Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the special meeting of stockholders of Metris Companies Inc., to be held on Wednesday, November 30, 2005, at 9:00 a.m. (CST), at the offices of Dorsey & Whitney LLP, 50 South Sixth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402. At the special meeting you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 4, 2005, pursuant to which a subsidiary of HSBC Finance Corporation will be merged with and into Metris, with Metris surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance.

If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed on or before December 9, 2005, each outstanding share of Metris common stock will be converted into the right to receive $15.00 in cash, and all of the shares of Metris Series C Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive in the aggregate $682,561,140 in cash. If the merger is completed after December 9, 2005, the per share consideration to be received by Metris common stockholders in the merger will decrease based on the amount of pay-in-kind dividends that accumulate on the Series C preferred stock from December 10, 2005 to the closing date of the merger, and the aggregate consideration payable to the holders of the Series C preferred stock will increase. The cash you receive in the merger in exchange for your shares of Metris stock will be subject to United States federal income tax and also may be taxed under applicable state, local and foreign tax laws.

The Metris board of directors has determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Metris and its stockholders, has approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock, voting together as a single class. Each share of Metris common stock is entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the special meeting. Each share of Series C preferred stock is entitled to the number of votes to which the holder thereof would be entitled if that share was converted into common stock on the record date.

All holders of Series C preferred stock have executed a stockholder agreement to vote their Metris capital stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and against any other acquisition proposal and have provided HSBC Finance with an irrevocable proxy to vote their stock. These stockholders own approximately 43.5% of the voting power of the capital stock of Metris entitled to vote at the special meeting. The accompanying Notice of Special Meeting and Proxy Statement provides you with detailed information about the special meeting and the proposed merger. Please give this material your careful attention and consideration.

Your vote is important regardless of the number of shares of Metris stock you own. A failure to vote will count as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement. Accordingly, you are requested promptly to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the envelope provided, whether or not you plan to attend. You may also vote your shares by using a toll-free number or via the Internet. Your proxy card contains instructions for using these convenient services.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

David D. Wesselink

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

All stockholders are cordially invited to attend the special meeting in person. However, to assure your representation at the special meeting in case you cannot attend, you are urged to mark, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card as promptly as possible in the postage prepaid envelope enclosed for that purpose. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

1. Why did you send me this proxy statement?

The Metris board of directors seeks your proxy for use at a special meeting at which Metris stockholders will vote upon a proposal to adopt an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 4, 2005, pursuant to which HSBC Corporation I, a newly formed Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance Corporation, will be merged with and into Metris. Metris will be the surviving entity in the merger and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance.

2. When and where will the special meeting be held?

The special meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 30, 2005 at 9:00 a.m. (CST), at the offices of Dorsey & Whitney LLP, 50 South Sixth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402.

3. What will I receive for my Metris common stock in the merger?

If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is subsequently completed on or before December 9, 2005, each outstanding share of Metris common stock will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive $15.00 in cash, and all of the shares of Metris Series C Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive in the aggregate $682,561,140 in cash.

If the merger is completed after December 9, 2005, the per share consideration to be received by the common stockholders in the merger will decrease based on the amount of pay-in-kind dividends that accumulate on the Series C preferred stock, in accordance with its terms, from December 10, 2005 to the closing date of the merger.

For illustrative purposes only, if the closing was on March 31, 2006 (the date after which either party may terminate the merger agreement if the merger is not yet closed), the common stockholders would receive approximately $14.82 per share, and the Series C preferred stockholders would receive in the aggregate $693,455,779. Regardless of when the merger occurs, holders of the Series C preferred stock will receive an amount equal to 101% of the aggregate merger consideration that they would have received had they converted all of their Series C preferred stock into common stock immediately prior to the merger, which is the same amount Metris would pay to redeem the Series C preferred stock pursuant to the change in control provisions of the Series C preferred stock terms.

4. What vote is required for Metris stockholders to adopt the merger agreement?

In order for the merger agreement to be adopted, holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock outstanding at the close of business on November 4, 2005, the record date for the special meeting, voting together as a single class, must vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement. Each share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote. Each share of Series C preferred stock entitles its holder to cast the same number of votes as that holder would have been able to cast if the share of Series C preferred stock was converted into common stock on the record date. At the close of business on the record date, 58,492,676 shares of Metris common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote and 1,476,680 shares of Series C preferred stock, representing 45,053,541 shares of Metris common stock on an as converted basis, were outstanding and entitled to vote.

All of the holders of the Series C preferred stock have executed a stockholder agreement to vote their Metris capital stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and against any other acquisition proposal and have provided HSBC Finance with an irrevocable proxy to vote their stock. These stockholders own approximately 43.5% of the voting power of the capital stock of Metris entitled to vote at the special meeting. A copy of the stockholder agreement is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement.

5. What do I need to do now?

After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement, please vote your shares as soon as possible by telephone or by the Internet, as described in the instructions on the enclosed proxy card, or by signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card.

6. What happens if I do not vote?

If you fail to vote, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting. In addition, the failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST adoption of the merger agreement. Proxies returned to Metris but not marked to indicate your voting preference will be counted as votes FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

7. If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

Your broker can vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should instruct your broker on how to vote your shares using the instructions provided by your broker. If you do not instruct your broker to vote your shares, it has the same effect as a vote AGAINST adoption of the merger agreement.

8. Can I change my vote after I have mailed my proxy card or voted by telephone or Internet?

Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You may revoke your proxy by notifying the Secretary of Metris in writing or by submitting a new proxy dated after the date of the proxy being revoked or by submitting a new proxy by telephone or by the Internet. In addition, your proxy will be revoked by you if you attend the special meeting and vote in person. However, simply attending the special meeting without voting will not revoke a proxy you submitted prior to the special meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the instructions received from that broker to change your vote.

9. Do I need to attend the Metris special meeting in person?

No. It is not necessary for you to attend the special meeting to vote your shares if Metris has previously received your proxy, although you are welcome to attend.

10. When will holders of Metris common stock receive the merger consideration?

Metris and HSBC Finance are working to complete the merger as soon as possible. Although we expect to complete the merger by the end of the fourth quarter of 2005, the merger is subject to receipt of stockholder and regulatory approvals and other conditions, and Metris cannot predict the exact time of the merger's completion. Following closing of the merger, you will receive instructions on how to receive your cash payment in exchange for your shares of Metris stock.

11. Who will own Metris after the merger?

After the merger, Metris will be a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance. Upon completion of the merger, stockholders of Metris will no longer have any equity or ownership interest in Metris.

12. Should I send in my Metris common stock certificates now?

No. After the merger is completed, Computershare Trust Company of New York, the paying agent appointed by HSBC Finance, will send written instructions for surrendering your Metris common stock certificates.

13. Will I owe taxes as a result of the merger?

The merger will be a taxable transaction to you for United States federal income tax purposes and may also be taxable under applicable state, local and foreign tax laws. The receipt of cash as a result of exercising your dissenter's rights will also be a taxable transaction. In general, for United States federal income tax purposes, you will recognize a gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash you receive and your adjusted tax basis in your shares of Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock surrendered. We recommend that you read the section titled "Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations" in this proxy statement for a more detailed explanation of the tax consequences of the merger. You should consult your own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences of the merger applicable to you in light of your particular circumstances.

14. Who can help answer my questions?

If you have additional questions about the merger or other matters discussed in this proxy statement after reading this proxy statement, you should contact:

Consideration for Your Stock. If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is subsequently completed on or before December 9, 2005, each outstanding share of Metris common stock will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive $15.00 in cash, and all of the shares of Metris Series C preferred stock will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive in the aggregate $682,561,140 in cash. Regardless of when the merger occurs, holders of the Series C preferred stock will receive an amount equal to 101% of the aggregate merger consideration that they would have received had they converted all of their Series C preferred stock into common stock immediately prior to the merger, which is the same amount Metris would pay to redeem the Series C preferred stock pursuant to the change in control provisions of the Series C preferred stock terms.

Consideration for Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards. If the merger agreement is approved, as of the effective time of the merger, each outstanding option to acquire Metris common stock granted under Metris stock incentive plans, whether or not exercisable, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the product of the consideration to be received by the common stockholders per share of common stock in the merger and the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to such stock option over (ii) the product of the exercise price per share with respect to each share of Metris common stock subject to such stock option and the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to such stock option. If the exercise price per share of any such stock option is equal to or greater than the price per share paid for each share of common stock, such stock option will be cancelled without any cash payment. Each right to be issued shares of Metris common stock pursuant to a Metris restricted stock unit agreement that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (i) the consideration to be received by the common stockholders per share of common stock in the merger and (ii) the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to issuance upon settlement of such restricted stock unit agreement. Each participant in Metris management stock purchase plan will have all company match amounts under that plan vest and receive a cash payment in an amount equal to the number of shares of common stock then credited to that participant under the plan multiplied by the price per share to be received by the common stockholders in the merger.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated August 4, 2005, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Metris board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. UBS opinion was provided to the Metris board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration, does not address any other aspect of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the merger.

Place, Date and Time. The special meeting will be held at the offices of Dorsey & Whitney LLP, 50 South Sixth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 at 9:00 a.m. (CST) on Wednesday, November 30, 2005.

Who Can Vote at the Meeting. You can vote at the special meeting all of the shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock you own of record as of November 4, 2005, which is the record date for the special meeting. If you own shares that are registered in someone else's name, for example, a broker, you need to direct that person to vote those shares or obtain an authorization from them and vote the shares yourself at the meeting. As of the close of business on November 4, 2005, there were 58,492,676 shares of Metris common stock outstanding held by approximately 323 stockholders, and 1,476,680 shares of Metris Series C preferred stock outstanding held by approximately 30 stockholders.

What Vote is Required for Adoption of the Merger Agreement. The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock, voting together as a single class. Each share of Series C preferred stock is entitled to the number of votes to which the holder thereof would be entitled if that share was converted into common stock on the record date. One share of Series C preferred stock was convertible into approximately 30.51 shares of common stock as of the record date. The failure to vote has the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

Stockholder Agreement. All of the holders of the Series C preferred stock have executed a stockholder agreement to vote their Metris capital stock in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and against any other acquisition proposal and have provided HSBC Finance with an irrevocable proxy to vote their stock. These stockholders own approximately 43.5% of the voting power of the capital stock of Metris entitled to vote at the special meeting. A copy of the stockholder agreement is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement.

Procedure for Voting. You can vote your shares by: (1) signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and mailing it, (2) voting by telephone or by the Internet in accordance with the instructions provided to you in your proxy card, or (3) attending the special meeting and voting in person. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must either advise the Secretary of Metris in writing, or deliver a new proxy, dated after the date of the proxy being revoked, before your common stock has been voted at the special meeting, or you must attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person. Merely attending the special meeting without voting will not constitute revocation of a proxy submitted prior to the special meeting.

Shares Held by Directors and Executive Officers (see page 57)

As of November 4, 2005, approximately 44.8% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Metris common stock and Metris Series C preferred stock were beneficially owned by directors and executive officers of Metris and their affiliates. Metris expects all of these shares that were actually outstanding on the record date (representing approximately 43.4% of the voting power of the shares of Metris common stock and Metris Series C preferred stock outstanding on that date) to be voted in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. The shares beneficially owned by directors Thomas H. Lee, David H. Harkins, C. Hunter Boll and Thomas M. Hagerty, which represent approximately 43.5% (42.6% considering only shares actually outstanding on the record date) of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock, are subject to the stockholder agreement with HSBC Finance.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal (see page 60)

Delaware law provides you with appraisal rights in connection with the merger. This means that if you are not satisfied with the amount of cash you will receive in the merger, you are entitled to have the value of your shares independently determined and to receive payment based on that valuation. The ultimate amount you receive as a dissenting stockholder in an appraisal proceeding may be more or less than, or the same as, the amount you would have received in the merger. In order to properly perfect and exercise your appraisal rights, you must give written demand for appraisal of your shares before the taking of the vote on the merger at the special meeting, you must not vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, and you must comply with the other applicable provisions of Delaware law. Your failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under Delaware law will result in the loss of your appraisal rights. A copy of the applicable Delaware statutory provision is included as Annex E to this proxy statement.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 34)

The merger will be a taxable transaction to you. In general, for United States federal income tax purposes, you will recognize a gain or loss as a result of the merger equal to the difference between the cash you receive in the merger and your adjusted tax basis in your shares of Metris stock. You should consult your own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences of the merger applicable to you in light of your particular circumstances.

When the Merger Will Be Completed (see page 37)

We are working to complete the merger as soon as possible. Although we expect to complete the merger by the end of the fourth quarter of 2005, the merger is subject to receipt of stockholder and regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other conditions, including the conditions described immediately below. We cannot predict the exact time of the merger's completion.

Conditions to Completing the Merger (see page 48)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied, including the following:

adoption of the merger agreement by the requisite vote of Metris stockholders;

the receipt of all regulatory approvals which are necessary for the consummation of the merger and the subsequent merger of Direct Merchants Credit Card Bank, National Association, a wholly owned subsidiary of Metris, with and into HSBC Bank Nevada, N.A., which is referred to in this proxy statement as the bank merger; and the receipt by Metris of a notice from the staff of the SEC that it will not recommend that charges be brought against Metris and its subsidiaries with respect to the allegations against Metris set forth in the Wells Notices dated as of July 12, 2005 with respect to Metris and one or more of its subsidiaries or, if such notice is not obtained by September 30, 2005 and is not reasonably likely to be obtained in Metris' good faith determination after consultation with its outside legal counsel, the receipt by Metris of a final court or administrative order as to it and its subsidiaries with respect to the SEC's investigation, which order may include fines, penalties or settlement if the aggregate amount is not substantial in relation to the consolidated financial condition, assets or stockholders' equity of Metris and which order may not impose adverse restrictions or limitations on the business or operations of Metris or any of its subsidiaries.

If the law permits, either Metris or HSBC Finance could choose to waive certain conditions to its obligation to complete the merger.

Required Regulatory Approvals (see page 35)

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to various regulatory approvals or consents, including approval from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, referred to as the OCC. Metris and HSBC Finance have made all regulatory filings required to date and currently anticipate that they will obtain the required regulatory approvals prior to the date of the special meeting. The OCC gave its approval for the bank merger on November 3, 2005. However, although neither Metris nor HSBC Finance knows of any reason why any of the other required approvals cannot be obtained in a timely manner, there can be no assurance when or if they will be obtained.

The resolution as to Metris and its subsidiaries of the matters referred to in the Wells Notice from the staff of the SEC to Metris (described above) on the terms specified in the merger agreement is a condition to HSBC Finance's obligation to complete the merger. The staff has informed Metris that it is the intention of the staff not to recommend that the SEC bring an enforcement action against Metris with respect to its investigation. The staff's recommendation is subject to review and final action by the SEC, and there can be no assurance that the SEC will follow the staff's recommendation. Metris cannot provide assurances that the required resolution, which has not been reached to date, will be reached in a timely fashion or at all.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger that Differ From Your Interests (see page 31)

Some of Metris directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, those of Metris stockholders generally. These interests include the beneficial ownership of Series C preferred stock (which receives different consideration than the common stock), vesting of equity compensation awards, rights under change of control severance agreements, full vesting of and crediting of certain amounts to accounts under Metris supplemental executive retirement plan, vesting and cash payouts of vested amounts under Metris management stock purchase plan, and rights to continued indemnification and insurance coverage. The Metris board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Metris stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Procedure for Receiving Merger Consideration (see page 39)

HSBC Finance has appointed Computershare Trust Company of New York as paying agent to coordinate the payment of the cash merger consideration to holders of shares of Metris common stock that are not dissenting shares following the merger. The paying agent will send written instructions for surrendering your Metris common stock certificates and obtaining the cash merger consideration after we have completed the merger.

Immediately following the effective time of the merger and upon surrender to HSBC Finance of the certificates representing all shares of Metris Series C preferred stock, HSBC Finance will pay to the holders of the Metris Series C preferred stock, by wire transfer, that amount of cash constituting the merger consideration to which those holders are entitled.

No Solicitation (see page 45)

In the merger agreement, Metris has agreed, subject to limited exceptions, that it will not, nor will it permit any of its officers and directors or its subsidiaries to, and that it will use its best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries employees, agents and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, take certain actions with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, as that term is defined in the merger agreement.

Termination and Effects of Termination (see page 49)

Metris and HSBC Finance can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if the stockholders of Metris have approved it. Also, under certain circumstances, either Metris or HSBC Finance can decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the agreement prior to the closing of the merger, even if the stockholders of Metris have approved the merger agreement.

Termination Fee (see page 50)

Metris is required to pay a termination fee of $57.4 million to HSBC Finance if (1) HSBC Finance terminates the merger agreement because the Metris board of directors fails to recommend stockholder approval of the merger agreement, withdraws its recommendation, modifies or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to the interests of HSBC Finance or fails to call a stockholders meeting to adopt the merger agreement, and, in each case, within twelve months after the termination, Metris or one of its subsidiaries consummates another acquisition transaction, or (2) Metris terminates the merger agreement because the Metris board of directors withdraws its recommendation of the merger in favor of a superior proposal, and within twelve months after termination, Metris or one of its subsidiaries consummates another acquisition transaction.

Metris' principal subsidiaries are Direct Merchants Credit Card Bank, National Association, referred to as Direct Merchants Bank; Metris Direct, Inc.; and Metris Receivables, Inc., referred to as MRI.

Our consumer lending products are primarily unsecured credit cards, including Direct Merchants Bank MasterCard® and Visa® credit cards. We also offer agent bank and co-branded credit cards through partnerships with other companies. Our credit cards generate consumer loans through Direct Merchants Bank. We also sell other consumer lending related products and services, such as credit protection products. We utilize our various legal entities as follows:

Direct Merchants Bank owns all credit card accounts and sells receivables on accounts assigned to the Metris Master Trust to Metris on a daily basis.

Metris sells receivables on a daily basis to MRI, which then sells them to our off balance sheet entity, the Metris Master Trust.

The Metris Master Trust owns the receivables and finances them with borrowings under our conduit and asset-backed term securitizations.

Direct Merchants Bank engages only in credit card operations. It does not accept demand deposits or deposits that the depositor may withdraw by check or similar means for payment to third parties or others; it does not accept any savings or time deposits of less than $100,000, except for deposits pledged as collateral for extensions of credit; it maintains only one office that accepts deposits; and it does not engage in the business of making commercial loans. Therefore, it is not subject to regulation under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended.

In addition to consumer credit cards, we sell credit protection products through Direct Merchants Bank and insurance products through a third party provider. These products are sold to Direct Merchants Bank credit cardholders.

HSBC Finance generally serves non-conforming and nonprime consumers. Such customers are individuals who have limited credit histories, modest incomes, high debt-to-income ratios, high loan-to-value ratios (for real estate secured products) or have experienced credit problems caused by occasional delinquencies, prior charge-offs, bankruptcy or other credit related actions. These customers generally have higher delinquency and credit loss probabilities and are charged a higher interest rate to compensate for the additional risk of loss (where the loan is not adequately collateralized to mitigate such additional risk of loss) and the anticipated additional collection initiatives that may have to be undertaken over the life of the loan. HSBC Finance's subsidiaries also originate and purchase near-prime real estate secured and auto loans. In its MasterCard and Visa, retail services and international businesses, it also serves prime consumers either through co-branding or merchant relationships.

HSBC Finance's U.S. corporate headquarters are located at 2700 Sanders Road, Prospect Heights, Illinois 60070, and its telephone number is (847) 564-5000. The address of HSBC Finance's web site is www.hsbcusa.com.

HSBC Corporation I

HSBC Corporation I is a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the merger. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger, HSBC Corporation I will be merged with and into Metris. Metris will be the surviving entity in the merger and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance.

THE SPECIAL MEETING OF METRIS STOCKHOLDERS

Place, Date, Time and Purpose of the Special Meeting

The special meeting will be held at the offices of Dorsey & Whitney LLP, 50 South Sixth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 on Wednesday, November 30, 2005 at 9:00 a.m. (CST). The purpose of the special meeting is to consider and vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

The Metris board of directors has determined that the merger is in the best interests of Metris and its stockholders, has unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that Metris stockholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

Who Can Vote at the Special Meeting

The holders of record of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock as of the close of business on November 4, 2005, which is the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. If you own shares that are registered in someone else's name, for example, a broker, you need to direct that person to vote those shares or obtain an authorization from them and vote the shares yourself at the meeting. On the record date, there were 58,492,676 shares of Metris common stock outstanding held of record by approximately 323 stockholders and 1,476,680 shares of Metris Series C preferred stock outstanding held of record by approximately 30 stockholders.

Vote Required; Quorum

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock, voting together as a single class. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote. Each share of Series C preferred stock is entitled to the number of votes to which the holder thereof would be entitled if that share was converted into common stock on the record date. One share of Series C preferred stock was convertible into approximately 30.51 shares of common stock on the record date. Failure to vote your proxy by telephone or by the Internet, to return a properly executed proxy card or to vote in person will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST adoption of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have the authority to vote on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to the approval of non-routine matters such as adoption of the merger agreement and, as a result, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares, brokers are not empowered to vote those shares, referred to generally as broker non-votes. Abstentions and properly executed broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists and will have the same effect as votes against adoption of the merger agreement.

The holders of one-third of the voting power of the shares of Metris common stock and Series C preferred stock outstanding, as of the record date, voting together as a single class, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the special meeting. A quorum is necessary to hold the special meeting. Once a share is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum and any adjournment of the special meeting. However, if a new record date is set for an adjourned meeting, then a new quorum will have to be established.

Voting by Proxy

This proxy statement is being sent to you on behalf of the Metris board of directors for the purpose of requesting that you direct your shares of Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock to be represented at the special meeting by the persons named in the enclosed proxy card. All shares of Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock represented at the special meeting by proxies voted by telephone or the Internet or by properly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on that proxy. If you vote by telephone or by the Internet or you sign and return a proxy card without giving voting instructions, your shares will be voted as recommended by the Metris board of directors. The Metris board of directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

The persons named in the proxy card will use their own judgment to determine how to vote regarding any matters not described in this proxy statement that are properly presented at the special meeting. Metris does not know of any matter to be presented at the special meeting other than the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must either advise the Secretary of Metris in writing, deliver a proxy dated after the date of the proxy you wish to revoke, submit a new proxy by telephone or by the Internet or attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person. Merely attending the special meeting without voting will not constitute revocation of your proxy.

If your Metris common stock is held in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow to have your shares voted. Your broker or bank may allow you to deliver your voting instructions via telephone or the Internet. Please see the instruction form that accompanies this proxy statement.

Metris will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers and employees of Metris may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. None of these persons will receive additional or special compensation for soliciting proxies. Metris will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instructions.

THE MERGER

The discussion of the merger in this proxy statement is qualified by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. You should read the entire merger agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Background of the Merger

The Metris board of directors has periodically reviewed with Metris management, Metris' outside financial advisor, Goldman Sachs, and Metris' legal advisors, the potential strategic direction for Metris in light of the Company's financial performance and market, economic, competitive, regulatory and other conditions and developments. These discussions have included the possibility of, among other things, business combinations involving Metris and other financial institutions, particularly in view of the increasing competition and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry, as well as the requirements of Metris' regulatory agreements entered into in 2002-2003. In connection with those discussions, Metris management and Goldman Sachs had periodic contacts and discussions with other financial institutions regarding their respective companies, industry trends and developments, and potential business combinations or other strategic initiatives.

In early November 2004, the Metris board of directors met with Metris management, Goldman Sachs and Metris outside legal advisors, Dorsey & Whitney LLP, referred to as Dorsey & Whitney, and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, referred to as Skadden Arps, to discuss Metris' recent financial performance and prospects, consolidation activity in the financial services industry generally and in the credit card industry in particular, the general economic environment, regulatory developments in the financial services industry generally and in the credit card industry in particular, and other trends and developments in the markets in which Metris conducts business. Possible strategic alternatives were reviewed, including hypothetical scenarios involving a business combination. During the meeting, several major financial institutions were discussed as possible acquirors. The Metris board of directors determined that a strategic combination with another financial institution could have benefits for Metris and its stockholders if a transaction could be arranged on satisfactory terms. The Metris board of directors requested that Metris management and Goldman Sachs commence a confidential process to contact a number of potential acquirors to determine their level of interest in a possible business combination with Metris.

In November and December 2004 and January 2005, Metris management and Goldman Sachs contacted 10 financial institutions, including HSBC Finance, identified at the Metris board meeting in November 2004 as potentially having interest in a possible business combination. Seven of those financial institutions, including HSBC Finance, met with executive officers of Metris, representatives of Goldman Sachs, or both, to have exploratory discussions regarding a business combination with Metris. Four of those financial institutions, including HSBC Finance's parent, subsequently entered into confidentiality agreements with Metris, and Metris provided those financial institutions with business and financial information concerning Metris. Two of those financial institutions, including HSBC Finance, expressed interest in performing preliminary due diligence for a potential business combination with Metris.

At a meeting of the Metris board of directors in early February 2005, David D. Wesselink, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Metris, other members of Metris management and representatives of Goldman Sachs summarized for the Metris board of directors the events that had occurred since the November 2004 board meeting, and the interest expressed by HSBC Finance and another financial institution in performing preliminary due diligence. The Metris board of directors authorized Metris management and Goldman Sachs to proceed with the preliminary due diligence meetings.

HSBC Finance and the other financial institution performed preliminary due diligence with Mr. Wesselink and other members of the Metris executive management team in early March 2005. Metris instructed Goldman Sachs to ask HSBC Finance and the other financial institution to submit a written preliminary indication of interest to Metris by the end of March 2005 indicating their interest in a possible business combination with Metris and a preliminary value or range of values for the consideration to be paid to Metris stockholders in such a transaction. HSBC Finance submitted a letter on March 31, 2005, indicating interest in a business combination with Metris, at an aggregate consideration for the Series C preferred stock and common stock of Metris in the range of $1.375 billion to $1.525 billion, payable in cash, and subject to completion of due diligence and certain other conditions. The other financial institution declined to submit a written indication of interest to Metris.

At a meeting of the Metris board of directors in early April 2005, Mr. Wesselink reviewed the status of discussions with HSBC Finance and the other financial institution, including the written indication of interest received from HSBC Finance. The Metris board of directors instructed Metris management and Goldman Sachs to notify HSBC Finance and the other financial institution which had performed preliminary due diligence, as well as the other financial institutions previously contacted in November and December 2004 and January 2005 by Metris management and Goldman Sachs, that Metris was interested in a business combination at a valuation reflecting a premium to the then current trading prices for the Metris common stock, and that it would invite those parties to perform due diligence in order to submit a more specific indication of interest. HSBC Finance agreed to perform further due diligence. The other financial institution which had performed preliminary due diligence, and the other financial institutions contacted following the April 2005 Metris board meeting, declined to perform due diligence or proceed further.

HSBC Finance performed due diligence throughout May 2005, including interviews with members of Metris management. Also during this time, Metris management and its legal advisors drafted a preliminary merger agreement and provided it to HSBC Finance.

Mr. Wesselink and other members of Metris management and representatives of Goldman Sachs met with Siddharth N. Bobby Mehta, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of HSBC Finance, and other members of HSBC Finance management on June 7, 2005 to discuss the potential business combination. On June 10, 2005, HSBC Finance submitted a revised version of the draft merger agreement and a letter to Metris indicating an interest in a business combination with Metris at an aggregate consideration for the Series C preferred stock and common stock of Metris of $1.525 billion payable in cash, and subject to completion of final due diligence and other conditions, including resolution, to HSBC Finance's satisfaction, of all matters in connection with the SEC's pending investigation involving Metris.

The executive committee of the Metris board of directors, consisting of Mr. Wesselink, Frank D. Trestman, and David V. Harkins, met on June 12, 2005, and again on June 14, 2005, to discuss the indication of interest received from HSBC Finance. Mr. Wesselink and other members of Metris management and representatives of Goldman Sachs spoke in the next few days on multiple occasions with Mr. Mehta and other members of HSBC Finance management to discuss HSBC Finance's most recent indication of interest. HSBC Finance orally agreed on June 17, 2005 to increase its aggregate consideration for the Series C preferred stock and common stock of Metris to $1.6 billion, subject to completion of final due diligence and negotiation of a definitive agreement and other related transaction documents mutually acceptable to the parties.

HSBC Finance performed additional due diligence thereafter through telephone conversations and exchange of information in June and July 2005 with Metris. Metris, Goldman Sachs and Metris' legal advisors had multiple meetings and phone calls with HSBC Finance and its legal advisors to negotiate a potential definitive merger agreement. Also at this time, HSBC Finance drafted and began negotiating the terms of a stockholder agreement with the holders of the Series C preferred stock, who own approximately 43.5% of the voting power of the capital stock of Metris.

On July 12, 2005, Metris announced that it had received a Wells Notice from the staff of the Midwest Regional Office of the SEC in connection with the SEC's investigation concerning Metris' reporting and treatment of its allowance for loan losses for 2001, its valuation of Retained interests in loans securitized and other matters.

The Metris board of directors met again on July 11 and July 12, 2005 with members of Metris management, and representatives of Goldman Sachs, Dorsey & Whitney and Skadden Arps to review the status of the discussions with HSBC Finance, the Wells Notice and other matters. Members of the executive committee of the Metris board of directors also discussed the status of the discussions with HSBC Finance with Metris management, Goldman Sachs, Dorsey & Whitney and Skadden Arps on multiple occasions between early June 2005 and the July 2005 board meetings, and again thereafter in July 2005. In mid-July 2005, Metris also retained UBS as an additional financial advisor for the potential business combination to evaluate, and render an opinion with respect to, the merger consideration payable in connection with the business combination.

Mr. Wesselink and other members of Metris management had multiple discussions with Mr. Mehta and other members of HSBC Finance management thereafter in July and early August 2005. These conversations included a telephone conversation on July 31, 2005 in which Mr. Mehta advised Mr. Wesselink that HSBC Finance had completed its due diligence and proposed an aggregate consideration of $1.59 billion for the common stock and Series C preferred stock, in cash, subject to the conditions in the draft definitive agreement that HSBC Finance, Metris and their respective advisors had been negotiating.

On August 1, 2005, the Metris board of directors met with Metris management and representatives of Goldman Sachs, Dorsey & Whitney and Skadden Arps to discuss the terms of the proposed merger agreement and related stockholder agreement that had been negotiated to date, and authorized Metris management to continue discussions with HSBC Finance.

On August 2, 2005, the Metris board of directors met to discuss the terms of the proposed merger. Mr. Wesselink and other members of Metris management presented an update on Metris business and operations, and also discussed with the Metris board of directors the strategic rationale of the proposed merger and the operating fit between Metris and HSBC Finance. Representatives of Dorsey & Whitney and Skadden Arps discussed with the Metris board of directors the legal standards applicable to its decisions and actions with respect to its evaluation of the HSBC Finance merger proposal, and reviewed the terms of the proposed merger agreement and the stockholder agreement to be entered into by HSBC Finance and the holders of the Series C preferred stock. Representatives of Goldman Sachs and UBS discussed financial aspects of the proposed merger with the Metris board of directors. The Metris board of directors also reviewed with the representatives of Goldman Sachs and UBS the potential impact on the consideration to be received by the Metris common stockholders in the merger of the change in control redemption provisions of the Series C preferred stock as well as the dilutive impact on the Metris common stock of the pay-in-kind dividends that would accrue on the Series C preferred stock after December 9, 2005.

The Metris board of directors further discussed the terms of the proposed merger with Metris management and Metris legal and financial advisors present and then in executive session with only Metris legal advisors present. The independent directors, excluding Mr. Wesselink, and also excluding the four representatives of the holders of the Series C preferred stock on the Metris board of directors, consisting of Thomas H. Lee, David V. Harkins, Hunter C. Boll, and Thomas M. Hagerty, also met in executive session with representatives of Dorsey & Whitney and Skadden Arps. In this session, the independent directors reviewed the terms of the Series C preferred stock, including the change in control redemption provisions and the pay-in-kind dividends that would accrue on the Series C preferred stock after December 9, 2005 in accordance with its terms, and discussed the treatment of the Series C preferred stock in the proposed merger in light of these terms. Following discussion, the independent directors approved the consideration proposed to be received in the merger by the holders of the Series C preferred stock, as described under

The Merger Agreement Consideration to be Received in the Merger, subject to approval of the other terms of the proposed merger agreement by the full Metris board of directors.

The Metris board of directors then directed Mr. Wesselink to contact Mr. Mehta of HSBC Finance to request an increase in the aggregate merger consideration so that the consideration to be paid to Metris common stockholders for a transaction that would be completed on or before December 9, 2005 would be $15.00 per share, recognizing that the consideration to be paid to common stockholders if the merger were to close after December 9, 2005 would decrease as a result of the accrual after such date of the pay-in-kind dividends required to be paid to the holders of the Series C preferred stock in accordance with its terms. Mr. Wesselink and Mr. Mehta spoke by telephone in the evening of August 2, 2005, and Mr. Mehta agreed to increase the aggregate consideration as requested by the Metris board of directors. Representatives of Metris management and the legal advisors of Metris and HSBC Finance continued negotiations to finalize the terms of a definitive merger agreement.

On August 3, 2005, the Metris board of directors met with members of Metris management and representatives of Metris legal and financial advisors and reviewed the revised terms of the definitive merger agreement, including the final terms regarding the merger consideration. Prior to the meeting, Mr. William A. Houlihan, the Chief Financial Officer of Metris, orally informed the representatives of UBS who had attended the August 2, 2005 board meeting of the final terms of the merger consideration and received confirmation from the representatives of UBS that, based on the information it had considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration, UBS was prepared to render to the Metris board of directors, at the time of execution of the merger agreement, a written opinion to the effect that, as of the date of its opinion and based on and subject to the matters described in its opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Metris common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Mr. Houlihan conveyed this confirmation to the Metris board of directors at the August 3 meeting, and UBS written opinion was delivered on August 4, 2005, the date on which the merger agreement was executed. At the August 3 meeting, Goldman Sachs provided the Metris board of directors with its oral opinion to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of the Metris common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. This opinion was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion of Goldman Sachs dated August 4, 2005. The Metris board of directors unanimously approved the proposed merger agreement and stockholder agreement, and the parties respective management and legal advisors continued to finalize the definitive transaction agreements.

Early on August 4, 2005, the parties executed the merger agreement and issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the definitive agreement, and the holders of the Series C preferred stock executed the stockholder agreement with HSBC Finance.

Unanimous Board Recommendation

After careful consideration, the Metris board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Metris and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Metris board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that Metris stockholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

Metris Reasons for the Merger

The Metris board of directors has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Metris and its stockholders. In evaluating the merger, the Metris board of directors consulted with Metris management and Metris legal and financial advisors. In arriving at its determination, the Metris board of directors also considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

Its understanding of Metris business, operations, management, financial condition, earnings and prospects.

The challenges presented by the relatively high cost of funding faced by Metris, the relatively high equity capital as a percentage of managed assets needed by Metris to operate its business, Metris below investment grade debt ratings (which subject it to potential volatility in the cost of raising money in the capital markets) and the requirements of Metris regulatory agreements entered into in 2002-2003.

Its knowledge of the current and prospective environment in which Metris operates, including: national economic conditions, the competitive environment in the financial services industry generally and in the credit card industry in particular, the trend towards consolidation in the financial services industry, the evolving regulatory environment faced by financial services companies generally and in the credit card industry in particular, including monoline credit card companies such as Metris, and the likely effect of these factors on Metris.

The complementary fit of the business of Metris and HSBC Finance, and the expectation that the merger would entail minimal disruption for Metris customers.

The process conducted by Metris management in exploring the potential value that could be realized for Metris stockholders in a business combination transaction involving Metris, including the contacts with a number of selected financial institutions regarding their potential interest in a business combination transaction involving Metris, and the results of those contacts and the fact that HSBC Finance emerged as the only financial institution to complete due diligence and submit a written indication of interest to Metris.

The potential impact of the transaction on Metris employees and other key constituencies.

The financial and other terms of the merger.

The financial presentation of Goldman Sachs and Goldman Sachs opinion, dated August 4, 2005, to the Metris board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion and subject to factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Metris common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. See The Merger Opinion of Goldman, Sachs & Co.

UBS opinion, dated August 4, 2005, to the Metris board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Metris common stock, as more fully described below under the caption The Merger Opinion of UBS Securities LLC.

The anticipated timeframe to complete the merger and the potential impact on the value of the Metris common stock of the pay-in-kind dividends that would accrue on the Series C preferred stock after December 9, 2005, in accordance with its terms.

The conditions to closing, including resolution as to Metris and its subsidiaries of the matters referred to in the Wells Notice received by Metris on July 12, 2005 from the staff of the SEC, and the likelihood that the merger would be completed pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

The required regulatory and other consents needed for the completion of the merger, and the likelihood that such required regulatory and other consents would be received.

The terms relating to the restrictions on Metris ability to take certain actions with respect to potential acquisitions of Metris or its subsidiaries and to the potential payment of a $57.4 million termination fee under certain circumstances, and the possibility that these provisions could have the effect of discouraging other parties potentially interested in a transaction with Metris from proposing a transaction.

The fact that the holders of the Series C preferred stock had been requested by HSBC Finance to grant HSBC Finance an irrevocable proxy to vote in favor of the merger, and the holders of the Series C preferred stock had agreed to grant the irrevocable proxy to HSBC, and the effect that the granting of the irrevocable proxy by the holders of the Series C preferred stock might have on the likely timing of completion of the transaction, and that the existence of the irrevocable proxy could have the effect of discouraging other parties which might potentially be interested in a transaction with Metris from proposing a transaction.

The fact that some of Metris executive officers have other financial interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as Metris stockholders, including as a result of employment compensation arrangements with Metris and the manner in which they would be affected by the merger. See The Merger Interests of Metris Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Metris board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Metris board of directors. In the view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Metris board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of those matters, the Metris board of directors did not consider it practical, nor did it attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Metris board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Opinions of Metris Financial Advisors

Opinion of Goldman, Sachs & Co.

Goldman Sachs rendered its written opinion to the Metris board of directors that, as of August 4, 2005 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Metris common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated August 4, 2005, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Metris board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and is directed solely to the consideration to be received by the holders of Metris common stock. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Metris common stock should vote with respect to the merger.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement;

the stockholder agreement;

annual reports to stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Metris for the five years ended December 31, 2004;

certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Metris; certain other communications from Metris to its stockholders; and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Metris prepared by its management.

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior management of Metris regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Metris. In addition, Goldman Sachs reviewed the reported price and trading activity for Metris common stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for Metris with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the consumer finance industry specifically and in other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

Goldman Sachs relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by it and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering the opinion described above. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed with the consent of the Metris board of directors that the internal financial analyses and forecasts for Metris prepared by the management of Metris were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates

and judgments of the management of Metris. Goldman Sachs advised the Metris board of directors that it is not an expert in the evaluation of loan portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto, and, accordingly, it assumed that such allowance for losses were in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. In addition, Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Metris or any of its subsidiaries, nor was any evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Metris or any of its subsidiaries furnished to Goldman Sachs.

Goldman Sachs' opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Metris to engage in the merger. Goldman Sachs' opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Goldman Sachs as of, the date of its opinion. Goldman Sachs' advisory services and opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the Metris board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Metris common stock should vote with respect to such transaction.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses delivered by Goldman Sachs in connection with rendering the opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Goldman Sachs, nor does the order of the analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Goldman Sachs' financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before August 2, 2005 and is not necessarily indicative of current or future market conditions.

Indicated Transaction Multiples

Goldman Sachs calculated various multiples and premiums resulting from the merger. These calculations were based on historical information and certain financial data and forecasts from the management of Metris. Two calculations were made, one calculation assuming that the transaction would close on or before December 9, 2005 and the other calculation assuming a hypothetical close on March 31, 2006.

For both calculations, Goldman Sachs calculated the percentage premium (discount) of the merger consideration over:

the closing price per share of Metris common stock on August 2, 2005;

the average closing prices per share of Metris common stock for the one-week, three-month and 2005 year-to-date periods ended August 2, 2005;

the highest and lowest closing prices per share in the 52-week period ended August 2, 2005; and Metris' managed receivables as of June 30, 2005 (calculated as the aggregate consideration less tangible book value as a percentage of managed receivables).

The following table presents the results of Goldman Sachs' calculations:

Hypothetical Close of Merger:

Goldman Sachs also calculated the ratio of the per share merger consideration to Metris' estimated earnings per share, or EPS, for each of fiscal years 2005 and 2006 based on EPS estimates at August 2, 2005 from Institutional Brokerage Estimate System (or IBES, a data service that compiles earnings estimates issued by securities analysts), for each of fiscal years 2005, 2006 and 2007 based on Metris' management forecasts of GAAP EPS and Cash EPS (EPS before preferred stock dividends, assuming a 39% tax rate and excluding the effect of retained interest/gain-on-sale accounting) and its book value and tangible book value as of June 30, 2005. The following table presents the results of these calculations:

Advanta Corp.

Although none of the selected companies is directly comparable to Metris, the companies included were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations that, for the purposes of analysis, may be considered similar to certain operations of Metris.

The financial and market information used by Goldman Sachs for all of the selected companies was based on publicly available information as of August 1, 2005, IBES estimates and information provided by SNL Financial Datasource (or SNL, a recognized data service that collects, standardizes and disseminates relevant corporate, financial, market and mergers and acquisitions data for companies in the industries it covers). With respect to Metris, Goldman Sachs used estimates from Metris management and IBES estimates and used a price per share equal to $15.09, the closing price on August 1, 2005. With respect to the selected companies, Goldman Sachs calculated, based on the August 1, 2005 closing stock price, the following:

price to calendar year 2005 and 2006 IBES earnings estimates ratio; price to tangible book value ratio; and premium to managed receivables.

the implied premium represented by the price paid for that target in the transaction to:

the closing price per common share of that target on the day prior to the announcement date; and that target's managed receivables (calculated as the price paid less the tangible equity value of that target divided by the latest publicly available managed receivables of the target at the time of the announcement of the transaction); and the implied ratio of the price paid for that target in the transaction to:

tangible equity value of that target, based on the latest publicly available financial statements of that target available prior to the announcement of the transaction;

earnings of that target for the latest twelve months (LTM) of results publicly available prior to the announcement of the transaction; and projected earnings of that target for the fiscal year in which the transaction was announced (Projected Year).

Goldman Sachs relied on information from public filings, press releases and investor presentations of the target companies and information published by Securities Data Corp. (a data source containing historical data on mergers and acquisitions and other transactions) and SNL. The following table presents the results of this analysis for the selected transactions:

Sum-of-the-Parts Valuation Analysis

Goldman Sachs performed a sum-of-the-parts valuation analysis to generate implied total equity values for Metris based on its tangible equity value at June 30, 2005, a range of net present values based on discounted cash flows expressed as a percentage of the gross managed receivables (Portfolio Prices) and hypothetical net present values based on discounted cash flows of future credit card accounts. Based on financial information and assumptions provided by Metris management, Goldman Sachs calculated the implied values based on Portfolio Prices of 90.1% (low case), 93.1% (base case) and 100.4% (base case with strategic acquirer synergies) and hypothetical net present values of future credit card accounts ranging from $87 million (low case) to $415 million (base case with strategic acquirer synergies). The following table presents the results of this analysis:

Implied Total Equity Value ($ in millions)	$851	$1,157	$	1,786(1)

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs' opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to Metris or the contemplated transaction.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses for purposes of Goldman Sachs' providing its opinion to the Metris board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Metris common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Metris, HSBC Finance, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The merger consideration was determined through arms'-length negotiations between Metris and HSBC Finance and was approved by the Metris board of directors. Goldman Sachs provided advice to Metris during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to Metris or its board of directors or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger.

As described above, Goldman Sachs' opinion to the Metris board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Metris board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with the fairness opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman Sachs attached as Annex C to this proxy statement.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates, as part of their investment banking business, are continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and other transactions as well as for estate, corporate and other purposes. Goldman Sachs may provide investment-banking services to Metris, HSBC Finance and their respective affiliates in the future. In connection with the above-described investment banking services Goldman Sachs has received, and may receive, compensation.

Goldman Sachs is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, purchasing and selling loans, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman Sachs and its affiliates may provide such services to Metris, HSBC Finance and their respective affiliates, may actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of Metris and HSBC Finance and its affiliates for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions of such securities.

The Metris board of directors selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger. Pursuant to a letter agreement, Metris engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with its analysis and consideration of various financial alternatives available to Metris. Pursuant to the terms of the engagement letter, Metris has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee equal to the greater of 0.75% of the aggregate consideration paid in the merger or $6,000,000, a principal portion of which is payable upon consummation of the transaction. In addition, Metris has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its expenses, including attorney s fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Opinion of UBS Securities LLC

On August 4, 2005, in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, UBS delivered to the Metris board of directors a written opinion dated August 4, 2005, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations described in its opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of Metris common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of UBS opinion describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by UBS. This opinion is attached as Annex D and is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. UBS opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration and does not address any other aspect of the merger. The opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Metris or the underlying business decision of Metris to effect the merger. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the merger. Holders of Metris common stock are encouraged to read this opinion carefully in its entirety. The summary of UBS opinion described below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, UBS:

reviewed publicly available business and historical financial information relating to Metris;

reviewed internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of Metris that were provided to UBS by Metris management and not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by Metris management;

conducted discussions with members of Metris senior management concerning Metris business and financial prospects;

reviewed current and historical market prices of Metris common stock;

reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data with respect to companies which UBS believed to be generally relevant;

compared the financial terms of the merger with publicly available financial terms of other transactions which UBS believed to be generally relevant;

conducted discussions with Metris and its advisors regarding their efforts on behalf of Metris to solicit indications of interest in a possible acquisition of all or part of Metris;

reviewed the merger agreement; and conducted other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered other information, as UBS deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with its review, with Metris consent, UBS did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information provided to or reviewed by UBS for the purpose of its opinion and, with Metris consent, relied on that information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, at Metris direction, UBS did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Metris, and was not furnished with any evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts and estimates referred to above, UBS assumed, at Metris direction, that they were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Metris management as to the future financial performance of Metris. With Metris consent, UBS relied, without independent verification or investigation, upon the assessments of Metris management and legal counsel as to matters relating to the Wells Notice recommending civil injunctive action against Metris and its officers by the SEC and assumed that such action and related matters would not have a material adverse effect on Metris or the merger. UBS opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and information made available to UBS as of, the date of its opinion.

At Metris direction, UBS was not asked to, and it did not, offer any opinion as to the terms of the merger agreement, the form of the merger or the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Metris outstanding preferred stock of the consideration to be received by those holders in connection with the merger. UBS was advised by representatives of Metris that the merger is expected to be consummated during the fourth quarter of 2005 and UBS assumed, with Metris consent, that in any event the merger would be consummated on or prior to March 31, 2006. UBS also assumed, with Metris consent, that each of Metris, HSBC Finance and HSBC Corporation I would comply with all material terms of the merger agreement and that the merger would be consummated in accordance with its terms without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement. UBS further assumed, with Metris consent, that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger would be obtained without any adverse effect on Metris or the merger. In connection with its engagement, UBS was not requested to, and it did not, participate in the negotiation or structuring of the merger, and UBS was not requested to, and it did not, solicit third party indications of interest in the acquisition of all or part of Metris. Except as described above, Metris imposed no other instructions or limitations on UBS with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by UBS in rendering its opinion.

In connection with rendering its opinion to the Metris board of directors, UBS performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses which are summarized below. The following summary is not a complete description of all analyses performed and factors considered by UBS in connection with its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. With respect to the selected public companies analysis and the selected precedent transactions analysis summarized below, no company or transaction used as a comparison is identical to Metris or the merger. These analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or acquisition values of the companies concerned.

UBS believes that its analyses and the summary below must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying UBS' analyses and opinion. None of the analyses performed by UBS was assigned greater significance or reliance by UBS than any other. UBS arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole. UBS did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis for purposes of its opinion.

The estimates of the future performance of Metris in or underlying UBS' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates. In performing its analyses, UBS considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Metris. Estimates of the financial value of companies do not necessarily purport to be appraisals or reflect the prices at which companies actually may be sold.

The merger consideration was determined through negotiation between Metris and HSBC Finance and the decision to enter into the merger was solely that of the Metris board of directors. UBS' opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by the Metris board of directors in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Metris board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration to be received by holders of Metris common stock.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial analyses performed by UBS in connection with its opinion relating to the proposed merger. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand UBS' financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of UBS' financial analyses.

Selected Public Companies Analysis

UBS compared selected financial and stock market data of Metris with corresponding data of the following five publicly traded companies in the credit card industry:

- MBNA Corporation
- Capital One Financial Corporation
- Provident Financial Corporation
- CompuCredit Corporation
- Advanta Corp.

UBS reviewed closing stock prices as multiples of calendar years 2005 and 2006 estimated earnings per share, commonly referred to as EPS, and book value per share and tangible book value per share as of June 30, 2005 (or March 31, 2005 in the case of CompuCredit). UBS also reviewed the premiums paid over tangible book value as a percentage of managed receivables as of June 30, 2005 (or March 31, 2005).

in the case of CompuCredit). UBS then compared these multiples and premium percentages derived from the selected companies with corresponding multiples and premium percentages implied in the merger for Metris based on the merger consideration utilizing both internal estimates of the management of Metris, referred to below as the management case, and publicly available research analysts' estimates, referred to below as the street case. The merger consideration was evaluated assuming the merger closed on or before December 9, 2005 and assuming the merger closed on March 31, 2006.

Multiples for the selected companies were based on closing stock prices on August 3, 2005, except for multiples for MBNA and Provident (each of which has publicly announced a pending merger transaction), which were based on MBNA's and Provident's respective closing stock prices five trading days prior to public announcement of their pending transactions as adjusted to reflect the average stock performance of the other selected companies and Metris following such public announcements. Financial data for the selected companies were based on IBES median EPS estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. EPS multiples for Metris in the management case were based on internal EPS estimates of Metris' management before payment of preferred stock dividends assuming conversion of Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock into Metris common stock. EPS multiples for Metris in the street case were based on IBES median EPS estimates, which reflected payment of accrued dividends with respect to Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock. Other multiples and premium percentages for Metris were based on publicly available information and the fully diluted number of shares of Metris common stock estimated by Metris management, calculated on a treasury stock method basis as of the relevant assumed closing date of the merger. Book value and tangible book value for Metris reflected Metris' total equity, including Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock.

This analysis indicated the following implied high, median and low multiples for the selected companies, as compared to corresponding multiples implied for Metris based on the merger consideration:

UBS reviewed purchase prices in two of the selected transactions for which information was publicly available (Bank of America Corporation/MBNA Corporation and Washington Mutual, Inc./Provident Financial Corporation transactions) as multiples of the target companies' calendar years 2005 and 2006 estimated EPS, and book value per share and tangible book value per share as of the most recent completed accounting period prior to public announcement of the relevant transaction. UBS also reviewed the premiums paid in each of the selected transactions over tangible book value as a percentage of managed receivables as of the most recent completed accounting period prior to public announcement of the relevant transaction. UBS then compared these multiples and premium percentages derived from the selected transactions with corresponding multiples and premium percentages implied in the merger for Metris based on the merger consideration utilizing both the management case and the street case, assuming the merger closed on or before December 9, 2005 and assuming the merger closed on March 31, 2006.

EPS multiples for Metris in the management case were based on internal EPS estimates of Metris' management before payment of preferred stock dividends assuming conversion of Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock into Metris common stock. EPS multiples for Metris in the street case were based on IBES median EPS estimates, which reflected payment of accrued dividends with respect to Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock. Other multiples and premium percentages for Metris were based on publicly available information and the fully-diluted number of shares of Metris common stock estimated by Metris management, calculated on a treasury stock method basis as of the relevant assumed closing date of the merger. Book value and tangible book value for Metris reflected Metris' total equity, including Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock.

This analysis indicated the following implied high, median and low multiples for the selected transactions, as compared to corresponding multiples implied for Metris based on the merger consideration:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Metris to calculate the estimated present value of the standalone cash flows that Metris could generate over calendar years 2006 through 2010. Estimated financial data for Metris were based on internal cash earnings estimates of Metris' management for calendar years 2005 through 2007, assuming conversion of Metris' outstanding convertible preferred stock, long-term earnings growth rate estimates of Metris' management for subsequent calendar years and assumptions provided to UBS by Metris' management described below. UBS calculated a range of terminal values for Metris by applying a range of terminal value multiples of 11.0x to 13.0x to Metris' fiscal year 2011 estimated cash earnings. The cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value using discount rates ranging from 16.0% to 20.0%. For purposes of this analysis, UBS utilized the following assumptions based on internal financial information and estimates from Metris management:

a managed asset growth rate of 5.0% per annum;

a target tangible equity/tangible managed assets ratio of 12.0%; and a pre-tax funding charge related to changes in capital of 9.5%.

This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for Metris, taking into account a 101% premium with respect to Metris outstanding convertible preferred stock and without giving effect to the dilutive impact on that implied equity reference range of the pay-in-kind dividends that would accrue on Metris outstanding convertible preferred stock after December 9, 2005, as compared to the merger consideration:

$5.44 - $6.58	$15.00	$14.82

Other Factors

In rendering its opinion, UBS also reviewed and considered other factors, including:

the premiums implied for Metris in the merger based on the merger consideration relative to the closing price of Metris common stock on August 3, 2005, the high and low closing prices of Metris common stock over the 52-week period ended August 3, 2005, and Metris managed receivables as of June 30, 2005;

the relative historical financial and stock price performance, and next 12 months EPS trading multiples, of Metris and the selected companies referred to under Selected Public Companies Analysis; and the historical price performance of Metris common stock over various periods ended August 3, 2005.

Miscellaneous

Under the terms of its engagement, Metris has agreed to pay UBS customary fees for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger, a portion of which was payable in connection with the opinion and a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. In addition, Metris has agreed to reimburse UBS for its reasonable expenses, including fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel, and to indemnify UBS and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under federal securities laws, relating to, or arising out of, its engagement. UBS and its affiliates in the past have provided, and currently are providing, services to HSBC Finance and its affiliates unrelated to the proposed merger, for which services UBS and its affiliates have received and expect to receive customary compensation. In addition, an affiliate of UBS currently is a lender under an existing credit facility of HSBC Finance, for which services such affiliate has received and will receive customary compensation. In the ordinary course of business, UBS, its successors and affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and accounts of customers, securities of HSBC Finance and Metris and affiliates of HSBC Finance and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Metris selected UBS as its financial advisor in connection with the merger because UBS is an internationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in similar transactions. UBS is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements.

Interests of Metris Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Metris board of directors with respect to the merger agreement, Metris stockholders should be aware that some of Metris directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Metris stockholders generally. The Metris board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Metris stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Ownership of Series C Preferred Stock

Directors Thomas H. Lee, David V. Harkins, C. Hunter Boll and Thomas M. Hagerty beneficially own shares of Series C preferred stock. The amount of the consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of the Series C preferred stock on an as converted basis is different from the amount of the consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of Metris common stock. See The Merger Agreement Consideration to be Received in the Merger and Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management.

Equity Compensation Awards

The merger agreement provides that each option to purchase Metris common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether or not exercisable, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the product of the consideration to be received by the common stockholders per share of common stock in the merger and the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to such stock option over (ii) the product of the exercise price per share with respect to each share of Metris common stock subject to such stock option and the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to such stock option. The merger agreement further provides that each right to be issued shares of Metris common stock pursuant to a restricted stock unit agreement that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether then vested or unvested, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the consideration to be received by the common stockholders per share of common stock in the merger multiplied by the number of shares of common stock subject to issuance upon settlement of that restricted stock unit agreement. Finally, the merger agreement provides that Metris will amend the terms of any existing restricted stock agreements that do not provide for acceleration of termination of restrictions in connection with the merger such that all such restrictions will terminate as of the effective time of the merger, at which point the restricted shares will be treated like any other shares of Metris common stock. Based on the equity compensation awards held by executive officers and directors of Metris as of November 4, 2005 and assuming a closing date of December 1, 2005, upon completion of the merger, Messrs. Wesselink, Houlihan, Evans, Melius and Piteleski and the remaining 13 executive officers and directors of Metris, as a group, would, as a result of these provisions, receive payments in respect of 87,644, 0, 70,529, 60,058, 62,167 and 51,831 shares, respectively, subject to in-the-money stock options that would not otherwise have been exercisable,

150,000, 100,267, 63,800, 66,500, 54,300 and 85,200 shares, respectively, subject to restricted stock unit agreement awards that would not otherwise have vested and

0, 0, 0, 0, 0 and 25,000 restricted shares, respectively, that would not otherwise have vested.

No payments will be made with respect to any out-of-the-money stock options.

Change of Control Severance Agreements and Key Employee Severance Protection Agreements

Metris is currently party to change of control severance agreements with 12 key employees, including Messrs. Wesselink, Houlihan, Evans, Melius and Piteleski. These agreements will remain in effect after the merger unless amended or replaced by mutual agreement. Each agreement provides that, while employed during the two-year period after a change of control, which as defined in these agreements includes approval by the stockholders of the merger, the covered employee will be paid an annual salary at least equal to 12 times that employee's highest monthly base salary paid during the 12-month period prior to the change of control. In addition, the covered employee will be entitled to participate in all incentive compensation, retirement and welfare plans applicable to peer executives at Metris during that period, but in no event shall those incentive compensation, retirement and welfare plans be on terms less favorable in the aggregate to the employee than the most favorable terms provided to the employee under plans in effect at any time during the 90 day period prior to the change of control.

In addition, each agreement provides for severance payments if, during the two-year period following the change of control, Metris terminates the employment of the covered employee other than for death, disability or cause, or if during that period the employee terminates his or her employment for good reason, as defined in the severance agreement. The severance payments include the following:

- an amount equal to the covered employee's base salary and accrued vacation through the applicable termination date;

- a lump-sum payment in cash equal to either one or two times the sum of the covered employee's base salary plus the highest annual bonus paid to that employee during the two years immediately preceding the fiscal year in which the merger becomes effective;

- a cash payment equal to a pro rata share of the covered employee's bonus for the year of termination based on the highest annual bonus paid to that employee during the two years immediately preceding the fiscal year in which the merger becomes effective;

- all deferred amounts under the supplemental executive retirement plan described below, together with accrued but unpaid earnings thereon; and

- an amount equal to fees and costs charged by an outplacement firm.

Metris has also agreed in these agreements, for the period following the covered employee's termination date until the first anniversary of such date, to continue to provide to the employee certain welfare benefits, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, disability, and individual life and travel accident insurance. In the event that any of the covered employees becomes subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, which is referred to in this proxy statement as the Code, these agreements also generally provide for an additional payment to the executive such that the covered employee will be placed in the same after-tax position as if no such excise tax had been imposed.

Metris is also currently party to key employee severance protection agreements with 11 key employees, including one executive officer. These agreements will remain in effect after the merger. Each agreement provides that the covered employee be guaranteed a minimum severance benefit if Metris terminates his or her employment within a 12-month period following a change of control, which as defined in these agreements includes approval by the stockholders of the merger. Metris will make the following guaranteed minimum severance benefits if the employee is terminated without cause during that period:

- payment of all accrued obligations in a lump sum within seven days of termination;

- payment in a lump sum to an independent third-party trustee of an amount equal to one year of the employee's salary, which the trustee will then pay to the employee on a bi-weekly basis in 26 installments;

payment in a lump sum of an amount equal to one year of COBRA insurance premiums, less the amount of premiums charged by Metris to active employees; and outplacement services provided by a firm designated by Metris for the 12-month period following the employee's termination.

Assuming a closing date of December 1, 2005 and that all the relevant executive officers experience qualifying terminations of employment immediately thereafter, the amount of cash severance (based upon current base salaries and recent bonus amounts but excluding excise tax gross-ups) that would be payable to each of Messrs. Wesselink, Houlihan, Evans, Melius and Piteleski and the remaining three executive officers of Metris as a group (including the executive officer who is party to one of Metris' Key Employee Severance Protection Agreements) would be $3,571,250, $1,420,000, $1,570,454, $1,653,244, $1,349,048 and $1,332,929, respectively.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

Metris has in place a supplemental executive retirement plan, which we refer to as the SERP, that covers Metris officers and other senior management employees who are selected for participation by the compensation committee and the CEO. The SERP is an account balance plan under which participants' accounts are credited with amounts that are targeted to provide a specified benefit at retirement. This target is either 60% (for the CEO and executive vice presidents) or 40% (for senior vice presidents) of the average of the participant's final three years of salary and bonus. Under the SERP, Metris will pay as a benefit to a participant who is vested the amount of his or her vested account. In general, a participant is vested if his or her employment relationship with Metris is completely severed either after attaining age 65 or after completing five years of plan participation and attaining the age of 55 or greater while employed. Upon a change in control of Metris, which as defined under the SERP includes approval by the stockholders of the merger, the SERP provides for crediting accounts of participants under age 55 to the present value of the projected age 55 benefit and full vesting of all SERP accounts. In addition, the merger agreement provides that participants in the SERP who are age 55 or older will receive a pro-rata credit to their SERP accounts at the effective time of the merger based on the expected annual contribution for 2005. In addition, the SERP provides that, in the event that any acceleration in vesting causes the participant to be subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, the participant is entitled to an additional payment equal to the excise taxes owed on the payments under the SERP. Assuming a closing date of December 1, 2005, upon completion of the merger, credits (excluding any excise tax gross-ups) of $1,305,210, $954,346, $275,131, $1,356,460, $200,767 and $1,318,416, respectively, will be made to the SERP accounts of Messrs. Wesselink, Houlihan, Evans, Melius and Piteleski and the remaining three executive officers of Metris, as a group.

Management Stock Purchase Plan

Metris has in place a management stock purchase plan, which we refer to as the MSPP, which allows a participant to defer up to 50% of his or her annual bonus. Any employee whose job title is senior vice president or higher and who participates in the management incentive bonus plan is eligible to participate in the MSPP. Amounts deferred under the MSPP are credited to a stock purchase account as restricted stock units representing unissued shares of common stock. The price of the restricted stock units is the closing price of the common stock on the date the deferral was made. Metris also matches the deferred amount at a rate equal to $1 for every $3 deferred by the participant. The participant's deferral is immediately vested and the match vests on the third anniversary of the last day of the performance year for which the bonus was paid if the participant is then employed by Metris. The deferred account is paid out in shares of Metris common stock as of a date selected by the participant, which can be no earlier than the third anniversary of the last day of the bonus year. Metris has agreed that it will not, while the merger agreement is in effect, settle any accounts under the MSPP by issuance of shares. The Metris board of directors has suspended and intends to amend the MSPP to provide that all match amounts will vest at the effective time of the merger and each participant in the MSPP will receive a cash payment in an amount equal to the number of shares of common stock then credited to that participant under the MSPP multiplied by the consideration to be received by the common stockholders in the merger. Assuming a closing date of December 1, 2005, upon completion of the merger Messrs. Wesselink,

Table of Contents

Houlihan, Evans, Melius and Piteleski and the remaining executive officers and directors of Metris, as a group, will receive cash payments of $88,327, $0, $29,422, $8,333, $21,398 and $33,080, respectively; none of these payments will be as the result of the vesting of match amounts.

Indemnification and Insurance

HSBC Finance has agreed that it and the surviving corporation will, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, each director, officer, employee or agent of Metris or any of its subsidiaries and each person who is or was serving at the request of Metris or any of its subsidiaries as a director, officer, employee or agent of another person to the same extent those persons were indemnified or had the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of the merger agreement pursuant to Metris certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The merger agreement provides that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, these indemnification and advancement of expenses obligations will be limited to a period of six years from and after the effective time. The merger agreement also provides that, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors and officers liability insurance maintained by Metris (provided that the surviving corporation may substitute policies which are no less advantageous to the insured), subject to specified cost limitations.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a discussion of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock. The discussion is based upon the Code, Treasury regulations, IRS rulings and judicial and administrative decisions in effect as of the date of this proxy statement, all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) or to different interpretations. The following discussion is for general information purposes only and does not address Metris stockholders who are subject to special treatment under federal income tax laws, such as insurance companies, financial institutions, dealers in securities, tax-exempt organizations, S corporations and taxpayers subject to the alternative minimum tax. In addition, the following discussion does not address the tax consequences to stockholders who acquired their shares of Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock upon the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation for services or who hold their shares as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction.

This discussion only applies to a Metris stockholder that holds its Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock as a capital asset at the time of the merger and that is a citizen or resident of the U.S., a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any political subdivision thereof (including the District of Columbia), an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, or a trust if either (a) a court within the U.S. is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of that trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) the trust has a valid election in effect to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership holds Metris stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A holder of Metris stock that is a partner of a partnership should consult its own tax advisor.

The following discussion does not address potential foreign, state, local and other tax consequences of the merger. All stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the federal income tax consequences, as well as the foreign, state and local tax consequences, of the disposition of their shares in the merger.

General

The merger will constitute a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result, a holder of Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock will generally recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in the merger and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock surrendered in the merger. Except as discussed below, such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss if the Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock is held as a capital asset (within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code) as of the effective time of the merger and will be a long-term capital gain or loss if the stockholder's holding period is more than one year.

Even if a Metris stockholder would otherwise recognize capital gains with respect to the merger, to the extent that cash is considered to be received in exchange for services or property (other than solely for Metris common stock and/or Series C preferred stock), such stockholder could be required to recognize ordinary income.

Appraisal Rights

Under specified circumstances, Metris stockholders may be entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. See Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal. If appraisal rights are available and a Metris stockholder receives cash pursuant to the exercise of these rights, that stockholder will generally recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the cash received and that stockholder's adjusted tax basis in its Metris stock. Metris stockholders who exercise appraisal rights are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

Backup Withholding

A stockholder (other than certain exempt stockholders, including corporations and certain foreign persons and entities) may be subject to backup withholding on cash paid pursuant to the merger or exercise of appraisal rights, unless such stockholder provides its correct taxpayer identification number, referred to as a TIN, or certifies that it is awaiting a TIN, and certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding by completing substitute IRS Form W-9 included in the letter of transmittal, and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A stockholder who fails to furnish a TIN may be subject to tax penalties, and the gross proceeds of the merger (or cash payable pursuant to exercise of appraisal rights) payable to such stockholders may be subject to backup withholding at a 28% rate. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of the backup withholding can be credited against the federal income tax liability of such stockholder, and a refund may be obtained by the stockholder if backup withholding results in an overpayment of tax. A stockholder may also be subject to certain information reporting requirements.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for by the use of the purchase method of accounting, in accordance with International Accounting Standards. This means that HSBC Finance will record as goodwill the excess of the purchase price of Metris over the fair value of Metris' identifiable assets, including intangible assets, and liabilities.

Required Regulatory Approvals

Metris and HSBC Finance have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals and consents and provide all necessary notices to regulatory authorities required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The regulatory authorities from whom these required approvals and consents must be obtained and to whom notice must be provided include the OCC, the Florida Department of Financial Services, the Minnesota Department of Commerce and the Bermuda Monetary Authority.

Bank Merger Approval

The bank merger is subject to the approval of the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. In assessing whether to approve the bank merger, the OCC is required to consider the competitive effect of the contemplated transaction, the managerial and financial resources and future prospects of the resulting institution, and the effect of the bank merger on the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, also requires that the OCC, in deciding whether to approve the bank merger, assess the records of performance of HSBC Bank Nevada, N.A. in meeting the credit needs of the communities it serves, including low and moderate income neighborhoods. As part of the review process under the Community Reinvestment Act, it is not unusual for the OCC to receive protests and other adverse comments from community groups and others. The regulations of the OCC require publication of notice of, and an opportunity for public comment with respect to, the application filed in connection with the bank merger.

The OCC gave its approval for the bank merger on November 3, 2005.

Notice of the Bank Merger Act filing has also been provided to the Superintendent of the Arizona Banking Department.

Other Requisite Regulatory Approvals, Consents and Notices

The change in control of Metris subsidiaries that engage in insurance and warranty services activities require the approval or consent of, or provision of notice to, various regulatory authorities, including the Florida Department of Financial Services, the Minnesota Department of Commerce and the Bermuda Monetary Authority.

At any time before the merger and the bank merger are consummated, the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice, the Federal Trade Commission, referred to as the FTC, or any state could take action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary. Private parties may also bring actions under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances. Although HSBC Finance and Metris believe that neither the merger nor the bank merger will have any anticompetitive effects under the antitrust laws, there can be no assurances that a challenge to the merger or the bank merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if a challenge is made, that it will not be successful. Whether or not the merger or the bank merger is ultimately challenged by the FTC or the antitrust division, the institution of an investigation of the merger or the bank merger by the FTC or the antitrust division could delay the closing of the merger.

Metris and HSBC Finance have made all regulatory filings required to date and currently anticipate that they will obtain the required regulatory approvals prior to the date of the special meeting. However, neither Metris nor HSBC Finance can provide assurances that all of the regulatory approvals and consents described above will be obtained, and if obtained, no assurance can be given as to the date of any approval or consent or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals. Neither Metris nor HSBC Finance is aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger or the bank merger other than those described in this proxy statement. If any such additional approvals or actions are required, it is currently contemplated that they will be sought; however, there can be no assurances that they will be obtained.

SEC Investigation

On July 12, 2005, Metris announced that it had received a Wells Notice from the staff of the Midwest Regional Office of the SEC in connection with its investigation concerning Metris reporting and treatment of its allowance for loan losses for 2001, its valuation of Retained interests in loans securitized and other matters. That investigation was first disclosed by Metris in August 2003. The staff has subsequently informed Metris that it is the intention of the staff not to recommend that the SEC bring an enforcement action against Metris with respect to this investigation. The staff's recommendation is subject to review and final action by the SEC, and there can be no assurance that the SEC will follow the staff's recommendation.

The resolution as to Metris and its subsidiaries of the matters referred to in the Wells Notice on the terms specified in the merger agreement is a condition to HSBC Finance's obligation to complete the merger. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger Conditions to the Obligation of HSBC Finance and HSBC Corporation I. Metris cannot provide assurances that the required resolution, which has not been reached to date, will be reached in a timely fashion or at all.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This section describes the material terms of the merger agreement. The description in this section is not complete. You should read the merger agreement, and the other information that is incorporated by reference in this proxy statement, carefully and in its entirety for a more complete understanding of the merger. The complete text of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties of both Metris and HSBC Finance. These representations and warranties were made as of specific dates, may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by Metris and HSBC Finance in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement, and may have been included in the merger agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between Metris and HSBC Finance rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the merger agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses. The merger agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the companies and the merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement, as well as in the filings that Metris and HSBC Finance make with the SEC.

Structure of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the merger, HSBC Corporation I will merge with and into Metris. Metris will be the surviving entity in the merger and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance. Immediately following the merger, Metris's subsidiary, Direct Merchants Credit Card Bank, National Association, will merge with and into HSBC Bank Nevada, N.A. HSBC Bank Nevada, N.A. will be the surviving entity in the bank merger and will remain a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC Finance.

The certificate of incorporation of Metris will be the certificate of incorporation of the combined company immediately after completion of the merger, and the bylaws of HSBC Corporation I will be the bylaws of the combined company immediately after completion of the merger.

The directors of HSBC Corporation I immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the directors of the surviving corporation immediately following the merger. The officers of the surviving corporation will be elected by the directors of the surviving corporation as of the effective time of the merger.

Effective Time and Timing of Closing

The merger agreement provides that the merger will be completed on the second business day after the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions in the merger agreement, unless another time or date is agreed to in writing by the parties to the merger agreement.

The merger will become effective when a certificate of merger is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at a later time if so specified in the certificate of merger. Although Metris and HSBC Finance expect to complete the merger by the end of the fourth quarter of 2005, the merger is subject to receipt of stockholder and regulatory approvals and other conditions. Metris cannot predict the exact time of the merger's completion.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

If the merger is completed on or before December 9, 2005, each share of Metris common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger, other than certain specified shares held by Metris and HSBC Finance and shares held by stockholders exercising dissenters' rights, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $15.00 in cash, and all of the shares of Metris Series C preferred stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive in the aggregate $682,561,140 in cash.

If the merger is completed after December 9, 2005, the per share consideration to be paid to the common stockholders in the merger will decrease incrementally based on the pay-in-kind dividends that accumulate daily thereafter on the Series C preferred stock, in accordance with its terms, and the aggregate consideration to be paid for all of the shares of Series C preferred stock will undergo a corresponding increase, as set forth in Annex 2.1 to the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A.

Regardless of when the merger occurs, holders of the Series C preferred stock will receive an amount equal to 101% of the aggregate merger consideration that they would have received had they converted all of their Series C preferred stock into common stock immediately prior to the merger, which is the same amount Metris would pay to redeem the Series C preferred stock pursuant to the change in control provisions of the Series C preferred stock terms. This amount will be $15.15 for each share of common stock into which the Series C preferred stock is convertible if the merger occurs on or before December 9, 2005. Thereafter, as a result of the pay-in-kind dividend accruing daily on the Series C preferred stock, the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the Series C preferred stock (which remains constant through December 9, 2005) will increase, causing the aggregate amount of consideration payable to the Series C preferred stock to increase, although the consideration per as converted share will decrease.

At the time the merger becomes effective, each issued and outstanding share of HSBC Corporation I common stock will be converted into one share of common stock of the surviving corporation and will constitute the only shares of capital stock of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately after the effective time of the merger.

Treatment of Stock Options and Stock Units

As of the effective time of the merger, each outstanding option to acquire Metris common stock granted under Metris' stock incentive plans, whether or not exercisable, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the product of the price per share paid for each share of common stock and the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to such stock option over (ii) the product of the exercise price per share with respect to each share of Metris common stock subject to such stock option and the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to such stock option. The lump sum cash payment will be made less any applicable withholding tax at the effective time of the merger. If the exercise price per share of any such stock option is equal to or greater than the price per share paid for each share of common stock, such stock option will be cancelled without any cash payment.

Prior to the closing of the merger, Metris, in consultation with HSBC Finance, will take or cause to be taken any and all actions reasonably necessary to give effect to such treatment of Metris stock options to the extent such treatment is not expressly provided for by the terms of the applicable Metris stock plan and related award agreements, including using reasonable best efforts to obtain any necessary consent of the holder of any option.

Each right to be issued shares of Metris common stock pursuant to a Metris restricted stock unit agreement that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of (i) the price per share paid for each share of common stock and (ii) the number of shares of Metris common stock subject to issuance upon settlement of such restricted stock unit agreement. These payments will be made at the effective time of the merger.

Prior to the closing of the merger, Metris, in consultation with HSBC Finance, will take or cause to be taken any and all actions reasonably necessary to give effect to such treatment of Metris restricted stock unit agreements, including using reasonable best efforts to obtain any necessary consent of the holder of any restricted stock unit agreement, to the extent such treatment is not expressly provided for by the terms of the applicable Metris stock plan and related restricted stock unit agreements.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of Metris capital stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. HSBC Finance has appointed Computershare Trust Company of New York as paying agent for the benefit of holders of Metris common stock that are not dissenting shares. The paying agent will exchange certificates for the merger consideration and perform such other duties as are defined in the merger agreement. As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, HSBC Finance or the paying agent will mail to each former holder of record of Metris common stock a letter of transmittal with instructions on how to exchange Metris common stock certificates for the cash merger consideration.

Upon the surrender to the paying agent of a certificate held by any holder of Metris common stock, together with a letter of transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with its instructions, the paying agent will cause the cash consideration payable to each holder of Metris common stock to be mailed to such holder.

Holders of Metris common stock should not submit their Metris stock certificates for exchange until they receive the transmittal instructions and a form of letter of transmittal from HSBC Finance or the paying agent. If certificates for Metris stock have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the claimant of such certificates will have to prove ownership of those certificates and that they were lost, stolen or destroyed before receiving any consideration for the shares represented by such certificates. In such case, HSBC Finance or the paying agent may also require the posting of a bond. HSBC Finance or the paying agent will send you instructions on how to provide such evidence and bond, if required. After the completion of the merger, there will be no further transfers of Metris capital stock, and Metris stock certificates presented for transfer after the completion of the merger will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration. If payment is to be made to a person other than the registered holder of the shares of Metris common stock, the certificate surrendered must be properly endorsed or in proper form for transfer and any transfer or similar taxes must be paid by the person requesting the transfer or that person must establish to HSBC Finance's satisfaction that such tax is not applicable.

Holders of Metris common stock who have not returned a completed letter of transmittal and their Metris stock certificates to the paying agent within six months after the effective time of the merger may be required to look to HSBC Finance for payment of the cash merger consideration.

Immediately following the effective time of the merger and upon surrender to HSBC Finance of the certificates representing all shares of Metris Series C preferred stock, HSBC Finance will pay to the holders of the Metris Series C preferred stock, by wire transfer, that amount of cash constituting the merger consideration to which those holders are entitled.

All surrendered Metris stock certificates will be cancelled.

HSBC Finance, the surviving corporation or the paying agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash consideration payable to any Metris stockholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If HSBC Finance, the surviving corporation or the paying agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the stockholders from whom they were withheld.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains a number of customary representations and warranties made by both Metris and HSBC Finance relating to themselves and their respective subsidiaries. These representations and warranties were made as of specific dates, may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by Metris and HSBC Finance in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement, and may have been included in the merger agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between Metris and HSBC Finance rather than establishing matters as facts.

With the exception of certain representations that must be true and correct in all material respects as of the closing date (or, in the case of specific representations and warranties regarding the capitalization of Metris and its subsidiaries, true and correct except to a de minimis extent or, in the case of specific representations and warranties regarding ownership of Metris' capital stock by HSBC Finance and its affiliates and associates, true and correct in all respects), the parties have agreed that no representation or warranty will be deemed untrue or incorrect as of the closing date as a consequence of the existence or absence of any fact, circumstance or event unless that fact, circumstance or event, individually or when taken together with all other facts, circumstances or events, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the company making the representation and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

As used in the merger agreement, (i) any reference to any event, change or effect being material with respect to any entity means an event, change or effect which is material in relation to the business, assets, liabilities, capitalization, financial condition or results of operations of that entity and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; and (ii) the term material adverse effect means, with respect to any entity, an effect which (A) is materially adverse to the business, assets, liabilities, capitalization, financial condition or results of operations of that entity and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or (B) materially impairs the ability of that entity to perform its obligations under the merger agreement.

In determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred or would reasonably be expected to occur with respect to either party, the parties will disregard any effects caused by or resulting from (1) changes after August 4, 2005 in prevailing interest rates, currency exchange rates or other economic or monetary conditions in the United States, (2) changes after August 4, 2005 in United States securities markets, including changes in price levels or trading volumes, (3) changes or events after August 4, 2005 affecting the credit card industry, the consumer finance industry, and/or financial services industry generally and not specifically relating to that party or any of its subsidiaries, (4) changes after August 4, 2005 in generally accepted accounting principles or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to companies operating in the United States credit card industry, the United States consumer finance industry and/or the United States financial services industry generally, (5) changes after August 4, 2005 in laws, rules or regulations of general applicability, or their interpretations by courts or governmental entities, (6) the execution and delivery of the merger agreement or the completion or public disclosure of the merger, or (7) any outbreak of major hostilities in which the United States is involved or any act of terrorism within the United States or directed against its facilities or citizens, except to the extent that such changes described in clauses (1), (2), (4), (5) and (7) have a disproportionate adverse effect (other than a disproportionate adverse effect where the disproportion is de minimis) on such party. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement also contains a covenant that until the effective time of the merger, Metris and its subsidiaries will use commercially reasonable efforts to (a) obtain notice from the Staff of the SEC that it will not recommend that charges be brought against Metris and its subsidiaries with respect to the allegations against Metris set forth in the Wells Notices dated as of July 12, 2005 with respect to Metris and one or more of its subsidiaries, and (b) in the event such a notice is not obtained by September 30, 2005 and is not reasonably likely to be obtained in Metris' good faith determination after consultation with its outside legal counsel, obtain a final court or administrative order as to Metris and its subsidiaries with respect to the SEC's investigation. Metris will use commercially reasonable efforts to confer and consult on a regular basis with HSBC Finance with respect to the investigation, to keep HSBC Finance apprised of the status of the investigation, and to promptly advise HSBC Finance of any material event, change, circumstance or development relating to or arising from the investigation.

The merger agreement also contains mutual agreements relating to the preparation of this document, access to information of the other company, confidentiality of certain information, and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Stockholder Approval and Duty to Recommend

Metris has agreed to hold a meeting (the special meeting to which this proxy statement relates) of its stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable for the purpose of obtaining stockholder approval of the merger. Metris will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain such approval. The merger agreement requires Metris to submit the merger agreement to a stockholder vote even if its board of directors no longer recommends approval of the merger agreement, unless the merger agreement has been terminated. The Metris board of directors has recommended that stockholders of Metris vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, but has the power to withdraw or modify its recommendation if it determines in good faith after consultation with its outside legal counsel that its fiduciary duties require it to do so.

No Solicitation

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Metris has agreed, subject to limited exceptions, that it will not, nor will it permit any of its officers and directors or its subsidiaries to, and that it will use best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposals or offers with respect to, or a transaction to effect, an Acquisition Proposal (as defined below);

have any discussions with or provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal; or approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal.

However, prior to the stockholder meeting held for the purpose of obtaining the requisite stockholder approval of the merger agreement, the Metris board of directors may consider and engage in discussions and negotiations with, or provide nonpublic information or data to, any person with respect to an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal if (1) it has first entered into a customary confidentiality agreement with the party proposing the Acquisition Proposal, and (2) the Metris board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with a nationally recognized financial advisor and legal counsel, that the Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined below), if and to the extent that the Metris board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel that its fiduciary obligations require it to do so.

The merger agreement defines an Acquisition Proposal to include any proposal or offer with respect to, or a transaction to effect, a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Metris or any of its subsidiaries, except for transactions otherwise permitted under the merger agreement, or any purchase or sale of 10% or more of the consolidated assets of Metris and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, its voting securities that, if consummated, would result in any entity or the stockholders or equity holders of such entity beneficially owning securities representing 10% or more of its total voting power (or of the surviving parent entity in such transaction) or any of its subsidiaries. A Superior Proposal is defined as a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal which the Metris board of directors concludes in good faith (after consultation with its legal advisors and a nationally recognized financial advisor) (i) is more favorable to the stockholders of Metris, from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and the merger agreement, and (ii) is fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed, reasonably likely to receive all required approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed. For purposes of the definition of Superior Proposal, the term Acquisition Proposal has the meaning provided in this paragraph except that the reference to 10% or more will be deemed to be a reference to a majority.

Metris has agreed to notify HSBC Finance promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after it receives any Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information relating to Metris or any of its subsidiaries by any person that informs Metris or any of its subsidiaries that it is considering making or has made an Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry from any person seeking to have discussions or negotiations with Metris relating to a possible Acquisition Proposal. The notice must be made orally and confirmed in writing and identify the person making the Acquisition Proposal, inquiry or request and the material terms and conditions, if any, of the inquiries, proposals or offers. Metris has also agreed to notify HSBC Finance promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after it enters into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal or provides nonpublic information or data to any person regarding an Acquisition Proposal. The notice must be made orally and in writing.

At any time prior to obtaining the required stockholder vote approving the merger, the Metris board of directors may, in response to a Superior Proposal, vote to terminate the merger agreement and concurrently or promptly thereafter enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, but Metris may not exercise this right until the third business day following HSBC Finance's receipt of written notice from Metris advising HSBC Finance that the Metris board of directors has received a Superior Proposal specifying the terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal, identifying the person making the Superior Proposal, and stating that the Metris board of directors intends to exercise its right to terminate the merger agreement.

Metris has also agreed to, and agreed to cause its subsidiaries and its and their officers, directors, agents, representatives and advisors to, cease immediately and terminate any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third parties conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement with respect to any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal.

Employee Matters

HSBC Finance has agreed to provide the following, among other things, with respect to the employees of Metris and its subsidiaries who are employed at the effective time of the merger:

for a period of six months following the effective time of the merger, HSBC Finance or the surviving corporation will provide annual base compensation, incentive compensation (other than equity based compensation), and employee benefit plans and benefit arrangements (other than equity based compensation) that are, in the aggregate, at least as favorable as those in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger;

any such employee whose employment is terminated without cause within twelve months following the effective time who is not otherwise covered by an individual agreement with respect to severance will be eligible to receive severance under Metris's severance pay plan as in effect on March 31, 2005;

HSBC Finance will provide credit under any welfare plan for any co-payments, deductibles and offsets made during the plan year for purposes of satisfying any applicable deductible, out-of-pocket or similar requirements under any HSBC Finance benefit plan in which they are eligible to participate during the plan year including the effective time; and for such employees who are covered by Metris benefit plans providing life insurance and disability coverage immediately prior to the effective time, HSBC Finance or the surviving corporation will continue the life insurance and disability coverage for at least six months following the effective time.

No provision of the merger agreement will obligate HSBC Finance, Metris or any of their affiliates to continue the employment of any employee for any period following the effective time or to refrain from revising the terms of any employee's employment or transferring any employees, nor will it prevent those entities from amending or terminating any benefit plan or other arrangement for the compensation and benefit of employees.

Fees and Expenses

In general, if the merger is not completed, all expenses incurred by a party in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring the expense. However, the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this document, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger, will be borne equally by HSBC Finance and Metris. If the merger is completed, the surviving corporation will pay all then unpaid costs and expenses incurred by Metris in connection with the merger agreement.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, HSBC Finance will indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers, directors, employees and agents of Metris and its subsidiaries in their capacities as such against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities, judgments or amounts paid in settlement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of the merger agreement by Metris pursuant to Metris' certificate of incorporation or bylaws. The merger agreement provides that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, these indemnification and advancement of expenses obligations will be limited to a period of six years from and after the effective time.

The merger agreement also provides that HSBC Finance will maintain for a period of six years after completion of the merger Metris' current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous than the current policies, with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, except that HSBC Finance is not required to incur annual premium expenses greater than 300% of Metris' insurance premium as of August 4, 2005.

In addition, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to the elimination of liability of directors and the indemnification of directors, officers, employees or agents than those set forth in Metris current certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

Termination and Effects of Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to completion of the merger by action taken or authorized by the board of directors of the terminating party or parties, under the circumstances described below even if the stockholders of Metris have approved the merger agreement:

by the mutual written consent of HSBC Finance and HSBC Corporation I and Metris;

by either HSBC Finance or Metris, upon written notice to the other party, if any of the required regulatory approvals are denied (and the denial is final and nonappealable), or if any governmental entity with authority to do so has acted to permanently restrain, enjoin or otherwise prohibit the merger and such action has become final and nonappealable, unless the terminating party's failure to comply with the merger agreement has caused or resulted in the denial or action;

by either HSBC Finance or Metris, upon written notice to the other party, if the merger has not been completed on or before March 31, 2006, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date is due to the terminating party's failure to comply with the merger agreement;

by either HSBC Finance or Metris, if the required vote of the Metris stockholders has not been obtained upon a vote taken on the merger agreement at a duly convened meeting of Metris stockholders;

by either HSBC Finance and HSBC Corporation I on the one hand or Metris on the other hand, upon written notice to the other party, if there is a breach by the other party that would cause the failure of a condition to the terminating party's obligation to complete the merger, unless the breach is capable of being, and is, cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice of the breach;

by HSBC Finance, upon written notice to Metris, if Metris has failed to recommend adoption of the merger agreement to the stockholders of Metris at the stockholders meeting held for the purpose of approving the merger agreement, or has withdrawn, modified or qualified in any manner adverse to HSBC Finance such recommendation, or has materially breached its obligations under the merger agreement by reason of a failure to call the stockholders meeting;

by HSBC Finance, upon written notice to Metris, if the stockholder agreement entered into among HSBC and the stockholders of Metris has been breached in any material manner by any stockholder that is a party to such stockholder agreement; or by Metris, upon written notice to HSBC Finance, if the Metris board of directors has changed its recommendation of the transaction in favor of a Superior Proposal and Metris has otherwise fulfilled its obligations with regard to such Superior Proposal.

If the merger agreement is terminated by either Metris or HSBC Finance, it will become void and there will be no liability or obligation on the part of Metris or HSBC Finance, except that designated provisions of the merger agreement, including the confidential treatment of information and the payment of fees and expenses, will survive the termination, and except that no party will be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful and material breach of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee

Metris must pay to HSBC Finance, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, a cash termination fee of $57.4 million if:

the merger agreement is terminated by HSBC Finance because the Metris board of directors fails to recommend stockholder approval of the merger agreement, withdraws its recommendation to approve the merger agreement, or modifies or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to the interests of HSBC Finance, and within twelve months after the date of such termination Metris or any of its subsidiaries consummates an acquisition transaction, as defined in the merger agreement; or the merger agreement is terminated by Metris if the Metris board of directors has changed its recommendation of the transaction in favor of a Superior Proposal and Metris has otherwise fulfilled its obligations with regard to such Superior Proposal, and within twelve months after the date of such termination Metris or any of its subsidiaries consummates an acquisition transaction.

Amendment and Waiver

Before the merger, the parties to the merger agreement may, to the extent legally allowed, extend the time for performance of any obligations or other acts of the other party to the merger agreement, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties, and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions in the merger agreement. Any agreement to any such extension or waiver must be in a written document signed by that party.

THE STOCKHOLDER AGREEMENT

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, and as a condition to the willingness of HSBC Finance to enter into the merger agreement, the holders of the Series C preferred stock entered into a stockholder agreement with HSBC Finance. These stockholders own approximately 43.5% of the voting power of the capital stock of Metris entitled to vote at the special meeting. The following describes the material terms of the stockholder agreement. The description in this section is not complete. You should read the stockholder agreement in its entirety for a more complete understanding of its terms. A copy of the stockholder agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B and is incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

Pursuant to the stockholder agreement, these Metris stockholders have agreed to vote (or cause to be voted) their shares of Metris capital stock (1) in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, and (2) against approval of any Acquisition Proposal, as described above under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation. In addition, the stockholders have irrevocably and unconditionally waived any rights of appraisal, dissenters' rights and any similar rights relating to the merger that they may have by virtue of their ownership of Metris capital stock.

The stockholder agreement includes an irrevocable proxy granted to HSBC Finance, and any individual designated by HSBC Finance in writing, to enable HSBC Finance to direct the voting of all such shares in the foregoing manner. HSBC Finance did not pay additional consideration to any of the holders of the Series C preferred stock to induce them to enter into the stockholder agreement.

Each of the stockholders party to the stockholder agreement has agreed that it will not sell, assign, transfer, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of the shares subject to the stockholder agreement during the term of the stockholder agreement. In addition, these stockholders agree that they will not deposit their Metris shares into a voting trust, grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect to those shares that conflicts with the stockholder agreement, or enter into any other arrangement with respect to the disposition of any of those shares (except for transfers by gift or donation where the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of the stockholder agreement).

The stockholder agreement will terminate on the earlier to occur of:

the effective time of the merger; and any termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS OF APPRAISAL

Under Delaware law, if you do not wish to accept the cash payment provided for in the merger agreement, you have the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of your Metris stock, as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. Metris stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law in order to perfect their rights. Metris will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the full text of which appears in Annex E of this proxy statement.

Section 262 requires that stockholders be notified not less than 20 days before the special meeting to vote on the merger that appraisal rights will be available. A copy of Section 262 must be included with such notice. This proxy statement constitutes Metris notice to its stockholders of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger in compliance with the requirements of Section 262. If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 contained in Annex E since failure to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262 will result in the loss of your appraisal rights under Delaware law.

If you elect to demand appraisal of your shares, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

You must deliver to Metris a written demand for appraisal of your shares before the vote with respect to the merger is taken. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or voting against adoption of the merger agreement. Voting against or failing to vote for adoption of the merger agreement by itself does not constitute a demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262.

You must not vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. A vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, by proxy or in person, will constitute a waiver of your appraisal rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any previously filed written demands for appraisal. Failure to vote against adoption of the merger agreement will not constitute waiver of your appraisal rights.

If you fail to comply with either of these conditions and the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive the cash payment for your shares of Metris stock as provided for in the merger agreement, but you will have no appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Metris stock.

All demands for appraisal should be addressed to the Secretary at Metris Companies Inc., 10900 Wayzata Boulevard, Minnetonka, Minnesota 55305-1534, and must be delivered to Metris before the vote on the merger is taken at the special meeting, and should be executed by, or on behalf of, the record holder of the shares of Metris stock. The demand must reasonably inform Metris of the identity of the stockholder and the intention of the stockholder to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares.

To be effective, a demand for appraisal by a holder of Metris stock must be made by, or in the name of, such registered stockholder, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on his or her stock certificate(s) and cannot be made by the beneficial owner if he or she does not also hold the shares of record. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner submit the required demand in respect of those shares.

If shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made in that capacity; and if the shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record owner. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record owner.

If you hold your shares of Metris stock in a brokerage account or in other nominee form and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your broker or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the nominee.

Within ten days after the effective date of the merger, Metris, as the surviving corporation in the merger, must give written notice that the merger has become effective to each Metris stockholder who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal and who did not vote in favor of the merger. At any time within 60 days after the effective date, any stockholder who has demanded an appraisal has the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the merger agreement for that stockholder's shares of Metris stock. Within 120 days after the effective date, either Metris or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. Metris has no obligation to file such a petition in the event there are dissenting stockholders. Accordingly, the failure of a stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified could nullify the stockholder's previously written demand for appraisal. You will not receive notice specifying the deadline by which you must file such petition, and you must calculate the deadline by counting 120 days from the date of effectiveness of the merger. As described above, Metris will notify you of the effective date of the merger.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to Metris, Metris will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares. After notice to dissenting stockholders, the Chancery Court is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition, and to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided thereby. The Chancery Court may require the stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Chancery Court may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of Metris stock, the Chancery Court will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest. When the value is determined, the Chancery Court will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon accrued during the pendency of the proceeding, if the Chancery Court so determines, to the stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon surrender by such holders of the certificates representing those shares.

In determining fair value, the Chancery Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. You should be aware that the fair value of your shares as determined under Section 262 could be more, the same, or less than the value that you are entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding may be imposed upon Metris and the stockholders participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Chancery Court as the Chancery Court deems equitable under the circumstances. Upon the application of a stockholder, the Chancery Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. Any stockholder who had demanded appraisal rights will not, after the effective date, be entitled to vote shares subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the effective date; however, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal and an acceptance of the merger within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, then the right of that stockholder to appraisal will cease and that stockholder will be entitled to receive the cash payment for shares of his, her or its Metris stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Any withdrawal of a demand for appraisal made more than 60 days after the effective date of the merger may only be made with the written approval of the surviving corporation and must, to be effective, be made within 120 days after the effective date of the merger.

In view of the complexity of Section 262, Metris stockholders who may wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

Section 2.1 Conversion of Securities. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of any shares of Company Capital Stock (as defined in this Section 2.1(g)):

(a) Conversion of Merger Sub Stock. Each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Merger Sub shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation and shall constitute the only shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation outstanding immediately after the Effective Time.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock. All shares of Company Common Stock (as defined in Section 2.1(c)) that are owned by the Company as treasury stock and all shares of Company Common Stock that are owned, directly or indirectly, by Parent or Company (other than shares of Company Common Stock held directly or indirectly in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like or otherwise held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of third parties (Trust Account Shares)) shall be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no stock of Parent, cash or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Conversion of Common Stock. Subject to Section 2.3 with regard to Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 2.3(a)), each share of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than as provided in Section 2.1(b)), shall be converted into the right to receive $15.00 in cash to be distributed in accordance with Section 2.2, without interest (the Per Common Share Price); provided, however, that if the Effective Time occurs after December 9, 2005, then the Per Common Share Price shall instead be the amount set forth in Annex 2.1. All such shares of Company Common Stock shall otherwise no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist. The Company will amend the terms of any existing restricted stock agreements with respect to outstanding shares of Company Common Stock that do not provide for acceleration of termination of restrictions in connection with the Merger such that all such restrictions will terminate as of the Effective Time.

(d) Conversion of Company Series C Preferred Stock. Subject to Section 2.3 with regard to Dissenting Shares, all of the shares of Series C Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Series C Preferred Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive in the aggregate $682,561,140.00 in cash to be distributed in accordance with Section 2.2, without interest; provided, however, that if the Effective Time occurs after December 9, 2005, then all of the shares of Company Series C Preferred Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive in the aggregate the amount set forth in Annex 2.1. All such shares of the Company Series C Preferred Stock shall otherwise no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist.

(e) Cancellation and Conversion of Company Stock Options. Each option to purchase Company Common Stock (a Company Stock Option) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether or not exercisable) shall be cancelled as of the Effective Time, in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the product of the Per Common Share Price and the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option over (ii) the product of the exercise price per share with respect to each share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option and the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option, such lump sum cash payment to be made less any applicable withholding tax at the Effective Time or, if consent or approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is required for such lump sum cash payment, at such time as such consent or approval is obtained (but in no event before the Effective Time), and subject in that case to any conditions, requirements or restrictions imposed by the OCC or the FDIC; provided, that if the exercise price per share of any such Company Stock Option is equal to or greater than the Per Common Share Price, such Company Stock Option shall be cancelled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. Prior to the Closing, the Company, in consultation with Parent, shall take or cause to be taken any and all actions reasonably necessary, including the amendment of the Company Stock Plans (as defined in Section 3.2(a)) and, as necessary, any stock option agreements entered into under the Company Stock Plans, and shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain any necessary consent of each holder of a Company Stock Option, to give effect to the treatment of Company Stock Options pursuant to this Section 2.1(e), to the extent such treatment is not expressly provided for by the terms of the applicable Company Stock Plan and related award agreements.

(f) Cancellation and Conversion of Company Stock Units. Each right to be issued shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to a restricted stock unit agreement of the Company (a Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreement) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall be cancelled as of the Effective Time, in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (i) the Per Common Share Price and (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to issuance upon settlement of such Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreement, such lump sum cash payment to be made less any applicable withholding tax. Payments with respect to the Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreements shall be made at the Effective Time or, if consent or approval of the OCC or the FDIC is required for such lump sum cash payment, at such time as such consent or approval is obtained (but in no event before the Effective Time), and subject in that case to any conditions, requirements or restrictions imposed by the OCC or the FDIC. Prior to the Closing, the Company, in consultation with Parent, shall take or cause to be taken any and all actions reasonably necessary, including the amendment of the Company Stock Plans and, as necessary, any Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreements, and shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain any necessary consent of each holder of a Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreement, to (x) provide that all shares of Company Common Stock issuable pursuant to outstanding Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreements will vest in connection with the Merger and (y) give effect to the treatment of Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreements pursuant to this Section 2.1(f), to the extent such treatment is not expressly provided for by the terms of the applicable Company Stock Plan and related Company Restricted Stock Unit Agreements.

(g) Merger Consideration. The aggregate consideration payable by Parent pursuant to Sections 2.1(c), (d), (e) and (f) is referred to herein as the Merger Consideration. The components of the Merger Consideration are detailed on Annex 2.1. The Merger Consideration will in no event exceed the sum of $1,593,667,377 plus the aggregate amount of cash received by the Company, if any, on or after the date hereof up to the Effective Time from the exercise of Company Stock Options (it being understood that the maximum number of shares subject to Company Stock Options which will become exercisable during such period is 2,326,556 and the maximum cash proceeds to the Company from such exercises, assuming all such Options were exercised for cash, would be $19,124,290.32). At the Effective Time, each holder of Company Common Stock and Company Series C Preferred Stock (the Company Common Stock and the Company Series C Preferred Stock are collectively referred to as the Company Capital Stock) shall cease to have any rights (other than Dissenting Shares as set forth in Section 2.3) with respect to such issued and outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock (including, without limitation, the right to vote), except for the right to receive his, her or its respective portion of the Merger Consideration.

Section 2.2 Payment of Merger Consideration.

(a) Paying Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint a commercial bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company as a paying agent (the Paying Agent) for the benefit of the holders of Company Common Stock that are not Dissenting Shares and who are entitled to receive the Merger Consideration (collectively, the Holders). At the Effective Time, Parent shall make available to the Paying Agent an amount of cash sufficient to permit payment of the Merger Consideration to the Holders (other than the cash portion of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Parent as provided in Section 2.2(h)) (the Exchange Fund). The Paying Agent shall invest the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent, and any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Parent. The Paying Agent shall exchange the shares of Company Common Stock for the Merger Consideration in accordance with the terms of this Article II, through such reasonable procedures as the Paying Agent or Parent may adopt.

(b) Payment Procedures. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Parent or the Paying Agent shall cause to be mailed to each record holder of a certificate or certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Company Capital Stock converted in the Merger (the Certificates) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon actual delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent, and shall contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates and payment of the Merger Consideration). The Paying Agent shall accept Certificates upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Paying Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. Upon surrender for cancellation to the Paying Agent of a Certificate held by any Holder or holder of a Certificate of Company Series C Preferred Stock, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Paying Agent, the Holder of such Certificate or holder of a Certificate of Company Series C Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor that amount of cash equal to the Per Common Share Price for each share of Company Common Stock or, in the case of a holder of a Certificate of Company Series C Preferred Stock, such holder's ratable portion of the aggregate cash amount payable pursuant to Section 2.1(d) hereof. Any Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled.

(c) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Capital Stock. All amounts paid upon conversion of shares of Company Capital Stock in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 2.2(e)) shall be deemed to have been issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of Company Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of the shares of Company Capital Stock which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Article II.

(d) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person (as defined below) claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent or the Paying Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as Parent or the Paying Agent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against them with respect to such Certificate, Parent will pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the amounts to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 2.1. As used in this Agreement, Person means any person, employee, individual, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, trust, joint venture or any other non-governmental entity or any governmental or regulatory authority or body.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the stockholders of the Company for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon demand, and any stockholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of their claim for Merger Consideration.

(f) No Liability. None of Parent, the Company or the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any holder of shares of Company Capital Stock for cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Certificate shall not have been surrendered prior to eighteen months after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which any cash payable to the holder of such Certificate pursuant to this Article II would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity), any such cash in respect of such Certificate shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Parent, free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

(g) Withholding. Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Capital Stock or Dissenting Shares such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax Law, and to collect such tax forms, including Form W-9, the appropriate series of Form W-8 or any other forms, as may be necessary to prevent or reduce any such deduction or withholding. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of Company Capital Stock or Dissenting Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent.

(h) Payment to Holders of the Company Series C Preferred Stock. On the Closing Date, immediately following the Effective Time and upon the surrender to Parent of the Certificates representing all shares of the Company Series C Preferred Stock, Parent shall pay to the holders of the Company Series C Preferred Stock, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by such holders, that amount of cash constituting the Merger Consideration which such holders are entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.1(d).

Section 2.3 Dissenters' Rights.

(a) Shares of Company Capital Stock with respect to which a demand for payment and appraisal has been properly made and perfected in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (Dissenting Shares) will not be converted into the right to receive from Parent the portion of the Merger Consideration otherwise payable with respect to such shares at or after the Effective Time and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by Section 262 of the DGCL. If a holder of Dissenting Shares (a Dissenting Stockholder) shall withdraw, in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL, such holder's demand for such appraisal or shall become ineligible for such appraisal, then, as of the later of the Effective Time or the occurrence of such event, such holder's Dissenting Shares shall cease to be Dissenting Shares and shall be converted into the right to receive from Parent the Merger Consideration into which such holder's Company Capital Stock was converted as of the Effective Time pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) The Company shall give Parent notice of any demand received by the Company from a holder of Dissenting Shares for appraisal of shares of Company Capital Stock, withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the DGCL and received by the Company, and copies of any correspondence received by the Company relating to any such demand or potential demand, and Parent shall have the right to participate in and, after the Effective Time, to direct, all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demand. The Company agrees that, except with the prior written consent of Parent, or as required under the DGCL, it will not voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer or agree to settle, any such demand for appraisal. Each Dissenting Stockholder who, pursuant to the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, becomes entitled to payment of the value of the Dissenting Shares will receive payment therefor after the value therefor has been agreed upon or finally determined pursuant to such provisions, and any Merger Consideration that would have been payable with respect to such Dissenting Shares will be retained by Parent.

ARTICLE III

(vii) Each Related Employer has paid all amounts it is required to pay as contributions to the Company Plans as of the date hereof; all benefits accrued under any unfunded Company Plan or Company Benefit Arrangement will have been paid, accrued, or otherwise adequately reserved in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and records of such Related Employer; all monies withheld from employee paychecks for Company Plans have been transferred to the relevant plan within the time applicable regulations specify; the assets of each Company Plan that is funded are reported at their fair market value on the books and records of such Company Plan; within the preceding three (3) fiscal years, no Related Employer has, as a result of a retroactive rate adjustment or loss sharing arrangement, incurred any material liability with respect to a Company Plan or state workers' compensation arrangement that is funded wholly or partially through an insurance policy or public or private fund.

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 6.1 Preparation of Proxy Statement: Stockholders Meeting.

(a) In accordance with the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Company shall promptly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable for the purpose of obtaining the Required Company Vote with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the Company Stockholders Meeting).

(b) The Company will promptly prepare and file all materials required to be filed under the Exchange Act as well as all other applicable state or foreign securities Laws and the rules and regulations thereunder, and Parent and Merger Sub will cooperate with the Company in the preparation of such materials. Such materials shall include a proxy statement in the form mailed by the Company to its stockholders, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, which materials are herein referred to as the Proxy Statement. The Company will use reasonable best efforts to file the initial Proxy Statement with the SEC within twenty-one (21) days of the date hereof and to respond promptly to any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement, and will cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Company's stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable following completion of any SEC review of the Proxy Statement. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any fact or event relating to the Company or any of its Affiliates which causes the Company to determine to prepare a supplement to the Proxy Statement should be discovered by the Company or should to the Knowledge of the Company occur, the Company shall promptly inform Parent of such fact or event.

(c) Parent and Merger Sub will furnish the Company with such information concerning Parent and its Subsidiaries as is necessary in order to cause the Proxy Statement, insofar as it relates to Parent and its Subsidiaries, to comply with the applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Parent and Merger Sub agree to promptly advise the Company if, at any time prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting, any information provided by them or the Company in the Proxy Statement is or becomes incorrect or incomplete in any material respect and to provide the Company with the information needed to correct such inaccuracy or omission. Parent and Merger Sub will furnish the Company with such supplemental information as may be necessary in order to cause the Proxy Statement, insofar as it relates to Parent and Merger Sub, to comply with the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder after the mailing thereof to the stockholders of the Company.

(d) The Company will, through its Board of Directors, recommend to its stockholders the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that the Company's Board of Directors may withdraw, modify, condition or refuse to make such recommendation if it determines in good faith after consultation with its outside legal counsel that its fiduciary obligations require it to do so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated, this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of the Company at the Company Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of voting on the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Company of such obligations.

Section 6.2 Advice of Changes; Government Filings. Each party shall confer on a regular basis with the other, report on operational matters and promptly advise the other orally and in writing of any change or event which has or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on such party, would materially impair or delay completion of the transactions contemplated herein or would cause or constitute a material breach of any of the representations, warranties or covenants of such party contained herein; provided, however, that any noncompliance with the foregoing shall not constitute the failure to be satisfied of a condition set forth in Article VII or give rise to any right of termination under Article VIII unless the underlying breach shall independently constitute such a failure or give rise to such a right. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party hereto agrees that to the extent practicable it will consult with the other parties hereto with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other parties apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 6.3 Control of the Company's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent or Merger Sub, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the Company prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' operations.

Section 6.4 Access to Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice, the Company shall afford to the representatives of Parent reasonable access at reasonable times, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to the Company Employees and the Company's properties, books, contracts and records and, during such period, the Company shall not be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of its customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information or contravene any Law or binding agreement to which the Company is subject. The parties will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply, including, to the extent possible, entering into appropriate agreements for the disclosure of non-public information of any Governmental Entity, including OCC examination reports of the Bank, as may be required by such Governmental Entity.

(b) Parent will hold any such information which is nonpublic in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the letter dated January 25, 2005, between Company and HSBC North America Holdings Inc. (the "Confidentiality Agreement"), which Confidentiality Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

Section 6.5 Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Each of the Company and Parent shall, and shall cause its respective Subsidiaries to, use reasonable best efforts as promptly as practicable (i) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to comply promptly with all legal requirements which may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Bank Merger), (ii) to obtain (and to cooperate with each other party to obtain) any consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and/or any other public or private third party which is required to be obtained or made by such party or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Bank Merger), provided, that this clause (ii) shall not apply to the SEC Investigation, which is covered by Section 5.2, (iii) to make all necessary filings, and thereafter make any other required submissions, with respect to this Agreement, the Merger and the Bank Merger required (A) under the Exchange Act and any other applicable federal and state securities Laws, (B) under the HSR Act and any related governmental request thereunder, if applicable, (C) with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, SEC, OCC, FDIC, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, Superintendent, Minnesota DOC, Florida DFS and Bermuda Monetary Authority and (D) under any other applicable Law, and (iv) to execute or deliver any additional instruments that the other parties, or any of them, may reasonably request that are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by, and to fully carry out the purposes of, this Agreement (including the Merger and the Bank Merger). Each of the Company and Parent will promptly cooperate with and furnish information to the other in connection with any such efforts by, or requirement imposed upon, any of them or any of their Subsidiaries in connection with the foregoing. In furtherance of the foregoing, each of the Company and Parent shall, and shall cause its respective Subsidiaries to, use reasonable best efforts to cause to be made all filings under the HSR Act, if applicable, no later than ten (10) business days after the date hereof and all other filings contemplated by clause (iii) no later than thirty (30) days after the date hereof.

(b) Parent agrees to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered by or on behalf of the Surviving Corporation, at or prior to the Effective Time, those supplemental indentures and other instruments listed in Section 6.5(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, which supplemental indentures and other instruments are required for the due assumption of the Company's outstanding debt, guarantees and other securities to the extent required by the terms of such debt, guarantees and securities and the instruments and agreements relating thereto.

(c) Each of the Company and Parent and their respective Boards of Directors shall, if any state takeover statute, similar statute or similar provision in the Certificate of Incorporation becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Stockholder Agreement, the Merger, the Bank Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, use reasonable best efforts to ensure that the Merger, the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Stockholder Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or provision on this Agreement, the Stockholder Agreement, the Merger, the Bank Merger and any other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(d) The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions necessary and appropriate to cause the Metris Companies Foundation and the Metris Companies Inc. Political Action Committee to be fully liquidated and dissolved in accordance with applicable Laws. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, continue using commercially reasonable efforts to work toward the liquidation and dissolution of MWSI and MWSF in accordance with applicable Laws.

Section 6.6 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) The Company agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall use best efforts to cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to, or a transaction to effect, a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving it or any of its Subsidiaries (other than any such transaction permitted by Section 5.1 (e), (f) or (j)) or any purchase or sale of 10% or more of the consolidated assets (including, without limitation, stock of its Subsidiaries) of it and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, its voting securities that, if consummated, would result in any Person (or the stockholders or equity holders of such Person) beneficially owning securities representing 10% or more of its total voting power (or of the surviving parent entity in such transaction) or any of its Subsidiaries (any such proposal, offer or transaction (other than a proposal or offer made by Parent or an Affiliate thereof) being hereinafter referred to as an Acquisition Proposal), (ii) have any discussions with or provide any confidential information or data to any Person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of the Company shall be permitted, prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting to be held pursuant to Section 6.1, and subject to compliance with the other terms of this Section 6.6 and to first entering into a customary confidentiality agreement, to engage in discussions and negotiations with, or provide any nonpublic information or data to, any Person in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by such Person made after the date of this Agreement which the Board of Directors of the Company concludes in good faith, after consultation with a nationally recognized financial advisor and legal counsel, constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined in Section 6.6(e)), if and only to the extent that the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that its fiduciary obligations require it to do so.

(i) The Company shall notify Parent promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by any Person that informs the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that it is considering making, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry from any Person seeking to have discussions or negotiations with the Company relating to a possible Acquisition Proposal. Such notice shall be made orally and confirmed in writing, and shall indicate the identity of the Person making the Acquisition Proposal, inquiry or request and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers. The Company shall also promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, notify Parent, orally and in writing, if it enters into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal or provides nonpublic information or data to any Person in accordance with this Section 6.6(b).

(ii) Nothing contained in this Section 6.6 shall prohibit the Company from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position required by Rule 14e-2(a) or Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that compliance with such rules shall not in any way limit or modify the effect that any action taken pursuant to such rules has under any other provision of this Agreement, including Section 8.1(f).

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at any time prior to obtaining the Required Company Vote, the Board of Directors of the Company may, in response to a Superior Proposal, cause the Company to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(g) and concurrently or promptly thereafter enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that the Company shall not exercise its right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(g) until the third business day following Parent's receipt of written notice (a Notice of Superior Proposal) from the Company advising Parent that the Board of Directors of the Company has received a Superior Proposal specifying the terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal, identifying the Person making such Superior Proposal and stating that the Board of Directors of the Company intends to exercise its right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(g).

(d) The Company agrees that it will and will cause its Subsidiaries, and its and their officers, directors, agents, representatives and advisors to, cease immediately and terminate any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third parties conducted heretofore with respect to any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal.

(e) For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal which the Board of Directors of the Company, concludes in good faith (after consultation with its legal advisors and a nationally recognized financial advisor) (i) is more favorable to the stockholders of the Company, from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and this Agreement (including any proposal by Parent to amend the terms of the Agreement) and (ii) is fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed, reasonably likely to receive all required approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed; provided that, for purposes of this definition of Superior Proposal, the term Acquisition Proposal shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 6.6(a), except that the reference to 10% or more in the definition of Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed to be a reference to a majority.

Section 6.7 Employees: Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) Through the six month anniversary of the Effective Time (except as applicable Law or third party providers require otherwise), Parent and the Surviving Corporation will provide persons employed by the Related Employers at the Effective Time (Company Employees) annual base compensation, incentive compensation (other than equity based compensation), and Benefit Plans and Benefit Arrangements (other than equity based compensation) that are, in the aggregate, at least as favorable as those in effect immediately before the Effective Time. For purposes of comparability, the parties agree that the determination shall not take into account any equity, equity-based, or equity measured compensation nor the level of employee contributions in effect before the Effective Time, provided any contributions required after the Effective Time and during 2005 shall not be in excess of prevailing market levels. For purposes of any seniority or length of service requirements, waiting periods, vesting periods, or differential benefits based on length of service in any such plan or policy of Parent as of the Effective Time for which a Company Employee may be eligible after the Effective Time, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall treat service by such employee with the Company as though it had been service with Parent for all purposes under any such plan or policy to the extent the Company credited such service under its similar plans, excluding vesting, benefit accruals, or accrual or account formulas under any Pension Plan maintained by Parent, so long as this crediting of service does not violate applicable Laws and is consistent with the rules governing Benefit Plans qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code and permitted by third-party administrators and insurers. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, no provision of this Agreement shall obligate any of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of its Affiliates to continue the employment of any Company Employee for any period following the Effective Time or to refrain from revising the terms of any such Company Employee's employment or transferring any such Company Employees, nor shall it prevent those entities from amending or terminating any Benefit Plan or Benefit Arrangement.

(b) In addition:

(i) Any Company Employee covered by the Management Incentive Plan (MIP) or the Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) for Designated Corporate Officers (Covered Employees) (each of the MIP and the AIP, as provided to Parent on May 11, 2005) shall receive a 2005 bonus payable as follows. As of the Effective Time, all Covered Employees shall be credited with a bonus based on Payout Achievement Level as set forth on Section 6.7(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule based on the Company's Net Income, as set forth in the MIP and the AIP, with payment of such bonuses to be made on or before March 15, 2006 (or such earlier date as may be required by applicable state Law), which payment shall be made whether or not a particular Covered Employee who is entitled to such bonus payment is employed at the time of payment, provided that such Covered Employee has not been terminated for Cause (as defined in Section 6.7(b)(vi)) before the time of payment. In addition, all Covered Employees shall receive a prorated bonus on or before March 15, 2006 (or such earlier date as may be required by applicable state Law), to reflect the achievement of Individual Management Bonus Objectives (MBOs) through the Effective Time, which shall be determined at the Effective Time by the Company in a manner consistent with the Company's past practice and agreed to by Parent (which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld). By March 15, 2006 (or such earlier date as may be required by applicable state Law), all Covered Employees who are employed by Parent or its Affiliates with operations in the United States (the U.S. Affiliates) as of December 31, 2005 shall receive a prorated bonus to cover the period from the Effective Time through December 31, 2005 (Stub Period) and persons whose employment was terminated without cause will receive a prorated bonus for the shorter period during which the persons were employed during the Stub Period. Such prorated bonus will reflect the achievement of MBOs achieved by the Covered Employee during the Stub Period as determined by the Surviving Corporation in a manner consistent with the Company's past practice and agreed to by Parent (which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld).

Table of Contents

(ii) For a period of 12 months following the Effective Time, any Company Employees who are offered employment with Parent or its U.S. Affiliates that would require them to relocate to a different work location that is more than 40 miles from their current work location will be allowed to choose one of the following two options: (i) accept the position, in which case each such relocated Company Employee will be entitled to receive relocation benefits under the Company's relocation policy as in effect March 31, 2005, or (ii) decline the position and receive the severance benefit under the Company's Severance Plan as in effect on March 31, 2005, or, if applicable, as outlined in such employee's Change of Control Severance Agreement or Key Employee Severance Protection Agreement.

(iii) Any Company Employee terminated without Cause within 12 months following the Effective Time who is not otherwise covered by an individual agreement with respect to severance shall be eligible to receive severance under the Company's Severance Pay Plan (including, but not limited to, outplacement benefits) as in effect on March 31, 2005. For those Company Employees who receive severance benefits under this clause (iii) and who are then eligible for COBRA coverage, Parent, the Surviving Corporation, or their Affiliates will, during the months in which each such severed Company Employee receives severance payments, pay that portion of the severed Company Employee's monthly COBRA insurance coverage costs equal to the amount of the monthly difference between (1) the severed employee's monthly COBRA cost and (2) the monthly amount that the severed employee would have paid to obtain medical and dental coverage under the applicable plans if the severed employee were an active employee.

(iv) Following the Effective Time, all Company Employees shall be credited with the amount of their accrued but unused paid time off (PTO) under the paid time off program (or equivalent) of Parent in effect at the Effective Time; provided that any Company Employee who has accrued but unused PTO in excess of the amount that may be credited under Parent's paid time off program (or equivalent) shall receive a payment, as soon as reasonably practical after the Effective Time, equal to the value of such excess accrued but unused PTO.

(v) Participants in the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans (SERP) who are age 55 or older will receive a pro-rata payment to their SERP account at the Effective Time based on the expected Company annual contribution for 2005.

(vi) For purposes of this Section 6.7(b), Cause shall mean a Company Employee's (A) failure to perform his/her material duties, which failure continues for ten (10) days after the Parent or Surviving Corporation has given written notice to the employee specifying in reasonable detail the manner in which the employee has failed to perform such duties; (B) commission of an act or omission constituting (x) a felony, (y) embezzlement, theft or material dishonesty with respect to the Surviving Corporation, Parent, or their Affiliates, or (z) fraud; (C) commission of an act or omission that (x) could adversely and materially affect the Surviving Corporation's, Parent's, or their Affiliates' business or reputation, or (y) involves moral turpitude; or (D) breach, non-performance or non-observance of any restrictive covenant or any other written agreement with the Surviving Corporation, Parent, or their Affiliates prohibiting any or all of (x) the disclosure of confidential trade secrets and other information, (y) competitive activities or the solicitation of customers, or (z) the solicitation of employees or former employees.

(c) Parent shall cause any and all pre-existing condition (or actively at work or similar) limitations, eligibility waiting periods and evidence of insurability requirements under each employee medical plan of Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall continue the life insurance and disability coverage for at least six months following the Effective Time for Company Employees who are covered by Company Plans providing such coverage immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Any communications proposed to be delivered by the Company or Parent to the Company Employees before the Effective Time regarding the matters contained in or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or otherwise respecting any changes or potential changes in employee benefit plans, practices, or procedures that may or will occur in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, shall be subject to the prior approval of Parent and the Company, respectively, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Each of Parent and the Company shall be deemed to have approved a proposed communication absent objection provided within 72 hours of receipt of that proposed communication.

(e) Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any compensatory payments otherwise payable to any Company Employee pursuant to this Section 6.7 such amounts as they are required to deduct and withhold under any applicable tax Laws.

Section 6.8 Fees and Expenses. In the event the Merger is not consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expense, provided, however, that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing the Proxy Statement to the stockholders of the Company, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the Proxy Statement or any other Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, shall be borne equally by Parent and the Company. In the event the Merger is consummated, the Surviving Corporation shall pay all then unpaid costs and expenses incurred by the Company in connection with the Agreement. Nothing contained in this Section 6.8 shall limit either party's rights to recover any liabilities or damages arising out of the other party's breach of any provision of this Agreement.

Section 6.9 Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director, officer employee or agent of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or who is or was serving at the request of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as a director, officer, employee or agent of another Person (the Indemnified Parties) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was an Indemnified Party, and pertaining to any matter existing or occurring, or any acts or omissions occurring, at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, or at or after, the Effective Time (including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) (Indemnified Liabilities) to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and those indemnification agreements with directors, officers and employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries that are listed on Section 6.9(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, Parent's and Surviving Corporation's obligations under this Section 6.9(a) shall be limited to a period of six years from and after the Effective Time.

(b) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 300% of the premiums paid as of the date hereof by the Company for such insurance (the Company's Current Premium), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed 300% of the Company's Current Premium, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which, in the Surviving Corporation's good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to 300% of the Company's Current Premium.

(c) Until six years from the Effective Time, unless otherwise required by applicable Law, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain provisions no less favorable with respect to the elimination of liability of directors and the indemnification of Indemnified Parties (including as to advancement of expenses) than those set forth in Article X of the Certificate of Incorporation and Article V of the Bylaws, as in effect on the date hereof.

(d) The Surviving Corporation shall pay (as incurred) all expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, that an Indemnified Person may incur in the successful enforcement of the indemnity and other obligations provided for in this Section 6.9.

(e) If the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.9.

(f) The provisions of this Section 6.9 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and representatives and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such person may have by contract or otherwise.

Section 6.10 Public Announcements. At all times at or before the Closing, neither party shall, without the prior written consent of the other, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, issue or make, directly or indirectly, any reports, statements or releases to the public with respect to (a) this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or (b) (except to the extent disclosed in or consistent with the Proxy Statement in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1 or as otherwise permitted under Section 6.2) the other party or the other party's business, financial condition or results of operations; provided, however, that either party and its Affiliates may, without the prior written consent of the other, issue or make, directly or indirectly, any report, statement or release required by Law (including any periodic reports required to be filed under the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations thereunder with the SEC) or any listing agreement or arrangement with a national securities exchange or national market system (including the NYSE, the London Stock Exchange, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Bermuda Stock Exchange, and Euronext Paris) to which such party or any of its Affiliates is subject, provided, however, that, to the extent practicable, the other parties to this Agreement are so notified as soon as possible in advance of such report, statement or release and, to the extent practicable, given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the report, statement or release. The parties will agree to the text of the press releases announcing the signing of this Agreement.

Section 6.11 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of the Company and its Subsidiaries, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement shall take all such necessary action.

Section 6.12 Other Actions by Parent. Parent shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, take any action that would, or would reasonably be expected to, result in any of its representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement being or becoming untrue, subject to such exceptions as do not have, and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or in any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article VII not being satisfied or in a violation of any provision of this Agreement, or (unless such action is required by applicable Law) which would adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain any of the Requisite Regulatory Approvals.

(f) Senior Notes. The Company shall have repurchased, redeemed or otherwise paid in full all of the outstanding 10¹/8% Senior Notes due 2006, and have paid any prepayment penalties associated therewith.

(g) SEC Investigation. The Company shall have either (i) received notice from the Staff of the SEC that it will not recommend that charges be brought against the Company and its Subsidiaries with respect to the SEC Investigation or (ii) in the event the notice referred to in clause (i) is not obtained by September 30, 2005 and is not reasonably likely to be obtained in the Company's good faith determination after consultation with its outside legal counsel, obtained a final court or administrative order as to the Company and its Subsidiaries with respect to the SEC Investigation, which order may include fines, penalties or settlement; provided, however that the aggregate of any such fines, penalties or settlement is not substantial in relation to the Company's consolidated financial condition, assets or stockholders' equity and shall not include provisions that impose adverse restrictions or limitations on the business or operations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (it being understood that (i) nothing herein shall require that any order shall have been entered with respect to any investigation, action, claim or proceeding against any director, officer or employee of the Company in his or her individual capacity as such in order for this condition to be satisfied and (ii) administrative or supervisory obligations or restrictions imposed upon the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not constitute adverse restrictions or limitations on the business or operations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries).

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date except to the extent such representations and warranties are specifically made as of an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct as of such date; provided, that for purposes of determining the satisfaction of this condition, no effect shall be given to any exception or qualification in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or a Material Adverse Effect and, instead, for purposes of this condition such representations and warranties (other than the representations and warranties in Section 4.9 (Ownership of Company Capital Stock), which must be true and correct in all respects) shall be deemed to be true and correct unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

Section 8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, by action taken or authorized by the Board of Directors of the terminating party or parties, whether before or after approval of the Merger by the stockholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual consent of Parent and Merger Sub and the Company in a written instrument;

(b) by either Parent or the Company, upon written notice to the other party, if (i) a Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction which must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger and such denial has become final and non-appealable; or (ii) any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger, and such order, decree, ruling or other action has become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or has resulted in, the denial described in clause (i) above or the issuance described in clause (ii) above;

(c) by either Parent or the Company, upon written notice to the other party, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before March 31, 2006; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(c) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or has resulted in, the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date;

(d) by either Parent or the Company, if the Required Company Vote shall not have been obtained upon a vote taken thereon at the duly convened Company Stockholders Meeting;

(e) by either Parent and Merger Sub on the one hand or the Company on the other hand, upon written notice to the other party, if there shall have been a breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of such other party, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or Section 7.3, as the case may be, and which breach has not been cured within 30 days following written notice thereof to the breaching party or, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time period;

(f) by Parent upon written notice to the Company, if (x) the Company shall have (i) failed to recommend adoption of this Agreement at the Company Stockholders Meeting, or withdrawn, modified or qualified in any manner adverse to Parent such recommendation, whether or not permitted by the terms hereof, or (ii) materially breached its obligations under this Agreement by reason of a failure to call the Company Stockholders Meeting in accordance with Section 6.1(a) or (y) the Stockholder Agreement has been breached in any material manner by any stockholder that is a party thereto; or

(g) by the Company, upon written notice to the Parent, in accordance with the terms of Section 6.6.

Section 8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either the Company or Parent as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Parent or the Company or their respective officers or directors, except with respect to Section 6.4(b), Section 6.8, this Section 8.2 and Article IX, which shall survive such termination and except that no party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful and material breach of this Agreement.

(b) The Company shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the sum of $57.4 million (the Termination Fee) if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(i) if Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(f)(x), and within 12 months after the date of such termination, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries consummates an Acquisition Transaction (as defined in Section 8.2(c)), then the Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee on the date of such consummation; and

(ii) if the Company shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(g) and within 12 months after the date of such termination, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries consummates an Acquisition Transaction, then the Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee on the date of such consummation.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Acquisition Transaction" shall mean (i) the direct or indirect acquisition, purchase or assumption of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or its Subsidiaries, (ii) the acquisition by any Person of direct or indirect beneficial ownership (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or otherwise) of voting stock representing 50% or more of the voting power of the outstanding shares of voting stock of the Company, or (iii) a merger, consolidation, business combination, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction of or involving the Company, other than a merger, business combination or similar transaction if the stockholders of the Company immediately before such transaction own at least 60% of the voting stock of the entity surviving such transaction (or the parent thereof) immediately following such transaction.

(d) The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in Section 8.1 and this Section 8.2 are integral parts of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not have entered into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company fails to promptly pay any amounts due pursuant to this Section 8.2 and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit which results in a judgment against the Company for the fee set forth in this Section 8.2, the Company shall pay to Parent its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest from the date of termination of this Agreement on the amounts owed at the prime rate of The Bank of New York as in effect from time to time during such period.

Section 8.3 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the stockholders of the Company, but, after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by Law requires further approval by such stockholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

Section 8.4 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. The failure of a party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights. No single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. Any waiver shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given and shall not constitute a waiver to any subsequent or other exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder.

this Agreement and (b) except as provided in Section 6.9, is not intended to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder.

Section 9.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without giving effect to choice of law principles thereof).

Section 9.7 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability and, unless the effect of such invalidity or unenforceability would prevent the parties from realizing the major portion of the economic benefits of the Merger that they currently anticipate obtaining therefrom, shall not render invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affect the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

Section 9.8 Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable by operation of Law or otherwise without the prior written consent of the other party, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall be null and void; provided, however, that Parent and Merger Sub may designate, by written notice to the Company, another wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent to effect the Merger in lieu of Merger Sub, in which event all reference herein to Merger Sub shall be deemed references to such other subsidiary, except that all representations and warranties made herein with respect to Merger Sub as of the date of this Agreement shall be deemed representations and warranties made with respect to such other subsidiary as of the date of such designation, provided further, however, that Parent and Merger Sub shall not have the benefit of designation set forth in the foregoing proviso unless such designation will not affect the consideration to be received by the stockholders of the Company in the Merger or the treatment of the Merger for federal income tax purposes and will not delay the completion of the Merger or the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article VII. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

Section 9.9 Submission to Jurisdiction. Each party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Superior Court or any federal court sitting in the City of Wilmington, and any appellate court from any such court, in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment resulting from any such suit, action or proceeding, and each party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such suit, action or proceeding may be heard and determined in the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Superior Court or, to the extent permitted by Law, by removal or otherwise, in such federal court. The Parties further agree, to the extent permitted by Law, that final and unappealable judgment against any of them in any action or proceeding contemplated above shall be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction within or outside the United States by suit on the judgment, a certified copy of which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and amount of such judgment.

Section 9.10 Enforcement. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms on a timely basis or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court identified in Section 9.9 above, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Section 9.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING INVOLVING, DIRECTLY, IN ANY MATTERS (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF, RELATED TO, OR CONNECTED WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

STOCKHOLDER AGREEMENT

STOCKHOLDER AGREEMENT, dated as of August 4, 2005 (this Agreement), among the holders of Series C Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share (the Company Series C Preferred Stock) listed on the signature page(s) hereto (collectively, the Stockholders and, individually, the Stockholder) and HSBC Finance Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement referred to below.

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Stockholders collectively own of record, own beneficially, and/or otherwise have voting control over shares of capital stock of Metris Companies Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), as set forth on Schedule I hereto (such shares, or any other voting or equity of securities of the Company hereafter acquired by any Stockholder prior to the termination of this Agreement, being referred to herein collectively as the Shares);

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Parent, the Company, and HSBC Corporation I, a Delaware corporation and directly wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub) are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company, and the Company will be the surviving corporation (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement, Parent has required that the Stockholders agree, and in order to induce Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement, the Stockholders are willing to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby agree, severally and not jointly, as follows:

Section 1. Voting of Shares.

(a) Each Stockholder covenants and agrees that until the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, at the Company Stockholders Meeting or any other meeting of the stockholders of the Company, however called, and in any action by written consent of the stockholders of the Company, such Stockholder will vote, or cause to be voted, all of his, her or its respective Shares (i) in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement, as the Merger Agreement may be modified or amended from time to time in a manner not adverse to the Stockholders, and (ii) against any Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Each Stockholder hereby irrevocably grants to, and appoints, Parent, and any individual designated in writing by it, and each of them individually, as its proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution), for and in its name, place and stead, to vote his, her or its Shares at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company called with respect to any of the matters specified in, and in accordance and consistent with, this Section 1. Each Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Parent is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement. Each Stockholder hereby affirms that the irrevocable proxy set forth in this Section 1(b) is given in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and that such irrevocable proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of such Stockholder under this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided for herein, each Stockholder hereby (i) affirms that the irrevocable proxy is coupled with an interest and may under no circumstances be revoked, (ii) ratifies and confirms all that the proxies appointed hereunder may lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof and (iii) affirms that such irrevocable proxy is executed and intended to be irrevocable in accordance with the provisions of Section 212(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, the irrevocable proxy granted hereunder shall automatically terminate upon the termination of this Agreement.

Section 2. Transfer of Shares. Each Stockholder covenants and agrees that such Stockholder will not directly or indirectly (i) sell, assign, transfer (including by merger, testamentary disposition, interspousal disposition pursuant to a domestic relations proceeding or otherwise by operation of law), pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of any of the Shares, (ii) deposit any of the Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to the Shares or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto which is inconsistent with this Agreement or (iii) enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or undertaking with respect to the direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer (including by merger, testamentary disposition, interspousal disposition pursuant to a domestic relations proceeding or otherwise by operation of law) or other disposition of any Shares; provided, however, that any Stockholder shall be entitled to transfer Shares by way of gift or donation so long as the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement as a Stockholder.

Section 3. Representations and Warranties of the Stockholders. Each Stockholder on its own behalf hereby severally represents and warrants to Parent with respect to itself and its, his or her ownership of the Shares as follows:

(a) Ownership of Shares. The Stockholder beneficially owns all of the Shares as set forth on Schedule I hereto and has good and marketable title to such Shares, free and clear of any claims, liens, encumbrances and security interests whatsoever. The Stockholder owns no Shares of Company Common Stock or Company Series C Preferred Stock other than the Shares as set forth on Schedule I hereto. The Stockholder has the power to authorize the voting of the Shares as contemplated hereby, without restrictions, with respect to all of the Shares.

(b) Power, Binding Agreement. The Stockholder has the legal capacity and all requisite power and authority to enter into and perform all of its obligations, under this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Stockholder and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Stockholder, enforceable against the Stockholder in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(c) No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement do not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, conflict with or result in any violation of, or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or to loss of a material benefit under, any provision of any loan or credit agreement, note, bond, mortgage, indenture, lease, or other agreement, instrument, permit, concession, franchise, license, judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to the Stockholder, the Shares or any of the Stockholder's properties or assets. Except as expressly contemplated hereby, and other than requirements that the Stockholders dispose of their Shares in a pro rata manner, the Stockholder is not a party to, and the Shares are not subject to or bound in any manner by, any contract or agreement relating to the Shares, including without limitation, any voting agreement, option agreement, purchase agreement, stockholders' agreement, partnership agreement or voting trust. Except for informational filings with the SEC, no consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any court, administrative agency or commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality, domestic, foreign or supranational, is required by or with respect to the Stockholder in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(d) Brokers or Finders. Except as contemplated by Section 3.22 of the Merger Agreement, no agent, broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other firm or Person retained by the Stockholder or the Company is or will be entitled to any broker's or finder's fee or any other similar commission or fee in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 4. No Solicitation. Prior to the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, each Stockholder agrees, in its individual capacity as a stockholder of the Company, that it will not, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) have any discussions with or provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal.; provided that nothing herein shall prohibit any Stockholder from engaging in any of such activities with any person with whom the Company is entitled to engage in discussions and negotiations pursuant to Section 6.6(b) of the Merger Agreement.

Section 5. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate upon the earlier to occur of (i) the Effective Time or (ii) any termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof; provided that no such termination shall relieve any party of liability for a breach hereof prior to termination, and any such termination will not affect any rights hereunder which by their terms do not terminate or expire prior to or at such termination.

Section 6. Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the parties shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or in equity.

Section 7. Fiduciary Duties. Each Stockholder is signing this Agreement solely in such Stockholder's capacity as an owner of his, her or its respective Shares, and nothing herein shall prohibit, prevent or preclude such Stockholder from taking or not taking any action in his or her capacity as an officer or director of the Company, to the extent permitted by the Merger Agreement.

Section 8. Waiver of Appraisal Rights. Each Stockholder, severally and not jointly, hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, and agrees to prevent the exercise of, any rights of appraisal, any dissenters' rights and any similar rights relating to the Merger that such Stockholder may directly or indirectly have by virtue of the ownership of any Shares.

Section 9. Miscellaneous.

(a) Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect thereto. This Agreement may not be amended, modified or rescinded except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

(b) Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the terms of this Agreement remain as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

(c) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

(d) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

We expect to receive fees for our services in connection with the Transaction, the principal portion of which are contingent upon consummation of the Transaction, and the Company has agreed to reimburse our expenses and indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In addition, we have provided certain investment banking services to the Company from time to time, including having acted as the Company's financial advisor in connection with a placement of a Term Loan due June 2004 (aggregate principal amount $125,000,000) in June 2003, the sale of a $494,270,439 gross balance of receivables portfolio in September 2003, and the sale of a $590,972,733 gross balance of receivables portfolio in November 2003, having acted as lead manager with respect to a placement of Senior Secured Term Loan due 2006 (aggregate principal amount $300,000,000) in May 2004, and having acted as co-manager on three of the Company's Asset-Backed Securitization transactions: 2004-1 (due April 2007) in April 2004, 2004-2 (due November 2006) in November 2004, and 2005-1 (due March 2007) in April 2005, with $200,000,000, $652,800,000 and $544,350,000 of principal balances, respectively. Goldman, Sachs & Co. is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, purchasing and selling loans, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman, Sachs & Co. and its affiliates may provide such services to the Company, HSBC and their respective affiliates, may actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of the Company and HSBC for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions of such securities.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; the Stockholder Agreement, dated as of August 4, 2005, among the holders of Series C Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock of the Company listed on the signature page(s) thereto and Buyer; annual reports to stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company for the five fiscal years ended December 31, 2004; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company; certain other communications from the Company to its stockholders; and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for the Company prepared by its management (the Forecasts). We also have held discussions with members of the senior management of the Company regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Company. In addition, we have reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the Shares, compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the consumer finance industry specifically and in other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as we considered appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. In that regard, we have assumed with your consent that the Forecasts have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and, accordingly, we have assumed that such allowances for losses are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. In addition, we have not made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Transaction. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Shares should vote with respect to such transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be received by holders of Shares pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Goldman, Sachs & Co.

OPINION OF UBS SECURITIES LLC
[LETTERHEAD OF UBS SECURITIES LLC]

August 4, 2005

The Board of Directors

Metris Companies Inc.

10900 Wayzata Boulevard

Minnetonka, Minnesota 55305-1534

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Metris Companies Inc. (Metris) proposes to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 4, 2005 (the Agreement), among HSBC Finance Corporation (HSBC), HSBC Corporation I, a wholly owned subsidiary of HSBC (Merger Sub), and Metris pursuant to which, among other things, (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Metris (the Merger) and (ii) each outstanding share of the common stock, par value of $0.01 per share, of Metris (Metris Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive $15.00 in cash (the Consideration), subject to incremental downward adjustment as specified in the Agreement if the effective time of the Merger occurs after December 9, 2005 (which would result in the reduction of the Consideration to $14.824318 if the effective time of the Merger were to occur on March 31, 2006, the date after which either Metris or HSBC may terminate the Agreement if the Merger has not then been consummated). The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to be received by holders of Metris Common Stock pursuant to the Merger.

UBS Securities LLC (UBS) has been retained by Metris solely for purposes of rendering this opinion and will receive a fee for its services, a portion of which is payable in connection with this opinion and a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. UBS and its affiliates in the past have provided, and currently are providing, services to HSBC and certain of its affiliates unrelated to the proposed Merger, for which services UBS and its affiliates have received and expect to receive customary compensation. In addition, an affiliate of UBS currently is a lender under an existing credit facility of HSBC, for which services such affiliate has received and will receive customary compensation. In the ordinary course of business, UBS, its successors and affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and accounts of customers, securities of HSBC and Metris and certain affiliates of HSBC and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Metris or the underlying business decision of Metris to effect the Merger. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the Merger. At your direction, we have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to the terms of the Agreement, the form of the Merger or the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Series C Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock of Metris of the consideration to be received by such holders in connection with the Merger. We have been advised by representatives of Metris that the Merger is expected to be consummated during the fourth quarter of 2005 and have assumed, with your consent, that in any event the Merger will be consummated on or prior to March 31, 2006. We also have assumed, with your consent, that each of Metris, HSBC and Merger Sub will comply with all material terms of the Agreement and that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with its terms without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement. We further have assumed, with your consent, that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on Metris or the Merger. In connection with our engagement, we were not requested to, and we did not, participate in the negotiation or structuring of the Merger, and we were not requested to, and we did not, solicit third party indications of interest in the acquisition of all or a part of Metris.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed certain publicly available business and historical financial information relating to Metris; (ii) reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of Metris that were provided to us by the management of Metris and not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by the management of Metris; (iii) conducted discussions with members of the senior management of Metris concerning the business and financial prospects of Metris; (iv) reviewed current and historical market prices of Metris Common Stock; (v) reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data with respect to certain companies we believe to be generally relevant; (vi) compared the financial terms of the Merger with publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions we believe to be generally relevant; (vii) conducted discussions with Metris and its advisors regarding their efforts on behalf of Metris to solicit indications of interest in a possible acquisition of all or a part of Metris; (viii) reviewed the Agreement; and (ix) conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered such other information, as we deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with our review, with your consent, we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information provided to or reviewed by us for the purpose of this opinion and have, with your consent, relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. In addition, at your direction, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Metris, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts and estimates referred to above, we have assumed, at your direction, that they have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Metris as to the future financial performance of Metris. With your consent, we have relied, without independent verification or investigation, upon the assessments of the management of Metris and its legal counsel as to matters relating to the Wells Notice recommending civil injunctive action against Metris and certain of its officers by the Securities and Exchange Commission and have assumed that such action and the matters related thereto will not have a material adverse effect on Metris or the Merger. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information available to us as of, the date of this opinion.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be received by holders of Metris Common Stock pursuant to the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX E

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

SECTION 262 APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation, or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter, shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and in the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
