Part I of Annual Report on Form 10-K

Item 1. Business

U.S. Global Investors, Inc. (the Company or U.S. Global) has made forward-looking statements concerning the Company's performance, financial condition, and operations in this report. The Company from time to time may also make forward-looking statements in its public filings and press releases. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various known and unknown risks and uncertainties and do not guarantee future performance. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, some of which are beyond the Company's control, including (i) the volatile and competitive nature of the investment management industry, (ii) changes in domestic and foreign economic conditions, (iii) the effect of government regulation on the Company's business, and (iv) market, credit, and liquidity risks associated with the Company's investment management activities. Due to such risks, uncertainties, and other factors, the Company cautions each person receiving such forward-looking information not to place undue reliance on such statements. All such forward-looking statements are current only as of the date on which such statements were made.

U.S. Global, a Texas corporation organized in 1968, is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Company and its subsidiaries are principally engaged in the business of providing investment advisory and other services to U.S. Global Investors Funds (USGIF) and U.S. Global Accolade Funds (USGAF), both Massachusetts business trusts (collectively, the Trusts or Funds), as well as offshore clients. USGIF and USGAF are investment companies offering shares of nine and four mutual funds, respectively, on a no-load basis.

As part of the mutual fund management business, the Company provides: (1) investment advisory services; (2) transfer agency and record keeping services; (3) mailing services; and (4) distribution services, through its wholly owned broker-dealer, to mutual funds advised by the Company. The fees from investment advisory and transfer agent services, as well as investment income, are the primary sources of the Company's revenue.

Lines of Business

Investment Management Services

Investment Advisory Services. The Company furnishes an investment program for each of the clients it manages and determines, subject to overall supervision by the applicable board of trustees of the clients, the clients' investments pursuant to advisory agreements (the Advisory Agreements). Consistent with the investment restrictions, objectives and policies of the particular client, the portfolio team for each client determines what investments should be purchased, sold and held, and makes changes in the portfolio deemed to be necessary or appropriate. In the Advisory Agreements, the Company is charged with seeking the best overall terms in executing portfolio transactions and selecting brokers or dealers.

The Company also manages, supervises, and conducts certain other affairs of USGIF and USGAF, subject to the control of the Funds' boards of trustees. It provides office space, facilities, and certain business equipment as well as the services of executive and clerical personnel for administering the affairs of the Funds. U.S. Global and its affiliates compensate all personnel, officers, directors, and interested trustees of the Funds if such persons are also employees of the Company or its affiliates.

However, the Funds are required to reimburse the Company for a portion of the compensation of the Company's employees who perform certain state and federal securities law regulatory compliance work on behalf of the Funds based upon an agreed upon allocation of the employee's compensation or on the time spent on such matters. The Company is responsible for costs associated with marketing Fund shares to the extent not otherwise covered by a distribution plan adopted pursuant to Investment Company Act Rule 12b-1 (12b-1 Plan).

As required by the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Advisory Agreements with USGIF and USGAF are subject to annual renewal and are terminable upon 60-day notice. The boards of trustees of USGIF and USGAF will meet to consider renewal of the applicable agreements in February and May 2009, respectively. Management anticipates that these Advisory Agreements will be renewed.

In addition to providing management and transfer agent services to USGIF and USGAF, the Company provides advisory services to three offshore clients.

Net assets under management at June 30, 2008, and 2007, are detailed in the following table.

Transfer Agent and Other Services. The Company's wholly owned subsidiary, United Shareholder Services, Inc. (USSI), is a transfer agent registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, providing transfer agency and printing services to investment company clients. The transfer agency utilizes a third-party external system providing the Company's fund shareholder communication network with computer equipment and software designed to meet the operating requirements of a mutual fund transfer agency.

The transfer agency's duties encompass, but are not limited to, the following: (1) acting as servicing agent in connection with dividend and distribution functions; (2) performing shareholder account and administrative agent functions in connection with the issuance, transfer and redemption, or repurchase of shares; (3) maintaining such records as are necessary to document transactions in the Funds shares;

(4) acting as servicing agent in connection with mailing of shareholder communications, including reports to shareholders, dividend and distribution notices, and proxy materials for shareholder meetings; and (5) investigating and answering all shareholder account inquiries.

The transfer agency agreements provide that USSI will receive, as compensation for services rendered as transfer agent, certain annual and activity-based fees and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses. In connection with obtaining/providing administrative services to the beneficial owners of fund shares through institutions that provide such services and maintain an omnibus account with USSI, each fund pays a monthly fee based on the number of accounts or the value of the shares of the fund held in accounts at the institution.

The transfer agency agreements with USGIF and USGAF are subject to renewal on an annual basis and are terminable upon 60-day notice. The boards of trustees of USGIF and USGAF will meet to consider renewal of the applicable agreements in February and May 2009, respectively. Management anticipates that these transfer agency agreements will be renewed.

Brokerage Services. The Company has registered its wholly owned subsidiary, U.S. Global Brokerage, Inc. (USGB), with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), formerly known as the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and appropriate state regulatory authorities as a limited-purpose broker-dealer for the purpose of distributing USGIF and USGAF fund shares. USGB is the distributor for USGIF and USGAF fund shares.

Mailing Services. A&B Mailers, Inc., now known as USSI Mailers, was dissolved during fiscal year 2008 and its operation was rolled into USSI. USSI Mailers provides mail-handling services to various entities; its primary customers include the Company in connection with its efforts to promote the funds and the Company's investment company clients in connection with required mailings.

Corporate Investments

Investment Activities. In addition to providing management and advisory services, the Company is actively engaged in trading for its own account.

Employees

As of June 30, 2008, U.S. Global and its subsidiaries employed 84 full-time employees and 9 part-time employees; as of June 30, 2007, it employed 76 full-time employees and 6 part-time employees. The Company considers its relationship with its employees to be good.

Competition

The mutual fund industry is highly competitive. According to the Investment Company Institute, at the end of 2007 there were approximately 8,000 domestically registered open-end investment companies of varying sizes and investment policies, whose shares are being offered to the public worldwide. Generally, there are two types of mutual funds: load and no-load. In addition, there are both load and no-load funds that have adopted Rule 12b-1 plans authorizing the payment of distribution costs of the funds out of fund assets. USGAF is a trust with no-load funds that has adopted 12b-1 plans. Load funds are typically sold through or sponsored by brokerage firms, and a sales commission is charged on the amount of the investment. No-load funds, such as the USGIF and USGAF funds, however, may be purchased directly from the particular mutual fund organization or through a distributor, and no sales commissions are charged.

In addition to competition from other mutual fund managers and investment advisers, the Company and the mutual fund industry are in competition with various investment alternatives offered by insurance companies, banks, securities broker-dealers, and other financial institutions. Many of these institutions are able to engage in more liberal advertising than mutual funds and may offer accounts at competitive interest rates, which may be insured by federally chartered corporations such as the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. A number of mutual fund groups are significantly larger than the funds managed by U.S. Global, offer a greater variety of investment objectives, and have more experience and greater resources to promote the sale of investments therein. However, the Company believes it has the resources, products, and personnel to compete with these other mutual funds. In particular, the Company is known for its expertise in the gold mining and exploration and natural resources industries. Competition for sales of fund shares is influenced by various factors, including investment objectives and performance, advertising and sales promotional efforts, distribution channels, and the types and quality of services offered to fund shareholders.

Success in the investment advisory and mutual fund share distribution businesses is substantially dependent on each fund's investment performance, the quality of services provided to shareholders, and the Company's efforts to market the funds effectively. Sales of fund shares generate management fees (which are based on assets of the funds) and transfer agent fees (which are based on the number of fund accounts and the activity in those accounts). Costs of distribution and compliance continue to put pressure on profit margins for the mutual fund industry.

Furthermore, the Company acts as an investment adviser to three offshore funds. Despite the Company's expertise in gold mining and exploration and natural resources, the Company faces the same obstacle many advisers face, namely uncovering undervalued investment opportunities as the markets face further uncertainty and increased volatility. In addition, the growing number of alternative investments, especially in specialized areas, has created pressure on the profit margins and increased competition for available investment opportunities.

Supervision and Regulation

The Company, USSI, USGB, and the investment companies the Company manages and administers operate under certain laws, including federal and state securities laws, governing their organization, registration, operation, legal, financial, and tax status. Among the potential penalties for violation of the laws and regulations applicable to the Company and its subsidiaries are fines, imprisonment, injunctions, revocation of registration, and certain additional administrative sanctions. Any determination that the Company or its management has violated applicable laws and regulations could have a material adverse effect on the business of the Company. Moreover, there is no assurance that changes to existing laws, regulations, or rulings promulgated by governmental entities having jurisdiction over the Company and the funds will not have a material adverse effect on its business. The Company has no control over regulatory rulemaking or the consequences it may have on the mutual fund and investment advisory industry. Recent and accelerating regulatory pronouncements and oversight have significantly increased the burden of compliance infrastructure with respect to the mutual fund industry and the capital markets. This momentum of new regulations has contributed significantly to the costs of managing and administering mutual funds.

U.S. Global Investors, Inc. is registered as an investment adviser with the SEC. As a registered investment adviser, it is subject to the requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and the SEC's regulations there under, as well as to examination by the SEC's staff. The Investment Advisers Act of 1940 imposes substantive regulation on virtually all aspects of our business and relationships with our clients. Applicable requirements relate to, among other things, fiduciary duties to clients, engaging in transactions with clients, maintaining an effective compliance program, conflicts of interest, advertising, recordkeeping, reporting and disclosure requirements. The funds for which the Company acts as the investment adviser are registered with the SEC under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The Investment Company Act of 1940 imposes additional obligations, including detailed operational requirements for both the funds and their advisers.

Moreover, an investment adviser's contract with a registered fund may be terminated by the fund on not more than 60 days' notice, and is subject to annual renewal by the fund's board after an initial two-year term. Both the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and the Investment Company Act 1940 regulate the assignment of advisory contracts by the investment adviser. The SEC is authorized to institute proceedings and impose sanctions for violations of the Investment Advisers Act and the Investment Company Act, ranging from fines and censures to termination of an investment adviser's registration. The failure of the Company, or the funds which the Company advises, to comply with the requirements of the SEC could have a material adverse effect on us.

USGB is subject to regulation by the SEC under the 1934 Act and regulation by FINRA (formerly known as the NASD), a self-regulatory organization composed of other registered broker-dealers. U.S. Global, USSI and USGB are required to keep and maintain certain reports and records, which must be made available to the SEC and FINRA upon request.

Relationships with Clients

The businesses of the Company are, to a very significant degree, dependent on their associations and contractual relationships with the Funds. In the event the advisory or transfer agent services agreements with USGIF or USGAF are canceled or not renewed pursuant to the terms thereof, the Company would be substantially adversely affected.

U.S. Global, USSI, and USGB consider their relationships with the Funds to be good, and they have no reason to believe that their management and service contracts will not be renewed in the future; however, there is no assurance that USGIF and USGAF will choose to continue their relationships with the Company, USSI, or USGB.

In addition, the Company is also dependent on its relationships with its offshore clients. Even though the Company views its relationship with its offshore clients as stable, the Company could be adversely affected if these relationships ended.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

The Company faces a variety of significant and diverse risks, many of which are inherent in the business. Described below are certain risks that could materially affect the Company. Other risks and uncertainties that the Company does not presently consider to be material, or of which the Company is not presently aware, may become important factors that affect it in the future. The occurrence of any of the risks discussed below could materially and adversely affect the business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations or cash flow.

The investment management business is intensely competitive.

Competition in the investment management business is based on a variety of factors, including:

Investment performance;

Investor perception of an investment team's drive, focus and alignment of interest with them;

Quality of service provided to, and duration of relationships with, clients and shareholders;

Business reputation; and

Level of fees charged for services.

The Company competes with a large number of investment management firms, commercial banks, broker-dealers, insurance companies and other financial institutions. Competitive risk is heightened by the fact that some competitors may invest according to different investment styles or in alternative asset classes which the markets may perceive as more attractive than the Company's investment approach. If the Company is unable to compete effectively, revenues and earnings may be reduced, and the business could be materially affected.

A decline in securities markets could lead to a decline in revenues.

Changes in economic or market conditions may adversely affect the profitability, performance of and demand for the Company's investment products and services. The ability of the Company to compete and grow is dependent on the relative attractiveness of the types of investment products the Company offers and its investment performance and strategies under prevailing market conditions.

Poor investment performance could lead to a decline in revenues.

Success in the investment management industry is largely dependent on investment performance relative to market conditions and the performance of competing products. Good relative performance generally attracts additional assets under management, resulting in additional revenues. Conversely, poor performance generally results in decreased sales and increased redemptions with a corresponding decrease in revenues. Therefore, poor investment performance relative to the portfolio benchmarks and to competitors could impair the Company's revenues and growth.

Investment advisory fees are a significant portion of revenue and may be negatively affected by decreases in assets under management.

Changes which may negatively impact assets under management, and thus, the Company's revenue, profitability and ability to grow include market depreciation, redemptions from shareholder accounts and terminations of client accounts.

The Company's clients can terminate their agreements with the Company on short notice, which may lead to unexpected declines in revenue and profitability.

The Company's investment advisory agreements are generally terminable on short notice and subject to annual renewal. The Company's clients can terminate their relationships with us, or reduce the aggregate amount of assets under management, for a number of reasons, including investment performance, financial market performance, or to shift their funds to competitors who may charge lower advisory fee rates, or for no stated reason. Poor performance relative to that of other investment management firms tend to result in decreased investments in the funds managed by the Company, increased withdrawals from the funds, and the loss of shareholders in the funds. If the Company's investment advisory agreements are terminated, which may occur in a short time frame, the Company may experience a decline in revenues and profitability.

Difficult market conditions can adversely affect the Company by reducing the market value of the assets we manage or causing shareholders to make significant redemptions.

The Company would be expected to generate lower revenues in a declining stock market or general economic downturn. Under the Company's advisory fee arrangements, the fees received are primarily based on the market value of assets under management. Accordingly, a decline in the price of securities held in the funds would be expected to cause revenues and net income to decline, which would result in lower advisory fees; or cause increased shareholder redemptions in favor of investments they perceive as offering greater opportunity or lower risk, which redemptions would also result in lower advisory fees.

Market-specific risks may negatively impact the Company's earnings.

The Company manages certain funds in the emerging market and natural resource sectors, which are highly cyclical. The investments in the funds are subject to significant loss due to political, economic, and diplomatic developments, currency fluctuations, social instability, and changes in governmental policies. Foreign trading markets, particularly in some emerging market countries, are often smaller, less liquid, less regulated and significantly more volatile than the U.S. and other established markets.

The market price and trading volume of the Company's class A common stock may be volatile, which could result in rapid and substantial losses for the Company's stockholders.

The market price of the Company's class A common stock may be volatile and the trading volume may fluctuate, causing significant price variations to occur. If the market price of the Company's class A common stock declines significantly, stockholders may be unable to sell their shares at or above their purchase price. The Company cannot assure that the market price of its class A common stock will not fluctuate or decline significantly in the future. Some of the factors that could negatively affect the price of the Company's class A common stock, or result in fluctuations in price or trading volume include:

Decreases in assets under management;

Variations in quarterly and annual operating results;

Publication of research reports about the Company or the investment management industry;

Departures of key personnel;

Adverse market reactions to any indebtedness the Company may incur, acquisitions or disposals the Company may make, or securities the Company may issue in the future;

Changes in market valuations of similar companies;

Changes or proposed changes in laws or regulations, or differing interpretations thereof, affecting the business, or enforcement of these laws and regulations, or announcements relating to these matters;

Adverse publicity about the asset management industry, generally, or individual scandals, specifically; and

General market and economic conditions.

The market price of the Company's class A common stock could decline due the large number of shares of the Company's class C common stock eligible for future sale upon conversion to class A shares.

The market price of the Company's class A common stock could decline as a result of sales of a large number of shares of class A common stock eligible for future sale upon the conversion of class C shares, or the perception that such sales could occur. These sales, or the possibility that these sales may occur, also might make it more difficult for the Company to raise additional capital by selling equity securities in the future, at a time and price the Company deems appropriate.

Failure to comply with government regulations could result in fines, which could cause the Company's earnings and stock price to decline.

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to a variety of federal securities laws and agencies, including, but not limited to, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, the Bank Secrecy Act of 1970, as amended, the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, the SEC, FINRA and NASDAQ. Moreover, financial reporting requirements, and the processes, controls and procedures that have been put in place to address them, are comprehensive and complex. While management has focused attention and resources on compliance policies and procedures, non-compliance with applicable laws or regulations could result in fines, sanctions or censures which could affect the Company's reputation, and thus its revenues and earnings.

Increased regulatory and legislative actions and reforms could increase costs and negatively impact the Company's profitability and future financial results.

During the past seven years, the federal securities laws have been substantially augmented and made significantly more complex by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and USA PATRIOT Act of 2001. With new laws and changes in interpretations and enforcement of existing requirements, the associated time the Company must dedicate to, and related costs the Company must incur in, meeting the regulatory complexities of the business have increased. In order to comply with these new requirements, the Company has had to expend additional time and resources, including substantial efforts to conduct evaluations required to ensure compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Moreover, current and pending regulatory and legislative actions and reforms affecting the mutual fund industry may negatively impact earnings by increasing the Company's costs of dealing in the financial markets.

The Company intends to pay regular dividends to its stockholders, but the ability to do so is subject to the discretion of the board of directors.

The Company intends to pay cash dividends on a monthly basis, but the board of directors, at its discretion, may decrease the level or frequency of dividends or discontinue payment of dividends entirely based on earnings, operations, capital requirements, general financial condition of the Company, and general business conditions.

The loss of key personnel could negatively affect the Company's financial performance.

The success of the Company depends on key personnel, including the portfolio managers, analysts and executive officers. Competition for qualified, motivated and skilled personnel in the asset management industry remains significant. As the business grows, the Company will likely need to increase the number of employees. Moreover, in order to retain certain key personnel, the Company may be required to increase compensation to such individuals, resulting in additional expense. The loss of key personnel or the Company's failure to attract replacement personnel could negatively affect its financial performance.

Item 2. Properties

The Company presently owns and occupies an office building as its headquarters in San Antonio, Texas. The office building is approximately 46,000 square feet on approximately 2.5 acres of land.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

There are no material legal proceedings in which the Company is involved. There are no material legal proceedings to which any director, officer or affiliate of the Company or any associate of any such director or officer is a party or has a material interest, adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

 Holders

On August 22, 2008, there were approximately 192 holders of record of class A common stock, no holders of record of class B common stock, and 53 holders of record of class C common stock.

 Dividends

On March 29, 2007, a two-for-one stock split became effective and shareholders of record were paid a $0.25 per share dividend (post-split). The board then authorized a dividend of $0.01 per share per month beginning in June 2007. The board authorized an increase to $0.02 per share per month beginning in October 2007. The dividend is payable on class A and class C shares. The monthly dividend is authorized through December 2008 and will be considered for continuation at that time by the board. Prior to 2007, the Company had not paid cash dividends on its class C common stock during the previous twenty-two fiscal years and had never paid dividends on its class A common stock.

Table of Contents

Payment of cash dividends is within the discretion of the Company's board of directors and is dependent on earnings, operations, capital requirements, general financial condition of the Company, and general business conditions.

Purchases of equity securities by the issuer

The Company may repurchase stock from employees. There were no repurchases of class A, B or class C common stock during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008.

Company Performance Presentation

The following graph compares the cumulative total return for the Company's class A common stock (GROW) to the cumulative total return for the S&P 500 Index, the Russell 2000 Index and the American Stock Exchange Gold BUGS Index (HUI) for the Company's last five fiscal years. The graph assumes an investment of $10,000 in the class A common stock and in each index as of June 30, 2003, and that all dividends are reinvested. The historical information included in this graph is not necessarily indicative of future performance and the Company does not make or endorse any predictions as to future stock performance.

Table of ContentsItem 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

This discussion reviews and analyzes the consolidated results of operations for the past three fiscal years and other factors that may affect future financial performance. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements, Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, and Selected Financial Data.

Business Segments

U.S. Global, with principal operations located in San Antonio, Texas, manages two business segments. First, the Company offers a broad range of investment management products and services to meet the needs of individual and institutional investors, and second, the Company invests for its own account in an effort to add growth and value to its cash position. For more details on the results of our core operations, see Note 14 – Financial Information by Business Segment.

The Company generates substantially all its operating revenues from the investment management of products and services for USGIF, USGAF (collectively, the Funds) and three offshore clients. Although the Company generates the majority of its revenues from its investment advisory segment, the Company holds a significant amount of its total assets in investments. As of June 30, 2008, the Company held approximately $8.2 million in investments, comprising 18.1% of its total assets. The following is a brief discussion of the Company's two business segments.

Investment Management Products and Services

Investment management revenues are largely dependent on the total value and composition of assets under management. Fluctuations in the markets and investor sentiment directly impact the Funds' asset levels, thereby affecting income and results of operations. During fiscal year 2008, average assets under management increased 12.2% to $5.437 billion, primarily due to significant increases in the natural resource and foreign equity funds under management through both net inflows and market appreciation.

Table of ContentsInvestment Activities

Management believes it can more effectively manage the Company's cash position by maintaining certain types of investments utilized in cash management and continues to believe that such activities are in the best interest of the Company.

The following summarizes the market value, cost and unrealized gain or loss on investments as of June 30, 2008, and June 30, 2007.

² Unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities are excluded from earnings and recorded in other comprehensive income as a separate component of shareholders

As of June 30, 2008, and 2007, the Company held approximately $2.4 million and $2.0 million, respectively, in investments other than USGIF, USGAF and offshore clients the Company advises.

Investments in securities classified as trading are reflected as current assets on the consolidated balance sheet at their fair market value. Unrealized holding gains and losses on trading securities are included in earnings in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income. Investments in securities classified as available for sale, which may not be readily marketable, are reflected as non-current assets on the consolidated balance sheet at their fair value. Unrealized holding gains and losses on available-for-sale securities are excluded from earnings and reported in other comprehensive income as a separate component of shareholders' equity until realized.

Investment income (loss) from the Company's investments includes:

realized gains and losses on sales of securities;

unrealized gains and losses on trading securities;

realized foreign currency gains and losses;

other-than-temporary impairments on available-for-sale securities; and

dividend and interest income.

Investment income can be volatile and may vary depending on market fluctuations, the Company's ability to participate in investment opportunities, and timing of transactions. A significant portion of the unrealized gains and losses is concentrated in a small number of issuers. For fiscal years 2008, 2007, and 2006, the Company had net realized gains (losses) of approximately $(152,323), $737,000, and $828,000, respectively. The Company expects that gains or losses will continue to fluctuate in the future.

Diluted	15,275	15,242		15,242	15,146

The Company posted net after-tax income of $10,836,810 ($0.71 per share) for the year ended June 30, 2008, compared with net after-tax income of $13,759,249 ($0.91 per share) for the year ended June 30, 2007. This 21.2% decrease in profitability is primarily attributable to the following factors:

Endeavour performance fees decreased by $6.3 million, or 70%, to $2.7 million. This decrease was due primarily to Endeavour's exposure to junior natural resources stocks, which were adversely impacted by a market environment in which risk aversion increased and access to capital decreased. Other offshore performance fees decreased by approximately $981,000, or 59%, to $694,000. The decrease in performance fees was slightly offset by an offshore management fee increase of $711,000, or 29%, due to higher assets under management. Despite a volatile market, management fees benefited from a higher base level of assets under management from the prior year.

The Company's SEC-registered advisory fees increased by $3.1 million, or 9%, primarily as a result of the positive impact of market gains and shareholder investments in natural resources and foreign equity funds. Offsetting these increases were overall declines in offshore advisory fees of $6.6 million as described above, for a net decrease in advisory fees of $3.5 million, or 7%.

Transfer agent revenues increased by 12%, or $918,000, primarily as a result of growth in the number of shareholder accounts and a revised transfer agent fee structure, which incorporated transaction- and activity-based fees;

Platform fees increased by 20%, or $1.5 million, due to increased asset inflows through broker-dealer platforms;

Driven by strong mutual fund and offshore fund performance, employee compensation expense increased by 8%, or $1.0 million, primarily due to higher salaries and incentive bonuses;

Consistent with continued growth in the Eastern European Fund, subadvisory fees increased by 3%, or $288,000; and

General and administrative expenses decreased 9%, or $676,000, primarily as a result of decreased consulting and legal fees.

Year Ended June 30, 2007, Compared with Year Ended June 30, 2006

The Company posted net after-tax income of $13,759,249 ($0.91 per share) for the year ended June 30, 2007, compared with net after-tax income of $10,435,362 ($0.69 per share) for the year ended June 30, 2006. The increase in profitability in fiscal year 2007 primarily resulted from an increase of $12.4 million in advisory fees and $2.2 million in transfer agent fees. These factors were somewhat offset by an increase of $2.6 million in platform fees, $2.2 million in employee compensation, $2.0 million in general and administrative expenses, and $1.3 million in subadvisory fees.

As a percentage of total revenues, SEC-registered mutual fund advisory fees account for 71%, offshore investment advisory fees constitute 12%, transfer agent fees account for 15%, and investment income and miscellaneous income together make up the remaining 2%.

Investment Advisory Fees. Investment advisory fees, the largest component of the Company's revenues, are derived from two sources: SEC-registered mutual fund advisory fees, which in fiscal 2008 accounted for 86% of the Company's total advisory fees, and offshore investment advisory fees, which accounted for 14% of total advisory fees. SEC-registered mutual fund investment advisory fees are calculated as a percentage of average net assets, ranging from 0.375% to 1.375%, and are paid monthly. These advisory fees increased by approximately $3.1 million, or 8.5%, in fiscal 2008 over fiscal 2007. Advisory fees benefited from an increase in assets, particularly in the foreign equity and natural resource funds.

The Company has agreed to waive or reduce its fees and/or pay expenses for several USGIF funds and two USGAF funds, through November 1, 2008, and February 28, 2009, respectively, or such later date as the Company determines for purposes of enhancing the Funds' competitive market positions. The aggregate amount of fees waived and expenses borne by the Company totaled approximately $1,422,000, $1,178,000, and $1,181,000, in 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively. The Company expects to continue to waive fees and/or pay for fund expenses if market and economic conditions warrant. However, subject to the Company's commitment to certain funds with respect to fee waivers and expense limitations, the Company may reduce the amount of Fund expenses it is bearing.

Mutual fund investment advisory fees are also affected by changes in assets under management, which include:

- market appreciation or depreciation;

- the addition of new client accounts;

- client contributions of additional assets to existing accounts;

- withdrawals of assets from and termination of client accounts;

exchanges of assets between accounts or products with different fee structures; and the amount of fees voluntarily reimbursed.

The Boards of Trustees of USGIF and USGAF have called a Special Meeting of Shareholders for September 23, 2008, to consider several proposals, including proposals to approve (i) a new Advisory Agreement for USGIF and USGAF and (ii) a new Distribution Plans for the nine equity USGIF and USGAF Funds under which U.S. Global Brokerage, Inc. would be paid a fee at an annual rate of

0.25% of the average daily net assets of each Fund. A full discussion of the proposals is set forth in proxy materials filed with the SEC by USGIF and USGAF.

The proposed new Advisory Agreement for the nine equity USGIF and USGAF Funds provides for a base advisory fee that will be adjusted upwards or downwards by 0.25% if there is a performance difference of 5% or more between a Fund's performance and that of its designated benchmark index over the prior 12 months. With respect to four equity USGIF Funds, the new Advisory Agreement also will increase the base advisory fee and make changes to the advisory fee breakpoints. In addition, if the new Advisory Agreement is approved, administrative services that are part of the current Advisory Agreement will be removed and become the subject of a completely separate Administration Agreement. Under the Administration Agreement, USGIF and USGAF would no longer reimburse the Company for certain legal and administrative services, but instead would pay the Company compensation at an annual rate of 0.08% of the average daily net assets of each Fund for these and other administrative services.

If approved, the Company has agreed to cap the expenses of each Fund for the first year: Going forward, the Company and each Fund's Board of Trustees would negotiate the amounts of these expense caps annually during the consideration of the renewal of the Advisory Agreement.

The Company provides advisory services for three offshore clients. The company receives a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly or annual performance fee, if any, based on the overall increase in value of net assets, and in the case of one client, based on a percentage of consolidated net income from operations in excess of a predetermined percentage return on equity. Offshore investment advisory fees decreased by $6.6 million, or 50.1 percent, to $6.5 million in fiscal 2008 compared to $13.1 million in fiscal 2007. Due to potential market volatility, performance fees are subject to fluctuation based on factors that may be out of the Company's control, and are not necessarily predictive of future revenue. For more information, see Item 1A. Risk Factors and the section entitled Revenue Recognition under Critical Accounting Policies.

Transfer Agent Fees. United Shareholder Services, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, provides transfer agency and printing services for Company clients. The Company receives an annual fee per account as well as transaction- and activity-based fees as compensation for services rendered as transfer agent, and is reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses associated with processing shareholder information. In addition, the Company collects custodial fees on IRAs and other types of retirement plans invested in USGIF and USGAF. Transfer agent fees are, therefore, significantly affected by the number of client accounts.

The increase in transfer agent fees in fiscal years 2008 and 2007 was primarily a result of an increase in the number of mutual fund shareholder accounts due to improved performance of the natural resource and foreign equity funds and the result of the revised fee structure effective April 1, 2007, which incorporated transaction- and activity-based fees.

Investment Income. Investment income (loss) from the Company's investments includes:

realized gains and losses on sales of securities;

unrealized gains and losses on trading securities;

realized foreign currency gains and losses;

other-than-temporary impairments on available-for-sale securities; and

dividend and interest income.

This source of revenue is dependent on market fluctuations and does not remain at a consistent level. Timing of transactions and the Company's ability to participate in investment opportunities largely affect this source of revenue. Investment income increased by $90,000 in fiscal 2008 compared to fiscal 2007. This increase can be attributed primarily to increases in unrealized gains on corporate investments.

Table of Contents

Investment income decreased by $847,000 in fiscal 2007 compared to fiscal 2006. This decrease can be attributed primarily to a $91,000 decrease in realized gains on corporate investments and a $1.4 million decrease in unrealized gains on corporate investments, offset by a $605,000 increase in dividend and interest income.

Included in investment income were other-than-temporary impairments of $0, $0 and $28,655 for the fiscal years ending 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Total	$ 39,457	$ 37,258	5.9%	$ 37,258	$ 28,986	28.5%

Employee Compensation and Benefits. Employee compensation and benefits increased by $1.0 million, or 8.3%, in 2008 and $2.2 million, or 21%, in fiscal 2007, primarily due to incentive bonuses associated with strong mutual fund performance, mutual fund asset growth, strong offshore advisory client performance and increased shareholder accounts.

Subadvisory Fees. Subadvisory fees are calculated as a percentage of average net assets of the two funds that are subadvised by third-party managers. The increases in subadvisory fees of $.3 million and $1.3 million in fiscal years 2008 and 2007, respectively, resulted primarily from growth in assets in the Eastern European Fund. The subadvisory agreement related to the MegaTrends Funds (subsequently renamed the Global MegaTrends Fund) was terminated effective September 30, 2007.

General and Administrative. The decrease in general and administrative expenses of $.7 million, or (9.0%), in fiscal year 2008, resulted primarily from decreased consulting and legal fees. The increase in general and administrative expenses of $2.0 million, or 37%, in fiscal year 2007 is primarily attributable to increased consulting, legal, audit and accounting fees.

Platform Fees. Much of the mutual fund asset growth across all funds has been realized through broker-dealer platforms. These broker-dealers typically charge an asset-based fee for assets held in their platforms. Accordingly, net platform fee expenses have increased by $1.5 million and $2.6 million during fiscal years 2008 and 2007, respectively. The incremental assets received through the broker-dealer platforms are not as profitable as those received from direct shareholder accounts due to margin compression from paying platform fees on those assets.

Advertising. Advertising expense was essentially flat in fiscal 2008 compared to fiscal 2007.

Depreciation. Depreciation expense increased by $40,000 in fiscal year 2008 and $91,000 in fiscal 2007 as a result of a slight increase in capital purchases.

Income Taxes

The Company and its subsidiaries file a consolidated federal income tax return. Provisions for income taxes include deferred taxes for temporary differences in the basis of assets and liabilities for financial and tax purposes, resulting from the use of the liability method of accounting for income taxes. For federal income tax purposes at June 30, 2008, the Company has no capital loss carryovers.

A valuation allowance is provided when it is more likely than not that some portion of the deferred tax amount will not be realized. Management included no valuation allowance at June 30, 2008.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not have any off balance sheet arrangements.

Contractual Obligations

A summary of contractual obligations of the Company as of June 30, 2008, is as follows:

Contractual Obligations	Total	Payments due by period			More than 5 years
		Less than 1 year	1 3 Years	3 5 years
Operating Lease Obligations	$ 622,892	$ 234,717	$ 313,061	$ 75,114
Contractual Obligations	1,320,000	1,255,000	65,000
Total	$ 1,942,892	$ 1,489,717	$ 378,061	$ 75,114

Operating leases consist of telephone equipment, printers, and copiers leased from several vendors. Contractual obligations include agreements to fund educational programs and building renovation commitments. Although no additional contracts have been signed at this time, additional improvements may be made over the next 18 to 24 months at a cost of approximately $2 to $4 million. Other contractual obligations not included in this table consist of subadvisory contracts and agreements to waive or reduce advisory fees and/or pay expenses on several funds, which are renewed annually. Future obligations under these agreements are dependent upon future levels of fund assets.

In addition, the board has authorized a monthly dividend of $0.02 per share through December 2008, at which time it will be considered for continuation by the board. Payment of cash dividends is within the discretion of the Company's board of directors and is dependent on earnings, operations, capital requirements, general financial condition of the Company, and general business conditions. The total amount of cash dividends to be paid to class A and class C shareholders from July 2008 to December 2008 will be approximately $1.8 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At fiscal year end, the Company had net working capital (current assets minus current liabilities) of approximately $35.3 million and a current ratio (current assets divided by current liabilities) of 6.6 to 1. With approximately $25.1 million in cash and cash equivalents and $8.2 million in marketable securities, the Company has adequate liquidity to meet its current obligations. Total shareholders' equity was approximately $39.2 million, with cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities comprising 73.4% of total assets.

The Company has no long-term debt; thus, the Company's only material commitment going forward is for operating expenses. The Company also has access to a $1 million credit facility, which can be utilized for working capital purposes. The Company's available working capital and potential cash flow are expected to be sufficient to cover current expenses.

The investment advisory and related contracts between the Company and USGIF and USGAF will expire on March 1, 2009, and June 1, 2009, respectively. Management anticipates that the trustees of both USGIF and USGAF will renew the contracts. With respect to offshore advisory clients, the contracts between the Company and the clients expire periodically and management anticipates that its offshore clients will renew the contracts.

Management believes current cash reserves, financing obtained and/or available, and potential cash flow from operations will be sufficient to meet foreseeable cash needs or capital necessary for the above-mentioned activities and allow the Company to take advantage of investment opportunities whenever available.

Critical Accounting Policies

The discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations are based on the Company's financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S. The preparation of these financial statements requires the Company to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and expenses. Management reviews these estimates on an ongoing basis. Estimates are based on experience and on various other assumptions that the Company believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. While significant accounting policies are described in more detail in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company believes the accounting policies that require management to make assumptions and estimates involving significant judgment are those relating to valuation of security investments, income taxes, valuation of stock-based compensation, revenue recognition on advisory contracts, related party transactions and recent accounting pronouncements.

Security Investments. The Company accounts for its investments in securities in accordance with SFAS No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities. In accordance with SFAS No. 115, the Company classifies its investments in equity and debt securities based on intent. Management determines the appropriate classification of securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation as of each reporting period date. Securities that are purchased and held principally for the purpose of selling in the near term are classified as trading securities and reported at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on these securities are included in earnings. Investments in debt securities or mortgage-backed securities that are purchased with the intent and ability to hold until maturity are classified as held-to-maturity and measured at amortized cost. The Company currently has no investments in debt securities or mortgage-backed securities.

Investments classified as neither trading securities nor held-to-maturity securities are classified as available-for-sale securities and reported at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on these available-for-sale securities are excluded from earnings, reported net of tax as a separate component of shareholders' equity, and recorded in earnings on the date of sale.

The Company evaluates its investments for other-than-temporary declines in value on a periodic basis. This may exist when the fair value of an investment security has been below the current value for an extended period of time. For available-for-sale securities with declines in value deemed other than temporary, the unrealized loss recorded net of tax in accumulated other comprehensive income is realized as a charge to net income.

The Company records security transactions on trade date. Realized gains or losses from security transactions are calculated on the first-in/first-out cost basis, unless otherwise identifiable, and are recorded in earnings on the date of sale.

Securities traded on a securities exchange are valued at the last sale price. Securities for which over-the-counter market quotations are available, but for which there was no trade on or near the balance sheet date, are valued at the mean price between the last price bid and last price asked. Securities for which quotations are not readily available are valued at management's estimate of fair value.

Income Taxes. The Company's annual effective income tax rate is based on the mix of income and losses in its U.S. and non-U.S. entities which are part of the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, statutory tax rates, and tax-planning opportunities available to the Company in the various jurisdictions in which it operates. Significant judgment is required in evaluating the Company's tax positions.

Tax law requires items to be included in the tax return at different times from when these items are reflected in the Company's Consolidated Income Statement. As a result, the effective tax rate reflected in the Consolidated Financial Statements is different from the tax rate reported on the Company's consolidated tax return. Some of these differences are permanent, such as expenses that are not deductible in the tax return, and some differences reverse over time, such as depreciation expense. These timing differences create deferred tax assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and the tax basis of assets and liabilities. In addition, excess tax benefits associated with stock option exercises and vesting of restricted stock also create a difference between the tax rate used in the consolidated tax return and the effective tax rate in our Consolidated Income Statement.

The Company assesses uncertain tax positions in accordance with FIN 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Judgment is used to identify, recognize, and measure the amounts to be recorded in the financial statements related to tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. A liability is recognized to represent the potential future obligation to the taxing authority for the benefit taken in the tax return. These liabilities are adjusted, including any impact of the related interest and penalties, in light of changing facts and circumstances such as the progress of a tax audit. A number of years may elapse before a particular matter for which a reserve has been established is audited and finally resolved. The number of years with open tax audits varies depending on the tax jurisdiction.

Judgment is used in classifying unrecognized tax benefits as either current or noncurrent liabilities in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. Settlement of any particular issue would usually require the use of cash. A liability associated with unrecognized tax benefits will generally be classified as a noncurrent liability because there will usually be a period of several years between the filing of the tax return and the final resolution of an uncertain tax position with the taxing authority. Favorable resolutions of tax matters for which reserves have been established are recognized as a reduction to income tax expense when the amounts involved become known.

Assessing the future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements or tax returns requires judgment. Variations in the actual outcome of these future tax consequences could materially impact the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Stock-Based Compensation. The Company adopted SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R) on July 1, 2005. Under SFAS No. 123(R), stock-based compensation expense is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award, and the cost is recognized as expense ratably over the award's vesting period. We measured the fair value of stock options granted in fiscal 2006, 2007 and 2008 on the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model.

We believe that the estimates related to stock-based compensation expense are critical accounting estimates because the assumptions used could significantly impact the timing and amount of stock-based compensation expense recorded in our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Revenue Recognition on Advisory Contract. The Company provides investment advisory services for EFC. The Company is paid a monthly advisory fee based on the net asset value of the portfolio and an annual performance fee, if any, based on a percentage of consolidated net income from operations in excess of a predetermined percentage return on equity.

EITF Abstract Topic No. D-96, Accounting for Management Fees Based on a Formula, identifies two methods by which incentive revenue may be recorded. Under Method 1, incentive fees are recorded at the end of the contract year; under Method 2, the incentive fees are recorded periodically and calculated as the amount that would be due under the formula at any point in time as if the contract was terminated at that date. Management has chosen the more conservative method (Method 1), in which performance fees are recorded annually and is provided for by the contract terms. The Company recorded $2,706,216 in annual performance fees and $2,620,222 in advisory fees for the year ended June 30, 2008.

The Company had $30.9 million and $19.9 million at fair value invested in USGIF, USGAF, and offshore clients the Company advises included in the balance sheet in cash and cash equivalents and trading securities at June 30, 2008, and 2007, respectively. The Company recorded $1,083,081 in dividend income and $508,159 in unrealized gains on its investments in the Funds. Receivables from mutual funds shown on the Consolidated Balance Sheets represent amounts due the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries for investment advisory fees, transfer agent fees, and out-of-pocket expenses, net of amounts payable to the mutual funds.

The Company provides advisory services for the Meridian Global Gold and Resources Fund Ltd., an offshore fund. The Company receives a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly performance fee, if any, based on the overall increase in value of the net assets in the fund for the quarter. The Company recorded fees totaling $538,375 and $1,690,321 for the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively. Frank Holmes, a director and CEO of the Company, is a director of Meridian Global Gold and Resources Fund Ltd., and Meridian Fund Managers Ltd., the manager of the Meridian Global Gold and Resources Fund Ltd.

The Company provides advisory services for the Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd., an offshore fund. The Company receives a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly performance fee, if any, based on the overall increase in value of the net assets in the fund for the quarter. The Company recorded fees totaling $659,632 and $222,981 for the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively. Mr. Holmes is a director of Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd., and Meridian Fund Managers Ltd., the manager of the Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd. In addition, the Company has an investment in the Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd. with a value of approximately $1,559,000 at June 30, 2008.

The Company provided advisory services to the U.S. Global Investors Balanced Natural Resources Fund, Ltd., an offshore fund, through November 30, 2007, at which time the fund was liquidated and assets were transferred to the Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd. For these services, the Company was paid a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly performance fee, if any. The Company recorded fees totaling $13,329 and $140,717 for the years ended June 30, 2008, and 2007, respectively.

The Company provides investment advisory services to EFC. The Company is paid a monthly advisory fee based on the net asset value of the portfolio and an annual performance fee, if any, based on a percentage of consolidated net income from operations in excess of a predetermined percentage return on equity. For the year ended June 30, 2008, the Company recorded a total of $5,326,438 in advisory fees from Endeavour comprised of $2,706,216 in annual performance fees and $2,620,222 in monthly advisory fees. For the year ended June 30, 2007, the Company recorded a total of $11,041,050 in advisory fees from Endeavour comprised of $8,994,074 in annual performance fees and $2,046,976 in monthly advisory fees. The performance fees for this advisory client are calculated and recorded only once a year in accordance with the terms of the advisory agreement. This and other performance fees may fluctuate significantly from year to year based on factors that may be out of the Company's control. For more information, see Item 1A. Risk Factors and the section entitled Revenue Recognition under Critical Accounting Policies. Mr. Holmes is Chairman of the Board of Directors of EFC. In addition, the Company has an investment in EFC at June 30, 2008 with a value of approximately $647,000.

The Company owns a position in Charlemagne Capital Limited at June 30, 2008, valued at $540,641 and recorded as an available-for-sale security. Charlemagne Capital specializes in emerging markets and is the subadviser to the Eastern European Fund and Global Emerging Markets Fund, two series in USGAF.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (FAS No. 157). FAS No. 157 establishes a single authoritative definition of fair value, sets out a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. FAS No. 157 applies only to fair value

measurements that are already required or permitted by other accounting standards. Accordingly, FAS No. 157 does not require any new fair value measurements. FAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and for interim periods within those years; therefore, the Company will adopt SFAS No. 157 in the first quarter of fiscal year 2009. Management is in the process of determining the effect the adoption of SFAS No. 157 will have on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities, (including an amendment to FASB Statement 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities). SFAS 159 allows entities to voluntarily choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by providing entities with the opportunity to mitigate volatility in reported earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. The amendment to SFAS No. 115 applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. The election is made on an instrument-by-instrument basis and is irrevocable. Once the election is made for the instrument, all subsequent changes in fair value for that instrument must be reported in earnings. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and for interim periods within those years; therefore, the Company will adopt SFAS No. 159 in the first quarter of fiscal year 2009. Management is currently evaluating the effect the adoption of SFAS No. 159 will have on the Consolidated Financial Statements, if any.

In June 2007, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) issued EITF Issue No. 06-11, Accounting for Income Tax Benefits of Dividends on Share-Based Payment Awards, (EITF 06-11). Under the provisions of EITF 06-11, a realized income tax benefit from dividends or dividend equivalents that are charged to retained earnings and are paid to employees for equity classified nonvested equity shares, nonvested equity share units, and outstanding equity share options should be recognized as an increase to additional paid-in capital. The amount recognized in additional paid-in capital for the realized income tax benefit from dividends on those awards should be included in the pool of excess tax benefits available to absorb tax deficiencies on share-based payment awards. EITF 06-11 should be applied prospectively to the income tax benefits that result from dividends on equity-classified employee share-based payment awards that are declared in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management has determined that EITF No. 06-11 has no material impact on the financial statements.

The Company's balance sheet includes assets whose fair value is subject to market risks. Due to the Company's investments in equity securities, equity price fluctuations represent a market risk factor affecting the Company's consolidated financial position. The carrying values of investments subject to equity price risks are based on quoted market prices or, if not actively traded, management's estimate of fair value as of the balance sheet date. Market prices fluctuate, and the amount realized in the subsequent sale of an investment may differ significantly from the reported market value. The Company's investment activities are reviewed and monitored by Company compliance personnel, and various reports are provided to certain investment advisory clients. Written procedures are in place to manage compliance with the code of ethics.

The table below summarizes the Company's equity price risks as of June 30, 2008, and shows the effects of a hypothetical 25% increase and a 25% decrease in market prices.

The selected hypothetical changes do not reflect what could be considered best- or worst-case scenarios. Results could be significantly different due to both the nature of equity markets and the concentration of the Company's investment portfolio.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data
Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm on Internal Control
Over Financial Reporting

Board of Directors and Stockholders

U.S. Global Investors, Inc.

San Antonio, Texas

We have audited U.S. Global Investors, Inc.'s (the Company) internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2008, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (the COSO criteria). The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Item 9A, Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. Our audit also included performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2008, based on the COSO criteria.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheets of U.S. Global Investors, Inc. as of June 30, 2008 and 2007, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2008 and our report dated September 10, 2008, expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of U.S. Global Investors, Inc. (the Company) as of June 30, 2008 and 2007 and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2008. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. Our audits include examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of U.S. Global Investors, Inc. at June 30, 2008 and 2007, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2008, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the effectiveness of U.S. Global Investors, Inc. internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2008, based on criteria established in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) and our report dated September 10, 2008, expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1. Organization

U.S. Global serves as investment adviser and transfer agent to USGIF and USGAF, both Massachusetts business trusts that are no-load, open-end investment companies offering shares in numerous mutual funds to the investing public. The Company also provides transfer agency functions to USGIF and USGAF. For these services, the Company receives fees from USGIF and USGAF. The Company also provides advisory services to several offshore clients. U.S. Global formed the following companies to provide supplementary services to USGIF and USGAF: United Shareholder Services, Inc. (USSI), A&B Mailers, Inc. (A&B), and U.S. Global Brokerage, Inc. (USGB). As of December 31, 2007, A&B was dissolved as a corporation. Subsequent to the dissolution, effective January 1, 2008, a new department was formed within USSI consisting of the same employees performing the same functions as A&B prior to its dissolution. All assets and liabilities that were previously held in A&B were transferred at cost to USSI. There was no accounting impact, no personnel changes, and no accounting changes other than reconfiguring certain internal reports.

The Company formed two subsidiaries utilized primarily for corporate investment purposes: U.S. Global Investors (Guernsey) Limited (USGG), incorporated in Guernsey, and U.S. Global Investors (Bermuda) Limited (USBERM) incorporated in Bermuda on June 15, 2005.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries: USSI, USGG, USBERM, and USGB.

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Certain amounts have been reclassified for comparative purposes.

Share and per share data presented for all periods reflect the effect of the two-for-one stock split which was effective March 29, 2007, unless otherwise indicated.

Cash and Cash Equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents include highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Security Investments. The Company accounts for its investments in securities in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities (SFAS 115). In accordance with SFAS 115, the Company classifies its investments in equity and debt securities based on intent. Management determines the appropriate classification of securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation as of each reporting period date.

Securities that are purchased and held principally for the purpose of selling in the near term are classified as trading securities and reported at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on these securities are included in earnings.

Investments in debt securities that are purchased with the intent and ability to hold until maturity are classified as held-to-maturity and measured at amortized cost. The Company currently has no investments in debt securities.

Investments classified as neither trading securities nor held-to-maturity securities are classified as available-for-sale securities and reported at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on these available-for-sale securities are excluded from earnings, reported net of tax as a separate component of shareholders' equity, and recorded in earnings on the date of sale.

The Company evaluates its investments for other-than-temporary decline in value on a periodic basis. This may exist when the fair value of an investment security has been below the current value for an extended period of time. For available-for-sale securities with declines in value deemed other than temporary, the unrealized loss recorded net of tax in accumulated other comprehensive income is realized as a charge to net income.

The Company records security transactions on trade date. Realized gains (losses) from security transactions are calculated on the first-in/first-out cost basis, unless otherwise identifiable, and are recorded in earnings on the date of sale.

Advisory Receivables. Advisory receivables consist primarily of monthly investment advisory and transfer agent fees owed to the Company by USGIF and USGAF as well as receivables related to offshore investment advisory fees. In addition, mutual fund receivables include amounts reimbursed to the Company for certain advertising and distribution expenses incurred on behalf of USGAF in accordance with Rule 12b-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Property and Equipment. Fixed assets are recorded at cost. Depreciation for fixed assets is recorded using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of each asset as follows: furniture and equipment are depreciated over 3 to 10 years, and the building and related improvements are depreciated over 32 to 40 years.

Treasury Stock. Treasury stock purchases are accounted for under the cost method. The subsequent issuances of these shares are accounted for based on their weighted-average cost basis.

Stock-Based Compensation. The Company accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R). Under this application, the Company is required to record compensation expense for all awards granted after the date of adoption and for the unvested portion of previously granted awards that remain outstanding at the date of adoption.

Income Taxes. The Company and its subsidiaries file a consolidated federal income tax return. Provisions for income taxes include deferred taxes for temporary differences in the bases of assets and liabilities for financial and tax purposes resulting from the use of the liability method of accounting for income taxes. The liability method requires that deferred tax assets be reduced by a valuation allowance in cases where it is more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48). FIN 48 is an interpretation of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, and it seeks to reduce the diversity in practice associated with certain aspects of measurement and accounting for income taxes and requires expanded disclosure with respect to uncertainty in income taxes. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. Accordingly, the Company adopted FIN 48 on July 1, 2007. There were no transactions recorded as a result of adopting FIN 48 for the year ended June 30, 2008. The Company's policy is to recognize interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense. As of June 30, 2008, the Company did not have any accrued interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The tax years from 2004 through 2007 remain open to examination by the tax jurisdictions to which the Company is subject.

Revenue Recognition. The Company earns substantially all of its revenues from investment advisory and transfer agency services. Mutual fund investment advisory fees, calculated as a percentage of assets under management, are recorded as revenue as services are performed. Advisory client contracts provide for monthly management fees, in addition to a quarterly or annual performance fees. Transfer agency fees are calculated using a charge based upon the number of shareholder accounts serviced as well as transaction and activity-based fees. Revenue shown on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income are net of any fee waivers.

The Company provides investment advisory services for Endeavour Financial Corporation (EFC). The Company is paid a monthly advisory fee based on the net asset value of the portfolio, and an annual performance fee, if any, based on a percentage of consolidated net income from operations in excess of a predetermined percentage return on equity. EITF Abstract Topic No. D-96, Accounting for Management Fees Based on a Formula, identifies two methods by which incentive revenue may be recorded. Under Method 1, incentive fees are recorded at the end of the contract year; under Method 2, the incentive fees are recorded periodically and calculated as the amount that would be due under the formula at any point in time as if the contract was terminated at that date. Management has chosen the more conservative method (Method 1), in which performance fees are recorded annually based on the contract terms. The Company recorded $5,326,438 in annual performance fees and $2,620,222 in advisory fees related to the EFC contract for the year ended June 30, 2008. The Company recorded $8,994,074 in annual performance fees and $2,046,976 in advisory fees related to the EFC contract for the year ended June 30, 2007. The Company recorded $6,611,582 in annual performance fees and $337,455 in advisory fees related to the EFC contract for the year ended June 30, 2006.

Dividends and Interest. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date, and interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Both dividends and interest income are included in investment income.

Advertising Costs. The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred. Certain sales materials, which are considered tangible assets, are capitalized and then expensed during the period in which they are distributed. At June 30, 2008, 2007, and 2006, the Company had capitalized sales materials of approximately $35,000, $31,000, and $59,000, respectively. Net advertising expenditures were approximately $488,000, $509,000, and $513,000 during fiscal 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively.

Foreign Currency Transactions. Transactions between the Company and foreign entities are converted to U.S. dollars using the exchange rate on the date of the transactions. Security investments valued in foreign currencies are translated to U.S. dollars using the applicable exchange rate as of the reporting date. Realized foreign currency gains and losses are immaterial and are therefore included as a component of investment income.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments. The financial instruments of the Company are reported on the consolidated balance sheet at market or fair values, or at carrying amounts that approximate fair values because of the short maturity of the instruments.

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Earnings Per Share. The Company computes and presents earnings per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per share (EPS) excludes dilution and is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution of EPS that could occur if options to issue common stock were exercised. The Company has two classes of common stock with outstanding shares. Both classes share equally in dividend and liquidation preferences. Per share amounts for fiscal 2007 and 2006 have been restated to reflect the Company's two-for-one stock split effective March 29, 2007.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (FAS No. 157). FAS No. 157 establishes a single authoritative definition of fair value, sets out a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. FAS No. 157 applies only to fair value

measurements that are already required or permitted by other accounting standards. Accordingly, FAS No. 157 does not require any new fair value measurements. FAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and for interim periods within those years; therefore, the Company will adopt SFAS No. 157 in the first quarter of fiscal year 2009. Management is in the process of determining the effect the adoption of SFAS No. 157 will have on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities, (including an amendment to FASB Statement 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities). SFAS 159 allows entities to voluntarily choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by providing entities with the opportunity to mitigate volatility in reported earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. The amendment to SFAS No. 115 applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. The election is made on an instrument-by-instrument basis and is irrevocable. Once the election is made for the instrument, all subsequent changes in fair value for that instrument must be reported in earnings. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and for interim periods within those years; therefore, the Company will adopt SFAS No. 159 in the first quarter of fiscal year 2009. Management is currently evaluating the effect the adoption of SFAS No. 159 will have on the Consolidated Financial Statements, if any.

In June 2007, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) issued EITF Issue No. 06-11, Accounting for Income Tax Benefits of Dividends on Share-Based Payment Awards, (EITF 06-11). Under the provisions of EITF 06-11, a realized income tax benefit from dividends or dividend equivalents that are charged to retained earnings and are paid to employees for equity classified nonvested equity shares, nonvested equity share units, and outstanding equity share options should be recognized as an increase to additional paid-in capital. The amount recognized in additional paid-in capital for the realized income tax benefit from dividends on those awards should be included in the pool of excess tax benefits available to absorb tax deficiencies on share-based payment awards. EITF 06-11 should be applied prospectively to the income tax benefits that result from dividends on equity-classified employee share-based payment awards that are declared in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management has determined that EITF No. 06-11 has no material impact on the financial statements.

Table of ContentsNote 3. Investments

As of June 30, 2008, the Company held investments with a fair value of $8.2 million and a cost basis of $8.0 million. The fair value of these investments is approximately 18.1 percent of the Company's total assets.

The following table summarizes investment activity over the last three fiscal years:

	Year Ended June 30,

² Total gross unrealized gains on trading securities recorded in fiscal 2008 are comprised primarily of the unrealized gains on the Meridian Global Energy & Resources Fund, which makes up $513,486 of the $372,147 of the recorded gain. The unrealized gain from the Meridian Global Energy & Resources Fund was partially offset by unrealized losses of $164,111 in the Global Emerging Markets Fund.

The following table summarizes equity investments that are in an unrealized loss position at each balance sheet date, categorized by how long they have been in a continuous loss position. These investments do not include trading securities or those available-for-sale securities with declines in value deemed other than temporary as their unrealized losses are recognized in earnings.

Fiscal Year	Less Than 12 Months		12 Months or Greater		Total
	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses
2008	$687,405	$ 144,729	$449,643	$ 370,066	$1,137,048	$ 514,795
2007	$739,977	$ 79,731	$ 0	$ 0	$ 739,977	$ 79,731

The aggregate gross unrealized loss of $514,795 and $79,731 at June 30, 2008, and 2007, respectively, was primarily related to investments in two companies that specialize in emerging markets. There are many risks associated with an investment of this type including general market risk and emerging markets risk. Many of the investments included above are early-stage or start-up businesses whose fair values fluctuate.

Note 4. Investment Management, Transfer Agent, and Other Fees

The Company serves as investment adviser to USGIF and USGAF and receives a fee based on a specified percentage of net assets under management. Two of the four funds within USGAF are sub-advised by a third-party manager, who is in turn compensated out of the investment advisory fees received by the Company. The Company also serves as transfer agent to USGIF and USGAF and receives fees based on the number of shareholder accounts as well as transaction- and activity-based fees. Additionally, the Company provides in-house legal services to USGIF and USGAF for which it is reimbursed and receives certain miscellaneous fees directly from USGAF and USGIF shareholders. Fees for providing investment management and transfer agent services to USGIF and USGAF continue to be the Company's primary revenue source.

The Company has voluntarily waived or reduced its advisory fees and/or has agreed to pay expenses on several USGIF funds and two USGAF funds through November 1, 2008, and February 28, 2009, respectively, or such later date as the Company determines in order to maintain competitive yields and to allow assets to grow. The aggregate fees waived and expenses borne by the Company were $1,422,000, $1,178,000, and $1,181,000, in 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively.

The investment advisory and related contracts between the Company and USGIF and USGAF will expire on March 1, 2009, and June 1, 2009, respectively. Management anticipates the boards of both USGIF and USGAF will renew the contracts.

The Boards of Trustees of USGIF and USGAF have called a Special Meeting of Shareholders for September 23, 2008, to consider several proposals, including proposals to approve (i) a new Advisory Agreement for the USGIF and USGAF funds and (ii) a new Distribution Plan for the nine equity USGIF and USGAF funds under which U.S. Global Brokerage, Inc. would be paid a fee at an annual rate of 0.25% of the average daily net assets of each fund. A full discussion of the proposals is set forth in proxy materials filed with the SEC by USGIF and USGAF.

The proposed new Advisory Agreement for the nine equity USGIF and USGAF funds provides for a base advisory fee that will be adjusted upwards or downwards by 0.25% if there is a performance difference of 5% or more between a fund's performance and that of its designated benchmark index over the prior 12 months. With respect to four equity USGIF funds, the new Advisory Agreement also will increase the base advisory fee and make changes to the advisory fee breakpoints. In addition, if the new Advisory Agreement is approved, administrative services that are part of the current Advisory Agreement will be removed and become the subject of a completely separate Administration Agreement. Under the Administration Agreement, the USGIF and USGAF funds would no longer reimburse the Company for certain legal and administrative services, but instead would pay the Company compensation at an annual rate of 0.08% of the average daily net assets of each fund for these and other administrative services.

If approved, the Company has agreed to cap the expenses of each fund for the first year. Going forward, the Company and each fund's Board of Trustees would negotiate the amounts of these expense caps annually during the consideration of the renewal of the Advisory Agreement.

The Company provides advisory services to various offshore clients. The Company generally receives a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly or annual performance fee, if any, based on an agreed-upon performance measurement. The contracts between the Company and the offshore clients expire periodically, and management anticipates that its offshore clients will renew the contracts.

The Company receives additional revenue from several sources including custodial fee revenues, revenues from miscellaneous transfer agency activities including lockbox functions, mailroom operations, as well as investment income.

Note 7. Borrowings

As of June 30, 2008, the Company has no long-term liabilities.

The Company has access to a $1 million credit facility with a one-year maturity for working capital purposes. The credit agreement was renewed effective January 18, 2008, and requires the Company to maintain certain quarterly financial covenants to access the line of credit. The amended credit agreement will expire on February 1, 2009, and the Company intends to renew annually. The Company has been in compliance with all financial covenants during the fiscal year. As of June 30, 2008, the credit facility remains unutilized by the Company.

Note 8. Lease Commitments

The Company has operating leases for computers and equipment that expire from fiscal years 2009 through 2013. Lease expenses totaled $372,021, $249,233, and $416,491 in fiscal years 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively. Future minimum lease payments required under these leases are as follows:

Table of ContentsNote 9. Benefit Plans

The Company offers a savings and investment plan qualified under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code covering substantially all employees. In connection with this 401(k) plan, participants can voluntarily contribute a portion of their compensation, up to certain limitations, to this plan, and the Company will match 100% of participants contributions up to the first 3% of compensation, and 50% of the next 2% of compensation. The Company has recorded expenses related to the 401(k) plan for contributions of $240,347, $148,165, and $73,166 for fiscal years 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively.

The 401(k) plan allows for a discretionary profit sharing contribution by the Company, as authorized by the board of directors. The Company made profit sharing contributions of $400,000, $369,000, and $220,000 for fiscal years 2008, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The Company has continued the program pursuant to which it offers employees, including its executive officers, an opportunity to participate in savings programs using mutual funds managed by the Company, which a majority of employees have accepted. Employees may contribute to an IRA, and the Company matches these contributions on a limited basis. Similarly, certain employees may contribute to the Tax Free Fund, and the Company will match these contributions on a limited basis. A similar savings plan utilizing UGMA accounts is offered to employees to save for the education of their minor relatives. The Company match, reflected in base salary expense, aggregated in all programs to $76,522, $72,923, and $61,061 in fiscal years 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively.

The Company has a program whereby eligible employees can purchase treasury shares, at market price, and the Company will match their contribution up to 3% of gross salary. During fiscal years 2008, 2007, and 2006, employees purchased 11,147, 8,981, and 6,441 shares of treasury stock from the Company, respectively. Pursuant to a plan that commenced in January 2007, the Company grants shares of class A common stock to its non-employee directors on a periodic basis. Effective March 2008, the frequency of shares granted changed from 100 shares per quarter to 100 shares per month.

Additionally, the Company self-funds its employee health care plan. The Company has obtained reinsurance with both a specific and an aggregate stop-loss in the event of catastrophic claims. The Company has accrued an amount representing the Company's estimate of claims incurred but not paid at June 30, 2008.

Note 10. Shareholders Equity

The board authorized an increase in dividends from $0.01 per share per month to $0.02 beginning in October 2007. The monthly dividend is authorized through December 2008 and will be considered for continuation at that time by the board. Payment of cash dividends is within the discretion of the Company's board of directors and is dependent on earnings, operations, capital requirements, general financial condition of the Company, and general business conditions. On a per share basis, the holders of the class C common stock and the nonvoting class A common stock participate equally in dividends as declared by the Company's board of directors.

During fiscal year 1999, the board of directors of the Company approved the issuance of 2,000,000 shares of class C common stock to Frank Holmes in exchange for services and cancellation of the option to purchase 800,000 shares of class C common stock held by Mr. Holmes and the cancellation of warrants to purchase 1,172,244 shares of class C common stock held by Mr. Holmes and F.E. Holmes Organization, Inc. The 2,000,000 shares vested over a ten-year period beginning July 1, 1998, and were fully vested on June 30, 2008 and were valued at $0.50 initially ($0.25 post-split) per share for compensation expense purposes. The agreement was executed on August 10, 1999. For tax return purposes, the 200,000 shares that vested on June 30, 2008, were valued at $2.56 per share, which incorporated factors including the ability to convert to class A shares (under the 2007 amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation), the loss of voting rights if converted to class A, and holding period and liquidity restrictions.

The Statement of Cash Flows includes a benefit in fiscal 2008 from the tax deduction in excess of stock-based compensation expense of $178,504, which related to the value of these 200,000 shares that vested during fiscal 2008. During the fiscal years ended June 30, 2008, the Company did not purchase any of its class A common stock. During fiscal years 2007 and 2006 the Company purchased 29,634, and 34,100 shares, respectively, of its class A common stock at an average price of $28.23, and $6.31, per share, respectively.

During the year ended June 30, 2008, the Company granted 6,700 shares of class A common stock to certain employees at a weighted average fair value on grant date of $13.85. During the year ended June 30, 2007, the Company granted 2,800 shares of class A common stock to employees at a weighted average fair value on grant date of $24.94. During the year ended June 30, 2006, the Company granted 8,200 shares of class A common stock to employees at a weighted average fair value on grant date of $6.09.

In March 2007 an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation was approved by the Board of Directors which, among other things, allowed shareholders of class C shares to convert to class A. During fiscal years 2008 and 2007, 196,644 and 702,677 shares, respectively, were converted from class C to class A.

In November 1989, the board of directors adopted the 1989 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (1989 Plan), amended in December 1991, which provides for the granting of options to purchase 1,600,000 shares of the Company's class A common stock to directors, officers, and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. Options issued under the 1989 Plan vest six months from the grant date or 20 percent on the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth anniversaries of the grant date. As of June 30, 2008, there were no options outstanding under the 1989 Plan.

In April 1997, the board of directors adopted the 1997 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (1997 Plan), which provides for the granting of stock appreciation rights (SARs) and/or options to purchase 400,000 shares of the Company's class A common stock to directors, officers, and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. In February 2006, an option for 10,000 shares was granted at an exercise price of $7.69 per share and vesting of 50 percent on the first and second anniversary dates. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007, three options for a total of 23,000 shares were granted with 50 percent vesting on the first and second anniversary dates. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, three options for a total of 20,300 shares were granted. Of the 20,300 shares granted in fiscal 2008, 10,000 options will vest over two years, with 50 percent vesting on the first and second anniversary dates, and 10,300 options will vest over five years, with 20 percent vesting on each of the first through fifth anniversary dates.

Options issued under the 1989 Plan and the 1997 Plan expire ten years after issuance. It is the Company's policy to issue class A common stock upon exercise of stock options.

The estimated fair value of options granted is amortized to expense over the options' vesting period. The fair value of these options is estimated at the date of the grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions for options granted in fiscal 2008, 2007, and 2006, respectively: expected volatility factors based on historical volatility of 55.0%, 88.0%, and 84.0%, risk-free interest rates of 5.0%, 4.6% and 4.2%, and an expected life of 10, 10 and 10 years. During fiscal 2008, options for 20,300 shares were granted with a fair value, net of tax, of $155,637. During fiscal 2007, options for 23,000 shares were granted with a fair value, net of tax, of $310,127. During fiscal 2006, an option for 10,000 shares was granted with a fair value, net of tax, of $43,400.

Note 11. Income Taxes

The current deferred tax liability primarily consists of temporary differences in the deductibility of prepaid expenses and accrued liabilities, as well as unrealized gains on trading securities. The long-term deferred tax liability is composed primarily of unrealized gains on available-for-sale securities.

A valuation allowance is provided when it is more likely than not that some portion of the deferred tax amount will not be realized. No valuation allowance was included at June 30, 2008, 2007, or 2006, respectively.

Earnings per share
Basic	$ 0.71	$ 0.91	$ 0.69
Diluted	$ 0.71	$ 0.90	$ 0.69

Share information has been restated for all periods presented in the table to reflect the two-for-one stock split effectuated on March 29, 2007. The diluted EPS calculation excludes the effect of stock options when their exercise prices exceed the average market price for the period. For the years ended June 30, 2008, 2007, and 2006, employee stock options for 20,300, 23,000, and 10,000 shares, respectively, were excluded from diluted EPS. The Company did not repurchase any shares of its class A common stock from employees during fiscal 2008. Upon repurchase, these shares are classified as treasury shares and are deducted from outstanding shares in the earnings per share calculation.

based on the overall increase in value of the net assets in the fund for the quarter. The Company recorded fees totaling $659,632 and $222,981 for the years ended June 30, 2008, and 2007, respectively. Mr. Holmes is a director of Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd., and Meridian Fund Managers Ltd., the manager of the fund. In addition, the Company has an investment in the fund at June 30, 2008, with an estimated fair value of approximately $1,559,000.

The Company provided advisory services to the U.S. Global Investors Balanced Natural Resources Fund, Ltd., an offshore fund, through November 30, 2007, at which time the fund was liquidated and assets were transferred to the Meridian Global Energy and Resources Fund Ltd. For these services, the Company was paid a monthly advisory fee and a quarterly performance fee, if any. The Company recorded fees totaling $13,329 and $140,717 for the years ended June 30, 2008, and 2007, respectively.

The Company provides investment advisory services to EFC. The Company is paid a monthly advisory fee based on the net asset value of the portfolio and an annual performance fee, if any, based on a percentage of consolidated net income from operations in excess of a predetermined percentage return on equity. The Company recorded a total of $5,326,438 in advisory fees from Endeavour comprised of $2,706,216 in annual performance fees and $2,620,222 in monthly advisory fees for the year ended June 30, 2008. The Company recorded a total of $11,041,050 in advisory fees from Endeavour comprised of $8,994,074 in annual performance fees and $2,046,976 in monthly advisory fees for the year ended June 30, 2007. The performance fees for this advisory client are calculated and recorded only once a year based on the contract terms in accordance with the terms of the advisory agreement. This and other performance fees may fluctuate significantly from year to year based on factors that may be out of the Company's control. For more information, see Item 1A. Risk Factors and the section entitled Revenue Recognition under Critical Accounting Policies. Mr. Holmes is Chairman of the Board of Directors of EFC. In addition, the Company has an investment in the fund at June 30, 2008, with a fair value of approximately $647,000.

The Company also owns a position in Charlemagne Capital Limited at June 30, 2008, with an estimated fair value of approximately $541,000, recorded as an available-for-sale security. Charlemagne Capital (IOM) Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Charlemagne Capital Limited, specializes in emerging markets and is the subadviser to the Eastern European Fund and Global Emerging Markets Fund, two series in USGAF.

Note 16. Contingencies and Commitments

The Company continuously reviews all investor, employee and vendor complaints, and pending or threatened litigation. The likelihood that a loss contingency exists is evaluated under the criteria of SFAS No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies, through consultation with legal counsel, and a loss contingency is recorded if the contingency is probable and reasonably estimable at the date of the financial statements.

During the normal course of business, the Company may be subject to claims, legal proceedings, and other contingencies. These matters are subject to various uncertainties, and it is possible that some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably. The Company establishes accruals for matters for which the outcome is probable and can be reasonably estimated. Management believes that any liability in excess of these accruals upon the ultimate resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

The Company has certain contractual obligations which consist of agreements to contribute to various educational programs. These obligations total approximately $623,000 for fiscal years 2008 through 2013.

The Company has also committed approximately $1.2 million in building renovations to be performed over the next few months. Although no additional contracts have been signed at this time, additional improvements may be made over the next 18 to 24 months at a cost of approximately $2 to $4 million.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures. An evaluation was conducted under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of June 30, 2008. Based on that evaluation, the CEO and CFO concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of June 30, 2008 to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting as defined by Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Our internal control over financial reporting is designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Because of inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Our management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2008. In making this assessment, we used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in Internal Control-Integrated Framework. Based on our assessment, management believes that, as of June 30, 2008, we have maintained effective internal control over financial reporting.

The effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2008 has been audited by BDO Seidman, LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm who also audited our consolidated financial statements. Their report appears on page 26.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting. There have not been any changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) during the year ended June 30, 2008 that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect our internal control over financial reporting.

Inherent Limitation of the Effectiveness of Internal Control. A control system, no matter how well conceived, implemented and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the internal control system are met. Because of such inherent limitations, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues, if any, within a company or any division of a company have been detected.

Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers

The Company has adopted a Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers that applies to the Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer. This code charges these individuals with responsibilities regarding honest and ethical conduct, the preparation and quality of the disclosures in documents and reports the Company files with the SEC, and compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act

Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act requires directors and officers of the Company, and persons who own more than 10% of the Company's class A common stock, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of the stock. Directors, officers and more than 10% shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required. All Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, officers and more than 10% beneficial owners were met during the year ended June 30, 2008.

Table of ContentsItem 11. Executive Compensation
Compensation Discussion and Analysis*Overview

The following section provides a discussion and analysis of the basis for the compensation awarded to the CEO, the CFO and our other most highly compensated executive officer of the Company (Named Executive Officers or NEOs), as well as our directors in fiscal 2008. We provide investment advisory and other services to our clients. Our long-term success depends on our ability to provide superior investment returns and outstanding client service. As such, one of our greatest assets is the collective skill, experience and efforts of our employees. To achieve success, we must be able to attract, retain and motivate professionals within all levels of our Company who are committed to our core values.

We place great significance on our values of performance, teamwork, initiative, responsiveness, focused work ethic and intellectual curiosity. We believe that adherence to these core values will contribute to the long-term success of the Company and our shareholders.

We compete for talent with a large number of investment management and financial services companies, many of which have significantly larger market capitalization than we do. Our relatively small size within the industry, geographic location and lean executive management team provides unique challenges.

Setting Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of our board of directors is responsible for reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer (CEO), Frank Holmes; evaluating the CEO s performance in light of those goals and objectives; and determining and approving the CEO s compensation level based on this evaluation. In addition, the committee is responsible for reviewing and approving compensation recommended by Mr. Holmes for our other executive officers. The board appointed Messrs. Lydon, Terracina, and Rubinstein as members of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Lydon serves as the chairman of the Compensation Committee. There are no Compensation Committee interlocks to report. The Compensation Committee has a charter that is available for review on our website at <http://www.usfunds.com>. (The Compensation Committee Charter can be found by clicking About the Advisor followed by Company Information then Compliance/Policies.) The individuals listed below are the chief executive officer and chief financial officer, plus our other most highly compensated NEO in fiscal 2008.

Name	Title
Frank E. Holmes	Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer
Catherine A. Rademacher	Chief Financial Officer
Susan B. McGee	President and General Counsel

In establishing total annual compensation for Mr. Holmes, the Compensation Committee considers a number of factors. For assistance in determining the appropriate factors to consider, the Compensation Committee consulted in 2005 with Moss Adams LLP, an executive compensation consulting firm. Importantly, the Compensation Committee considers the various functions Mr. Holmes assumes, including the dual role of CEO and Chief Investment Officer (CIO). In addition, the Compensation Committee considers various measures of company performance, including profitability and total shareholder return. The Compensation Committee also reviews Mr. Holmes performance in managing our corporate investments, in overseeing the management of our client portfolios and the results of our operational earnings.

Table of Contents

In addition to his base salary, Mr. Holmes receives a bonus based on operational earnings, which are substantially derived from assets under management, in the amount of 10% of our operational earnings, if any, and capped at $500,000, as computed for financial reporting purposes in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (before consideration of this fee).

Mr. Holmes also receives a bonus when our investment team meets their goal of being in the top half of their peer group. The bonus is based on fund performance bonuses paid to the investment team and is in recognition of Mr. Holmes' creation and oversight of the investment processes and strategy.

In addition, Mr. Holmes receives 10% of offshore fund performance fees in recognition of attracting and managing offshore client accounts, and 10% of realized gains on investments, offset by realized losses and other-than-temporary write-downs, in recognition of his expertise in managing the investments of the company.

The committee has delegated to Mr. Holmes the responsibility for reviewing the performance of, and recommending the compensation levels for, our other NEOs. The committee does not use rigid formulas with respect to the compensation of NEOs. Mr. Holmes makes a recommendation based on the achievement of qualitative goals that apply to all employees, quantitative goals that apply to an executive officer's specific job responsibilities, and other accomplishments, such as expansion in functional responsibility. In forming his recommendations, Mr. Holmes also considers the responsibilities and workload of the executive officer; the explicit and tacit knowledge required to perform these responsibilities, including any professional designations; the profitability of the company; and the cost of living in San Antonio, Texas.

Objectives

Our executive compensation programs are designed to:

attract and retain key executives, align executive performance with our long-term interests and those of our shareholders, and link executive pay with performance.

Elements of Executive Compensation

The committee reviews and approves all components of executive officer compensation. The principal elements of executive compensation, other than Mr. Holmes, are:

base salary,

performance-based cash and stock bonuses,

long-term incentive awards, and other compensation and benefits.

Base Salary

Base salaries for NEOs are reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee. Generally, the salaries of NEOs are occasionally adjusted to recognize expansion of an individual's role, outstanding and sustained performance, or to bring the officer's pay into alignment with the market. We did not use any benchmarking studies in fiscal 2008 to obtain market information. In addition, the Compensation Committee did not consider the equity ownership of the Company by Mr. Holmes when setting his compensation. Nor did the committee aim for a specific relationship between Mr. Holmes and the other executive officers. Base salaries paid to NEOs during the fiscal year are shown in the Summary Compensation Table.

Performance-Based Cash and Stock Bonuses

Executive officers, except Mr. Holmes, participate in a team performance pay program based on each employee's annual salary to recognize monthly completion of departmental goals. Additionally, key executive officers are compensated based on individual performance pay arrangements. Discretionary cash or stock bonuses are awarded from time to time for such things as completion of critical projects or outstanding performance. During fiscal 2008, stock bonuses totaling $13,900 were awarded to NEOs, which were distributed in fiscal 2009.

Table of Contents

Mr. Holmes considers a matrix of factors in reviewing the performance of, and compensation for, the chief financial officer, Catherine Rademacher. Mr. Holmes considers such things as responsibilities, productivity, results of the Company's actual versus targeted goals, hours of work, profitability of the Company, timely and accurate financial regulatory filings, unqualified Sarbanes-Oxley and audit results, and the cost of living in San Antonio.

In reviewing the performance of and compensation for the president and general counsel, Susan McGee, Mr. Holmes considers a matrix of factors including responsibilities, productivity, hours of work, profitability of the Company, timely and accurate regulatory filings, completion of regulatory examinations, and the cost of living in San Antonio. In addition to her base salary, Ms. McGee, is paid a monthly bonus based on new assets flowing through institutional accounts in recognition of her leadership and strategic guidance of the institutional sales department. Along with other senior management in the marketing and sales departments, Ms. McGee receives a monthly bonus for new accounts for her key role in supervisory responsibilities. Occasionally, Ms. McGee receives discretionary bonuses for special projects such as completion of regulatory exams or managing significant new business relationships.

Long-Term Incentive Awards

Long-term incentive awards include stock options and restricted shares. We have utilized option grants to induce qualified individuals to join us, thereby providing the individual with an opportunity to benefit if we have significant growth. Similarly, options have been utilized to reward existing employees, including NEOs, for long and faithful service and to encourage them to stay with us. The Compensation Committee administers the stock option plans.

Although the Company has no written policy for allocating between cash and equity, or current and long-term compensation for the CEO and other NEOs, the weighting has generally been in the range of less than 5 percent long-term compensation in the form of options or stock awards, with the remaining compensation in cash.

In August 1999, the board of directors approved the issuance of 1,000,000 pre-split shares of class C common stock to Mr. Holmes in recognition of his expanded duties as CIO and in exchange for cancellation of options and warrants held by Mr. Holmes. The shares vested over a ten-year period beginning with fiscal year 1998, and fully vested on June 30, 2008.

Stock Option Plans

In November 1989 the board of directors adopted the 1989 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (1989 Plan) which provides for the granting of options to purchase shares of our class A common stock to directors, officers and employees. On December 6, 1991, shareholders approved and amended the 1989 Plan to provide provisions to cause the plan and future grants under the plan to qualify under 1934 Act Rule 16b-3. The 1989 Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee consisting of three outside members of the board of directors. The maximum number of shares of class A common stock initially approved for issuance under the 1989 Plan is 1,600,000 shares. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, there were no grants. As of June 30, 2008, under this amended plan, 1,733,400 options had been granted, 883,000 options had been exercised, 850,400 options had expired, no options remained outstanding, and 717,000 options are available for grant. All options referenced reflect the 2-for-1 split in March 2007. In April 1997, the board of directors adopted the 1997 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (1997 Plan), which shareholders approved on April 25, 1997. It provides for the granting of stock appreciation rights (SARs) and/or options to purchase shares of our class A common stock to directors, officers, and employees. The 1997 Plan expressly requires that all grants under the plan qualify under 1934 Act Rule 16b-3. The 1997 Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee consisting of three outside members of the board of directors. The maximum number of shares of class A common stock initially approved for issuance under the 1997 Plan is 400,000 shares. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, three options for a total of 20,300 shares were granted. As of June 30, 2008, 574,300 options had been granted, 233,000 shares had been exercised, 264,000 options had expired, 77,300 options remained outstanding, and 89,700 options are available for grant. All options referenced reflect the 2-for-1 split in March 2007.

Other Compensation and Benefits

Health, Welfare and Retirement Benefits

Health, welfare and retirement benefits are designed to provide a safety net of protection for employees in the event of illness, disability or death, and to provide employees an opportunity to accumulate retirement savings.

We offer a range of health and welfare benefits to substantially all employees, including the NEOs. These benefits include medical, dental, vision, prescription drug, short-term disability, group life and accidental death insurance, tuition reimbursement, and a free health club membership.

401(k) Plan

We offer a 401(k) plan covering substantially all employees, including NEOs. Participants may contribute, on a pretax basis, their base salary and cash incentive compensation, up to a limit imposed by the Internal Revenue Code, which is $15,500 in calendar year 2008. An additional catch-up pretax contribution of up to $5,000 is allowed for employees over 50. We automatically match 100 percent of the first 3 percent of participating employees' contributions and 50 percent of the next 2 percent of participating employees' contributions. We contribute to participants' accounts at the same time that the employee's pay deferral is made. Employees are immediately vested in both their 401(k) salary deferral contribution and the matched contributions. Participants in our 401(k) plan may allocate some or all of their contributions to a separate designated Roth account, commonly known as a Roth 401(k).

Profit Sharing

The 401(k) plan allows for us to make a discretionary profit sharing contribution, as authorized by the board of directors. Factors that are considered by the board include earnings, cash flows, capital requirements and the general financial condition of the Company. No specific performance thresholds or goals are required by the board to authorize a profit sharing contribution. Profit sharing contributions of $400,000, and $369,000 were made in fiscal years 2008 and 2007, respectively. Profit sharing contributions were made to our NEOs totaling $52,425 in fiscal 2008.

Savings Plans

We also have a program pursuant to which we offer employees an opportunity to participate in savings programs using managed investment companies. Employee contributions to an Individual Retirement Account are matched to a maximum of $100 per month for certain management-level employees, including NEOs, and a maximum of $30 for all other employees. Similarly, certain management-level employees, including NEOs, may contribute to the Tax Free Fund and we will match these contributions up to a maximum of $90 per month. A similar savings plan utilizing UGMA accounts is offered to all employees to save for the education of minor relatives and is matched at a maximum of $15 per month per child.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

We also have a program whereby eligible employees can purchase treasury shares, at market price, and we will automatically match their contribution up to 3% of gross salary. During fiscal years 2008, 2007, and 2006, employees purchased 11,147, 8,981, and 6,441 shares of treasury stock from us, respectively. The purchase price used is the closing stock price on the last business day of each month. We do not restrict the ability of our employees or directors to hedge their position in our shares. In addition, neither the board nor NEOs are required to own or purchase a certain number of shares.

The Summary Compensation Table includes the matched contributions to the plans described above for each NEO.

Perquisites and Other Benefits

We provide certain perquisites that the committee believes are reasonable and consistent with our overall compensation program to a limited number of officers. The perquisites consist of such things as club memberships for business entertainment purposes and policies for long-term disability and life insurance. The Summary Compensation Table shows the value of perquisites provided to NEOs in fiscal year 2008 in the All Other Compensation column.

Employment Agreements, Termination and Change-in Control Arrangements

We do not have any employment agreements, termination agreements, or change-in control agreements with any of our executive officers.

Compliance with Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to public corporations for compensation greater than $1 million paid during any fiscal year to our CEO and our four other most highly compensated executive officers. However, the statute exempts qualifying performance-based compensation from the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. The Compensation Committee plans to review this matter as appropriate and take action as may be necessary to preserve the deductibility of compensation payments to the extent reasonably practical and consistent with our objectives.

Compensation of Directors

The compensation of directors is subject to a minimum of $6,000 in any quarter paid in arrears. We may grant non-employee directors options under our 1989 and 1997 Stock Option Plans. Directors are reimbursed for reasonable travel expenses incurred in attending the meetings held by the board of directors. Mr. Rubinstein serves as the chairman of the board. Director compensation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008, is detailed in the table below. Columns that were not applicable were omitted.

¹ Audit fees consist of fees for professional services rendered by the principal accountant for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and internal control report and review of the financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q and for services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.

² Audit-related fees consist primarily of fees for assurance and related services by the accountant that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements.

³ Tax fees include the preparation of federal and state tax returns as well as tax planning and consultation on new tax legislation, regulations, rulings, and developments.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies

The Audit Committee has established pre-approval policies pursuant to which all audit and auditor- provided non-audit engagement fees and terms must be approved. Pre-approval is generally provided and is detailed as to the particular service or category of services. The Audit Committee is also responsible for considering, to the extent applicable, whether the independent auditors' provision of other non-audit services to the Company is compatible with maintaining the independence of the independent auditors.

All services provided by BDO Seidman, LLP in the fiscal years ended June 30, 2008, and 2007 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
