PRESS RELEASE

August 5, 2008

Capital Properties, Inc. Announces Reverse Stock Split

East Providence, Rhode Island: Today, Capital Properties, Inc. (AMEX: CPI) (the Company) announced that on July 29, 2008, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a reverse stock split with the intended goal of facilitating a going private transaction. Pending shareholder approval, this transaction would consist of a 75 to 1 reverse split of the Company's common stock. Shareholders holding less than 75 shares of the Company's common stock immediately before the reverse stock split would, in lieu of owning fractional shares, receive cash consideration from the Company on pre-split, per share basis to be determined and would no longer be shareholders of the Company. Conversely, shareholders holding 75 or more shares of the Company's common stock immediately before the reverse stock split would receive one share of the Company's common stock for each 75 shares held by them together with a cash payment for any fractional shares and continue to be shareholders of the Company.

The anticipated result of the reverse stock split would be to reduce the Company's number of shareholders of record to less than 300. The Company would then be able to terminate the registration of its common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and its listing on the American Stock Exchange. As a result, the Company's periodic reporting requirements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) would be suspended and the Company's classification as a public reporting company would cease.

The Company's Board of Directors also approved an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation to create a Class B Common Stock which would have the right, among other things, to elect two-thirds of the Board of Directors. The Company's shareholders will be asked to approve these proposals at a special meeting of the shareholders, expected to be held before year end.

This release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements represent the Company's present expectations or beliefs concerning future events. The Company cautions that such statements are necessarily based on certain assumptions which are subject to risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, changes in general economic conditions and changing competition which could cause actual future results to differ materially from those indicated herein. Further information on these risk factors is included in the Company's filings with the SEC.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Company will file a definitive proxy statement and Schedule 13E-3 with the SEC outlining the reverse stock split and the going private transaction, along with the creation of the Class B Common Stock. All shareholders are advised to carefully read the definitive proxy statement and Schedule 13E-3 when available as such documents will contain important information. Once available, shareholders may obtain a free copy of the proxy statement and Schedule 13E-3 at the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov. Prior to the upcoming special meeting, the Company will also mail a copy of the definitive proxy statement to all shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting.

INFORMATION REGARDING PARTICIPANTS

Detailed information regarding the names, affiliations and interests of individuals who are participants in the solicitation of proxies of the Company's shareholders is available on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 5, 2008.
