Item 1.01. Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 15, 2004, Cerner Corporation (the Company) and VitalWorks Inc. (Seller) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) providing for the sale to Company of assets related to: (a) Seller s medical business, consisting of delivering and supporting physician practice management, electronic medical record, electronic data interchange and emergency department information solutions and related products and services to physician practices, hospital emergency departments, management service organizations and other related entities (which does not include radiology practices markets, hospital operations outside the emergency department, including radiology departments, ambulatory imaging centers and specialty practices that deal with medical images), and (b) Seller s anesthesiology business, (collectively, the Business).

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, and as consideration for the sale of the acquired assets constituting the Business, at the closing of the transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement: (a) Company will pay to Seller $100 million in cash, subject to a post-closing working capital price adjustment, and (b) Company will assume specified liabilities of the Business and obligations under assigned contracts and intellectual property related to the Business.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of the parties; closing and termination provisions; and, the parties agreement to indemnify each other in general for damages resulting from a breach of warranty or nonfulfillment of an obligation under the Purchase Agreement, generally within eighteen months after the closing date. With limited exceptions, the Purchase Agreement prohibits the Seller and its subsidiaries from competing with the Company for five years after the date of closing with respect to the Business. Closing of the transaction is subject to the expiration or early termination of the waiting period provided for in the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and satisfaction of other customary preclosing conditions. Closing is expected to be consummated during the first quarter of 2005.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be a complete statement of the parties rights and obligations under that agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The above description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement which is filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

The Company issued a press release on November 16, 2004, announcing the parties execution of the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the press release is furnished with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The information contained in Item 7.01 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (including Exhibit 99.2) is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise be subject to the liabilities of that section. The information in this Item 7.01 (including Exhibit 99.2) shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, except as otherwise expressly stated in such filing.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
