PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Wintrust Financial Corporation (the Company) files this report for a 15 day extension, from March 16 to March 31, 2006, for filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2005. The Company will not file its Form 10-K by March 16, 2006 because it will be unable to complete the preparation of its consolidated financial statements and the work required to complete management's assessment of internal controls over financial reporting by the initial filing date without unreasonable effort or expense as a result of an unresolved interpretation regarding the application of certain hedge accounting treatment under paragraph 65 of SFAS No. 133 (commonly referred to as the short-cut method). Recently, information has come to the Company's attention which has cause management to re-evaluate the Company's use of the short-cut method for certain interest rate swaps on its trust preferred securities and subordinated debt. The Company is conducting a detailed analysis of its use of the short-cut method in light of these developing interpretations, including extensive discussions with its independent registered public accounting firm. Should the Company and its Audit Committee determine that the Company's use of the short-cut method was, in light of new interpretations, not appropriate, the Company will have to restate (the Potential Restatement) its unaudited interim financial statements as of and for each of the quarters ended March 31, June 30 and September 30, 2005 included in the Company's Forms 10-Q for such quarters and revise its unaudited financial information for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2005, which was previously reported in the Company's January 19, 2006 press release and February 2006 letter to shareholders. The Company anticipates that it will be able to file its complete Annual Report on Form 10-K, including the Potential Restatement, by March 31, 2006.

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

No  Yes

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

No  Yes

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

On January 19, 2006, the Company announced preliminary unaudited results for the year ended December 31, 2005. These results do not reflect the Potential Restatement and are subject to change as a result of any adjustments arising from the Potential Restatement, subsequent events and the completion of the audit of the financial statements by the Company's independent auditors. The Company reported net income of $68.1 million, or $2.80 per diluted common share, for the year 2005, compared to net income of $51.3 million, or $2.34 per diluted common share, for the year 2004. Total assets rose to $8.18 billion at December 31, 2005 from $6.42 billion at December 31, 2004. Total deposits rose to $6.73 billion at December 31, 2005 compared to $5.10 billion at December 31, 2004. Should the Company implement the Potential Restatement, it currently estimates that the Potential Restatement would decrease the previously reported 2005 net income to approximately $67.02 million, 2005 earnings per diluted common share to $2.75 and have no effect on total assets or deposits at December 31, 2005. If the Potential Restatement occurs, the impact on the Company's first quarter of 2006 is expected to more than offset the Potential Restatement's negative effect in 2005 and the cumulative impact through the date of the Potential Restatement is expected to be an increase in net income and earnings per share. The Company will not know the precise impact on the first quarter of 2006 until a determination is made regarding whether the Potential Restatement is required.
