The address of the principal office and principal business of Maxtor is 500 McCarthy Boulevard, Milpitas, California 95035 and its telephone number at that address is (408) 894-5000. Table of Contents

No funds were used and no funds are to be used by Maxtor in entering into the Voting Agreements and in acquiring the proxies thereunder. The Voting Agreements and proxies were acquired by Maxtor as part of the package of agreements as described in Item 4 below.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

(a) (b) On December 20, 2005, Maxtor Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Maxtor) (the reporting person in this Schedule 13D), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Seagate Technology, an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands (Seagate), and MD Merger Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Seagate (Merger Sub), by which Seagate has agreed to acquire Maxtor (the Merger). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Maxtor would be converted into the right to receive 0.37 shares of Seagate common stock. Consummation of the Merger is subject to several closing conditions, including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of Maxtor, the approval of the issuance of shares of Seagate common stock in the Merger by the stockholders of Seagate, and the receipt of antitrust approvals or the expiration of applicable waiting periods in certain jurisdictions. Upon completion of the Merger, Maxtor's former stockholders will own approximately 16% of the then outstanding Seagate Common Shares, based on the number of shares of Seagate and Maxtor outstanding on April 11, 2006. Seagate's shareholders prior to the Merger will continue to own their existing shares, which will not be affected by the Merger.

Contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and as a condition to Maxtor entering into the Merger Agreement, certain significant shareholders of Seagate, as well as Seagate's directors and certain executive officers entered into voting agreements with Maxtor (the Voting Agreements). As of December 20, 2005, the Seagate shareholders who entered into these Voting Agreements owned an aggregate of 84,639,937 Seagate common shares, collectively representing approximately 17% of the Seagate common shares outstanding on that date. As of the record date of the Seagate Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 17, 2006, these Seagate shareholders owned an aggregate of 79,058,058 Seagate common shares, collectively representing 16.0% of the Seagate common shares outstanding on that date.

The Seagate shareholders who are party to the Voting Agreements have agreed to vote all Seagate common shares beneficially owned by such shareholders in favor of any proposal to approve the issuance of Seagate common shares in the manner contemplated by, and subject to and in accordance with, the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement at every meeting of shareholders of Seagate called with respect to such proposal and at every postponement or adjournment of such meeting of shareholders. These Seagate shareholders have also agreed not to enter into any agreement or understanding with any person to vote or give instructions in any manner inconsistent with the terms of such Voting Agreement. The agreement to vote the Seagate common shares applies to all Seagate common shares owned by such shareholders as of the record date for such proposal, regardless of whether a transfer (including an exempt transfer, as described below) of some or all of such shares occurs after the record date for such proposal.

Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, each of these Seagate shareholders has also appointed Maxtor as such shareholder's proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote their Seagate common shares in favor of any proposal to approve the issuance of Seagate common shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The proxy and power of attorney granted pursuant to each Voting Agreement is irrevocable during the term of the Voting Agreement and revokes any and all prior proxies granted by such shareholder. The power of attorney granted by each shareholder is a durable power of attorney and survives the dissolution, bankruptcy, death or incapacity of such shareholder. The proxy and power of attorney granted pursuant to each Voting Agreement terminates upon the termination of the Voting Agreement.

Under the terms of the Voting Agreements, the Seagate shareholders party thereto may not, directly or indirectly, grant any proxies or enter into any voting trust or other agreement or arrangement that would transfer, limit or otherwise affect the rights of the shareholder with respect to the voting of any shares in respect of the proposal to approve the issuance of Seagate common shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Such shareholders have also agreed not to, directly or indirectly, transfer (other than an exempt transfer, as described below) any Seagate common shares, or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Seagate common shares, beneficially owned by such shareholder as of the date of the Voting Agreement or acquired after the date of the Voting Agreement, or any interest in the foregoing, unless the transferee executes a counterpart to the Voting Agreement, with such modifications as Maxtor may reasonably request, and agrees in writing to hold such shares, or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Seagate common shares, or such interest in the foregoing, subject to the terms and conditions of the Voting Agreement. The restriction on the transfer of Seagate common shares does not apply to exempt transfers, which include any (i) transfer or other grant of an economic or other pecuniary interest in or to the Seagate common shares (pursuant to the grant of an option, derivative interest or other similar arrangement), provided that the Seagate shareholder or other transferor retains all voting rights in respect of such Seagate common shares (which voting rights will remain subject to the voting obligations set forth in the Voting Agreements), (ii) transfers effected through an open market sale transaction, (iii) transfers made to an individual or entity in direct contemplation of an open market sale transaction (including a block trade to a broker-dealer or other similar transaction), or (iv) any transfer, other than to individuals or entities that are affiliates of a party to the Voting Agreement on the date of the Voting Agreement or the date of transfer, by a shareholder to its stockholders, partners or members in the form of pro rata dividends or distributions, whether upon liquidation or otherwise, of Seagate common shares that are immediately tradable in the hands of the transferee in open market sale transactions.

The Voting Agreements expire upon the earlier of the termination of the Merger Agreement, the effective time of the Merger, or any modification, waiver or amendment of the Merger Agreement which results in an increase in the exchange ratio.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a) (b) As a result of the Voting Agreements, Maxtor may be deemed to be the beneficial owner of at least 79,058,058 shares of Seagate Common Stock. Such shares constitute approximately 16.0% of the outstanding shares of Seagate Common Stock, based on the outstanding capitalization of the Seagate as of April 11, 2006, the record date for the Seagate Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 17, 2006, as represented by Seagate in the joint proxy statement/prospectus filed with the Securities Exchange Commission on April 14, 2006.

Maxtor has the power to vote up to the 79,058,058 Seagate Common Shares for the limited purposes described above under the Voting Agreements. Maxtor does not have the power to dispose or to direct the disposition of any such Seagate Common Shares pursuant to the Voting Agreements. Other than the limited voting rights described in Items 3 and 4 above, Maxtor (i) is not entitled to any rights as a stockholder of Seagate as to the Common Shares covered by the Voting Agreements and (ii) disclaims any beneficial ownership of the Seagate Common Shares which are covered by the Voting Agreements.

To Maxtor's knowledge, no shares of Seagate Common Stock are beneficially owned by any of the persons named in Schedule A.
