Dear Members of the Board:

It is unfortunate you have decided not to settle this proxy contest and instead have decided to use stockholders' money to continue a time-consuming, disruptive, and costly campaign against Trian.

After having met with most of the large institutional stockholders of DuPont over the last several weeks, we believe that there is strong interest in having a Trian principal on the DuPont board. We are also pleased with the positive feedback that we have received from DuPont stockholders regarding all of Trian's nominees.

We remain open to discussing a realistic settlement.

Sincerely,
