtain no rights or interests in such shares. Promptly following the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Article II, through the Exchange Agent (i) certificates representing the number of shares of Parent Common Stock issuable and (ii) the amount of cash consideration payable, in each case, pursuant to Section 2.01(c) in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Common Stock (such shares of Parent Common Stock and cash, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund). For the purposes of such deposit, Parent shall assume that there will not be any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock. Parent shall make available to the Exchange Agent, from time to time as needed, cash sufficient to pay cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.02(e). The Exchange Agent shall, pursuant to irrevocable instructions, deliver Parent Common Stock contemplated to be issued pursuant to Section 2.01 out of the Exchange Fund. The Exchange Fund may not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates (the Certificates) that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(c) who did not complete an Form of Election pursuant to Section 2.03, (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent or to such other agent or agents as may be appointed by Parent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the amount of cash, if any, and the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock, if any, into which the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock previously represented by such Certificate shall have been converted pursuant to Section 2.01(c), and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. Thereafter, such holder shall be treated as a holder of Parent Common Stock for purposes of voting or quorum for any meeting of the stockholders of Parent. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Common Stock that is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, payment may be made to a person other than the person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered, if such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such payment shall pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of Parent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.02, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration into which the shares of Company Common Stock theretofore represented by such Certificate have been converted pursuant to Section 2.01(c). No interest shall be paid or accrue on any cash payable upon surrender of any Certificate.

(c) Distributions With Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock with a record date on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any Certificate formerly representing Company Common Stock with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable upon surrender thereof, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 2.02(e) until the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with this Article II. Subject to applicable Law, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the Certificate representing whole shares of Parent Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.02(e) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock.

(d) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. The Merger Consideration paid and/or issued in accordance with the terms of this Article II upon conversion of any shares of Company Common Stock shall be deemed to have been paid and/or issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of Company Common Stock, subject, however, to the Surviving Entity's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time that may have been declared or made by the Company on such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or prior to the date of this Agreement and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time, and after the Effective Time there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Entity of shares of Company Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificates formerly representing shares of Company Common Stock are presented to the Surviving Entity or the Exchange Agent for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article II.

(1) No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the conversion of Company Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.01(c), and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a holder of Parent Common Stock. For purposes of this Section 2.02(e), all fractional shares to which a single record holder would be entitled shall be aggregated and calculations shall be rounded to three decimal places.

(2) In lieu of any such fractional shares, each holder of Company Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to such fractional shares shall be entitled to an amount in cash, without interest, rounded to the nearest cent, equal to the product of (A) the amount of the fractional share interest in a share of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled under Section 2.01(c) (or would be entitled but for this Section 2.02(e)) and (B) an amount equal to the average of the closing sale prices for Parent Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange, as reported in The Wall Street Journal, Northeastern edition, for each of the ten consecutive trading days ending with the second complete trading day prior to the Effective Time.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of Company Common Stock for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon demand, and any holder of Company Common Stock who has not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Parent and the Surviving Entity for payment of its claim for Merger Consideration (including any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 2.2(e)) and any applicable dividends or distributions with respect to any Parent Common Stock constituting Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.02(c), in each case, without any interest thereon.

(g) No Liability. None of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any person in respect of any cash or any shares of Parent Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Certificate has not been surrendered prior to five years after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which Merger Consideration in respect of such Certificate would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity), any such cash, shares, dividends or distributions in respect of such Certificate shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Entity, free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

(h) Investment of Exchange Fund. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Parent, in direct obligations of the U.S. Treasury or otherwise with the consent of the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), on a daily basis. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Parent.

(i) Withholding Rights. Parent and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any holder of Company Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as may be required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or under any provision of state, local or foreign tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority, the Surviving Entity will be treated as though it withheld an appropriate amount of the type of consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Company Common Stock, sold such consideration for an amount of cash equal to the fair market value of such consideration at the time of such deemed sale and paid such cash proceeds to the appropriate taxing authority.

(j) Income Tax Treatment. It is intended by the parties hereto that the Merger qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Subject to any revision to the structure of the transaction as provided under Section 6.12(c) hereof, the parties hereto hereby adopt this Agreement as a plan of reorganization within the meanings of Sections 1.368-2(g) and 1.368-3(a) of the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code.

SECTION 2.03 Elections.

(a) Each person who, on or prior to the Election Date referred to in paragraph (b) below, is a record holder of shares of Company Common Stock shall be entitled, with respect to all or any portion of such shares, to make an unconditional Stock Election on or prior to such Election Date, on the basis hereinafter set forth.

(b) Parent shall prepare a form of election, which form shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the Company (the Form of Election) and shall be mailed with the Joint Proxy Statement to the record holders of Company Common Stock as of the record date for the Company Stockholders Meeting), which Form of Election shall be used by each record holder of shares of Company Common Stock who wishes to elect to receive the stock consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(c)(1) for any or all shares of Company Common Stock held by such holder. The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to make the Form of Election and the Joint Proxy Statement available to all persons who become record holders of Company Common Stock during the period between such record date and the Election Date, including using reasonable efforts to mail a Form of Election to all such persons who become record holders prior to the seventh Business Day prior to the Election Date. Any such holder's election to receive the stock consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(c)(1) shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received at its designated office, by 5:00 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, on the Business Day immediately preceding the Closing Date (the Election Date), a Form of Election properly completed and signed and accompanied by Certificates for the shares of Company Common Stock to which such Form of Election relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of the Company (or accompanied by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such Certificates as set forth in such Form of Election from a firm which is a member of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, provided such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of such guarantee of delivery). Failure to deliver Certificates covered by any guarantee of delivery within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of such guarantee of delivery shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made Stock Election. Parent and the Company will announce the anticipated Closing Date at least three Business Days, but not more than ten Business Days, prior thereto. If the Closing is delayed to a subsequent date, the Election Date shall be similarly delayed and Parent will promptly announce such rescheduled Election Date and Closing.

(c) Any Form of Election may be revoked by the stockholder who submitted such Form of Election to the Exchange Agent only by written notice received by the Exchange Agent (i) prior to 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the Election Date or (ii) after such time, if (and only to the extent that) the Exchange Agent is legally required to permit revocations and only if the Effective Time shall not have occurred prior to such date. In addition, all Forms of Election shall automatically be revoked if the Exchange Agent is notified in writing by Parent and the Company that the Merger has been abandoned. If a Form of Election is revoked, the Certificate or Certificates (or guarantees of delivery, as appropriate) for the shares of Company Common Stock to which such Form of Election relates shall be promptly returned to the stockholder submitting the same to the Exchange Agent and any such shares shall be treated as Non-Electing Shares (unless and until another duly completed Form of Election (and the Certificate or Certificates, or guarantees of delivery, as applicable, to which such Form of Election relates) has been submitted to the Exchange Agent in accordance with this Agreement).

(d) The determination of the Exchange Agent in its sole discretion shall be binding as to whether or not elections to receive the stock consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(c)(1) have been properly made or revoked pursuant to this Section 2.03 with respect to shares of Company Common Stock and when elections and revocations were received by it. If no Form of Election is received with respect to shares of Company Common Stock, or if the Exchange Agent determines that any election to receive the stock consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(c)(1) was not properly made with respect to shares of Company Common Stock, such shares shall be treated by the Exchange Agent as Non-Electing Shares at the Effective Time, and such shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in accordance with Section 2.01(c)(1)(ii) (subject to Section 2.01(e)). The Exchange Agent shall also make all computations as to the proration contemplated by Section 2.01(e), and absent manifest error any such computation shall be conclusive and binding on the holders of shares of Company Common Stock. The Exchange Agent may, with the mutual agreement of Parent and the Company, make such rules as are consistent with this Section 2.03 for the implementation of the elections provided for herein as shall be necessary or desirable fully to effect such elections.

SECTION 2.04 Company Equity Awards.

(a) At the Effective Time, each Company Stock Option then outstanding under any Company Stock Plan, whether or not then exercisable, shall be assumed by Parent and converted into an option to purchase Parent Common Stock in accordance with this Section 2.04(a). Each Company Stock Option so converted shall continue to have, and be subject to, the same terms and conditions (acknowledging that the Company Stock Plans (other than the 1998 Independent Director Stock Option Plan) provide for accelerated vesting in connection with this Transaction) as set forth in the applicable Company Stock Plan and any agreements thereunder immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that, as of the Effective Time, (i) each unvested Company Stock Option under the 1998 Independent Director Stock Option Plan shall be fully vested and exercisable, (ii) each Company Stock Option shall be exercisable for that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of the number of shares of Company

Common Stock that were issuable upon exercise of such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (without regard to any adjustment provided in Section 2.01(e)), rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock, and (iii) the per share exercise price for the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such Company Stock Option so converted shall be equal to the quotient determined by dividing the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock at which such Company Stock Option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time by the Exchange Ratio, rounded up to the nearest whole cent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the conversion of any Company Stock Options which are incentive stock options, within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code, into options to purchase Parent Common Stock shall be made so as not to constitute a modification of such Company Stock Options within the meaning of Section 424 of the Code.

(b) At the Effective Time, each outstanding purchase right under the Company's Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the Employee Stock Purchase Plan) shall be assumed by Parent in such manner that Parent is a corporation issuing or assuming a stock option in a transaction to which Section 424(a) applies within the meaning of the Code, and shall be converted into a right to purchase Parent Common Stock in accordance with this Section 2.04(b). Each purchase right so assumed and converted by Parent under this Agreement will continue to have, and be subject to, the same terms and conditions set forth in the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan and the documents governing the outstanding purchase rights under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that the purchase price of shares of Parent Common Stock and the number of shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued upon the exercise of such purchase rights shall be adjusted in accordance with the Exchange Ratio.

(c) At the Effective Time, each RSU shall vest according to its terms and as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be issued to each holder of RSUs, in complete settlement thereof, a number of shares of Parent Common Stock (net of any applicable withholding) equal to the product of the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to RSUs credited to the holder's account immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (without regard to any adjustment provided in Section 2.01(e)), such product to be rounded to the nearest whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock.

(d) At the Effective Time, the forfeiture conditions on each Performance Award shall lapse according to its terms and, as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be issued to each holder of a Performance Award, in complete settlement thereof, a number of shares of Parent Common Stock (net of any applicable withholding) equal to the product of the number of shares of Company Common Stock issuable upon achievement of all performance goals set forth in the holder's Performance Award multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (without regard to any adjustment provided in Section 2.01(e)), such product to be rounded to the nearest whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock.

(e) The Company shall take all actions necessary to terminate the Company Supplemental Retention Plan as of the Effective Time. In connection with such termination, as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be issued to each participant in the Supplemental Retention Plan, in complete settlement of such participant's rights with respect to Supplemental Retention Units, a number of shares of Parent Common Stock (net of any applicable withholding) equal to the product of the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to Supplemental Retention Units credited to such participant's account immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (without regard to any adjustment provided in Section 2.01(e)), such product to be rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock.

(f) Parent shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Parent Common Stock for delivery upon exercise or settlement of the Company Equity Awards being assumed or settled in accordance with this Section 2.04. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor or other appropriate form) with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock subject to such Company Equity Awards and shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as the Company Stock Options being assumed in accordance with this Section 2.04 remain outstanding.

ARTICLE III.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as expressly set forth in that certain letter (with specific reference to the Section or Subsection of this Agreement to which the information stated in such disclosure relates and such other Sections or Subsections of this Agreement to the extent a matter is disclosed in such a way as to make its relevance to the information called for by such other Section or Subsection readily apparent), dated as of the date of this Agreement, from the Company to Parent and Merger Sub (the Company Disclosure Letter) or in any Company SEC Document filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement (the Filed Company SEC Documents), the Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub that:

The Company and each Company Subsidiary is duly qualified to do business in each jurisdiction where the nature of its business or the ownership or leasing of its properties make such qualification necessary or the failure to so qualify, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The Company has delivered or made available to Parent true and complete copies of the certificate of incorporation of the Company, as amended to the date of this Agreement (as so amended, the Company Charter), and the by-laws of the Company, as amended to the date of this Agreement (as so amended, the Company By-laws), and the comparable organizational documents of each Company Subsidiary, in each case as amended to the date of this Agreement. The Company is not in violation of any of the provision of the Company Charter or the Company By-laws as of the date hereof.

As of the date of this Agreement, there are not any outstanding contractual obligations of the Company or any Company Subsidiary to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of the Company or any Company Subsidiary.

(b) All outstanding Company Stock Options are evidenced by stock option award agreements. The Company has provided or made available to Parent the standard form of stock option award agreement, as well as those stock option award agreements that are materially different from the standard form of stock option award agreement.

SECTION 3.04 Authority; Execution and Delivery; Enforceability.

(a) The Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to the Company Stockholder Approval, to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement and the consummation by the Company of the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company, subject, in the case of the Merger, to receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval. The Company has duly executed and delivered this Agreement, and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, this Agreement constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except that enforcement hereof may be subject to or limited by (i) bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws, now or hereafter in effect, affecting its creditors' rights generally and (ii) the affect of general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(b) The Board of Directors of the Company (the Company Board), at a meeting duly called and held, duly and unanimously adopted resolutions (which resolutions have not been rescinded or modified) (i) approving this Agreement and approving the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (ii) determining that the terms of the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, (iii) directing that this Agreement be submitted to a vote at the Company Stockholders Meeting and (iv) recommending that the Company's stockholders adopt this Agreement. The Company has taken all appropriate actions so that the restrictions on business combinations contained in Section 203 of the DGCL will not apply with respect to or as a result of this Agreement, the Merger or any other Transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, without any further action on the part of the stockholders of the Company or the Company Board. No other state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation is applicable to or purports to be applicable to the Merger or any other Transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) The Company Rights Agreement has been amended so that (A) Parent, Merger Sub and any of their Affiliates or Associates (as such terms are defined in the Company Rights Agreement) are exempt from the definition of Acquiring Person contained in the Company Rights Agreement, and no Shares Acquisition Date or Distribution Date (as such terms are defined in the Company Rights Agreement) will occur as a result of the execution of this Agreement or any other Transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the consummation of the Merger and (B) the Company Rights Agreement will terminate and the Company Rights will expire immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Company Rights Agreement, as so amended, has not been further amended or modified.

(d) The only vote of holders of any class or series of the capital stock of the Company necessary to adopt this Agreement and approve the Merger is the approval of this Agreement by a majority of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock entitled to vote (the Company Stockholder Approval). The affirmative vote of the holders of Company Common Stock, or any of them, is not necessary to consummate any Transaction to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement other than the Merger.

SECTION 3.05 No Conflicts; Consents.

(a) The execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement do not, and the consummation by the Company of the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and compliance by the Company with the terms hereof will not, conflict with, or result in any violation of or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of consent, termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or to loss of a material benefit under, or to increased, additional, accelerated or guaranteed rights or entitlements of any person under, or result in the creation of any Lien upon any of the properties or assets of the Company or any Company Subsidiary under, any provision of (i) the Company Charter, the Company By-laws or the comparable organizational documents of any Company Subsidiary, (ii) any contract, management agreement, development agreement, consulting agreement, lease, license, indenture, note, bond, agreement, permit, concession, franchise or other instrument (a Contract) to which the Company or any Company Subsidiary is a party or by which any of their respective properties or assets is bound or (iii) subject to the filings and other matters referred to in Section 3.05(b), any judgment, order or decree (Judgment) or statute, law (including common law), ordinance, rule or regulation (Law) applicable to the Company or any Company Subsidiary or their respective properties or assets, other than, in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) above, any such items that, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) No consent, approval, license, order or authorization (Consent) of, or registration, declaration or filing with, or Permit from, any Federal, state, local or foreign government or any court of competent jurisdiction, administrative agency or commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality, domestic or foreign (a Governmental Entity), is required to be obtained or made by the Company or any Company Subsidiary in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement or the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by the Company in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, other than (i) compliance with and filings under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act) and any applicable antitrust or competition laws of foreign jurisdictions (Foreign Competition Laws), (ii) the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) of (A) the Joint Proxy Statement and

(a) The Company has filed all reports, schedules, forms, statements and other documents required to be filed by the Company with the SEC since January 1, 2001 pursuant to Sections 13(a) and 15(d) of the Exchange Act (the Company SEC Documents).

(b) As of its respective date, each Company SEC Document complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), as the case may be, and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder applicable to such Company SEC Document, and did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Except to the extent that information contained in any Filed Company SEC Document has been revised or superseded by a later filed Filed Company SEC Document, none of the Company SEC Documents contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The consolidated financial statements of the Company included in the Company SEC Documents comply as to form in all material respects with applicable accounting requirements and the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto, have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) (except, in the case of unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q of the SEC) applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be indicated in the notes thereto) and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial position of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries as of the dates thereof and the consolidated results of their operations and cash flows for the periods shown (subject, in the case of unaudited statements, to normal year-end audit adjustments). The books and records of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries have been, and are being, maintained in all material respects in accordance with GAAP and any other applicable legal and accounting requirements.

(c) Except as and to the extent disclosed or reserved against on the Company's most recent balance sheet (or in the notes thereto) included in the Filed Company SEC Documents, neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has any Liabilities of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) required by GAAP to be set forth on a consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries or in the notes thereto, except for Liabilities that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(d) None of the Company Subsidiaries is, or has at any time since January 1, 2001 been, subject to the reporting requirements of Sections 13(a) and 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

SECTION 3.07 Information Supplied. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by the Company for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed with the SEC by Parent in connection with the Share Issuance (the Form S-4) will, at the time the Form S-4 is filed with the SEC, at any time it is amended or supplemented or at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, or (ii) the Joint Proxy Statement will, at the date it is first mailed to the Company's stockholders or Parent's stockholders or at the time of the Company Stockholders Meeting or Parent Stockholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. The Joint Proxy Statement will comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, except that no representation is made by the Company with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information supplied by Parent or Merger Sub in writing for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement.

SECTION 3.08 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Since December 31, 2003, the Company has conducted its business in all material respects only in the ordinary course, and since such date there has not been:

(i) any event or development, condition or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect;

(ii) any change in accounting methods, principles or practices by the Company or any Company Subsidiary, except insofar as may have been required by a change in GAAP; or

SECTION 3.09 Taxes.

(a) Except with respect to any divestitures that may be undertaken pursuant to Section 6.03(a), none of the Company, the Company Subsidiaries or any Company affiliates has taken or agreed to take any action that would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Except with respect to any divestitures that may be undertaken pursuant to Section 6.03(a), to the Company's knowledge, there is no agreement, plan or other circumstance that would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

The Company and the Company Subsidiaries have paid all Taxes (other than such Taxes as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which adequate reserves have been taken) that have become due, whether or not shown on any Tax Return, subject to such exceptions as are unlikely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The unpaid Taxes of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries did not, as of the dates of the financial statements contained in the most recent Company SEC Documents, exceed the reserve for Tax Liability (excluding any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the balance sheets (rather than in any notes thereto) contained in such financial statements, subject to such exceptions as are unlikely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of the financial statements in the most recent Company SEC Documents, neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has incurred any Liability for Taxes outside the ordinary course of business or otherwise inconsistent with past custom and practice, subject to such exceptions as would not be reasonably expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(c) There are no audits or other administrative proceedings or court proceedings currently pending or in progress with regard to any material Taxes or material Tax Returns of the Company or any Company Subsidiary, and neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has received a written notice or announcement of any audits or other administrative proceedings or court proceedings, subject to exceptions for any audits or proceedings that, if resolved in a manner unfavorable to the Company or any Company Subsidiary, are unlikely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has granted any waivers or extensions of the time to assess any Taxes.

(d) There are no Tax Liens upon any property or assets of the Company or any Company Subsidiary except Liens for current Taxes not yet due and payable and Liens for Taxes that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings, subject to such exceptions as would not be reasonably expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(e) All Taxes required to be withheld, collected or deposited by or with respect to the Company and each Company Subsidiary have been timely withheld, collected or deposited as the case may be, and to the extent required by applicable Law, have been paid to the relevant Tax authority or other Governmental Entity, subject to such exceptions as are unlikely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary is responsible for the Taxes of any other person (other than the Company or a Company Subsidiary) under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Law), as a transferee or by Contract that would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary is a party to, is bound by or has any obligation under any Tax sharing, Tax allocation or Tax indemnity agreement or similar Contract or arrangement, subject to such exceptions as would not be reasonably expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(g) Neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has been a party to any distribution occurring during the two (2) years preceding the date of this Agreement in which the parties to such distribution treated the distribution as one to which Section 355 of the Code is applicable.

(h) Neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has entered into or participated in any listed transaction within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.6011-4(b)(2) or any confidential corporate tax shelter within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.6111-2.

SECTION 3.10 Absence of Changes in Benefit Plans. Except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, since December 31, 2003, neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has terminated, adopted, amended, modified or agreed to amend or modify (or announced an intention to amend or modify) any collective bargaining agreement or any bonus, pension, profit sharing, deferred compensation, incentive compensation, stock ownership, stock purchase, stock appreciation, restricted stock, stock option, phantom stock, performance, retirement, thrift, savings, stock bonus, cafeteria, paid time off, perquisite, fringe benefit, vacation, severance, disability, death benefit, hospitalization, medical or other welfare benefit or other plan, program, arrangement or understanding, whether oral or written, formal or informal, funded or unfunded (whether or not legally binding) maintained, contributed to or required to be maintained or contributed to by the Company or any Company Subsidiary or any other person or entity that, together with the Company or any Company Subsidiary, is treated as a single employer under Section 414(b), (c), (m) or (o) of the Code (each, a Company ERISA Affiliate), in each case providing benefits to any current or former employee, officer, director or independent contractor of the Company or any Company Subsidiary (each, a Company Participant) and whether or not subject to United States law (collectively, Company Benefit Plans) or has made any change in any actuarial or other assumption used to calculate funding obligations with respect to any Company Benefit Plan that is a Company Pension Plan, or any change in the manner in which contributions to any such Company Pension Plan are made or the basis on which such contributions are determined, other than changes made pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement to which the Company or any Company Subsidiary is a party.

(c) During the past six years neither the Company nor any Company ERISA Affiliate has maintained, contributed to or been obligated to maintain or contribute to, or has any actual or contingent Liability under, any Company Benefit Plan that is subject to Title IV of ERISA, other than any Company Pension Plan that is a multiemployer plan within the meaning of Section 4001(a)(3) of ERISA (a Company Multiemployer Pension Plan). SECTION 4.07 Information Supplied. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by Parent for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Form S-4 will, at the time the Form S-4 is filed with the SEC, at any time it is amended or supplemented or at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, or (ii) the Joint Proxy Statement will, at the date it is first mailed to Parent's stockholders or the Company's stockholders or at the time of Parent Stockholders Meeting or the Company Stockholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. Parent and the Parent Subsidiaries have paid all Taxes (other than such Taxes as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which adequate reserves have been taken) that have become due, whether or not shown on any Tax Return, subject to such exceptions as are unlikely to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of the financial statements in the most recent Parent SEC Documents, neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary has incurred any Liability for Taxes outside the ordinary course of business or otherwise inconsistent with past custom and practice, subject to such exceptions as would not be reasonably expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(c) There are no audits or other administrative proceedings or court proceedings currently pending or in progress with regard to any material Taxes or material Tax Returns of Parent or any Parent Subsidiary, and neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary has received a written notice or announcement of any audits or other administrative proceedings or court proceedings, subject to exceptions for any audits or proceedings that, if resolved in a manner unfavorable to Parent or any Parent Subsidiary, are unlikely to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary has granted any waivers or extensions of the time to assess any Taxes.

(d) There are no Tax Liens upon any property or assets of Parent or any Parent Subsidiary except Liens for current Taxes not yet due and payable and Liens for Taxes that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings, subject to such exceptions as would not be reasonably expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(e) All Taxes required to be withheld, collected or deposited by or with respect to Parent and each Parent Subsidiary have been timely withheld, collected or deposited as the case may be, and to the extent required by applicable Law, have been paid to the relevant Tax authority or other Governmental Entity, subject to such exceptions as are unlikely to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary is responsible for the Taxes of any other person (other than Parent or Parent Subsidiary) under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Law), as a transferee or by Contract that would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary is a party to, is bound by or has any obligation under any Tax sharing, Tax allocation or Tax indemnity agreement or similar Contract or arrangement, subject to such exceptions as would not be reasonably expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each Parent Benefit Plan (other than any Parent Multiemployer Pension Plan) intended to be qualified within the meaning of Section 401(a) of the Code has been the subject of a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service to the effect that such Parent Benefit Plan is qualified and exempt from Federal income taxes under Sections 401(a) and 501(a), respectively, of the Code, and no such determination letter has been revoked nor, to the knowledge of Parent, has revocation been threatened, nor has any such Parent Benefit Plan (other than any Parent Multiemployer Pension Plan) been amended since the date of its most recent determination letter or application therefor in any respect that would adversely affect its qualification or materially increase its costs or require security under Section 307 of ERISA.

(c) During the past six years neither Parent nor any Parent ERISA Affiliate has maintained, contributed to or been obligated to maintain or contribute to, or has any actual or contingent Liability under, any Parent Benefit Plan that is subject to Title IV of ERISA, other than any Parent Pension Plan that is a multiemployer plan within the meaning of Section 4001(a)(3) of ERISA (a Parent Multiemployer Pension Plan). There have been no non-exempt prohibited transactions (as such term is defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code) or any other breach of fiduciary responsibility with respect to any Parent Benefit Plan that is subject to ERISA (other than any Parent Multiemployer Pension Plan), and to the knowledge of Parent, with respect to any Parent Multiemployer Pension Plan, in each case, that could reasonably be expected to subject Parent, any Parent Subsidiary or any officer of Parent or any Parent Subsidiary or any of Parent Benefit Plans which are subject to ERISA, or, to the knowledge of Parent, any trusts created thereunder or any trustee or administrator thereof to the tax or penalty on prohibited transactions imposed by such Section 4975 or to any material Liability under Section 502(i) or 502(1) of ERISA or to any other material Liability for breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA or any other applicable Law. (e) No amount or other entitlement that could be received (whether in cash or property or the vesting of property) as a result of any of the transactions contemplated hereby (alone or in combination with any other event) by any Parent Participant who is an executive officer of Parent who currently has in effect a change of control agreement or has an employment agreement with change of control provisions under any Parent Benefit Plan or other compensation arrangement currently in effect would be characterized as an excess parachute payment (as such term is defined in Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code) and no such executive officer is entitled to receive any additional payment from Parent or any other person in the event that the excise tax required by Section 4999(a) of the Code is imposed on such executive officer.

(f) The execution and delivery by Parent of this Agreement do not, and the consummation of the Transactions and compliance with the terms hereof will not (either alone or in combination with any other event) (i) entitle any Parent Participant to any additional compensation, severance or other benefits, (ii) accelerate the time of payment or vesting or trigger any payment or funding (through a grantor trust or otherwise) of compensation or benefits under, increase the amount payable or trigger any other material obligation pursuant to, any Parent Benefit Plan or (iii) result in any breach or violation of, or a default (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) under, any Parent Benefit Plan.

(g) Neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary has received notice of any, and, to the knowledge of Parent, there are no (i) material pending termination proceedings or other suits, claims (except claims for benefits payable in the normal operation of Parent Benefit Plans), actions or proceedings against or involving or asserting any rights or claims to benefits under any Parent Benefit Plan or (ii) pending investigations (other than routine inquiries) by any Governmental Entity with respect to any Parent Benefit Plan. To the knowledge of Parent, all contributions, premiums and benefit payments under or in connection with Parent Benefit Plans that are required to have been made by Parent or any Parent Subsidiary have been timely made, accrued or reserved for in all material respects.

(h) Neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary has any material Liability or obligations, including under or on account of a Parent Benefit Plan, arising out of the hiring of persons to provide services to Parent or any Parent Subsidiary and treating such persons as consultants or independent contractors and not as employees of Parent or any Parent Subsidiary.

SECTION 4.12 Litigation. There is no suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of Parent, threatened against Parent or any Parent Subsidiary that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect, nor is there any Judgment outstanding against Parent or any Parent Subsidiary that has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 4.13 Compliance With Applicable Laws. Parent and Parent Subsidiaries and their relevant personnel and operations are in compliance with all applicable Laws, including applicable Gaming Laws and Laws relating to occupational health and safety, except to the extent that the failure to be in compliance with any such Law has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. advisable for them to own, lease or operate their properties and assets and to carry on their businesses as now conducted or proposed to be conducted, except for such Permits the absence of which has not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. There has occurred no violation of, suspension, reconsideration, imposition of penalties or fines, imposition of additional conditions or requirements, default (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) under, or event giving to others any right of termination, amendment or cancellation of, with or without notice or lapse of time or both, any such Permit, except for any such violation, default or event which has not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any Parent Subsidiary has suffered a suspension or revocation or imposition of penalties or fines with respect to any Permit held under the Gaming Laws, other than in the ordinary course. There is no event which, to the knowledge of Parent, would reasonably be expected to result in the revocation, cancellation, non-renewal or adverse modification of any such Permit, except for any such event that has not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4.13(a) does not relate to matters with respect to Taxes (which are the subject of Section 4.09), ERISA (which are the subject of Section 4.11), labor Laws (which are the subject of Section 4.16) or Environmental Laws (which are the subject of Section 4.18).

(d) In addition, each party shall, subject to applicable Law and except as prohibited by any applicable representative of any applicable Governmental Entity, (i) promptly notify the other party of any written communication to that party from the FTC, the Antitrust Division, any State Attorney General or any other Governmental Entity, including regulatory or gaming authorities, and, permit the other party to review in advance any proposed written communication to any of the foregoing; (ii) not agree to participate in any substantive meeting or discussion with any Governmental Entity in respect of any filings, investigation or inquiry concerning this Agreement or the Merger unless it consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate thereat; and (iii) furnish the other party with copies of all correspondence, filings, and written communications (and memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between them and its affiliates and their respective representatives on the one hand, and any Governmental Entity, including regulatory or gaming authority, or members or their respective staffs on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement and the Merger.

(a) Subject to the terms of any collective bargaining agreement currently in effect or which may be in effect in the future, Parent shall cause the Surviving Entity to maintain for a period of one year after the Effective Time the Company Benefit Plans as in effect on the date of this Agreement as set forth on the Company Disclosure Letter or to provide benefits (excluding benefits attributable to equity-based plans or grants) to each current employee of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries that are at least as favorable in the aggregate to such employees as those in effect on the date of this Agreement. With respect to benefits attributable to equity-based plans or grants, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Entity to, provide that each Company employee shall be eligible to receive grants in the same manner as similarly situated employees of Parent or any Parent Subsidiary.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Entity to honor in accordance with their respective terms (as in effect on the date of this Agreement), all the Company's employment, severance and termination agreements, plans and policies disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter.

(c) With respect to any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement maintained by Parent or any Parent Subsidiary (including any severance plan), for all purposes of determining eligibility to participate and vesting but not for purposes of benefit accrual, service with the Company or any Company Subsidiary shall be treated as service with Parent or any Parent Subsidiary; provided, however, that such service need not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in any duplication of benefits.

(d) Parent shall waive, or cause to be waived, any pre-existing condition limitation under any welfare benefit plan maintained by Parent or any of its affiliates (other than the Company) in which employees of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries (and their eligible dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time, except to the extent that such pre-existing condition limitation would have been applicable under the comparable Company welfare benefit plan immediately prior to the Effective Time. Parent shall recognize, or cause to be recognized, the dollar amount of all expenses incurred by each Company employee (and his or her eligible dependents) during the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs for purposes of satisfying such year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which they will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time.

(a) Parent shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, cause the Surviving Entity to honor all the Company's obligations to indemnify (including any obligations to advance funds for expenses) the current or former directors or officers of the Company for acts or omissions by such directors and officers occurring prior to the Effective Time to the extent that such obligations of the Company exist on the date of this Agreement, whether pursuant to the Company Charter, the Company By-laws, individual indemnity agreements or otherwise, and such obligations shall survive the Merger. The certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Entity shall contain, and Parent shall cause the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Entity to contain, provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification and exculpation of present and former directors and officers of the Company than are presently set forth in the Company Charter and Company By-laws.

(b) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that Parent may substitute therefor policies with reputable and financially sound carriers of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous) with respect to claims arising from or related to facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that Parent shall not be obligated to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 300% of the annual premiums paid as of the date hereof by the Company for such insurance (such 300% amount, the Maximum Premium); provided, further, if such insurance coverage cannot be obtained at all, or can only be obtained at an annual premium in excess of the Maximum Premium, Parent shall maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' insurance obtainable for an annual premium equal to the Maximum Premium, provided, further, if the Company in its sole discretion elects, by giving written notice to Parent at least 60 days prior to the Effective Time, then, in lieu of the foregoing insurance, effective as of the Effective Time, the Company shall purchase a directors' and officers' liability insurance tail or runoff insurance program for a period of six years after the Effective Time with respect to wrongful acts and/or omissions committed or allegedly committed at or prior to the Effective Time (such coverage shall have an aggregate coverage limit over the term of such policy in an amount not to exceed the annual aggregate coverage limit under the Company's existing directors and officers liability policy, and in all other respects shall be comparable to such existing coverage), provided that the premium for such tail or runoff coverage shall not exceed an amount equal to the Maximum Premium. The Company represents to Parent that the Maximum Premium is as set forth in Section 6.05 of the Company Disclosure Letter.

(c) In the event that Parent or the Surviving Entity or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and is not the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, Parent shall cause proper provisions to be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Entity, as the case may be, assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.05. The obligations of Parent and the Surviving Entity under this Section 6.05 shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect any indemnitee to whom this Section 6.05 applies without the express written consent of such affected indemnitee (it being expressly agreed that the indemnitees to whom this Section 6.05 applies shall be third party beneficiaries of this Section 6.05).

(a) Except as provided below, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger shall be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated, except that expenses incurred in connection with filing, printing and mailing the Joint Proxy Statement and the Form S-4 shall be shared equally by Parent and the Company.

(b) In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.01(e) or 8.01(f), then the Company shall pay to Parent, within two Business Days following written notice of such termination in the case of termination pursuant to Section 8.01(e) and concurrently with termination in the case of termination pursuant to Section 8.01(f), in each case, by wire transfer of same-day funds a fee of $180,000,000 (the Break-up Fee).

(c) If (i) after the date of this Agreement, any person publicly announces a Company Takeover Proposal which has not been expressly and bona fide publicly withdrawn, (ii) this Agreement is terminated by either the Company or Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(b)(iii) and at such time of termination Parent is not in breach in any material respect of any of its representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement, and (iii) within 12 months after the date of this Agreement the Company enters into a definitive agreement to consummate, or consummates, the transactions contemplated by a Company Takeover Proposal, then, if such Company Takeover Proposal is consummated, the Company shall pay to Parent by wire transfer of same-day funds the Break-up Fee on the date of consummation of such Company Takeover Proposal. Solely for the purposes of this Section 6.06(c), the term Company Takeover Proposal shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 9.3(a), except that all references to 20% shall be changed to 50% .

(d) The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in Sections 6.06(b) and 6.06(c) are an integral part of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company fails promptly to pay the Break-up Fee, and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit that results in a judgment against the Company for the Break-up Fee, the Company shall pay to Parent interest on the Break-up Fee from and including the date payment of the Break-up Fee was due to but excluding the date of actual payment at the prime rate of Bank of America, National Association in effect on the date such payment was required to be made. If applicable, the Break-Up Fee shall not be payable more than once pursuant to this Section 6.06.

SECTION 6.07 Public Announcements. Parent and Sub, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the Merger and the other Transactions and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable Law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange.

SECTION 6.08 Transfer Taxes. All stock transfer, real estate transfer, documentary, stamp, recording and other similar Taxes (including interest, penalties and additions to any such Taxes) (Transfer Taxes) incurred in connection with the Transactions shall be paid by either Merger Sub or the Surviving Entity (provided any such payments shall not be funded, directly or indirectly, by the Company or the Company Subsidiaries), and the Company shall cooperate with Merger Sub and Parent in preparing, executing and filing any Tax Returns with respect to such Transfer Taxes.

SECTION 6.09 Affiliates. Prior to Closing, the Company shall deliver to Parent a letter identifying all persons who, to the knowledge of the Company, were, at the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, affiliates of the Company for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to cause each such person to deliver to Parent on or prior to Closing a written agreement substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A.

SECTION 6.10 Section 16 Matters. Parent and the Company agree that, in order to most effectively compensate and retain Company Insiders in connection with the Merger, both prior to and after the Effective Time, it is desirable that Company Insiders not be subject to a risk of liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law in connection with the conversion of shares of Company Common Stock and Company Equity Awards into shares of Parent Common Stock and options to purchase Parent Common Stock in the Merger, and for that compensatory and retentive purpose agree to the provisions of this Section 6.10. Assuming that the Company delivers to Parent the Section 16 Information in a timely fashion, the Parent Board, or a committee of Non-Employee Directors (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act) thereof, shall adopt a resolution providing that the receipt by Company Insiders of Parent Common Stock in exchange for shares of Company Common Stock, RSUs, Performance Awards and Supplemental Retention Units, options to purchase Parent Common Stock upon conversion of Company Stock Options and rights to purchase Parent Common Stock upon conversion of purchase rights under the Company Employee Stock Purchase Plan, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and to the extent such securities are listed in the Section 16 Information, are intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b) under the Exchange Act. In addition, the Company Board, or a committee of Non-Employee Directors (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act) thereof, shall adopt a resolution providing that the disposition by Company Insiders of Company Common Stock, RSUs, Performance Awards and Supplemental Retention Units, other than Company Stock Options, in exchange for shares of Parent Common Stock, Company Stock Options in exchange for options to purchase Parent Common Stock and purchase rights under the Company Employee Stock Purchase Plan in exchange for rights to purchase Parent Common Stock, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, are intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b) under the Exchange Act. Section 16 Information shall mean information accurate in all material respects regarding Company Insiders, the number of shares of Company Common Stock held by each such Company Insider and expected to be exchanged for Parent Common Stock in the Merger, the number and description of the Company Stock Options held by each such Company Insider and expected to be converted into options to purchase Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger. Company Insiders shall mean those officers and directors of Company who are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and who are listed in the Section 16 Information. Such actions described in this Section 6.10 shall be taken in accordance with the interpretative letter, dated January 12, 1999, issued by the SEC to Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP.

SECTION 6.11 Stock Exchange Listing. Parent shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

SECTION 6.12 Tax Matters.

(a) Parent and the Company shall use their commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cause their respective subsidiaries to use their commercially reasonable efforts, to take or cause to be taken any action necessary for the Merger (or, if applicable, a merger pursuant to Section 6.12(d) hereof) to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or alternatively, if applicable, to take or cause to be taken any action necessary for the Alternative Transaction described in Section 6.12(c) hereof to qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code. The parties hereto shall cooperate and use their commercially reasonable efforts in order for Parent to obtain the opinion of Latham & Watkins LLP described in Section 7.02(d) and for the Company to obtain the opinion of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP described in Section 7.03(d). Except with respect to any divestitures that may be undertaken pursuant to Section 6.03(a), neither Parent nor the Company shall, nor shall they permit any of their respective Subsidiaries to, take or cause to be taken any action that would disqualify the Merger (or, if applicable, a merger pursuant to Section 6.12(d) hereof) as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or alternatively, if applicable, take or cause to be taken any action that would disqualify the Alternative Transaction described in Section 6.12(c) hereof as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code.

(b) This Agreement is intended to constitute, and the parties hereto hereby adopt this Agreement as, a plan of reorganization within the meaning Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-2(g) and 1.368-3(a). Each of Parent and the Company shall report the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368 of the Code, unless otherwise required pursuant to a determination within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code.

(c) In the event that either of Latham & Watkins LLP, counsel to Parent, or Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, counsel to the Company, acting in good faith, is unable to render its opinion pursuant to Section 7.02(d) or Section 7.03(d), respectively, because the total fair market value of the Parent Common Stock received by the Company Stockholders in exchange for their Company Common Stock is less than 45% of the aggregate fair market value of the Parent Common Stock and cash received in the Merger or for other reasons, then at the option of either Parent or the Company, each acting reasonably, the structure of the Merger shall be revised to provide for (i) the formation by Parent and the Company of a new corporation (Newco), (ii) the formation by Newco of two (2) wholly-owned corporations (Newco Subs) and (iii) the merger of one Newco Sub with and into Parent with Parent being the surviving entity and the merger of the other Newco Sub with and into the Company with the Company being the surviving entity, in a series of transactions that qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code (such transactions, collectively, the Alternative Transaction).

(d) In the event that at the Effective Time, the total fair market value of the Parent Common Stock that would be received by the Company Stockholders in exchange for their Company Common Stock is greater than or equal to 80% of the aggregate fair market value of the Company Common Stock outstanding immediately before the Effective Time, then at the option of either Parent or the Company, each acting reasonably, the structure of the Merger shall be revised to provide for the merger of a first-tier newly formed corporate Subsidiary of Parent with and into the Company with the Company being the surviving entity in a transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in subsections (c) and (d) of this Section 6.12, no revision to the structure of the Merger shall (i) result in any change in the Merger Consideration, (ii) be materially adverse to the interests of Parent, the Company, Merger Sub, the holders of shares of Parent Common Stock or the holders of shares of Company Common Stock or (iii) unreasonably impede or delay consummation of the Merger. If the structure of the Merger is so revised, this Agreement and Exhibits B and C shall be amended by the parties as appropriate to give effect to the revised structure of the Merger with each party executing a written amendment to this Agreement and Exhibits B and C as necessary to reflect the foregoing. The parties agree to amend this Agreement to the extent necessary to provide for more specific mechanics of the alternative structures described in this Section 6.12.

(a) The Company shall give Parent the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against the Company and its directors relating to the Merger or any other Transaction; provided, however, that no such settlement shall be agreed to without Parent's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(b) Parent shall give the Company the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Parent and its directors relating to the Merger or any other Transaction; provided, however, that no such settlement shall be agreed to without the Company's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

SECTION 6.14 Parent Board. At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent Board shall take all action necessary so that, effective immediately following the Effective Time, William Barron Hilton and Stephen F. Bollenbach shall be appointed to Parent Board, with William Barron Hilton being placed in Class I (with a term expiring in 2006) and Stephen F. Bollenbach being placed in Class II (with a term expiring in 2007). In addition, as soon as practicable after the date hereof (but in any event prior to the Closing Date), the Nominating/ Corporate Governance Committee of the Parent Board shall consider recommending an additional Company director for appointment to the Parent Board. Parent Board shall also consider the nomination of one further additional Company director to the Parent Board.

SECTION 6.15 Company Rights Agreement. Except for any such actions permitted to be taken by this Agreement, including Section 5.02, the Company covenants and agrees that it will not (a) redeem the Company Rights, (b) amend the Company Rights Agreement or (c) take any action which would allow any Person (as defined in the Company Rights Agreement) other than Parent, Merger Sub or any Parent Subsidiary to become a Beneficial Owner (for purposes of this Section 6.15, as defined in the Company Rights Agreement) of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock without causing a Shares Acquisition Date, or a Distribution Date (as each such term is defined in the Company Rights Agreement) to occur. The Company Board shall not make a determination that Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective Affiliates or Associates (as such terms are defined in the Company Rights Agreement) is an Acquiring Person for purposes of the Company Rights Agreement. The Company shall not adopt stockholder rights plan or poison pill.

SECTION 6.16 Title Insurance and Surveys. Not later than 30 days after the date hereof, (A) the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to Parent (i) all existing surveys for the Company Owned Properties (other than a licensed property) and each Company Leased Property ground leased by the Company or any Company Subsidiary, in each case to the extent available and in the Company's or any Company Subsidiary's possession and (ii) all existing title policies for the Company Owned Properties and each Company Leased Property ground leased by the Company or any Company Subsidiary, together with copies of the underlying documents referenced in each such title policy, in each case to the extent available and in the Company's or any Company Subsidiary's possession and (B) Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to the Company (i) all existing surveys for the Parent Owned Properties (other than a licensed property) and each Parent Leased Property ground leased by the Parent or any Parent Subsidiary, in each case to the extent available and in Parent's or any Parent Subsidiary's possession and (ii) all existing title policies for the Parent Owned Properties and each Parent Leased Property ground leased by the Parent or any Parent Subsidiary, together with copies of the underlying documents referenced in each such title policy, in each case to the extent available and in Parent's or any Parent Subsidiary's possession. In addition, the Company shall reasonably cooperate with Parent to obtain any new survey or new title policy relating to the Company Owned Properties and any Company Leased Property ground leased by the Company that Parent reasonably determines advisable to obtain, provided that the costs of such surveys and title policies shall be borne solely by Parent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the obligation of the parties under this Section 6.16 shall be deemed not to be a condition to Closing under Article VII hereof.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

(f) No Litigation. There shall not be pending any suit, action or proceeding by any Governmental Entity in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger or any other Transaction or that would otherwise cause a Parent Material Adverse Effect (after giving effect to the Merger); provided that, if the court of competent jurisdiction dismisses or renders a final decision denying a Governmental Entity's request for an injunction in such suit, action or proceeding, then four Business Days following such dismissal or decision, this condition to closing shall, with respect to such suit, action or proceeding, thereafter be deemed satisfied whether or not such Governmental Entity appeals the decision of such court or files an administrative complaint before the Federal Trade Commission.

SECTION 7.02 Conditions to Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. The obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to effect the Merger are further subject to the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect set forth therein, except as set forth in Section 3.08(i)) at and as of the Effective Time as if made at and as of such time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect set forth therein, except as set forth in Section 3.08(i)) would not, individually or in the aggregate, result in a Company Material Adverse Effect. Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by an executive officer of the Company to such effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Company. The Company shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by an executive officer of the Company to such effect.

(c) Absence of Company Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have been any state of facts, event, change, effect, development, condition or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(d) Tax Opinion. Parent shall have received the opinion of Latham & Watkins LLP dated the date of the Effective Time, to the effect that, for federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or alternatively, if applicable, the Alternative Transaction will qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code. In rendering such opinion, Latham & Watkins LLP shall receive and rely upon representations contained in letters of Parent and the Company to be delivered as of the Effective Time substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B and Exhibit C, respectively (as may be amended pursuant to Section 6.12(e)). The condition set forth in this Section 7.02(d) shall not be waivable after receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval or the Parent Stockholder Approval referred to in Section 7.01(a), unless further stockholder approval is obtained with appropriate disclosure.

SECTION 7.03 Conditions to Obligation of the Company. The obligation of the Company to effect the Merger is further subject to the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Parent Material Adverse Effect set forth therein except as set forth in Section 4.08(i)) at and as of the Effective Time as if made at and as of such time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Parent Material Adverse Effect set forth therein except as set forth in Section 4.08(i)) would not, individually or in the aggregate, result in a Parent Material Adverse Effect. The Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by an executive officer of Parent to such effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent and Sub. Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and the Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by an executive officer of Parent to such effect.

(c) Absence of Parent Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in the Parent Disclosure Letter, since the date of this Agreement there shall not have been any state of facts, event, change, effect, development, condition or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(d) Tax Opinion. The Company shall have received the opinion of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP dated the date of the Effective Time, to the effect that, for federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or alternatively, if applicable, the Alternative Transaction will qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code. In rendering such opinion, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP shall receive and rely upon representations contained in letters of Parent and the Company to be delivered as of the Effective Time substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B and Exhibit C, respectively (as may be amended pursuant to Section 6.12(e)). The condition set forth in this Section 7.03(d) shall not be waivable after receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval or the Parent Stockholder Approval referred to in Section 7.01(a), unless further stockholder approval is obtained with appropriate disclosure.

SECTION 7.04 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.01, 7.02 or 7.03, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to use all reasonable efforts to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions to be performed or consummated by such party in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as required by and subject to Section 6.03.

ARTICLE VIII.

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after receipt of the Parent Stockholder Approval or the Company Stockholder Approval:

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by written notice of either Parent or the Company:

(i) if the Merger is not consummated on or before July 14, 2005; provided, however, that such date may be extended by either party (by written notice thereof to the other party) up to and including October 14, 2005 in the event all conditions to effect the Merger other than one or more conditions set forth in Sections 7.01(d) and 7.01(e) have been or are capable of being satisfied at the time of each such extension (the latest applicable dates shall be referred to herein as the Outside Date); provided further that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.01(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement, including without limitation Sections 6.01(d) and 6.03 hereof, has been the cause of, or results in, the failure of the Merger to occur on or before such date;

(ii) if any Governmental Entity issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

(iii) if, upon a vote at a duly held meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof) to obtain the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company Stockholder Approval is not obtained; or

(iv) if, upon a vote at a duly held meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof) to obtain Parent Stockholder Approval, Parent Stockholder Approval is not obtained;

(c) by written notice of Parent, if the Company breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.02(a) or 7.02(b), and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 60 days after the giving of written notice to the Company of such breach;

(d) by written notice of the Company, if Parent or Merger Sub breaches or fails to perform in any material respect of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.03(a) or 7.03(b), and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 60 days after the giving of written notice to Parent of such breach;

(e) by written notice of Parent, if (i) the Company Board shall have withdrawn or adversely modified, or shall have resolved to withdraw or adversely modify, the Company Recommendation; or (ii) the Company Board shall have approved or recommended, or shall have resolved to approve or recommend, to the stockholders of the Company, a Company Takeover Proposal (other than the Merger); and

(f) by the Company, if, prior to receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company (i) receives an unsolicited Superior Company Proposal, (ii) resolves to accept such Superior Company Proposal, (iii) shall have given Parent three Business Days prior written notice of its intention to terminate pursuant to this provision, and (iv) such proposal continues to constitute a Superior Company Proposal taking into account any revised proposal made by Parent during such three Business Day period; provided, however, that such termination shall not be effective until such time as payment of the Break-Up Fee required by Section 6.06(b) shall have been made by the Company; provided, further, that the Company's right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.01(f) shall not be available if the Company is then in breach of Section 5.02.

SECTION 8.02 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either the Company or Parent as provided in Section 8.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any Liability or obligation on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company, other than the last sentence of Section 6.02, Section 6.06, this Section 8.02 and Article IX, which provisions shall survive such termination, and except to the extent that such termination results from the willful and material breach by a party of any representation, warranty or covenant set forth in this Agreement.

SECTION 8.03 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval or Parent Stockholder Approval; provided, however, that (i) after receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval or Parent Stockholder Approval, there shall be made no amendment that by law (or, in the case of Parent Stockholder Approval, by the regulations established by the New York Stock Exchange) requires further approval by the stockholders of the Company or Parent without the further approval of such stockholders, (ii) no amendment shall be made to this Agreement after the Effective Time and (iii) except as provided above no amendment of this Agreement by the Company shall require the approval of the stockholders of the Company. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

SECTION 8.04 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or (c) subject to the proviso in Section 8.03, waive compliance by the other parties with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement. Subject to the proviso in Section 8.03, no extension or waiver by the Company shall require the approval of the stockholders of the Company. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

SECTION 8.05 Procedure for Termination, Amendment, Extension or Waiver. A termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01, an amendment of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.03 or an extension or waiver pursuant to Section 8.04 shall, in order to be effective, require in the case of Merger Sub or the Company, action by its Board of Directors or, to the extent permitted by Law, the duly authorized designee of its Board of Directors. Termination of this Agreement prior to the Effective Time shall not require the approval of the stockholders of the Company.

ARTICLE IX.

Board of Directors

Las Vegas, NV 89119

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. ("Deutsche Bank") has acted as financial advisor to Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. ("Harrah's") in connection with the proposed merger of Harrah's and Caesars Entertainment, Inc. (the "Company") pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 14, 2004 by and among Harrah's, Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Harrah's ("Sub"), and the Company (the "Merger Agreement"), which provides, among other things, for the merger of the Company with and into Sub (the "Transaction"), as a result of which the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Harrah's. As set forth more fully in the Merger Agreement, as a result of the Transaction, each share of the Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company ("Company Common Stock") (other than shares held directly or indirectly by Harrah's or the Company and shares as to which dissenters' rights have been perfected) will be converted into the right to receive, at the option of the holder (subject to certain pro-ration procedures), (i) 0.3247 shares of Harrah's Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Stock Election Consideration"), or (ii) $17.75 per share in cash (the "Cash Election Consideration" and, together with the Stock Election Consideration, the "Merger Consideration"). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have requested Deutsche Bank's opinion, as investment bankers, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Harrah's of the Merger Consideration.

In connection with Deutsche Bank's role as financial advisor to Harrah's, and in arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank has reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information concerning the Company and Harrah's and certain internal analyses and other information furnished to it by the Company and Harrah's. Deutsche Bank has also held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and Harrah's regarding the businesses and prospects of their respective companies and the joint prospects of a combined company. In addition, Deutsche Bank has (i) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for Company Common Stock and Harrah's Common Stock, (ii) compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and Harrah's with similar information for certain other companies whose securities are publicly traded, (iii) reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which it deemed comparable in whole or in part, (iv) reviewed the terms of the Merger Agreement and certain related documents, and (v) performed such other studies and analyses and considered such other factors as it deemed appropriate.

Deutsche Bank has not assumed responsibility for independent verification of, and has not independently verified, any information, whether publicly available or furnished to it, concerning the Company or Harrah's, including, without limitation, any financial information, forecasts or projections considered in connection with the rendering of its opinion. Accordingly, for purposes of its opinion, Deutsche Bank has assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and Deutsche Bank has not conducted a physical inspection of any of the properties or assets, and has not prepared or obtained any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities, of the Company or Harrah's. With respect to the financial forecasts and projections, including the analyses and forecasts of certain cost savings, operating efficiencies, revenue effects and other synergies expected by management of Harrah's to be achieved as a result of the Transaction (collectively, the Synergies), made available to Deutsche Bank and used in its analyses, Deutsche Bank has assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company or Harrah's, as the case may be, as to the matters covered thereby. In rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank expresses no view as to the reasonableness of such forecasts and projections, including the Synergies, or the assumptions on which they are based. Deutsche Bank's opinion is necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date hereof.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank has assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis, the representations and warranties of Harrah's, Sub and the Company contained in the Merger Agreement are true and correct, Harrah's, Sub and the Company will each perform all of the covenants and agreements to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and all conditions to the obligations of each of Harrah's, Sub and the Company to consummate the Transaction will be satisfied without any waiver thereof. Deutsche Bank has also assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required in connection with the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained and that in connection with obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents, or any amendments, modifications or waivers to any agreements, instruments or orders to which either Harrah's or the Company (or any of their respective affiliates) is a party or is subject or by which it is bound, no limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would have a material adverse effect on Harrah's or the Company or materially reduce the contemplated benefits of the Transaction to Harrah's. In addition, you have informed Deutsche Bank, and accordingly for purposes of rendering its opinion Deutsche Bank has assumed, that the Transaction will be a tax-free reorganization to Harrah's.

This opinion is addressed to, and for the use and benefit of, the Board of Directors of Harrah's for the purpose of evaluating the Transaction and is not a recommendation to the stockholders of Harrah's to approve the issuance of shares of Harrah's Common Stock in the Transaction. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Harrah's of the Merger Consideration, and Deutsche Bank expresses no opinion as to the merits of the underlying decision by Harrah's to engage in the Transaction. This opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which shares of Harrah's Common Stock will trade after the announcement or consummation of the Transaction.

Deutsche Bank will be paid a fee for its services as financial advisor to Harrah's in connection with the Transaction, the majority of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. We are an affiliate of Deutsche Bank AG (together with its affiliates, the DB Group). One or more members of the DB Group have, from time to time, provided investment banking, commercial banking (including extension of credit) and other financial services to Harrah's and the Company or their affiliates for which it has received compensation, including (1) the Harrah's June 2004 $750 million 5.50% senior notes offering for which a member of the DB Group acted as co-manager, (2) the Harrah's June 2004 $2.5 billion revolving credit agreement with respect to which a member of the DB Group was a managing agent, (3) the Company's March 2004 $2.0 billion credit agreement, for which a member of the DB Group acted as joint-lead arranger and joint book-running manager, (4) the Company's March 2004 $375 million floating rate contingent convertible senior notes offering for which a member of the DB Group acted as joint book-running manager, and (5) other securities offerings by Harrah's and the Company with respect to which a member of the DB Group participated in a managing role. One or more members of the DB Group have agreed to provide financing to Harrah's in connection with the Transaction some of which funds are expected to be used to pay off existing loans made by members of the DB Group to the Company and to Harrah's. In the ordinary course of business, members of the DB Group may actively trade in the securities and other instruments and obligations of Harrah's and the Company for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers. Accordingly, the DB Group may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities, instruments and obligations.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is Deutsche Bank's opinion as investment bankers that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to Harrah's.

Very truly yours,

July 14, 2004

Board of Directors

3930 Howard Hughes Parkway
Las Vegas, Nevada 89109

Members of the Board:

We understand that Caesars Entertainment, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Caesars" or the "Company"), is considering a transaction (the "Transaction") whereby Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), will acquire the Company. Pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, to be dated as of July 14, 2004 (the "Merger Agreement"), among the Company, Parent and a Delaware corporation ("Merger Sub") which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, among other things, (i) the Company will merge with and into Merger Sub (the "Merger") and (ii) in connection with the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Company Common Stock"), of the Company (other than Dissenter Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and shares, if any, owned by the Company, Merger Sub or Parent) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof and subject to certain proration provisions contained in the Merger Agreement, either (A) $17.75 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration") or (B) 0.3247 shares of common stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Parent Common Stock"), of Parent (the "Stock Consideration"), including the associated special stock purchase rights issued pursuant to the Rights Agreement, dated as of October 6, 1996, between Parent and the Bank of New York, as Rights Agent. The Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration, together with any cash payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock, are referred to herein as the "Merger Consideration" . The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders of Company Common Stock of the aggregate Merger Consideration to be received by such holders in the Merger.

UBS Securities LLC ("UBS") has acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company and the Company in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for its services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction and a portion of which is payable in connection with this opinion. In the past, UBS and its predecessors may have provided investment banking services to the Company, Parent and their respective affiliates and received customary compensation for the rendering of such services. In the ordinary course of business, UBS, its successors and affiliates may trade or have traded securities of the Company, Parent and their respective affiliates for their own accounts and the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to the Company or the Company's underlying business decision to effect the Transaction or constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Transaction or as to such stockholder's election regarding the form of the Merger Consideration. In addition, we have not specifically analyzed the impact on any individual stockholder of the Company as to such stockholder's election regarding the form of Merger Consideration to be received pursuant to the Merger Agreement. At your direction, we have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to the material terms of the Merger Agreement or the form of the Transaction, except as expressly set forth herein. We express no opinion as to what the value of Parent Common Stock will be when issued pursuant to the Merger or the prices at which it will trade in the future. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that the final executed form of the Merger Agreement does not differ in any material respect from the draft, dated July 14, 2004, that we have examined, and that Parent, Merger Sub and the Company will comply with all the material terms of the Merger Agreement. In connection with our engagement by the Company, we have not been authorized to and have not solicited indications of interest in a business combination with the Company from any party.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed certain publicly available business and historical financial information relating to the Company and Parent, (ii) reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of the Company, including estimates and financial forecasts prepared by management of the Company, that were provided to us by the Company and not publicly available, (iii) reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of Parent, including estimates and financial forecasts prepared by Parent and not publicly available, (iv) conducted discussions with members of the senior management of the Company and Parent concerning the business and financial prospects of the Company and Parent, (v) reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data with respect to certain other companies in lines of business we believe to be generally comparable to those of Parent and the Company, (vi) compared the financial terms of the Transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions which we believe to be generally relevant, (vii) considered certain pro forma effects of the Transaction on Parent's financial statements and reviewed certain estimates of synergies prepared by the managements of Parent and the Company, (viii) reviewed drafts of the Merger Agreement, and (ix) conducted such other financial studies, analyses, and investigations, and considered such other information as we deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with our review, with your consent, we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification for any of the information reviewed by us for the purpose of this opinion and have, with your consent, relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, at your direction, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or Parent, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts, estimates, pro forma effects and calculations of synergies referred to above, we have assumed, at your direction, that they have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of each company as to the future performance of their respective companies. In addition, we have assumed with your approval that the future financial results referred to above will be achieved at the times and in the amounts projected by management. We have also assumed, with your consent, that the Transaction will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any material adverse effect on the Company and/ or Parent and the Transaction. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the aggregate Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Company Common Stock in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

SECTION 262. Appraisal Rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the DGCL empowers each of Harrah's and Harrah's Operating Company to indemnify, subject to the standards set forth therein, any person who is a party in any action in connection with any action, suit or proceeding brought or threatened by reason of the fact that the person was a director, officer, employee or agent of such company, or is or was serving as such with respect to another entity at the request of such company. The DGCL also provides that Harrah's and Harrah's Operating Company may purchase insurance on behalf of any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents.

Article Tenth of the Certificate of Incorporation of Harrah's provides for indemnification of the officers and directors of Harrah's to the full extent permitted by the DGCL.

Harrah's has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors, executive officers and certain other officers. Generally, the indemnification agreements provide that Harrah's will indemnify such persons against any and all expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect to such expenses, judgments, fines, penalties or amounts paid in settlement) of any Claim by reason of (or arising in part out of) an Indemnifiable Event.

Claim is defined as any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding or any inquiry or investigation, whether conducted by Harrah's or any other party, that the indemnitee in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any such action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other. Indemnifiable Event is defined as any event or occurrence related to the fact that indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee, trustee, agent or fiduciary of Harrah's, or is or was serving at the request of Harrah's or a director, officer, employee, trustee, agent or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of anything done or not done by indemnitee in any such capacity. The obligations of Harrah's shall be subject to the condition that the reviewing party (as defined) shall not have determined (in a written opinion, in any case in which special, independent counsel is involved) that indemnitee would not be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law. The obligation of Harrah's to make an expense advance shall be subject to the condition that, if, when and to the extent that the reviewing party determines that indemnitee would not be permitted to be so indemnified under applicable law, Harrah's shall be entitled to be reimbursed by indemnitee (who has agreed to reimburse Harrah's, for any amounts theretofore paid; provided, that if indemnitee has commenced legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to secure a determination that indemnitee should be indemnified under applicable law, any determination made by the reviewing party that indemnitee would not be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law shall not be binding and indemnitee shall not be required to reimburse Harrah's for any expense advance until a final judicial determination is made with respect thereto as to which all rights of appeal therefrom have been exhausted or lapsed).

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL enables a Delaware corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation for the elimination or limitation of the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. However, no provision can eliminate or limit a director's liability:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

under Section 174 of the DGCL, which imposes liability on directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchase or redemption; or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Table of Contents

Article Thirteenth of the Harrah's certificate of incorporation eliminates the liability of a director of Harrah's to Harrah's or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the full extent permitted by the DGCL.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules

(a) See Exhibit Index.

Item 22. Undertakings

(1) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the Act), and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(4) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report, to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X is not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(4) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions hereof, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(5) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

(6) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.
