State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

On May 27, 2005, Fab Industries, Inc. (the "Company") transferred substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the Fab Industries Trust (the "Trust"), which became the Company's successor. As a result of the transfer and delays associated with the transition between the Trust and the Company, the Trust will not be able to timely file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 28, 2005 without unreasonable effort or expense.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

Edgar Filing: FAB INDUSTRIES TRUST - Form NT 10-Q

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Under the Company's plan of liquidation, the Company transferred its assets and liabilities to the Trust on May 30, 2005. Because (i) the Trust will have no operations or business other than engaging in an orderly liquidation of its assets and preserving the value of its assets for such liquidation, and (ii) the Trust will report the value of its assets on a liquidation basis in its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the thirteen weeks ended May 28, 2005, rather than a going-concern basis (where the Company reported the value of its assets on a going-concern basis in the thirteen weeks ended May 29, 2004), the Trust's reported results of operations for the thirteen weeks ended May 28, 2005 will be substantially different from those for the thirteen weeks ended May 29, 2004. The Trust is not currently able to make a reasonable estimate of those results because of delays associated with the transition from the Company to the Trust.
