QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS RELATING TO THE 2008 ANNUAL MEETING

Why did I receive these materials?

Our shareholders as of the close of business on September 29, 2008, which we refer to as the Record Date, are entitled to vote at our Annual Meeting of shareholders, which will be held on November 11, 2008. As a shareholder, you are invited to attend the annual meeting and are requested to vote on the items of business described in this proxy statement. We are required to distribute these proxy materials to all shareholders as of the Record Date. This proxy statement provides notice of the Meeting of shareholders and includes information about the proposals. The accompanying proxy card enables shareholders to vote on the matters without having to attend the annual meeting in person.

Who is entitled to vote at the Meeting?

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of and to participate in the annual meeting. If you were a shareholder of record on the Record Date, you will be entitled to vote all of the shares that you held on that date at the Meeting, or any postponements or adjournments of the Meeting.

How many votes do I have?

You will be entitled to one vote for each outstanding share of our common stock you own as of the Record Date. As of the Record Date, there were 15,790,810 shares of our common stock outstanding and eligible to vote.

How many shares must be present or represented to conduct business at the Meeting?

The presence at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the aggregate voting power of the Company's common shares outstanding on the Record Date will constitute a quorum, permitting the conduct of business at the Meeting. Based on the number of shares of our common stock outstanding on the Record Date, the presence of the holders of our common stock representing at least 7,895,406 votes will be required to establish a quorum.

Proxies received but marked as abstentions, votes withheld and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of votes considered present at the Meeting.

How can I vote my shares in person at the Meeting?

Shares held in your name as the shareholder of record may be voted by you in person at the Meeting. Shares held by you beneficially in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee may be voted by you in person at the Meeting only if you obtain a legal proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds your shares giving you the right to vote the shares.

How can I vote my shares without attending the Meeting?

Whether you hold shares directly as the shareholder of record or beneficially in street name, you may direct how your shares are voted without attending the Meeting. If you are a shareholder of record (that is, if your shares are registered directly in your name with our transfer agent), you must complete and properly sign and date the accompanying proxy card and return it to us and it will be voted as you direct. A pre-addressed envelope is included for your use and is postage paid if mailed in the United States. If you are a shareholder of record and attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. If you hold shares beneficially in street name, you may vote by submitting voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee.

Can I vote by telephone or electronically?

If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote by telephone, or electronically through the Internet, by following the instructions included in your proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, please check your proxy card or contact your broker, bank or other nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote by telephone or electronically and the deadline for such voting.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

Yes. If you are a shareholder of record, you may revoke or change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised by delivering to our Secretary at the address shown at the beginning of this proxy statement a notice of revocation, or by signing a proxy card bearing a later date or by attending the Meeting and voting in person.

For shares you hold beneficially in street name, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee or, if you have obtained a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee giving you the right to vote your shares, by attending the Meeting and voting in person. In either case, the powers of the proxy holders will be suspended if you attend the Meeting in person and so request, although attendance at the Meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

Who counts the votes?

Votes will be counted and certified by the Inspectors of Election, who are employees of Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (CTC), Deswell's transfer agent. If you are a shareholder of record, your signed proxy card is returned directly to CTC for tabulation. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, your broker, bank or other nominee will return one proxy card to CTC on behalf of its clients.

What are the Board of Directors' recommendations?

The Board of Directors' recommendation is set forth together with the description of each item in this proxy statement. In summary, the Board of Directors recommends FOR the election of directors named in this proxy statement and FOR the ratification of the selection of BDO McCabe Lo Limited as Deswell's independent registered public accountants for the year ending March 31, 2009.

Will shareholders be asked to vote on any other matters?

To the knowledge of the Company and its management, shareholders will vote only on the matters described in this proxy statement. However, if any other matters properly come before the Meeting, the persons named as proxies for shareholders will vote on those matters in the manner they consider appropriate.

Who will serve as Chairman of the Meeting?

Under our Articles of Association, as amended, the Chairman of the Board of Directors serves as Chairman of our Shareholders Meetings unless he is not present at the meeting, in which case our Chief Executive Officer serves as Chairman of the Shareholders Meeting. Articles of Association of a business company like Deswell organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands are comparable to a U.S. company's bylaws. As Mr. Richard Lau, is not expected to be in attendance at our 2008 Annual Meeting, Mr. Franki S. F. Tse, Deswell's Chief Executive Officer, will serve as Chairman at our 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

What vote is required to approve each item?

Election of Directors. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting is required for the election of directors (Proposal 1). A properly executed proxy marked WITHHOLD with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

Other Matters. For the proposal to ratify the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm for our year ending March 31, 2009 (Proposal 2), the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the item will be required for approval.

A properly executed proxy marked abstain with respect to any matter will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote.

How are votes counted?

In the election of directors (Proposal 1), you may vote FOR all or some of the nominees or your vote may be marked WITHHOLD with respect to one or more of the nominees. You may not cumulate your votes for the election of directors.

For Proposal 2, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. If you elect to ABSTAIN, the abstention has the same effect as a vote AGAINST. If you provide specific instructions with regard to certain items, your shares will be voted as you instruct on such items.

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee rather than directly in your own name, then your broker, bank or other nominee is considered the shareholder of record, and you are considered the beneficial owner of your shares. We have supplied copies of our proxy statement to the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares of record, and they have the responsibility to send it to you. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares at the Meeting. The broker, bank or other nominee that is the shareholder of record for your shares is obligated to provide you with a voting instruction card for you to use for this purpose. If you hold your shares in a brokerage account but you fail to return your voting instruction card to your broker, your shares may constitute broker non-votes. Generally, broker non-votes occur on a matter when a broker is not permitted to vote on that matter without instructions from the beneficial owner and instructions are not given. Broker non-votes are counted in determining whether a quorum is present. However, in tabulating the voting results for any particular proposal, shares that constitute broker non-votes are not considered present and entitled to vote on that proposal.

If a quorum is present at the Meeting, the persons receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected to serve as directors. As a result, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the voting on the election of directors (Proposal 1).

The ratification of the appointment of our independent auditors (Proposal 2) requires the affirmative vote of a majority of our shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Because of the interpretation of certain rules of the New York Stock Exchange that are applicable to brokers in determining whether they may or may not vote on proposals, brokers might not vote on the proposal for ratification of the appointment of Deswell's independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 2). If brokers do not receive instructions from the beneficial owners, do not vote on Proposal 2 but nevertheless return the signed proxies without voting, a broker non-vote on that Proposal would occur and would not be counted for purposes of determining whether the selection of BDO McCabe Lo Limited as Deswell's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending March 31, 2009 has been ratified.

If you are a beneficial owner and your broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares in its name, the broker, bank or other nominees may or may not vote your shares in the election of directors (Proposal 1) or the ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 2). Thus, without your voting instructions, a broker non-vote would occur unless the broker, bank or other nominees votes on these proposals.

What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you may receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a shareholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive.

Deswell's audit committee consists of Messrs. Mr. Allen Yau-Nam Cham currently acts as the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Other Committees; Nasdaq Compliance

In August 2005, Deswell determined to disband and no longer have either a compensation committee or a nominating committee as the law of the British Virgin Islands, Deswell's place of organization, and Deswell's Memorandum and Articles of Association do not require it to have such committees. Although such committees, consisting of independent directors as defined by the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules, are required of domestic companies having securities included on The Nasdaq Stock Market, they are not required of foreign private issuers such as Deswell if such issuers follow their home country practice. In addition to not having a compensation committee or a nominating committee consisting of independent directors, Deswell also follows home country practice of not having nominees to its board selected or recommended by a majority of its independent directors; a majority of its Board of Directors are not independent directors within the definition of independent director in the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules and Deswell's independent directors do not meet in executive session.

Certain Related Party Transactions

In August 2007, Deswell acquired the remaining 24% minority interest of Integrated International Limited (Integrated), the holding company for Deswell's electronics and metallic subsidiaries. The aggregate purchase price for the 24% interest was $6,734,378, consisting of (a) 632,080 common shares of Deswell (based on the closing price per share of Deswell's shares on August 17, 2008) and (b) a cash payment of HK$3,234,180 (approximately US$413,578) to Messrs. S. K. Lee and M. C. Tam, the minority shareholders of Integrated and Deswell's Director of Administration and Marketing for Electronic Operations and Director of Engineering and Manufacturing for Electronic Operations, respectively, and executive officers of Deswell. Messrs. Lee and Tam agreed with respect to the shares issued to them by Deswell that for a period of 15 months from the closing of that transaction not to offer to sell, contract to sell, or otherwise sell, dispose of, loan, pledge or grant any rights with respect to any of the Deswell shares they acquired for their Integrated interest or grant any options or warrants to purchase any of those shares or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for those shares otherwise than as a bona fide gift or gifts, provided the donee or donees thereof agree in writing to be bound by the lockup restriction, or (ii) with the prior written consent of Deswell. The lockup period expires in November 2009.

During the years ended March 31, 2007 and 2008, while Integrated was a 76 percent-owned subsidiary of Deswell, Integrated made distributions to its shareholders, including Deswell, aggregating approximately $2,425,000 and $nil, with Messrs. Tam and Lee's share of these distributions (which were divided between them equally) amounting to $582,000 and $nil, respectively.

Since Deswell completed its initial public offering in the United States, it has been Deswell's policy that all transactions between Deswell and any interested director or executive officer be approved by a majority of the disinterested directors and be on terms that are no more favorable than would be available from an independent third party.
