State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As a result of disruptions in administrative activities caused by the impact of Hurricane Ivan on the Cayman Islands, the Registrant is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2004 within the prescribed period. The additional time required to file the Form 10-Q is necessary to ensure the filing of a complete and accurate Form 10-Q. The Registrant believes that the Form 10-Q will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the due date.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? x Yes o No

As a result of Hurricane Ivan, the Registrant suffered damage to its seawater conversion plants on the Cayman Islands, which are covered by property insurance. Under generally accepted accounting principles, the Registrant is required to record the loss of any property, which must be replaced, in the period the loss occurs and record any gain from the related insurance claim only when it is realized. Consequently, it is anticipated that such write-off may result in the Registrant recording a loss for the third quarter ended September 30, 2004. At the time of this filing, the Registrant is still in the process of determining the extent of the damage to its plants and equipment and is unable to determine the amount of loss to be recorded, if any. The resulting loss, if any, for the quarter is expected to be offset in future periods when the Registrant receives proceeds under its insurance policies.
