In this report, references to the Company, our company, we, our, ours and us refer to Sally Beauty Holdings, its consolidated subsidiaries for periods after the separation from Alberto-Culver Company (Alberto-Culver) and to Sally Holdings, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries for periods prior to the separation from Alberto-Culver unless otherwise indicated or context otherwise requires.

Cautionary Notice Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this report which are not purely historical facts or which depend upon future events may be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Words such as anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, intend, plan, project, target, can, could, may, should, will, would, or similar expressions may also be used in forward-looking statements.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as such statements speak only as of the date they were made. Any forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from the events or results described in the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, risks and uncertainties related to: our limited history as a stand-alone company; the preparedness of our accounting and other management systems to meet financial reporting and other requirements; the representativeness of our historical consolidated financial information with respect to our future financial position, results of operations or cash flows; realizing the anticipated benefits of our separation from Alberto-Culver; the fact that, as a separate entity, we will not enjoy all of the benefits of scale that Alberto-Culver achieved with the combination of its consumer products business and our business;; being a holding company, with no operations of our own, and depending on our subsidiaries for cash; the highly competitive nature of the beauty products distribution industry; anticipating changes in consumer preferences and buying trends or to manage our product lines and inventory; our dependence upon manufacturers; products sold by us being found to be defective in labeling or content; compliance with laws and regulations or becoming subject to additional or more stringent laws and regulations; product diversion; successfully identifying acquisition candidates or successfully completing desirable acquisitions; integration of businesses acquired in the future; opening and operating new stores profitably; protecting our intellectual property rights, specifically our trademarks; obtaining the consent of third parties under our contracts; conducting business in international markets; disruption in our information technology systems; natural disasters or acts of terrorism; our substantial indebtedness; the possibility that we may incur substantial additional debt; restrictions and limitations in the agreements and instruments governing our debt; generating the significant amount of cash needed to service all of our debt and refinancing all or a portion of our indebtedness or obtaining additional financing; changes in interest rates increasing the cost of servicing our debt or increasing our interest expense due to our interest rate swap agreements; the share distribution of Alberto-Culver common stock in our separation from Alberto-Culver not constituting a tax-free distribution; actions taken by certain large shareholders adversely affecting the tax-free nature of the share distribution of Alberto-Culver common stock; significant restrictions on our ability to issue or repurchase equity securities; the voting power of our largest stockholder discouraging third party acquisitions of us at a premium; and the interests of our largest stockholder differing from the interests of other holders of our common stock.

Additional factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from the events or results described in the forward-looking statements can be found in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Consequently, all forward-looking statements in this release are qualified by the factors, risks and uncertainties contained therein. We assume no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.

Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries
Condensed Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Description of Business and Basis of Presentation

Description of Business

Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries (the Company) sell professional beauty supplies, primarily through its Sally Beauty Supply retail stores, in the United States, United Kingdom, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Japan, Canada, Ireland and Germany. Additionally, the Company distributes professional beauty products to salons and professional cosmetologists through its Beauty Systems Group (BSG) store operations and a commissioned direct sales force that calls on salons in the United States and portions of Canada and certain European countries and to franchises in the southern and southwestern United States and Mexico through its Armstrong McCall operations. The beauty products sold by BSG and Armstrong McCall are primarily sold through exclusive territory agreements with the manufacturers of the products. Until November 16, 2006, the Company was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alberto-Culver Company (Alberto-Culver).

On November 10, 2006, the stockholders of Alberto-Culver approved a plan to separate its consumer products business and its Sally Beauty Supply/BSG distribution business into two separate, publicly traded companies. This is more fully discussed in Note 2. The separation was completed on November 16, 2006. The transactions were effected pursuant to an Investment Agreement dated as of June 19, 2006, among Alberto-Culver and certain of its subsidiaries, including Sally Holdings, Inc., and CDRS Acquisition LLC. Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. became the accounting successor company to Sally Holdings, Inc. upon the completion of the transactions. See Note 2 that describes certain transaction expenses incurred by the Company as a result of the separation.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated interim financial statements included herein are unaudited and have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Certain information and note disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations, although the Company believes that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information not misleading. The consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. In the opinion of management, these condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which are of a normal recurring nature and which are necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position as of December 31, 2006, the results of operations for the three month periods ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, and cash flows for the three months ended December 31, 2006 and 2005. The results of operations for the three months ended December 31, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results, which may be expected for the entire fiscal year. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

These consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006. The Company adheres to the same accounting policies in preparation of interim financial statements. As permitted under generally accepted accounting principles, interim accounting for certain expenses, including income taxes, are based on full year assumptions. Such amounts are expensed in full in the year incurred. For interim financial reporting purposes, income taxes are recorded based upon estimated annual effective income tax rates.

2. Spin/Merge and Separation Transaction

On January 10, 2006, Alberto-Culver entered into an agreement with Regis Corporation (Regis) to merge the Company with a subsidiary of Regis in a tax-free transaction. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the Company was to be spun off to Alberto-Culver s stockholders by way of a tax-free distribution and, immediately thereafter, combined with Regis in a tax-free stock-for-stock merger.

On April 5, 2006, Alberto-Culver provided notice to Regis that its board of directors had withdrawn its recommendation for shareholders to approve the transaction. Following Alberto-Culver s notice to Regis, also on April 5, 2006, Regis provided notice to Alberto-Culver that it was terminating the merger agreement effective immediately. In connection with the termination of the merger agreement, Alberto-Culver paid Regis a $50.0 million termination fee on April 10, 2006. In addition, Alberto-Culver and the Company incurred transaction expenses, primarily legal and investment banking fees, during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2005 and the first nine months of fiscal year 2006. The total amount of transaction expenses, including the termination fee, was $56.2 million ($35.2 million after taxes). The Company expensed approximately $37.5 million ($23.2 million after taxes) of this amount in the second and third quarters of fiscal year 2006 in accordance with the terms of the transaction agreements. All transaction related expenses incurred are expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

On June 19, 2006, Alberto-Culver announced a plan to split its beauty supply distribution business, the Company, from its consumer products business. Pursuant to an investment agreement, CDRS Acquisition LLC (CDRS), a limited liability company organized by Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund VII, L.P., would invest $575 million to obtain an equity ownership of approximately 48% of the Company on a fully-diluted basis and the Company would incur approximately $1.85 billion of new debt. Upon closing of the transactions, Alberto-Culver shareholders would receive, for each share of Alberto-Culver common stock then owned, (i) one share of common stock of New Alberto-Culver, which will own and operate Alberto-Culver's consumer products business, (ii) one share of common stock of Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc., which will own and operate the Company's beauty supply distribution business and (iii) a $25.00 per share special cash dividend.

On November 16, 2006, we separated from Alberto-Culver, pursuant to the Investment Agreement, dated as of June 19, 2006, as amended, among us, Alberto-Culver, CDRS and others, which we refer to as the Investment Agreement. As a result of the separation, (i) we own and operate the Sally Beauty Supply and BSG distribution businesses that were owned and operated by Alberto-Culver prior to the separation, (ii) at the closing of the separation transaction, the stockholders of Alberto-Culver prior to the separation became the beneficial owners of approximately 52% of our outstanding common stock on an undiluted basis and the CDR investors, who in the aggregate invested $575 million in our company, received an equity interest representing approximately 48% of our outstanding common stock on a fully-diluted basis and (iii) Alberto-Culver continues to own and operate its consumer products business. In addition, on November 16, 2006, in connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver:

Sally Holdings and certain of our other subsidiaries incurred approximately $1,850 million of indebtedness, including (i) $1,070 million by drawing on its two senior term loan facilities, (ii) $70 million by drawing on its ABL facility and (iii) $710 million from the issuance of $430 million of senior notes and $280 million of senior subordinated notes;

We used approximately $2,342 million, a substantial portion of the proceeds of the investment by the CDR investors and the debt incurrence, to pay a $25.00 per share special cash dividend to holders of record Alberto-Culver shares as of the record date for the separation transaction.

Alberto-Culver treated our separation from it as though it constituted a change in control for all employees and directors under its equity and incentive compensation plans and as a change in control for our employees under its deferred compensation plan. Accordingly, options to purchase Alberto-Culver common stock issued under Alberto-Culver equity compensation plans outstanding as of the completion of the separation and held by our employees and John A. Miller, who was a non-employee director of Alberto-Culver prior to the separation and is now an independent member of our Board of Directors, became fully exercisable options to purchase our common stock. Restrictions on restricted stock issued under Alberto-Culver equity compensation plans prior to completion of the separation, including restricted stock held by executive officers of Alberto-Culver, lapsed on November 16, 2006. We recorded a one-time charge of $5.3 million during the first quarter of fiscal year 2007 for the amount of future compensation expense that would have been recognized in subsequent periods as the stock options and restricted shares for our employees vested over the original vesting periods.

On November 16, 2006, pursuant to the Investment Agreement, we paid a transaction fee of $30 million to Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc., the manager of both Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund VII, L.P., the sole member of CDRS, and Parallel Fund as well as $1.1 million to CDRS for expenses it incurred in connection with its investment in our company and our separation from Alberto-Culver. The majority of the transaction fee paid to Clayton, Dubilier &

Rice, Inc. and of the expenses paid to CDRS, along with other professional services and due diligence fees, were considered to be costs of raising equity and were recorded as a reduction to additional paid-in capital of approximately $42.2 million.

Pursuant to the Investment Agreement, we also paid approximately $20.4 million to Alberto-Culver, $16.4 million during the quarter ended December 31, 2006 and $4.0 million during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, for its expenses incurred in connection with the separation. We also paid approximately $58.8 million in fees for the debt financing incurred by our subsidiaries in connection with the separation.

On November 16, 2006, pursuant to the terms of the separation agreement entered into in connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver, all of our and our subsidiaries' cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments were transferred to Alberto-Culver other than $91.1 million, equal to the sum of $52.7 million plus an additional amount equal to $38.4 million, which is the sum of (i) an estimate of the amount needed to cover certain income taxes (as specified in the tax allocation agreement entered into in connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver), (ii) an amount determined pursuant to a formula intended to reflect the limitations placed on the number of our shares that the CDR investors were able to acquire without jeopardizing the intended tax-free nature of the share distribution of shares of Alberto-Culver common stock to our stockholders in connection with the separation, and (iii) unpaid balances on certain of our specified liabilities, minus other specified transaction costs. An adjustment to the cash transfer, as determined under the terms of the separation and tax allocation agreements, of approximately $1.9 million is estimated to be paid during the second quarter of fiscal year 2007. All inter-company receivables, payables and loans between us and our subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Alberto-Culver and its subsidiaries, on the other hand, other than those specifically designated in the separation agreement to survive following the separation, were canceled immediately prior to the time of the distributions we made on November 16, 2006, in connection with the separation. In addition, prior thereto, all inter-company agreements between us and our subsidiaries and Alberto-Culver and its subsidiaries terminated, other than certain agreements specifically designated in the separation agreement to survive following the separation.

Upon completion of the separation, Michael H. Renzulli, former Chairman of Sally Holdings, Inc., terminated his employment with Alberto-Culver and us. We agreed to provide Mr. Renzulli with certain benefits primarily consisting of a lump-sum cash payment of $3.6 million. We recorded the expense for the payment during the quarter ending December 31, 2006 and the amount was paid in January 2007.

3. Stockholders (Deficit) / Equity

Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. has negative stockholders' equity as of December 31, 2006 as a result of a deficit in retained earnings. During the three months ended December 31, 2006 retained earnings decreased as a result of the dividend payment of approximately $2,342.1 million to the shareholders of Alberto-Culver, called for under the separation agreement from Alberto-Culver. The proceeds from the equity contribution of $575.0 million from CDRS and the proceeds from the issuance of the debt were used to fund this dividend. In addition, retained earnings decreased by $41.9 million as a result of settlement of the inter-company agreement with Alberto-Culver, treated as a dividend.

During the three months ended December 31, 2006 additional paid-in capital decreased as a result of a portion of the $30.0 million fee paid by Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. to Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. and the expenses paid to CDRS along with other professional services and due diligence fees. These were considered to be costs of raising equity and were recorded as a reduction to additional paid-in capital in the amount of approximately $42.2 million. During the three months ended December 31, 2006 and prior to its separation from Alberto-Culver, the Company recorded an increase in additional paid-in capital for stock issued by Alberto-Culver. The stock was issued to the former owner of Monarch Beauty Supply Co. Ltd., a subsidiary previously owned by Alberto-Culver and contributed by Alberto-Culver to Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. in 2003. The additional paid-in capital recorded by Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc., as an adjustment of $1.1 million to stockholder contribution, reflects the effect of certain pre-acquisition tax liabilities fully indemnified by the seller, for which Alberto-Culver retained the proceeds.

4. Long-Term Debt

In connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver, the Company, through its subsidiaries, incurred $1,850 million of indebtedness by drawing on a revolving (asset-based lending) facility in an amount equal to $70 million, entered into two term loan facilities (term loans A and B) in an aggregate amount of $1,070 million, and issued senior notes in an aggregate amount of $430 million and senior subordinated notes in an aggregate amount of $280 million.

The term loan facilities and asset-based lending facility are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries. The term loan credit facilities may be prepaid at the Company's option at any time without premium or penalty and are subject to mandatory prepayment in an amount equal to 50% of excess cash flow (as defined in the agreements) for any fiscal year (commencing in fiscal year 2008) unless a specified leverage ratio is met and 100% of the proceeds of specified asset sales that are not reinvested in the business or applied to repay borrowings under the asset-based lending credit facility.

The senior and senior subordinated notes are unsecured obligations of the issuers and are guaranteed on a senior basis (in the case of the senior notes) and on a senior subordinated basis (in the case of the senior subordinated notes) by each material domestic subsidiary of the Company. The senior notes and the senior subordinated notes carry optional redemption features whereby the Company has the option to redeem the notes on or before November 15, 2010 and November 15, 2011, respectively, at par plus a premium, plus accrued and unpaid interest, and on or after November 15, 2010 and November 15, 2011, respectively, at par plus a premium declining ratably to par, plus accrued and unpaid interest.

Details of the debt issued on November 16, 2006 are as follows (in thousands):

5. Interest Rate Swaps

On November 24, 2006, the Company entered into two interest rate swap agreements with a notional amount of $150.0 million and $350.0 million. These agreements expire in two and three years, respectively. Both agreements allow the Company to convert a portion of its variable rate interest to a fixed rate at 4.9975% plus (2.00% to 2.50%) and 4.94% plus (2.25% to 2.50%), respectively. These interest rate swap agreements relate to $500 million of the $1,070 million Term loans A and B due in 2012 and 2014, respectively to manage the Company's risk associated with changing interest rates. Under the swap agreements, the Company will pay a fixed rates of 4.9975% plus (2.00% to 2.50%) and 4.94% plus (2.25% to 2.50%) on a quarterly basis in exchange for receiving floating rate payments based on the three-month LIBOR rate.

The Company utilizes interest rate swaps to manage the risk associated with changing interest rates and accounts for them under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended (SFAS 133). SFAS 133 requires that all derivatives be marked to market (fair value). The Company does not purchase or hold any derivative instruments for trading purposes. The interest rate swap agreements do not currently qualify as hedges and, therefore, the change in fair value of the interest rate swap agreements, which are adjusted quarterly, are recorded in the results of operations. The fair value of the swap agreements at December 31, 2006, was an asset of approximately $1.0 million.

Fair value estimates presented for the swap agreements are based on third-party information and were determined using proprietary models based upon well-recognized financial principals and reasonable estimates about relevant future market conditions.

The counter-parties to these swap instruments are large financial institutions which the Company believes are of high quality creditworthiness. While the Company may be exposed to potential losses due to the credit risk of nonperformance by these counter-parties, such losses are not anticipated.

The marked to market impact of the swap arrangements on interest expense was a decrease of approximately $1.0 million in the three months ended December 31, 2006. However, changes in the fair value of the interest rate swap agreements will increase or decrease our net interest expense and therefore may affect our profitability.

6. Net Earnings Per Share

Basic net earnings per share is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share was calculated similarly but includes potential dilution from the exercise of stock options.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share for the three months ended December 31, 2006 (in thousands, except per share data):

Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries
Condensed Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

	Three Months Ended December 31, 2006
Net earnings	$ 3,141
Total weighted-average basic shares (1)	180,096
Dilutive securities:
Stock option programs	2,233
Total weighted average diluted shares	182,329
Earnings per share:
Basic	$ 0.02
Diluted	$ 0.02

(1) Weighted average shares was calculated from November 16, 2006 through December 31, 2006, which represents the actual number of days the Company's shares were publicly traded.

Net earnings per share was not calculated for the three months ended December 31, 2005 as the Company was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alberto-Culver during fiscal year 2005. See Note 2 for details on the separation from Alberto-Culver.

At December 31, 2006, options to purchase 2,622,909 shares of common stock were outstanding but not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share, as these options' exercise prices, ranging from $9.45 to $9.57, were greater than the average market price of the common shares.

7. Share-Based Payments

The Company accounts for stock option and restricted stock plans in accordance with SFAS 123 (Revised 2004), Share-Based Payment SFAS 123 (R) . Accord
